¶ All the bokes of the newe Teſtament are conteyned in tytle therof.

¶ A prologue expreſſynge what is ment by certayne ſygnes and tokens that we haue ſet in the Byble.

FIrſt/where as often tymes ye ſhall fynde a Romayne letter in the texte, it ſygnifieth that ſo moche as is in the Romayne letter doth abounde, and is more in the comon tranſlacyon in Latyn, then is founde eyther in the Hebrue or in the Greke, whiche wordes and ſentences we haue added, not onely to manifeſt the ſame vnto you, but alſo to ſatiſfye and content thoſe, that here before tyme, hath myſſed ſoche ſentences in the Bybles and newe Teſtamentes before ſet forthe. Moreouer, where as ye fynde this ſygne ✠, it betokeneth a diuerſyte and difference of readyng bytwene the Hebrues and the Chaldees in the ſame place, which diuerſités of readyng we were purpoſed to haue ſet forth particulerly vnto you. But for ſo moche as they are very long and tedious, and this volume is very great & houge alredye, we haue therfore at this tyme lefte them out, truſtynge hereafter to ſet them forth in ſome lytell volume by them ſelues.

¶ We haue alſo (as ye maye ſe) added many handes both in the mergent of this volume, & alſo in the texte, vpon the whiche we purpoſed to haue made in the ende of the Byble (in a table by them ſelues) certayne godly annotacions: but for ſo moche as yet there hath not bene ſufficient tyme miniſtred to the kynges moſt honourable counſell, for the ouerſyght and correccyon of the ſayde annotacyons, we wyll therfore omyt them, tyll theyr more conueniente leaſure. Doyng now nomore but beſeke the moſt gentle reader, that whē thou commeſt at ſoche a place where the hande doth ſtande (or any other where, in the Byble) & thou canſt not attayne to the meanynge & true knowledge of that ſentence, then do not raſhly preſume to make any priuate interpretacion therof: but ſubmyt thy ſelfe to the iudgement of thoſe that are godly learned in Chriſt Jeſus. To the whiche Chriſt Jeſu be honour and prayſe for euer. Amen.

¶ The fyrſte Booke of Moſes called in the hebrue Bereſchith:
and in the latyn Geneſis.

¶ The creacyon of the worlde.

¶ By the worde all thynges be create of God, of mans creacion, rule, and ſuſtenaunce.

And God ſayde: Let there be made lyght, and there was lyght made. And god ſaw the lyght, that it was good. And God made a diuiſion bytwene the lyght and darkeneſſe. And God called the lyght, daye, & the darkeneſſe called he, nyght. And the euenynge and the mornyng was made one daye. And God ſayd: Let there be a firmament in the myddes of the waters, and let it make a diuiſion bytwene waters and waters. And god made the firmament, and ſet a diuiſyon bytwene waters, whiche were vnder the firmament and bytwene the waters that were aboue the firmament. And it was ſo done. And god called the firmament, Heuen. The euenyng alſo and the mornyng was made the ſecond day.

And god ſayd: * Let the waters vnder heuen be gathered togyther in to one place, that the drye lande maye be ſene. And ſo it came to paſſe. And god called the drye lande earth: and the gatherynge togyther of waters called he the ſees. And god ſaw that it was good

B And god ſayd: Let the earth brynge forth grene herbe/which may engendre ſeede: and fruytful tree, yeldyng fruyte after his kynd, whoſe ſeede may be in it ſelfe vpon the earth. And ſo it was done. And the earth brought forth grene herbe, makynge ſeede, after his kynde, & the tree yeldyng fruyte whoſe ſeede was in it ſelfe after his kynd. And God ſawe that it was good. The euenyng, alſo and the mornyng was made the thyrde day. And god ſayd: * let there be made lyghtes in the firmament of heuen, & let them make a dyfference bytwene the day & the night, & let them be for ſygnes, & for appoynted ſeaſons, dayes, and yeres. And let them be for lyghtes in the firmament of heuen, that they maye gyue lyght vpon the earth. And ſo it was done. And god made * two great lyghtes: A greater lyght to rule the day, & a leſſe lyght to rule the nyght. (And he made) ſterres alſo. And God ſet them in the firmament of heuen, that they myght gyue lyght vpon the earth, and that they myght rule the daye & the nyght, and to make a difference bytwene the lyght and the darkeneſſe. And God ſawe that it was good. The euenynge alſo/and the mornynge was made the fourth daye.

C And God ſayde: * Let the waters brynge forth mouynge creature that hath lyfe, and foule that maye flee vpõ the earth in the face of the firmament of heuen. And god created great whales, and euery lyuynge & mouyng creature, which the waters brought forth after theyr kynde, and euery fethered foule after theyr kynde. And God ſawe that it was good. And god bleſſed them, ſayeng. Growe and increaſe and fyll the waters of the See, and let fethered foules be multiplyed in the earth. The euenyng alſo and the mornynge was made the fyfth day. And God ſayd: Let the earth brynge forth lyuynge creature after his kynde, catell worme, & beaſte of the earth after his kynde, and ſo it came to paſſe. And God made the beaſt of the earthe after his kynde, and catel after theyr kynde, and euery thynge that crepeth vpon the earth after his kynde. And god ſawe that it was good.

D And god ſayde: Let vs make man in our ymage after our lykenes, and let them haue rule ouer the fyſſhe of the See, & ouer foule of the ayre, and ouer catell, & ouer the earth, & ouer al thyng, that crepeth vpon the earth. And ſo god created man in his owne ymage, in the ymage of God created he hym: male, and female created he them. And god bleſſed them, and God ſayde vnto them: Growe and increace, and replenyſſhe the earth, and ſubdue it/and haue dominyon ouer the fyſſhe of the See, and ouer foule of the ayre, and ouer euery lyuynge thyng that moueth vpon the earth. And God ſayde: Beholde, I haue gyuen you euery herbe bearyng ſeede, which is in the vpper face of al the earth: and euery tree in the whiche is fruyte of tree/and that beareth ſeed, that they may be meat for you. And vnto euery beaſt of the earth, & to euery byrde of the ayre, and to euery ſuche thynge as crepeth vpõ the earth (wherin is a lyuyng ſoule) I haue gyuen all greneſſe of herbe for meate. And ſo it was done. And * God ſawe euery thyng that he had made, & beholde: it was exceadynge good. The euenynge alſo, and the mornynge was made the ſyxte daye.

A The heuen alſo and the earth were fynyſſhed, and all the hooſt of them. And in the ſeuenth daye god ended his worke, which he had made. ✠ And in the ſeuenth day he reſted from all his worke whiche he had made. And God bleſſed the ſeuenth day, and ſanctified it, bycauſe that in it he had reſted from all his worke, whiche God created to make. These are the generacions of the heuens and of the earth when they were created in the daye when the Lorde God made the earth, and the heuens, and euery plant of the felde, before it was in the earth, and euery herbe of the feld, before it grew. For the lorde god had not cauſed it to rayne vpō the earth, neyther was there a man to tyll the ground. And there went vp a myſt from the erth, and watred the hoole face of the grounde.

Hebre.iiii.b

The Lorde God alſo ✠ ſhope man, euen duſt of the grounde, & brethed in to his noſethrylls the breth of lyfe, & Adam was made a lyuyng ſoule. Moreouer the lorde god planted a garden in Eden from the eaſt and there he put man, whome he had made. Alſo out of the grounde made the Lorde God to growe, euery tree that was pleaſaunt to the ſyght, & cōmodious for meate. And the ✠ tree of lyfe, and the tree of knowledge of good & of euyl, was in the myddes of the garden.

The name of the ſeconde ryuer, is Gihon, the ſame is it that cōpaſſeth the hole lande of Ethiopia. The name of the thyrde ryuer is Hydekel, and it goeth towarde the eaſt ſyde of Aſſyria. C Euphrates. And ſo the lord god toke Adam, and put hym in to the garden of Eden, that he myght dreſſe and kepe it. And the Lorde God commaunded Adam, ſayenge: Eatynge, thou ſhalte eate of euery tree of the garden. But of the tree of knowledge of good & euyl, thou ſhalt not eate of it. For in what day ſoeuer thou eateſt thereof, thou ſhalte dye the deeth. And agayne, the Lorde God ſayde. It is not good that Adam ſhulde be alone, I wyll make hym an helpe / whiche maye be preſent with hym. And ſo out of the grounde ſhope the Lorde god euery beaſt of the felde, and euery foule of the ayre, and brought it vnto the man: that he myght ſe, how he wold call it. For lykewyſe as man hym ſelfe named euery lyuynge thynge, euen ſo was the name therof. Man hym ſelfe therfore named

D the names vnto all catell, and foule of the ayre, and to euery beaſt of the felde: And for man founde he not an helpe, that myght be preſent with hym. The Lorde God alſo cauſed a ſlomber to fall vpon Adam, & he ſlepte. And he toke one of his rybbes, and cloſed vp the fleſhe in ſteade therof. And the ryb which the Lorde God had taken from man / ✠ made he a woman, and brought her vnto the man. And the man ſayde. This is nowe boone of my bones / and fleſhe of my fleſhe, ſhe ſhall be called woman, bycauſe ſhe was taken out of man. For this cauſe ſhall a man leaue his father, and his mother, and ſhall be ioyned with his wyfe / and they ✠ ſhall become one fleſhe. In the ſweate of thy face ſhalte thou eate breade, tyll thou be turned agayne in to the grounde, for out of it was thou taken, in as moche as thou * arte duſt, & in to duſt ſhalte thou be turned agayne. And the Lorde God ſent hym forth from the garden of Eden, to dreſſe the ground that he was taken out of. And ſo he droue out man, and at the Eaſt ſyde of the garden of Eden, he ſet Cherubim, and the glyſterynge flambe of a ſhakyng ſwerde, to kepe the way of the tree of lyfe.

CAPI. IIII.

A Adam knewe Eua his wyfe. Who conceyuynge, bare Cain, ſayenge. I haue gotten a man of the Lorde. And ſhe procedynge forth, brought forth his brother Abel, and Abell was a ſhepherde. But Cain was a tyller of the grounde. And in proceſſe of dayes it came to paſſe, that Cain brought of the frupte of the grounde an oblacyon unto the Lorde. Abell alſo brought of the fyrſtlynges of the ſhepe, and of the fat therof. And the Lorde had reſpecte unto * Abell, and to his oblacyõ. Job. 34. But unto Cain / and to his offerynge he had no reſpect. For the which cauſe Cain was exceadynge wrothe, and his countenaunce abated. And the Lorde ſayde unto Cain, why arte thou wrothe, and why is thy countenaunce abated? Yf thou do well, ſhall there not be a promocyon. And yf thou doeſt not well, lyeth not thy ſyn in the dores? Unto the alſo perteyneth the luſt therof, and thou ſhalt haue dominyõ ouer it. And Cain ſpake unto Abell his brother. (let vs go forth)

And Cain wente out from the face of the Lorde, and dwelte in the lande Nod, Eaſtwarde from Eden.

Cain alſo knewe his wyfe, whiche conceyued and bare Enoch, and buyldyng a cytie, he called the name of the ſame cytie after the name of his ſonne Enoch. Unto the ſame

Then began they to make inuocacyon in the

And it came to paſſe, that man began A

the earth in thoſe dayes, yea ⁊ after that the ſonnes of God came vnto the doughters of men, ⁊ they had gendred vnto them: the ſame became myghtye men of the worlde, and men of renowne. But god ſawe that the malice of man was great in the earth/ ⁊ al the ymagynacyon of the thoughtes of his * herte was onely euyll euery daye. ene viii.d i.Ma.xv.c And it repented the Lorde, that he had made man in the earth, ⁊ he was touched with ſorow in his herte. And the Lorde ſayde: I wyll (from the vpper face of the earthe) deſtroye man, whome I haue created bothe man, catell/ worme/ and foule of the ayre, for it repenteth me that I haue made them. But Noah founde grace in the B eyes of the lorde. These are the generacions of Noah. Eccl.44.b enesi.v.c * Noah was a iuſt and a perfecte man in his generacions/ and * walked with God. Noah begat thre ſonnes: Sem, Ham, ⁊ Iapheth. The earth alſo was corrupte before god, and the ſame earth was fylled with crueltye. And god loked vpon the earth/ and beholde, it was corrupt. For all fleſſhe had corrupte his way vpon earth.

And God ſayde vnto Noah: The ende of all fleſſhe is come before me/ for the earth is fylled with crueltye frõ the face of them. And beholde, I wyl deſtroye them with the earth: Make the an Arke of pyne trees. Habitacyons ſhalte thou make in the Arke, and ſhalte pytch it within and without with pytch. And of this faſſiõ ſhalt thou make it. The length C of the Arke ſhalbe thre hũdred cubites. The bredth of it, fyftye cubites, and the heyght of it thyrtye cubites. A wyndowe ſhalte thou make in the Arke, and in a cubite ſhalt thou fynyſſhe it aboue, but the doore of the Arke ſhalt thou ſet in the ſyde therof. With iii. loftes one aboue another ſhalt ꝧ make it. And beholde, I, euen I, do brynge a floud of waters vpon the earth, that I may deſtroy al fleſſhe wherin is the breth of lyfe vnder heuen: And euery thing that is in the erth, ſhal dye. With ene.ix.b en.xvii.a the alſo wyll I make my * couenaũt, ⁊ thou ſhalt come in to the Arke, thou, ⁊ thy ſonnes, thy wyfe, ⁊ thy ſonnes wyues wt the. And of D euery lyuynge thyng, ⁊ of all fleſſhe, a payre of euery one ſhalt ꝧ brynge in to the Arke, to kepe them alyue with the. They ſhalbe male, ⁊ female. Of fethred foules alſo after theyr kynde, and of catel after their kynde, of euery worme of the erth after his kynd, two of euery one ſhall come vnto the, that thou mayſt kepe them alyue. And take thou with the of all meate that is eaten, and thou ſhalte laye it vp with the, that it maye be meate for the, and them. Noah therfore dyd accordynge vnto all that God cõmmaunded hym/ euen ſo dyd he.

¶ The entraunce of Noe, and of them that were with hym in to the Arke. The ſprynges of the floude, wherthrow all thynges dyd peryſſhe.

CAPI. VII.

AND the Lorde ſayd vnto Noah: Come A thou and all thy houſe in to the Arke, for the haue I ſene * ryghteous before ii.peter.ii.b Eccli.44.d me in this generacyon. Of euery * cleane beaſt thou ſhalte take with the ſeuen ⁊ ſeuen. The male ⁊ his female. But of vnclene catel two, the male, ⁊ his female. Of foules alſo of the ayre/ ſeuen ⁊ ſeuen, the male and the female, to kepe ſeed alyue vpõ the face of al the hoole earth. For yet after ſeuen dayes I wyl rayne vpon the earth fortye dayes, ⁊ fortye nyghtes. And al ſubſtaũce that I haue made wyll I deſtroye from the vpper face of the earth. Noah therfore dyd accordyng vnto all B that God cõmaunded hym. And Noah was ſixe hundred yeares, ⁊ the * floude of waters Mat.24.d Luke.xvii.c was vpon the erth. And Noah came (and his ſonnes, ⁊ his wyfe, ⁊ his ſonnes wyues with hym) vnto the Arke, bicauſe of the waters of the floude. Of cleane catell, ⁊ of vncleane catell, ⁊ of flyeng foules, and of euery ſuche as crepeth vpon the earth, there came two, and two vnto Noah into the Arke, the male ⁊ the female, as God had commaunded Noah. It fortuned alſo after ſeuen dayes, ⁊ the waters of the floud were vpon the earth. In the ſixe hundred yeare of Noes lyfe, in the ſecond moneth, the ſeuenth daye of the moneth. In the ſame day were all the foũtaynes of the great depe broken vp, and the wyndowes of heuen were opened. And the rayne was vpon the C earth fortye dayes, and fortye nyghtes. In the ſelfe ſame day entred Noah, Sem, Ham and Iapheth the ſonnes of Noah, ⁊ Noahs wyfe, ⁊ the thre wyues of his ſonnes wt them in to the Arke: They ⁊ euery beaſt after his kynde/ ⁊ all catell after theyr kynde, yea and euery worme that crepeth vpon the earth after his kynde/ ⁊ euery byrde after his kynde/ and euery flienge and fethred foule.

And they came vnto Noah in to the Arke two, and two, of al fleſſhe wherin is the breth of lyfe. And they entrynge in, came male, and female of all fleſſhe, as God had cõmaũded hym. And the Lorde ſhut hym in rounde aboute. And the * floude came fortye dayes Sapi.x.a vpon the earth, ⁊ the waters were increaced, and bare vp the Arke, whiche was lyfte vp aboue the earth. The waters alſo preuayled, and were increaſed exceadyngly vpõ the erth, ⁊ the Arke floted on the vpper face of the waters. And the waters preuayled exceadyngly tongues, countrees, and in theyr nacions.

Unto Sem alſo the father of all the chyldren of Eber (and elder brother of Japheth) there were chyldren borne. The chyldren of Sem: Elam and Aſſur, Arphachſad/ ⁊ Lud, D ⁊ Aram. The chyldren of Aram: Hus, ⁊ Hull, i.Para.i.d Gether, ⁊ Mas. * Arphachſad begat Selah, ⁊ Selah begat Eber. Unto Eber alſo were borne two ſonnes: The name of the one was Peleg, for in his dayes was the earth deuyded. And his brothers name was Jaketan. Jaketan begat Almodad, and Saleph, Hazermaueth, and Jerah, and Hodoran, and Uzall/ and Dickla/ Obal alſo/ and Abimael and Scheba, and Ophir, and Hauila, and Jobab. All theſe were the chyldren of Jaketan. And theyr dwellynge was from Meſa, as thou goeſt vnto Sephar a mounteyne of the eaſt. Theſe are the chyldre of Sem after theyr kynreds, and tongues in theyr landes, and nacions. And ſo theſe are the kynreddes of chyldre of Noah/ after theyr generacions in theyr peoples, and of theſe were the nacyons deuided in the earth after the floude.

¶ The buyldynge of Babell. The confuſyon of tongues. The generacion of Sem the ſon of Noe, vntyl Abram, which goeth with Lot vnto Haran.

CAPI. XI.

A ALL the hole earth was of one language, and lyke ſpeche. And it happened when they went forth frõ the eaſt, they found a playne in the lande of Sinhar, and there they abode. And they ſayde euery one to his neyghbour: Come/ let vs prepare bryck, and burne them in the fyre. And they had brycke for ſtone, ⁊ ſlyme had they in ſtead of morter. And they ſayd. Go to, let vs buylde vs a citie and a tower, whoſe toppe maye reache vnto heuen/ ⁊ let vs make vs a name, leeſt haply we be ſcatred abrode in to the vpper face of the hoole earth. But the Lorde came downe, to ſe the citye, and tower whiche the chyldren of men buylded.

And the Lorde ſayde: Beholde, the people is one, and they haue al one language, and this they bygyn to do, neyther wyll it be reſtrayned from them, whatſoeuer they haue ymagyned to do. Come on, let vs go downe, and B confounde there theyr language, that euery one perceyue not his neyghbours ſpeche.

And ſo the Lorde ſcatred them frõ that place in to the vpper face of all the earth. And they lefte of to buyld the citye. And therfore is the name of it called * Babel, bycauſe the Lorde Geneſi.x.b dyd there confounde the language of all the Confuſyon. earth. And from thence dyd the Lorde ſcater them abrode vpon the face of all the earth.

Theſe are the generacions of Sem: Sem was an hũdred yere old, ⁊ begat Arphachſad two yeare after the floude. And Sem lyued (after he begat Arphachſad) fyue hundred yeares, and begat ſonnes, and doughters.

Arphachſad lyued fyue and thyrtye yeres And begat Selah. And Arphachſad lyued (after he begat Selah) foure hundred, and thre yeares/ and begat ſonnes, and doughters. Selah lyued thyrtye yeares/ and begat Eber. And Selah lyued (after he begat Eber) foure hundred and thre yeares, and begat ſonnes and doughters.

C • Eber lyued foure and thyrtye yeares, and begat Peleg. And Eber lyued (after he begat Peleg) foure hundred/ and thyrtye yeres and begat ſonnes, and doughters.

Peleg lyued thyrtye yeares, and begat Reu. And Peleg lyued (after he begat Reu) two hundred and nyne yeres, ⁊ begat ſonnes and doughters.

Reu lyued two and thirtye yeares, and begat Serug. And Reu lyued (after he begat Serug) two hundred and ſeuen yeares, and begat ſonnes and doughters.

Serug lyued thyrtye yeares, and begat Nahor. And Serug lyued (after he begat Nahor) two hundred yeares, and begat ſonnes and doughters.

D And Nahor lyued nyne ⁊ twentye yeares and begat Terah. And Nahor lyued (after he begat Terah) an hundred and nynetene yeares/ and begat ſonnes and douhhters.

Terah lyued ſeuentene yeares/ and begat Abram, Nahor/ and Haran.

Theſe are the generacions of * Terah: i.Para.i. Terah begat Abram, Nahor, ⁊ Harã. Haran Joſue.24.a begat Lot. And Haran dyed in the preſẽce of Terah his father/ in the land of his natiuyte euen in Ur of the Caldees. Abram/ and Nahor toke them wyues. The name of Abrams wyfe was Sarai, and the name of Nahors wyfe was Milca, the doughter of Haran the father of Milca/ ⁊ the father of Jiſca. But * Sarai was baren, and had no chylde. Hebre.xi.

And Terah toke Abram * his ſonne, and Joſue.24.a Lot the ſonne of Haran, his ſonnes ſon/ and ii.Eſd.ix.a Sara his doughter in lawe, his ſon Abrams wyfe. And they departed togyther from Ur of the Caldees, that they myght go into the lande of Chanaan/ and they came vnto Charan, and dwelte there. And the dayes of Terah were two hundred, and fyue yeares/ and Terah dyed in Charan.

Sapi.xix.c 4.Reg.6.b And the men that were at the dore of the houſe, they ſmote with blyndneſſe * bothe ſmal and great, ſo that they faynted & coulde not fynde the dore. And the men ſayde vnto Lot. If thou haue yet here any ſonne in lawe or ſonnes or doughters, or what ſo euer thou haſt in the cytie, bryng it out of this place, for we wyll deſtroy this place, bycauſe the crye of them is great * before the face of god, for the Lorde hath ſent vs to deſtroy it. Gene.18.c

And Lot went out and ſpake vnto his ſonnes in lawe whiche maryed his doughters, ſayeng, ſtande vp, get you out of this place, for the Lorde wyl ouerthrowe this cytie. But he ſemed as though he had mocked, vnto his ſonnes in law. And when the mornyng aroſe D the angell cauſed Lot to ſpede hym ſayenge. Stand vp, take thy wyfe & thy ii. daughters at hand, leſt peraduenture thou peryſhe in the ſyn of the cytie. And as he prolōged the tyme, the men caught bothe hym, his wyfe and his two daughters by the handes, The lorde beyng mercyfull vnto hym, and they brought hym forth, and ſet hym without the cytie.

It fortuned when they had brought them out, he ſayd. Saue thy lyfe, and loke not behynde the, neyther tary thou in all this playn countrey. Saue thy ſelfe in the mountayne, leeſt thou peryſhe. And Lot ſayd vnto them. No, I pray the my Lorde. Beholde, thy ſer- E uaunt hath founde grace in thy ſyght, and thou haſt magnified thy mercye, which thou haſt ſhewed vnto me, in ſauynge my lyfe. Beholde, I can not be ſaued in the moūtayn, leeſt haply ſome myſfortune fall vpon me, & I dye. Beholde here is a cytie by, to flee vnto euen yonder lytell one. Oh, let me be ſaued there, is it not a lytell one, and my ſoule ſhall lyue? And he ſayd to hym, ſe I haue receyued thy requeſt as concernynge this thynge, that I wyl not ouerthrowe this cytie for the which thou haſt ſpoken. Haſte the, & be ſaued there, for I can do nothyng tyll thou be come thyther. And therfore the name of the cytie is called Zoar. And the ſon was nowe ryſen vpon the earth, when Lot was entred in to Zoer.

Esa.xiii.d Jere.l.f Eze.xvi.e Then the Lorde rayned vpon * Sodome & Gomorra, brymſtone and fyre from the lorde out of heuen, & ouerthrewe thoſe cyties & all the region, & all that dwelled in the cyties, & that that grewe vpon the earth. But Lottes F wyfe loked behynd her, & was turned in to a pyller of ſalte. But Abrahā ryſyng vp early, got hym to the place where he ſtode before the preſence of God, and lokynge towarde Sodome and Gomorra and towarde all the lande of that countrey he loked. And beholde the ſmoke of the countrey aroſe as the ſmoke of a fornace. And it happened that when god deſtroyed the cyties of that regiō, he thought vpon Abraham, and ſent Lot * out from the myddes of the ouerthrowyng, when he ouerthrew the cyties where Lot dwelled. And Lot departed out of Zoar, & dwelled in the mountayne & his. ii. daughters were wᵗ hym, for he feared to tary in Zoar, but dwelled in a caue he & his. ii. daughters. And the elder ſayd vnto the yonger. Our father is olde, & there is not a mā in the earth to come in vnto vs after the maner of al the worlde. Come, we wyl make our father dronken with wyne, & lye wᵗ hym, that we may ſaue ſeed of our father. And ſo they made theyr father dronken with wyne that nyght. And the elder daughter wente & lay wᵗ her father. And he perceyued it not, neyther when ſhe lay downe, nor whē ſhe roſe vp. ii.pet Sapi. Amos Luke. Judi

G And on the morowe it happened that the elder ſayde vnto the yonger, beholde, yeſternyght laye I with my father. Let vs make hym dronke, with wyne this nyght alſo and come thou & lye wᵗ him, that we may rayſe vp ſeed of our father. And they made theyr father dronke with wyne that nyght alſo. And the yonger aroſe, & lay with hym. And he perceyued it not: neyther whē ſhe lay downe, neyther when ſhe roſe vp. Thus were bothe the doughters of Lot wᵗ chylde by theyr father. And the elder bare a ſon, & called his name Moab. The ſame is the father of the Moabytes vnto this daye. And the yonger bare a ſon alſo & called his name Ben Ammy. The ſame is the father of the chyldren of Ammon vnto this daye.

¶ Abraham went as a ſtraunger in the lande of Gerar. The kynge o Gerar taketh away his wyfe.

CAPI. XX.

A And Abraham departed thence toward the ſouth coūtre, and dwelled bytwene Cades, and Sur: and ſoiourned in Gerar. And Abraham ſayde of Sara his wyfe: ſhe is my * ſyſter. And Abimalech kyng of Gerar ſent, and fet Sara awaye. Gene.

But God came to Abimalech in dreame in the nyght and ſayd to hym: Se, thou ſhalt dye for the womans ſake whiche thou haſte taken away, for ſhe is a mans wyfe. But Abimalech had not yet come nye her, & he ſayde: Lorde wylte thou ſley ryghtwyſe people?

ſayd not he vnto me, ſhe is my ſyſter? Yea, and ſayde not ſhe her ſelfe he is my brother? B with a pure herte and innocent handes haue I done this. And God ſayde vnto hym by a dreame. I wote it well that thou dydeſt this in the pureneſſe of thy herte. I kepte the alſo that thou ſhuldeſt not ſynne agaynſt me, and therfore ſuffred I the not to touche her. Now therfore delyuer the man his wyfe agayne, for he is a prophete, and he ſhal praye for the, that thou mayeſt lyue. But & yf thou delyuer her not agayne, be ſure that thou ſhalte dye the death, bothe thou, and all that thou haſt. And ſo Abimelech ryſynge vp be tymes in the mornyng called al his ſeruauntes, and tolde al theſe ſayenges in their eares, and the men were ſore afrayd. And Abimelech called C Abraham & ſayd vnto hym. What haſt thou done vnto vs, and what haue I offended the, that thou haſt brought on me & on my kyngdome ſo great a ſynne? thou haſt done dedes vnto me that ought not to be done. And Abimelech ſayde vnto Abraham. What ſaweſt thou that thou haſt done this thynge? Abraham anſwered. For I ſayd, ſurely the feare of god is not in this place, and they ſhall ſlee me for my wyues ſake, yet in verye dede ſhe is my ſyſter, for ſhe is the doughter of my father, though ſhe be not the doughter of my mother and ſhe became my wyfe. And after, god cauſed me to wandre out of my fathers houſe, I ſayde vnto her. This kyndneſſe ſhalte thou ſhewe vnto me in all places where we come, that thou ſay of me, he is my brother.

D ¶ Then toke Abimelech ſhepe and oxen, men ſeruauntes and women ſeruauntes and gaue them vnto Abraham, & delyuered hym Sara his wyfe agayne. And Abimelech ſayde. Beholde, my lande lyeth before the, dwell where it pleaſeth the beſt. But vnto Sara he ſayde, Se, I haue gyuen thy brother a thouſande peces of ſyluer. Beholde, it ſhalbe a coueryng of thyne eyes vnto all that are with the. And thus withall was ſhe reproued. And ſo Abraham prayed vnto god, and god healed Abimelech and his wyfe and his maydens, and they bare chyldren. For the Lorde had cloſed to al the matryces of the houſe of Abimelech, bycauſe of Sara Abrahams wyfe.

A The lorde viſyted Sara as he had ſayde and dyd vnto her ☞ accordynge as he had promyſed. For Sara was with chylde and bare Abraham a ſonne in his olde age, euen the ſame ſeaſon which the Lorde had apoynted hym. And Abraham called his ſonnes name that was borne vnto hym, whiche Sara ☞ bare hym, Iſaac. And Abraham circumcyſed Iſaac his ſonne when he was viii. dayes olde, as God commaunded hym. And Abraham was an hundred yere olde, when his ſonne Iſaac was borne vnto hym. But Sara ſayd. God hath made me a laughyng ſtocke, ſo that all that heare, wyll laughe at me. She ſayde alſo. Who wolde haue ſayde vnto Abraham, that Sara ſhulde haue gyuen chyldren ſucke? for I haue borne hym a ſonne in his olde age. ¶ The chylde grewe, and was weyned, and Abraham made a great feaſt, the ſame daye that Iſaac was weyned. And Sara ſawe the ſonne of Agar the Egypcyan, (whiche ſhe had borne vnto Abraham) to be a mocker, wherfore ſhe ſayde vnto Abraham, * Put away this bonde mayde and her ſonne for the ſonne of this bonde woman ſhall not be heyre with my ſonne Iſaac, and this ſayenge was very greuous in Abrahams ſyght bycauſe of his ſonne. And God ſayde vnto Abraham. Let it not be greuous in thy ſyght bycauſe of the lad and of thy bonde mayde. All that Sara ſayth vnto the, here her voyce for * in Iſaac ſhall thy ſeed be called. And ſo Abraham roſe vp early in the mornyng, and toke breade and a bottel of water, and gaue it vnto Ager, puttynge it on her ſhoulders with the lad alſo, & ſent her away, who departynge, wandred vp and downe in the wyldernes of Beer Seba. And the water was ſpente in the bottell, and ſhe caſt the lad vnder a buſſhe and went and ſat on the other ſyde a great waye, as it were a bowſhot of, for ſhe ſayde. I wyll not ſe the deathe of the chylde. And ſhe ſyttynge downe on the other ſyde, lyfte vp her voyce and wepte. And god herde the voyce of the chylde. And the angell of God called Ager out of heuen and ſayde vnto her. What ayleth the Ager? Feare not for God hath herde the voyce of the chylde. Aryſe, and lyfte vp the lad from the place in whiche he is, & take hym in thy hande, for I wyl make of hym a great peple. And god opened her eyes, & ſhe ſawe a well of water, & ſhe wente & fylled the bottell with water, & gaue the boy drynke. And god was with the lad, & he grewe & dwelte in the wylderneſſe, and became an archer. And he dwelte in the wyldernesſe of Pharan. And his mother got hym a wyfe out of the lande of Egypte.

And it chaunſed the ſame ſeaſon, that

Abimelech and Phicol the chefe captayne of his hooſt ſpake vnto Abraham ſayenge: God is with the in all that thou doeſt. And now therfore ſweare vnto me here by God, that thou wylt not hurte me, nor my chyldren, nor my chyldrens chyldren: But that thou ſhalt deale with me/ and with the lande wherin thou haſt bene a ſtraunger, accordynge vnto the kyndneſſe that I haue ſhewed the. And Abraham ſayde: I wyll ſweare. And Abraham rebuked Abimelech for a well of water, which Abimeleches ſeruauntes had violently taken away. And Abimelech ſayde: I wote not who hath done this thynge: Alſo thou toldeſt me not, neyther herde I of it, but this daye. And Abraham toke ſhepe and oxen, and gaue them vnto Abimelech. And they made bothe of them a bonde togyther. And Abraham ſet vii. ewe lambes by them ſelues. And Abimelech ſayd vnto Abraham: What meane theſe vii. ewe lambes which thou haſt ſet by them ſelues? He anſwered: For theſe. vii. lambes ſhalte thou take of my hande, that they maye be a wytneſſe vnto me, that I haue dygged this well. Wherfore the place is called Beer Seba, bycauſe that there they ſware both of them. Thus made they a bonde togyther in Beer Seba. And Abimelech and Phicoll the chefe Captayne of his hooſt roſe vp, and turned agayn vnto the lande of the Philiſtines. And Abrahā planted a wood in Beer Seba, and called there on the name of the lorde, the euerlaſtynge god, and ſoiourned in the Philiſtins lande a long ſeaſon.

The fayth of Abraham is proued, he offred his ſon Iſaac. Chriſt our ſauyour is promyſed. The generacion of Nachor Abrahams brother.

CAPI. XXII.

After theſe ſayenges it happened that God dyd * proue Abraham, and ſayde vnto hym. Abraham, which anſwered, here am I. And he ſayd, take thy onely ſonne Iſaac whome thou loueſt, and get the vnto the lande Moria, and offre hym vp there for a Sacrifyce vppon one of the mountaynes, which I wyll ſhewe the. Then Abraham roſe vp early in the mornyng, and ſadled his aſſe, and toke two of his yong men with hym, and Iſaac his ſonne, and cloue wood for the ſacrifice, and roſe vp, and got hym to the place which God had appoynted hym.

The thyrde day Abraham lyft vp his eyes and ſawe the place a farre of. And Abraham ſayde vnto his yonge men. Abyde you here with the aſſe, I and the lad wyll go yonder/ and worſhyp, and come agayne vnto you. And Abrahā toke the wood of the ſacrifice & layde it vpon Iſaac his ſonne, and he hym ſelfe toke fyre in his hande, and a knyfe. And they went bothe of them together.

Then ſpake Iſaac vnto Abraham his father and ſayde: my father. And he anſwered: here am I my ſonne. He ſayde: ſe here is fyre and wodde, but where is the ſhepe for ſacrifyce? Abraham anſwered: my ſon, God wyll prouyde hym a ſhepe for ſacrifyce. And ſo they went bothe together.

And when they came vnto the place which God had ſhewed hym, Abraham made an aultar there, and dreſſed the wodde, & bounde Iſaac his ſonne, and layde hym on the aultare aboue vpon the wodde. And Abraham ſtretched forthe his hande, toke the knyfe to haue kylled his ſonne. And the angell of the Lorde called vnto hym from heuen, ſayinge: Abraham Abraham. And he ſayde: here am I.

And he ſayde: lay not thy hande vpon the chylde, neyther do any thyng at al vnto hym, for nowe I knowe that thou feareſt god, and haſt for my ſake not ſpared thyne only ſonne. And Abraham lyftynge vp his eyes, loked aboute: and beholde, there was a ram caught by the hornes in a thycket. And he went, and toke the ram and offered hym vp for a ſacryfyce in the ſteade of his ſon. And Abraham called the name of the place, the Lorde wylſe. As it is ſayde this day: in the mounte wyl the Lorde be ſene. And the angel of the lorde cryed vnto Abraham from heuen the ſeconde tyme, and ſayde: By my ſelfe haue I ſworne (ſayeth the Lorde) bycauſe thou haſt done this thynge, and haſt not ſpared thy onely ſonne: that in bleſſynge I wyll bleſſe the, and in multiplyenge I wyll multiplye thy ſeede as the ſterres of heuen, & as the ſande which is vpon the ſee ſyde. And thy ſeede ſhall poſſeſſe the gate of his enemyes. And in thy ſeede ſhall all the nacions of the earth be bleſſed, bycauſe thou haſt herde my voyce. And ſo turned Abraham agayn vnto his yong men, and they roſe vp and came togyther to Beer Seba. And Abraham dwelte in Beer Seba.

And it chaunſed after theſe thynges, that one tolde Abraham ſayenge: Beholde, Milcha, ſhe hath alſo borne chyldren vnto thy brother Nachor: Hus his eldeſt ſonne, and Bus his brother, and Kemuel the father of the Syrians, and Cesed, and Haſo/ and Pyldas, and Jedlaph/ and Bethuell. And Bethuel begat Rebecca. Theſe. viii. dyd Milcha beare to Nachor Abrahams brother. And his concubyne called Rhuma, ſhe bare alſo Tebah, and Gaham, Thahas, & Maacha.

that women come out to drawe water / ⁊ he ſayde. Lorde god of my mayſter Abraham I

I ſtande here by the well of water / and the

and I wyl gyue thy camels drynke, the ſame

is ſhe that thou haſte ordeyned for thy ſeruant Iſaac: yea, and therby ſhall I knowe that thou haſt ſhewed mercy on my mayſter. And it came to paſſe or he had lefte ſpeakyng beholde, Rebecca came out / the doughter of Bethuel, ſonne to Mylca the wyfe of Nahor Abrahams brother, and her pytcher vpon her ſhoulder. The damſell was very fayre to loke vpon, and yet a mayde, and vnknowen of man. And ſhe went downe to the well, and fylled her pytcher, and came vp. And the ſeruant runnynge vnto her: ſayde, Let me ſup a lytle water of thy pytcher. And ſhe ſayde: C drynke my lorde. And ſhe haſted & let downe her pytcher vpon her arme, and gaue hym drynke. And when ſhe had gyue hym drynke, ſhe ſayd. I wyll drawe water for thy camels alſo, vntyll they haue dronke ynough. And ſhe powred out her pytcher in to the trough haſtely, & ran agayne vnto the wel to fet water: and drewe for all his camels. And the man wondred at her. But helde his peace, to wete whether the Lorde had made his iourney proſperous or not. And it fortuned as the camels had lefte drynkynge, the man toke a golden earynge of halfe a ſicle weyght, and two bracelettes for her handes, of ten ſicles weyght of gold, and ſayd. Whoſe doughter arte thou? tell me I pray the, is there rowme in thy fathers houſe for vs to lodge in? She anſwered hym, I am the doughter of Bathuell the ſon of Milca, whiche ſhe bare vnto Nahor: & ſayd moreouer vnto hym: we haue litter and prauonder ynough, & alſo rowme to lodge in. And the man bowed hym ſelfe, & worſhypped the Lorde, and ſayde: bleſſed be the Lorde god of my mayſter Abrahã, which ceaſeth not to deale mercyfully and truely w my mayſter, and hath brought me the way to my maiſters brothers houſe. And the damſel ran & tolde them of her mothers houſe theſe D thynges. And Rebecca had a brother called Laban. And he ran out vnto the man, euen to the wel: for as ſoone as he had ſene the earynges, and the bracelettes in his ſyſters handes (and herde the wordes of Rebecca his ſyſter ſayenge: thus ſayde the man vnto me) he went out vnto the man. And loo, he ſtoode with the camels by the wel ſyde. And he ſaid: come in thou bleſſed of the Lorde. Wherfore ſtãdeſt thou without? I haue dreſſed the houſe, and made rowme for the camels. And then the man came in to the houſe, and he vngyrdled the camels, and (Laban) brought lytter, and prauonder for the camels, and water to waſhe his fete, and the mens fete that were with hym / and ſet meate before hym to eate, But he ſayde I wyll not eate, vntyll I haue ſayde myne erande. And he ſayd: ſay on. And he ſayd, I am Abrahams ſeruaunt, and God hath bleſſed my mayſter out of meaſure, that he is become great, & hath gyuen hym ſheps, and oxen, ſyluer and golde, menſeruauntes, & mayde ſeruauntes, camels, and aſſes.

And * Sara my mayſters wyfe bare him a ſonne, when ſhe was olde, and vnto hym hath he gyuen al that he hath. And my mayſter made me ſwere ſayenge: thou ſhalte not take a wyfe to my ſonne amonge the doughters of the Cananytes in whoſe land I dwel. But thou ſhalte go vnto my fathers houſe / and to my kynred, and take a wyfe vnto my ſonne. And I ſayde vnto my mayſter: E peraduenture the wyfe wyll not folow me? And he anſwered me. The Lorde, before whome I walke, wyll ſende his angell with the, & proſpere thy iourney, & thou ſhalte take a wyfe for my ſonne, of my kynred / and of my fathers houſe. Then ſhalte thou be gyltleſſe of my curſe, when thou commeſt to my kynred. And yf they gyue the not one, thou ſhalte be gyltleſſe of my curſe.

And ſo I came this daye vnto the well, & ſayde. O Lorde, the god of my mayſter Abraham, yf thou makeſt my iourney whiche I go, proſperous: beholde I ſtande by this wel of water, and when a vyrgyn cõmeth forth to drawe water, and I ſaye to her: gyue me (I praye the) a lytle water of thy pytcher to drynke, and ſhe ſaye to me: drynke thou, and I wyll alſo drawe for thy camels, that ſame is the wyfe whome the Lorde hath prepared for my mayſters ſonne.

And before I had made an ende of ſpeakynge in myne herte: beholde Rebecca came forth, and her pitcher on her ſholder, and ſhe went downe vnto the well, and drewe water And I ſayde to her, gyue me drynke I pray the. And ſhe made haſte, and toke downe her pitcher from of her, and ſayde, drynke, and I wyll gyue thy camels drynke alſo.

F And I dranke, and ſhe gaue the camels drynke alſo. And I aſked her, ſayeng: whoſe doughter arte ÿ? She anſwered / the doughter of Bathuell Nahors Sonne * whome Milca bare vnto him. And I put the earyng vpon her face, and the bracellettes vpon her handes. And I bowed my ſelfe, and worſhepped the Lorde, and bleſſed the Lorde God of my mayſter Abraham which had brought me the ryght waye, to take my mayſters brothers doughter vnto his ſonne.

Nowe alſo yf ye wyll deale mercyfully / and truely with my mayſter tell me, and yf not, tell me alſo: that I maye turne me to the ryght hande or the lefte.

Then ſayd Iacob to Rebecca his mother:

And the yonge man deferred not for to do the thynge, bycauſe he had a luſt to Jacobs doughter. He was alſo mooſt ſet by of all that were in his fathers houſe. D And vnto Hemor and Sichem his ſonne herkened all that went out at the gate of his cytie. And all the men chyldren were circumciſed, what ſo euer wente out at the gates of his cytie. And it happened the thyrde daye (when it was paynefull to them) two of the ſonnes of Jacob Symeon and Leui Dinas brethren, toke eyther of them his * ſwerde & (Gene.xlix a / Judi.ix.a) wente in to the cytie boldly, and ſlewe all that was male, and ſlewe alſo Hemor & Sichem his ſonne with the edge of the ſwerde, & toke Dina out of Sichems houſe, and went theyr way. A AND God ſayde vnto Jacob, aryſe and get the vp to Bethel, and dwell there. And make there an aulter vnto GOD that appeared vnto the, * when thou fleddeſt (Gene.28.c) from the face of Eſau thy brother. Then ſayd Jacob vnto his houſholde & to all that were with hym. CAPI. XXXVII.

A Jacob dwelte in the land wherin his father was a ſtraunger, euen in the lande of Canaan.
These are the generacions of Jacob.
When Joſeph was .xvii. yere olde, he kepte ſheepe with his brethren, & the lad was with the ſonnes of Bilha, & with the ſõnes of Zilpha his fathers wyues. And he brought vnto theyr father an euyll ſayeng of them.
But Iſrael loued Joſeph more then all his chyldren, bycauſe he begat hym in his olde age, & he made hym a cote of many coloures.

And when his brethren ſawe that theyr
father loued hym more then all his brethren,
they hated hym and coulde not ſpeake peaceably
B vnto hym. Moreouer whē Joſeph *had dreamed a dreame, he tolde it his brethren, xlii.b which hated hym yet the more. ✚ And he ſayd vnto them. Heare I pray you this dreame, whiche I haue dreamed. Beholde, we were byndyng ſheues in the myddes of the felde.
And lo, my ſhefe aroſe, and ſtode vp ryght, &
youres ſtode rounde aboute and made obeyſaunce to my ſhefe. To whom his brethren ſayde. Shalte thou be our kynge in dede? or ſhalte thou in dede haue dominion ouer vs?
And they hated hym yet the more, bycauſe of his dreames, and of his wordes.

And he dreamed yet an other dreame and C tolde it his brethren, ſayeng. Beholde I haue had one dreame more. Me thought the ſonne & the moone and .xi. ſterres made obeyſaūce to me. And when he had tolde it vnto his father & his brethren, his father rebuked hym, & ſayd vnto hym. What is this dreame which thou haſt dreamed, ſhall I and thy mother & thy brethren come to fall on the grounde before the? And his brethren hated hym, but his father noted the ſayenge. His brethren alſo went to kepe theyr fathers ſhepe in Sichem and Iſrael ſayde vnto Joſeph. Do not thy brethren kepe ſhepe in Sichem? Come, and i.Reg.3.c.
I wyll ſende the to them. He anſwered *here am I. And he ſayde vnto hym. Go & ſe whether it be wel with thy brethren and the ſhepe and bryng me worde agayne. And ſo he ſent hym out of the vale of Hebron and he wente
to Sichem. And a certayn man founde hym.
And beholde he was wandrynge out of his way in the felde, and the man aſked hym.
What ſekeſt thou? He anſwered, I ſeke my brethren, tell me I praye the where they kepe ſhepe. And the man ſayde, they are departed hence, for I herde them ſaye, let vs go vnto Dothan. Thus wente Joſeph after his brethren, and founde them in Dothan. D

And when they ſawe hym a farre of before he came at them, they toke counſell agaynſt hym, for to ſlee hym. For one ſayd to an other Beholde this *dreamer cometh, come nowe Mat.xxi.d
therfore and let vs ſlee hym and caſt hym in Mar.xii.a to ſome pyt, and we wyll ſay, a wycked beaſt Luke,xx.c
hath deuoured hym, and we ſhal ſe what wyl come of his dreames.

When Ruben herde that, he ryd hym out of theyr handes, and ſayde. We wyll not kyll
hym. And Ruben ſayd moreouer vnto them.
Shede not his *bloode, but caſt hym in to Gene.xlii.d
ſome pyt that is in the wyldernеſſe, and laye no hande vpon hym. (This he ſayde.) Namely that he myght ryd hym out of theyr handes
and delyuer hym to his father agayne. ✚

And it happened that when Joſeph was E come vnto his brethrē, they ſtryped hym out of his cote, his partie coloured cote that was vpon hym, and they toke hym and caſt hym
in to an emptye pyt, wherin was no water.
And they ſat them downe to eate breade. And as they lyfte vp theyr eyes and loked aboute
there came a company of Iſmaelites from Gilead, and theyr camels laden with ſpycery
baulme, and myrre, and were goynge downe to cary it in to Egypte. And Juda ſayd vnto his brethren. What auayleth it yf we ſlee our F brother, & kepe his blood ſecret? come on and Actes.vii.b
let vs *ſell hym to the Iſmaelites, & let not Gene.45.a

Then as the Madianites marchaunt men paſſed by, they drewe and lyfte Joſeph oute of the pyt and ſolde hym vnto the Iſmaelytes for .xx. peces of ſyluer. And they brought Joſeph in to Egypte.

And when Ruben came agayne vnto the pyt and founde not Joſeph there, he rent his clothes

clothes and wente agayne vnto his brethren ſayenge, the lad is not yonder, and whyther ſhall I go? And they toke Ioſephs coote and kylled a goote, and dypped the coote in the G bloode. And they ſent that partye coloured coote, and brought it vnto theyr father and ſayd. This haue we founde, ſe whyther it be thy ſonnes coote or no. And he knewe it, ſayenge. It is my ſonnes coote, a wycked beaſt

Neuertheleſſe he wolde not be comforted, but ſayde. I wyll go downe into the graue vnto my ſonne, mournyng. And thus his father wepte for hym. And the Madianytes

¶ The mariage of Iuda. Er. Onan, Sela. Iuda lay with his doughter Thamar. The byrth of Phares and zarah.

CAPI. XXXVIII.

A IT fortuned at that tyme, that Iudas wente downe from his brethren, and gat hym to a man called Hira of Odollam, & there he ſawe the doughter of a man called i.Para.ii.a * Sua a Canaanite. And he toke her & went in to her. And ſhe conceyued and bare a ſon, and called his name Er. And ſhe conceyued agayne, and bare a ſonne and called hym Onan. And ſhe conceyued agayne, and bare yet a ſonne, whom ſhe called Sela. And he was at Cheſyb when ſhe bare hym.

And Iudas gaue Er his eldeſt ſon a wyfe, whoſe name was Thamar. And Er, Iudas eldeſt ſonne was wycked in the ſyght of the lorde, & the Lorde ſlew hym. And Iudas ſayd vnto Onan. Go in to thy brothers wyfe, and marye her, that thou mayſt ſtyrre vp ſeed vnto
B thy brother. And when Onan perceyued that the ſeed ſhulde not be his, therfore when he went in to his brothers wyfe, he ſpylled it on the grounde, and gaue not ſeed vnto his brother. And the thynge whiche he dyd, dyſpleaſed the lorde, wherfore he ſlewe hym alſo. Then ſayd Iudas to Thamar his doughter in lawe. Remayne a wydowe at thy fathers houſe, tyll Sela my ſonne be growne. For he ſayd. Leeſt peraduenture he dye alſo, as his brethren dyd. And Thamar wente & dwelte in her fathers houſe.

And in proceſſe of tyme, the doughter of C Sua Iudas wyfe dyed. Then Iudas when he had lefte mournyng, went vnto his ſhepe ſherers to Thymnath, he and his frende Hiras of Odollam. And one tolde Thamar ſayenge. Beholde, thy father in law goeth vp to Thymnath, to * ſhere his ſhepe. And ſhe put her wydowes garmentes of from her and couered her with a cloke, and dyſgyſed her ſelfe And ſat her downe in a comon place, whiche is by the hye wayes ſyde to Tymnath, for bycauſe ſhe ſawe that Sela was growne, & ſhe was not gyuen vnto hym to wyfe. When Iuda ſawe her, he thought it had
D ben an hore, bycauſe ſhe had couered her face And he turned to her vnto the way, and ſayd, come I praye the, let me lye with the, for he knewe not that it was his doughter in lawe. And ſhe anſwered. What wylte thou gyue me, for to lye with me? Then ſayd he, I wyll ſende the a kyd from the flocke. She ſayde. Then gyue me a pledge tyll thou ſende it. He ſayd, what pledge ſhall I gyue the? She anſwered. Thy ſygnet, thy bracelet, and thy ſtaffe that is in thy hande. And he gaue it her E and lay by her, & ſhe was with chyld by hym. And ſhe gat her vp and went & put her mantell from her, and put on her wydowes rayment. And Iudas ſent the kyd by his frende of Odollam, for to receyue his pledge agayn from the wyues hand, but he founde her not. Then aſked he the men of the ſame place ſayeng. Where is the hore that ſat openly by the waye ſyde? They anſwered, There was no hore here. He came therfore to Iuda agayne and ſayd vnto hym. I can not fynde her, and alſo the men of the place ſayd, that there was no hore there. And Iuda ſayde, let her take it to her, leeſt we be ſhamed. Beholde I ſent the kyd and thou haſt not founde her.

And it came to paſſe that after thre mo-
F nethes, one tolde Iuda ſayeng. Thamar thy doughter in lawe hath played the hore, and with playenge the hore is become great with chylde. And Iuda ſayd, bryng her forth, that ſhe may be brente. And when they brought her forth, ſhe ſente to her father in lawe, ſayenge. By the man vnto whom theſe thynges perteyne, am I with chylde. And ſayde alſo. Loke whoſe are this ſeale, bracelet, and this ſtaffe. And Iuda knewe them, and ſayd. She hath ben more ryghteous then I, bycauſe I gaue her not to Sela my ſonne. And he laye with her no more.

It fortuned when tyme was come that ſhe ſhulde be delyuered, Beholde there was two twynnes in her wombe. And it fortuned, that

CAPI. XL.

AND it chaunced after this / that the butler A

his two offycers: agaynſt the cheyf butler, ⁊

cheyf Stewarde gaue Joſeph a charge with

When Joſeph came in vnto them in B

they were ſad. And he aſked Pharaos offycers that were wᵗ hym in his mayſters ward

They anſwered hym: we haue dꝛeamed a

C And Joſeph ſayde vnto hym: this is the interpretacion of it. The thre braunces are thre dayes, for within thre dayes ſhall Pharao lyfte vp thyne heade, and reſtore the vnto thyne offyce agayne/ and thou ſhalte delyuer Pharaos cuppe in to his hande, after the olde maner wherin thou waſte wont to gyue hym drynke. But yf thou thynke on me with the, when thou arte in good caſe/ ſhewe mercy (I praye the) vnto me. And make mencyon of me to Pharao, and brynge me out of this houſe: for I was ſtollen out of the lande of the Hebrues, and here alſo haue I done no thynge at all, wherfore they ſhulde haue put me in to this dungeon. When the cheyfe baker ſawe that the interpretacion was good, he ſayde vnto Joſeph: me thought alſo in my dreame, that I had thre wyker baſkettes on my head. And in the vppermoſt baſket there was of all maner baken meates for Pharao. And the byrdes dyd eate them out of the baſket that was vpon my heade.

D And Joſeph anſwered/ and ſayde: this is the interpretacion therof. The thre baſkettes are thre dayes, for this daye thre dayes ſhall Pharao take thy heade from the, and ſhall hange the on a tree, and the byrdes ſhall eate thy fleſhe from of the. And it came to paſſe Mat.14.A. the thyrde daye which was Pharaos * byrth daye, that he made a feaſt vnto all his ſeruauntz. And he lyfted vp the head of the cheyf butler, and of the cheyfe baker amonge his ſeruantes. And reſtored the cheyfe butler vnto his butlerſhyp agayne, which alſo reached the cup in to Pharaos hand, but he hanged the cheyfe baker: euen as Joſeph had interpretated vnto them. Neyther dyd the cheyfe butler remembre Joſeph, but forgat hym.

¶ Pharaos dreames expounded by Joſeph. He is made ruler ouer all Egypte. He hath two ſonnes, Manaſſes and Ephraim. The derth begynneth in Egypte.

CAPI. XLI.

A AND it fortuned after two yeares, that Pharao dreamed, and beholde, he ſtode by a ryuers ſyde, and there came out of the ryuer ſeuē goodly kyne, and fat fleſſhed/ and fed in a medowe, and ſeuen other kyne came vp after them out of the ryuer, euyll fauoured and leane fleſſhed, and ſtode by the other kyne vpō the brynke of the ryuer. And the euyll fauoured and leane fleſſhed kyne dyd eate vp the ſeuen well fauoured and fat kyne: ⁊ Pharao awoke. And he ſlepte agayne and dreamed the ſeconde tyme. And beholde, ſeuen eares of corne grewe vpon one ſtalke, rancke/ and goodly. And agayne, ſeuen thyn eares blaſted with the eaſt wynde, ſprange vp after them, and the ſeuen thyn eares deuoured the ſeuen rancke and full eares. And Pharao awaked: and ſe, it was a dreame.

B And when the mornyng came, his ſpiryte was troubled. And he ſent and called for all the ſotheſayers of Egypte, ⁊ al the wyſe men therof, and Pharao tolde them his dreame: but there was none among them that coulde interpretate it vnto Pharao. Then ſpake the cheyfe butler vnto Pharao ſayenge: I do remembre my fautes this daye. Pharao beyng angrye with his ſeruauntes, put in warde in the cheyfe Stewardes houſe bothe me, and the cheyf baker. And we dreamed both of vs in one nyght, and eche mannes dreame of a ſondrye interpretacyon. And there was with vs a yonge man an Hebrew borne/ ſeruaunt vnto the cheyf Stewarde. To whome when we tolde them, he declared oure dreames to vs accordynge to eyther of our dreames. And as he declared them vnto vs, euen ſo it came to paſſe. For he reſtored me to myne offyce agayne, ⁊ hanged hym. Pharao ſent therfore and called Joſeph. And they brought hym haſtely out of * pryſon. Pſal.c And he ſhaued hym ſelfe, and chaunged his rayment/ and came in to Pharao. And Pharao ſayde vnto Joſeph: I haue ſene a dreame, and no man can interpretate it, ⁊ I haue herde ſay of the, that as ſoone as thou heareſt a dreame/ yͧ canſte interpretate it. C Joſeph anſwered Pharao, ⁊ ſayde: Not I/ but god ſhal gyue Pharao an anſwere of peace. And Pharao ſayde vnto Joſeph: when I dreamed me thought I ſtode by a ryuer ſyde, ⁊ there came out of the ryuer ſeuen fat fleſſhed, and well fauoured kyne, and fed in the medowe. And then ſeuen other kyne came vp after them, poore ⁊ very euyll fauoured and leane fleſſhed: ſuche as I neuer ſawe in all the lande of Egypte/ they were ſo euyll fauoured. And the ſeuen leane and euyl fauoured kyne dyd eate vp the fyrſt ſeuen fat kyne. And whē they had eaten them vp/ a man coulde not perceyue that they had eaten them, but they were ſtyll as euyl fauoured as they were at the begynnynge. And I awoke. And I ſawe agayne in my dreame, ⁊ behold, ſeuen eares ſprange out of one ſtalke full ⁊ fayre/ and ſeuen other eares agayne, wythered, thyn ⁊ blaſted with the eaſt wynd, ſprange vp after them. And the thyn eares deuoured the ſeuen good eares. And I haue tolde it vnto the ſothſayers, but there was no man that coulde tell, what it meaneth. And Joſeph anſwered Pharao, bothe Pharaos dreames are one. And god hath ſhewed Pharao what he is aboute to do. The ſeuen good kyne are ſeuen yeares: and the ſeuen good eares are ſeuen yeares alſo, and it is but one dreame. Lykewyſe, the ſeuen thyn & euyll fauoured kyne that came out after them, are ſeuen yeres: & the ſeuen emptye and blaſted eares ſhall be ſeuen yeares of hunger. This whiche I haue ſayd vnto Pharao, is it that God is aboute to do/ & ſheweth it vnto Pharao. D Beholde there come ſeuen yeare of great plenteouſneſſe throughe out all the lande of Egypte. And agayne there ſhall aryſe after them ſeuen yeares of hunger. And al the plenteouſneſſe ſhalbe forgotten in the lande of Egypte. And the hũger ſhal cõſume the lande: neyther ſhall the plenteouſnes be knowen in the lande, by reaſon of that hunger that ſhall come after, for it ſhalbe exceadynge great. And as cõcernyng that the dreame was doubled vnto Pharao the ſeconde tyme, behold, the thynge is certaynly prepared of god/ and God wyll ſhortly brynge it to paſſe. Nowe therfore, let Pharao prouyde for a man of vnderſtandynge & wyſdome, and ſet hym ouer the lande of Egypte. And let Pharao do this alſo, that he make officers ouer the land and take vp the fyfthe parte of the lande of Egypte in the ſeuen plenteous yeres/ and let them gather all the foode of theſe good yeres that come, & lay vp corne vnder the hande of Pharao, that there may be fode in the cityes, and there let them kepe it: that there maye be foode in ſtore in the lande, agaynſt the ſeuen yeres of hũger which ſhall come in the lande of Egypt, that the lande peryſhe not thorow hunger. E And the ſayenge pleaſed Pharao/ & all his ſeruauntes. Then ſayde Pharao vnto his ſeruauntes: where ſhall we fynde ſuche a man as this is/ in whome is the Spirite of God? And Pharao ſayd vnto Joſeph: for as moche as god hath ſhewed the all this, there is no man of vnderſtandynge, and wyſdome lyke vnto the. Thou therfore ſhalte be *ouer my houſe, and accordynge to thy worde ſhall all my people be ruled, onely in the kynges ſeate wyll I be aboue the. And Pharao ſayd agayne vnto Joſeph: beholde, I haue ſet the ouer all the lande of Egypte. And he toke of his rynge from his hande, & put it vpon Joſephs hand, & arayed him in cloth of raynes, and put a golden cheyne aboute his necke, & ſet him vpon the beſt charet that he had, ſaue one. And they cryed before hym: Bowe the kne, and Pharao made hym ruler ouer al the lande of Egypt. F And Pharao ſayd vnto Joſeph: I am Pharao, without the ſhal no man lyfte vp his hande or foote in all the lande of Egypte. And he called Joſephs name Zaphnath Paena. And he gaue hym to wyfe Aſnath the doughter of Putiphar preeſt of On. Then went Joſeph abrode in the lande of Egypte. And he was thyrtye yeare olde when he ſtode before Pharao kynge of Egypte. And Joſeph departynge frõ the preſence of Pharao/ wente thorowe out all the lande of Egypte. And in the ſeuen plenteous yeares they made ſheues & gathered vp all the fode of the ſeuen plenteous yeares whiche were in the lande of Egypte, & layed vp the ſame in the cityes. The foode of the feldes that grewe rounde aboute euery citie, layde he vp in the ſame. And Joſeph layde vp corne in ſtoore, lyke vnto the ſande of the ſee, in multitude out of meaſure, vntyll he lefte nombrynge: For it was without nombre. And vnto Joſeph were borne two ſonnes (before the yeres of hunger came) which Aſnath the doughter of Putiphar preeſt of On, bare vnto hym. G And Joſeph called the name of the fyrſte ſon *Manaſſe, for God (ſayd he) hath made me forget al my labour, and al my fathers houſeholde. The name of the ſeconde called he Ephraim, for god (ſayde he) hath cauſed me to growe in the land of my trouble. And whẽ the ſeuen yeres of plenteouſneſſe that was in the land of Egypt were ended, then came the ſeuen yeres of *derth accordyng as Joſeph had ſayde. And the derth was in all landes: but in all the lande of Egypte was there yet foode. And when the lande of Egypt alſo began to hunger the people cryed to Pharao for breade. And Pharao ſayde vnto all the Egyptians, goo vnto Joſeph, and what he ſayeth to you, that do. And the derth was thorowout al the lande. And Joſeph opened all the barnes wherin was corne, and ſolde vnto the Egyptians. For the hunger waxed ſore in the lande of Egypte. And all countryes came in to Egypte to Joſeph for to bye corne: bycauſe that the hunger was ſo ſore in all landes.

A And Jacob ſeynge that there was corne in Egypt, ſayd vnto his ſonnes, why gape ye one vpõ another? And he ſayd: beholde, I haue herde that there is corne in Egypt. *Get you downe thyther and bye vs corne from thence, that we may lyue and not

bye. So went Joſephs ten brethren downe to bye corne of the Egyptians. But Ben Jamyn Joſephs brother wolde not Jacob ſende wt his other brethren/ for he ſayde: leeſt ſome myſfortune happen him. And the ſonnes of Jſraell came to bye corne amonge other that came, for there was derth in the lande of Canaan. And Joſeph was gouerner in the lande, and ſolde to all the people of the land.

B And his brethren came, and fell flat on the grounde before hym. When Joſeph ſaw his brethren, he knewe them, and made hym ſelfe ſtraunge vnto them, & ſpake roughly vnto them, ſayeng: whence come ye? They anſwered: out of the lande of Canaan, to bye vytayle. And Joſeph knewe his brethren, but they knew not hym. And Joſeph remembred Gene. 37. b his * dreames whiche he dreamed of them, & ſayd vnto them: ye are ſpyes, and to ſe where the lande is weake, is youre commynge. To whom they ſayde: nay my Lorde, but to bye vytayle thy ſeruauntes are come. We are all one mans ſonnes, and meane truely, and thy ſeruauntes are no ſpyes. And he ſayde vnto them agayne/ naye, but euen to ſe where the lande is weake/ is your cōmynge. And they ſayde, we thy ſeruauntes are. xii. brethren, the ſonnes of one man in the lande of Canaan. C And beholde, the yongeſt is this daye with our father, & one, no man woteth where he is. And Joſeph ſayd vnto them, that is it that J ſpake vnto you, ſayeng: ye are ſpyes. Hereby ye ſhall be proued. By the lyfe of Pharao, ye ſhall not go hence, excepte your yongeſt brother come hyther. Sende out one of you/ which may fet your brother, & ye ſhalbe kept in pryſon, that your wordes may be proued, whyther there be any trueth in you: or els by the lyfe of Pharao, ye are but ſpyes. And he put them in warde thre dayes. And Joſeph ſayd vnto them the thyrde day: D This do and lyue, for J feare God. Yf ye meane no hurte, let one of your brethren be boūd in the houſe of your pryſon, & go ye & brynge the neceſſarie foode to your houſholdes, but brynge your yongeſt brother vnto me: that your wordes maye be tried, & that ye dye not. And they dyd ſo. And one ſayde to another: we haue verely ſynned agaynſt our brother, in that we ſawe the anguyſhe of his ſoule when he beſought vs, & we wolde not heare him: and therfore is this trouble come vpon vs. And Ruben anſwered them ſayenge: ſayde J not vnto you Gene. 37. d that ye ſhulde not * ſyn agaynſt the lad/ and ye wolde not heare. And ſe, his bloode is requyred. They were not aware that Joſeph vnderſtode them, for he ſpake vnto them by an interpreter. E And he turned from them and wepte * and turned to them agayne, & comoned with them, and toke out Symeon from amonge them, and bounde hym before theyr eyes/ and Joſeph commaunded to fyll theyr ſackes with corne/ & to put euery mans money in his ſacke, and to gyue them vytayle to ſpende by the waye. And thus dyd he vnto them. And they laded theyr aſſes wt the corne and departed thence. And as one of them opened his ſacke/ for to gyue his aſſe prauonder in the Jnne, he ſpied his money: for it was in his ſackes mouth. And he ſayd vnto his brethren: my money is reſtored me agayne. For lo, it is euen in my ſacke. And theyr hert fayled them, and they were aſtonyed, and ſayde one to another: Why hathe god delte thus with vs?

F And ſo they came vnto Jacob theyr father vnto the land of Canaan, and tolde him all that had happened them, ſayenge: The man, euen the lorde of the lande ſpake roughly to vs, and commyttynge vs to pryſon toke vs for ſpyes of the coūtrey. And we ſayd vnto hym: we meane truly and are no ſpyes. We be. xii. brethren/ ſonnes of our father, one is away, and the yongeſt is this daye wt our father in the land of Canaan. And that man/ which is the lorde of the coūtrey ſayd agayn vnto vs: hereby ſhall J knowe yf ye meane truly: leaue one of your brethrē here with me, and take fode neceſſary for your houſholdes and get you away, and brynge your yongeſt brother vnto me, that J maye knowe that ye are no ſpyes, but meane truly: So wyll J delyuer you your brother, & ye ſhall occupye in the lande. And it fortuned as they emptyed theyr ſackes, beholde: euery mans bundell of money was in his ſacke. And whē bothe they and theyr father ſawe the bundels of money, G they were afrayd. And Jacob theyr father ſayde vnto them: Me haue ye robbed of my chyldren: Joſeph is awaye, and Symeon is awaye/ and ye take Ben Jamin awaye. All theſe thynges are agaynſt me. Ruben ſayde vnto his father: Slee my two ſonnes, yf J brynge hym not to the agayne. Delyuer hym to my hande, and J wyl brynge hym to the agayne. And he ſayde: my ſonne ſhall not go downe with you.

For his brother is deade, and he is lefte alone. Yf ſome myſfortune happen vnto him by the waye whiche ye goo, ye ſhall * brynge my gray head with ſorowe vnto the graue. Gene. 4

¶ Bryngynge Ben Jamin, the brethren returned to Joſeph with gyftes. Symeon is delyuered out of pryſon. Joſeph goeth aſyde / and wepeth. They feaſt togyther.

CAPI. XLIIII.

A AND he cōmaũded the ruler of his houſe ſayenge: fyll the mens ſackes wt food/ as moch as they can carye, & put euery mans money in his ſacke mouth, and put my ſyluer cup in the ſackes mouth of the yongeſt, & his corne money alſo. And he dyd accordyng to the worde that Joſeph had ſayde. And in the mornyng aſſone as it was lyght, the men were let goo, they & theyr aſſes. B And when he ouertoke them, he ſayde the ſame wordes vnto them. And they anſwered hym: wherfore ſayeth my Lorde ſuche wordſ? God forbyd that thy ſeruantes ſhulde do ſo. Beholde, the money which we founde in our ſackes mouthes: we brought agayne vnto the, out of the lande of Canaan: howe then ſhulde we ſteale out of thy lordſ houſe, eyther ſyluer or golde? wt whome ſoeuer of thy ſeruantes it be foũde, let hym dye, & we alſo wyl be my Lordes bondmen. And he ſayd: Nowe alſo let it be accordynge vnto your wordes: he wt whome it is founde, ſhalbe my ſeruant: and ye ſhalbe harmeleſſe. And Juda and his brethren came to Joſephs houſe, for he was yet there, and they fell before him on the grounde. And Joſeph ſaid vnto them: what dede is this which ye haue done? wote ye not that ſuche a man as I can propheſye? Then ſayd Juda: what ſhall we ſaye vnto my Lorde? what ſhall we ſpeake, or what excuſe can we make? God hath founde out the wyckednes of thy ſeruantes. D Beholde, bothe we & he with whome the cup is founde, are my lordes ſeruantes. And he anſwered: God forbyd that I ſhulde do ſo, but the man with whome the cup is founde/ he ſhalbe my ſeruant. And go ye in peace vnto your father. Then Juda went vnto hym and ſayde: oh my lorde, let thy ſeruant ſpeake a worde in my Lordſ eares, and be not wroth with thy ſeruant: for thou arte euen as Pharao. My Lorde asked his ſeruaunt, ſayenge: haue ye a father or a brother? And we anſwered my lorde E * we haue a father that is olde, and a yonge lad whiche he begat in his age: and the brother of the ſayde lad is dead, and he is all that is lefte of that mother. Then ſaydeſt thou vnto thy ſeruantes * except your yongeſt brother come with you, loke that ye ſe my face no more.

Neuertheleſſe: yf our yongeſt brother go with vs, then wyl we go downe, for we may not ſe the mãnes face, except our yongeſt brother be with vs. And thy ſeruant our father ſaid vnto vs: ye know that my wyfe bare me two Sonnes. For I thy ſeruaunt became ſuretye for the lad before my father, & ſayde: * Yf I brynge hym not vnto the agayne, I wyll beare the blame vnto my Father all my lyfe longe. Nowe therfore, let me thy ſeruant byde here for the lad, and be my lordes bondman: and let the lad go vp with his brethren. For how can I go vp to my father, yf the lad be not with me? onleſſe I wolde ſe the wretchedneſſe that ſhall come on my father.

And there remayned no man with hym/ whyle Joſeph vttred hym ſelfe vnto his brethren. And he * wepte alowde, ſo that the Egyptians, and the houſe of Pharao herde it.

And Joſeph ſayd vnto his brethren: I am Joſeph, doth my father yet lyue? And his brethren coulde not anſwere hym, they were ſo abaſſhed at his preſence. And Joſeph ſayde vnto his brethren: come nere to me, and they came nere. And he ſayde: * I am Joſeph your brother ⁊ whome ye ſolde into Egypte.

G They departed therfore from Egypte, and came in to the lande of Canaan/ vnto Jacob theyr father, and tolde hym ſayenge: Joſeph is yet alyue, and is gouerner ouer al the lande of Egypte. And Jacobs herte wauered/ for he bileued them not. And they told hym all the wordes of Joſeph, whiche he had ſayde vnto them. And when he ſawe the charettes whiche Joſeph had ſent to carye hym, the ſpiryte of God theyr father reuyued. And Iſraell ſayde: I haue ynough that Joſeph my Sonne is yet alyue: I wyl goo, and ſe hym, ere that I dye.

For euery ſhepeherde is abhominacion vnto the Egyptians.

¶ Jacob is brought before Pharao: to hym is geuen the lande of Goſan. He maketh his ſon ſweare for his buryall.

CAPI. XLVII.

A JOſeph came therfore/ and tolde Pharao, and ſayde: my Father, and my brethren, theyr ſhepe, and theyr oxen/ and all that they haue, are come out of the lande of Canaan, and beholde, they are in the lande of Goſan. And Joſeph toke of the hynmooſt of his brethren: euen fyue men, and preſented them vnto Pharao. And Pharao ſayde vnto his brethren: what is your occupacyon? And they anſwered Pharao: ſhepherdes are thy ſeruauntes/ bothe we and alſo our fathers.

They ſayde moreouer vnto Pharao: for to *ſoiourne in the lande are we come/ for thy ſeruauntes haue no paſture for theyr ſhepe/ ſo ſore is the famyn in the lande of Canaan. Nowe therfore let thy ſeruaũtes dwell in the lande of Goſan. Gen.

B And Pharao ſayde vnto Joſeph: thy father, and thy brethren are come vnto the. The lande of Egypte is before the: Jn the beſt place of the lande make bothe thy father and thy brethren dwell: euen in the lande of Goſan let them dwell. Moreouer yf thou knowe any men of actiuyte amonge them, make the rulers ouer my cattell. And Joſeph brought in Jacob his father, and ſet hym before Pharao. And Jacob bleſſyd Pharao. And Pharao ſayde vnto Jacob: howe olde arte thou? Jacob ſayde vnto Pharao: the dayes of my pylgrimage are an hundred and .xxx. yeares. Fewe and euyll haue the dayes of my lyfe ben, and haue not attayned vnto the yeares of the life of my fathers in the dayes of theyr pylgrimages. And Jacob bleſſed Pharao, and went out from hym.

And Joſeph prepared dwellynges for his Father and his brethren, and gaue them poſſeſſions in the lande of Egypte/ in the beſt of the lande: euen in the lande of Rameſes, as Pharao had cōmaunded. And Joſeph made prouiſyon for his father, his brethren/ and al his fathers houſholde with breade, euen as yonge chyldren are fed. C

There was no breade in all the lande/ for the derthe was exceadynge ſore: ſo that the lande of Egypte and the lande of Canaan were famyſſhed by the reaſon of the derthe. And Joſeph brought togyther all the money that was founde in the lande of Egypte and of Canaan, for the corne whiche they bought ⁊ he layde vp the money in Pharaos houſe. When money fayled in the lande of Egypte, and of Canaan, all the Egyptians came vnto Joſeph, and ſayde. Gyue vs breade: wherfore ſuffreſt thou vs to dye before the, when our money is ſpente? Then ſayde Joſeph: D bringe your cattell, and I wyll gyue you for your cattel yf ye be without money. And they brought theyr cattell vnto Joſeph. And Joſeph gaue them breade for horſes and ſhepe, and oxen, and aſſes, and fed them with bread for all theyr cattell that yeare.

But when that yere was ended, they came vnto hym the nexte yere, and ſayd vnto hym. We wyl not hyde it from my lorde, howe that our money is ſpente, my Lorde alſo had our cattell ⁊ beaſtes, neyther is there ought lefte in the ſyght of my lorde, but euen our bodies and oure landes. Wherfore letteſt thou vs dye before thyne eyes, and the lande to go to nought? Bye vs and oure landes for breade, and bothe we and our landes wyll be bonde to Pharao. Onely gyue vs ſeede, that we maye lyue and not dye, and that the lande go not to waſte.

And ſo Joſeph boughte all the lande of E Egypt for Pharao. For the Egyptians ſolde euery man his lande / bycauſe the derth was ſore vpon them, and ſo the land became Pharaos. And he appoynted the people vnto the Cityes from one ſyde of Egypte vnto the other: onely the lande of the Preeſtes bought he not. For the Preeſtes had an ordinaunce of Pharao, that they ſhulde eate that whiche was apointed vnto them, which Pharao had gyuen them, wherfore they ſold not theyr landes. Then Joſeph had ſayde vnto the folke: beholde, I haue bought you this day ⁊ your lande for Pharao. Take there ſeede and ſow the lande. And of the encreaſe, ye ſhall gyue the fyfth to Pharao, and .iiii. partes ſhall be your owne, for ſeede of the felde, and for you, and them of your houſholdes, and for youre chyldren, to eate. And they anſwered.

F Thou haſt ſaued our lyues. Let vs fynde grace in the ſyght of my Lorde, and we wyll be Pharaos ſeruauntes. And Joſeph made it a lawe ouer the lande of Egypte vnto this day, that Pharao ſhulde haue the fyfte parte excepte the lande of the preeſtes onely, which was not Pharaos.

And Iſrael dwelte in Egypte: euen in the countrey of Goſan. And they had theyr poſſeſſyons therin, and grewe and multiplied exceadyngly. Moreouer, Jacob lyued in the lande of Egypte .xvii. yeres, ſo that the hole age of Jacob was an hũdred and .xlvii. yere.

When the tyme drewe nye, that Iſrael G muſt dye: he ſent for his ſonne Joſeph, ⁊ ſayd to hym. If I haue founde grace in thy ſyght oh, put thy hande nowe vnder my thye, and deale mercyfully ⁊ truely with me, that thou bury me not in Egypte, but I wyll lye with my fathers, and thou ſhalte carye me out of Egypte, and bury me in theyr buryal. And he anſwered. I wyll do as thou haſt ſayde. And he ſayd * ſwere vnto me. Gene.25.b. And he ſware vnto hym. And Iſrael worſhypped towarde the beddes heade.

¶ Jacob lyeth ſycke: he deſyreth Ephraim and Manaſſes for his ſonnes, and bleſſeth them.

CAPI. XLVIII.

AFter theſe dedes it happened, that a A meſſenger ſayde vnto Joſeph, thy father is ſycke. And he toke with hym his two ſonnes, Manaſſes and Ephraim. Then was it ſayde vnto Jacob: beholde, thy ſonne Joſeph cometh vnto the. And Iſrael toke his ſtrength vnto hym, and ſat vp on the bed and Jacob ſayd vnto Joſeph. God almyghty appeared vnto me at * Lus in the lande of Gene.28. Canaan, and bleſſed me, and ſayde vnto me: beholde, I wyl make the growe, ⁊ wyl multiplye the, and wyll make a great * nombre of Gene.46.a people of the, and wyll gyue this lande vnto thy ſeede after the vnto an euerlaſtynge poſſeſſyon. And nowe thy two ſonnes Manaſſes ⁊ Ephraim which were borne vnto the in the lande of Egypte, before I came to the in to Egypte, are myne: euen as Ruben ⁊ Symeõ are myne. And the chyldren which thou haſt gotten after them, ſhalbe thyne owne: ⁊ ſhall be called after the names of theyr brethren in B theyr enheritaũce. And whẽ I came from Meſopotamia, Rahell * dyed vpon my hand in Gene.35.d. the lande of Canaan, by the way: when there was but a felde brede to come to Ephrat. And I buried her there in the way to Ephrat. The ſame is Bethleem. And Iſrael behelde Joſephs ſonnes ⁊ ſayd: what are theſe? Joſeph ſayde vnto his father: they are my ſonnes which god hath gyuen me here. And he ſayde: oh, bryng them to me, and let me bleſſe them. And the eyes of Iſrael were dym for age, ſo that he coulde not well ſe. And he broughte them to hym, ⁊ he kyſſed them ⁊ embraced them.

And Iſrael ſayde vnto Joſeph: I had not thought to haue ſene thy face, and yet loo/

God hath ſhewed it me and alſo thy ſede.
C And Ioſeph toke them awaye from his lap,
and worſhypped on the grounde before hym.
Then toke Ioſeph them bothe: Ephraim

hande, and Manaſſes with his lefte hand, towarde Iſraels ryght hande, & brought them vnto hym. And Iſrael ſtretched out his right hande and layde it vpon Ephraims heade, whiche was the yonger, and his lefte hande
vpon Manaſſes heade, gyvynge his handes wyſely, for Manaſſes was the elder. And he bleſſed Ioſeph, & ſayd: God, before whom my fathers Abraham & Iſaac dyd walke, God which hath fed me all my lyfe long vnto this daye. And the angell whiche hath delyuered me from all euyl, bleſſe theſe laddes: & let my name be named in them, & the name of my fathers Abraham and Iſaac, & that they maye grow in to a multitude/ in the myddes of the earth. When Ioſeth ſaw that his father layd his right hande vpon the heade of Ephraim, D it diſpleaſed hym. And he lyft vp his fathers hande, to haue remoued it from Ephraims heade vnto Manaſſes heade, & Ioſeph ſayde vnto his father: Not ſo my father, for this is the eldeſt. Put thy ryghte hande vpon his heade. And his father wolde not, but ſayd: I knowe it well my ſonne, I knowe it well. He ſhall be alſo a people and ſhall be great. But his yonger brother ſhall be greater then he,
and his ſeede ſhall be full of people. And he bleſſed them that daye and ſayde. In the let Iſrael bleſſe and ſaye. God make the as Ephraim and as Manaſſes. And ſet Ephraim before Manaſſes. And Iſrael ſayd vnto Ioſeph: beholde I dye. And God ſhall be with

Ruben, Symeon, Leui, & Juda, Iſachar Zabulon, & Beniamin, Dan, Neptali, Gad and Aſer. All theſe ſoules that came out of the loynes of Jacob were .lxx. But Joſeph was in Egypt alredy. And Joſeph dyed and all his brethren and all that generacion, Actes.vii.c. Psal.cvii.c and the * chyldren of Iſraell grewe, encreaſed, multiplied, and waxed exceadyng myghtye, and the lande was full of them.

B But there roſe vp a newe kyng in Egypte whiche knewe not Joſeph. And he ſayd vnto his folke: beholde, the people of the chyldren of Iſrael are greater and myghtyer then we. Come on, let vs playe wyſely with them, leſt they multiplye, & leſt it happen, that (yf there chaunce any warre) they ioyne them ſelues vnto oure enemyes and fyght agaynſte vs, and ſo get them out of the lande.

Therfore dyd they ſet taſke maysters ouer them, to kepe them vnder with burdens. And they bylt vnto Pharao treaſure cities: Phiton and Rameſes. But the more they vexed them, the more they multiplied and grewe, ſo that they abhorred the chyldren of Iſrael.

C And the Egyptians helde the chyldren of Iſrael in bondage without mercye. Therfore was theyr lyfe bytter vnto them in that cruel bondage, in clay and brycke, and al maner of worke in the feldes. For all the ſeruyce which they dyd vnto them, was full of tyranny.

And the kynge of Egypte ſayde vnto the mydwyues of the Ebrues women, of whiche the ones name was Sephora and the other Phua: when they do the offyce of a mydwyfe to the women of the Hebrues / and ſe in the byrth tyme that it is a boy, ye ſhall kyll it.

But yf it be a doughter, it ſhall lyue. Notwithſtandynge the mydwyues feared God / and dyd not as the kyng of Egypte cõmaunded them: but ſaued the menchyldren.

D And the kynge of Egypte called for the mydwyues, and ſayd vnto them: Why haue ye delte on this maner, & haue ſaued the men chyldren. And the mydwyues anſwered Pharao, that the Hebrues women are not as the women of Egypt: for they are ſturdy women and are delyuered ere the mydwyues come at them. And god therfore delte well with the mydwyues. And the people multiplyed and waxed very myghty. And it fortuned bycauſe the mydwyues feared GOD, he made them houſes. And Pharao charged all his people ſayenge: All the menchyldren that are borne, caſt in to the ryuer, and ſaue the mayde chyldren alyue.

¶ Moſes is borne and caſt on to the flagges. He is taken vp of Pharaos doughter. He kylleth the Egyptian. He fleeth, and maryeth a wyfe. The Iſraelites crye vnto the lorde.

CAPI. II.

A And there went a man of * the houſe of Leuy. And toke a doughter of Leuy.

And the wyfe conceyued / & bare a ſon.

And when ſhe ſawe that it was a proper chylde * ſhe hyd hym thre monethes. And whẽ ſhe coulde no longer hyde hym, ſhe toke a baſket of bulruſſhes and dawbed it with ſlyme and pytche, and layd the chylde therin, & put it in the flagges by the ryuers brynke. And his ſyſter ſtode a farre of, to wete what wolde come of it. * And the doughter of Pharao came downe * to waſſhe her ſelfe in the ryuer, and her maydens walked along by the ryuers ſyde. And when ſhe ſawe the baſket amonge the flagges, ſhe ſente her mayde to fetche it. And whẽ ſhe had opened it, ſhe ſawe it was a chylde: and beholde, the babe wepte. And ſhe had compaſſyon on it, and ſayde: It is one of the Hebrues chyldren.

B Then ſayd his ſyſter vnto Pharaos doughter: ſhal I go and call vnto the a nurſe of the Hebrues women, to nurſe the, the chylde. Pharaos doughter anſwered her: Go. And the mayd ran, and called the chyldes mother. To whom Pharaos doughter ſayde. Take this chylde awaye, and nurſe it for me, I wyl rewarde the. And the woman toke the chylde and nurſed it vp.

The chylde grewe, and ſhe brought it vnto Pharaos doughter, and it was made her ſon, and ſhe called the name of it Moſes, bycauſe (ſayd ſhe) I toke hym out of the water.

And it happened in thoſe dayes, when Moſes was waxed great, that he wente out vnto his brethren, and loked on theyr burdens, and ſpyed an Egyptian ſmytyng an Hebrue which was one of his brethren. And he loked rounde aboute, and when he ſaw no man by / he ſlewe the Egyptian, and hyd hym in the ſand. And whẽ he was gone out, another day beholde, two Hebrues ſtroue togyther. And he ſayde vnto hym that dyd the wronge.

wherfore ſmyteſt thou thy felowe? He anſwe-
red. * Who made the a man of auctoryte to iudge vs? Speakeſt thou to kyll me, as thou C kylledſt the Egyptyan? And Moſes feared and ſayd: of a ſuretye this thyng is knowen.
And Pharao herde of it, and wente aboute to ſlee Moſes. And Moſes fleynge from the face of Pharao, dwelte in the lande of Mi-dian, and he ſat downe by a welles ſyde.

The preeſt of Midian had .vii. doughters which came and drewe water, and fylled
the troghes, for to water theyr fathers ſhepe.
And the ſhepherdes came and droue them awaye. But Moſes ſtode vp and helped them and watered theyr ſhepe. And whe̅ they came to Raguel theyr father, he ſayd. How happe-neth it that ye are come ſo ſoone to day? And they anſwered. A man of Egypte delyuered vs from the hande of the ſhepherdes, and ſo drewe vs water, and watered the ſhepe. He ſayde vnto his doughters. And where is he?
why haue ye ſo lefte the man? Call hym that he may eate breade. And Moſes was content
D to dwell with the man. And he gaue Moſes Sephora his doughter, whiche when ſhe bare a ſonne * called hym Gerſon, for he ſayde.
I haue ben a ſtraunger in a ſtraunge lande.
❧ (And ſhe bare yet another ſonne, vvhome he called Elieſer, ſayenge: the God of my father is myn helper, and hath ryd me out of the handes of Pharao. And it chaunced in proceſſe of tyme, that the kynge of Egypte dyed, and the chyldren of Iſraell ſyghed by the reaſon of bondage, and cryed. And theyr complaynte came vp vnto God from the bondage, & god B herde theyr mone. And god remembred his promyſe with Abraham, Iſaac and Iacob.
And God loked vpon the chyldren of Iſrael,
and God had reſpecte vnto them.

¶ Moſes kepeth ſhepe. He ſeeth God in a buſſhe: he is ſent to the chyldren of Iſraell, and to Pharao that tyraunte.

CAPI. III.

A Moſes kepte the ſhepe of * Iethro his fadroue the flocke to the backeſyde of the deſerte, and came to the mountayne of God, Horeb. * And the angell of the Lorde appeared vnto hym in a flambe of fyre out of the myddes of the buſſhe. And he loked, & behold, the buſſhe burned with fyre, and the buſſhe

was not conſumed. Therfore Moſes ſayde.
I wyll go nowe, and ſe this great ſyght, how it cometh that the buſſhe burneth not. And when the Lorde ſawe that he came for to ſe, God called vnto hym out of the myddes of the buſſhe, and ſayd. Moſes, Moſes. He an- B ſwered: here am I. And he ſayd. * Come not Joſue. v. d.
hyther, put thy ſhoes of thy fete, for the place whereon thou ſtandeſt is holy grounde. And he ſayd * I am the god of thy father, the god Math. 22. c. Mar. xii. c. Luke. xx. e of Abraham, the god of Iſaac, and the god of Iacob. And Moſes hyd his face, for he was afrayed to loke vpon god.

And the Lorde ſayde: I haue ſurely ſene
the trouble of my people which are in Egypt
* & haue herde theyr crye fro̅ the face of theyr Exod. xxii. e Eccle. xxi. a taſke mayſters. For I knowe theyr ſorowes and am come downe to delyuer them, out of the hande of the Egyptyans, and to brynge C them out of that lande vnto a good land and a large, and vnto a lande that floweth with mylke and hony, euen vnto the place of the Cananites and Hethytes, and Amorites, and Pherezites, and Heuites, and of the Iebuſites. Now therfore, the complaynt of the chyldren of Iſrael is come vnto me. And I haue alſo ſene the oppreſſyon wherwith the Egyptians oppreſſe them. Come thou therfore, &
I wyll ſende the vnto Pharao, that yͧ mayſt brynge my people the chyldren of Iſrael out of Egypt? And Moſes ſayd vnto god. what am I to go vnto Pharao, and to brynge the chyldren of Iſrael out of Egypte? And he anſwered. I wyll be with the. And this ſhall be D a token vnto the, that I haue ſent the. After that yͧ haſt brought the people out of Egypt,
ye ſhall ſerue God vpon this mountayne.

And Moſes ſayde vnto God. Beholde, when I come vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, I ſhal ſay vnto them. The god of your fathers hath ſent me vnto you, and yf they ſaye vnto me, what is his name, what anſwere ſhall I gyue them? And god anſwered Moſes. I am that I am. And he ſayd, this ſhalte thou ſay vnto the chyldren of Iſrael: I AM hath ſent me vnto you. And God ſpake further vnto Moſes. Thus ſhalte thou ſay vnto the chyldren of Iſrael * the Lorde God of youre fa- Hebre. xi. e thers, the God of Abraham, the god of Iſaac E
and the god of Iacob hath ſent me vnto you:
this is my name for euer, and this is my memorall in to generacyon and generacyon.

Go and gather the elders of Iſrael togy-ther, and thou ſhalte ſaye vnto them. The Lorde god of your fathers, the god of Abraham, the God of Iſaac, and the God of Ia-cob appeared vnto me, and ſayde.

In viſytyng haue I viſited you, and know that whiche is done to you in Egypte. And I haue ſayde, I wyll brynge you out of the tri-bulacyon of Egypte vnto the lande of the Cananytes, and Hethytes, and Amorytes, and Pherezites, & Heuytes, and Iebuſytes, euen vnto a lande that floweth with mylke, and hony. And when they heare thy voyce then go/ bothe thou and the elders of Iſraell ſhall go vnto the kynge of Egypte, and ſaye vnto hym. The Lorde God of the Hebrues G hath met with vs, & now wyll we go therfore thre dayes iourney in to the wyldernes / and do ſacrifyce vnto the lorde oure god. And I am ſure/ that the kynge of Egypte wyll not let you go, no not in a myghtye hande: and I wyll ſtretche out myne hande and ſmyte Egypte with all my wanders whiche I wyll do in the myddes therof. And after that he Exodi. xi. a and. xii. e wyll let you go. And * I wyll get this people fauour in the ſyght of the Egyptians, ſo that when ye go, ye ſhal not go emptie, but a wyfe ſhall borowe of her neyghboures, and of her that ſoiourneth in her houſe, iewels of ſyluer and of golde, and rayment. And ye ſhall put them on your ſonnes and doughters, & ſhall rob the Egyptians.

CAPI. IIII.

A MOſes anſwerd and ſayd. Se, they wyl not byleue me nor herkẽ vnto my voyce but wyll ſay, the Lorde hath not appeared vnto the. And the Lorde ſayd vnto hym. What is that whiche is in thyne hande? He anſwered, a rod. And he ſayde. Caſt it on the grounde. And he caſt it on the grounde, and it became a ſerpente. And Moſes fled from the ſyght of it. And the Lorde ſayd vnto Moſes. Put forth thyne hande and take it by the tayle. And therfore he put forth his hand and caught it, and it became a rod in his hande. For this thynge (ſayth he) ſhall they byleue the, that the Lorde God of theyr fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Iſaac, and the B God of Iacob, hath appeared vnto the.

And the Lorde ſayd forthermore vnto hym Thruſt thyne hande into thy boſome, and he thruſt his hande in to his boſome. And when he toke it out agayne, beholde, his hand was leperous euen as ſnowe. And he ſayde. Put thyne hande in thy boſome agayne. And he put his hande in to his boſome agayne, and plucked it out of his boſome, and beholde, it was turned agayne as his other fleſhe.

Therfore yf they wyll not byleue the, neyther heare the voyce of the fyrſt token, yet wyl they byleue for the voyce of the ſeconde tokẽ. But and yf they wyll not byleue the two ſygnes, neyther herken vnto thy voyce. Thou C ſhalte take the water of the ryuer, and powre it vpon the drye lande, And the water whiche thou takeſt out of the ryuer, ſhall turne to bloode vpon the drye lande.

Moſes ſayd vnto the Lorde: oh my Lorde, I am not eloquent from yeſterday and ere yeſterday, and namely ſynce thou haſt ſpokẽ vnto thy ſeruaunt, but I am ſlowe mouthed and ſlowe tonged. And the Lorde ſayde vnto hym. Who hath made mans mouth, or who hath made the dombe or the deafe, the ſeyng, or the blynde? haue not I the Lorde? Therfore D * I wyll be with thy mouthe, and teache the Math. what thou ſhalte ſay. He ſayd: oh my Lorde, ſende I pray the by the hande of hym whom thou wylte ſende. And the Lorde was angry with Moſes, & ſayd. Do not I know Aaron thy brother the leuyte, that he can ſpeake? For lo, he cometh forth to mete the, and when he ſeeth the, he wyll be glad in his herte. Therfore thou ſhalte ſpeake vnto hym, and put theſe wordes in his mouth, and I wyl be with thy mouth and with his mouth, & wyll teache you what ye ought to do. And he ſhall be thy ſpokeſman vnto the people. He alſo ſhall be as thy mouth, and thou ſhalte be his God, & thou ſhalte take this rod in thy hande wherwith thou ſhalte do myracles.

E Therfore Moſes wente and returned to Iethro his father in lawe agayne, and ſayde vnto hym. I wyl go nowe and turne agayne vnto my brethren whiche are in Egypte, and ſe whyther they be yet alyue. And Iethro ſayd to Moſes, go in peace. And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes in Midian. Go, and returne agayne in to Egypte * for the men are deade whiche wente aboute to kyll the. And Moſes toke his wyfe and his ſonnes, and put them on an aſſe, and went agayne to Egypte, and Moſes toke the rod of God in his hande.

And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, when thou arte entred & come into Egypte agayne ſe that thou do all the wondres before Pharao whiche I haue put in thy hande. But I wyll holde * his herte, and he ſhal not let the F people go. And thou ſhalte ſay vnto Pharao thus ſayeth the Lorde. Iſrael is myn eldeſt ſonne, and I haue ſayde vnto the, that thou ſhuldeſt let my ſonne go, that he maye ſerue me, and thou woldeſt not let hym go: beholde I wyll * ſlee thyne eldeſt ſonne.

And it chaunced by the waye in the Inne that the Lorde met hym, and wolde haue kylled hym. And Zephora toke a ſtone, and cut awaye the foreſkyn of her ſonne, and fell at his feete, and ſayde. A bloody huſbande arte thou vnto me. Then he let hym go. And ſhe ſayde a bloody huſbande, bycauſe of the circumciſion.

Then ſayde the lorde vnto Aaron: go mete Moſes in the wyldernes. And he went and G met hym in the mount of God, & kyſſed hym. And Moſes told Aaron al the wordes of the lorde which had ſent hym, and all the tokens which he had charged hym withal. So went Moſes and Aaron & gathered all the elders of the chyldren of Iſrael. And Aaron tolde al the wordes which the lorde had ſpoken vnto Moſes, and dyd the myracles in the ſyght of the people, and the people byleued. And when they herde that the lorde had viſited the chyldren of Iſrael, & had loked vpon theyr tribulacion, they bowed theyr head, & worſhipped.

CAPI. V.

A MOſes and Aaron went in afterwarde, and tolde Pharao, thus ſayth the lorde God of Iſrael. Let my people go, that they may kepe holy day vnto me in the wyldernes. And Pharao ſayd: who * is the lorde that I ſhulde heare his voyce, and let Iſrael go? I knowe not the Lorde, neyther wyl I let Iſrael go. And they ſayd, the God of the Hebrues hath met with vs, and therfore wyl we go thre dayes iourney in to the deſerte, and ſacrifice vnto the Lorde our God, leeſt there happen vnto vs eyther peſtylence or ſwerde. Then ſayd the kynge of Egypte vnto them. xi.b.

Wherfore do ye, Moſes and Aaron let the people from theyr workes, get you vnto your laboure. And Pharao ſayd furthermore. Beholde there is moche people nowe in the land and ye make them leaue theyr worke.

And Pharao cõmaunded the ſame daye vnto the taſke mayſters whiche were among the people, and vnto the offycers, ſayeng. Ye ſhal gyue the people no more ſtrawe, to make brycke withall, (as ye dyd in tyme paſſed) let them go and gather them ſtrawe them ſelues and the nombre of brycke whiche they were B wonte to make in tyme paſſed, lay vnto theyr charges alſo, and mynyſhe nothyng therof.

For they be ydle, and therfore crye, ſayeng. We wyll go and do ſacrifice vnto our God.

They muſt haue more worke layde vpon them, that they may laboure therin, and not regarde vayne wordes.

Then went the taſke mayſters of the people and the officers out, and tolde the people. Thus ſaythe Pharao. I wyll gyue you no more ſtrawe, go your ſelues and gather you ſtrawe where ye can fynde it, yet ſhall none of your laboure be mynyſſhed. And ſo were the people ſcatered abrode thorowe out all the lande of Egypte for to gather ſtubble, in ſteade of ſtrawe.

C And the taſke mayſters haſted them forwarde, ſayenge. Fulfyll your workes day by day, euen as yf ye had ſtrawe. And the offycers of the chyldren of Iſrael whiche Pharaos taſke mayſters had ſet ouer them, were beaten. And they ſayd vnto them. Wherfore haue ye not fulfylled your taſke in makynge brycke, bothe yeſterdaye and to daye, as well as in tyme paſſed?

The offycers alſo of the chyldren of Iſrael came and complayned vnto Pharao, ſayeng. Wherfore dealeſt thou thus with thy ſeruauntes? There is no ſtrawe gyuen vnto thy ſeruauntes, and they ſay vnto vs: make brycke. And thy ſeruauntes are beaten, and thy people is foule intreated. He ſayde: ydell are ye, ydell, and therfore ye ſay, we wyll go and do ſacrifice vnto the Lorde. Go therfore nowe & worke, & there ſhal no ſtrawe be gyuen you, & yet ſhal ye delyuer the hole tale of brycke.

D And the offycers of the chyldren of Iſrael dyd with heuynes loke on them that ſayd. Ye ſhall mynyſſhe nothynge of your dayly makynge of brycke. And they met Moſes and Aaron, whiche ſtode in theyr waye as they came out from Pharao, and ſayd vnto them.

The Lorde loke vnto you and iudge you, whiche hath made the ſauoure of vs ſtynke in the eyes of Pharao, and in the eyes of his ſeruauntes, and haue put a ſwerde in theyr hande to ſlee vs.

Moſes returned vnto the Lorde & ſayde. Lorde, wherfore haſt thou delte cruelly with this people, and wherfore haſt thou ſent me? For ſynce I came to Pharao to ſpeake in thy name, he hath fared foule with this folke, & yet thou haſt not delyuered thy people at all. Then the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes. Nowe ſhalte thou ſe, what I wyll do vnto Pharao, for in a myghtye hande ſhall he let them go, and * in a myghty hande ſhall he dryue them out of his lande. Exod.14.b

And behold, hytherto thou woldeſt not here. ¶ Thus ſayeth the Lorde: In this thou ſhalte know that I am the Lorde. Beholde, I wyll ſmyte (with the rod that is in myn hande) the water that is in the ryuer, and it ſhal turne to blode. And the fyſſhe that is in the ryuer ſhall dye, & the ryuer ſhal ſtynke, & it ſhal greue the Egyptiās to drynke of the water of the ryuer

And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſay vnto Aaron: take thy rod, and ſtretche out thyn D hande ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer theyr ſtreames, ouer theyr ryuers, and pondes and all poles of water, which they haue, that they maye be bloode, and that there may be blode thorowe out all the lande of Egypte: bothe in veſſels of woode, and alſo of ſtoone. And Moſes, and Aaron dyd euen as the Lorde cōmaunded. And he lyfte vp the rod, and ſmote the waters that were in the riuer in the ſyght of Pharao, & in the ſyght of his ſeruauntes/ and all the water that was in the ryuer, turned into bloode. And the fyſſhe that was in the ryuer dyed * and the ryuer ſtank, and the al.78.c. cv.e. Egyptians coude not drynke of the waters of the ryuer. And there was bloode thorowout all the lande of Egypt. And the enchaūters of Egypt dyd lykewyſe with theyr ſorceryes, and he hardened Pharaos herte: neyther dyd he herken vnto them * as the Lorde o.iii.b had ſayd. And Pharao turned him ſelfe, and vii.a went agayne into his houſe, and ſet not his herte there vnto. And the Egiptians dygged round aboute the ryuer for water to drynke/ for they coulde not drynke of the water of the ryuer. And it contynued a weke after that the Lorde had ſmyten the ryuer.

¶ The plage of Frogges. Moſes prayeth for Pharao. The plage of lyſe.

CAPI. VIII.

A The Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes/ Go vnto Pharao and tell hym, thus ſayeth the vii.c Lorde: * Let my people goo, that they x.a. maye ſerue me. Yf thou wylt not let them go: beholde, I wyl ſmyte al thy borders with frogges. And the ryuer ſhall ſcrall with frogges, whiche ſhall go vp & come into thyne houſe/ and in to thy preuy chambre where thou ſlepeſt, and vpon thy bed/ and into the houſe of thy ſeruauntes, and vpon thy people, and in to thyne ouens/ and vpon thy meates. And the frogges ſhall come vpon the, and on thy people and vpon all thy ſeruauntes.

B * And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes: ſaye Pſal.78.c. and.cv.e. vnto Aaron, ſtretche forth thyne hande with thy rod ouer the ſtremes, ouer the riuers, and ouer the pondes/that thou mayeſt bryng vp frogges vpon the lande of Egypt. And Aarō ſtretched his hande/ ouer the waters of Egypte, and the frogges came vp, and couered the lande of Egypte. And the ſorcerers dyd lykewyſe wͭ theyr ſorcery, & brought frogges vp vpon the lande of Egypte. ¶ Then Pharao 3.Reg.13.b Exodi.ix.f and x.e Actes.viii.d called for Moſes, & Aaron, and ſayd, * praye ye vnto the lorde, that he may take away the frogges from me, and from my people/ and I wyll let the people go, that they may do ſacrifyce vnto the Lorde.

C And Moſes ſayde vnto Pharao: Reioyſe thou ouer me, & appoynte when I ſhall pray for the, and for thy ſeruauntes, and for thy people, to dryue awaye the frogges from the, and thy houſes, and that they maye remayne but in the ryuer onely. He ſayde: to morowe. And he ſayde: euen as thou haſt ſayde, that thou mayſt knowe that there is none lyke vnto the lorde our god. And ſo the frogges ſhal departe from the, and from thy houſes, from thy ſeruauntes, and from thy people, & ſhall remayne in the ryuer onely.

D Moſes, and Aaron, went out from Pharao, and Moſes cryed vnto the Lorde vpon the apoyntment of frogges, whiche he had made vnto Pharao. And the lorde dyd accordyng to the ſayeng of Moſes. And the frogges dyed out of the houſes, out of the courtes and feldes. And they gathered them togyther vpon heapes, & the land ſtanke of them.

But when Pharao ſawe that he had reſt gyuen hym, he hardened his herte, and herkned not vnto them, as the Lorde had ſayde.

And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes: ſaye vnto Aaron: ſtretche out thy rod, and ſmyte the duſt of the lande, that it may turne to lyſe thorow out all the lande of Egypte.

E And they dyd ſo. For Aaron ſtretched out his hand, and with his rod he ſmote the duſt of the earth, whiche turned to lyſe in man, and beaſt, ſo that al the duſt of the lande turned to lyſe, thorowout all the land of Egypt. and the enchaunters aſſayde lykewyſe with theyr enchauntmentes to brynge forth lyſe,

but they coulde not. And the lyſe were bothe

vnto Pharao: it is the fyngre of God. And Pharaos herte remayned obſtynate, Exodi. 7. a. and he herkened not vnto them, euen

And the Lorde ſayd vnto Moſes: ryſe vp

Lorde: let my people go, that they may ſerue

Wherby thou ſhalte knowe, that I am the

And euen to morowe ſhall this myracle be done. The lorde dyd euen ſo: and there came noyſome flees into the houſe of Pharao, and into his ſeruauntes houſes, and in to all the lande of Egypte: and the lande was corrupt, with theſe flees. And Pharao called for Moſes, and Aaron/ and ſayde: Go, and do ſacrifyce vnto your God in the lande. And Moſes anſwered: it is not mete that we ſo do. For then we muſt offre vnto the Lorde our God,
that which is an abhominacyon vnto the Egyptians:
But and yf we ſacrifice that which is an abhominacion vnto the Egyptians before theyr eyes, ſhulde they not ſtoone vs? we wyll go thre dayes iournay into the deſerte, Exodi. iii. f. and ſacrifyce vnto the Lorde our God * as he hath commaunded vs.

G And Pharao ſayd: I wyll let you go, that ye may ſacrifice vnto the Lorde your God in the wyldernesſe, but go not farre away, praye for me. And Moſes ſayd: beholde, I wyll go out from the, & pray vnto the Lorde, that the flees maye departe from Pharao/ and from his ſeruauntes, and from his people to morowe.
But let Pharao from hence forth deceyue
no more, that he wyl not let the people go to ſacrifyce vnto the Lorde. And Moſes went out from Pharao/ & prayed vnto the lorde. And the lorde dyd accordyng to the ſayenge of Moſes, and the flees departed from Pharao and from his ſeruauntes, and from his people and there remayned not one. And Pharao hardened his herte euen then alſo,
and dyd not let the people go.

¶ The moren of beaſtes. The plage of botches and ſores.

And the Lorde dyd it on the morowe, and all of the chyldren of Iſraell dyed not one. And Pharao ſent, and beholde there was not one

ſores with blaynes both in mē and beaſtes/
and the ſorcerers coulde not ſtand before Moſes

D Yet thou exalteſt thy ſelfe agaynſte my people, that thou wylt not let thē go: behold, to morowe this tyme I wyll ſende downe a myghtye great hayle: euen ſuch a one as was not in Egypte ſynce it was grounded vnto this tyme. Sende therfore nowe, and gather thy beaſtes, ⁊ all that thou haſt in the felde. For vpon all the men, ⁊ beaſtes whiche are founde in the felde, and not brought home, ſhall the hayle fall, ⁊ they ſhall dye. And as many as feared the word of the lorde among the ſeruaūtes of Pharao, made theyr ſeruaūtes and theyr beaſtes flee into the houſes: but he that regarded not the worde of the Lorde, lefte his ſeruaūtes, ⁊ his beaſtes in the felde.

E And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes; ſtretch forth thy hande vnto heuen, that there maye be hayle in all the lande of Egypt, vpon men and vpon beaſtes, and vpon al the herbes of the felde thorowout the lande of Egypt. And Moſes ſtretched out his rod vnto heuen, ⁊ the lorde thondred ⁊ hayled, and the fyre ran a longe vpon the ground. Pſal.78.c. and.cv.c * And the Lorde ſo hayled in the lande of Egypt, that there was hayle ⁊ fyre mengled with the hayle, ſo greuous, ⁊ ſuche as there was noone thorowout all the lande of Egypt, ſynce people inhabyted it. And the hayle ſmote thorowout all the lande of Egypt, al that was in the felde both man/and beaſt. And ſo the flaxe and the barly were ſmytten, for the barly was ſhotte vp, and the flax was bolled: but the wheate, and the rye were not ſmyten, for they were late ſowne. And when Pharao ſawe that the rayne/and the hayle and thonder were ceaſed, he ſynned agayne, ⁊ hardened his herte: he and his ſeruaūtes. And the herte of Pharao was hardened/neyther wolde he let the Chyldren of Iſraell go, as the Lorde had ſayde by ☞ the hande of Moſes. ☞

¶ The herte of Pharao is hardened of God. The greſhoppers. The thycke darkneſſe.

CAPI. X.

A And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes: go in vnto Pharao: For * I haue hardened Exod.iiii.c his herte, ⁊ the herte of his ſeruauntes, that I myght put theſe my ſygnes amongeſt them, and that thou tel in the audience of thy ſonne, and of thy ſonnes ſon/what thynges I haue done in Egypt, ⁊ the myracles which I haue done among them: that ye may know howe that I am the Lorde. And ſo Moſes ⁊ Aaron came vnto Pharao, and ſayde vnto hym: Thus ſayeth the Lorde God of the Hebrues: how longe ſhal it be or thou wylt ſubmyt thy ſelfe vnto me? Exod.8.a. and 9,a * Let my people go, that they maye ſerue me. And Pharaos ſeruaūtes ſayd vnto hym: Howe longe ſhall he be a ſlaunder vnto vs? Let the men go, that they may ſerue the lorde theyr god: knoweſt thou not yet that Egypte is deſtroyed? And Moſes, and Aaron were brought agayne vnto Pharao, and he ſayde vnto them. Go and ſerue the lorde your god. Who are they that ſhal go? And Moſes anſwered: we wyll go with our yonge, and with our olde: yea and with our ſonnes/and with our doughters, and with our ſhepe, and with our oxen muſt we goo: For we muſte holde a feaſt vnto the Lorde.

C And he ſayde vnto them: let it be ſo. The Lorde be with you. When I let you go, and your chyldrē alſo: take hede, for ye haue ſome myſchefe in hande. Naye not ſo: but go they that are men and ſerue the lorde, for that was your deſyre. And they thruſt thē out of Pharaos preſence. And the Lorde ſayd vnto Moſes: Stretch out thy hande, ouer the lande of Egypt for greſhoppers, that they may come vpon the lande of Egypte, and eate all the herbes of the lande, & all that the hayle lefte behynde. And Moſes ſtretched forth his rod ouer the lande of Egypt, & the lorde brought an Eaſt wynde vpon the lande/ all that daye and all that nyght.

And they dyd eate all the herbes of the lande, and al the fruytes of the trees, & whatſoeuer the hayle had lefte: there was no grene thynge lefte in the trees, & herbes of the felde thorow al the land of Egypt.

E Exodi. ix. f. ☞

And Pharao called for Moſes and ſayd: go, and ſerue the Lorde, onely let your ſhepe, and your oxen abyde, and let youre chyldren go with you. And Moſes ſayde: thou muſte gyue vs alſo offerynge/ and burntofferynges, for to ſacrifyce vnto the Lorde our God: our cattel alſo ſhal go with vs, and there ſhal not one hooffe be lefte behynde, for therof muſte we take to ſerue the lorde our God. Nowe I knowe that the Lorde is greater then all Goddes, for

☞ ☞ in the thynge wherby they delte cruellye with them, are they them ſelues peryſſhed.

And Iethro Moſes father in lawe offred burntoffrynges & ſacrifices vnto God. And Aaron & all the elders of Iſrael came to eate breade wͭ Moſes father in lawe before God.

C And it chaunced on the morowe, that Moſes ſat to iudge the people, & the people ſtode aboute Moſes from mornynge vnto euen. And when Moſes father in law ſawe al that he dyd vnto the people, he ſayd. What is this that thou doeſt vnto the people? why ſytteſt thou thy ſelfe alone, and al the people ſtande aboute the from mornynge vnto euen? And Moſes ſayd vnto his father in lawe: bycauſe the people cometh vnto me to ſeke counſel of God. When they haue a matter, they come vnto me, and I iudge bytwene euery man & his neyghboure, & ſhewe them the ordinaunces of God and his lawes.

And Moſes father in lawe ſayd vnto hym: it is not well that thou doeſt. Thou both weryeſt thy ſelfe, and this people that is with the: for this thynge is of more weyght, then * thou arte able to perfourme thy ſelfe alone. Deute.i.b

Heare nowe therfore my voyce, and I wyll gyue the counſel, and God ſhall be with the. Be thou vnto the people to Godwarde, that thou mayſt brynge the cauſes vnto God, and thou ſhalt teache them ordinaunces & lawes, and ſhewe them the waye wherin they muſt walke, and the worke that they muſt do.

D Moreouer thou ſhalte ſeke out amonge all the people, men of actiuite, and ſuch as feare God: true men, hatyng coueteouſnes/ & make them heades ouer the people, and captaynes ouer thouſandes, ouer hundreds, ouer fyftie and ouer ten. And let them iudge the people at all ceaſons. And euery * great matter that happeneth, let them brynge vnto the, but let them iudge all ſmall cauſes them ſelues, and ſo ſhal it be eaſyer for thy ſelfe, and they ſhall beare with the. If thou ſhalt do this thynge, (and God charge the withall) thou ſhalt be able to endure, and yet the people ſhall come to theyr place in peace. Deute.i.c

And ſo Moſes obeyed the voyce of his father in lawe, and dyd all that he had ſayd, and choſe actyue men out of all Iſrael, and made them as heades ouer the people: namely, captaynes ouer thouſandes, ouer hundreds, ouer fyftie, and ouer ten. And they iudged the people at al ceaſons, but brought the harde cauſes vnto Moſes, and iudged al ſmall matters them ſelues. And Moſes let his father in lawe departe/ and he went in to his owne lande.

¶ The chyldren of Iſraell come to the mounte Sinay. The people of god are holy, and a royall preſthod. He that toucheth the hyll dyeth. God appeareth vnto Moſes vpon the mounte in thondre, and lyghtnynge.

CAPI. XIX.

In the thyrde moneth / when the chyldren of Iſraell were goone out of the lande of Egypte, the ſame day came they in to the wyldernes of Sinay. * For they were departed from Raphidim, and were come to the deſerte of Sinay, and had pytched theyr tentes in the wyldernes. And there Iſrael abode before the mount. * But Moſes went vp vnto God. And the Lorde called to hym out of the mountayne/ ſayinge: Thus ſhalt thou ſaye vnto the houſe of Iacob, and tell the chyldrẽ of Iſrael: ye haue ſene what I dyd vnto the Egyptyans, and toke you vp vpon Egles wyngs, and haue brought you vnto my ſelfe. Nowe therfore * yf ye wyll heare my voyce in dede, and kepe myne appoyntment: ye ſhal be myne owne, aboue all nacyons, for all the earth is myne. And the peole anſwered all togyther, & ſayd. * All that the Lorde hath ſayde, we wyll do. And Moſes brought the wordes of the peple vnto the Lorde. And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes. Lo, I come vnto the in the thycke clowde, that the people may here me talkyng with the, & byleue the for euer. Moſes ſhewed the wordes of the people vnto the Lorde. Exod.24.a Deut.v.b. and.26.vi.b.

And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes. Go vnto the people, and ☞ ſanctifie them to daye and to morowe, & let them waſſhe theyr clothes: and be redy agaynſt the thyrde daye. ☞

For the thyrde daye the Lorde wyll come downe in the ſyghte of all the people vpon mount Sinay. And thou ſhalte ſet markes rounde aboute the people and ſaye: beware, that ye go not vp in to the mounte, or touche the border of it. Who ſo euer toucheth the *mount ſhall ſurely dye. There ſhall not an hande touche it. Els he ſhalbe ſtoned or ſhot thorowe: whyther it be beaſt or man, it ſhall not lyue: when the trompe bloweth longe: then may they come vp into the mountayne. Hebre.12.e

C And Moſes went downe from the mount vnto the people, and ſanctified them, & they waſſhed theyr clothes. And he ſayde vnto the people: Be redy agaynſt the thyrde day, and ☞ come not at your wyues. ☞

And the thyrde daye in the mornynge there was thonder, and lyghtnynge, and a thycke clowde vpon the mount, and the voyce of the trompe excedyng lowde, ſo that al the people that was in the hooſt was afrayde. And Moſes broughte the people out of the tentes to Deute.4.b mete with god, & they * ſtode vnder the hyll.

And mounte Synay was all togyther on a ſmoke: bycauſe the Lorde deſcended downe vpon it in fyre. And the ſmoke therof aſcended vp, as the ſmoke of a chymney, and al the mount was excedyng fearfull. And when the voyce of the trompe blewe, & wared lowder and lowder. Moſes ſpake, and God anſwered hym by a voyce. D And the Lorde came downe vpon mounte Synay, euen in the top of the hyll, and when the lorde called Moſes vp into the top of the hyll, Moſes went vp.

And the lorde ſayd vnto Moſes: go downe charge the people, that they preaſe not vp to ſe the Lorde, and ſo many of them peryſſhe. And let the preeſtes alſo whiche come to the lorde ſanctifie them ſelues, leſt the Lorde deſtroy them. And Moſes ſayd vnto the lorde: the people can not come vp in to the mounte Synay, for thou chargedſt vs, ſayeng: Set markes aboute the hyll, and ſanctifie it. And the lorde ſayd vnto hym: awaye, and get the downe: & thou ſhalte come vp, thou & Aaron with the. But let not the Preeſtes and the people preſume for to come vp vnto the lord, leeſt he deſtroye them. And ſo Moſes wente downe vnto the people, and tolde them.

A AND of the yelowe ſylke, purple & ſcarlet they made the veſtimentes of miniſtracyon to do ſeruyce in the holy place, & made the holye garmentes foꝛ Aaron, as the Loꝛde cõmaunded Moſes. And he made the Ephod of golde, yelowe ſylke, purple, ſcarlet & whyte twined ſylke. And they dyd beate the golde in to thyn plates, & cut it in to wyers, to woꝛke it in the yelowe ſylke, purple, ſcarlet and in the fyne whyte, with bꝛodered woꝛke.

B And they wꝛought Onix ſtones cloſed in ouches of golde, and graued as ſygnettʒ are grauen, with the names of the chyldꝛẽ of Iſraell, and put them on the ſhoulders of the Ephod, that they ſhulde be ſtoones foꝛ a remembꝛaunce of the chyldꝛen of Iſrael, as the Loꝛde cõmaunded Moſes. And he made the bꝛeſtlap of cõnyng woꝛke, & lyke the woꝛke of Ephod, euen of gold, yelow ſylke, purple, ſcarlet, & twyned whyte ſylke. It was .iiii. ſquare, and they made the bꝛeſtlap double, an hande bꝛedth long, and an hande bꝛedth bꝛode. And they fylled it with .iiii. rowes of ſtones. For their anoyntyng ſhalbe an euerlaſting preeſthode vnto them thorowout their generaciōs. * And Moſes dyd accordyng to all that the Lorde cōmaunded hym: euen ſo dyd he.

C Thus was the Tabernacle reared vp the fyrſte daye in the fyrſte moneth in the ſeconde yere. And Moſes reared vp the Tabernacle and faſtened his ſockettes, and ſet vp the bordes therof, and put in the barres of it & reared vp his pyllers, and ſpred abrode the tent ouer the habitacion, & put ☞ the couerynge of the tent on hye aboue it: as the lorde cōmaunded Moſes. And he toke ☞ the teſtimony, and put it in the arke, & ſet the barres to the arke, & put the mercyſeate on hye vpon the arke, & brought the arke in to the habitacyon, & hanged vp the vayle, and couered the arke of wytneſſe, as the Lorde cōmaunded D Moſes. And he put the table in the Tabernacle of wytnes in the north ſyde of the habitacyon (but without the vayle) & ſet the bread in order before the Lorde, euen as the Lorde had cōmaunded Moſes. And he put the candelſtycke in the tabernacle of wytneſſe, ouer agaynſt the table, towarde the ſouth ſyde of the habitacion, & ſet vp the lampes before the Lorde: as the lorde cōmaunded Moſes. And he put the golden aulter in the tabernacle of wytneſſe before the vayle, & brent ſwete ſence theron, as the lorde cōmaunded Moſes. And he hanged vp the hangyng at the dore of the habitacion, & ſet the burntofferyng aulter by the entryng in of the habitacion of the tabernacle of wytneſſe, & offred burntofferynges and meatofferynges theron, as the Lorde cōmaunded Moſes.

* And he ſet the lauer bytwene the tabernacle of wytneſſe & the aulter, & powred water E therin, to waſſhe withal. And Moſes, Aaron & his ſonnes waſſhed theyr handes, & theyr feete therat, when they went in to the tabernacle of wytnes, & when they went to the aulter they waſſhed them ſelues, as the lorde cōmaūded Moſes. And he reared vp the court rounde aboute the habitacyon & the aulter, & ſet vp an hangyng at the courte gate: and ſo Moſes finiſſhed the worke. * And the cloude couered the tabernacle of wytnes, & the glory of the lorde fylled the habitacion. And Moſes coulde not entre in to the Tabernacle of wytneſſe, bycauſe the clowde abode theron, & the glory of the lorde fylled the habitacyon. (For the cloude had couered all,) And when the cloude was taken vp from of the habitacyon, the chyldren of Iſrael toke theyr iourneys thorowout theyr armyes. And when the cloude was not taken vp, they iourneyed not tyll it was taken vp: for the cloude of the lord was vpon the habitacion by day, and fyre by nyght, in the ſyght of all the houſe of Iſrael thorowout all theyr armyes.

Al the males among the preeſtes ſhal eate therof in the holye place, for it is mooſt holye. As the ſynneofferyng is, ſo is the treſpaceofferyng, one lawe ſerueth for both, and it ſhall be the Preeſtes that reconcyleth therwith. And the Preeſt that offereth any mans ☞ burntofferynge, ☞ ſhall haue the ſkynne of the burntofferynge whiche he hath offered. And all the meatofferynge that is baken in the ouen, and that is dreſſed vpon the gredyren, ⁊ in the fryenge pan, ſhall be the preeſtes that offereth it. And euery meatofferyng that is myngled with oyle, and that is drye, ſhall perteyne vnto all the ſonnes of Aaron / and one ſhall haue as muche as another.

B This is the lawe of peaceofferyng, when it is offered vnto the Lorde. Yf he offre it to gyue thankꝭ, he ſhal brynge vnto his thankeofferynge, ſwete cakes myngled with oyle/ and ſwete wafers anoynted with Oyle, and cakes myngled with oyle of fyne flour fryed.

He ſhall brynge his offeryng vpon cakes of leuended breade for his peaceofferyngꝭ to gyue thankes: and of all the ſacrifyce he ſhal offre one for an heueofferyng vnto the lorde, and it ſhall be the preeſtes that ſprynkled the bloode of the peaceofferynges. And the fleſſhe of the thankeofferyng in his peaceofferyngꝭ ſhalbe eaten the ſame daye that it is offered. And let hym laye vp nothyng of it vntyll the morowe. But yf he offre his ſacrifyce by reaſon of a vowe, or of his owne frewyll, it ſhall be eaten the ſame day that he offereth his ſacrifyce. And yf ought remayne vntyl the morowe, it maye be eaten but aſmoche of the offered fleſſhe as remayneth vnto the thyrde daye, ſhall be burnt with fyre. And yf any of the fleſſhe of his peaceofferynges be eaten in the thyrde daye, then ſhall he that offereth it, ☞ obteyne no fauour ☞ neyther ſhal it be rekened vnto hym: but ſhal be an abhominacion. ☞ Therfore the ſoule that eateth of it / ☞ ſhall beare his ſynne.

C And the fleſſhe that toucheth any vnclene thyng ſhal not be eaten, but burnt with fyre: and all that be cleane, ſhall eate the fleſſhe. But yf any ſoule eate of the fleſh of the peaceofferynge that perteyneth vnto the lorde hauynge his vnclenneſſe vpon hym, the ſame ſoule ſhall peryſſhe from among his people. Moreouer / the ſoule that doeth touche any vncleane thynge, that is of the vnclennes of man, or of any vncleane beaſt, or any abhominacyon that is vncleane: and then eate of the fleſſhe of the peaceofferynge whiche perteyneth vnto the Lorde, that ſoule ſhall peryſſhe from his people. And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes / ſayenge: ſpeake vnto the Chyldren of Iſrael / and ſaye: * Ye ſhall eate no maner fat of oxen, of ſhepe and of gootes: neuerthelatter the fat of the beaſte that dyeth alone, ⁊ the fat of that which is torne with wylde beaſtes, ſhall be occupyed in any maner of vſe, but ye ſhal in no wyſe eate of it. For whoſoeuer eateth the fat of the beaſt of whiche men vſe to bryng an offryng vnto the Lorde, that ſoule that eateth it, ſhal periſh from his people. Moreouer, ye * ſhall eate no maner of bloode, whyther it be of fowle or of beaſte. What ſoeuer ſoule it be that eateth any maner of bloode, the ſame ſoule ſhall peryſſhe from his people.

D And the Lorde talked with Moſes, ſayenge, ſpeake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael and ſay: he that bryngeth his peaceofferynge vnto the Lorde / let hym brynge his gyfte vnto the lorde of his peaceofferyng: Let his owne handes brynge the offerynges of the Lorde: euen the fatte with the breſt ſhall he brynge: that the breſt maye be waued for a waueofferynge before the lorde. And the Preeſt ſhall burne the fat vpon the aulter, and the breſt ſhall be Aarons, and his Sonnes. And the ryght ſhoulder ſhall ye gyue vnto the preeſt, for an heueofferyng, of your peace offeryngꝭ. The ſame that offereth the blode of the peace offerynges, and the fat, amonge the ſonnes of Aaron, ſhal haue the ryght ſhoulder for his parte, for the * wauebreſt, and the heueſhoulder haue I taken of the chyldren of Iſrael, euen of theyr peaceofferynges and haue gyuen it vnto Aaron, ⁊ vnto his ſonnes: by a ſtatute for euer of the chyldrē of Iſrael. This is the anoyntynge of Aaron / and the anoyntynge of his ſonnes in the Sacrifyces of the lorde / in the daye when he offered them to be preeſtes vnto the lorde. And theſe are the ſacrifyces whiche the Lorde cōmaunded to be gyuen them (in the day of theyr anoyntynge) of the chyldren of Iſrael, by a ſtatute for euer in theyr generacyons. This is the law of the burntofferynge, and of the meateofferynge, and of the Sacrifyce for ſynne, and treſpace, for conſecracyon / and for the peaceofferyng / whiche the Lorde cōmaunded Moſes in the mounte of Sinay, when he cōmaunded the Chyldren of Iſrael to offre theyr Sacrifyces vnto the Lorde in the wyldernеſſe of Sinay.

CAPI. VIII.

A Exodi. 28. a AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes ſayenge: take * Aaron and his ſonnꝫ with hym, and the veſtures / and the anoyntynge Oyle, and a yonge oxe for ſynne, and two rammes, and a baſket with ſwete bread: and gather thou al the congregacyon togyther vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of wytneſſe. And Moſes dyd as the Lorde cōmaunded hym, and the people were gathered togyther vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of wytneſſe. And Moſes ſayde vnto the congregacyon: this is the thynge whiche the Lorde cōmaunded to be done.

And Moſes brought Aaron, and his ſonnes, and waſſhed them with water, and put vpon hym the albe, and gyrded hym with a gyrdle and put vpon hym the tunycle, (✿ of yelovve ſylke,) ✿ and put the Ephod theron / whiche he gyrded with the brodered gyrdell that was in the Ephod, and bounde it vnto hym therwith. And he put the breſtlap theron and put in the breſtlap vrim, and thumim.

And he put the mytre vpon his head, and B put vpō the myter (euen vpō the forefront of his face) the golden plate or the holy crowne xxx. b as the lord cōmaūded Moſes. * And Moſes toke the anoyntyng oyle, ⁊ anoynted the Tabernacle / ⁊ all that was therin, ⁊ ſanctifyed them, and ſprynkled therof vpon the aulter ſeuen tymes, and anoynted the aulter, and al his veſſels, the lauer and his fote, to ſanctyfy ✿ them ✿ (vvith the oyle.) And he powred of the anoyntyng oyle vpon Aarons heade, and anoynted hym / to ſanctifye him. And Moſes brought Aarons Sonnes, ⁊ put albes vpon them / and gyrded them with gyrdels, ⁊ put bonettes vpon theyr heades: as the Lorde cō- C maunded Moſes.

odi. 29. a * And he brought the yonge oxe for ſynne And Aaron and his ſonnes put theyr handꝫ vpon the head of the yonge oxe that was for ſynne. And Moſes ſlewe hym / and toke of the bloode / whiche he put vpon the hornes of the aulter rounde aboute with his fynger, and ☞ puriſyed it, ☞ and powred the bloode vnto the botome of the aulter (and ſanctified it / and ☞ reconcyled it. ☞ And he toke all the fat that was vpon the inwardꝫ, ⁊ the aboundaunce of the lyuer, and the two kydneyes / and theyr fat, and Moſes burned it vpon the aulter. But the yonge oxe, and his hyde, his fleſhe ⁊ his dong, he burnt with fyre without the hooſt, as the Lorde cōmaunded Moſes.

And he brought the ram for the burntofferyng, D and Aaron, and his ſonnes put theyr handes vpon the head of the ram, which Moſes kylled, and ſprynkled the bloode vpon the aulter roūde aboute, and Moſes cut the ram in peces, and burnt the heade, the peces / and the fatte, and waſſhed the inwardes, and the legges in water, and Moſes burnte the ram euery whyt vpon the aulter / for a burntſacryfyce, that it myght be a ſwete ſauoure, and an offerynge vnto the Lorde, as the Lorde cōmaūded Moſes. * And he brought the other Exodi. 29. c ram, namely the ram of conſecracion ✿ (of ✿ the preeſtes) and Aaron, and his ſonnes put theyr handes vpō the head of the ram: which Moſes ſlewe / ⁊ toke of the bloode of it, and put it vpon the typpe of Aarons ryght eare, and vpon the thombe of his ryght hand, and vpon the greate too of his ryght foote. And Moſes brought Aarons ſonnes / and put of the bloode ✿ (of the ram) on the typpe of the ✿ ryght eare of them, and vpon the thombes of theyr ryght handes / ⁊ vpon the greate toes of theyr ryght feete, and Moſes ſprynkled the bloode vpon the aulter rounde aboute.

E Exodi. 29. d * And he toke the fat, and the rumpe, and all the fat that was vpon the inwardes / and the aboundaunce of the lyuer, and the two kydneyes with theyr fat / and the ryght ſhoulder. And out of the baſket of ſwete bread that was before the Lorde, he toke one ſwete cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and vpon the ryght ſhoulder: and put all togyther vpon Aarons handes, and vpon his ſonnes handes, ⁊ waued it a waueofferyng before the Lorde.

F And Moſes toke them from of theyr handes, ⁊ burnt them vpon the aulter, euen vpō the burntofferyng aulter: for it was the Sacrifyce of conſecracyon, for a ſwete ſauour / ⁊ a Sacrifyce vnto the Lorde. * And Moſes Exodi. 29. e toke the breeſt / and waued it for a waueofferynge before the Lorde, for it was of the ram of the conſecracyō, and it was Moſes parte/ as the lorde cōmaūded Moſes. And Moſes toke of the anoyntynge Oyle, ⁊ of the bloode which was vpon the aulter, and ſprynkled it vpon Aaron, and vpō his veſtimentes, vpon his ſonnes, and on his ſonnes veſtimentes with hym, and ſanctifyed Aaron, his veſtures, and his ſonnes, and his ſonnes veſtures with hym. G And Moſes ſayde vnto Aaron, ⁊ his ſonnes: boyle the fleſſhe in the dore of the tabernacle of wytnes, and there * eate it with the breade, that is in the baſket of conſecracyon/ as I cōmaunded, ſayenge: Aaron, and his ſonnes ſhall eate it: and that whiche remayneth of the breade, ſhal ye burne wᵗ fyre. B And they brought that (whiche Moſes cōmaūded) before the tabernacle of wytnes, and all the congregacyon came and ſtode before the Lorde. And * Moſes ſayde vnto Aaron: go vnto the aulter and offre thy ſacrifyce for ſynne, and thy burntofferyng, and make an atonement for the, and for the people: and thou ſhalte offre the offerynge of the people, to reconcyle them, as the Lorde commaūded. Aarō therfore went vnto the aulter, and ſlewe the calfe which he had for ſyn. And the ☞ ſonnes of Aaron brought the bloode vnto hym, ⁊ he dypte his fynger in the blode, and put it vpon the hornes of the aulter, and powred the blood vnto the botom of the aulter. But the fat and the two kydnyes, ⁊ the aboundaūce of the lyuer of the ſynofferynge, he burnt vpon the aulter/ as the Lorde cōmaunded Moſes: The fleſſhe/ ⁊ the hyde, he burnt with fyre without the hooſt. And then he brought the peoples offerynge, takynge the goote that the people had for the ſacrifyce of ſyn, and ſlewe it, ⁊ offered it for ſyn, as he dyd the fyrſt. And brought the burntofferynge, ⁊ offered it as the maner was, * and brought the meatofferyng, ⁊ fylled his hande therof, ⁊ burnt it vpon the aulter, beſyde the burnt ſacrifyce of the mornynge. He ſlewe alſo the oxe and the ram for the peaceofferynge/ that the people had for them ſelues: and Aarons ſonnes brought vnto hym the bloode, whiche he ſprynkled vpon the aulter rounde aboute/ ⁊ toke the fatte of the oxe/ and of the ram, the rump, and the fat that couereth the inwardꝭ/ and the kydneyes, ⁊ the aboundaunce of the lyuer, ⁊ they put the fat vpon the breſtes, and he burnt the fat vpon the aulter: but the breſtes, ⁊ the ryght ſhoulders Aaron waued for a waueofferyng before the lorde, as the lorde cōmaunded Moſes. D And Aaron lyfte vp his hande ouer the people, ⁊ bleſſed them, ⁊ came downe from offeryng of the ſynneofferynge, burtofferyng, ⁊ peaceofferyngꝭ. And Moſes and Aaron went in to the tabernacle of wytneſſe, ⁊ came out, ⁊ bleſſed the people, and the glorye of the lorde appeared to al the people. * And there came a fyre out from before the Lorde, ⁊ conſumed vpon the aulter the burnt offeryng ⁊ the fat. which when al the people ſaw, they gaue thankes/ ⁊ fell on theyr faces.

And Moſes called Miſaell, and Elſaphan the ſonnes of Oziell the vncle of Aaron, and ſayde vnto them: come on, carye your ☞ brethren from the holy place out of the hooſt. ☞ And they went to them, and caryed them in theyr albes out of the hooſte, as Moſes had ſayde.

And Aaron ſayd, vnto Moſes: beholde, this day haue they offered theyr ſynneofferyng, ⁊ theyr burntofferynge before the Lorde, ☞ and it is chaūced me after this maner. And yf I had eaten the ſacryfyce to daye / ſhulde it haue bene accepted in the ſyght of the Lorde? And when Moſes herde that, he was content. ☞

CAPI. XIII.

A And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſayeng. When there appeareth a ryſynge in any mans fleſſhe, eyther a ſcab, or a glyſtrynge whyte: and the plage of leproſye be in the ſkyn of his fleſhe, he ſhalbe brought vnto Aaron the preeſt, or vnto one of his ſonnes the preeſtes: and the preeſt ſhal loke on the ſore in the ſkyn of his fleſſhe.

And when the heere in the ſore is turned vnto whyte, and the ſore alſo ſeme to be lower then the ſkyn of his fleſſhe, it wyll be a plage of leproſye, and the preeſt ſhall loke on hym/ and iudge hym vncleane.

If there be but a whyte ſpecke in the ſkyn of his fleſſhe, and ſeme not to be lower then the ſkynne, nor the heere therof is tourned vnto whyte, the preeſt ſhal ſhut hym vp .vii. dayes

And the preeſt ſhall loke vpon hym agayne the ſeuēth day. And yf the plage ſeme to hym to abyde ſtyll, and the plage growe not in the ſkyn, the Preeſt ſhall ſhut hym vp yet ſeuen dayes moo. And the preeſt ſhall loke on hym agayne the ſeuenth day. Then yf the plage be darker and not growen in the ſkynne, the Preeſt ſhall iudge hym cleane, for it is but a ſcurffe. And he ſhal waſhe his clothes, and be cleane. But and yf the ſcab grow in the ſkyn after that he is ſene of the preeſt, and iudged cleane, he ſhall be ſene of the preeſt agayne.

Yf the Preeſt ſe that the ſcabbe be growne abrode, in the ſkynne ☞ the preeſt ſhall make ☞ hym vncleane: for it is a leproſye.

B When the plage of leproſye is in a man/ he ſhall be brought vnto the Preeſt/ and the preeſt ſhall ſe hym/ & yf the ryſynge be whyte in the ſkyn, and haue made the heere whyte/ and there be rawe fleſſhe in the ſoore/ it wyll be an olde leproſye in the ſkyn of his fleſſhe. And the preeſt ſhall make hym vncleane, and ſhall not ſhut hym vp, ſeynge he is vnclene.

If a leproſye breake out abrode in the ſkyn and couer all the ſkyn from his heade to his foote, where ſoeuer the preeſt loketh, and the Preeſt loke vpon hym. And yf the leproſye haue couered all his fleſſhe, he ſhal iudge the plage to be cleane bycauſe it is all turned into whytneſſe, and he ſhall be cleane. But and yf there be rawe fleſſhe on hym whē he is ſene he ſhall be vncleane.

And the preeſt ſhall ſe the rawe fleſſhe, and declare hym to be vnclene. For the rawe fleſh is vncleane ſeynge it is a leproſye. Or yf the rawe fleſſhe depart agayne and chaunge vnto whyte, he ſhall come to the preeſt, and the preeſt ſhall ſe hym and beholde. If the ſore be chaunged vnto whyte ✿ (and couer the hole man) the preeſt ſhall iudge the plage cleane ✿ and he ſhall be cleane. The fleſſhe alſo in whoſe ſkynne there is a byle/ and is healed, and in the place of the byle there appeare a whyte ryſynge, eyther a ſhynyng whyte and ſomwhat reddyſhe, it ſhalbe ſene of the preeſt And yf when the preeſt ſeeth hym, it appeare lower then the ſkynne, and the heere therof be chaūged vnto whyte, the preeſt ſhal iudge hym vncleane, for it is a place of leproſye broken out of the byle.

C But yf the preeſt loke on it and there be no whyte heeres therin, and yf it be not lower then the ſkynne, but be darker, the preeſt ſhal ſhut hym vp ſeuen dayes. And yf it ſpreade abrode in the fleſſhe, ☞ the preeſt ſhall make ☞ hym vncleane, ſeyng it is the plage. But and yf the ſpot ſtande ſtyll, and growe not, it is the prynte of an hoote byle, and therfore the preeſt ſhall declare hym to be cleane.

If there be any fleſſhe, in whoſe ſkynne there is a hoote burnyng, and the fleſſhe that burneth haue a whyte ſpotte, ſomwhat reddyſſhe or whyte, the preeſt ſhal loke vpon it. And yf the heere in that bryght ſpot be chaūged to whyte, and it appeare lower then the ſkynne, it is a leproſye broken out of the burnynge. And therfore the Preeſt ſhall iudge hym vncleane, ſeynge it is the plage of leproſye. But yf the Preeſt loke on it/ and there be no whyte heere in the bryght ſpot, and be no lower then the other ſkynne, but be darker, the preeſt ſhal ſhut hym vp ſeuen dayes. And the preeſt ſhall loke on hym the ſeuenth daye. And yf it be growen abrode in the ſkyn the preeſt ſhall iudge hym vncleane, ſeyng it is the plage of leproſye. And yf the ſpot ſtand ſtyll in it, and growe not in the ſkynne, but is darke, it is a ryſynge of the burnynge, and the preeſt ſhall therfore declare hym cleane, ſeynge it is the prynte of the burnynge.

D If man or woman hath a ſore vpon the heade or the beerde, the preeſt ſhall ſe it. And yf it appeare lower then the ſkyn, and there be in it a yelowe heere: and thyn (✽ more then it vvas vvont to be,) the preeſt ſhal iudge hym vncleane, ſayenge that the ſame fretynge is a token of leproſy vpon the head or beerde. ✽

And yf the preeſt loke on the ſore of the prynt and it ſeme not lower then the ſkyn, and that the heere is not blacke, ☞ the Preeſt ſhall ſhut vp the fretyng ſore ſeuen dayes. And in the ſeuenth daye the preeſt ſhall loke on the ſore: and yf the ſore be not growen, and there be in it no yelowe heere, and the ſore ſeme not lower then the ſkyn, he ſhalbe ſhauē: but the place of the ſore ſhall he not ſhaue, and the preeſt ſhal ſhut vp the ſore ſeuen dayes moo. ☞

And in the ſeuenth day the preeſt ſhal loke on the ſore. And yf the ſore be not growen in the ſkyn, nor ſeme lower then the other ſkyn, the preeſt ſhall clenſe hym, and he ſhal waſſhe his clothes, & be clene. But yf the ſore growe in the fleſſhe after his clenſyng, the preeſt ſhal loke on him. And yf the ſore be growen in the ſkyn, the preeſt ſhal not ſeke for yelowe heere for he is vnclene, But yf he ſe the prynt ſtand ſtyll, and that there is blacke heere growne vp therin, the ſore is healed, and he ſhall be cleane, and the preeſt ſhall declare hym to be cleane. If there be whyte ſpottes in the ſkyn of the fleſſhe of mā or woman, the preeſt ſhal loke vpon it. And yf the ſpottes in the ſkyn of theyr fleſſhe be ſomwhat darke and whyte withal, ✽ (he may be ſure that it is no leproſye. it is a frekell growynge in the fleſſhe. Therfore is he cleane. ✽

E And the man (whoſe heade is deſtitute of heere, wherby he is made balde) is cleane. And he that hath his heere fallen from his foreheade, is foreheade balde and cleane. If there be in the balde heade or balde forehead a whyte reddyſſhe ſore ſcab, there is leproſye ſpronge vp in his balde heade or balde foreheade. And the preeſt ſhall loke vpon hym, & yf the ryſynge of the ſoore be whyte reddyſſhe in his balde heade or balde forehead after the maner of a leproſye which is in the ſkynne of the fleſſhe, then he is a leperous man, and vncleane. And the Preeſt ſhall make hym vncleane, for the plage therof is in his heed.

The leper in whome the plage is / ſhall haue his clothes rent / and his head bare, and ſhall put a couerynge vpon his lyppe, and ſhall be called vncleane, and defyled. And as longe as the dyſeaſe laſteth vpon hym, he ſhalbe defyled and vncleane: he ſhall dwel alone, euen ✽ without the hooſt ſhall his habytacyon be, Nume. v. a. 4. Re. 15. a.

F The clothe that the plage of leproſye is in, whyther it be lynnen, or wollen: whyther it be in the warpe, or woofe of lynnen, or of wollen: eyther in a ſkyn or any thynge made of ſkynne, yf the dyſeaſe be pale or ſomwhat reddyſſhe in the cloth or ſkyn: whyther it be in the warpe or woofe or any thynge that is made of ſkyn, then it is a plage of leproſye, & ſhall be ſhewed vnto the preeſt. The Preeſt therfore ſhall ſe the plage, and ſhut it vp. vii. dayes, and loke on the plage the ſeuenth day Whiche yf it be increaſed in the clothe (whyther it be in the warpe or in the woofe, or in a ſkyn, or in any thynge that is made of ſkyn) it is the leproſye of a fretynge ſore: it is vncleane: and that clothe ſhalbe burnte, eyther warpe or woofe whyther it be wollen or lynnen, or any thynge that is made of ſkynne, wherin the plage is, for it is a fretyng leproſye, it ſhall be burnt in the fyre.

G If the preeſt ſe that the plage is not growen in the cloth: eyther in the warpe or woofe, or in what ſoeuer thyng of ſkyn it be, the preeſt ſhall cōmaunde them to waſſhe the thynge / wherin the plage is, and he ſhall ſhut it vp ſeuen dayes moo. And the preeſt ſhal loke on the plage agayne, after that it is waſſhed.

And yf the plage haue not chaunged his coloure, and is ſpred no further abrode, it is vncleane. Thou ſhalte burne it in the fyre, for it is fret inwarde: in parte or in all togyther.

And yf the preeſt ſe that the plage is darker after that it is waſſhed, he ſhall rent it out of the clothe, or out of the ſkynne, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe. And yf it appeare any more in the cloth (eyther in the warpe or in the woofe, or in any thynge made of ſkyn) it is a waxynge plage. Thou ſhalt burne the plage that is in it. Moreouer the clothe, eyther warpe or woofe, or what ſoeuer thynge of ſkyn it be whiche thou haſt waſſhed, yf the plage be departed therfro, it ſhal be waſſhed once agayne: and then ſhall it be cleane.

This is the lawe of the plage of leproſye in a cloth whyther it be wollen or lynnen: eyther in the warp or woofe, or in any thyng of ſkynnes, to make it cleane or vncleane.

❡ The clenſynge of the leper, and of the houſe that he is in.

CAPI. XIIII.

AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayenge. * This is the lawe of Leper in the day of his clenſyng. He ſhalbe brought vnto the preeſt, & the preeſt ſhal go out without the hooſt, and loke vpon hym. And yf the plage of leproſye be healed in the leper, then ſhall the preeſt cōmaunde that he whiche is A to be clenſed, bryng two lyuynge byrdes and cleane, and Cedar woode, and purple clothe, ⁊ yſope. And the preeſt ſhall cōmaunde that one of the byrdes be kylled in an earthen veſſell and vpon runnynge water. And he ſhall take the lyuyng byrde, with the cedar wood, the purple and the yſope, and ſhal dyp them ⁊ the lyuyng byrde in the bloode of the ſlayne byrde, vpō the runnyng water, and ſprynkle vpō hym (that muſt be clenſed of his leproſy) ſeuen tymes, and clenſe hym, and ſhal let the lyuynge byrde go free into the fylde.

B And he that is clenſed, ſhall waſſhe his clothes, and ſhaue of al his heere, and waſſhe hym ſelfe in water, that he may be cleane. And after that ſhall he come into the hooſt, ⁊ ſhal tary without his tente ſeuen dayes: but in the ſeuenth daye he ſhall ſhaue of all his heere, namely, his heade, his beerde and his browes: euen all his heere ſhal be ſhauen of. And he ſhal waſſhe his clothes and his fleſſh in water, ⁊ he ſhalbe cleane. And in the. viii. day he ſhal take. ii. lambes without blemyſſh ⁊ an ewe lambe of a yere olde / without blemyſſhe, and thre tenthdeales of fyne floure for a * meatoffryng myngled with oyle and ☞ a log of oyle. And the preeſt that maketh hym cleane, ſhal bryng the man that is to be made cleane ⁊ thoſe thynges, before the lorde euen before the dore of the tabernacle of wytneſſe. And the preeſt ſhal take one lambe, and offre hym ☞ for treſpace, and the log of oyle, and waue them before the lorde. And he ſhal ſlee the lambe in the place where the ſynofferyng and the burntoffryng are ſlayne: euen in the holy place. For as the ſynofferynge is, euen ſo is the treſpaſſe offeryng the preeſtes: ſeynge it is mooſt hooly.

C And the preeſt ſhall take of the bloode of the treſpaceofferyng, and put it vpon the typ of the ryght eare of hym that is to be clenſed, and vpon the thombe of his ryghthande and vpon the greate too of his ryght foote. The preeſt ſhal take of the logge of oyle, and powre it in to the palme of his lefte hande, ⁊ dyppe his ryght fynger in the oyle that is in his lefte hande, and ſprynkle of the oyle with his fynger ſeuen tymes before the Lorde. And the reeſt of the oyle that is in his hande, ſhall the preeſt put vpon the typ of the ryght eare of him that is for to be clenſed, ⁊ vpō the thombe of his ryght hande, ⁊ vpon the great too of his ryght foote: euen vpon the bloode of the treſpaceofferynge. And the remenaunt of the oyle that is in the Preeſtes hande, he ſhal powre vpon the heade of hym that is for to be clenſed: and the preeſt ſhall make an atonement for hym before the lorde.

And the preeſt ſhall offre the ſynneofferyng, and make an attonement for hym that is to be clenſed, for his vncleanneſſe. And then ſhall he kyll the burntoffryng, and the preeſt ſhall offre the burntoffryng and the meatofferyng vpon the aulter: and the preeſt ſhall make an attonement for hym, and he ſhalbe cleane. * If he be poore, and can not get ſo moche, he ſhall take one lambe for a treſpace offerynge to waue it for his clenſynge, and a tenthdeale of fyne floure myngled with oyle for a meatofferynge, and a log of oyle, ⁊ two Turtle doues or two yong pigeons, ſuche as he is able to get, wherof the one ſhall be for ſynne, and the other for a burntoffryng. And he ſhal bryng them the. viii. day for his clenſyng vnto the preeſt before the dore of the tabernacle of wytneſſe before the lorde. Leuit. v. b.

D And the preeſt ſhal take the lambe that is for the treſpace, and the log of oyle, and waue them before the Lorde. And he ſhall kyll the lambe for the treſpace, ⁊ the preeſt ſhall take of the bloode of the treſpaceoffryng, and put it vpon the typ of his ryght eare that is to be clenſed, and vpon the thombe of his ryghte hande, and vpon the great too of his ryght foote. And the preeſt ſhall powre of the oyle in to his lefte hande, and the preeſt ſhal with his fynger ſprynkle of the oyle that is in his lefte hande, ſeuen tymes before the lorde.

And the preeſt ſhall put of the oyle that is in his hande vpon the typ of the ryght eare of hym that is to be clenſed, and vppon the thombe of his right hande, and vpon the too of his ryght fote: euen in the place where the bloode of the treſpaceoffrynge was put. And the reſt of the oyle that is in the preeſtes hande, he ſhall put vpon the heade of hym that is to be clenſed: that he may make an attonement for hym before the Lorde. And he ſhall offre one of the Turtle doues, or of the yonge pygeons, ſuche as he can get: the one for a ſynofferynge and the other for a burntofferynge with the meatofferynge. And the preeſt ſhal make an attonement for hym that is to be clenſed before the Lorde. This is the lawe of hym in whom is the plage of leproſy, ⁊ whoſe hande is not able to get that whiche perteyneth to his clenſyng.

E And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſayenge. When ye be come vnto the lande of Canaan whiche I gyue you in poſſeſſyon. And yf I put the plage of leproſye in a houſe of the lande of your poſſeſſyon he that oweth the houſe ſhall come, and tell the preeſt, ſayenge. Me thynke that there is as it were a leproſye in the houſe.

And the preeſt ſhal cōmaunde them to empty the houſe, before the preeſt go in to it, to ſe the plage: that all that is in the houſe / be not made vncleane, and then muſt the preeſt go in to ſe the houſe. If the Preeſt alſo ſe that the plage is in the walles of the houſe, & that there be holowe ſtrakes pale, or red, whiche ſeme to be lower thē the wal it ſelfe, the preeſt ſhall go out at the houſe dores, & ſhut vp the houſe ſeuen dayes. And the preeſt ſhall come
F agayne the ſeuenth day, and yf he ſe that the plage be increaſed in the walles of the houſe the preeſt ſhal cōmaunde them to take away the ſtones in which the plage is, and let them caſt them in to a foule place without the cytie and he ſhall cōmaunde the houſe to be ſcraped within round aboute, and powre out the duſt (that they ſcraped of) without the Citye into a foule place. And they ſhall take other ſtones, and put them in the places of thoſe ſtones, and other morter, to plaſter the houſe withal. And yf the plage come agayn & breke out in the houſe, after that he hath taken away the ſtones and ſcraped the walles of the houſe, & after that he hath plaſtered the houſe anewe: the preeſt ſhall come and ſe it. And yf he perceyue that the plage hath growne further in the houſe, it is a freatynge leproſye in the houſe. It is therfore vncleane. And he ſhall breake downe the houſe: and the ſtones of it, and the tymbre therof, and al the morter of the houſe, ſhall he carye out of the Cytye, vnto a foule place. Moreouer he that goeth into the houſe all the whyle that it is ſhutte vp, ſhall be vncleane vntyll the euen. He that ſlepeth in the houſe, ſhal waſſhe his clothes: He lykewyſe that eateth in the houſe, ſhall waſſhe his clothes.

And yf the preeſt come & ſe, that the plage
G hath ſpred no further in the houſe: (after that it is newe plaſtred) the preeſt ſhal iudge that houſe cleane / bycauſe the plage is healed.

And let hym take to clenſe the houſe withall, two byrdes, Cedar wood, purple clothe, and yſope. And he ſhall kyll one of the byrdes in an earthen veſſell, and vpon runnyng water: and take the Cedar wood & the yſope and the purple with the lyuynge byrde and dyp them in the bloode of the ſlayne byrde / and in the runnynge water, and ſprynkle the houſe. vii. tymes, & clenſe the houſe with the bloode of the byrde, and with the runnynge water, with the lyuyng byrde, with the cedar woode, and the yſope, and the purple clothe. But he ſhall let the lyuynge byrde flee out of the towne in to the brode feldes, and ſo make an attonemente for the houſe, and it ſhall be cleane.

This is the lawe for all maner plage of leproſye and breakyng out, and of the leproſye of clothe and houſe: for a ſwellyng, for a ſcab and for a whyte blyſtre. To teache when it muſt be made vncleane and cleane. This is the lawe of leproſye.

CAPI. XV.

AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and A
Aaron, ſayeng. Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them. Who ſoeuer hath a runnyng yſſue out of his fleſſhe, is vncleane by reaſon of that yſſue. And this ſhalbe the token of his vnclenneſſe in his yſſue, when he is vnclene. If his fleſhe run, or yf his fleſſhe congele by the reaſon of his yſſue, then is it vnclennes. Euery couche wheron he lyeth that hathe the yſſue, is vncleane. And euery thynge wheron he ſytteth, is vncleane. Who ſoeuer toucheth his couch ſhall waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen.

And he that ſytteth on any thynge wheron he ſat that hath the yſſue, ſhal waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water / and be vncleane vntyl the euenynge. He that toucheth the fleſſhe of hym that hath the yſſue, ſhall waſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen. If he alſo that hath the yſſue, ſpyt vpon hym that is cleane, he ſhall waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, & be vncleane vnto euen.

And what horſe harneſſe ſoeuer he rydeth B
vpon that hath the yſſue, ſhall be vncleane.

And who ſoeuer toucheth any thynge that was vnder hym, ſhall be vncleane vnto the euen. And he that beareth any ſuche thynges ſhal waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen.

And who ſoeuer he toucheth that hath the yſſue (and haue not fyrſt waſſhed his handes in water) ſhall waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen. * The veſſel of earth that he toucheth, whiche hath the yſſue, ſhal be broken: and all veſſels of wood ſhalbe rynſed in water.

When he alſo that hath an yſſue, is clenſed of his yſſue, he ſhall nombre ſeuen dayes for his clenſyng, and waſſhe his clothes, and bathe his fleſſhe in runnynge water, and ſo ſhall he be cleane. And the. viii. daye he ſhall take to hym two Turtle doues, or two yonge pygeons, and come before the lorde vnto the dore of the tabernacle of wytneſſe, and gyue them vnto the preeſt.

And the preeſt ſhall offre them: the one for a ſynofferyng, and the other for a burntofferyng. And the preeſt ſhall make an attonement for him before the lord, as concernyng his yſſue.

If a mans ſeede departe from hym in his ſlepe, he ſhal waſſhe his fleſſhe in water, and be vncleane vntyll euen. And all the clothes & al the furres wherin is ſuche ſeede of ſlepe, ſhalbe waſſhed with water, and be vncleane, vnto the euen. And yf he that hath ſuche an yſſue of ſeede, do lye with a woman, they ſhal bothe waſſhe them ſelues with water, and be vncleane vntyll euen.

C If any womans natural courſe of blood do runne, ſhe ſhalbe put aparte. vii. dayes. Who ſoeuer toucheth her, ſhall be vncleane vnto the euen. And all that ſhe lyeth vpon, in the tyme of her natural dyſeaſe, ſhalbe vncleane lyke as euery thyng alſo that ſhe ſytteth vpō is vncleane. Who ſoeuer toucheth her bed, ſhal waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe with water, and be vncleane vnto the euen. And whoſoeuer toucheth any thyng that ſhe ſat vpon, ſhall waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen: ſo that whyther he touche her couche / or any veſſel wheron ſhe hath ſytten, he ſhall be vnclene vnto the euen. * And yf a man lye with her, and her vnclennes come vpon hym he ſhall be vncleane. vii. dayes, and all the couche wheron he lyeth ſhalbe vncleane. Leuit. 18.a

* When a womans bloode runneth longe tyme: out of the tyme of her natural courſe: or yf it runne beyonde her natural courſe, let al the dayes of the yſſue be iudged vncleane, euen as the dayes of her natural diſeaſe, & ſhe ſhall be vncleane. Al her couches wheron ſhe lyeth (as longe as her yſſue laſteth) ſhalbe as her couche whē ſhe hath her naturall dyſeaſe. And whatſoeuer ſhe ſytteth vpon, ſhalbe vncleane, as is her vnclenneſſe when ſhe is put apart. And who ſoeuer toucheth any of theſe ſhalbe vncleane, and ſhal waſſhe his clothes & bath hym ſelfe in water & be vncleane vnto euen. And after that ſhe is cleſed of her yſſue, ſhe ſhal counte her. vii. dayes, and after that ſhe ſhalbe cleane. In the. viii. daye ſhe ſhall take vnto her two turtels or two yong pygeons, and brynge them vnto the preeſt before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytneſſe. And the preeſt ſhal offre the one for a ſynofferyng / and the other for a burntofferyng: and make an attonement for her before the lorde, as cōcernyng the yſſue of her vnclēnes. Therfore ſhall ye ſeperate the chyldren of Iſrael from theyr vnclenneſſe, that they dye not in theyr vnclennes: yf they defyle my habytacyō that is amonge them. This is the lawe of hym that hath a runnyng yſſue, and of him whoſe ſeede runneth from hym in his ſleps, and is defyled therin, and of her, that (for her naturall diſeaſe) is put a parte: and of whoſoeuer hath a runnynge yſſue, whyther it be man, or womā, and of hym that lyeth with her which is vncleane. If the Prieſt alſo ſe that the plage is in the walles of the houſe, ⁊ that there be holowe ſtrakes pale, or red, whiche ſeme to be lower thē the wal it ſelfe, the prieſt ſhall go out at the houſe dores, ⁊ ſhut vp the houſe ſeuen dayes. And the prieſt ſhall come
F agayne the ſeuenth day, and yf he ſe that the plage be increaſed in the walles of the houſe the prieſt ſhal cōmaunde them to take away the ſtones in which the plage is, and let them caſt them in to a foule place without the cytie and he ſhall cōmaunde the houſe to be ſcraped within round aboute, and powre out the duſt (that they ſcraped of) without the Citye into a foule place. And they ſhall take other ſtones, and put them in the places of thoſe ſtones, and other morter, to plaſter the houſe withal. And yf the plage come agayn ⁊ breke out in the houſe, after that he hath taken away the ſtones and ſcraped the walles of the houſe, ⁊ after that he hath plaſtered the houſe anewe: the prieſt ſhall come and ſe it. And yf he perceyue that the plage hath growne further in the houſe, it is a freatynge leproſye in the houſe. It is therfore vncleane. And he ſhall breake downe the houſe: and the ſtones of it, and the tymbre therof, and al the morter of the houſe, ſhall he carye out of the Cytye, vnto a foule place. Moreouer he that goeth into the houſe all the whyle that it is ſhutte vp, ſhall be vncleane vntyll the euen. He that ſlepeth in the houſe, ſhal waſſhe his clothes: he lykewyſe that eateth in the houſe, ſhall waſſhe his clothes.

And yf the prieſt come ⁊ ſe, that the plage

And let hym take to clenſe the houſe withall, two byrdes, Cedar wood, purple clothe, and yſope. And he ſhall kyll one of the byrdes in an earthen veſſell, and vpon runnyng water: and take the Cedar wood ⁊ the yſope and the purple with the lyuynge byrde and dyp them in the bloode of the ſlayne byrde / and in the runnynge water, and ſprynkle the houſe. vii. tymes, ⁊ clenſe the houſe with the bloode of the byrde, and with the runnynge water, with the lyuyng byrde, with the cedar woode, and the yſope, and the purple clothe. But he ſhall let the lyuynge byrde flee out of the towne in to the brode feldes, and ſo make an attonemente for the houſe, and it ſhall be cleane.

This is the lawe for all maner plage of leproſye and breakyng out, and of the leproſye of clothe and houſe: for a ſwellyng, for a ſcab and for a whyte blyſtre. To teache when it muſt be made vncleane and cleane. This is the lawe of leproſye.

CAPI. XV.

A And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſayeng. Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them. who ſoeuer hath a runnyng yſſue out of his fleſſhe, is vncleane by reaſon of that yſſue. And this ſhalbe the token of his vnclenneſſe in his yſſue, when he is vnclene. If his fleſhe run, or yf his fleſſhe congele by the reaſon of his yſſue, then is it vnclennes. Euery couche wheron he lyeth that hathe the yſſue, is vncleane. And euery thynge wheron he ſytteth, is vncleane. Who ſoeuer toucheth his couch ſhall waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen.

And he that ſytteth on any thynge wheron he ſat that hath the yſſue, ſhal waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water / and be vncleane vntyl the euenynge. He that toucheth the fleſſhe of hym that hath the yſſue, ſhall waſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen. If he alſo that hath the yſſue, ſpyt vpon hym that is cleane, he ſhall waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, ⁊ be vncleane vnto euen.

B And what horſe harneſſe ſoeuer he rydeth vpon that hath the yſſue, ſhall be vncleane.

And who ſoeuer toucheth any thynge that was vnder hym, ſhall be vncleane vnto the euen. And he that beareth any ſuche thynges ſhal waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen.

And who ſoeuer he toucheth that hath the yſſue (and haue not fyrſt waſſhed his handes in water) ſhall waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen. * The veſſel of earth that he toucheth, whiche hath the yſſue, ſhal be broken: and all veſſels of wood ſhalbe rynſed in water.

When he alſo that hath an yſſue, is clenſed of his yſſue, he ſhall nombre ſeuen dayes for his clenſyng, and waſſhe his clothes, and bathe his fleſſhe in runnynge water, and ſo ſhall he be cleane. And the, viii. daye he ſhall take to hym two Turtle doues, or two yonge pygeons, and come before the lorde vnto the dore of the tabernacle of wytneſſe, and gyue them vnto the prieſt.

And the preeſt ſhall offre them: the one for a ſynofferyng, and the other for a burntofferyng And the preeſt ſhall make an attonement for hym before the lord, as concernyng his yſſue.

If a mans ſeede departe from hym in his ſlepe, he ſhal waſſhe his fleſſhe in water, and be vncleane vntyll euen. And all the clothes & al the furres wherin is ſuche ſeede of ſlepe, ſhalbe waſſhed with water, and be vncleane, vnto the euen. And yf he that hath ſuche an yſſue of ſeede, do lye with a woman, they ſhal bothe waſſhe them ſelues with water, and be vncleane vntyll euen.

If any womans natural courſe of blood do runne, ſhe ſhalbe put aparte. vii. dayes. Who ſoeuer toucheth her, ſhall be vncleane vnto the euen. And all that ſhe lyeth vpon, in the tyme of her natural dyſeaſe, ſhalbe vncleane lyke as euery thyng alſo that ſhe ſytteth vpõ is vncleane. Who ſoeuer toucheth her bed, ſhal waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe with water, and be vncleane vnto the euen. And whoſoeuer toucheth any thyng that ſhe ſat vpon, ſhall waſſhe his clothes, and bathe hym ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vnto the euen: ſo that whyther he touche her couche / or any veſſel wheron ſhe hath ſytten, he ſhall be vnclene vnto the euen. Leui. 18. a * And yf a man lye with her, and her vnclennes come vpon hym he ſhall be vncleane. vii. dayes, and all the couche wheron he lyeth ſhalbe vncleane.

* When a womans bloode runneth longe tyme: out of the tyme of her natural courſe: or yf it runne beyonde her natural courſe, let al the dayes of the yſſue be iudged vncleane, euen as the dayes of her natural diſeaſe, & ſhe ſhall be vncleane. Al her couches wheron ſhe lyeth (as longe as her yſſue laſteth) ſhalbe as her couche whẽ ſhe hath her naturall dyſeaſe. And whatſoeuer ſhe ſytteth vpon, ſhalbe vncleane, as is her vnclenneſſe when ſhe is put apart. And who ſoeuer toucheth any of theſe ſhalbe vncleane, and ſhal waſſhe his clothes & bath hym ſelfe in water & be vncleane vnto euen. And after that ſhe is clẽſed of her yſſue, ſhe ſhal counte her. vii. dayes, and after that ſhe ſhalbe cleane. In the. viii. daye ſhe ſhall take vnto her two turtels or two yong pygeons, and brynge them vnto the preeſt before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytneſſe. And the preeſt ſhal offre the one for a ſynofferyng / and the other for a burntofferyng: and make an attonement for her before the lorde, as cõcernyng the yſſue of her vnclẽnes. Therfore ſhall ye ſeperate the chyldren of Iſrael from theyr vnclenneſſe, that they dye not in theyr vnclennes: yf they defyle my habytacyõ that is amonge them. This is the lawe of hym that hath a runnyng yſſue, and of him whoſe ſeede runneth from hym in his ſlepe, and is defyled therin, and of her, that (for her naturall diſeaſe) is put a parte: and of whoſoeuer hath a runnynge yſſue, whyther it be man, or womã, and of hym that lyeth with her which is vncleane.

And the threſſhynge ſhall reache vnto wyne harueſt/ and the wyneharueſt ſhall reache vnto ſowynge tyme, and ye ſhall eate youre breade in plenteouſnes, and dwell in your lande peaſeably. And I wyl ſende peace in the lande, and ye ſhall ſlepe without any man to make you a frayde. And I wyl ryd euyll beaſtes out of the lande, and there ſhall no ſwerde go thorowout your lande. And ye ſhall chace youre enemyes, and they ſhall fall before you vpon the ſwerde. Iosue. 23. c * And fyue of you ſhall chace an hundred, and an hundred of you ſhal put ten thouſande to flyght, and your enemyes ſhall fall before you vpon the ſwerde.

For I wyll haue reſpecte vnto you, and make you encreaſe, and multiplye you, and ſet vp my couenaunt with you. And ye ſhall eate olde ſtore, and cary out olde for the new. 2. Corin. 6. b * And I wyll make my dwellynge place amonge you, and my ſoule ſhal not lothe you. I wyll walke amonge you, and wyll be your god, and ye ſhall be my people. ✚ I am the Lorde your god, whiche brought you out of the lande of Egipt, that ye ſhuld not be theyr bondmen, and I haue broken the cheynes of your yoke, and made you go vp ryght. A And the Loꝛde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſay-

the male from twentye yere olde vnto ſixtye ſhall be fyftye * ſycles of ſyluer, after the Num.3
weyght of the ſanctuari. And yf it be a wofrom fyue yeres to twentye, the male ſhall be male ſhall be ſet at fyue ſycles of ſyluer, and the female at thꝛe. And he that is ſixtye yeare olde, and aboue, ſhall be valued at fiftye ſy-cles, and the woman at ten.

But yf he be to pooꝛe ſo to be ſet, he ſhall B
pꝛeſent him ſelfe befoꝛe the pꝛeeſt: ⁊ the pꝛeeſt ſhall value hym, accoꝛdynge as the hande of hym that vowed is able to get, euen ſo ſhall the pꝛeſt value hym. Yf it be a beaſt of which it noꝛ chaunge it: a good foꝛ a bad, oꝛ a bad foꝛ a good. And yf he chaũge beaſt foꝛ beaſt, then bothe the ſame beaſt, and it alſo wherwith it was chaunged ſhall be holye. If it be any maner of vncleane beaſt, of whiche men do not offer a ſacrifyce vnto the loꝛde, he ſhal ſet the beaſt befoꝛe the Pꝛeeſt, and the Pꝛeeſt ſhal value it, whyther it be good oꝛ bad. And as the pꝛeeſt ſetteth it, ſo ſhal it be. But yf he moꝛe aboue that it was ſet at.

Yf any man dedicate his houſe, to be holy C
vnto the Loꝛde, the pꝛeeſt ſhal ſet it/ whyther
it be good oꝛ bad: and as the Pꝛeeſt hath ſet it, ſo ſhall the value be. And when he ☞ that ☞ ſanctifyed it wyll redeme his houſe, let hym gyue the fyfte parte of the money that it was iudged at therto, and it ſhalbe his. If a man ſeede therof. If it beare ☞ an homer of bar- ☞

he halow his felde immediatly from the yere
of Jubelye, it ſhalbe woꝛth accoꝛdynge as it

after the Jubely, the pꝛeeſt ſhal reken the mo ney accoꝛdynge to the nombꝛe of the yeares,
that remayne vnto the yere of Jubelye folo-

If he that conſecrated the felde, wyll redeme it agayne, let hym put the fyfte parte of the pꝛyce that it was ſet at there vnto, and it ſhal be his. And yf he wyll not redeme the felde/but ſelleth the feld to another mã, he ☞ (that ☞ vovved) maye redeme it no moꝛe. But when the felde goeth out in the yeare of Jubely, it ſhall

ſhall be made holy vnto the Lorde: euen as a felde that is vtterly put away, and it ſhall be the Preeſtes poſſeſſyon.

D If a man ſanctify vnto the lorde a felde, whiche he hath bought, and is not of his enherytaunce, the Preeſt ſhall reken vnto hym what it is worthe vnto the yeare of Jubelye, and he ſhal gyue the pryce that it is ſet at, the ſame daye, as a thynge conſecrated vnto the Lorde. And in the yere of Jubilie, the felde ſhall returne vnto hym of whom he bought it, euen to hym, whoſe enherytaunce of lande it is.

And all ſettyng ſhall be accordyng to the ſycle of the ſanctuary. One ſycle conteyneth twentye halfepence. * But the ☞ fyrſt borne of the beaſtes that was appoynted vnto the Lorde, may no man ſanctifie: whyther it be oxe or ſhepe, for it is the Lordes alredy. If it be an vncleane beaſt he ſhall redeme it, as it is ſet at, and gyue the fyfth parte more therto: Or, yf it be not redemed, it ſhall be ſolde, accordyng to the value.

Exodi.30.b ☞ Numer.18.d

E ☞ Notwithſtandyng, no ☞ dampned thyng that a mã putteth from hym and dedicateth vnto the Lorde, of al his good (whyther it be man or beaſt or lande of his enherytaunce) may be ſolde or redemed: for euery thynge ſo put away, is moſt holy vnto the lorde. Let no dampned thyng that a man ſeperateth, be redemed but dye the death.

Euery tythe of the lande whiche is of the ſede of the lande, or of the frute of the trees is the lordes, and is ſanctified vnto the lorde And yf a man wyll redeme ought of his tythes, let hym adde the fyfth parte therto. And euery tythe of oxe and of ſhepe and of euery beaſt that goeth vnder the rod ☞ euen euery tenth ſhal be holy vnto the lorde. He ſhall not loke yf it be good or bad, nor chaunge it. Els yf he chaunge it, bothe it, & that it was chaunged withall, ſhall be halowed vnto the Lorde and may not be redemed.

But the ſoule that dothe ought preſumptuouſly, whyther he be an Iſraelite, or a ſtraũger, the ſame blaſphemeth the lord. And that ſoule ſhalbe roted out from amonge his people, bycauſe he hath deſpyſed the worde of the Lorde, and hath broken his cõmaundement, that ſoule therfore ſhall peryſſhe, & his ſynne ſhall be vpon hym.

And whyle the chyldren of Iſrael were in the wyldernes, they founde a mã that ☞ gathered ſtyckes vpon the * Sabboth daye. ☞ Exod. xx. c. And they that founde hym gatheryng ſtyckꝭ, brought hym vnto Moſes and Aaron, and vnto all the congregacion: * & they put hym in warde, ſeynge it was not declared what ſhulde be done vnto hym. Leuit. 24. b And the lorde ſayd vnto Moſes: Let the man dye: and let all the multitude ſtone him with ſtones without the hooſt. And al the multitude brought hym wtout the hooſt, & ſtoned hym with ſtones, and he dyed, as the Lorde cõmaunded Moſes.

And the lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaynge: ſpeake vnto the chyldren of Iſraell, and byd them, that they * make them gardes in the quarters of theyr garmentꝭ thorowout theyr generacyons, and put vpon the garde of the quarters a ryband of yelowe ſylke. Deut. 22. b And the garde ſhall be vnto you to loke vpon it, that ye may remembre al the cõmaundementes of the lorde and do them: and ✿ that ye ſeke not after youre owne herte or youre owne eyes, after the which ye vſe to go a hooryng: but ye ſhall remembre rather, and do al my cõmaundementes, and be holy vnto youre god: I am the Lorde your God, which brought you out of the lande of Egypte, for to be your God. I am the lorde your God.

¶ The rebellyon of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram.

CAPI. XVI.

A Eccle.45.c ANd * Corah the ſonne of Jezehar the ſonne of Cahath the ſonne of Leui, and Dathan and Abiram the ſon of Eliab, and On the ſon of Peleth, the ſonne of Ruben, roſe vp before Moſes with other men of the chyldren of Iſrael, two hundred & fyftie, which were captayns of the multitude, great and famous men in the congregacyon: and they gathered themſelues togyther agaynſt Moſes and Aaron, and ſayde vnto them: ye make moche to do, ſeynge all the multitude are holy euery one of them, and the Lorde is amonge them. why heue ye your ſelues vp aboue the congregacyon of the Lorde?

And when Moſes herde it, he fell vpon his face and ſpake vnto Corah and vnto all his companye, ſayinge: to morowe the Lorde wyll ſhewe who are his, who is holy, & who ought to approche nygh vnto hym, & whom he hath choſen to come to hym. This do therfore: take you fyre pannes, both Corah and al his company, and put fyre therin, & put ſence in them before the lorde to morowe. And the man whome the Lorde dothe choſe, the ſame ſhalbe holy. Ye make moch to do ye chyldren of Leui.

B Num.3.b. And Moſes ſayd vnto Corah: * here ye chyldre of Leui. Is it but a ſmal thyng vnto you, that the God of Iſraell hath ſeperated you from the multitude of Iſrael, & brought you to hym ſelf, to do the ſeruyce of the dwellyng place of the Lorde, and to ſtande before the multitude, and to miniſtre vnto hym? he hathe taken the to hym and all thy brethren the ſonnes of Leuy with the, and ſeke ye the offyce of the preeſt alſo? For which cauſe both thou and all thy companye are gathered togyther agaynſt the Lorde: what is Aaron, that ye murmure agaynſt hym?

And Moſes ſent and called Dathan, and Abiram the ſonnes of Eliab, whiche ſayde: we wyll not come vp. Is it a ſmall thynge/ that thou haſt brought vs out of a lande that floweth with mylke and hony, to kyll vs in the wyldernesse, and to reygne ouer vs alſo? Haſt thou brought vs vnto a lande that floweth with mylke and hony, and gyuen vs enheritaunce of feldes and vyneyardes? Wylte thou pull out the eyes of theſe men? we wyll not come vp.

C And Moſes wared very angry, and ſayd vnto the Lorde. Turne not thou vnto theyr offerynge. I haue not taken ſo moche as an Aſſe from them, neyther haue I hurte any of them. And Moſes ſayd vnto Corah. Be thou and all thy companye before the Lorde: bothe thou, they, and Aaron, to morowe. And take euery mā his ſencer and put ſence in them, that ye maye offre before the lorde: euery man of the two hundred & fyftie take his ſencer, thou alſo Aaron, that euery one may haue his ſencer. And they toke euerye man his ſencer, and put fyre in them, and layd ſence theron, and ſtode in the dore of the tabernacle of wytnesse with Moſes and Aaron. And Corah gathered all the congregacyon agaynſt them vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of wytnesse.

And the glory of the Lorde appeared vnto al the congregacyon. And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſayenge: Seperate your ſelues from among this congregacion, that I may conſume them atonce. And they fell vpon theyr faces, and ſayde. * O mooſt myghtye God of the ſpirites of all fleſhe, yf one man hath ſynned, wylte thou be wrothe with all the multitude? And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaynge: ſpeake vnto the congregacyon, and ſay: Get you away from aboute the dwellynge of Corah, Dathan & Abiram. Num.27

D And Moſes roſe vp, and wente vnto Dathan, and Abiram, and the elders of Iſraell folowed hym.

And he ſpake vnto the congregacyon, ſayinge: departe from the tentes of theſe wycked men, and touche no thynge of theyrs: leſt ye peryſſhe in all theyr ſynnes. And ſo they gat them from the dwellynge of Corah, Dathan and Abiram on euery ſyde. And Dathā and Abiram came out and ſtode in the dore of theyr tentes with theyr wyues, theyr ſonnes, and theyr lytell chyldren.

And Moſes ſayd. Hereby ye ſhall knowe that the lorde hath ſent me to do al theſe workes, and that I haue not done them of myne owne mynde. If theſe men dye the common deathe of all men, or they be ☞ viſited after the viſitacyon of al men, then the Lorde hath not ſent me. But & yf the Lorde make a newe thyng, & the earth open her mouth & ſwalow them vp withall that they haue, and they go downe quycke in to hell: then ye ſhall vnderſtand that theſe mē haue prouoked the lorde. ☞

E And it fortuned that as ſoone as he had made an ende of ſpeakynge all theſe wordes * the grounde claue a ſonder that was vnder them, & the earth opened her mouth, & ſwalowed them vp, & theyr houſes, & all the men that were with Corah and all theyr goodes. And they and all that they had, wente downe alyue vnto hel, & the erth cloſed vpon them, & they peryſſhed from among the cōgregacion.

And all Iſrael that were aboute them, fled at the crye of them. And they ſayde: leeſt the earthe ſwalowe vs vp alſo. And there came out a fyre from the Lorde, and conſumed the two hundred ⁊ fyftie men that offered ſence.

And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaynge. Speake vnto Eleazar the ſonne of Aaron the preeſt, that he take vp the ſencers out of the burnyng, and ſkatter the fyre here and there, E for the ☞ ſencers of theſe ſynners are halowed in theyr deathes: and let them make of them thyn beaten plates for a coueringe of the aulter. For they offered them before the lorde, and therfore they are halowed and they ſhall be a ſygne vnto the chyldren of Iſrael.

F And Eleazar the Preeſt toke the brazen ſencers which they that were burnt had offered, and bet them thyn for a coueryng of the aulter, to be a remembraunce vnto the chyldren of Iſraell, that no ſtraunger whiche is not of the ſeede of Aaron, come nere to offre ſence before the Lorde, that it happen not vnto hym lyke as vnto Corah and his companye: as the Lorde ſayde of hym by the hande of Moſes.

But on the morowe all the multitude of the chyldren of Iſraell murmured agaynſte Moſes ⁊ Aaron, ſayeng: Ye haue kylled the people of the lorde. And it fortuned, that whẽ the multitude was gathered agaynſt Moſes and Aaron, they loked towarde the tabernacle of wytneſſe. ✠ And beholde, ✠ (vvhen they vvere entred in to it;) the cloude couered it, ⁊ the glorye of the lorde appeared. And Moſes ⁊ Aaron came before the Tabernacle of wytneſſe. And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayenge. Get you from amonge this congregacyon, that I maye conſume them quyckely. And they fell vpon theyr faces.

G And Moſes ſayd vnto Aaron: take a ſencer and put fyre therin out of the aulter, and powre on ſence, and go quyckely vnto the cõgregacyon, that thou mayſt optayne forgyueneſſe for them. For there is wrath gone out from the Lorde/ and there is a plage begon. And Aaron toke as Moſes cõmaunded him and ran in to the myddes of the cõgregacion: and beholde, the plage was begonne among the people, and he put on ſence, and made an atonement for the people. And when he ſtode bitwene the deade, and them that were alyue the plage ceaſed. They that dyed in the plage were, xiiii. thouſande, and ſeuen hundred, beſyde them that dyed aboute the buſyneſſe of Corah. And Aaron went agayne vnto Moſes before the dore of the Tabernacle of wytneſſe, and the plage ceaſed.

¶ Aarons rod buddeth, and beareth bloſſoms.

CAPI. XVII.

A AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayenge: Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and take of euery prynce of them a rod, after the houſes of theyr fathers: Euen xii. roddes, and wryte euery mans name vpõ his rod. And wryte Aarons name vpon the rod of Leui: for euery rod is for a houſe of theyr fathers: and put them in the tabernacle of wytneſſe, euen in the place where I mete you. And the mans rod whom I choſe, ſhall bloſſome. And I wyl make ceaſe from me the grudgyngꝭ of the chyldren of Iſrael, wherby they grudge agaynſt you.

B And Moſes ſpake vnto the chyldren of Iſraell, and all the princes gaue hym, euery prince accordynge to theyr fathers houſes, a rod: euen, xii. roddes, ⁊ the rod of Aaron was among the roddꝭ. And Moſes put the roddꝭ before the lorde in the tabernacle of wytnes. And on the morow, Moſes went in to the tabernacle of wytneſſe: and beholde * the rod of Aaron for the houſe of Leui was budded, and bare bloſſoms ⁊ almondes. And Moſes brought out all the roddes from before the Lorde, vnto al the chyldren of Iſrael, ⁊ they loked vpon them, ⁊ toke euery man his rod. Hebru.ix.a

D And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes: brynge Aarons rod agayne before the wytneſſe/ to be kept for a token of the chyldrens rebellyõ, and that theyr murmurynge maye ceaſe fro me, and that they dye not. And Moſes dyd as the Lorde cõmaunded hym, euen ſo dyd he. And the chyldren of Iſrael ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayenge: beholde, we are waſted awaye and conſumed: we al come to nought: who ſoeuer cometh nygh the dwellyng of the lord, dyeth. Shall we vtterly conſume awaye?

¶ The offyce of the leuytes. The tythes, and fyrſt fruytes muſt be gyuen them. Aarons herytage.

CAPI. XVIII.

AND the Lorde ſayd vnto Aaron: Thou and thy ſonnes and thy fathers houſe, with the ☞ ſhal beare the faute of that C whiche is done amyſſe in the holy place. And thou ⁊ thy ſonnes with the, ſhall beare the faute of that whiche is done amyſſe in your Preeſthode. * And thy brethren of the tribe of Leui, and of thy fathers houſholde/ ſhalte thou take vnto the, that they maye be ioyned vnto the, and miniſtre vnto the: euen vnto the, and thy ſonnes with the, before the tabernacle of wytneſſe. Num.iii.b

They ſhal wayte vpon the, and vpon al the Tabernacle: only let them not come nygh the veſſels of the ſanctuary and the aulter, that they, and ye alſo dye not. And they ſhalbe by the & wayte vpon the tabernacle of wytneſſe,

for al the ſeruyce of the tabernacle, and let no
ſtraunger come nygh vnto you.

Therfore ſhall ye kepe the holy place and the aulter, that there fal no more wrath vpon
the chyldren of Iſrael: beholde, I haue taken your brethren the Leuites from amonge the chyldren of Iſrael, which as a gyft of yours are gyuen vnto the lorde, to do the ſeruyce of the Tabernacle of wytneſſe. Therfore ſhalte thou / and thy Sonnes with the / take hede vnto your preeſtes offyce, for all thyngs that within the vayle. And ſe that ye ſerue, for I haue gyuen your preeſtes offyce vnto you as a gyfte: & therfore the ſtraunger that cometh nye, muſt be ſlayne.

B And the lorde ſpake vnto Aaron: beholde,
☞ I haue gyuen the, the kepyng ☞ of my heue

crifices for all theyr meatofferynges, ſynoffe rynges, or treſpaceofferynges, whiche they bryng vnto me, are mooſt holy. It is thyne & thy ſonnes. In the moſt holy place ſhalt thou eate it: and all that are males ſhall eate of it:
let it be holy vnto the.

Leui. vii.d And this alſo is thyne * the heueofferynges of theyr gyftes, thorowout all the waueofferynges of the chyldren of Iſrael: I haue gyuen them vnto the, and thy ſonnes, and thy doughters with the, to be a dutye for euer, & al that are cleane in thy houſe, ſhal eate of it:
all the fat of the oyle, & all the fat of the wyne
and of the corne, whiche they ſhall offre vnto
the Lorde for fyrſt fruytes, the ſame haue I gyuen vnto the. And what ſoeuer is fyrſte rype in theyr lande whiche they brynge vnto
the Lorde, ſhall be thyne: & all that are cleane
in thyne houſe, ſhall eate of it.

C All dedicate thyngs in Iſrael ſhalbe thyn.
All that openeth the matrice in al fleſſhe that men brynge vnto the Lorde, whyther it be of men, or beaſtes, ſhalbe thyne. Neuerthelatter the fyrſt borne of man ſhalt thou redeme, and the fyrſt borne of vncleane beaſtes ſhalt thou med, ſhalt thou redeme from the age of a mo-neth, for the value of the money, namelye for fyue ſycles, after the ſycle of the ſanctuary.

A ſycle maketh twentye halfepence. But the fyrſt borne of oxen, ſhepe and gootes, ſhalte thou not redeme. For they are holy, therfore thou ſhalt ſprynkle theyr blood vpon the aul ter, and ſhalt burne theyr fat vpon the ſacrifice for a ſwete ſauoure vnto the lorde.

And the fleſſhe of them is thyn * as the waue Leui.

And the Lorde ſpake vnto Aaron * thou Deu.
ſhalt haue none enheritaunce in theyr lande, Eccle.

them. I am thy parte & thyne enherytaunce amonge the chyldren of Iſrael. Beholde, I haue gyuen the chyldren of Leui al the tenth they ſerue in the tabernacle of wytneſſe. Ney

do the ſeruyce in the tabernacle of wytneſſe & ☞ beare theyr ſynne: It ſhalbe a law for euer ☞
in your generacions, that among the chyldre of Iſrael they poſſeſſe none enheritaunce. D

But the tythes of the chyldren of Iſraell whiche they pay at an heueofferyng vnto the Lorde, I haue gyuen the Leuites to enherite.
And therfore I haue ſayd vnto them: among the chyldren of Iſrael ye ſhall poſſeſſe none enheritaunce.

And the lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaynge:
ſpeake vnto the Leuites and ſay vnto them:
when ye take of the chyldren of Iſrael the tithes whiche I haue gyuen you of them for your enheritaunce, ye ſhall take an heueoffe-ryng of the ſame for the lorde: euen the tenth parte of that tithe. And this your heueoffe-ryng ſhalbe rekened vnto you, euē as though it were of the corne of the barne, or out of the fulneſſe of the wyne preſſe.

Of this maner ye ſhall therfore ſeperate
an heueoffryng vnto the lorde, of all your ty-thes whiche ye receyue of the chyldren of Iſ-rael, & ye ſhall gyue therof vnto the lorde an heueofferyng, which ſhall belonge to Aaron the preeſt. Of al your gyftes, ye ſhal take out all the lordes heueoffrynges: ☞ euen the fat ☞ of theyr halowed thynges. Therfore yͧ ſhalte ſay vnto them: When ye haue taken awaye
the fat of it from it, it ſhall be counted vnto
the Leuites, as yf it were the encreaſe of the corne floore, or the encreaſe of the wyne preſſe.
And ye ſhall eate it in all places, both ye and your houſholdes, for it is youre rewarde for your ſeruyce in the tabernacle of wytneſſe.

And ye ſhall beare no ſynne by the reaſon
of it, when ye haue taken from it the fat of it:
neyther ſhall ye vnhalowe the holy thynges
of the chyldren of Iſrael, leſt ye dye.

¶ Of the red kowe. The lawe of hym that dyeth in the Tabernacle: and of hym that toucheth any vncleane thynge.

CAPI. XIX.

A AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and

preeſt waſſhe his clothes, and he ſhall bathe
his fleſh in water, & then come into the hooſt,
& the preeſt ſhall be vncleane vnto the euen.

B And he that burneth her, ſhall waſſhe his clothes in water, & bathe his fleſſhe in water, and be vncleane vntyl euen. And a man that

* He that toucheth the deade body of any man, ſhall be vncleane ſeuen dayes. And he

This is the lawe of the man that dyeth in a tent: all that come in to the tent, and all that

And all the veſſels that be open which haue
no lyd, nor couerynge vpon them, ſhalbe vncleane.
And who ſoeuer toucheth one that is

D Therfore for an vncleane perſon they ſhal

And let a cleane perſone * take Iſope & Psal.li.b
dyp it in the water, and ſprynkle it vpon the tente, and vpon al the veſſels, & on the ſoules that were therin, and vpon him that touched a bone, or a ſlayne perſon, or a deade body, or a graue. And the cleane perſone ſhall ſprynkle vpon the vncleane the thyrde day and the ſeuenth day. And the ſeuenth day he ſhal purifie hym ſelfe, & waſſhe his clothes, & bathe
hym ſelfe in water, & ſhall be cleane at euen.

But the man that is vncleane, and ſprynkleth
not hym ſelfe, the ſame ſoule ſhalbe deſtroyed
from amonge the congregacyon: bycauſe he hath defyled the hooly place of the lorde, & the ſprynklynge water hath not bene ſprynkled vpõ hym, therfore ſhall he remayne vncleane. And this ſhal be a perpetuall lawe vnto them. And he that ſprynkleth the ſprynklyng water, ſhall waſſhe his clothes.

And he that toucheth the ſprynklyng water, ſhall be vncleane vntyll euen. And what ſoeuer the vncleane perſone toucheth, ſhalbe vncleane. And the ſoule that toucheth it, ſhal

¶ Mir Iam dyeth. The people murmure. They haue water euen out of the rocke. Edom denyeth the Iſraelites paſſage thorowe his realme. The death of Aaron, in whoſe rowme Eleazar ſucceedeth.

And the chyldren of Iſrael departed from

He ſent meſſengers therfore vnto * Balaam the ſonne of Beor in Pethor (whiche is by the ryuer in the land of the chyldren of his folke) to call hym, ſayeng: beholde, there is a people come out of Egypte, & beholde, they couer the face of the earthe, and dwell ouer agaynſt.

agaynſt me. Come nowe therfore & curſe this people for my ſake. For they are to myghtye for me, yf ſo peraduenture I myght be able to ſmyte them, and to dryue them out of the lande. For I wote that he whom thou bleſſeſt is bleſſed, and whom thou curſeſt, is curſed.

And the elders of Moab and the elders of Madian departed, hauyng the rewarde of the ſothſayinge in theyr hand. And they came vnto Balaam, and tolde hym the wordes of Balac. He anſwered them: Tary here this nyght, and I wyll bryng you worde, euen as the Lorde ſhall ſay vnto me. And the lordes of Moab abode with Balaam.

C And god came vnto Balaam, & ſayd. what men are theſe with the? And Balaam ſayde vnto God. Balac the ſonne of Ziphor kynge of Moab hath ſent vnto me, ſayeng: beholde there is a people come out of Egypte and couereth the face of the earth: come nowe therfore, and curſe them for my ſake, yf ſo peraduenture I may be able to ouercome them in battayle, & to dryue them out. And Balaam roſe vp in the mornynge & ſayd vnto the Lordes of Balac: get you vnto your lande: for the Lorde wyll not ſuffre me to go with you. And the lordes of Moab roſe vp, and went vnto Balac and ſayd: Balaam wolde not come with vs. And Balac ſent agayne a greater company of Lordes & more honourable then they, which came to Balaã & tolde hym. Thus ſayth Balac the ſonne of Ziphor: oh, let nothynge let the, but come vnto me, for I wyll greatly promote the vnto great honour, and wyll do what ſoeuer thou ſayeſt vnto me, come I praye the, curſe this people for my ſake.

Now therfore tary ye here this nyght: that I may wete, what the Lorde wyll ſay vnto me more. And God came vnto Balaam by nyght, & ſayde vnto hym: If the men come to call the, ryſe vp, and go with them: But loke what I ſaye vnto the, that ſhalt thou do.

And Balaam roſe vp earlye, and ſadled his Aſſe and went with the lordes of Moab. And the coũtenaunce of god was ☞ angrye ☞ bycauſe he went. And the angell of the lorde went forther & ſtode in a narowe place, where was no way to turne, eyther to the right hande or to the lefte. And when the aſſe ſawe the angel of the Lorde, ſhe fell downe vnder Balaam: and Balaam was wrothe, and ſmote the aſſe with a ſtaffe. And the lord opened the mouth of the aſſe, and ſhe ſayd vnto Balaam. what haue I done vnto the, that thou haſt ſmyten me nowe thre tymes? CAPI. XXXII.

A THe chyldren of Ruben and the chyldren of Gad, had an exceadynge great multitude of cattell. B And Moſes ſayde vnto the chyldren of Gad and of Ruben: ſhall youre brethren go to warre, and ye ſhall ſyt here? Wherfore dyſcourage ye the hertes of the chyldren of Iſrael that they ſhulde not go ouer in to the lande, whiche the Lorde hath gyuen them? *Thus dyd youre fathers, whē I ſent them from Cades barne to ſe the lande. For when they went vp euen vnto the ryuer of Eſcoll, and ſawe the lande, they diſcouraged the hertes of the chyldren of Iſrael, that they ſhulde not go in to the lande which the lorde hath gyuē them.

But * thy ſeruauntes Ioſua.4.c wyll go all harneſſed for the warre, and vnto battayle before the Lorde, as my lorde ſayth. And for theyr ſakes Moſes cōmaunded Eleazar the Preeſt, and Ioſua the ſonne of Nun, and the auncient fathers of the trybes of the Chyldren of Iſraell: and Moſes ſayd vnto them. If the chyldren of Gad, and F the chyldren of Ruben wyl go with you ouer Iordan, al prepared to fyght before the lorde then when the lande is ſubdued before you, ye ſhall gyue them the lande of Gylead, to poſſeſſe: But & yf they wyll not go ouer with you in harneſſe, they ſhall haue theyr poſſeſſyons among you in the lande of Canaan. And the chyldren of Gad and the chyldren of Ruben anſwered, ſayinge. As the Lorde hath ſayde vnto thy ſeruauntes, ſo wyll we do.

¶ Cityes and ſuburbes geuen to the Leuites. Cityes of refuge. The lawe of manſlayinge. For one mans wytneſſe ſhall no man be condempned.

CAPI. XXXV.

A AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes in the feldes of Moab, by Iordane, ouer agaynſt Ierico, ſayenge: cōmaunde the Chyldren of Iſrall, that they gyue vnto the Leuytes of the enherytaunce of theyr poſſeſſyon, Ioſua.21.a * cities to dwell in. And ye ſhall gyue alſo vnto the cities of the Leuytes, ſuburbes harde by theyr cities rounde aboute them. The cities ſhal they haue to dwell in, and the ſuburbes for theyr cattell, and for theyr poſſeſſyon and all maner of beaſtes of theyrs.

And the ſuburbes of the cities which ye ſhal gyue vnto the Leuytes, ſhal reache from the wall of the citie outwarde, a thouſande cubites rounde aboute. And ye ſhal meaſure without the citie, of the Eaſt ſyde: two thouſande cubites. And of the ſouth ſyde: two thouſand cubites. And of the weſt ſyde: two thouſande cubites. And of the north ſyde: two thouſand cubites alſo: & the citie ſhalbe in the myddes. And theſe ſhalbe the ſuburbes of theyr cities.

And from among the cities whiche ye ſhall gyue vnto the Leuytes, * there ſhall be ſyxe Ioſua.21 cities for refuge, whiche ye ſhall appoynte to that intente, that he whiche kylleth, maye flee thyther. And to them ye ſhall adde .xlii. cities mo: ſo that all the cities whiche ye ſhall gyue the Leuytes, may be .xlviii. wt theyr ſuburbs.

B And the cityes which ye ſhal gyue, ſhalbe out of the poſſeſſyō of the chyldren of Iſrael. They that haue many, ſhall gyue many: but of them that haue fewe, ye ſhall take fewe. Euery one ſhall gyue of his cityes vnto the Leuites, accordyng to the enheritaūce which he enheryteth.

And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſayinge. Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael and ſay vnto them: * when ye be come ouer Iordan into the lande of Canaan, ye ſhall appoynte you cities to be cities of refuge for you: that he which ſleeth ☞ a ſoule vnwares, may flee thyther. And the cities ſhall be to flee from the auenger of blood, that he whiche kylleth dye not, vntyl he ſtande before the congregacyō in iudgement. And of theſe ſyx free cities whiche ye ſhall gyue, ye ſhall gyue thre on this ſyde Iordan, and thre in the lande of Canaan. And theſe ſyxe free cities ſhall be a refuge bothe for the chyldren of Iſrael, and for the ſtraunger, and for hym that dwelleth amonge you, that all they whiche kyl any perſone vnwares, may flee thyther.

C * And yf any man ſmyte an other with an inſtrument of yron, that he dye, then is he a murtherer, and ſhall dye for it. If he ſmyte hym with a throwyng ſtone that a man may dye with, and yf he dye, he that ſmote hym is a murtherer, let the ſame murtherer be ſleyn therfore. Or yf he ſmyte hym with a hande weapon of wood that a man maye dye with, then yf he dye: he is a murtherer: let the murtherer be ſleyne therfore. The Iuſtyce of blood ſhall ſlee the murtherer: whē he meteth hym, he may ſley hym. But yf he thruſte at hym * of hate, or hurle at hym with layenge of wayte, that he dye, or ſmyte hym with his hande of Enuye, that he dye, he that ſmote hym ſhall dye, for he is a murtherer.

The iuſtyce of blood ſhall ſley the murtherer, as ſoone as he fyndeth hym. But and yf he puſſhed hym by chaunce, and not of hate, or caſt at hym with any maner of thyng and not of layinge of wayte: or caſt any maner of ſtone at hym (that a man may dye with) and ſawe hym not. And he caſt it vpon hym and he dye, & was not his enemy, neyther ſought hym any harme. Then the cōgregacyon ſhal iudge bytwene the ſleer, and the executer of blood in ſuche caſes. And the congregacyon ſhal delyuer the ſleer out of the hande of the auenger of blood, and the congregacion ſhal reſtore hym agayne vnto the cytie of his refuge, whyther he was fled. And he ſhall byde there * vnto the death of the hye preeſt, which was anoynted with holy oyle.

D But and yf the ſleer come without the borders of his preuyleged cytie whyther he was fled, yf the auenger of blood fynde hym without the borders of his fre towne, and ſley the murtherer, he ſhall be gyltleſſe, bycauſe he ſhulde haue bydden in his free towne vntyll the death of the hye preeſt, & after the deathe of the hye preeſt to returne agayne vnto the lande of his poſſeſſyon. Theſe cōmaundementes ſhall be a lawe vnto you, for youre generacyons in all your dwellynges.

☞ Who ſoeuer kylleth ☞ a ſoule, the ſame manſleer muſt be ſleyne hym ſelfe * thorowe wytneſſes. Neyther ſhal one wytnes anſwere to put a mā to death. Moreouer ye ſhall take none amendes for the lyfe of the murtherer, whiche is worthy to dye. But he ſhall be put to death. Alſo ye ſhall take no money of hym that is fled to a free cytye, that he ſhulde come agayne, & dwell in the lande, before the death of the hyghe preeſt. And ſe that ye polute not the lande whiche ye ſhall dwell in, for blood ☞ ☞ defileth the lande. C And the lande can none otherwyſe be clenſed of the blood that is ſhed therin, but by the bloode of hym that ſhedde blood. Defyle not therfore the lande whiche ye ſhall enhabyte, for I am the myddes therof: euen I the Lorde dwell amonge the chyldren of Iſraell.

B Whom yf any of the ſonnes of the other tribes of Iſrael take to wyues, thē ſhal theyr enherytaunce be taken from the enheritaūce of our fathers, and ſhall be put vnto the enherytaunce of the trybe which they are receyued vnto, and ſhall be taken from the lot of our enherytaunce. And when the yere of Iubilye of the chyldren of Iſraell cōmeth, then ſhall theyr enherytaunce be put vnto the enherytaunce of the Trybe where into they are receyued: and ſo ſhall theyr enherytaunce be taken away frō the enherytaunce of the tribe of oure fathers. And Moſes cōmaunded the chyldren of Iſraell, accordynge to the worde of the Lorde, ſayenge: The chyldren of the trybe of Ioſeph haue ſayde well.

C This therfore doth the lorde cōmaund the doughters of Zelaphead, ſaynge: * let them be wyues to whome they them ſelues thynke beſt, only to the kynred and trybe of theyr father ſhall they marrye, ſo ſhall not the enherytaunce of the Chyldren of Iſraell remoue from trybe to trybe, when the chyldren of Iſrael abyde euery man in the enheritaunce of the trybe of his fathers. And euery doughter that poſſeſſeth any enheritaunce in any tribe of the chyldren of Iſrael, ſhall be wyfe vnto one which is of the kynred of the trybe of her father, that the chyldren of Iſrael may enioy euery man the enherytaunce of his fathers. Neyther ought the enheryaunce to go from one trybe to an other: but euery one of the tribes of the chyldren of Iſraell, muſt abyde in his owne enherytaunce.

D And as the Lorde commaunded Moſes, euē ſo dyd the doughters of Zelaphead. And Mahela, Thirza, Hagla, Milcha and Noa were maryed vnto theyr Fathers brothers ſonnes, which were of the kynred of the chyldren of Manaſſes the ſonne of Ioſeph: and ſo theyr enherytaunce remayned in the trybe of the kynred of theyr father.

CAPI. Primo.

A These be the wordes which Moſes ſpake vnto all Iſraell, on the other ſyde Iordan in the wyldernesse, in the playne ouer agaynſt the red ſee, bytwene Pharan ⁊ Tophil, Laban, Hezeroth, and Diſahab: eleuen dayes iourney from Horeb vnto Cades barne by mount Seir. And it fortuned the fyrſt day of the eleuenth moneth in the fourtyeth yere, that Moſes ſpake vnto the chyldrē of Iſrael accordyng vnto all that the lorde had gyuen hym in cōmaundement vnto them, after that he had ſmytten * Sehon the kyng of the Amorites whiche dwelte in Heſbon: and Og kynge of Baſan whiche dwelte at Aſtaroth in Edrai. On the other ſyde Iordane in the lande of Moab, began Moſes to declare this lawe, ſayenge: the lorde our God ſpake vnto vs in Horeb, ſayenge. Ye haue dwelte longe ynough in this Mounte: departe therfore / and take your iourney, and go vnto the hyll of the Amorites, and vnto al the places nygh thervnto: bothe vnto the playne, and hylles and vales: to the ſouth, to the ſees ſyde, to the lande of Canaan, and vnto Libanon: euen vnto the great ryuer Euphrates.

B Beholde, I haue ſet the lande before you: go in and * poſſeſſe the lande which the lorde ſware vnto your fathers Abraham, Iſaac, ⁊ Iacob, to gyue vnto them ⁊ theyr ſeede after them. And I ſpake vnto you the ſame ceaſon ſayenge. I am not able to beare you my ſelfe alone. For the Lorde your God hath multiplyed you: and beholde, ye are this day as the ſterres of heuen in nombre (the lorde God of your fathers make you a thouſande tymes ſo many mo as ye are, and bleſſe you, as he hath promyſed you,) howe can * I my ſelfe alone, beare the combraunce, charge, ⁊ ſtryfe that is amonge you? brynge (from amonge you) men of wyſdome and of vnderſtandyng and experte, accordynge to your trybes, and I wyll make them rulers ouer you. And ye anſwered me and ſayde: that which thou haſt ſpoken is good for vs to do. And ſoo out of your trybes I toke the captaynes, (men of wyſdome and that were experte) and made them rulers ouer you: captaynes ouer thouſandes, and ouer hundredes, ouer fyftye, and ouer ten, and offycers amonge your trybes.

C And I charged your Iudges that ſame tyme, ſaynge: heare the cauſe of your brethrē and * iudge ryghteouſly bytwene euery man and his brother, and the ſtraunger that is wt hym. Se that ye knowe no ☞ faces in Iudgement: * but heare the ſmall as well as the great, and be afrayde of no man, for the iudgemente is Goddes. And the cauſe that is to * harde for you, brynge vnto me, and I wyll heare it. And I cōmaunded you the ſame ceaſon, all the thynges whiche ye ſhulde do. And whē we departed from Horeb, we went thorowe all that great and terrible wyldernesse, as ye haue ſene alonge by the waye of the hyll of the Amorites, as the lorde our god cōmaunded vs, and came to Cades Barne. And I ſayde vnto you: Ye are come vnto the hyll of the Amorytes, whiche the Lorde oure God wyll gyue vnto vs.

D Beholde the Lorde thy God hath ſet the lande before the: go vp, and conquere it, as the lorde god of thy fathers hath ſayde vnto the, * feare not, neyther be diſcouraged. But ye came vnto me euery one and ſayde: * We wyll ſende men before vs, to ſearche vs oute the lande, and to brynge vs worde agayne, what way we muſt go vp by, and vnto what cityes we ſhall come. And the ſaynge pleaſed me well, and I toke .xii. men of you, of euery trybe one, whiche departed, and went vp into the hye countrey, ⁊ came vnto the ryuer Eſcoll, and ſerched it out, ⁊ toke of the frupte of the lande ⁊ (to declare the plenteouſneſſe therof) in theyr handes, and brought it vnto vs, and brought vs worde agayn ⁊ ſayd: it is a good lande, which the lorde our god doth gyue vs.

Notwithſtange ye wolde not conſente to go vp, but were dyſobedient vnto the mouth of the Lorde your God, ⁊ murmured in your tentes, and ſayd: bycauſe the lorde hateth vs therfore hath he brought vs out of the lande of Egypte, to delyuer vs in to the hande of the Amorites, and to deſtroy vs. Howe ſhall we go vp? E Our brethren haue dyſcouraged our herte, ſayeng: * the people is greater and taller then we, and haue cyties great ⁊ walled euen vp to heuen, and more ouer we haue ſene the ſonnes of the Enakims there. And I ſayde vnto you: drede not, nor be afrayde of them: the lorde your god which goeth before you, he ſhall fyght for you, accordynge to all that he dyd vnto you in Egypte before youre eyes. In the wyldernes alſo ẏ haſt ſene how, that the lorde thy god bare the, euen as a mā doth beare his ſon, in all the waye whiche ye haue gone by vntyll ye came vnto this place. And yet in this thynge ye dyd not byleue the Lorde your God. He went in the waye before you, to ſeeke you out a place to pytche youre tentes in, * in fyre by nyght, that ye myght ſe what way to go, and in a cloude by daye.

F And the Lorde herde the voyce of youre wordes, and was wroth, and ſware, ſayenge. * There ſhall not one of theſe men and of this frowarde generacion ſe that good lande whiche I ſware to gyue vnto your fathers, ſaue Caleb the ſonne of Jephune, he ſhall ſe it * and to hym wyl I gyue the lande that he hath troden vpon, & to his chyldren, bycauſe he hath folowed the Lorde, ✠ (VVonderfull vvas that indignacion agaynſt the people, ſeyng that) * the Lorde was angrye with me lykewyſe for your ſakes, ſayenge: thou alſo ſhalt not go in thyther. But Joſua the ſon of Nun whiche ſtandeth before the, he ſhal go in thyther. Bolden hym therfore, for he ſhall cauſe Iſrael to enheryte the lande. * Moreouer your chyldre, whiche ye ſayd ſhulde be a pray and your ſonnes whiche in that daye had no knowledge bytwene good & euyll, they ſhall go in thyther, and vnto them wyll I gyue it, and they ſhall enioy it. But as for you, turne your faces, and take youre iourney in to the wyldernеſſe: euen by the way of the red ſee. Then ye anſwered and ſayd vnto me.

* We haue ſynned agaynſt the Lorde: we G wyll go vp and fyght, accordynge to all that the Lorde our god cōmaunded vs. And whē ye had gyrde on euery man his weapons of warre: beholde, ye were redy to go vp in to the hyll. And the Lorde ſayde vnto me: ſaye vnto them, that they go not vp, and that they fyght not, for I am not among you: leeſt ye fall before your enemyes. I tolde you therfore, and ye wolde not heare, but dyſobeyed the mouth of the Lorde, and went preſumptuouſly vp in to the hyll.

And the Amorites which dwelt in that hyl came out agaynſt you, & chaſed you (as bees vſe to do) and ſmote you in Seir, euen vnto Horma. And ye came agayne, & wepte before the lorde: but the lorde wolde not heare your voyce, nor gyue you audience. * And ſo ye abode ✠ in Cades a long ſeaſon, accordynge to the tyme that ye remayned in other places.

That which was done frō the tyme they departed frō Cades barne, vnto the battayle agaynſt the kynges Sehon, and Og.

CAPI. II.

A Then we * turned our face, and toke our iourney in to the wyldernеſſe, euen by the way of the red ſee, as the lorde ſpake vnto me. And we compaſſed mounte Seir a longe tyme. And the Lorde ſpake vnto me, ſayenge.

Ye haue compaſſed this mountayne longe ynough, turne you northwarde. And warne thou the people, ſayenge: Ye ſhall go thorow the cooſt of your brethren the chyldren of Eſau, whiche dwell in Seir, and they ſhall be afrayde of you: take ye good hede vnto your ſelues therfore. Ye ſhall not prouoke them, for I wyl not gyue you of theyr lande, no not ſo moche as a fote bredth, * bycauſe I haue gyuen mounte Seir vnto Eſau, to poſſeſſe. Gene.36.b Joſu.24.a Ye ſhal bye meate of them for money to eate/ and ye ſhall procure water of them for money to drynke. For the lorde thy God hath bleſſed the, in all the workes of thy hande.

B He knewe thy entrynge in to this great wyldernеſſe this .xl. yeres, and the Lorde thy god hath bene with the, ſo that thou haſt lacked nothynge. And when we were departed from our brethren the chyldre of Eſau which dwelte in Seir, the playne way from Elath & from Ezion Gaber, we turned and went by the way of the wyldernеſſe of Moab. And the lorde ſayd vnto me: * Thou ſhalte not fyght Judi.xi.b agaynſt the Moabites, neyther prouoke them to battayle, for I wyll not gyue the of theyr lande to poſſeſſe: bycauſe I haue gyuen Ar, vnto the chyldren of Loth to poſſeſſe. The terrible people the * Emims dwelte therin in Gene.14.a tymes paſt, a people great, many, and tall, as the Enakims: whiche alſo were taken for gyauntes as the Enakims: whom the Moabites call Emyms. The Horims dwelt in Seir C before tyme, whoſe poſſeſſyon the chyldren of Eſau occupied, & deſtroyed them before them and dwelte in theyr ſteade: as Iſrael dyd vnto the lande of his poſſeſſyon, which the lorde gaue them. Now: ryſe vp (ſayde I) and get you ouer the ryuer Zared: and we went ouer the ryuer zared. The ſpace in which we came from Cades barne vntyl we were come ouer the ryuer Zared, was .xxxviii. yeres: vntyll al the generacyon of the men of warre were waſted out from among the hooſt, as the Lorde ſware vnto them. * For in dede the hande of Nume.14.b and 26.b. the Lorde was agaynſt them, to deſtroy them frō among the hooſt, tyll they were cōſumed.

And ſo it came to paſſe, that all the men of D warre were conſumed and dead from among the people. And the lorde ſpake vnto me, ſayenge. Thou ſhalte go thorowe Ar the cooſt of Moab this day: and when thou comeſt nygh vnto the chyldren of Ammon, thou ſhalte not lay ſyege vnto them, nor moue war agaynſt them. For I wyl not gyue the of the lande of the chyldre of Ammon a poſſeſſiō, but I haue gyuen it vnto the chyldre of Loth to poſſeſſe.

That alſo is taken for a lande of gyauntes, and gyauntes dwelte therin in olde tyme, whom the Ammonites call Zanzumims. * A people that was great, many, and tall, as the Enakims. But the Lorde deſtroyed them before them, and they ſucceded them in the enherytaunce, & dwelt in theyr ſteade: as he dyd for the Chyldren of * Eſau, whiche dwell in Seir: when he deſtroyed the Horyms before them, they conquered theyr poſſeſſyon, and dwelte in theyr ſteade vnto this day. And the Auims which dwelte in Hazarim euen vnto Aza, the Caphthorims whiche came out of Caphthor deſtroyed them, and dwelte in theyr ſteade.

Ryſe ye vp therfore, & take youre iourney ouer the ryuer Arnon. Beholde, * I haue gyuen in to thy hande Sehon the Amorite, kyng of Heſbon, and his lande. Go to therfore and conquere, and prouoke hym to battayle. This daye wyll I begyn to ſende the, feare and drede of the, vpon all nacyons that are vnder all the heuen: ſo that they whiche heare ſpeake of the, ſhall tremble and quake before the. And ſo he ſent meſſengers out of the wyldernesse of Kedemoth, vnto Sehon kyng of Heſbon with wordꝭ of peace, ſayinge: * I wyll go thorowe thy lande. I wyll go along by the hye waye. I wyll neyther turne vnto the ryght hande, nor to the lefte. Thou ſhalte ſell me meate for money for to eate, & gyue me water for money for to drynke: Onely graunt me, that I may go thorowe on my fote (as the chyldren of Eſau whiche dwel in Seir, and the Moabites whiche dwell in Ar, dyd vnto me) vntyll I be come ouer Iordan, in to the lande whiche the Lorde our god gyueth vs. But Sehon the kynge of Heſbon/ wolde not let vs paſſe by hym, for the Lorde thy god hardened his ſpirite, & made his hert tough, bycauſe he wold delyuer hym into thy hande, as it is come to paſſe this day.

* Then bothe Sehon, and all his people came out agaynſt vs to fyght at Iaza. And the lorde ſet him before vs, and we ſmote him and his ſonnes, and all his people. A

Then we turned and went vp the way to Baſan. * And Og the kyng of Baſan came out agaynſt vs: he and al his people to battayle at Edrai. And the Lorde ſayd vnto me: Feare hym not, for I wyll delyuer hym, and all his people & his lande in to thy hande, and thou ſhalte do vnto hym, as thou dydeſt vnto Sehon kynge of the Amorites, whiche dwelte at Heſbon. And ſo the Lorde our god delyuered into our handes, Og alſo the kyng of Baſan and all his folke. And we ſmote hym, vntyl none was lefte hym alyue.

And we toke all his cyties the ſame ceaſon (neyther was there a cytie which we toke not from them) euen thre ſcore cyties thorowout all the region of Argob, the kyngdom of Og in Baſan. All theſe Cytyes alſo were made ſtronge with hye walles, gates and barres, beſyde vnwalled townes a great meanye.

And we vtterly deſtroyed them, as we dyd vnto Sehon kynge of Heſbon, bryngyng to nought all the cytyes, with men, women and chyldren. But all the cattell and the ſpoyle of the cytyes, we caught for our ſelues.

And thus we toke the ſame ceaſon, out of the hande of two kyngꝭ of the Amorites, the lande that was on the other ſyde Iordan frõ the ryuer of Arnon vnto mounte Hermon, (whiche Hermon the Sidons call Sirion, & the Amorites call it Senyr) al the cyties that lay in the playne, and all Gilead and all Baſan vnto Salecha and Edrai, Cyties of the kyngdome of Og in Baſan. And is it not yet at Rabah amonge the chyldren of Ammon? ix. cubites both the length therof conteyne, and foure cubites the bredth of it, after the cubite of a man. the Lorde your god, he ſhall fyght for you.
And I beſought the Lorde the ſame tyme/ſayenge: O Lorde God, thou haſt begonne

the lorde was angrye wt me for your ſakes, & wolde not heare me. And the lorde ſayd vnto

this matter. * Get the vp in to the toppe of the hyll, and lyfte vp thyne eyes weſtwarde, northwarde, ſouthwarde, & Eaſtwarde, & beholde
it with thyne eyes, for thou ſhalt not go ouer this Iordan. But charge Ioſua, & courage

I make not this bonde and this othe with you onely: but both with hym that ſtandeth here with vs this day before the lord our god ⁊ alſo with hym that is not here with vs this daye. But thou ſhalte turne, and herken vnto the voyce of the Lorde, and do al his commaundementes, whiche I cõmaunde the this day. And the Lorde thy God wyll make the plenteous in al the workes of thyne hande, in the frupte of thy bodye, and in the frupte of thy cattell, and in the frupte of thy lande, for thy welthe. Jere. * For the Lorde wyll turne agayne and reioyce ouer the to do the good, as he reioyſed ouer thy fathers: If thou herken only vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, to kepe his cõmaundementes, and his ordinaunces whiche are wrytten in the boke of this lawe, and yf thou turne vnto the Lorde thy God with all thyne herte and all thy ſoule.

Roma. C * For the commaundement whiche I cõmaunde the this daye, is not ſeperated from the, neyther farre of. It is not in heuen, that thou nedeſt to ☩ ☩ (complayne, and) ſaye: who ſhall go vp for vs to heuen, and fet it vs, that we may heare it, and do it. Neyther is it beyonde the ſee: that thou ſhuldeſt ſaye: who ſhall go ouer the ſee for vs, and fet it vs, that we may heare it: and do it? But the worde is very nygh vnto the: euen in thy mouth and in thyne herte, that thou do it.

Deut. * Beholde I haue ſet before the this daye lyfe and good, deathe and euyll: For where as I commaunde the this daye, to loue the LORDE thy God, to walke in his wayes, and to kepe his cõmaundementes, his ordinaunces, and his lawes (yf thou ſo do) thou ſhalte lyue and multiplie, and the Lorde thy God ſhal bleſſe the in the lande whither thou goeſt to poſſeſſe it.

D But and yf thyne herte turne awaye, ſo that thou wylt not heare: but ſhalt go aſtray, and worſhyppe ſtraunge goddes, and ſerue them, I pronounce vnto you alſo this daye, that ye ſhal ſurely peryſhe, ⁊ that ye ſhal not prolong your dayes vpon the lande whyther thou paſſeſt ouer Iordane, to go ⁊ poſſeſſe it. Deut.iiii.b * I call heuen ⁊ earth to recorde this daye agaynſt you, that I haue ſet before you lyfe ⁊ death, bleſſyng ⁊ curſynge: Therfore choſe lyfe, that both thou ⁊ thy ſeed may lyue, that thou mayſt loue the lorde thy god, and be obedyent to his voyce, and cleaue vnto hym. For he is thy lyfe, ⁊ the length of thy dayes, that thou mayſt dwell vpon the earth whiche the lorde ſware vnto thy fathers: Abraham, Iſaac, and Iacob, to gyue them.

¶ Moſes beynge redy to dye ordereth Ioſua to rule the people in his ſteade. This boke Deuteronomy is wrytten and layde in the Tabernacle beſyde the Arke. The Leuites are charged to rede it to the people.

CAPI. XXXI.

A AND Moſes went and ſpake theſe wordes vnto al Iſrael, ⁊ ſayde vnto them: I am an hundred ⁊ xx. yere olde this day, and can no more go out ⁊ in. Alſo the lorde hath ſayde vnto me, * thou ſhalt not go ouer this Iordan. The lorde thy God he wyll go ouer before the, ⁊ he wyll deſtroy theſe nacions before the, ⁊ thou ſhalte conquere them. * And Ioſua he ſhal go before the, as the lorde hath ſayd. And the lorde ſhall do vnto them, as he dyd to Sehon ⁊ Og kyngꝭ of the Amorites, ⁊ vnto the lande of them, whom he deſtroyed.

And the Lorde ſhall gyue them ouer before B your face that ye maye do vnto them, accordyng vnto al the cōmaundementes which I haue cōmaūded you. Plucke vp your hertes therfore, ⁊ be ſtrong, drede not, nor be afrayde of them: for the lorde thy god hym ſelfe dothe go wt the. He ſhall not fayle the, nor forſake the. And Moſes called vnto Ioſua, ⁊ ſayde vnto hym in the ſyghte of all Iſraell: * Be ſtrong ⁊ bolde, for thou muſt go wt this people vnto the land, which the lord hath ſworne vnto theyr fathers to gyue them, ⁊ thou ſhalt gyue it them to enherite. And the lord he doth go before the: He ſhall not fayle the, neyther forſake the: feare not therfore, nor be diſcomforted. And Moſes wrote this lawe, ⁊ delyuered it vnto the preeſtes the ſonnes of Leui C (which * bare the arke of the teſtament of the lorde) ⁊ vnto all the elders of Iſrael, ⁊ Moſes cōmaunded them, ſayinge: * At the poynte of .vii. yeres in the ſolempnyte of the fre yere, euen in the feaſt of tabernacles, when all Iſrael is come to appeare before the Lorde thy god, in the place whiche he hath choſen: thou ſhalt rede this lawe before all Iſrael in theyr eares. Gather the people togyther: men, women ⁊ chyldren, ⁊ the ſtraunger that is within thy gates, that they may heare, and learne ⁊ feare the lorde your God, ⁊ kepe, ⁊ obſerue all the wordes of this lawe, ⁊ that theyr chyldren whiche knowe nothyng, may heare, and learne to feare the lorde your god, as long as ye lyue in the lande, whyther ye go ouer Iordane to poſſeſſe it.

D And the lorde ſayd vnto Moſes: Beholde thy dayes are come, that thou muſt dye. Call Ioſua therfore, ⁊ ſtande ye in the tabernacle of wytneſſe, that I may gyue hym a charge.

And Moſes ⁊ Ioſua went, and ſtode in the tabernacle of wytneſſe. And the lorde appeared in the tabernacle: euen in the pyller of the cloude. And the * pyller of the cloude ſtode ouer the dore of the tabernacle. Exodi.33.b And the lorde ſayd vnto Moſes: beholde, thou ſhalte ſlepe with thy fathers, ⁊ this people wyll ryſe vp, ⁊ go a hooryng after ſtraunge goddes of the lande (whyther they go) ⁊ wyll forſake me, ⁊ breake the appoyntment, which I haue made with them. And then my wrath wyll waxe hoote agaynſt them, and I wyl forſake them and wyll hyde my face from them, and they ſhall be conſumed.

E And moche aduerſyte and tribulacyons ſhall come vpon them, ſo that then they wyll ſaye. Are not theſe troubles come vpon me, bycauſe God is not with me? And I alſo wyl ſurely hyde away my face in that daye, for all the euyls ſake which they ſhal haue wrought in that they are turned vnto ſtraūge goddꝭ.

Nowe therfore wryte ye this ſonge for you and teache it the chyldren of Iſraell, and put it in theyr mouthes, that this ſonge may be my wytneſſe agaynſt the chyldren of Iſrael. For I wyll brynge them in to the lande, (whiche I ſware vnto theyr Fathers) that floweth with mylke and honye, and they ſhal eate, and fyll them ſelues, and waxe fat, and turne vnto ſtraunge goddes, and ſerue them and ⁊ blaſpheme me, and breake my couenaunt. F And then when moche myſcheyfe and tribulacion is come vpon them, this ſonge ſhall anſwere them, as a wytneſſe. For it ſhal not be forgotten out of the mouthes of theyr ſeede: for I knowe theyr ymaginacion, which they goo aboute euen nowe, before I haue brought them in to the lande which I ſware.

C For then ſhalte thou make thy waye proſperous, & then thou ſhalte do wyſely. Haue not I cōmaūded the to be ſtronge and bolde, and that thou ſhuldeſt not feare nor be faynt herted? For I the lorde thy god am with the, whyther ſoeuer thou goeſt. Then Joſua cōmaunded the officers of the people, ſayenge: Go thorowe the myddes of the hooſt, and cōmaunde the people, ſayenge: prepare you vitayles: for after thre dayes ye ſhal paſſe ouer this Jordane, to go in and enioye the lande, whiche the Lorde youre God gyueth you, to poſſeſſe it. And vnto the Rubenites, Gadites and halfe the trybe of Manaſſes ſpake Joſua, ſayenge: * Remember ☞ the word, which Moſes the ſeruaunt of the Lorde cōmaūded you, ſayenge: the Lorde youre God hath gyuen you reſt, and hath gyuen you this lande.

D Your wyues, youre Chyldren, and youre cattell ſhal remayne in the lande which Moſes gaue you on this ſyde Jordane: But ye ſhall go before your brethren armed, all that be men of war, & helpe them vntyll the lorde haue gyuē your brethren reſt, as he hath you, and vntyl they alſo haue obteyned the land, whiche the Lorde your God gyueth them.

And then ſhall ye returne vnto the lande of your poſſeſſyon and enioye it, whiche lande Moſes the Lordes ſeruaūt gaue you on this ſyde Jordan towarde the ſonne ryſynge. And they anſwered Joſua, ſayinge: * All that thou haſt cōmaunded vs, we wyl do, and whyther ſoeuer thou ſendeſt vs / we wyll go. Accordynge as we obeyed Moſes in all thynges, ſo wyll we obey the: onely the Lorde thy god be with the, as he was wᵗ Moſes. And whoſoeuer he be that doth dyſobeye thy mouth, and wyll not herken vnto thy wordes, in all that thou cōmaundeſt hym, let hym dye: Only be ſtronge / and of good courage. Deute.v.d. Jere.xlii.a.

¶ Joſua ſendeth ſpyes to Jerico, which were hyd of Rahab

CAPI. II.

A AND Joſua the ſonne of Nun ſent out of Settim two men to ſpye ſecretly, ſayenge: go and vewe the lande / and alſo Jerico. And they went, and came in to a harlots houſe, named Rahab, and lodged there. And it was tolde the kynge of Jerico, & ſayd: Beholde, there came men in hyther to nyght, of the chyldren of Iſrael, to ſpye out the coūtrey. And the kynge of Jerico ſent vnto Rahab, ſayenge: brynge forth the men that are come to the, and which are entred in to thyne houſe: for they be come to ſearche out all the lande. And the woman toke the two men, * & hyd them. And ſayd thus: in dede there came men vnto me, but I wyſt not whence they were. Hebru.xi.c. Jacob.ii.d

B And aboute the tyme of the ſhuttynge of the gate when it was darke, the men went out, whyther the men went I wote not: folow ye after them quyckly, for ye ſhall ouer take them. But ſhe brought them vp to the roofe of the houſe, and * hyd them with the ſtalkes of flaxe, whiche ſhe had lyenge abrode vpon the roofe. Joſua.vi.d And the men purſued after them, the waye to Jordan, euen vnto the ferye, and as ſoone as they whiche purſued after them were gone out, they ſhut the gate: and or euer they were a ſlepe, ſhe came vp vnto the vpon the roofe, and ſayde vnto the men: I knowe, that the lorde hath gyuen you the lande * for the feare of you is fallen vpon vs, and the enhabyters of the land faynt at the preſence of you. For we haue herde, howe the Lorde Exod.xiiii.c * dryed vp the water of the red ſee before you when ye came out of Egypt, and what ye dyd vnto the two kynges of the Amorites / that were on the other ſyde Jordan Num.xxi.g. * Sehon, and Og, whiche ye vtterly deſtroyed. And as ✿ ſoone as we haue herde theſe thynges (✿ VVe vvere ſore afrayde, and) our hertes dyd faynt.

And there remayned no more courage in any man at the preſence of you. For the lorde your god, he is the God in heuen aboue, and on the earth benethe.

C Nowe therfore (I praye you) ſweare vnto me Deute.x.b. * by the Lorde that as I haue ſhewed you mercye, ye ſhall alſo ſhewe mercye vnto my fathers houſe, and gyue me a true token. And that ye ſhal ſaue alyue, both my father, and my mother, my brethren, and my ſyſters, and all that they haue. And that ye ſhall de☞lyuer ☞ our ſoules from death. And the men anſwered her: oure lyues for you to dye, yf ye vtter not this oure buſyneſſe. And when the Josue.vi.e Lorde hath gyuen vs the lande, * we wyll deale mercifully ⁊ truely with the. And then i.Reg.19.c Actes.9.d ſhe let them downe by a corde, * thorowe a wyndowe: For her houſe was by the towne walle And ſhe dwelt by the towne wall. And ſhe ſayde vnto them: get you in to the mountayne, leeſt the purſuers mete you, and hyde your ſelues there thre dayes, vntyll the purſuers be returned, and then ſhall ye go youre waye. And the men ſayde vnto her: we wyll be blameleſſe of this thyne othe, whiche thou haſt made vs ſwere. Beholde, when we come in to the lande, thou ſhalt bynde this purple corde in the wyndowe, whiche thou letteſt vs downe bye.

D And thou ſhalt brynge thy father, and thy mother, thy brethren, and all thy Fathers houſhold, euen into thy houſe. And then who ſoeuer doth go out at the dores of thy houſe, ☞ into the ſtreete, ☞ his bloode ſhall be vpon his owne heade, and we wyl be gyltleſſe. And whoſoeuer ſhall be with the in the houſe, his bloode ſhall be on our heade, yf any mannes hande touche hym: And yf thou vtter theſe our wordes, we wyll be quyte of thyne othe, whiche thou haſt made vs ſweare. And ſhe ſayde: accordynge vnto youre wordes, ſo be it: and ſhe ſent them awaye to departe. And ſhe bounde the purple corde in the wyndow.

And they departed, and got them into the mountayne, and there abode thre dayes vntyl the purſuers were returned. And the purſuers ſought them thorowout all the waye, but founde them not. And the two men returned, and deſcended from the mountayne, and paſſed ouer, and came to Joſua the ſon of Nun, and tolde hym all that had chaunced them. And they ſayde vnto Joſua: the Lorde truly hath delyuered into our handes all the lande: ⁊ all the inhabyters of the countrey faynte at the preſence of vs.

¶ Joſua with the people paſſe ouer Jordane.

CAPI. III.

A AND Joſua roſe early: and they remoued from Settim, and came to Jordan, he and all the Chyldren of Iſraell, and lodged there, before they went ouer. And after thre dayes it fortuned, that the offycers went thorowout the hooſt, ⁊ commaunded the people ſayenge: when ye ſe the arke of the teſtament of the Lorde youre god, ⁊ the preeſtes that are Leuites bearyng it: ye ſhall departe from your place, and go after it. So yet that there ſhall be a ſpace bytwene you and it / aboute a two thouſande cubites by meaſure.

And ye ſhall not come nygh vnto it, that B ye may knowe the way, by which ye muſt go: * for ye haue not gone this waye in tymes paſt ✿ ✿ (and bevvare, that ye approche not nygh vnto the arke.) And Joſua ſayd vnto the peple: ☞ [illegible] * ☞ Sanctifye youre ſelues. for to morowe the Lorde ſhall do wonders amonge you. And Joſua ſpake vnto the preeſtes, ſayinge: Take vp the Arke of the couenaunt, and go before the people. And they toke vp the arke of the teſtament, and went before the people. And the Lorde ſayde vnto Joſua: this daye ☞ wyl I begyn to ☞ magnifye the, in the ſyght of all Iſraell, that they maye knowe howe Joſue.i that * as I was with Moſes, ſo wyll I be with the. And thou ſhalte commaunde the preeſtes that beare the arke of the couenaunt / ſayenge: when ye are come to the edge of the waters of Jordayne, ye ſhal ſtande ſtyll in it.

C And Joſua ſayde vnto the Chyldren of Iſraell, come hyther, and heare the wordes of the lorde your God. And Joſua ſayd: Hereby ye ſhall knowe, that the lyuynge God is amonge you, and that he wyll without fayle caſt out before you, the Cananites, and the Hethites, the Heuites, the Phereſytes / the Gergeſites, the Amorites, and the Jebuſites. Beholde, the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde of all the worlde goeth before you, in to Jordan. Nowe therfore take from among you twelue men out of the trybes of Iſraell, out of euery trybe a man. And aſſoone as the ſoales of the feete of the preeſtes (that beare the arke of the Lorde, the Gouernoure of all the worlde) treade in the waters of Jordane / ✿ the waters of Jordan (✿ that are beneath, ſhall runne dovvne, and) ſhall be deuyded: and the waters that come from aboue, ſhall ſtande ſtyll vpon an heape. And it fortuned, that when the people were departed from theyr tentes to go ouer Jordan, the preeſtes bearynge * the Arke of the appoyntment, went before the people. And as ſoone as they that bare the Arke came vnto Jordane, and the feete of the Preeſtes that bare the Arke were dypped in the brym of the water. (* For Jordane vſeth to fyll all his bankes all the tyme of harueſt) the waters alſo that came downe frō aboue, dyd ryſe vp vpon an heape (✿ and appeared as great as a mountayne,) and departed farre from the cytye of Adam, that was beſyde Zarthan. And the waters that were benethe towarde the ſee of the wyldernesse, fell awaye & departed in to the ſalte ſee, and the peple * went ryght ouer agaynſt Jerico. And the preeſtes that bare the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde, ſtode drye within Jordane, redy prepared, & all the Iſraelytes went ouer thorow the drye, vntyl all the people were gone clene ouer thorowe Jordane.

CAPI. IIII.

AND it fortuned, that when the people / were all gone * ouer Jordane, the lorde ſpake vnto Joſua, ſayenge: Take you twelue men out of the people, out of euery trybe a man. And cōmaunde you them, ſayenge: take you hence out of the myddes of Jordane, (euen oute of the place where the preeſtes ſtode in a redyneſſe) twelue (✿ of the mooſt hardeſt) ſtoones, whiche ye ſhall take awaye with you, and leaue them in the place, where you ſhal lodge this nyght. And Joſua called the twelue men, whiche he had prepared of the Chyldren of Iſraell, out of euery trybe a man, and Joſua ſayd vnto them: get you before the Arke of the Lorde your God / euen thorowe the myddes of Jordan, * and take vp euery man of you a ſtoone vpon his ſhoulder, accordynge vnto the nombre of the trybes of the Chyldren of Iſraell, that this maye be a ſygne amonge you. That when your Chyldren aſke theyr fathers in tyme to come, ſayenge: what meane theſe ſtones wyth you? Ye maye anſwere them howe that the waters of Jordane deuyded at the preſence of the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde.

For when it went ouer Jordan, the waters of Jordan deuyded: And theſe ſtoones are become a memoryall vnto the Chyldren of Iſraell for euer. And the Chyldren of Iſraell dyd euen ſo as Joſua cōmaunded, and toke vp * twelue ſtoones out of the myddes of Jordane, as the Lorde ſayde vnto Joſua accordyng to the nombre of the trybes of the chyldren of Iſraell, and caryed them awaye with them vnto the place where they lodged, and layde them downe there. And Joſua ſet vp twelue ſtones alſo in the myddes of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the preeſtes whiche bare the Arke of the teſtament, ſtode. And there haue they continued ☞ vnto this daye. For the preeſtes whiche bare the Arke / ſtode in the myddes of Jordane, vntyll all was fynyſſhed that the Lorde commaunded Joſua to ſaye vnto the people, accordynge to all that Moſes charged Joſua. And the people haſted, and went ouer.

It fortuned alſo, that when all the people were cleane ouer, the arke of the Lorde went ouer alſo, and the preeſtes before the people. * And the chyldren of Ruben, & the chyldren of Gad, & halfe the Trybe of Manaſſes went before the chyldren of Iſrael armed, as Moſes charged them. Euen fourtye thouſande prepared for war, went before the lorde vnto battayle, thorow the playn of Jerico. * That day the lorde magnifyed Joſua in the ſyght of all Iſraell, & ☞ they feared hym, as they feared Moſes all dayes of his lyfe. And the Lorde ſpake vnto Joſua, ſayinge: cōmaunde the Preeſtes that beare the arke of wytneſſe / to come vp out of Jordane.

Joſua therfore cōmaunded the preeſtes / ſayenge: Come ye vp out of Jordane. And when the Preeſtes that bare the Arke of the appoyntment of the lorde were come vp out of the myddes of Jordan, and aſſoone as the ſooles of the preeſtes feet were ſet on the drye lande, the waters of Jordā returned agayne vnto theyr place, and went ouer all theyr bankes as they dyd before. And the people came vp out of Jordane the tenth daye of the fyrſt moneth, and pytched in Gylgall, euen in the Eaſt border of the cytye Jerico.

And the twelue ſtoones whiche they toke out of Jordane dyd Joſua pitche in Gylgal. And he ſpake vnto the Chyldren of Iſraell, ſayenge: * Yf your Chyldren aſke theyr Fathers in tyme to come, and ſaye: what meane theſe ſtones? ye ſhall ſhewe youre Chyldren, and ſaye: Iſraell came ouer this Jordane on drye lande. For the lorde your god dryed vp the water of Jordane before you, vntyll ye were gone ouer, as the Lorde youre God dyd the red ſee, whiche he dryed vp before vs, tyl we were gone ouer: that all the people of the worlde maye knowe the hande of the Lorde, howe myghtye it is, and that ye myght feare the Lorde your God for euer.

¶ The Cananites are afrayde.

CAPI. V.

A And it fortuned, that when all the kynges
of the Amorytes, whiche are beyonde Jordan weſtwarde, and all the kynges
of the Cananytes, whiche were by the ſeeſyde, howe the Lorde had dryed vp the waters of Jordane before the chyldren of Iſrael, Joſua.ii.b. vntyll they were goone ouer: * their hertes faynted for feare. And there was no ſpiryte in them any more, for the preſence of the chyldren of Iſraell.

That ſame tyme the Lorde ſayde vnto
Exodi.iiii.c Joſua: * Make the ſharpe knyues (of ſtone)
and go to agayne and circumcyſe the Chyldren
B of Iſraell the ſeconde tyme. And Joſua made hym ſharpe knyues (of ſtone) and circumciſed
the chyldren of Iſraell in the top of the foreſkynnes. And this is the cauſe why Joſua circumcyſed all the people that came out of Egypte: Namely ſuche as were males bycauſe that all the men of warre, dyed in the wyldernesse by the waye, after they came out of Egypte. For all the people that came out were circũcyſed. But all the people that were borne in the wyldernesse by the waye, after they came out of Egypt, were not circũciſed.
For the Chyldren of Iſraell walked fourtye yeres in the wyldernesse, tyll all the people of the men of warre that came out of Egypte,
were conſumed, bycauſe they herkened not vnto the voyce of the Lorde. Wherfore the Lorde ſware, that he wolde not ſhewe them Num.14.f. the lande * which the lorde ſware vnto their fathers, that he wolde gyue vs, euen a lande Numer.13.d * that floweth with mylke and honye.

C And their chyldren whome he ſette vp in their ſteade: them Joſua circũcyſed: for they were vncircumciſed, bycauſe they circumciſed them not by the way. And when they had circumciſed all the people, they abode ſtyll togyther in the hooſte tyll they were hoole.
And the Lorde ſayde vnto Joſua: this daye
I haue taken awaye the ſhame of Egypte
frõ you: wherfore the name of the ſame place is called Gilgall vnto this day. And the chyldren Exodi.12.a. of Iſraell abode in Gilgall * and helde the feaſt of paſſeouer the fourtene day of the moneth at euen in the playne of Jerico. And they dyd eate of the corne of the lande on the morowe after paſſeouer ſwete cakes, and parched corne, in the ſelfe ſame daye.

Exod.17.d. For the * Manna ceaſed on the morowe, after they had begon to eate of the corne of the lande, neyther had the chyldren of Iſrael Manna any more, but dyd eate of the corne of the lande of Canaan that yere.

And it fortuned that when Joſua was D
nygh to Jerico, he lyft vp his eyes, & loked:
and beholde, there ſtode a man agaynſt hym hauynge a ſwerde drawen in his hande. And Joſua went vnto hym, & ſayd vnto hym: art thou on our ſyde or on our aduerſaries? And he ſayd: Naye, but as a captayne of the hooſt of the Lorde am I nowe come. And Joſua fell on his face to the earth, & dyd reuerence, and ſayde vnto hym, what ſayeth my Lorde vnto his ſeruaunt? And the captayne of the Lordes hooſt ſayd vnto Joſua: * do thy ſhoo Exodi.iii.
of thy foote, for the place wheron thou ſtandeſt Actes.vii.
is holy. And Joſua dyd ſo.

¶ The walles of Jericho fall, and it is deſtroyed.

CAPI. VI.

And Jerico was ſhut vp, and locked bycauſe A of the chyldren of Iſrael, neyther myght any man go out or in. And the Lorde ſayd vnto Joſua: beholde, I haue gyuen into thyne hande Jerico & her kyng, and the ſtronge men of war. And ye ſhall cõpaſſe
the cytye, all ye that be men of warre, and go rounde aboute it once, and ſo ſhall ye do ſyxe dayes. And ſeuen preeſtes ſhall beare before the arke, ſeuen trompettes of rammes hornes ✠ (that be vſed in the Iubilie.) And the ſeuenth ✠ daye, ye ſhal compaſſe the cytye ſeuen tymes,
and the Preeſtes ſhall blowe with the trompettes.
And when they make a longe blaſte
with the rammes horne, & ye heare the ſoũde of the horne, all the people ſhall ſhoute with a great ſhoute. And then ſhall the wall ☞ of C that cytye fall downe, and the people ſhall aſcende vp, euery man ſtreyght before hym.

And Joſua the Sonne of Nun, called the preeſtes, & ſayd vnto them: take vp the Arke of the appoyntment, & let.vii. Preeſtes beare ſeuen trompettes of Rammes hornes before the arke of the Lorde. And he ſayde vnto the people, and go and compaſſe the cytye: & let hym that is harneſſed, go before the Arke of the Lorde. And when Joſua had ſpoken vnto
the peple, the ſeuen preeſtes bare the ſeuen trompettes of rammes hornes, & went forth before the arke of the lorde, & blewe with the trompettes, and the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde folowed them.

And all the men of armes went before the B Preeſtes, that blewe wt the trompettes, & the cõmen people came after the arke: and went,
and blewe with Trompettes. And Joſua cõmaunded the people, ſayenge: Ye ſhall not ſhoute, nor make any noyſe wt youre voyce, neyther ſhall any worde procede out of youre mouth, vntyl the day I byd you ſhoute, then ſhall ye ſhoute. And ſo the arke of the Lorde compaſſed

compaſſed the citye, and went aboute it once: and they returned in to the hooſt, and lodged there. And Joſua roſe early in the mornyng/ and the preeſtꝭ toke vp the arke of the lorde/ and ſeuen preeſtes bare ſeuen trompettes of rammꝭ hornes, ⁊ went before the arke of the Lorde, ⁊ blewe with the trompettes. And all the men of armes went before them, but the cōmen peple came after the arke of the lorde, which went before with the blowynge of the trompettes. And the ſeconde daye they compaſſed the citye once, ⁊ returned agayne into the hooſte, and ſo they dyd ſyxe dayes. And when the ſeuenth daye came, they roſe early: euen with the dawnynge of the daye, ⁊ compaſſed the citye after the ſame maner ſeuen tymes: only that daye they cōpaſſed the citye ſeuen tymes.

C And at the ſeueth tyme, when the preeſtes blewe the trompettes, Joſua ſayde vnto the people: ſhoute, for the Lorde hath gyuen you the citye. And the citye ſhall be ☞ dampned, both it, ⁊ all that are therin, vnto the Lorde: only Rahab the harlot ſhall lyue, ⁊ all that are with her in the houſe, bycauſe ſhe * hyd Joſua.ii.a. the meſſengers that we ſent. And in anywyſe be ye ware of the excōmunicate thynges leſt ye make your ſelues excōmunicate, and take of the excōmunicate thyngꝭ, ⁊ make the hooſt of Iſraell excōmunicate, and trouble it. But all the ſyluer, golde, veſſels of braſſe, ⁊ yron ſhal be conſecrate vnto the lorde, ⁊ ſhal come into his treaſurye. And the people ſhouted, ⁊ blewe with trompettes. And when the people herde the ſounde of the trompe, they ſhouted Hebrue.xi.f with a great ſhoute: ⁊ the wall fell downe, ſo that the people went vp in to the citye, euery man ſtreyght before hym, and toke the citye.

And they vtterly deſtroyed all that was in the citye, both man ⁊ woman, yonge ⁊ olde/ oxe, ſhepe ⁊ aſſe, with the edge of the ſwerde.

Then Joſua ſayde vnto the two men that Hebrue.xi.f had ſpyed out the cōtrey: * go in to the harlottes houſe, ⁊ bryng out thence the woman/ Joſua.ii.c. and all that ſhe hath, * as ye ſware to her.

D And the yonge men that were ſpyes, went in, and brought out Rahab, ⁊ her father, and mother and her brethren, and al that ſhe had. And they brought out all her kynred, and put them without the hooſte of Iſraell. And they burnt the citye with fyre, ⁊ all that was therin. Onely the ſyluer and the golde/the veſſels of braſſe and yron, they put vnto the Hebrue.xi.f treaſure of the houſe of the lorde. * And Joſua ſaued Rahab the harlot, and her fathers houſholde, and al that ſhe had, and ſhe dwelt in Iſraell, euen vnto this daye, bycauſe ſhe hyd the meſſengers, which Joſua ſent to ſpye out Jerico. And Joſua ſware at that tyme/ ſayenge: curſed be the man before the Lorde, that ryſeth vp, ⁊ buyldeth this citye Jerico: 3.Reg.16.g he ſhall laye the foundacyon * ☞ in his eldeſt ſonne, ☞ and in his yongeſt ſon ſhall he ſet vp the gates of it. And ſo the lorde was with Joſua, and his fame was noyſed thorowout all landes.

¶ Hai is ſpyed out. Acan is ſtoned.

CAPI. VII.

But yet the chyldren of Iſraell treſpaſſed A in the * excommunicate thynges: And Deut.vii.d and.xiii.d * Acan the ſonne of Carmi, the ſonne of Joſua.22.d Zabdi, the ſonne of Zareh of the trybe of Juda, i.Para.ii.a toke of the excommunicate thynges. ii.mach.12.f And the wrath of the Lorde waxed hoote agaynſt the chyldren of Iſraell. And Joſua ſent men from Jerico to Hai, whiche is beſyde Bethauen, on the eaſt ſyde of Bethel, and ſpake vnto them, ſayenge: Get you vp and vewe the countrey. And the men went vp, and ſpyed out Hai. And returned vnto Joſua, and ſayd vnto hym, let not all the people go vp but let as it were a two or thre thouſand men go vp, and ſmyte Hai, and make not all the people to labour thyther, for they are but fewe.

And ſo there went vp thyther of the people, aboute a thre thouſande men, and they fled before the men of Hai. And the men of Hai ſmote of them vpon a thyrtye and ſyxe men: for they chaſed them frō before the gate euen vnto Sebarim ⁊ ſmote them in the goynge downe. Wherfore the hertes of the people * for feare melted awaye lyke water. Pſal.xxii.b

B And Joſua rent his clothes, ⁊ fell to the earth vpon his face before the Arke of the lorde vntyll the euen tyde, he and the Elders of Iſraell, and put earth vpon theyr heades. And Joſua ſayde: * Alas, O Lorde God, Deute.ix.d wherfore haſt thou brought this people ouer Jordane, to delyuer vs into the hande of the Amorites, and to deſtroye vs: wolde to God we had ✤ ben content, ⁊ dwelte on the other ✤ ſyde Jordane. Oh Lorde what ſhall I ſaye/ when Iſrael turneth theyr backꝭ before theyr enemyes: Surely the Cananites, and all the enhabyters of the lande ſhall heare of it, and ſhall conſpyre agaynſt vs, and deſtroye the name of vs out of the worlde. And what wylt thou do vnto thy myghtye name? And the Lorde ſayd vnto Joſua, get the vp, wherfore lyeſt thou thus vpon thy face? Iſraell hath ſynned, and they haue tranſgreſſed myne appoyntment, whiche I cōmaunded them: for they haue taken of the excōmunicate thynges, and haue ſtollen, ⁊ diſſembled, and put them vnto theyr owne ſtuffe: And therfore is it that the chyldren of Iſraell can not ſtande before theyr enemyes, but ſhall turne theyr backes before theyr enemyes, bycauſe they be excommunicate. Neyther wyll I be with you any more, excepte ye deſtroye the excommunicate from amonge you.

Exod.xix.a ☞ C * Vp therfore, and ☞ ſanctifye the people, and ſaye: ſanctifye youre ſelues agaynſt to morowe: for ſo ſayd the Lorde God of Iſraell. There is a damned thynge among you (O Iſraell) and therfore ye can not ſtande agaynſt your enemyes, vntyll ye haue put the damned thyng from amonge you. To morowe mornynge therfore ye ſhall be brought accordynge to youre Trybes. And the trybe whiche the Lorde taketh, ſhall come accordynge to the kynredes therof. And the kynred whiche the Lorde ſhall fynde gyltye, ſhall come by houſholdes. And the houſholde, whiche the Lorde ſhall fynde fautye, ſhall come man by man. And he that is founde in the excommunicacyon, ſhall be burnte with fyre, he and all that he hath, bycauſe he hath tranſgreſſed the couenaunt of the lorde/ and wrought folye in Iſraell. And ſo Joſua roſe vp early in the mornynge, & brought Iſraell by theyr trybes: and the Trybe of Juda was caught. And he brought the kynreds of Juda, and toke the kynred of the Zarchites. And he brought the kynred of the Zarchites man, by man, and Zabdi was caught. And he brought his houſholde mā by man, and Acan the ſonne of Carmi, the ſon of Zabdi/ the Sonne of Zarch in the Trybe of Juda was caught.

D ☞ And Joſua ſayde vnto Acan: my ſonne/ ☞ gyue glory to the Lorde God of Iſraell, and gyue hym prayſe, and ſhewe me what thou haſt doone, hyde it not from me. And Acan anſwered Joſua, and ſayde, of a truth I haue ſynned agaynſt the Lorde god of Iſraell, and thus and thus haue I done. I ſaw amonge the ſpoyle a goodlye Babylonyſhe garment, and two hundred ſycles of ſyluer, and a tonge of golde of fyftie ſicles weyght: and I coueted them, and toke them. And beholde, they lye hyd in the earth in my tente, and the ſyluer is there vnder. And ſo Joſua ſent meſſengers: whiche when they ran vnto his tente, beholde, they were hyd in his tent/ and the ſyluer there vnder. Therfore they toke them out of the myddeſt of his tent, and brought them vnto Joſua, and vnto all the Chyldren of Iſraell, and layde them out before the lorde. And Joſua toke Acan the ſon of Zarch, & the ſyluer, and the garment, and the tonge of golde, and his Sonnes, and his doughters, his oxen, and his aſſes, his ſhepe and his tent, & all that he had, and all Iſrael with hym brought them vnto the valey of Acor. And Joſua ſayd: In as muche as thou haſt troubled vs, the lorde ſhall trouble the this daye. And all Iſraell ſtoned hym with ſtones, and burnte them with fyre, and ouerwhelmed them wͭ ſtones. And they caſt vpon hym a great heape of ſtones vnto this daye. And ſo the Lorde turned from the wrathe of his indygnacion. And the name of the place is called the valey of Acor vnto this daye.

CAPI. VIII.

A Deut.vii. AND the Lorde ſayd vnto Joſua: * feare not, neyther be thou faynte herted. Take all the men of war with the, and vp, and get the to Hai. Beholde, I haue gyuen into thy hande, the kyng of Hai, and his people, his citye & his lande. And thou ſhalte do to Hai and her kynge, as thou dydeſt vnto * Jericho and her kynge. Neuertheleſſe the ſpoyle and * cattell therof, ſhall ye take vnto your ſelues: And lay a watche vnto the towne, on the backeſyde therof. And ſo Joſua aroſe, and all the men of warre, to go vp agaynſt Hai. And Joſua choſe out thyrtye thouſande men of war, and ſent them awaye by nyght. And he cōmaunded them, ſaynge: beholde, ye ſhall laye awayte vnto the towne on the backeſyde therof. Go not very farre from the citye, but be al redye. And I and all the people that are with me, wyl approche vnto the citye. Joſua.vi. Deut.xx.

B And when they come out agaynſt vs, as they dyd at the fyrſt tyme, then wyl we fley before them, for they wyl come out after vs, and we wyll brynge them out of the citie. For they wyll ſaye, they fley before vs, as at the fyrſte tyme: and we wyll fley before them. In the meane tyme ſhall ye aryſe vp from layenge awayte, and deſtroy the citye: For the Lorde your God wyll delyuer it into your hande. And when ye haue taken the citye, ye ſhall ſet it on fyre. Accordynge to the cōmaundement of the lorde ſhall ye do: beholde, I haue charged you. Joſua. Joſua therfore ſent them forth, and they went to lay awayte, and abode bytwene Bethell and Hai, on the weſt ſyde of the citye of Hai. But Joſua lodged that nyght amoung the people. And Joſua roſe vp earlye in the mornynge, and nombred the people, & went vp, he & the elders of Iſraell before the people agaynſt Hai. And all the men of warre that were with hym/ went vp and drue nygh and came agaynſt the citye, and pytched on the north ſyde of Hai, and there was a valey bytwene them and Hai.

C And he toke upon a fyue thouſande men, and put them to lay awayte, bytwene Bethel & Hai, on the weſtſyde of the citye. And they put the people (euen all the hooſte that were on the northſyde) agaynſt the citye, and the layers awayt on the weſt. And Joſua walked the ſame nyght in the myddes of the valey.

And it fortuned, that when the kynge of Hai ſawe it, they haſted & roſe up early, and the men of the citye went out agaynſt Iſrael to battayle, he and all his people, at a tyme appoynted, euen before the playne, and wyſt not that there were layers awayte on the backſyde of the citye. And Joſua and all Iſraell fayned them ſelues to be put to the worſe before them, and fled towarde the wyldernesse. And al the people of the towne were called togyther, to folowe after them.

D And they folowed after Joſua, and were drawen awaye from the citie: And there was not a man lefte in Hai, and in Bethell, that went not out after Iſraell. And they lefte the citye open, and folowed after Iſraell. And the Lorde ſayde unto Joſua: ſtretche out the ſpeare that is in thyne hande, towarde Hai/ for I wyl gyue it into thy hande. And Joſua ſtretched out the ſpeare that he had in his hand, toward the citie. And the layers awayt roſe quycklye out of theyr place, and ran as ſoone as Joſua had ſtretched out his hande, and they entred into the citye and toke it, and haſted, and ſet the citye on fyre. And when the men of Hai loked backe after them, they ſawe the ſmoke of the cytye aſcende up to heuen. And they had no leaſure to fley eyther this waye or that, & the people that fled to the wyldernesse, turned backe agayne upon the folowers. And when Joſua and all Iſraell ſawe that the layers awayte had taken the citye, and that the ſmoke of it aſcended, they turned agayne and layde on the men of Hai.

E And the other yſſued out of the cytye agaynſt them. And ſo were they in the myddes of Iſraell: for theſe were on the one ſyde of them, and the reeſt on the other ſyde. * And they layde upon them, ſo that they let noone of them ſcape. And the kynge of Hai they toke alyue, and brought hym to Joſua. And when Iſraell had made an ende of ſleyenge all the enhabyters of Hai, in the felde of the wyldernesse, where they chaſed them, & when they were al fallen on the edge of the ſwerde, untyll they were waſted, all the Iſraelytes returned unto Hai, and ſmote it in the edge of the ſwerde. And all that fell that day, both of men, and women, were twelue thouſande, euen all the men of Hai. For Joſua plucked not his hande backe agayne, whiche he ſtretched out upon the ſpeare, untyll he had utterlye deſtroyed all the enhabitatours of Hai. * Only the cattel and the ſpoyle of the citye, Iſraell toke unto them ſelues, accordynge unto the worde of the Lorde, whiche he commaunded Joſua.

A And it fortuned, that when all the kynges that dwell on this ſyde Jordane, in the hylles and valeys, and alonge by al the coaſtes of the great ſee ouer agaynſt Libanō (Namely the Hethytes, the Amorytes, the Canaanites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the Iebuſites) herde therof, they gathered them ſelues together, to fyght agaynſt Iosua, and agaynſt Iſraell with one accorde. ii.Reg.xi.a * And the enhabytours of Gibeon herde what Iosua had done vnto Iericho, and to Hai: And they played wylylye, and went, & made them ſelues embaſſadours, & toke ✻ (them vytayles, and) olde ſackes vpon theyr Aſſes, and wyne bottels olde, and rent and worne, and olde clouted ſhoos vpon theyr feete, and theyr rayment was olde, and all theyr prouiſyon of breade was dryed vp, and hoored.

B And they came vnto Iosua into the hooſt to Gilgall, and ſayde vnto hym, and vnto al the men of Iſraell: we be come from a farre countrey, and nowe make ye agrement with vs. And the men of Iſraell ſayde vnto the Heuite: peraduenture thou dwelleſt among vs, and then howe can I make peace with the? And they ſayde vnto Iosua: we are thy ſeruauntes. And Iosua ſayde vnto them agayne: what are ye? And whence come ye? They anſwered hym: From a very far countrey thy ſeruauntes are come, for the name of the Lorde thy GOD: for we haue herde the fame ✻ (of the poure) of hym, and all that he dyd in Egypt, and all that he dyd to the two Num.xxi.f * kynges of the Amorites that were beyonde Iordane, Sehon kynge of Heſbon, and Og kynge of Baſan, whiche was at Aſtharoth. Wherfore oure Elders and all the enhabytours of oure countrey ſpake to vs, ſayenge: take vitayles with you to ſerue by the waye, and go meete them, and ſaye vnto them: we are youre ſeruauntes. And nowe make ye a couenaunt of peace with vs. This our foode of breade, we toke with vs out of our houſes hoote, the day we departed to come vnto you And nowe beholde, it is dryed vp, & hoored. And theſe bottels of wyne whiche we fylled, were newe: and ſe, they be rent. And theſe our garmentes and ſhoos are worne for oldneſſe/ by the reaſon of the excedynge longe Iourney. And the men toke of theyr vittayles, and counſayled not with the mouth of the lorde.

C And Iosua made peace with them, and iii.Re.xxi.a * made a couenaunt with them, that they ſhulde be ſuffered to lyue, and the Lorde of the congregacyon ſware vnto them. And it fortuned that thre dayes after they had made peace with them, they herde that they were theyr neyghbours, & that they dwelt among them. And the chyldren of Iſraell toke theyr Iourney & came vnto theyr cityes the thyrde daye: and theyr cityes were Gibeon, & Caphira, Beroth and Kariath Iarim.

And the Chyldren of Iſraell ſlewe them not, bycauſe the Lordes of the congregacion had ſworne vnto them by the Lorde God of Iſraell. And all the multitude murmured agaynſt the Lordes. But all the Lordes ſayd vnto all the congregacyon: we haue ſworne vnto them by the Lorde God of Iſraell, and therfore we maye not hurte them. But this we wyll do to them: We wyll let them lyue, leeſt wrathe be vpon vs, bycauſe of the othe whiche we ſware vnto them.

D And the Lordes ſayd vnto them agayne: Let them lyue Deut.xxi. * and hewe wood, & drawe water vnto all the congregacyon, as the lordes ſayde vnto them. And Iosua ſent for them, and talked with them, and ſayde: wherfore haue ye begyled vs ſayenge: We dwell farre from you, when ye dwell amonge vs? & now are you curſed, and there ſhall not ceaſe to be of you, bonde men, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the houſe of my God. And they anſwered Iosua, and ſayde: it was tolde thy ſeruauntes, howe that the lorde thy God had cōmaunded his ſeruaunt Moſes to gyue you all the lande, and to deſtroye all the enhabytours therof out of youre ſyght, & therfore we were excedyng ſore afrayd ✻ (and dyd prouyde) for our lyues at the preſence of you and this haue we done, and beholde we are in thyne hand: as it ſemeth good & ryght in thyne eyes to do vnto vs, ſo do. And euen ſo dyd he vnto them, and ryd them out of the hande of the Chyldren of Iſraell, and they ſlewe them not. And Iosua made them that ſame day hewers of wood, & drawers of water for the cōgregacyon, and for the aulter of God vnto this daye, in the place whiche god ſhulde choſe.

CAPI. X.

A And it fortuned, that when Adonizedec kynge of Ieruſalem had herde, howe Iosua had taken Hai, & had deſtroyed it, and howe that Iosu.vi. and.viii. * as he had done to Iericho and her kynge, euen ſo he had done to Hai/ and her kynge, and howe the enhabytoures of Gibeon had made peace with Iſraell, and were amonge them, they feared excedynglye, for Gibeon was a great citye, as any citye of the kyngdome, and was greater then Hai/ and all the men therof were very myghtye. Wherfore Adonizedec kynge of Ieruſalem ſent vnto Hoham kynge of Hebron, and vnto Pirea kynge of Iarimoth, & vnto Iaphia kynge of Lachis, and vnto Dabir kynge of Eglon, ſayenge: Come vp vnto me, & helpe me, that we may ſmyte Gibeon: for they haue B made peace with Joſua, & with the chyldren of Iſraell. Therfore the .v. kynges of the Amorites, the kynge of Jeruſalem, the kyng of Hebron, the kynge of Jerimoth, the kynge of Lachis, the kynge of Eglon gathered them ſelues togyther, they with all theyr hooſtes, & beſeyged Gibeon, & made warre agaynſt it.

And the men of Gibeon ſent vnto Joſua & to the hooſt to Gilgal, ſaynge: Withdrawe not thy hande from thy ſeruauntes, come vp to vs, to ſaue vs, and to helpe vs. For all the kynges of the Amorites whiche dwell in the mountaynes are gathered togyther agaynſt vs. And ſo Joſua aſcended from Gilgal, he and all the peole of warre with hym, and all the men of myght, and the Lorde ſayde vnto Joſua: feare them not, for I haue delyuered them in to thyne hande. Neyther ſhall any of them ſtand agaynſt the. Joſua therfore came vnto them ſodeynly, and went vp from Gilgall all nyght.

C And the Lorde troubled them before Iſraell, and ſlewe them with a great ſlaughter at Gibeon, and chaſed them alonge the way that gothe vp to Bethoron, and ſmote them to Eſaka and Makeda. And it fortuned, that as they fled from Iſraell, and were in the goynge downe to Bethorõ, the lorde caſt downe great ſtones from heuen vpon them, vntyll Eſaka. And there were mo deade with hayle ſtones, then they were, whom the chyldren of Iſrall ſlewe with the ſwerde.

Then ſpake Joſua before the Lorde, in the day when the Lorde delyuered the Amorites before the chyldren of Iſraell, and he Eccl.xlvi.a ſayd in the ſyght of Iſraell. * Sonne, ſtande thou ſtyll vpon Gibeon, and thou Moone, in Aialon. And the ſon abode, & the moone ſtode ſtyll, vntyll the people auenged them ſelues vpon theyr enemyes, Is not this wrytten in the boke ☞ of the ryghteous? The ſonne (I ſaye) abode in the myddes of heuen, and haſted not to go downe by the ſpace of a hole day. And there was no day lyke that, before it, or after it, that the lorde herde the voyce of a man. For the lorde fought for Iſraell.

D And Joſua returned and all Iſraell with hym, vnto the hooſte of Gilgall: but the fyue kynges fled, and were hyd in a caue at Makeda. And it was tolde Joſua of one, ſaynge: the fyue kynges are founde hyd in a caue, which is at Makeda. And Joſua ſayd, rowle great ſtones vpon the mouthe of the caue, and ſet men by it, for to kepe them. And ſtand ye not ſtyll, but folowe after your enemyes, and ſmyte all the hyndermooſt, and ſuffre them not to entre into theyr cities, for the Lorde your God hath delyuered them in to your hande. And it fortuned when Joſua and the chyldren of Iſraell had made an ende of ſleynge them with a great ſlaughter tyll they were waſted, the reſt that remayned of them, entred in to walled Cityes.

And all the people returned to the hooſt, to Joſua at Makeda in peace, neyther dyd any man moue his tongue agaynſt the chyldren of Iſraell. Then ſayde Joſua: Open the mouthe of the caue, and brynge out theſe fyue kynges vnto me oute of the caue. And they dyd ſo, and brought thoſe fyue kynges vnto hym, out of the caue, euen the kynge of Jeruſalem, the kynge of Hebron, the kynge of Jerimoth, the kynge of Lachis, and the kynge of Eglon.

And it fortuned, that when they brought E out thoſe kynges vnto Joſua: Joſua called for all the men of Iſraell, and ſayde vnto the chyefe of the men of warre, whiche went with hym: come nere, and put youre fete vpon the neckes of theſe kynges. And they came nere, and put theyr fete vpon the neckes of them. And Joſua ſayde vnto them: Ye ſhall not feare, nor be faynt herted. But be ſtrong and plucke vp your hertes, for thus ſhall the Lorde do to al your enemyes agaynſt whom ye fyght. And then Joſua ſmote them, & ſlew them, & hanged them on fyue trees tyll euen. And at the goynge downe of the ſonne it fortuned, that Joſua gaue cõmaundement, and they toke them downe of the * trees, and caſt Joſua.x.f. them in to the caue, (wherin they had bene hyd) & layd great ſtones on the caues mouth whiche remayne vnto this daye.

And that ſame daye Joſua toke Makeda, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſwerde and the kynge therof alſo * deſtroyed he vt- Deute.xx.d terly, with all the ſoules that were therin, and let nought remayne. And he dyd to the kynge of Makeda * as he dyd to the kynge Joſua vi.d of Jericho. Then Joſua wente from Makeda, and all Iſraell with hym vnto Libna, & fought agaynſt Libna. And the Lorde delyuered it, and the kyng therof in to the hande of Iſraell, and he ſmote it with the edge of the ſwerde, and all the ſoules that were therin. He let nought remayne in it, but dyd vnto the kynge therof as he dyd vnto the kynge of Jericho.

F And Joſua departed from Libna, and all Iſraell with hym, vnto Lachis, and beſeyged it, and aſſaulted it. And the Lorde delyuered Lachis in to the hande of Iſraell, whiche toke it the ſeconde daye, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſwerde, and al the ſoules that were therin, doynge accoꝛdyng to all, as he had done to the citie of Libna.

Then Hozam kyng of Geſer came vp to helpe Lachis: And Joſua ſmote hym and his people, vntyll nought remayned of hym.

And from Lachis Joſua departed vnto Eglon, and all Iſraell with hym / and they beſeyged it, and aſſaulted it, and toke it the ſame daye, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſwerde, and all the ſoules that were therin he vtterlye deſtroyed the ſame daye / accoꝛdynge to all that he had done to Lachis.

And Joſua departed vp from Eglon / and all Iſraell with hym, vnto Hebꝛon. And they fought agaynſt it, and when they had taken it, they ſmote it with the edge of the G ſwerde, and the kyng therof, and all the townes that pertayne to it, and al the ſoules that were therin, and he lefte nought remaynyng: but dyd accoꝛdynge to all, as he had done to Eglon, and deſtroyed it vtterlye, and all the ſoules that were therin.

And Joſua returned, and all Iſrael with hym to Dabir, and fought agaynſt it. And when he had taken it, and the kynge therof, and all the townes that perteyned therto, they ſmote them with the edge of the ſwerde, and vtterly deſtroyed all the ſoules that were therin, neyther let he ought remayne. Euen as he dyd to Hebꝛon, ſo he dyd to Dabir and the kynge therof, as he had done alſo to Libna and her kynge.

And all theſe kynges met togyther, ⁊ came, and pytched togyther at the waters of Merom, foꝛ to fyght agaynſt Iſrael.

And the Loꝛde ſayde vnto Joſua: be not afrayde at the pꝛeſence of them: foꝛ to moꝛow aboute this tyme wyll I delyuer them all ſlayne befoꝛe Iſrael: thou ſhalte hough theyꝛ hoꝛſes, and burne theyꝛ charettes with fyꝛe.

D Joſua made warre long tyme with thoſe kynges: neyther was there any citie that made peace with the chyldren of Iſraell, ſaue thoſe Hethites that enhabited Gibeon: & therfore all other they toke with battayle: for it came of the Lorde, whiche dyd harden theyr hertes that they ſhulde come agaynſt Iſrael in battayle: and that they ſhulde deſtroye them vtterly, and ſhewe them no mercy, but to brynge them to nought: As the Lorde commaunded Moſes. your GOD hath gyuen you, when ye haue
tranſgreſſed the appoyntment of the Lorde

CAPI. XXIIII.

A AND Ioſua gathered all the Trybes of Iſraell to Sichem, and called for the elders of Iſraell, and for theyr heades, Iudges and offycers, & they preſented them
ſelues before God. And Ioſua ſayde vnto al
the people: thus ſayeth the Lorde God of Iſ-Gene. 11.d raell: * Youre Fathers dwelte on the other ſyde of the floode in olde tyme: euen Thareh
the father of Abraham and of Nachor, and ſerued ſtraunge goddes. And I toke your father Abraham frõ the other ſyde of the flood, and brought hym thorowout all the lande of Gene. xxi.a Math. 1.a Canaan, and multiplyed his ſeede, & * gaue hym Iſaac. And I gaue vnto Iſaac, Iacob
Gene. 32.a and Eſau. * And I gaue vnto Eſau mount Seir, to poſſeſſe it. But Iacob and his chyldren went downe into Egypt. I ſent Moſes Exodi. vii. viii. ix. x. xii. xiiii. alſo and Aaron. And I * plaged Egypt: and whẽ I had ſo done amonge them, I brought you out, and I brought your Fathers out of Egypte.

B And as they came vnto the ſee, the Egyptians folowed after your fathers wᵗ charettes and horſmen, vnto the red ſee. * And when Exodi. 14.f
they cryed vnto the lorde, the lorde put dark-neſſe bytwene you and the Egyptians, and brought the ſee vpon them, & couered them.
And your eyes haue ſene what I haue done to the Egiptians. And ye dwelt in the wylder neſſe a longe ceaſon. And * I brought you Num. 21.d
into the lande of the Amorytes, whiche dwelt on the other ſyde Iordane. And they fought with you: and I gaue them into your hande, that ye myght conquere theyr countrey. And I deſtroyed them from out of your ſyght.

* Then Balac the Son of Ziphor, kynge Nume. 22.a of Moab aroſe, and warred agaynſt Iſrael, Deut. 23.a.
and ſent & called Balaam the ſonne of Beor,
for to curſe you. But I wolde not herken vnto Balaam, & therfore he rather bleſſed you:
And ſo I deliuered you out of his hande.
And ye went ouer Iordan, & came vnto Ie-rico, & the men of Ierico fought agaynſt you:
the Amorites, Phereſites, Canaanites, He-thites, Girgoſites, Heuites, & Iebuſites, and I deliuered them into your hande. C

And I ſent * hornettes before you, which Deut. vii.e
caſt them out of youre ſyght: euen the two kynges of the Amorytes, but not with youre owne ſwerde, or with youre owne bowe. And I haue gyuen you a lande, in whiche ye dyd
no labour, & cityes, whiche you buylde not, & whiche ye dwell in: vineyeardes alſo, & olyue trees whiche ye planted not, & wherof ye do eate. * Nowe therfore feare the lorde, & ſerue 1. Regū. 7.a hym in perfyteneſſe & truthe: And put awaye Tobi. 14.f.
the goddes, whiche your Fathers ſerued on the other ſyde of the floode, and in Egypte,
and ſerue ye the Lorde.

And yf it ſeme euyll vnto you to ſerue
the lorde, then choſe you this day whome you wyll ſerue: whyther the goddes whiche your fathers ſerued (that were on the other ſyde of the floode) eyther the Goddes of the Amorites, in whoſe lande ye dwell. As for me / and my houſe, we wyll ſerue the Lorde.

The people anſwered and ſayd: God for- D
byd, that we ſhulde forſake the lorde, & ſerue ſtraunge goddes. For the Lorde our God, he it is that brought vs and oure fathers out of the lande of Egypt, & from the houſe of bondage, & whiche dyd thoſe greate myracles in our ſyght, & preſerued vs in all the way that we went, & amonge all the nacyons whiche
we came thorowe. And the Lorde dyd caſt out before vs all the nacions: ſpecially, the Amorites, which dwelt in the lande. And therfore wyl we alſo ſerue the lorde, for he is our god.

And Ioſua ſayde vnto the people: Ye can E
not ſerue the Lorde: for he is an holye God,

and a ſelous god, and can not beare your iniquite
and ſyn. If ye forſake the lorde, ⁊ ſerue Joſua.23.d ſtraunge goddes, * he wyll turne and do you euyll, ⁊ conſume you, after that he hath done
you good. And the people ſayde vnto Joſua:
naye, but we wyll ſerue the lorde. And Joſua ſayde vnto the people: ye are wytneſſes your ſelues, that ye haue choſen you the Lorde, to ſerue hym: and they ſayde: we are wytneſſes.
☞ Then put awaye (ſayde he) ☞ the ſtraunge goddes which are amonge you, ⁊ bowe your hertes vnto the Lorde God of Iſraell. The people ſayde vnto Joſua: the Lorde our god
wyll we ſerue, and his voyce wyll we obey.

F And ſo Joſua * made a couenaunt with 4.Reg.23.a the people the ſame daye, and ☞ ſet an ordinaunce
☞ and lawe before them in Sichem.
And Joſua wrote theſe wordes in the booke
1.Regū.7.d of the lawe of god, and * toke a great ſtone, and pytched it on ende in the ſayd place, euen vnder an oke that was in the ſanctuarye of the Lorde. And Joſua ſayd vnto all the people:
Gene.31.g. Joſua.22.f beholde, * this ſtoone ſhall be a wytneſſe vnto vs, for it hath herde all the wordes of the Lorde whiche he ſpake with vs. It ſhall be therfore a wytneſſe vnto you, leeſt ye denye

ſo Joſua let the people departe, euery man
vnto his enheritaunce.

G And after theſe thynges it came to paſſe/that Joſua the Sonne of Nun, the ſeruaunt of the Lorde dyed, beynge an hundreth, and

Joſua.19.d countrey of his * enheritaũce, euen in Thymnath Sareh, whiche is in mount Ephraim,
on the north ſyde of the hyll of Gaas.

ii.Pa.24.g And Iſraell ſerued the Lorde * all the

that ouer lyued Joſua, and whiche had knowen all the workes of the Lorde that he whiche the chyldren of Iſraell brought Gene.33.d. out of Egypt, buryed they in Sichem * in a parcell of grounde, whiche Jacob bought of the ſonnes of Hemor the father of Sichem, for an hundred peces of ſyluer, and it became the enheritaunce of the Chyldren of Joſeph. And Eleazar the Sonne of Aaron dyed, whome they buryed

in a hyll that perteyned to Phinehes his ſonne, whiche (hyll) was in mounte Ephraim.

CAPI. Primo.

After the death of Joſua A
it came to paſſe, that the Chyldren

they folowed after hym, and caught him, and

And Adonibezeke ſayd: thre ſcore and ten B

And Juda went agaynſt the Cananites that

And at the laſte Juda toke Azah with the

And the wrath of the Lorde was moued agaynſt Iſraell, and he ſayde: bycauſe this people hath tranſgreſſed myne appoyntment which I cōmaunded theyr fathers, and haue not herkened vnto my voyce, I wyll henceforth not caſt out before them one man of the nacyons, whiche Joſua lefte when he dyed/ Deute.xj.a that through them I maye * proue Iſraell, whyther they wyll kepe the waye of the lorde, & walke therin, as theyr fathers dyd, or not, And ſo the Lorde lefte thoſe nacyons, and droue them not out immedyatly, neyther delyuered them into the hande of Joſua.

¶ Othonyell delyuereth Iſraell. Ahud kylleth kynge Eglon. Samgar kylleth the Phylyſtines.

CAPI. III.

A These are the nacyons whiche the Lorde lefte, that he myght proue Iſraell by them: euen as many of Iſraell as had not knowen all the warres of Canaan: onlye for the lernyng of the generacion of the chyldren of Iſrael: that he alſo myght teach them warre, in aſmoche as they that were before them, ☞ knewe nothynge therof. ☞ Of thoſe whome he lefte, there were fyue lordes of the Philiſtines, and all the Cananytes, and the Sidonytes, and the Heuites that dwelte in mount Libanon: euen fram mount Baall Hermon vnto Hemath. Thoſe remayned to proue Iſraell by, and to wete, whyther they wolde herken vnto the cōmaundementes of the Lorde, whiche he commaunded theyr fathers by the hande of Moſes.

And the Chyldren of Iſraell dwelte amonge the Cananites, Hethites, Amorites/ Deu.vi Phereſytes, Heuites, and Jebuſytes, * & toke the doughters of them to be theyr wyues, and gaue theyr owne doughters to theyr ſonnes, and ſerued theyr Goddes. B And the chyldren of Iſrael dyd wyckedlye in the ſyght of the Lorde, and forgat the Lorde theyr God, and ſerued Baalim & Aſeroth. Therfore the Lorde was angrye with Iſraell, and delyuered them into the handꝭ of Chuſā Riſathaim kynge of Meſopotamia, and the chyldren of Iſraell ſerued Chuſā Riſathaim .viii. yeres.

☞ And when the Chyldren of Iſraell cryed vnto the Lorde, the Lorde ſtyrred ☞ vp a ſauyour, to the Chyldren of Iſraell, & ſaued them: one Othoniell the Son of Kenes, Calebs yonger brother. And the ſpiryte of the Lorde came vpon hym. And he iudged Iſraell, and went out to warre. And the Lorde delyuered Chuſan Riſathaim kyng of Meſopotamia in to his hande, & his hande preuayled agaynſt Chuſan Riſathaim. And the lande had * reſt fourtye yeres. And Othoniel the ſon of Kenes dyed. And the Chyldren of Iſraell went to agayne, & cōmytted wyckedneſſe in the ſyght of the lorde. And the Lorde ſtrengthed Eglon the kynge of the Moabites, agaynſt the Chyldren of Iſraell, bycauſe they had commytted wyckedneſſe before the Lorde. And this (Eglon) gathered vnto hym the chyldren of Ammon, & the Amalekites, & went and ſmote Iſraell, and conquered the cytye of Palme trees. And ſo the Chyldren of Iſraell

Iſrael ſerued Eglō the kyng of Moab.xviii. yeres. But whē they cryed vnto the loꝛde, the loꝛde ſtyꝛred them vp a ſauiour, Ahud the ſon of Gera the ſon of Jemini, a man that coulde do nothyng handſomly wᵗ his ryght hande.

C And by hym the chyldꝛen of Iſraell ſent a pꝛeſent vnto Eglon the kyng of Moab: but Ahud made hym a dagger with two edges, of a cubite lengthe, and he dyd gyꝛde it vnder his rayment vpon his ryght thyghe, and caried the pꝛeſent to Eglon the kyng of Moab: And Eglon was a very fat man. And it foꝛtuned that when he had pꝛeſented the pꝛeſent he ſent the people that bare it awaye, but he hym ſelfe turned agayne (from the place of grauen ymages, that was by Gilgal) ⁊ ſayd I haue a ſecret errande vnto the, O kynge. Whiche ſayd: kepe ſylence. And all that ſtode befoꝛe hym, went out from hym.

And Ahud came vnto hym, and in a ſomer parler, whiche he had, ſat he hym ſelfe alone, and Ahud ſayd, * I haue a meſſage vnto the from God. And he aroſe out of his ſeate. And Ahud put foꝛth his lefte hande, and toke the dagger from his ryght thyghe, and thꝛuſt it in to his bely, and the hafte went in after the blade. And the fat, cloſed the hafte, ſo that he myght not dꝛawe the dagger out of his bely but the dyꝛte came out. Ahud gat hym out at a poſtern doꝛe, and ſhut the doꝛes of the parler aboute hym, and locked them. Reg.2.a.

D When he was gone out, his ſeruauntes came, and when they ſawe that the doꝛes of the parler were locked, they ſayde: peraduenture ☞ he couereth his feete in his ſomer chāber. And they taryed tyll they were aſhamed: And beholde, ſeynge he opened not the doꝛes of the parler: they toke a key, ⁊ opened them. And beholde, theyꝛ Loꝛde was fallen downe dead on the earth. And Ahud eſcaped (whyle they taryed) and was gone beyonde, to the place of the grauen ymages and eſcaped in to Seirath.

ume.3.a. And when he was come * he blewe a trompet in mount Ephꝛaim. And the chyldꝛen of Iſraell wente downe with hym from the hyll and he went befoꝛe them. And he ſayde vnto them, folowe me: foꝛ the Loꝛde hathe delyuered your enemyes, the Moabites into youre hande. And they deſcended after hym, ⁊ toke the paſſages of Joꝛdan, towarde Moab, and ſuffered not a man to paſſe ouer. And they ſlewe of the Moabites the ſame tyme vpon a ten thouſande men, which were all fat ⁊ men of warre: and there ſcaped not a man, * and ſo Moab was ſubdued that daye, vnder the hande of Iſrael: ⁊ the land had reſt. lxxx. yeres. ue.8.b.

After hym was Samgar the ſon of Anath whiche ſlewe of the Philiſtines. vi. hundꝛed men with an oxe goade, and delyuered Iſraell alſo.

¶ Deboꝛa ⁊ Barak delyuer Iſrael. Siſara is kylled of Jael.

CAPI. IIII.

A AND the chyldꝛē of Iſrael began agayn to do wyckedly in the ſyght of the loꝛde when Ahud was deade. And the Loꝛde ☞ ſolde them in to the hande of Jabin kyng of Canaan, that reygned in Hazoꝛ, whoſe captayne of warre was called Siſara, whiche dwelte in ☞ Haroſeth of the gentyles. And the chyldꝛen of Iſrael cryed vnto the Loꝛde: foꝛ he had nyne hundꝛed charettes of yꝛon, ⁊ twentye yeres he troubled the chyldꝛē of Iſrael very ſoꝛe. ☞ ☞

And Deboꝛa a pꝛophetеſſe, the wyfe of Lapidoth iudged Iſrael the ſame tyme, ⁊ the ſame Deboꝛa dwelte vnder a palme tree, bytwene Ramath and Bethel, in mount Ephꝛaim.

And the chyldꝛen of Iſrael came vp to her foꝛ iudgement. And ſhe ſent ⁊ called Barak the ſon of Abinoam out of Kedes / Nephthalim, and ſayd vnto hym. Judicū.5.b.

Hath not the Loꝛde god of Iſrael cōmaunded the, to dꝛawe to mount Thaboꝛ, and take with the ten thouſand men, of the chyldꝛen of Nephthalim, and of the chyldꝛē of Zabulon. And I wyl bꝛyng vnto the / to the * ryuer Kiſon, Siſara, the capitayne of warre vnto Jabin, with his charettes, and his people, and wyl delyuer hym in to thyne handꝭ. And Barak ſayd vnto her: yf thou wylt go with me, I wyll go: But ⁊ yf thou wylte not come wᵗ me, I wyll not go. She ſayde: I wyll ſurely go wᵗ the, but this iourney that thou takeſt, ſhall not be foꝛ thyne honoure: foꝛ the Loꝛde ſhall ſel Siſara in to the hande of a woman. Deboꝛa went with Barak to Kedes. And Barak called Zabulon and Nephthalim to Kedes, and led after hym ten thouſande men: ⁊ Deboꝛa went vp with hym. Pſal.83.b. B

But Haber the Kenite (whiche was of the chyldꝛē of * Hobab, the father in lawe of Moſes) remoued from the other Kenites, ⁊ pytched his tente vntyl the playne of Zaanaim, whiche is by Kedes. Nume.10.d.

And they ſhewed Siſara, that Barak the ſonne of Abinoam was gone vp to mounte Thaboꝛ. And Siſara gathered togyther all his charettes, euen. ix. hundꝛed charettes of yꝛon, ⁊ all the people that were with hym, frō Haroſeth of the gentyles, vnto the ryuer of Kyſon. And Deboꝛa ſayd vnto Barak: Up, foꝛ this is the daye in whiche the Loꝛde hath delyuered Siſara in to thyne hande.

C Is not the Lorde gone out before the? And ſo Barak went downe from mount Thabor, and ten thouſande men after hym.

But the Lorde deſtroyed Siſara, and all his charettes, and all his hooſt with the edge of the ſwerde, before Barak: ſo that Siſara lyghted downe of his charet, and fled awaye on his feete. And they gaue hym .lxx. peces of ſyluer out of the temple of Baal Berith, wherewith Abimelech hyred vayne and lyght perſones, whiche went with hym. And he wente vnto his fathers houſe at Ephrah * and ſlewe all his brethrē, the ſonnes of Jerobaal, euen .lxx. perſones ✣ with one ſtone. Notwithſtādyng yet Joatham the yongeſt ſonne of Jerobaal eſcaped, for he hyd hym ſelfe. And all the men of Sichem gathered togyther, ⁊ al the houſe of Mello, and came ⁊ made Abimelech kyng in the playne, where the great ſtone was by Sichem. And when they tolde it to Joatham he wente and ſtode in the top of mount Garizim, and lyfte vp his voyce, and cryed, ⁊ ſayd vnto them.

B Herken vnto me, ye men of Sychem, that god may herken vnto you. * The trees went forth to anoynt a kyng ouer them, and ſayde vnto the Olyue tree: reygne thou ouer vs. But the olyue tree ſayd vnto them: ſhuld I leaue my fatneſſe, which both goddes and men prayſe in me, ⁊ go to be promoted ouer the trees? And the trees ſayde to the Fygge tree: come thou, and be kynge ouer vs. The fygge tree anſwered them: ſhulde I forſake my ſwetneſſe, and my good frute, and go to be promoted ouer the trees? Then ſayde the trees vnto the vyne: come thou and be kyng ouer vs. The vyne ſayde vnto them: ſhulde I leaue my wyne wherby I chere bothe goddes and mē, and go to be promoted ouer the trees? Then ſayde all the trees vnto the Fyr buſſhe: come thou, and reygne ouer vs. And the Fyr buſſhe ſayde vnto the trees: yf it be true that ye wyll anoynte me kyng ouer you, thē come, ⁊ put your truſt vnder my ſhadow. If no, the fyre come out of the Fyr buſſhe, ⁊ waſte the Cedre trees of Libanon.

C Nowe therfore, yf ye do truely and vncorruptly, to make Abimelech kynge: and yf ye haue delte well with Jerobaal and his houſe and haue done vnto hym accordynge to the deſeruyng of his handes, iudge ye. For euen he (my father) fought for you, and aduentured his lyfe, and ryd you out of the hande of Madian. And ye are ryſen vp agaynſt my fathers houſe this daye, and haue ſleyne his chyldren, euen .lxx. perſones with one ſtone, and haue made Abimelech the ſonne of his mayde ſeruaunt, kynge ouer the men of Sichem, bycauſe he is your brother: Yf ye then haue delte truely and purely with Jerobaal and with his houſe this daye, then reioyſe ye with Abimelech, ⁊ let hym reioyſe with you.

But yf ye haue not delte truely, then I pray God a fyre may come out of Abimelech and conſume the men of Sichem ⁊ the houſe of Mello. And that there maye come a fyre from among the men of Sichem, and out of the houſe of Mello, and conſume Abimelech. And Joatham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer and dwelt there, for feare of Abimelech his brother. When Abimelech had reygned thre yere, God ſent an hate bytwene Abimelech and the men of Sichem. And the citezens of Sichem rayled vpon Abimelech, and wyſſhed, that the wyckednes done to the lxx. ſonnes of Jerobaal myght come on hym and layde the blood of them vnto Abimelech theyr brother which ſlewe them, and vnto the other men of Sichem, whiche ayded hym in the kyllyng of his brethren. And the citezens of Sichem ſet men to lay awayte for hym in the toppe of the mountaynes: whiche men, ✣ (vvhyle they taryed for his comyng) robbed all that came alonge the way by them. And it was tolde Abimelech.

D And Gaal the ſonne of Abed came with his brethren, and they gat them to Sichem. And the men of Sichem put theyr cōfidence in hym. And they went out in to the feldes, ⁊ gathered in theyr grapes, ⁊ trode them, and made mery: and went in to the houſe of theyr goddes, and dyd eate ⁊ drynke, ⁊ curſed Abimelech. And Gaal the ſonne of Abed ſayde: what is Abimelech? ⁊ what is Sichem? that we ſhulde ſerue hym? Is he not the ſonne of Jerobaal? and Zebul was his offycer? ſerue ſuche as come of * Hemor the father of Sichem, for what reaſon is it, that we ſhulde ſerue hym? wolde God this people were vnder my hande, then wolde I take Abimelech out of the way. And he ſpake agaynſt Abimelech: make thyne hooſt greater, and go out. Gene.34.a And when Zebull the ruler of the cytye herde the wordes of Gaal the ſon of Abed, he was wrothe, and ſent meſſengers vnto Abimelech pryuely, ſayenge. Beholde, Gaal the ſonne of Abed and his brethren be come to Sichem: and beholde, they ſet the citye agaynſt the. Nowe therfore vp by nyght, thou and all the people that is with the, and laye in wayte in the felde. And aryſe earlye in the mornynge as ſoone as the Sonne is vp, and fall vpon the Citye. And yf he and the people that is with hym, come out agaynſt the, do to hym what thy handes ſhall be able. And Abimelech roſe vp, and all the people that were wt hym, by nyght.

E And they layde awayte agaynſt Sichem in foure companyes. And Gaal the ſonne of Ebed wente out, and ſtode in the entrynge of of the gate of the citie. And Abimelech roſe vp, and the folke that were with hym, frome laynge awayte. And when Gaal ſawe the people, he ſayd to Zebul: beholde, there come people downe from the top of the mountaynes. And Zebul ſayde vnto hym: the ſhadowe of ✠ the hylles ſeme men vnto the. ✠ (and by that errour arte thou deceyued.) And Gaal anſwered agayne, and ſayde: Se, there come folke downe by the myddle of the lande, & another company come alonge by the playne of the charmers. Thē ſayd Zebul vnto hym: where is nowe thy mouth that ſayde: What felowe is Abimelech, that we ſhulde ſerue hym? Is not this the people that thou haſt deſpyſed? Go out nowe and fyght with them. And Gaal went out before the citizens of Sichem and fought with Abimelech. And Abimelech ✠ chaſed hym, that he fled before hym, ✠ (and he droue hym in to the Citye,) & many were ouerthrowen and wounded, euen vnto the entryng of the gate. And Abimelech dwelte at Arumah. And Zebul thruſt out Gaal and his brethren, that they ſhulde not dwell in Sichem, ✠ ✠ (and ſuffered them not to tarye therein.)

F And on the morowe, it happened, that the people went out in to the felde. And they told Abimelech. And he toke the people, and deuided them in to thre companyes, and layde awayte in the feldes, and loked, and beholde, the people were come out of the Citye, and he ran vpon them, and ſmote them. And Abimelech, and the companyes that were with hym reached farther, and ſtode in the entrynge of the gate of the citie. And the two other companyes ran vpon all the people that were in the feldes and ſlewe them. And when Abimelech had fought agaynſt the citie al that day he toke it, and ſlewe the people that was therin, and deſtroyed the citie & ſowed ſalte thorowe it. And when all the men of the towre of of Sichem herd that, they entred in to a ſtrong holde of the houſe of theyr god Baal Berith, ✠ (Where they made a bonde with hym, and therof dyd the place take the name, which place was excedynge ſtronge.)

And it was tolde Abimelech, that all the men of the towre of Sichem were gathered together, and Abimelech gat hym to mount Zelmon, bothe he & all the people that were with hym, and toke axes with hym and cut downe bowes of trees, and toke them & bare them on his ſhoulder, & ſayde vnto the folke that were with hym, & what ye haue ſene me do, ſpede your ſelues, & do lykewyſe as I haue done. And all the men that were amonge the people, cut downe bowes, & folowed Abimelech, & put them in to the holde, & ſet the holde a fyre by them: ſo that ✠ (with ſmoke & fyre,) ✠ al the men of the towre of Sichem were ſleyne, vpon a thouſande men and women.

Iude.ix.d.

G Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and beſeyged it, and toke it. But there was a ſtrong towre within the citye, and thyther ran all the men and women, and al the cheyfe that were in the citie, and ſhut it to them, and got them vp ✠ (by the bulvvorkes) ✠ to the toppe of the towre. And Abimelech came vnto the towre, and fought agaynſt it, and went harde vnto the dore of the towre, to ſet it on fyre. And a certayne woman * caſt a pece of a mylſtone vpon his head, & all to brake his brayne pan. ii.Reg.

Then Abimelech called haſtely vnto the yonge man that bare his harneſſe, and ſayde vnto hym: * Drawe thy ſwerde and ſley me, that men ſay not of me: a woman ſlewe hym. And his lad thruſt hym thorow, and he dyed.

And when the men of Iſrael ſawe that Abimelech was deade, they departed, euery man vnto his owne houſe. And thus * the wickedneſſe of Abimelech which he dyd vnto his father, in ſleyenge his ſeuentye brethren, and therto all the wyckedneſſe of the men of Sichem dyd God brynge vpon theyr heades. And vpon them came the curſe of Ioatham the ſonne of Ierobaal.

¶ Thola, and Iair are Iudges of Iſraell.

CAPI. X.

A After Abimelech there aroſe, to defende Iſrael, one Thola (the ſon of Phuah) ☞ his vncles ſonne, a man of Iſachar, B which dwelte in Samir in mount Ephraim. And he iudged Iſrael .xxiii. yere, and dyed, & was buryed in Samir. And after hym aroſe Iair a Gileadite, & iudged Iſrael .xxii. yere.

And he had thyrtye ſonnes that * rode on thyrtie Aſſe coltes, and they had thyrtie cities which are called the townes of Iair vnto this day, and are in the lande of Gilead. And Iair dyed, and was buryed in Kamon.

* And the chyldren of Iſraell wrought wyckedneſſe yet agayne, in the ſyghte of the Lorde, and ſerued Baalim and Aſtharoth, & the goddes of Syria, the goddes of Sidon, and the goddes of Moab, the goddes of the chyldren of Ammon, and the Goddes of the Philiſtines, and forſoke the lorde and ſerued not hym. And the Lorde was wroth with Iſraell, and ſolde them in to the handes of the Philiſtines, and in to the handes of the chyldren of Ammon: which from that yere forth,

C And the Chyldren of Iſraell cryed vnto the Lorde, ſayenge: we haue ſynned agaynſt the: for we haue forſaken our owne god, and haue ſerued Baalim. And the Lorde ſayde vnto the chyldren of Iſraell: dyd not the Egyptians, the Amorites, the chyldren of Ammon, the Philiſtines, the Sidonites, the Amaleckites, ⁊ the Maonites, oppreſſe you? And ye cryed to me, ⁊ I delyuered you out of theyr handes. And for all that, ye haue forſaken me, and ſerued ſtraunge goddꝭ, wherfore I wyll helpe you no more. Go and crye vnto the Goddes whiche ye haue choſen, and * let them ſaue you in the tyme of your tribulacō.

Deut. 32.c. Iere. 11.c.

D And the Chyldren of Iſraell ſayde vnto the Lorde: we haue ſynned: do thou vnto vnto vs whatſoeuer pleaſe the, delyuer vs only this daye. And they put awaye the ſtraunge goddes from them, and ſerued the Lorde.

And his ſoule had pitye on the miſerye of Iſraell. Then the Chyldren of Ammon gathered togyther, ⁊ pytched in Gilead. And the chyldren of Iſraell gathered them togyther, ⁊ pytched in Mizpa. And the Lordes of Gilead ſayde eche to other, who ſoeuer wyll begyn the battayle agaynſt the chyldren of Ammon, the ſame ſhall be heade ouer all the enhabyters of Gilead.

¶ Iephthah delyuered Iſraell from the Ammonites.

CAPI XI.

A AND there was one Iephthah a Gileadite, a ſtronge man, the Sonne of an harlot: and Gilead begat Iephthah. And Gileads wyfe bare hym ſonnes, which when they were come to age, thruſt out Iephthah, and ſayde vnto hym: thou ſhalt not enheryte in our fathers houſe, for thou arte the ſon of a ſtraunge woman. Then Iephthah fled frō his brethren, and dwelt in the lande of Tob.

☙ And there gathered ydle ☙ (and theuyſſhe) men to Iephthah ⁊ went out with hym. And it chaunced in proceſſe of tyme, that the chyldren of Ammon made war agaynſt Iſraell. And when the Chyldren of Ammon fought thus agaynſt Iſraell, the Elders of Gilead went to fetche Iephthah out of the lande of Tob ☙ (to helpe them,) and ſayde vnto hym: come ⁊ be oure captayne, that we may fyght with the chyldren of Ammon. Iephthah anſwered the elders of Gilead: Dyd not ye hate me ⁊ expell me out of my fathers houſe? how B happeneth it then, that you come vnto me nowe in tyme of youre tribulacyon? And the elders of Gilead ſayd vnto Iephthah: Therfore we turne agayn to the now, that yͧ mayſt go with vs, ⁊ fyght agaynſt the Chyldren of Ammon, ⁊ be our heade ouer all the enhabytours of Gilead. And Iephthah ſayde vnto the elders of Gilead: Yf ye brynge me home agayn, to fyght with the chyldren of Ammō, then yf the lord delyuer them before me, ſhall I be your heade? And the Elders of Gilead ſayde to Iephthah: the lorde be wytneſſe betwene vs, yf we do not accordyng to thy wordes. Then Iephthah went with the elders of Gilead. And the people made hym heade, ⁊ ruler ouer them. And Iephthah rehearſed al his wordes before the Lorde ☙ in Mizpa. ☙

And Iephthah ſent meſſengers vnto the kynge of the Chyldren of Ammon, ſayenge: what haſt thou to do with me, that thou arte come agaynſt me, to fyght in my lande? The kynge of the Chyldren of Ammon anſwered vnto the meſſengers of Iephthah: Bycauſe Iſraell toke away my lande, when they came out of Egypt, euen frō Arnon vnto Iabok, ⁊ C vnto Iordan. Now therfore reſtore thoſe landes agayne wͭ fayre meanes. And Iephthah ſent meſſengers agayn vnto the kyng of the chyldren of Ammon, ⁊ ſayde vnto hym: thus ſayeth Iephthah: * Iſrael toke not away the lande of Moab, nor the lande of the chyldren of Ammō. But when Iſraell came out of Egypt, ⁊ walked thorow the wyldernesse, euen vnto the red ſee, they came to Cades, * ⁊ ſent meſſengers vnto the kynge of Edō, ſayenge: Let me (I praye the) go thorowe thy lande. But the kyng of Edō wolde not agre therto. And in lyke maner they ſent vnto the kynge of Moab, but he wolde not conſent. And ſo Iſrael abode ſtyll in Cades. And then they went alonge thorow the wyldernesse, and cōpaſſed the lande of Edō, ⁊ the lande of Moab, ⁊ came alonge by the eaſt ſyde of the land of Moab, ⁊ pytched on the other ſyde of Arnon, ⁊ wolde not come within the cooſte of Moab, * For Arnon was the vttermooſt border of Moab. And then Iſraell * ſent meſſengers vnto Sehon, kynge of the Amorytes, ⁊ D kynge of Heſbon, ⁊ ſayde vnto hym: Let vs paſſe thorowe thy lande vnto our owne countrey. But Sehō cōſented not to Iſraell, that he ſhulde go thorowe his cooſt: but gathered all his people togyther, ⁊ pytched in Iahaz, ⁊ fought with Iſraell. And the lorde god of Iſraell delyuered Sehon and all his folke in to the handes of Iſraell. And ſo Iſraell

CAPI. XIIII.

A SAmſon went downe to Thamnath, and ſaw a woman in Thamnath of the doughters of the Philiſtines, and he came vp, and tolde his father, and his mother, and ſayde: I haue ſene a woman in Thamnath of the doughters of the Philiſtines. And now gyue her me to wyfe. Then his father and mother Deut. vii. a ſayde vnto hym, * Is there neuer a woman amonge the doughters of thy brethꝛen, and amonge all my people, but that thou muſt go, ⁊ take a wyfe of the vncircumciſed Philiſtines? And Samſon ſayd vnto his father: gyue me this womā, foꝛ ſhe pleaſeth me wel. But his Father and mother wyſt not that it was the Loꝛdes doynge, and that he ſought an occaſyon agaynſte the Philiſtines, foꝛ at that tyme the Philiſtines reygned ouer Iſ- B raell. Then went Samſon, and his father, ⁊ his mother downe to Thamnath, and came to the vineyeardes of Thamnath: And be- ✿ holde, a yonge ✿ (vvod) Lyon roꝛed vpon hym. And the ſpiryte of the loꝛde came vpon hym. And he tare hym, as he wolde haue rent a kyd, and yet had nothynge in his hande, neyther tolde his father and mother what he had done. And he went downe, and talked with the woman, whiche ſemed well fauoured in the ſyght of Samſon. And within a ſhoꝛte ſpace after, as he went thyther agayne to take her to wyfe, he turned out of the waye, to ſe the carkas of the Lyon. A Then went Samſon to * Azath, & ſawe there an harlot, and went in vnto her. And it was tolde the Azathites, ſayng: Samſon is come hyther. And after this it fortuned, that by the ryuer of Sorek, he loued a womã called Dalila vnto whome came the Lordes of the Philiſtines, and ſayde vnto her: perſwade hym, and ſe wherin his great ſtrength lyeth, and by what meane we may ouercome hym, that we may bynde hym, to brynge him B vnder, and euery one of vs ſhall gyue the eleuen hundred ſyluerlynges.

Dalila therfore toke newe ropes, & bounde hym therwith, and ſayde vnto hym: the Philiſtines be vpon the Samſon. And there were lyers of wayte in the chambre, and he brake them from of his armes, as they had ben but a threde. And he awaked out of his ſlepe, & plucked awaye the nayle, that was in the plattynge with the heere lace.

D And ſhe ſayde vnto hym agayne: Howe canſt thou ſaye that thou loueſt me, when thyne herte is not with me, behold, thou haſt mocked me this thre tymes, & haſt not tolde me, wherin thy greate ſtrength lyeth. And as ſhe laye vpon hym with her wordes contynually vexynge of hym, his ſoule was encombred euen vnto the death. And when Dalila ſawe that he had tolde her all his herte, ſhe ſent, & called for the Lordes of the Philiſtines, ſayenge: come vp yet this once, for he hath ſhewed me all his herte. Then the Lordes of the Philiſtines came vp vnto her, and brought the money in their handes. And ſhe made hym ſlepe vpon her knees ✿ (and to laye his heade dovvne in her lappe,) and ſhe ſent for a man, and he dyd ſhaue of the ſeuen lockes of his heade, and began to vexe hym, and his ſtrength was gone from hym. And Samſon caught the two myddle pyllers on which the houſe ſtode & on whiche it was borne vp, the one in his ryght hande, & the other in his lefte, & ſayde: my ſoule ſhall dye with the Philiſtines, and bowed them with all his myght. And they went forwarde vpon theyr way and the ſonne went downe vpon them, when they were faſt by Gibea whiche belongeth to them of Ben Jamin. And they turned thyther warde to go in, and lodge all nyght in Gibea. And when he came, he ſat hym downe in a ſtreete of the cytye, for there was no man that toke them to lodgynge. And beholde, there came an olde man from his worke, out of the felde at euen, which was alſo of mõute Ephraim, & dwelte as a ſtraunger in Gibea: But the men of the place were the Chyldren of Jemini. And when he had lyfte vp his eyes, he ſaw a wayfarynge man in the ſtreete of the cytye. And the olde man ſayd: whyther goeſt thou?

And whence cōmeſt thou? He anſwered hym: we come from Bethleem Juda, towarde the ſyde of mount Ephraim: from thence am J, and J went to Bethleem Juda, and go nowe to the houſe of the Lorde.

E And there is no man that receyueth me to houſe: we haue ſtrawe & prauender for oure Aſſes, and breade and wyne for me and thy handmayde, and for the lad that is with thy ſeruaunt, and we lacke nothynge. The olde man ſayd: peace be with the, all that thou lackeſt ſhalte thou fynde with me: onely abyde not in the ſtreete al nyght, and ſo he brought hym in to his houſe, and gaue fodder vnto his Aſſes. And they waſſhed theyr feete, and dyd eate and drynke. And as they were makyng theyr hertes mery: beholde, the men of the citye whiche were wycked, beſet the houſe rounde aboute, and thruſt at the dore, & ſpake to the man of the houſe, the olde man, ſayinge Brynge forth the man that came in to thyne houſe, that we may knowe hym.

F And * the man of the houſe, the olde mā went out, and ſayde vnto them: Oh, nay my brethren, do not ſo wyckedly, ſeyng that this man is come in to myne houſe: do not ſo vnmete a thyng. Beholde, here is my doughter a mayden, and this mannes concubine, them J wyll brynge out nowe vnto you, and humble them, and do with them what ſemeth you good: but vnto this man, do not ſo abhominable a thynge. But the men wolde not herken to hym. And the man toke his concubyne and brought her out vnto them, which knew her, and abuſed her, all the nyght, euen vnto the mornynge. And when the daye began to ſprynge, they let her go. Gen.19.b.

G And then came the womā in the dawnyng of the day, and fell downe at the doore of the mannes houſe, where her Lorde was, tyll it was day. And her lorde aroſe vp in the mornyng, and opened the dores of the houſe, and went out to go his way. And beholde, the woman, euen his concubine lay along before the dore of the houſe, and her handes ſtretched out vpon the threſſholde.

✠ And he ✠ (thynkynge her to haue ben a ſlepe,) ſayde vnto her: Up / and let vs be goynge. ✠ But ſhe anſwered not. Then the man ✠ (perceyuynge that ſhe vvas deade,) toke her vp vpō an Aſſe, and rode vp, and gat hym vnto his owne home. And when he was come vnto his houſe, he toke a knyfe, and caught his concubine, and deuyded her with the bones into twelue peces, and ſent her in to all quarters of Jſraell. And all that ſawe it, ſayde: there was no ſuche dede done, or ſene, ſynce the chyldren of Jſraell came out of Egypte vnto this daye, ✠ conſyder the matter, take aduiſement, and ſay youre myndes. ✠

¶ The battayle of the Jſraelytes agaynſt the trybe of Ben Jamin, for the Leuites wyfe which was kylled.

CAPI. XX.

A Then al the chyldren of Jſrael went out: and the congregacyon was gathered togyther as it had bene but one man, euen from Dan to Berſeba, & vnto the lande C of Gilead, vnto the Lorde ✠ in Mizpa, and there ſtode folke out of all quarters, and of all the tribes of Jſraell, in the congregacion of the people of god, foure hūdred thouſande fote men that drewe ſwerdes. And when the chyldren of Ben Jamin herde that the chyldren of Jſrael were gone vp to Mizpa, & had ſayde: Oh ye chyldren of Jſraell, tell vs how this wyckedneſſe happened. And the Leuite, the womans huſbande that was ſleyne, anſwered and ſayde: J came in to Gibea that is in Ben Jamin with my concubyne to lodge all nyght.

And the men of Gibea roſe agaynſte me, and beſet the houſe round about vpon me by nyght, and thought to haue ſleyne me: and my concubyne haue they ſo forced / that ſhe is deade. And J toke my concubine, and cut her in peces, and ſent her thorowout all the landes of the enheritaūce of Jſrael. For they haue cōmytted abhominacyon and follye in Jſrael. Beholde, ye are all chyldren of Jſrael Pondre this matter, and gyue youre aduyſe in the caſe.

B And al the people aroſe, as it had ben one man, ſayinge: there ſhall not a man of vs go to his tente, neyther turne in to his houſe. But this ſhall be it that we wyl do to Gibea: we wyll go vp by lot agaynſt it. And we wyl take ten men of the hundred thorowout all the tribes of Jſraell, and an hundred of the thouſande, and a thouſande out of ten thouſande, to fet vytayle for the people to make that they maye go agaynſt Gibea Ben Jamin, bycauſe of all the abhominacyon, that they haue wrought in Jſraell.

And ſo all the men of Jſraell gathered togyther agaynſte the Citye, knyt togyther, as it had bene but one man. And the tribes of Jſrael ſent men thorowe all the tribe of Ben Jamin, ſayeng. * What wyckedneſſe is this that is happened amonge you. Nowe therfore delyuer vs the men, thoſe chyldren of Beliall whiche are in Gibea, that we maye ſley them, and put awaye euyll from Jſraell. Joſua.22 Neuertheleſſe the Chyldren of Ben Jamin wolde not herken vnto the voyce of theyr brethren and chyldren of Iſraell: but gathered them ſelues togyther out of the cityes vnto Gibea, to come out and fyght agaynſt the chyldren of Iſrael. And the chyldren of Ben Iamin were nombred at that tyme, out of the cityes .xxvi. thouſande men that drewe ſwerdes, beſyde the enhabitours of Gibea, which were nombred ſeuen hundred choſen men. And amonge all theſe folke were ſeuen hundred lefte handed mē, which euery one coulde flyng ſtones at an heere bredth, ⁊ not myſſe.

C And the chyldren of Iſraell beſyde Ben Iamin, were nombred foure hundred thouſande men that drewe ſwerdes, and were all men of war. And the chyldren of Iſrael aroſe and went vp to Bethel, and aſked counſayle of god, who ſhuld begyn the batayle agaynſt the chyldren of Ben Iamin? And the Lorde ſayd: Iuda ſhall begyn. And the chyldren of Iſraell ſtode vp early and beſeyged Gibea. And the men of Iſrael wente out to battayle agaynſt Ben Iamin, and the men of Iſraell put them ſelues in araye to fyght agaynſte them, beſyde Gibea. And the chyldrē of Ben Iamin came out of Gibea, and deſtroyed of the Iſraelites that day .xxii. thouſande men, and brought them to the earth. And the folke of the Chyldren of Iſraell plucked vp theyr hertes, and went to agayne, ⁊ made battayle in the ſame place, where they dyd the fyrſte day. And the chyldren of Iſraell wente vp, ⁊ wepte before the Lorde vnto euen, and aſked of the Lorde, ſayenge: ſhall we go agayne to battayle agaynſt the chyldren of Ben Iamin our brethren? And the Lorde ſayde: go vp agaynſt them. And the chyldrē of Iſrael came out agaynſt the the chyldren of Ben Iamin the ſeconde day. And the chyldren of Ben Iamin went agaynſt them out of Gibea, the ſeconde day, and deſtroyed to the earth of the chyldren of Iſrael once agayne .xviii. M. mē that drewe ſwerdes euery man of them.

D Then the chyldren of Iſraell and all the people went vp and came vnto Bethell, and wepte and ſat there before the Lorde, ⁊ faſted the ſame daye vnto euen, and offered burntofferynges and peaceofferynges before the Lorde. And the chyldren of Iſraell aſked the Lorde: for there was the arke of the appoyntment of God, in thoſe dayes. ☞ And ☞ Phinehes the ſonne of Eleazar, the ſon of Aaron, waytyng vpon it at that tyme, ſayde: ſhall I get me vp to go out any more to battayle agaynſt the chyldren of Ben Iamin my brethren, or ſhall I ceaſe? The Lorde ſayde: go, for to morowe I wyl delyuer them in to your handes. And Iſrael ſet lyers awayte rounde aboute Gibea. And the chyldren of Iſraell went vp agaynſt the chyldren of Ben Iamin the thyrde tyme, and put them ſelues in aray agaynſt Gibea, as twyſe before.

E And the chyldren of Ben Iamin came out agaynſte the people, and were drawen away from the cytye. And they began to ſmyte of the people deade (as twyſe before, by two hygh wayes, of whiche one gothe vp to Bethel, and the other to Gibea thorow the felde) vpon a thyrtye men of Iſraell. And the chyldren of Ben Iamin ſayd: They are fallen before vs, as at the fyrſte. But the chyldren of Iſrael ſayd: let vs flee ⁊ plucke them awaye from the cytye, vnto the hygh wayes. And all the men of Iſrael aroſe vp out of theyr place and put them ſelues in araye at Baal Thamar. And lyke wyſe the lyers in wayte of Iſraell came forth out of theyr places, euen of the medowes that were about Gibea, ⁊ came agaynſt Gibea: ten thouſande choſen mē out of all Iſrael, and there was a ſore battayle.

But the other wyſt not that ſo greate euyll was ſo nygh them. And the lorde plaged Ben Iamin before Iſrael, and the chyldren of Iſraell deſtroyed of the Beniamites the ſame day .xxv. thouſand and an hundred men, that drewe ſwerdes euery one of them.

F And when the chyldren of Ben Iamin ſaw that they were put to the worſe, the men of Iſraell gaue rowme to the Beniamites, bycauſe they truſted vnto the lyers in wayte, which they had layde beſyde Gibea. And the lyers in wayte haſted, and ran vpon Gibea, and went ⁊ ſmote all the cytye with the edge of the ſwerde. And an appoyntement had the men of Iſrael from the lyers in wayte, that they ſhulde make a great ſmoke aryſe vp out of the cytye. And when the men of Iſraell fled in the battayle, Ben Iamin began to ſmyte dead of the chyldren of Iſrael, aboute a thyrtye perſones, and ſayde: the other are put to the worſe before vs, as in the fyrſt battayle. But when there began to aryſe out of the cytye a pyller of ſmoke, the Beniamites loked backe: and beholde, the waſtynge of the hole cytye began to aſcende vp to heuen. When the men of Iſrael alſo turned agayne, the mē of Ben Iamin were abaſſhed: for they ſawe that euyll approched them. And therfore they turned theyr backes before the men of Iſrael vnto the way that leadeth to the wylderneſſe, but the men of warre ouertoke them.

G And beſyde that, they whiche came oute of the Cytye, deſtroyed them in the myddeſt of them. And thus they compaſſed the Beniamites about, and chaſed hym to Manuha, and ouerran them to Gibea on the Eaſt ſyde and there were ſleyne of Ben Jamin. xviii. thouſande, which were all men of warre. And they turned and fled towarde the wyldernes, ⁊ vnto the rocke of Rimmon. And the other ſlue by the way of the reſt of them, fyue thouſande mē, and ſtycked vnto them, vntyll they came to Gideom, and ſlue two thouſande mē of them. So that all that were ſleyne that ſame day of Ben Jamin were. xxv. thouſand men that drue ſwerdes, whiche were all men of warre: only. vi. hundred men turned ⁊ fled to the wylderneſſe, vnto the rocke of Rimmō and abode there. iiii. monethes. And the men of Iſrael turned backe agayne vnto the chyldren of Ben Jamin, ⁊ ſmote them with the edge of the ſwerde in the cityes, bothe man ⁊ beaſt, ⁊ al that came to hande, and ſet on fyre all the cityes that they coulde come by.

¶ The enhabiters of Gilead are vtterly deſtroyed

CAPI. XXI.

A AND euery man of Iſrael ſware in Mizpa ſaynge: there ſhall none of vs gyue his doughter vnto any of Ben Jamin to wyfe. And the people came to Bethell / and abode there tyll euen before God, ⁊ lyfte vp theyr voyces, and wepte ſore, and ſayde: Oh lorde god of Iſrael, why is this chaũced in Iſraell, that there ſhulde be this day one tribe lackyng in Iſrael? And on the morowe the people roſe vp be tyme, ⁊ made there an aulter, and offered burntofferynges and peace offerynges. And the chyldren of Iſrael aſked who are they amonge al the tribes of Iſrael, that came not vp with the congregacyon vnto the lorde? for they had made a greate othe concernyng hym that came not vp to the lord to Mizpa, ſaynge: he ſhal ſurely dye. And the chyldren of Iſrael had pytie on Ben Jamin theyr brethren, and ſayd: there is one tribe cut of from Iſrael this day: what ſhal we do vnto the remenaũt of them, that they may haue B wyues? we haue ſworne by the Lorde. that we wyll not gyue them of our doughters to wyues. And they ſayde: Is there any of the tribes of Iſrael, that came not vp to Mizpa to the Lorde? And beholde, there came none of the enhabitours of Jabes Gilead vnto the hooſt and congregacion. For the people were vewed: ⁊ beholde, there were none of the enhabitours of Jabes Gilead there. And they ſent thyther a multitude, euen. xii. thouſande men of the ſtrongeſt of them, and cōmaũded them, ſaynge: go and ſmyte the enhabitours of Jabes Gilead with the edge of the ſwerde bothe women and chyldren. * And this is it that ye ſhall do: vtterly deſtroy all the males and all the women that haue lyen by men. And they founde amonge the enhabytours of Jabes Gilead foure hundred damſelles, vyrgyns, that had knowen no man, by lyeng with any male. And they brought them vnto the hooſt to Silo, whiche is in the lande of Canaan. And the hole congregacion ſent ⁊ ſpake with the chyldren of Ben Jamin that were in the rocke of Rimmon, ⁊ called peaceably vnto them, ⁊ Ben Jamin came agayne at that tyme, ⁊ they gaue them wyues, which C they had ſaued alyue of the women of Jabes Gilead. But they ſuffyſed them not. And the people had compaſſyon on Ben Jamin, bycauſe that God had made a gap in the tribes of Iſrael. And then the elders of the congregacyon, ſayde: what ſhall we do to the remenaunt of them, to get them wyues, ſeynge al the wyues of Ben Jamin are deſtroyed? And they ſayde: there muſt be an enheritaunce for them that be eſcaped of Ben Jamyn, that a tribe be not deſtroyed out of Iſrael: Howbeit we may not gyue them wyues of our doughters. For the chyldren of Iſraell had ſworne, ſayenge: curſed be he, that gyueth a wyfe to Ben Jamin. Then they ſayd: beholde, there is a feaſt of the lorde yerely in Silo, which is on the north ſyde of Bethell, and on the eaſt ſyde of the waye that gothe from Bethell to Sichem, and ſouth from Libanon. Therfore they cōmaunded the chyldren of Ben Jamin ſaynge: go ⁊ lye in wayte in the vyneyardes. And when ye ſe that the doughters of Silo come oute to daunce in a rowe, then come ye out of the vyneyardes, and catche you euery man a wyfe of the doughters of Ben Jamin. D

And when theyr fathers, or brethren come vnto vs to complane, we wyl ſay vnto them: haue pytie on vs for theyr ſakes bycauſe we reſerued not to eche man his wyfe in tyme of warre, E ☞ Neyther haue ye gyuen vnto them that ye ſhulde ſynne at this tyme. And the chyldren of Ben Jamin dyd euē ſo: and toke them wyues accordynge to the nombre of them that daunced whom they caught. And they wente, and returned vnto theyr enheritaunce, and repared the cityes, and dwelte in them. And the chyldren of Iſraell departed thence at that tyme, and wente euery man to his tribe, and to his kynred, and wente oute from thence euery man to his enheritaunce. * In thoſe dayes there was no kynge in Iſraell: but euery man dyd that whiche ſemed ryght in his owne eyes. The boke of Ruth

CAPI. Primo.

A IT fortuned that * (in the dayes of a certayne Iudge) when the Iudges iudged, there fell a derthe in the lande, and a certayn man of Bethleem Iuda went for to ſoiourne in the countrey of Moab, he ⁊ his wyfe, and his ii. ſonnẽs. The name of the man was Elimelec, ⁊ the name of his wyfe, Naomi: ⁊ the names of his two ſonnes were, Mahlon and Chilion, ⁊ they were Ephraites, out of Bethleem Iuda. And when they came in to the lande of Moab, they contynued there. And Elimelec Naomis huſbande dyed, and ſhe remayned with her two ſonnes, whiche toke them wyues of the nacions of the Moabites the ones name was Orpha, and the others Ruth. And they dwelled there aboute a ten yere. And Mahlon ⁊ Chilion dyed alſo euen bothe of them, and the woman was lefte deſolate of her two ſonnes and of her huſbande.

Then ſtode ſhe vp with her doughters in B lawe, ⁊ returned from the countrey of Moab for ſhe had herde ſay in the coũtrey of Moab, howe that the Lorde had viſited his people, and gyuen them breade. wherfore ſhe departed out of the place where ſhe was, ⁊ her two doughters with her. And they went on theyr way to returne vnto the lande of Iuda. And Naomi ſayd vnto her .ii. doughters in lawe: go and returne eche of you vnto youre mothers houſe: and the Lorde deale as kyndly with you, as ye haue delte with the dead, and with me. And the lorde gyue you, that ye may fynde reſte, eyther of you in the houſe of her huſbande. And when ſhe kyſſed them, they lyfte vp theyr voyce, and wepte, and ſayd vnto her: we wyll go with the vnto thy folke. And Naomi ſayd: turne agayne my doughters: for what cauſe wyll ye go with me? Are there any mo chyldren in my wombe, to be your huſbandes?

Turne agayne my doughters, and go: for C I am to olde to haue an huſbande. And yf I ſayd, I haue hope, yf I toke a man alſo this nyght: yea and though I had all redy borne ſonnes, wold ye tary after them, tyl they were of age? or wolde ye for them ſo long refrayne frõ takynge of huſbandes? Not ſo my doughters: for it greueth me moche for your ſakes, that the hand of the lord is gone out agaynſt me. And they lyfte vp theyr voyces, ⁊ wepte agayne, ⁊ Orpha kyſſed her mother in lawe, but Ruth abode ſtyl by her. And Naomi ſayd: Se, thy ſyſter in lawe is gone backe agayne vnto her people and vnto her goddes: returne thou after her. And Ruth anſwered: entreate me not to leaue the, and to returne from after the: for whyther thou goeſt, I wyll go alſo: and where thou dwelleſt, there I wyll dwell: thy people ſhall be my people, ⁊ thy God my God. where thou dyeſt, there wyll I dye, and there wyll I be buryed. The Lorde do ſo and ſo to me, yf ought then death onely departe the and me aſondre.

When ſhe ſawe that ſhe was ſtedfaſtlye mynded to go with her, ſhe lefte ſpeakynge D vnto her. And ſo they went bothe, vntyll they came to Bethleem. And whẽ they were come to Bethleem, it was noyſed of them thorowe all the cytye, and the women ſayd: is not this Naomi? And ſhe anſwered them: call me not Naomi * (that is to ſay, beutyfull,) but call me Mara * (that is to ſay, bytter.) For the almyghtye hath made me verye bytter. I wente out ful: ⁊ the lorde hath brought me home agayn emptye. why then call ye me Naomi: ſeynge the lorde hath humbled me, and the almyghtye hath brought me vnto aduerſyte. And ſo Naomi wͭ Ruth the Moabiteſſe her doughter in lawe returned oute of the countrey of Moab, and came to Bethleem, in the begynnynge of barley harueſt.

CAPI. II.

AND Naomis huſbande had a kynſman of ſtrength, and myght, (whiche was of A the kynred of Elimelec) named Booz. And Ruth the Moabiteſſe ſayde vnto Naomi: let me go to the felde, and gather eares of corne * (ſuche as the reapers leaue) after any man in whoſe ſyght, I fynde grace. And ſhe ſayde vnto her: go my doughter. And ſhe went, and came to the felde, and gathered after the reapers, and her chaũce was, that the ſame felde pertayned vnto Booz, which was of the kynred of Elimelec. And behold, Booz came from Bethleem, and ſayd vnto the reapers: the lorde be with you. And they anſwered hym: the Lorde bleſſe the.

Then ſayd Booz vnto his yong man that ſtode by the reapers. whoſe damſell is this? B

And the yonge man that ſtode by the reapers, anſwered and ſayde: It is the Moabityſhe damſell, that came with Naomi out of the countrey of Moab, and ſhe ſayde vnto vs. Oh let me leaſe and gather after the reapers, the eares that remayne: and ſo ſhe came and hath continued euen from the mornyng vnto nowe, ſaue that ſhe taryed a lytell in the houſe. Then ſayde Booz vnto Ruth: heareſt thou my doughter: go to none other felde to gather, neyther go frõ hence: but abyde here by my maydens. Let thine eyes be on the feld that they reape, and go thou after the maydens. Haue I not charged the yonge men, that they ſhall do the no hurte? Moreouer when thou arte a thyrſt, go vnto the veſſels, and drynke of that whiche the ladde haue drawen. Then ſhe fell on her face ⁊ * bowed her ſelfe to the grounde, and ſayd vnto hym: howe is it that I haue founde grace in thyne eyes: and that thou ſhuldeſt know me, ſeyng I am an alyaunte?

C And Booz anſwered and ſayde vnto her: all is tolde ⁊ ſhewed me, that thou haſt done vnto thy mother in lawe, ſynce the death of thyne huſbande, howe thou haſt lefte thy father and thy mother: ⁊ the lande where thou waſt borne, ⁊ arte come vnto a nacyon which thou kneweſt not in tyme paſſed. The Lorde quyte thy worke, and a full rewarde be gyuẽ the of the Lorde god of Iſraell, vnder whoſe wynges thou arte come to abyde. Then ſhe ſayde: let me fynde fauoure in thy ſyght my Lorde, thou that haſt conforted me, and ſpoken hertely vnto thy mayde, whiche yet am not lyke vnto one of thy maydes. Booz ſayde vnto her agayne: in tyme of refeccyon come thou hyther, and eate of the breade, and dyp thy ſop in the vynegre. And ſhe ſat downe by the reapers, and he reached her * parched corne: of the whiche ſhe dyd eate, ⁊ was ſuffyſed, and lefte parte. And when ſhe was ryſen vp to gather, Booz cõmaũded his yong men ſaynge, let her gather euen amonge the heapes, and forbyd her not. And leaue her ſome of the ſheues for the nonce, ⁊ let it lye, that ſhe may gather it vp ✠ (vvithout ſhame) and rebuke her not. And ſo ſhe gathered in the felde vntyl euen, ⁊ threſſhed that ſhe had gathered and it was in meaſure vpon an Epha ✠ (that is thre buſſhels) of barley.

D And ſhe toke it vp, and went in to the citie: and when her mother in lawe had ſene what ſhe had gathered, ſhe plucked out alſo, and gaue to her that ſhe had reſerued, when ſhe had eaten ynough. And her mother in lawe ſayde vnto her: where haſt thou gathered to daye? and where wroughteſt thou? bleſſed be he that knewe the. And ſhe ſhewed her mother in lawe how ſhe had wrought with hym, and ſayde: the mannes name with whom I wrought to daye is Booz. And Naomi ſayde vnto her doughter in lawe: bleſſed be he of the Lorde, for he ceaſeth not to do * good to the lyuyng and to the deade. And Naomi ſayde agayne vnto her: the man is nygh vnto vs, ⁊ of oure nexte kynne. And Ruth the Moabite ſayde: he ſayd vnto me alſo. Thou ſhalt be with my yonge men, vntyll they haue ended all my harueſt. And Naomi anſwered vnto Ruth her doughter in law: It is beſt my doughter that thou go out wͭ his maydens, that they fall not vpon the in any other felde. And ſo ſhe kepte her by the maydens of Booz, to gather, vnto the ende of Barley harueſt, and of wheate harueſt alſo: and dwelte with her mother in lawe.

Tobi. ii. b

¶ Ruth ſlepeth at Booz fete, and is knowen his kynſwoman.

CAPI. III.

A THen Naomi her mother in lawe ſayde vnto her: my doughter, ſhall I not ſeke reſt for the, that thou mayſt proſper? And is not Booz our kynſman, with whoſe maydens thou waſt? Beholde, he wyndoeth barley to nyght in the threſſhyng flore: waſhe thy ſelfe therfore, and anoynte the, ⁊ put thy rayment vpon the, and get the downe to the barne. But let no man knowe of the, vntyl he haue lefte eatynge and drynkynge. And whẽ he gothe to ſlepe, marke the place where he layeth hym downe, and then go and lyfte vp the clothes, that are on his fete, and lay the downe there, and ſo ſhal he tel the what thou ſhalte do. And ſhe anſwered her: all that thou byddeſt me, I wyl do.

B And ſo ſhe wente downe vnto the barne, and dyd accordyng to all that her mother in lawe bad her. And when Booz had eaten and dronken, and made hym merye, ⁊ was gone in, to lye downe beſyde the heape of corne, ſhe came ſoftely, and lyfte vp the clothes of his fete, and layde her downe. And at mydnyght the man was afrayde and groped.

And beholde: a woman lay at his fete. And he ſayde: what arte thou? ſhe anſwered: I am Ruth thyne handmayde, ſpreade thy wynge ouer thyne handmayde, for thou arte the nexte of the kynne. He ſayde: bleſſed be thou in the Lorde my doughter, for thou haſt ſhewed more goodneſſe in the latter ende, then at the begynnynge, in as moche as thou folowedſt not yonge men, whyther they were poore or ryche.

C And nowe my doughter feare not, I wyl do to the all that thou requyreſt, for all the Cytye of my people dothe knowe, that thou arte a woman of vertue. And it is true that I am of thy nexte kynne: howe be it, there is one nygher then I.

Tary this nyght, and when mornynge is come, yf he wyll marry the, it is good, ſo let hym do. But and yf he wyll not haue the, as ſure as the lorde lyueth I wyll haue the: lye ſtyll vntyll the mornynge. And ſo ſhe laye at his fete vntyll the mornynge. And ſhe aroſe vp before one coulde knowe another. And he ſayde: let no man knowe, that there came any woman in to the barne.

D And he ſayd agayne: brynge the mantell that thou haſt vpon the, and holde it vp. And when ſhe helde it vp, he met in ſyxe meaſures of barley, and layde it on her. And ſhe gat her vnto the citye: and when ſhe came in, to her mother in lawe, ſhe ſayde: howe is it with the my doughter? And ſhe tolde her all that the man had done to her. And ſayd alſo: theſe .vi. meaſures of barley gaue he me, and ſayde: thou ſhalte not come emptye vnto thy mother in lawe. Then ſayde ſhe: my doughter, ſyt ſtyll, vntyll thou knowe howe the matter wyll chaunce. For the man wyll not be in reſt vntyll he haue fynyſſhed the thynge this ſame daye.

¶ Booz taketh Ruth to wyfe, of whome he begetteth Obed.

CAPI. IIII.

A Then wente Booz vnto the gate, and ſat hym downe there. And beholde, the kynſmā of whiche Booz ſpake, came by. Unto whom he ſayd: come and ſyt downe here, and called hym by his name. And he turned in & ſat downe. And he toke ten men of the elders of the citie, and ſayd: ſyt ye downe here, and they ſat downe. And he ſayd vnto the kynſmā: Naomi that is come agayn out of the countrey of Moab * wyll ſell a parcell of lande, whiche was our brother Elimelechs. And I thought to do the to wete, and byd the bye it before the enhabitours and elders of my people. If thou be dyſpoſed to redeme it, do: but and yf thou wylte not purchaſe it, then tel me that I may knowe. For there is none to chalenge it, ſaue thou, and I nexte the. And the other anſwered: I wyll purchaſe it. Then ſayde Booz, what daye thou byeſt the felde

Leuiti. 25. b
Iere. 32. b

B of the hande of Naomi, thou muſt take alſo Ruth the Moabitiſſe, the * wyfe of the dead, to ſtyrre vp the name of the dead vpon his enheritaunce. The kynſman anſwered: I can not purchaſe it, for marrynge of myne owne enherytaunce: take thou my ryght to the, for I can not purchaſe it. Now this was the maner of olde tyme in Iſraell concernynge purchaſynge & chaungynge, for to ſtablyſſhe al thynges that a man muſt plucke of his ſhoo, & gyue it his neyghbour, and this was a ſure wytneſſe in Iſraell.

Deute. 25. b

C Therfore the kynſman ſayd to Booz: bye it thou: and ſo drewe of his ſhoo. And Booz ſayd vnto the elders & vnto all the people: ye are wytneſſes this day, that I haue bought all that was Elimelechs, & all that was Chilions and Mahlons, of the hande of Naomi. And moreouer, Ruth the Moabite the wyfe of Mahlon, haue I purchaſed to be my wyfe to ſtyrre vp the name of the deade vpon his enheritaunce, and that his name be not put out from amonge his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are wytneſſes this daye.

And all the people that were in the gate, & the elders ſayde: we are wytneſſes: the Lorde make the woman, that is come in to thyne houſe, lyke * Rahel and Lea, whiche twayne dyd buylde the houſe of Iſraell: do thou alſo valyauntly in Ephrata, & be famous in Bethleem. Thy houſe be lyke the houſe of Phares * whom Thamar bare vnto Iuda, euen of the ſede whiche the Lorde ſhall gyue the of this yonge woman.

D And ſo Booz toke Ruth, and ſhe was his wyfe. And when he went in vnto her, the lorde gaue that ſhe conceyued, and bare a ſonne. And the women ſayd vnto Naomi: bleſſed be the Lorde, the whiche hath not lefte the without a kynſman, to haue a name in Iſraell, & that ſhall brynge thy lyfe agayne, & cheryſhe thyne olde age. For thy doughter in lawe, whiche loueth the, hath borne vnto hym: and ſhe is better to the, then ſeuen ſonnes. And Naomi toke the chylde, and layd it in her lap, and became nurſe vnto it. And her neyghbours gaue it a name, ſayeng: There is a Chylde borne to Naomi, and called it, Obed: The ſame is the father of Iſai, the father of Dauid. Theſe are the generacions of * Phares: Phares begat Hezron: Hezron begat Ram: Ram begat Aminadab: Aminadab begat Nahſon: Nahſon: begat Salmon: Salmon begat Booz, Booz begat Obed, Obed begat Iſai: Iſai begat Dauid.

¶ Elkana hath two wyues, Hanna, and Phenenna.

CAPI. Primo.

A There was a man of ☞ one of the ii. Ramathes (of the kinred of Zophim, of mount Ephraim) named * Elkana, the ſonne of Jeroham, the ſon of Elihu, the ſon of Thohu the ſon of Zuph, an Ephrathite: whiche had two wyues, the one called Hanna, & the other Phenenna. And Phenenna had children, but Henna had none. * And the ſayd man wente vp out of his citie euery feaſtful day, to pray and to offre vnto the lorde of hooſtes in Silo where were the two ſonnes of Eli (Hophni & Phinehes) the Lordes preeſtes. And it fel on a ſolempne day, that Elkana offered, & gaue to Phenenna his wyfe and to all her ſonnes and doughters porcions. But ☞ vnto Hāna he gaue a porcyon with an heuy chere, for he loued Hanna, and the Lorde had made her barren. And her enemye (Phenenna) vexed her a good, to moue her, bycauſe the Lorde had made her barren. And ſo dyd ſhe yere by yere as ofte as ſhe wente vp to the houſe of the lorde. And ſo chafed her, whiche wepte, & dyd not eate.

Then ſayde Elkana her huſbande to her: B Hanna, why wepeſt thou? & why eateſt thou not? and why is thyne herte troubled? am not I better to the then ten ſonnes? So Hanna roſe vp after that they had eaten and dronken in Silo. And Eli the preeſt ſat vpon a ſtole by one of the ſyde poſtes of the temple of the Lorde. And ſhe was troubled in her mynde, and prayed vnto the lorde, and wepte ſore, and vowed a vowe, and ſayde.

Oh Lorde of hooſtes, yf thou wylte loke on the trouble of thyne handmayde, and remembre me, and not forget thyne handmayde, but gyue vnto thyne handmayde a man chylde: I wyll gyue hym vnto the lorde al the dayes of his lyfe * & there ſhal no raſer come vpon his heade. And as ſhe contynued prayenge before the lorde it fortuned, that Eli marked her mouth. For Hāna ſpake in her herte, and her lyppes dyd but moue only, but her voyce was not herde. And therfore Eli thought ſhe had bene dronken, and Eli ſayde vnto her. Howe long wylte thou be dronken? put away from the, the wyne that thou haſt.

C Hanna anſwered, and ſayde: not ſo my Lorde, I am a woman of a ſorowfull herte, I haue dronke neyther wyne, nor ſtronge drynke, but haue * ☞ powred out my ſoule before the lorde. Count not thyne handmayd to be lyke a doughter of Belial, for out of the aboundaunce of my heuyneſſe, and greefe, haue I ſpoken hytherto. Pſal. xlii.a

Eli anſwered her agayne, and ſayd: go in peace: the God of Iſraell graunt the thy peticion, that thou haſt aſked of hym. She ſayd let thyne handmayd fynd grace in thy ſyght. And ſo the woman went her waye, and dyd eate, and loked no more ſo ſad. And they roſe vp early, and worſhypped before the Lorde, and then returned and came to theyr houſe to Ramath. And when Elkana knewe Hāna his wyfe, the lorde remembred her: for in proceſſe of tyme it came to paſſe, that ſhe conceyued, and bare a ſonne, and called his name Samuel (ſayenge.) Bycauſe I haue aſked hym of the lorde. And Elkana & all his houſe went vp to offre vnto the Lorde, the offeryng due for the feaſt, and alſo ☞ his vowe.

D Neuertheleſſe Hāna went not vp, but ſayd vnto her huſbande: I wyl tary vntyll the lad be weyned, and then I wyll bryng hym, that he may apeare before the lorde, & there abyde for euer. Elkana her huſbande anſwered her: do what ſemeth the beſt: tarye at home, vntyll thou haſt weyned hym, and I beſeche the Lorde, to make good his ſayinge. And ſo the woman abode and gaue her ſonne ſucke, vntyll ſhe weyned hym. And when ſhe had weyned him, ſhe toke hym with her, with thre bullockes, and an Epha of floure, and a bottel of wyne, and brought hym vnto the houſe of the Lorde in Silo, and the chylde was yet but tender of age. And they ſlewe a bullocke, and brought in the lad to Eli, and ſhe ſayde. Oh my Lorde: as truely as thy ſoule lyueth, my Lorde, I am the woman that ſtode before the here, prayenge vnto the Lorde. For this lad I prayed, and the Lorde hathe gyuen me my deſyre, whiche I aſked of hym: and therfore I haue gyuen hym vnto the Lorde, as longe as he is mete for the Lorde. And they worſhypped the Lorde there.

CAPI. II.

A And Hanna prayed and ſayd: myne hert reioyſeth in the Lorde, & myne ☞ horne is exalted in the Lorde. My mouth is wyde open ouer myne enemyes, for I reioyſe in thy ſaluacyon. There is none ſo holy as the Lorde: for without the is nothyng. Neyther is there any of ſtrength as is our God.

Talke not to moche proudlye: let olde thynges departe out of youre mouthes, for the Lorde is a God of knowledge, & his purpoſes

They that were ful, haue hyred out them

Deute.32.f ble. * The Lorde kylleth, and maketh alyue:

and exalte the horne of his anoynted.

And Elkana went to Ramath to his houſe,
and the lad dyd miniſtre vnto the Lorde before Eli the preeſt. But the ſonnes of Eli were ☞ ☞ chyldren of Belial, & knewe not the lorde.
And the preeſtes made a lawe for the people,
that when ſoeuer any man offered any offerynge,
the preeſtes lad came, whyle the fleſhe
was in ſethynge, and a fleſhe hoke with thre teeth in his hande, and thruſt it in to the pan, ketle, caldron, or pot. And all that the fleſhe hoke brought vp, that the preeſt toke awaye.
And ſo they dyd vnto all the Iſraelites, that came thyther to Silo. Yea and therto, before they burnt the fat, the preeſtes lad came and ſayde to the man that offered: Gyue fleſhe that I may dreſſe it for the preeſt, for he wyll not haue ſodden fleſhe of the, but rawe.

And yf any man ſayd vnto hym: let them
D burne the fat accordyng to the day, and then take as moche as thyne herte deſyreth. The lad wolde anſwere him, yea, thou ſhalte gyue it me now: And yf thou wylte not, I wyl take it with violence. And the ſynne of the yonge men was very great before the lorde,
For men abhorred the offerynge of the lorde.

☞ But the chylde Samuel ☞ miniſtred before the Lorde/ gyrded aboute with a lynnen ☞ ☞ Ephod. Moreouer his mother made hym a lytell coote, and brought it to hym frome yere to yere, when ſhe came vp with her huſbande to offre the offerynge in the ſolempne feaſtes. And Eli bleſſed Elkana and his wife & ſayd: the lorde gyue the ſeede of this womā
for the peticion that ſhe aſked of the Lorde.
And they went vnto theyr owne home. And the Lorde viſited Hanna, ſo that ſhe conceyued and bare thre ſonnes and two doughters.
And the chylde Samuel grewe before the Lorde.

Eli was very olde, and herde all that his ſonnes dyd vnto all Iſraell, and howe they E lay with the women that wayted at the dore
of the Tabernacle of wytneſſe, and he ſayde vnto them: why do ye ſuche thynges? For of all theſe people I heare euyl reportes of you.
Oh, nay my ſonnes: for it is no good reporte that I heare, howe that ye make the Lordes people to treſpaſſe. If one man ſyn agaynſte an other, ☞ dayeſmen may be iudges: but yf ☞
a man ſynne agaynſt the Lorde, who wyll be his dayeſman? Notwithſtandyng, they herkened not vnto the voyce of theyr father, bycauſe
the Lorde wolde ſley them. The chylde Samuel profited * and grewe, and was in fauour both with the Lorde & alſo with men.
And there came a man of God vnto Eli, and F ſayd vnto hym: thus ſayth the Lorde: dyd not I appeare vnto the houſe of thy father, whē
they were in Egypte ſubiecte vnto Pharaos houſe? And I choſe thy father out of all the tribes of Iſraell to be my Preeſt, for to offre vpon myne aulter, & to burne inſence, * and to weare an Ephod before me.

And I gaue vnto the houſe of thy father all the offrynges of the chyldrē of Iſrael. Wherfore treade ye downe my ſacrifice and myne

in the Tabernacle, and honoureſt thy Chyldren aboue me, to make youre ſelues fat of the fyrſt fruytes of all the offerynges of Iſrael

Wherfore the Lorde god of Iſraell ſayth:

And this ſhall be a ſygne vnto the, that ſhall come vpon thy two ſonnes, Reg.11.c. * Hophni and Phinehes: euen in one daye they ſhall dye bothe. And I wyll ſtyrre me vp a faythfull preeſt that ſhall do accordyng to my herte and mynde. And I wyll buylde hym a ſure houſe. And he ſhall walke before myne anoynted for euer. And they that are lefte in thyne houſe, ſhall come and crouche to hym for a lytle pece of ſyluer and a cake of breade, and ſhall ſaye: put me I praye the in one offyce or other amonge the preeſtes, that I maye eate a morſell of breade.

❡ The Lorde called Samuell thre tymes.

CAPI. III.

A ☞ AND the chylde Samuell mynyſtred vnto the lorde before Eli: and ☞ the worde of the Lorde was precyous in thoſe dayes, neyther was there any open viſyon. And it chaunſed at that tyme, that Eli laye Reg.4.c. in his place, and his * eyes began to ware dym that he coulde not ſe. And ere the lampe of god went out, Samuel layde hym downe to ſlepe in the temple of the Lorde, where the arke of God was. And the Lorde called Samuell, and he ſayde: here am I, and he ran vnto Eli, and ſayde: here am I, for thou calledſt me. And he ſayde I called the not: go agayne and ſlepe. And he went, and layde him downe to ſlepe. And the Lorde called once agayne, Samuell: and Samuel aroſe & went to Eli, and ſayde: I am here, for thou dydeſt call me. And he anſwered: I called the not my Sonne,

B ☞ Go agayne and take thy reſt: ☞ Samuel knewe not yet the Lorde, neyther was the worde of the Lorde yet opened vnto hym. And the Lorde went to, and called Samuell the thyrde tyme. And he aroſe and went to Eli and ſayd: I am here, for thou haſt called me. And Eli perceyued that the lorde had called the chylde. Therfore, Eli ſayde to Samuell: go, and lye downe: and yf he cal the agayne, then ſaye: ſpeake on Lorde, for thy ſeruaunt heareth. So Samuell went, and layde hym downe in his place. And the Lorde came and ſtode, and called as before, Samuel Samuell. Samuell anſwered: ſpeake on, for thy ſeruaunt heareth. And the Lorde ſayde to Samuell: beholde, I wyll do a thyng in Iſrael/ that bothe the eares of as many as heareth it, ſhall tyngle. In that daye I wyll rayſe vp agaynſt Eli, that which I haue ſpoken concernynge his houſe, from the begynnynge to Reg.4.d. the endynge. I haue tolde hym, * that I wyl iudge his houſe for euer. C And therfore I haue ſworne vnto the houſe of Eli, that the wyckedneſſe of Elies houſe/ ſhall not be pourged with ſacrifyce nor offeryng, for euer. Samuell laye tyll the mornynge, & opened the dores of the houſe of the Lorde. And Samuel feared, to ſhew Eli the viſyon. Then Eli called Samuell, & ſayde: Samuell my Son. And he anſwered: here I am. He ſayde: what is that (the Lorde) hath ſayd vnto the? Se thou hyde it not from me. Ruth.1.d. * God do ſo and ſo to the, yf thou hyde any thynge from me, of all that he ſayd vnto the. And Samuell tolde hym euerye whyt/ and hyd nothynge from hym. And he ſayde, it is the lorde, let hym do what ſemeth hym beſt.

And Samuell grewe, and the Lorde was with hym, and lefte none of his wordes vnperformed. And all Iſraell frō Dan to Berſabe wyſt that faythfull Samuel was made the Lordes prophet. And the lorde appeared agayne in Silo: for the Lorde opened hym ſelfe to Samuell in Silo, thorow the worde of the Lorde.

B And ſo the people ſent to Silo, & fet from thence the Arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde of hooſtes, whiche dwelleth bytwene the Cherubyns. And there were the two ſonnes of Eli, Hophni & Phinehes w the Arke of the appoyntment of God. And when the Philiſtines herde the noyſe of the ſhoute, they ſayd: what meaneth the ſoude of this myghtye ſhoute in the hooſte of the Hebrues? And they underſtode, howe that the Arke of the Lorde was come into the hoſt. And the Philiſtines were afrayde, ⁊ ſayde: God is come into the hooſt. CAPI. V.

A AND the Philiſtines toke the Arke of god, and caryed it from the helpe ſtone, unto Aſdod: agayne, the Philiſtines toke the arke of God, and brought it into the houſe of Dagon, and ſet it by Dagon. And when they of Aſdod were up in the mornyng beholde, Dagon laye upon the earth before the arke of the lorde. And they toke Dagon, and ſet hym in his place agayne. Then ſayde they: And what ſhal be the treſpaſſeofferynge, whiche we ſhall rewarde hym with? They anſwered: fyue golden arſſes, and fyue golden myce, accordynge to the nombre of the Lordes of the Philiſtines. For it is one maner of plage on you all, ⁊ on your lordes. wherfore ye ſhal make ymages lyke to your arſſes, ⁊ ymages lyke to your myce that corrupt the lande, and ye ſhall gyue glorye vnto the god of Iſrael, that he may take his hand from of you, ⁊ from of your goddes, ⁊ from B of your lande. Wherfore do ye harden youre hertes as the Egyptians ⁊ Pharao hardened theyr hertes? whiche when he toke on agaynſt them, dyd they not let the people go, ⁊ they departed? Nowe therfore make a newe carte, ⁊ take two mylche kyne, on whoſe neck there hath come no yocke. And tye the kyne to the carte, ⁊ brynge the calues home from them. And take the arke of the Lorde, ⁊ laye it vpon the carte, and put the Iuels of golde (whiche ye rewarde hym with for a ſynofferynge) in a coofer by the ſyde therof, ⁊ ſende it away, that it maye go. And yf ye ſe that he go vp by the way of his owne cooſt, to Bethſames, then it is he that dyd vs this greate euyll. Yf no, we ſhall knowe then, that it is not his hande that ſmote vs, but it was a chaunce that happened vs. And the men dyd euen ſo: and toke two kyne that gaue mylke, and tyed them to the carte, and kepte the cal- C ues at home, and they layde the Arke of the Lorde vpon the carte, and the coofer with the myce of golde, and with the ymages of theyr arſſes. And the kyne toke the ſtreyght waye to Bethſames, and went one waye: ⁊ as they went, lowed and turned neyther to the ryght hande nor to the lefte. And the Lordes of the Philiſtines went after them, vntyll the borders of Bethſames. And they of Bethſames were reapyng theyr wheate herueſt in the valeye. And they lyfte vp theyr eyes, and ſpyed the arke. And reioyſed when they ſawe it. And the carte came in to the felde of one Joſua a Bethſamite, and ſtode ſtyl there. There was alſo a greate ſtoone. And they claue the wood of the carte ⁊ offered the kyne a burntofferynge vnto the Lorde. And the Leuytes toke downe the arke of the lorde ⁊ the coofer that was with it, wherin the Iuels of golde were, and put them on the great ſtone. And the men of Bethſames ſacrificed burntſacrifyce, and offered offerynges that ſame daye vnto the Lorde. And when the fyue Lordes of the Philiſtines had ſene it, they returned D to Akarō the ſame day. And theſe are the golden arſſes whiche the Philiſtines gaue to amendes for a treſpaſſeofferynge, to the lorde: for Aſdod one: for * Gaza one: for Aſkalon * Or Aza. one: for Gath one: and for Akaron one. And golden myce, accordynge to the nombre of al the cityes of the Philiſtines, euen accordyng to the fyue Lordes: bothe of walled townes, ⁊ of townes vnwalled, euen vnto the greate ſtone of lamentacion, wheron they ſet downe the arke of the lorde, which ſtone remayneth vnto this daye / in the felde of Joſua the Bethſamite. And he plaged the men of Bethſames, bycauſe they had ſene the Arke of the lorde. And he ſlewe amonge the people fiftye thouſande, ⁊ thre ſcore and ten men. And the other people lamented, bycauſe the lorde had ſleyne the people with ſo great a ſlaughter. Wherfore the men of Bethſames ſayd: who is able to ſtande before the Lorde ſo hooly a God: ⁊ to whome ſhall he go from vs? And they ſent meſſēgers to the enhabyters of Kariath Jarim, ſayenge: The Philiſtines haue brought agayne the arke of the Lorde: come ye downe therfore, and fet it vp to you.

¶ The Arke is brought to Kariathiarim.

CAPI. VII.

And Samuell ſpake vnto al the houſe of Iſraell, ſayinge: yf ye be come agayne vnto the Lorde with all your hertes, then * put

B And Samuell ſayde, gather all Iſrael to Mizpa, ⁊ I wyll pray for you vnto the lorde.
And they gathered togyther to Mizpa, and iudged the Chyldren of Iſraell in Mizpa.

When the Philiſtines herde, that the Chyldren

with the cooſtes of the ſame, ⁊ Iſraell plucked them out of the handꝭ of the Philiſtines
And there was peace bytwene Iſraell ⁊ the

dayes of his lyfe, ⁊ went about yere by yere,
to Bethell, Gilgall, and Mizpa, and Iudged Iſraell in al thoſe places, and came agayne to Rama: for there was his houſe, and there he iudged Iſraell alſo, and there he buylte an

¶ The people requyre a kynge.

And he ſhall take the tenth of your

Therfore, whē Samuell herde all the wordſ

of Iſraell: go euery man vnto his cytye.

¶ Saull the ſonne of Cis is choſen kynge.

CAPI. IX.

A There was a man of Ben Iamin named
* Cis the ſon of Abiel, the ſon of Zeror
the ſonne of Bechorath, the ſonne of Aphiah, the ſon of a man that was a Ieminite,
a man of ſtrength & myght: & the ſame
had a ſonne called Saull, a goodly yonge man & a fayre, ſo that amonge the Chyldren of Iſraell, there was none goodlyer then he.
For frõ the ſhoulders vpwarde, he was hier then all the other peple. And the Aſſes of this Cis Sauls father, were loſt, & Cis ſayde to Saul his ſonne: take one of the laddes with the, & vp and go ſeke the Aſſes. And he went through mounte Ephraim, and through the lande of Saliſa, but they founde them not.
Then they went through the lande of Salim,
& there they were not. When they went alſo throughe the lande of Iemini, they founde them not. At the laſt when they were come to the lande of Zuph, Saull ſayde to his lad that was with hym: come, let vs returne, leſt my Father leaue carynge for the Aſſes, and take thought for vs. He ſayde vnto hym: beholde, there is in this Cytye a man of God/
and he is a worſhypfull man, all that he ſayeth, B cõmeth to paſſe. Nowe then let vs goo thyther: peraduenture he ſhall ſhewe vs what way we may go. Then ſayde Saul to his lad:
yf we wyll go, what ſhall we bryng the man?
For our bread is all ſpent out of our veſſels/
and there is noone other preſente to brynge
the man of God: what haue we? And the lad anſwered Saull agayne, and ſayde: I haue founde aboute me the fourth parte of a ſycle/that wyll I gyue the man of God, to tell vs our waye. Before tyme in Iſraell when a man went to ſeke an anſwere of God, thus wyſe he ſpake, come: and let vs go to the ☞ ſear. For he that is nowe called a Prophet/was in the olde tyme called a ſear. Then ſayde Saull to his lad: well ſayd of the: come, let vs go. And ſo they went vnto the cytye where the mã of god was. And as they were goyng vp into the cytye, they met with damſels that came out to drawe water, and ſayde vnto them: is there here a ſear? And the maydens anſwered them, yea ☞ (here is one) beholde, he is before you. Make haſt nowe, for he came this daye to the cytye, for ☞ there is an offerynge of the people this day in the hyl.
When ye be come in to the cytye, ye ſhal fynd hym ſtreyght waye, ere he go vp to the hyl to eate: for the peple wyl not eate vntyl he come bycauſe ☞ he doth bleſſe the offerynge. And then eate they that be bydden to the feaſt.

C Nowe therfore get you vp, for this daye ſhall ye fynde hym. And they went vp in to the cytye. And when they were come in to the myddes of the cytye: beholde: Samuell came out agaynſt them, for to go vp to the hyll.
* But the Lorde had tolde Samuell in his 1.Reg.xv.a eare (a daye before Saull came) ſayenge: to morowe this tyme I wyll ſende the a man out of the lande of Ben Iamin, hym ſhalte thou anoynte to be captayne ouer my people Iſraell, that he maye ſaue my people out of the hand of the Philiſtines: for I haue loked
vpon my people, and theyr crye is come vnto
me. When Samuell therfore ſawe Saull/the Lorde anſwered hym: ſe, this is the man/whome I ſpake to the of. This ſame ſhall reygne ouer my people. Then went Saull to Samuell in the myddle of the gate, and ſayde: Tell me I praye the, where the ſears houſe is. Samuell anſwered Saull, & ſayd:
I am the ſear go vp before me vnto the hyll,
for ye ſhall eate with me to daye. And to morowe
I wyll let the go, and wyll tell the all that is in thyne herte. And as for thyne aſſes that were loſte thre dayes ago, care not for them/ for they are founde. And moreouer, whoſe ſhall the bewtyfull thynges of Iſrael D be? belonge they not to the, and vnto all thy fathers houſe? But Saull anſwered & ſayd:
Am not I the ſon of a Ieminite of the ſmalleſt trybe of Iſraell? and my kynred is the leaſt of all the kynreds of the trybe of Beniamin.
Wherfore then ſpeakeſt thou ſo to me? And Samuell toke Saull and his lad/& brought them into the parler, & made them ſyt in the cheyfeſt place amonge them that were bydden: whiche were vpon a thyrtye perſons. And Samuell ſayde vnto the cooke:
brynge forth the porcyon wiche I gaue the, &
of which I ſayde vnto the: kepe it with the.
And the coke toke vp the ſhoulder, and that whiche was vpon it, & ſet it before Saull. And Samuell ſayde beholde, that which is lefte:
put it before the and eate, for hytherto hath it ben kept for the of purpoſe, whē I called the people. And ſo Saull dyd eate with Samuell that daye. And when they were come downe from the hyll in to the cytye, Samuell cõmuned with Saull ☞ vpon the top of the houſe; & when they aroſe early aboute the ſprynge of the day, Samuell called Saull vpon the toppe of the houſe, ſayenge: Up, that I maye ſende the awaye. And Saull aroſe. And they wente out at the dorre both he & Samuel. And when they were come almooſt out of the towne. Samuell ſayde to Saull: byd the lad go before vs (& he went before) but ſtande þu ſtyll a whyle, that I may ſhew the what god ſayeth.

¶ Saull is annoynted kynge, and prophecyeth.

CAPI. X.

A Actes xiii.b — And then Samuel toke a veſſel of oyle/ and powred it vpon his heade, & * kyſſed hym, and ſayde: hath not the Lorde anoynted the, to be captayne ouer his enherytaunce ✠ (and thou ſhalte deliuer his people out of the handes of theyr enemyes, vviche are rounde aboute them. And they wyll ſaye vnto the: the Aſſes whiche thou wenteſt to ſeke/ are founde. And lo, thy father hath lefte the care of the aſſes, & ſoroweth for you, ſayenge: what ſhall I do for my ſon? Then ſhalt thou go forth from thence, and ſhalte come to the ☞ playne of Thabor. And as ſoone as he had turned his ſhoulder to go from Samuell, god gaue hym another maner of herte, and all thoſe tokens came to paſſe that ſame daye. And when they came to the hyll: beholde, the companye i.Reg.xi.c of prophettes met hym, and * the Spiryte of God came vpon hym alſo, he propheſyed amonge them. And al that knewe him before/ when they ſawe that he propheſyed amonge the prophettes, they ſayde eche to other: what is this that is happened vnto the ſon of Cis? C i.Reg.xix * Is Saull alſo amonge the Prophettes? And one of the ſame place anſwered, & ſayde: who is theyr father? And therof came the pro☞uerbe what, is ☞ Saull alſo among the prophettes? And when he had made an ende of propheſienge, he came to the hyl. And Saules fathers brother ſayde vnto hym & to his lad: whyther went ye? He ſayde: to ſeke the Aſſes: & when we ſawe that they were no where, we came to Samuell. And Sauls vncle ſayd, tell me what Samuell ſayde vnto you? Saull anſwered his vncle: he tolde vs plainly, that the aſſes were founde: But of the kyngdome wherof Samuell ſpake, tolde he him not. And Samuell called the people togyther vnto the lorde to Mizpa, & ſayde vnto the chyldren of Iſraell: thus ſayeth the lorde god of Iſraell: I brought Iſraell out of Egypte, and delyuered you out of the hande of the Egyptians & out of the handes of all kyngdomes that troubled you. And ye haue this daye caſte awaye youre God that helped you out of all your aduerſityes and tribulacyons. And ye haue ſayde vnto hym: * make a kynge ouer i.Reg.viii. and xii.a vs. Nowe therfore ſtande ye before the lorde by your trybes & your thouſandes. And when Samuell had brought all the trybes of Iſ D raell, the trybe of Ben Iamin was caught. When he had brought the trybe of Ben Iamin by theyr kynreds, the kynred of Matri was caught: & at the laſt Saull the ſonne of Cis was caught. And whẽ they ſought him, he coulde not be founde. Therfore they aſked the lorde further, yf the man ſhuld come thyther. And the Lorde anſwered: beholde, he hathe hyd hym ſelfe amonge the ſtuffe. And they ran, & fet him thence. And when he ſtode among the peple, he was hyer then any of the people, frõ the ſhoulders vpwarde. And Samuell ſayde to all the peple: Se ye not hym/ whome the lorde hath choſen, & howe there is none lyke hym amonge the people? And all i.Reg. the peple ſhowted and ſayde: * God ſende the kynge lyfe. Then Samuell tolde the people Dani. * ☞ the dutye of the kyngdome, & wrote it ☞ in a booke, and layde it vp before the Lorde/ and ſent all the people awaye/ euery man to his houſe. And Saul alſo went home to Gibea. And there ✠ folowed hym ſtronge men, ✠ whoſe hertes God had touched. But the chyldren of Beliall, ſayde: howe ſhall he ſaue vs? ¶ The people renueth the kyngdome of Saull.

Nahas

CAPI. XI.

A NAhas the Ammonite came, and beſeged Iabes in Gilead. And all the men of Iabes ſayd vnto Nahas: make a couenaunt with vs, & we wyll be thy ſeruauntes. And Nahas the Ammonite anſwered them: In this wyll I make a couenaunt wͭ you, yf I maye thruſt out all youre ryght eyes, and brynge that ſhame vpō all Iſrael. To whom the elders of Iabes ſayd: gyue vs.vii.dayes reſpyte: that we may ſende meſſengers vnto all the cooſtes of Iſrael. And then yf there be no man to helpe vs, we wyll come out to the.

B Then came the meſſengers to Gibea vnto Saul, and tolde this tydynges in the eares of the people. And all the people lyfte vp theyr voyces & wepte. And beholde, Saull came folowynge the cattell out of the felde, & Saull ſayd: what ayleth this peple that they wepe? And they tolde hym the tydynges of the men of Iabes. And the ſpiryte of god came vpon Saull, when he herde thoſe tydynges, and he was exceedynge angrye, and toke a yocke of oxen, & hewed them in peces, & ſent them thorowout all the cooſtes of Iſraell by the handes of meſſengers, ſayenge: whoſoeuer commeth not forth after Saul, & after Samuel, ☞ ſo ſhall his oxen be ſerued. And ☞ the feare of the Lorde fell on the people, & they came out as it had ben but one man. And when he * nombred them in Bezek, the chyldren of C Iſraell were.CCC.M. men / & the men of Iuda.xxx.M. And they ſayde vnto the meſſengers that came: ſo ſaye vnto the men of Iabes in Gilead: to morow by that tyme the ſon be hote, ye ſhall haue helpe. And the meſſengers came & ſhewed the men of Iabes, which were glad. Therfore the men of Iabes ſayd: to morowe we wyll come out vnto you, and ye ſhall do wͭ vs all that pleaſeth you. And on the morowe it fortuned, that Saull put the people in thre partes. And they came in vpon the hooſt in the mornynge watche, and ſlewe the Ammonites, vntyll the heate of the day. And they that remayned, were ſkattred: ſo that two of them were not lefte togyther.

And the people ſayde vnto Samuell: what is he that dare ſay: ſhall Saull reygne ouer vs? brynge thoſe men, that we may ſley them.

D And Saull ſayde: there ſhall no man dye this daye, for to daye the Lorde hath ſaued Iſraell. Then ſayde Samuell vnto the people, ☞ come, that we maye go to Gylgall, ☞ and renewe the kyngdome there. And all the people went to Gilgall, and made Saull kynge there, before the Lorde in Gilgall. And there they offered peaceofferyngꝭ before the Lorde. And there Saull and all the men of Iſraell reioyſed exceedyngly.

¶ Samuell declareth hym ſelfe to be an innocent Iudge.

CAPI. XII.

SAmuell ſayde vnto all Iſraell: beholde, A I haue herkened vnto your voyce in all that ye ſayde vnto me, & haue made you a kynge. Now therfore your kynge walketh before you. And I am olde & graye headed: & beholde, my ſonnꝭ are with you, and I haue walked before you from my chyldhode vnto this daye. He ſayd vnto them agayne: the Lorde is wytneſſe agaynſt you, & his anoynted is wytneſſe this daye, that ye haue foūde nought in my handes. And they anſwered: he is wytneſſe. And Samuel ſayd vnto the people: it is ☞ the Lorde, that made B Moſes and Aaron, & that brought youre fathers out of the lande of Egypt. D As they herde howe that the Philiſtines were fled, they folowed after them in the battayle. And ſo god helped Iſrael that daye. And the battayl cõtinued vnto Bethauen. And whyle the men of Iſraell were kepte downe with hunger that daye, Saull charged the people with an othe, ſayinge. Curſed be the man that eateth any food vntyll nyght, tyll I be auenged of myne enemyes. And ſo, noone of the people taſted any ſuſtenaunce. And al the inhabitours of the land came to a wood where hony lay vpon the grounde. And the people came in to the wood: And beholde, the honye dropped, and no man moued his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the othe. But Jonathas herde not when his father charged the people with the othe, wherfore he put forth the ende of the rod that was in his hand & dypte it in an hony combe, & put his hande ☞ to his mouth, and ☞ his eyes receyued ſight. Then anſwered one of the people and ſayde: thy father adiured the peple, ſayinge: Curſed be the man that eateth any ſuſtenaunce this day, and the people were fayntye. And had there not bene then a moche greater ſlaughter among the Philiſtines? And they layde on the Philiſtines that day, from Michmas to Aialon. And the people were excedyng faynte.

E And the people gat them to the ſpoyle, and toke ſhepe, oxen, and calues, and ſlue them on the grounde, and the people dyd eate them * with the bloode. Then men tolde Saull, ſayenge: Beholde, the people ſynne agaynſte the Lorde, in that they eate with the blood.

And he ſayde: ye haue treſpaſſed. Rowle a greate ſtone vnto me this day. & Saull ſayde agayne: Go abrode amonge the people, and byd them brynge me euery man his oxe, and euery man his ſhepe, and ſley them here, and ſynne not agaynſt the Lorde in eatynge with the blood. And the people brought euery mã his oxe in his hande by nyght, and ſlue them there. And Saull made an aulter vnto the Lorde. And that was the fyrſt aulter that he made vnto the Lorde. And Saull ſayd: let vs go downe after the Philiſtines by night and ſpoyle them, vntyll it be day in the mornyng, & let vs not leaue one man of them. And they ſayde: do what ſoeuer thou thynkeſt beſt. Then ſayd the preeſt: let vs come hyther vnto God. And Saull aſked of God: ſhall I go downe after the Philiſtines? wylte thou delyuer them in to the handes of Iſraell? But he anſwered hym not at that tyme. And Saul ſayde: Let the people come hyther out of all quarters, and knowe and ſe by whome this ſynne is chaunced this daye: for as truely as the lorde lyueth which saueth Iſrael, though it be in Jonathas my ſonne, he ſhall dye the death. But there was no man among all the people that anſwered hym.

F Then he ſayde vnto all Iſraell: be ye on one ſyde, and I and Jonathas my ſonne wyl be on the other ſyde. And the people ſayd vnto Saul: what thou thynkeſt beſt, that do. Therfore Saul ſayd vnto the Lorde God of Iſrael: Gyue a perfyte lot * (Lorde god, gyue thou the iudgement. Hovve happeneth it, that thou gyueſt thy ſeruaunt no anſvvere to daye? Yf this ſyn be in me, or in Jonathas my ſonne, ſhevv it, or yf this iniquyte be in thy people.) And Saul and Jonathas were caught, but the people ſcaped free. And Saul ſayde: caſt lottes bytwene me and Jonathas my ſonne. And Jonathas was caught. The Saul ſayd to Jonathas: tell me what thou haſt done. And Jonathas tolde hym, and ſayd: I taſted a lytell honye with the ende of the rod that was in myne hande: and lo, I muſt dye.

Saul anſwered: * God do ſo and ſo with me, thou ſhalte dye the death Jonathas. And the people ſayd vnto Saul: ſhall Jonathas dye, whiche hath ſo myghtely helped Iſrael? God forbyd. As truely as the Lorde lyueth * there ſhall not one heere of his heade fall to the grounde: For he hath wrought with God this daye. And ſo the people delyuered Jonathas, that he dyed not. And then Saul departed vp from folowynge the Philiſtines. G And the Philiſtines went to their owne place. And ſo Saul helde the kyngdom ouer Iſraell, and faught agaynſt all his enemyes on euery ſyde: agaynſt Moab: agaynſt the chyldren of Ammon: agaynſt Edom: agaynſt the kynges of Zoba, and agaynſt the Philiſtines. The ſonnes of Saul were: Jonathas, Joſui, and Melchiſua. And his two doughters were thus named: the elder was called Merob, and the yonger Michol. And the name of Saules wyfe, was Ahinoam the doughter of Ahimaas. And the name of his cheyfe captayne was Abner the ſonne of Ner, Saules vncle.

And * Cis was Saules father. And Ner

the father of Abner was the ſonne of Abiell. And there was ſore warre agaynſt the Philiſtines, al the dayes of Saul. And who ſoeuer Saul ſawe to be a ſtrong man, and mete for the warre, he toke hym vnto hym.

And Saul gathered the people togyther, and * nombred them in Telaim, two hundred thouſande foote men, and ten thouſande men of Iuda. And Saul ſayde to the Kenites: go, & departe, & get you downe from among the Amaleckites, leeſt I deſtroy you wᵗ them: for ye ſhewed mercy to all the chyldren of Iſrael, when they came out of Egypte. And ſo the Kenites departed from among the Amaleckites. Samuel ſayd: what meaneth the the bleatyng of the ſhepe in myne eares, and the noyſe of the oxen which I heare? Saul an- D ſwered: they haue brought them from the Amaleckites. For the people ſpared the beſt of the ſhepe & of the oxen, to ſacrifice them vnto the lorde thy God. And the remenaunt haue we deſtroyed vtterly. E And wherfore haſt ỹ not herkened vnto the voyce of the lorde, but haſt turned to the pray, & haſt done that which is wycked in the ſyght of the lorde? And Saul ſayd vnto Samuel: yea I haue herkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde, & haue gone the way which the lorde ſent me vnto, & haue brought Agag the kyng of Amalec, & haue vtterly deſtroyed the Amaleckites. But the peple toke the ſpoyle ſhepe, oxẽ, & the cheyfeſt of the thinges which ſhuld haue bene deſtroyed, to offre vnto the lorde thy God in Gylgal. And Samuel ſayd: hath the lord as great pleaſure in burnſacrifices & offrynges, as whẽ the voyce of the lord is obeyed? Beholde, to obey is better then ſacrifice, & to herken is better thẽ the fat of rãmes. For rebellyon is as the ſynne of * wytchcrafte, & ſtoburnes is as the wickednes of Idolatrie. Exodi.22.d Deu.18.b. Bycauſe ỹ haſt caſt awaye the worde of the lorde, therfore hath the lorde caſt away the alſo, frõ beyng kyng. Now therfore take away my ſyn & turne agayne with me, that I may worſhip the lorde. And Samuel ſayde vnto Saul: I wyl not returne with the: for ỹ haſt caſt away the worde of the lorde, & the lorde hath caſt away the, that ỹ ſhalt not be kyng ouer Iſrael. And as Samuel turned hym ſelfe to go away he caught the lap of his coote, & it rent. For mã loketh on the outwarde apperaũce, but god beholdeth the herte. Then Iſai called Abinadab, & made hym come before Samuel. And he ſayd: neyther hath the Lorde choſen this. Then Iſai made Sama come, and he ſayde, neyther yet hath the Lorde choſen hym. Agayne, Iſai made ſeuen of his ſonnes to come before Samuel. And Samuel ſayd vnto Iſai, the lord hath choſen none of theſe.

And Samuel ſayd vnto Iſai: are here al C thy chyldren? He ſayd: there is yet a lytel one behinde, that kepeth the ſhepe. And Samuel ſayd vnto Iſai: ſende and fet hym, for we wyl not ſyt downe, tyl he be come hyther. And he ſent, & brought hym in. And Samuel aroſe vp, and wente to Rama. But the ſpirite of the Lorde departed frome Saul, and an euyll ſpirite ſent of the Lorde vexed hym.

Wherfore Saul ſente meſſengers vnto Iſai, & ſayd: ſende me Dauid thy ſon, whiche is with the ſhepe. And Iſai toke an aſſe laden with breade, & a flacket of wyne, & a kyd, and ſent them by Dauid his ſon vnto Saul. And Dauid came to Saul, & ſtode before hym, & he loued hym very wel, and he was made his harnes bearer. And Saul ſent to Iſai, ſayeng: let Dauid remayne with me, for he hath founde fauoure in my ſyght. And ſo it fortuned, that when the euyll ſpirite ſente of God came vpon Saul, Dauid toke an harpe, and played with his hande, and ſo Saul was refreſſhed, and dyd amende, and the euyll ſpirite departed from hym.

And Saul and the men of Iſrael came togyther, & pytched in the oke valley, & put them ſelues in aray, to fyght agaynſt the Philiſtines. And the Philiſtines ſtode on an hyll on the one ſyde, & Iſrael ſtode on an hyll on the other ſyde, & there was a valey betwene them out of the tentſ of the Philiſtines, named Goliath * of Gath. vi. cubites & an handbredth longe, and had an helmet of braſſe vpon his heade, and a coote of mayle aboute him. And the weyght of his coote of mayle was fyue thouſand ſycles of braſſe. And he had bootes of braſſe vpon his legges, & a ſhelde of braſſe vpon his ſhoulders. And the ſhafte of his ſpeare was lyke a weuers beame. And his ſpeare head wayed. vi. hũdred ſicles of yron. And one bearyng a ſhelde went before hym.

And there came a man betwene them both,

B And he ſtode and cryed agaynſt the hooſt of Iſrael, and ſayde vnto them: why are ye come out in aray to battayle? am not I a Philiſtine, and you ſeruauntes to Saul? choſe ye a man from amonge you, and let hym come downe to me. And yf he be able to fyght with me, and to beate me, then wyll we be your ſeruauntes. But yf I can ouercome hym and beate hym, then ſhall ye be oure ſeruauntes and ſerue vs. And the Philiſtine ſayde: I defye the hooſt of Iſraell this daye, gyue me a man, that we may fyght togyther.

When Saul and all Iſrael herde thoſe wordes of the Philiſtine, they were diſcouraged, & greatly afrayde. Dauid was the ſon of an Ephrathite ☞ (of vvhom mencyon is made before) of Bethleem Iuda, named Iſai whiche had eyght ſonnes. And was an olde man in the dayes of Saul, and came to age amonge mẽ. And the. iii. eldeſt ſonnes of Iſai went, and folowed Saul to the battayle. And the names of his thre ſonnes that went to battayle, were: Eliab the eldeſt, & the nexte Abinadab, and the thyrde Sãma, & Dauid was the leaſt. And the thre eldeſt went after Saul. Dauid alſo went and departed from Saul, to fede his fathers ſhepe at Bethleem And the Philiſtine came forthe in the mornyng & euenyng, & ☞ continued. xl. dayes.

☞ And Iſai ſayde vnto Dauid his ſonne: take for thy brethre an Epha of this parched corne, & theſe ten loues, and bryng it vnto the hooſt to thy brethren. And cary theſe. x. freſhe cheſes vnto the captayne, and loke howe thy brethren fare, & ☞ fet out theyr pledge. And Saul and they, & all the men of Iſraell were in the oke valey, fyghtyng w the Philiſtines.

C And Dauid roſe vp early in the mornyng, & lefte the ſhepe with a keper, & toke and wente as Iſai had cõmaunded hym, & came within the compaſſe of the hooſt. And the hooſt went out in aray, and ſhowted in the battayle: for Iſrael & the Philiſtines had put them ſelues in aray, the one agaynſt the other. And Dauid toke downe the gere frõ hym, & put them vnder the handes of the keper of the veſſels, & ran into the hooſt, & came, & ſaluted his brethre. And as he talked w them, beholde, there ſtode a man in the myddes (Goliath the Philiſtine by name) of Gath, out of the araye of the Philiſtines & ſpake of the maner aboue reherſed, that Dauid herde it. And all the mẽ of Iſrael, when they ſawe the man, ran away from hym, and were ſore afrayde. And euery man of Iſrael ſayd: Sawe ye this man come forth? euen to reuyle Iſraell is he come.

* And to hym that beateth hym, wyll the kyng gyue great ryches, and wyll gyue hym his doughter therto: yea & make his fathers houſe free in Iſrael. And Dauid ſpake to the men that ſtode by, and ſayde. what ſhall be done to the man that beateth this Philiſtine, and taketh away the ſhame frõ Iſraell? And what is this vncircũcyſed Philiſtine, that he ſhuld reuyle the hoſt of the lyuyng god? And the people anſwered hym (after this maner,) ſayng: ſo ſhal it be done to the man, that beateth hym. And Eliab his eldeſt brother herde when he ſpake vnto the men, and Eliab was angry with Dauid, and ſayde. Joſue.15.d.

D Why cameſt thou downe hyther? & with whom haſt thou lefte thoſe fewe ſhepe in the wyldernеſſe? I know thy pryde, and the malice of thyne herte, that thou art come downe to ſe the battayle. And Dauid ſayde. And what haue I now done? is there not a worde? And he departed from hym in to the preſence of an other, and ſpake of the ſame maner, & the people anſwered hym agayne, as before. And they that herde the wordes whiche Dauid ſpake, reherſed them before Saul, which cauſed hym to be fet. And Dauid ſayde to Saul. Let no mannes herte fayle hym by cauſe of hym. Thy ſeruaunt wyll go, & fyght with yonder Philiſtine. And Saul ſayde to Dauid agayne: þ art not able to go agaynſt yonder Philiſtyne, to fyght with hym. For thou arte but a chylde, but he is a mã of war euen from his youth. Dauid anſwered vnto Saul. Thy ſeruaunt kept his fathers ſhepe and there came * a Lyon & lykewyſe a beare & toke a ſhepe out of the flocke. And I wente out after hym, & ſmote hym, & toke it out of his mouth. Iudi.14.b. hebrue.11.f

E And when he aroſe agaynſt me, I caught hym by the bearde, and ſmote hym, & ſlue hym. And ſo thy ſeruaunt ſlue the Lyon & the beare (alſo) hath thy ſeruaunt ſleyn. And truely this vncircumciſed Philiſtine ſhall be as one of them. ☞ (Novv vvyll I go and take avvay the rebuke of the people, for vvhat is this vncircũciſed Philiſtine?) ſeyng he hath rayled on the hooſt of the lyuyng god. And Dauid ſpake moreouer: the lorde that delyuered me out of the hande of the Lyon, and out of the hande of the beare, he ſhall delyuer me alſo out of the hande of the Philiſtine.

And Saul ſayd vnto Dauid: go, and the Lorde ſhall be with the. And Saul put his rayment vpon Dauid, and put an helmet of braſſe vpon his heade, ⁊ put a coote of mayle vpon hym, and gyrded Dauid with his owne ſwerde vpon his rayment. And he aſſayed to go. And bycauſe he neuer proued it, Dauid ſayde vnto Saul: I can not go with theſe, for I haue not vſed my ſelfe therto: ⁊ Dauid put them of hym, ⁊ toke his ſtaffe in his hand ⁊ choſe hym fyue ſmoth ſtones out of a broke ⁊ put them in a ſhepeherdes bag whiche he had, ⁊ in a ſlyng poke: and his ſlyng was in his hande, and he went to the Philiſtine. And the Philiſtine came and drue nere agaynſte Dauid, ⁊ the man that bare the ſhelde wente before hym. And when the Philiſtine loked aboute and ſawe Dauid, he dyſdayned hym, for he was but yonge, and well coloured, and goodly to loke vpon.

F And the Philiſtine ſayd vnto Dauid: am I a dog, that thou comeſt to me with a ſtaffe? and the Philiſtine curſed Dauid in the name of his gods. And the Philiſtine ſayd to Dauid: come to me, and I wyll gyue thy fleſſhe vnto the foules of the ayre, ⁊ to the beaſtes of the felde. The ſayd Dauid to the Philiſtine: thou comeſt to me with a ſwerde, a ſpeare ⁊ a ſhelde: But I come to the in the name of the Lorde of hooſtes, the God of the hooſt of Iſraell, whome thou haſte rayled vpon. This day ſhal the lorde delyuer the in to my hande and I ſhall ſmyte the, and take thyne heade from the, ⁊ I wyll gyue the carkaſſes of the hooſt of the Philiſtines this daye vnto the foules of the ayre, ⁊ to the beaſtes of the earth, that all they whiche be in the worlde, maye knowe, that there is a god in Iſrael. And all this congregacion ſhal knowe, that the lorde ſaueth not with ſwerde ⁊ ſpeare. For the batayle is the Lordes, ⁊ he ſhall gyue you in to our handes. And when the Philiſtine aroſe to come ⁊ drawe nygh vnto Dauid, Dauid haſted, ⁊ ran in to the batayle euen agaynſt the Philiſtine. And Dauid put his hande in his bag, and toke out a ſtone and ſlange it, ⁊ ſmote the Philyſtyne in his forhead, that the Eccle 47.a ſtone ſonke in to his foreheade, * and he fell grouelynge to the earth. And ſo Dauid ouercame the Philyſtyne with a ſlynge, ⁊ a ſtone/ G ⁊ ſmote the Philiſtyne, ⁊ ſlue hym, euen whē Dauid had no ſwerde in his hande. But Dauid ran, ⁊ ſtode vpon the Philiſtine, and toke his ſwerde, and drue it out of his ſhethe, and ſlue hym, and cut of his heade therwith. And when the Philiſtines ſawe/ that theyr champyon was deade, * they fled.

And the men of Iſraell and of Iuda aroſe and ſhouted, ⁊ folowed after the Philiſtines, vntyl they came to the valey ⁊ vnto the gates of Akaron. And the Philiſtines fell downe wounded by the way to Saaraim, euen vnto Gath, ⁊ Akaron. And the Chyldren of Iſraell returned from chaſynge after the Philiſtines and ſpoyled theyr tentes. And Dauid toke the heade of the Philiſtine, ⁊ brought it to Ieruſalem: but he put his armoure in his tente. When Saull ſawe Dauid go forth agaynſt the Philiſtine, he ſayd vnto * Abner 1.Reg.14 the captayne of the hooſt: Abner, whoſe ſon is this yong man? Abner anſwered: as truly as thy ſoule lyueth (O kyng) I can not tell. And the kyng ſayd: Enquyre thou, whoſe ſon the yonglyng is. And when Dauid was returned from the ſlaughter of the Philiſtine, Abner toke hym, ⁊ brought him before Saul with the head of the Philiſtiane in his hande And Saul ſayd to hym: whoſe ſon art thou, thou yong man? Dauid anſwered: I am the ſon of thy ſeruaunt Iſai the Bethleemite.

¶ The bonde betwene Dauid and Ionathas.
Saull goeth aboute to ſlee Dauid.

CAPI. XVIII.

A And when he had made an ende of ſpeakynge vnto Saul, the ſoule of Ionathas was knyt with the ſoule of Dauid and Ionathas loued hym as his owne ſoule. And Saul toke hym that day, and wolde let hym go no more home to his fathers houſe. And Ionathas made a couenaunt with Dauid, bycauſe he loued hym as his owne ſoule.

And Ionathas put of his owne coote that was vpon hym, and gaue it Dauid, ⁊ therto his cloke, his ſwerde, his bowe ⁊ his gyrdle. And Dauid went out whyther ſoeuer Saul ſent hym, ⁊ behaued hym ſelfe wyſelye. And Saul ſet hym ouer his men of war, ⁊ he was accepted in the ſyght of al the people, ⁊ in the ſyght of Sauls ſeruauntes. And it happened as they went, when Dauid was returned frō the ſlaughter of the Philiſtine, that women came out of all cityes of Iſrael ſyngyng and daunſyng, agaynſt kyng Saul, ⁊ with tym- B brels, w ioy, ⁊ with inſtrumentes of muſyke.

And the women anſwered one an other in theyr play, ⁊ ſayde. * Saul hath ſlayne his thouſand, and Dauid his x.M. And Saul was exceadyng wroth, ⁊ the ſayinge dyſpleaſed hym, ⁊ he ſayd: they haue aſcribed vnto Dauid ten thouſande, ⁊ to me but a thouſande, ⁊ what can he more haue, ſaue the kyngdome?

wherfore Saul loked aſyde on Dauid from that daye forwarde. And it happened on the morowe, that the euyll ſpirite ſente of God ☞ came vpon Saul, and ☞ he propheſyed in the myddes of the houſe.
C And Dauid played with his hande lyke
as at other tymes, and there was a Jauelyn in Sauls hande. And Saul toke the Jauelyn, and ſayd: J wyl nayle Dauid to the wall with it. And Dauid auoyded out of his preſence two tymes. And Saul was afrayde of Dauid, bycauſe the Lorde was with hym, ⁊ was departed from Saul. Therfore Saul put hym from hym, and made him a captayn ☞ ouer a thouſande, and ☞ he went out and in before the people. And Dauid behaued hym ſelfe wyſely in all his wayes, and the Lorde was with hym. Wherfore when Saul ſawe that he was ſo excedyng wyſe, he was afrayd of hym. But all Jſrael and Juda loued Dauid, bycauſe he went out and in before them.

And Saul ſayde to Dauid. Beholde, my D eldeſt doughter Merob, her J wyl gyue the to the Lordes battayles. For Saul thought:

myne hande ſhall not be vpon hym, but the hande of the Philiſtines. And Dauid anſwered Saule: what am J? and what is my lyfe or the kynred of my father in Jſrael, that J ſhulde be ſon in lawe to the kynge? Howbeit whē the tyme was come that Moreb Sauls doughter ſhulde haue bene gyuen to Dauid
ſhe was gyuen vnto Adriel a Meholothite, to wyfe. How beit, Michol Sauls doughter loued Dauid. And they ſhewed Saul: and the thyng dyſpleaſed hym not.
E And Saul ſayd: J wyll gyue hym her that ſhe may be a ſnare to hym, and that the hand of the Philiſtynes maye be agaynſt hym.
Wherfore Saul ſayd to Dauid: thou ſhalte
this day be my ſon in law in the other doughter.
And Saul cōmaunded his ſeruauntes to comen with Dauid ſecretly and ſay. Beholde the kyng hath a fauoure to the, and all his ſeruauntes loue the, be now therfore the kynges ſonne in lawe. And Sauls ſeruauntes ſpake thoſe wordes in the eares of Dauid.

And Dauid ſayde: ſemeth it to you a lyght thyng to be a kynges ſonne in lawe: J am a poore man and of ſmall reputacion. And the ſeruauntes brought Saule worde agayne, ſayenge: of this maner ſpake Dauid.

And Saul ſayd: this wyſe ſhall ye ſay to F Dauid: the king careth for none other dowry
but for an hundred foreſkynnes of the Philiſtines,
to be auenged of the kinges enemyes.
But Saul thought to make Dauid fal into the handes of the Philiſtines. And when his ſeruauntes tolde Dauid theſe wordes, it pleaſed
Dauid wel to be the kynges ſon in lawe.

And ☞ or the dayes were expyred, Dauid ☞ G aroſe with his men and went, and ſlue of the theyr foreſkynnes ⁊ ſatiſfied the kyng therof

gaue hym Michol his doughter to wyfe.
And Saul ſawe and vnderſtode, howe that the Lorde was with Dauid, ⁊ that Michol his doughter loued hym, ⁊ he was the more afrayde of Dauid, and Saul became alway Dauids enemy. The lordes of the Philiſtines

when they went forth, Dauid behaued hym

Saul ſpake to Jonathas his ſonne, and to A thou art, ⁊ wyll comen with my father of the,

and what ſoeuer J ſe, J wyll tell the. And Jonathas ſpake good of Dauid vnto Saul his

wherfore then wylte thou ſyn agaynſt innocent

B And Saul herkened vnto the voyce of Jonathas, and ſware: as truely as the lorde lyueth

and ſhewed hym all thoſe wordes, ⁊ brought Dauid to Saul. And he was in his preſence and Dauid wente out and foughte with the Philiſtines, ⁊ ſlue them with a great ſlaughter, and they fled from hym. And the euyll ſpirite ſent of the Lorde was vpon Saul, as he ſat in his houſe hauynge a Jauelyn in his

And Saul entended to nayle Dauid to the

And ſo Micholl * let Dauid downe thorowe a wyndowe, and he went, and fled, and was ſaued.

Joſue ii.c Actes.9.d.

C And then ſhe toke an ymage and layde it in the bed, & put a pyllowe ſtuffed with goots heere vnder the heade of it, & couered it with a cloth. And when Saul ſent meſſengers to fetch Dauid, ſhe ſayd, he is ſycke. And Saul ſent the meſſengers agayne to ſe Dauid, ſayenge: Brynge hym to me, bed and all, that I may ſley hym. And whē the meſſengers were come in: Beholde, there lay an ymage in the bed, with a pyllow of gootes heere vnder the head of it. And Saul ſayde to Micholl: why haſt thou mocked me ſo, and ſent away myne enimye that he is eſcaped? Michol anſwered Saul: For he ſayde vnto me, let me go, or els I wyll kyll the. And ſo Dauid fled, and eſcaped, and came to Samuel to Rama, & tolde hym all that Saul had done to hym. And he and Samuel went, and dwelte in ☞ Naioth.

D And one tolde Saul, ſayenge: Beholde, Dauid is at Naioth in Rama, & Saul ſente meſſengers to fet Dauid. And whē they ſaw a company ☞ of Prophetes propheſyenge, and Samuel ſtandyng faſt by them, the ſpirite of god fell vpon the meſſengers of Saul & they propheſyed to. And when it was tolde Saul, he ſent other meſſengers, and they propheſyed likewyſe. And Saul ſent meſſengers yet agayne the thyrde tyme, and they propheſyed alſo. Then went he hym ſelfe to Rama, and came to a great well that is in Sechu, & he aſked and ſayde: where are Samuell and Dauid? And one ſayde: Beholde, they be at Naioth in Rama, and he went thyther, euen to Naioth in Rama, and the ſpirite of God came vpon hym alſo, and he wente propheſyenge vntyll he came to Naioth in Rama. ¶ Dauid complayneth vnto Jonathas.

CAPI. XX.

A AND Dauid fledde from Naioth whiche is in Rama, and came, and ſayde before Jonathas: what haue I done? wherin am I fautie? what is the ſynne that I haue cōmytted before thy father, that he ſeketh my lyfe? He ſayde vnto hym: God forbyd, thou ſhalte not dye. Beholde, my father wyll do nothynge eyther great or ſmall, but that he wyll ſhewe it me. And howe ſhulde my father hyde this thynge from me? He wyll not do it. And Dauid ſware agayne, and ſayde: thy father knoweth that I haue founde ☞ grace in thyne eyes, and therfore he ſayth: Jonathas ſhall not knowe it, leſt he be ſorye. And in very dede, euen as truely as the Lorde lyueth, and as truely as thy ſoule lyueth, there is but a ſtep bytwene me & death. Then ſayd Jonathas vnto dauid: what ſoeuer thy ſoule deſyreth that I wyll do vnto the. And Dauid ſayd vnto Jonathas: Beholde, to morowe is the begynnyng ☞ of the moneth, & I ſhulde ſyt with the kynge at meate. But let me go, that I maye hyde my ſelfe in the feldes vnto the thyrde day at euen.

B If thy father ſpeake of me, then ſay: Dauid aſked leaue of me, that he myght go to Bethleem to his owne citye, for there is holden a yerely feaſt for all the kynred. And yf he ſay: it is well done, then thy ſeruaunt ſhall haue peace. But and yf he be angrye: then be ſure that wyckedneſſe is vtterly concluded of hym. And then thou ſhalte ſhewe mercye vnto thy ſeruaunt, * for thou haſt made with me thy ſeruaunt a bonde in the Lorde. Notwithſtandynge, yf there be in me any treſpaſſe, then ſlee me thy ſelfe, & brynge me not to thy father. And Jonathas anſwered: God kepe that from the ☞ (neyther is it poſſible to come to paſſe.) For yf I knowe, that wyckedneſſe were concluded of my father, to come vpon the, thynkeſt thou that I ſhulde not tel it the? Then ſayde Dauid: who ſhall tell me, yf thy father anſwere cruelly? And Jonathas ſayd vnto Dauid, come and let vs go out into the felde. And they wente out bothe of them in to the felde.

C And Jonathas ſayde vnto Dauid: The Lorde god of Iſrael loke on it, when I haue groped my fathers mynde, one tyme or other within this thre dayes, that it ſtand wel with Dauid: If I then ſende not vnto the & ſhew it the, the Lorde do ſo and ſo vnto Jonathas.

D But yf my father haue any pleaſure to do the euyll, I wyl ſhewe the alſo, and ſende the awaye that thou mayſt go in peace. And the Lorde be with the, as he hath bene with my father. And thou ſhalt performe vnto me the mercy of the Lorde, not onely whyle I lyue, but euen when I am deade, and plucke not thy mercy awaye from ☞ my houſe for euer: No not when the Lorde hath deſtroyed the enemyes of Dauid, euery one from the face of the earth. And ſo Jonathas made a bonde with the houſe of Dauid, deſyrynge that the Lorde ſhulde ſeke it out by the handſ of Dauids enemyes (yf it were broken.) And with other wordſ dyd Jonathas ſweare vnto Dauid, bycauſe he loued hym. For he loued hym, as his owne ſoule. Then ſayde Jonathas to D Dauid: to morowe is the fyrſte daye of the moone. And thou ſhalt be myſſed, bicauſe the place where thou waſt wonte to ſyt, ſhall be emptye. Therfore this daye thre dayes come downe in any wyſe vnto the place where thou dyddeſt hyde thy ſelfe, ☞ when the buſynes was in hande: euen by the ſtoone Eſell. And I wyl ſhute thre arowes by the one ſyde therof, as though I ſhot them at a marke, ⁊ wyll ſende a lad, and byd hym go ſeke the arowes. And yf I ſay vnto the lad: ſe, the arowes are on this ſyde the, brynge them: then come thou: for it is peace, ⁊ no hurte, as ſure as the lorde lyueth. But and yf I ſay vnto the lad, behold the arowes are beyonde the, then go (in peace) for the Lorde hath ſente the awaye. And as touchynge this whiche thou ⁊ I haue ſpoken: beholde ☞ the Lorde be bytwene the, ⁊ me for euer. And ſo Dauid hyd him ſelfe in the felde. And when the newe moone was come/ the kynge ſat hym downe to eate meate.

E And the kynge ſat hym downe after the olde maner, in his ſeate by the wall. And Jonathas aroſe, ⁊ Abner ſat by Sauls ſyde, and Dauids place was emptye. Neuertheleſſe Saull ſayde nothynge at all that daye. For he thought: ſome thyng hath chaunced hym, that he is not cleyne. But on the morowe which was the ſecond day of the new moone, it appened, that Dauids place was emptye agayne. And Saull ſayde vnto Jonathas his ſonne: wherfore cōmeth not the Sonne of Iſai to meate, neyther yeſterday nor to day? And Jonathas anſwered vnto Saull: Dauid aſked lycence of me, to go to Bethleem, for he ſayde, Let me go I praye the, for oure kynred doth holde an offerynge in the cytye/ ⁊ my brother hath ſent for me. And therfore yf I haue founde fauoure in thyne eyes, let me go, and ſe my brother. This is the cauſe that he cōmeth not vnto the kynges table.

F Then was Saull angrye with Jonathas, ⁊ ſayde vnto hym: Thou wycked rebell, do not I knowe, that thou haſt choſen the ſon of Iſai vnto thyne owne rebuke, ⁊ vnto the rebuke and ſhame of thy mother? For as longe as the ſon of Iſai lyueth vpō the earth, thou ſhalt not be ſtablyſhed, nor yet thy kyngdom, wherfore nowe ſende and fet hym vnto me/ * for he is the chylde of death. And Jonathas anſwered vnto Saull his father, ⁊ ſayde to hym: wherfore ſhulde he dye? What hath he done? And Saul lyfte vp a ſpeare to hyt hym/ wherby Jonathas wyſt well, that it was vtterlye determyned of his father, to ſley Dauid. And ſo Jonathas aroſe from the table in a great anger, ⁊ dyd eate no meat the ſecond daye of the moneth, for he was ſory for Dauid, bycuſe his father had done hym ſhame. On the nexte mornynge, Jonathas went out in to the felde, at the tyme appoynted with Dauid, ⁊ a lytle lad with hym. And he ſayde vnto his boye: run ⁊ ſeke out myne arowes whiche I ſhute. And as the boye ran, he ſhot an arowe beyonde hym. G And when the ladde was come to the place whyther Jonathas had ſhot the arow, Jonathas cryed after the lad, and ſayde: Is not the arowe beyonde the? And Jonathas cryed after the lad agayne/ make ſpede, ⁊ ſtande not ſtyll. And Jonathas lad gathered vp the arowes, and came to his mayſter. But the lad wyſt nothynge of the matter: Only Jonathas and Dauid wyſt it.

i. Regū. 31.b
ii. Reg. ix.

And Jonathas gaue his wepons vnto the lad that was with hym, ⁊ ſayd vnto hym: go and carye them to the towne. And as ſoone as the lad was gone, Dauid aroſe out of a place that was toward the ſouth, and fell on his face to the grounde, and worſhypped thre tymes. And they kyſſed eyther other, ⁊ wepte togyther ſo longe, tyll Dauid exceded in wepynge. And Jonathas ſayd to Dauid: go in peace. And the thyngſ which we haue ſworne both of vs in the name of the lorde, ſayenge: the Lorde be bytwene the ⁊ me, and bytwene thy ſeed ⁊ myne, let them ſtand for euer. And he roſe and departed. A Then came Dauid to Nob to Ahimelech the preeſt: And Ahimelech was aſtonied at the ſodayne cōmynge of Dauid, and ſayde vnto hym: Why arte thou alone, ⁊ no man with the? A DAuid therfoꝛe departed thence, ⁊ eſca-

Then Dauid aſked the lorde agayne
And the lorde anſwered hym, ⁊ ſayde: Aryſe,

the Philiſtines, ⁊ droue awaye theyr cattell/

ſo Dauid ſaued the enhabyters of Keilah.

B And it chaunced, when Abiathar the ſon

And it was tolde Saul, that Dauid was come wyll the men of Keilah delyuer me, ⁊ the men that are with me, into the hand of Saul?

and the lorde ſayde: they wyll betraye you.
Then Dauid and his men whiche were vpon
a ſixe hũdred, aroſe ⁊ departed out of Keilah,

Saull, that Dauid was fled from Keilah, ⁊
he let the iourney alone, Dauid abode in the wylderneſſe in ſtronge holdes, ⁊ remayned
in a mountayne in the wylderneſſe of Ziph.

And Saull ſought hym euery daye, but C god delyuered hym not into his hande. And Dauid ſawe that Saull was come out, to ſeke his lyfe. And Dauid was in the wylderneſſe of Ziph in a thycket. And Jonathas Sauls

conforted his hand in god, ⁊ ſayd vnto hym:
feare not, for the hande of Saull my father

lorde. And Dauid taryed ſtyll in the thicket, ⁊ Jonathas went to his houſe. Then came the Ziphites to Saull, to Gibea, ſayenge: Dothe

on the ryght ſyde of the wylderneſſe?
Nowe therfore kynge, yͧ mayeſt come downe

Se therfore, and knowe all the lurkynge D

Saull. But Dauid ⁊ his men were in the wylderneſſe of Maon, in the playne that is/on the ryght hande of Ieſymon. Saull alſo and his men went to ſeke: ⁊ they tolde Dauid Wherfore he went vnto a Rocke, and abode

in the wyldernеſſe of Maon. And when Saul herde that, he folowed after Dauid in the wyldernеſſe of Maon. And Saull and his men went on the one ſyde of the mountayne, and Dauid and his men on the other ſyde. And Dauid toke thought, howe to get from Saull. Foꝛ Saull ⁊ his men, cōpaſſed Dauid and his men, rounde aboute, to take them. But there came a meſſenger to Saull, ſayenge: Haſt the, and come, foꝛ the Philiſtines are come in to the lande. wherfoꝛe, Saul returned from perſecutyng Dauid, ⁊ went agaynſt the Philiſtines. And therfoꝛe is it, that they called the place: The rocke of ſeparacion. And Dauid went thence, ⁊ dwelte in ſtronge holdes at Engadi.

¶ Dauid fleeth into Engadi, and there hydeth hym in a caue. Saull cometh in thyther to do his eaſemente.

CAPI. XXIIII.

A When Saull was come agayne from folowynge after the Philiſtines, it foꝛtuned, that there were, which tolde hym, ſayenge: beholde, Dauid is in the wyldernеſſe of Engadi. Then Saul toke .iii. And Saull went in to a caue ☞ to couer his feete. And Dauid ⁊ his men remayned in the inwarde partes of the caue. And the men of Dauid ſayde vnto hym: ſe, the day is come, of whiche the Loꝛde ſayde vnto the: Beholde, I wyll delyuer thy enemyes in to thyne hande, ⁊ thou ſhalte do to hym as it ſhal ſeme good in thy ſyght. Then Dauid aroſe and cut of a lap of Sauls garment pꝛyuelye. And immediatly ☞ Dauids herte ſmote hym bycauſe he had cut of a lap of Sauls garment.

B And he ſayd vnto his men, the loꝛde kepe me from doyng that thyng vnto my mayſter the loꝛdes anoynted, to lay myne hande vpon hym, ſeynge he is the anoynted of the Loꝛde. ✿ (For as truely as the lorde lyueth, excepte the lorde ſmyte hym, or excepte his day come, or yf he go not doune to vvar and peryſſhe: the lorde be mercyfull vnto me, that I lay not my hande vpon the Lordes anoynted.) And ſo Dauid kepte of his ſeruauntes with theſe woꝛdes, ⁊ ſuffered them not to ryſe agaynſt Saull. But Saull roſe vp out of the caue and went awaye, Dauid alſo aroſe ⁊ went out of the caue, ⁊ cryed after Saull, ſayinge: My loꝛde kynge. And when Saull loked behynde hym, Dauid ſtowped to the earth, and bowed hym ſelfe, ⁊ ſayde to Saull: wherfoꝛe geueſt thou an eare to mennes woꝛdes, that ſaye, Dauid C ſeketh euyll agaynſt the? Beholde, this daye thyne eyes haue ſene, howe that the loꝛde delyuered the thys daye into myne hande in the caue. And ſome bad me kyll the, but I had cōpaſſyon on the, ⁊ ſayde: I wyll not laye my handes on my mayſter, foꝛ he is the Loꝛdes anoynted. And moꝛeouer, my father, beholde ⁊ ſe yet the lap of thy garment in my hande: in as moche as I kylled the not, when I cut of the lap of thy garment. D When Dauid had made an ende of ſpekynge theſe woꝛdes to Saull, Saull ſayde: * is this thy voyce my ſon Dauid? and Saul lyfte vp his voyce, ⁊ wept, ⁊ ſayde to Dauid: thou arte moꝛe ryghtous then I, foꝛ yͧ haſt rewarded me, wͭ good, where as I haue rewarded the with euyl. And thou haſt ſhewed this daye, howe that yͧ haſt delte louynglye with me, foꝛ as moche as when the Loꝛde had locked me in thyne handes, thou kylleſt me not. Foꝛ who ſhal fynde his enemye, ⁊ let him departe into a good way? wherfoꝛe the loꝛde reward the with good, foꝛ that yͧ haſt done vnto me this day. And now behold, I wote well that thou ſhalt be kyng, ⁊ that the kyngdom of Iſraell ſhal be ſtablyſſhed in thyne hand. CAPI. XXV.

A AND * Samuell dyed, and all the Iſraelites gathered togyther ⁊ lamented hym, ⁊ buryed hym in his owne houſe at Rama. And Dauid aroſe, and gat hym to the wyldernеſſe of Pharan. And there was a man in Maon whoſe poſſeſſyon was in Carmell, ⁊ the man was excedyng myghtye, and had .iii. M. ſhepe, ⁊ a thouſand gootes. And he was ſhearynge his ſhepe in Carmell. then take my bꝛeade, my water ⁊ my fleſſhe,

C And ſo Dauids ſeruauntes turned theyꝛ

And they gyꝛded euery man his ſwerde a-

But one of the laddes tolde Abigaill Na-

And yet the men are very good vnto vs, and

and bleſſyd arte thou, whiche haſt kepte me this day from cõmyng to ſhed blood, ⁊ from auengyng my ſelfe with myne owne hande.
For in very dede, as ſure as the Lorde God of Iſraell lyueth, which hath kepte me backe
from hurtynge the, excepte thou haddeſt haſted and met me, thynkeſt thou, there had ben lefte vnto Naball by the dawnynge of the daye, a pyſſer agaynſt the wall? And ſo Dauid receyued of her hande, that whiche ſhe had brought hym, and ſayde to her: go vp in peace to thyne houſe. Behold, I haue obeyed thy voyce, and haue accepted thy perſon.
And Abigaill came to Naball: and beholde/he helde a feaſt in his houſe, lyke the feaſt of a kyng, and Nabals herte was mery within hym, for he was very dronken. Wherfore ſhe G tolde hym nothynge, neyther leſſe nor more/vntyll the morowe day. But in the mornyng when the wyne was gone out of Naball, his wyfe tolde hym theſe wordes, and his herte dyed within hym, and he became as a ſtone:
and vpon a ten dayes after, the Lorde ſmote Nabal, that he dyed. And when Dauid herde that Naball was deade, he ſayde: Bleſſyd be the Lorde that hath iudged the cauſe of my rebuke of the hande of Nabal, and hath kept his ſeruaunt from euyll, and hath recompenſed
the wyckedneſſe of Naball vpõ his owne heade. And Dauid ſent to cõmen with Abigaill, to the entent to take her to his wyfe.

And when the ſeruauntes of Dauid were come to Abigaill to Carmell, they ſpake vnto her, ſayenge: Dauid ſent vs vnto the, to take the to his wyfe. And ſhe aroſe, ⁊ bowed her ſelfe on her face to the arth, and ſayd: Beholde, let thy handmayde be a ſeruaunte, to waſhe the feete of the ſeruaũtes of my lorde.
And Abigaill haſted, ⁊ aroſe, and gat her vp vpon an aſſe, with fyue damſels of hers that went at her feete, and ſhe went after the meſſengers of Dauid/ and became his wyfe. Dauid alſo toke Ahinoam of Ieſrahell, ⁊ they
ii. Reg. iii. c were both his wyues. But Saull gaue * Michall his doughter Dauids wyfe to Phalti
the ſon of Lais whiche was of Gallim.

¶ Saull ſlepeth in his tent, and Dauid taketh awaye his ſpeare/ and a cruſe of water that ſtode at his heade.

CAPI. XXVI.

A The Ziphites came vnto Saull to Gibea, ſayenge: Doth not Dauid hyde him
ſelfe in the hyll of Hachila which is before Ieſimon? Saull aroſe, and went downe to the wyldernеſſe of Ziph, hauynge .iii. M.
choſen men of Iſraell with hym, for to ſeke Dauid in the wyldernеſſe of Ziph. And Saull pytched in the hyll of Hachila whiche lyeth before Ieſimon, by the waye ſyde. But Dauid dwelte in the wyldernеſſe. And he ſawe that Saull came after hym in to the wyldernеſſe.
Dauid therfore ſent out ſpyes, and vnderſtode
that Saull was come in very dede.
And Dauid aroſe ⁊ came to the place, where Saull had pytched, and Dauid behelde the place, where Saull laye, and Abner the ſon of Ner whiche was his cheyfe capteyne. Saul laye within, and the people, and the hooſte rounde aboute hym. Then anſwered Dauid and ſpake to Ahimelech the Hethite, and to Abiſai the ſon of Zaruia, ⁊ brother to Ioab, ſayenge: who wyll go downe ẘ me to Saull to the hooſte? And Abiſai ſayde: I wyll go downe with the. And ſo Dauid and Abiſai came downe to the people by nyght.

And beholde, Saull laye ſlepyng within B
the hooſt, ⁊ his ſpeare ſtacke in the grounde
at his heade. But Abner and the people laye rounde aboute hym. Then ſayde Abiſai to Dauid: God hath delyuered thyne enemye in to thyne hand this day. Now therfore, let me ſmyte hym once with my ſpeare to the earth,
and I wyll not ſmyte hym the ſeconde tyme.
And Dauid ſayd to Abiſai: deſtroye hym not,
For who can laye his hande on the Lordes anoynted, ⁊ be gyltleſſe? And Dauid ſayd furthermore:
as ſure as the lorde lyueth, the lord
ſhall ſmyte hym or his day ſhal come to dye, or he ſhall deſcende in to battayle, and there periſh. The lorde kepe me from layinge myne hande vpon the Lordes anoynted. But take thou nowe the Speare that is at his heade, and the cruſe of water, and let vs go. And ſo Dauid toke the ſpeare, and the cruſe of water from Sauls heade, and they gat them awaye,
and no man ſawe it, or awaked.

For they were all a ſlepe, bycauſe the lorde C had ſent a ſlomber vpon them. Then Dauid went ouer to the other ſyde, and ſtode on the top of an hyll a far of (a greate ſpace beynge bytwene them) And Dauid cryed to the peple, and to Abner the ſon of Ner, ſayenge: Heareſt thou not Abner? Abner anſwerd, ⁊ ſayd:
What arte thou that ☞ cryeſt to the kynge?
and Dauid ſayde to Abner: arte not thou a D man: and who is lyke the in Iſraell? Wherfore then haſt thou not kepte thy Lorde the kynge? For there came one of the folke in, to deſtroye the kynge thy Lorde. It is not good that thou haſt done. As truly as the lorde lyueth,
* ye are worthy to dye, bycauſe ye haue
not kepte your mayſter, the lordes anoynted.
And nowe ſe where the kynges ſpeare is, and the cruſe of water, that was at his heade.

An

And Saull knewe Dauids voyce, & ſayd: Regũ.24.b * is this thy voyce my ſonne Dauid? and Dauid ſayde: it is my voyce, my lorde, O kynge. And he ſayde: wherfore doth my Lorde thus perſecute his ſeruaunt? for what haue I done? or what euyll is in myne hande? Nowe therfore let my Lorde the kynge heare the wordꝭ D of his ſeruaunt. Yf the lorde haue ſtyrred the vp agaynſt me, let hym ſmell the ſauoure of a ſacrifyce. But & yf they be the Chyldren of men, curſed are they before the lorde. For they haue caſt me out this daye from abydyng in the enheritaunce of the lorde, ſayenge: hence, & go ſerue other goddꝭ. Now therfore let not my bloode fall to the earth before the face of the lorde. For the kyng of Iſraell is come out to hunt a flee, as when one doth hunt a partrege in the mountaynes. Then ſayd Saul: I haue ſynned, come agayne my ſon Dauid/ for I wyll do the no more harme, bycauſe my ſoule was precyous in thyne eyes this daye, Beholde, I haue playde the foole, and haue erred excedyngly. And Dauid anſwered and ſayde: Beholde, the kynges ſpeare, let one of the yonge men come ouer, & fet it. The lorde rewarde euery man accordynge to his ryghtuouſneſſe ✠ and fayth: for the lorde delyuered the into my hande this day, but I wolde not lay myne hande vpon the lordes anoynted. And beholde, lyke as thy lyfe was moche ſet by this daye in myne eyes: ſo be my lyfe ſet by in the eyes of the lorde, that he delyuer me out of all tribulacyon. Then Saull ſayd to Dauid: Bleſſed arte thou my ſonne Dauid ✠ for ✠ thou ſhalt be a doer and preuayle. And ſo Dauid went his waye, and Saull turned to his place agayne.

¶ Dauid fleeth to Achis kynge of Geth.

CAPI. XXVII.

A AND Dauid ſayde in his herte: I ſhall peryſhe one daye or other by the hande of Saull. Therfore is there nothynge better for me, then to flee and ſaue my ſelfe in the lande of the Philiſtines, and Saull ſhall ceaſe & ſeke me no more in all the cooſtes of Iſraell, & ſo ſhall I eſcape out of his hande. And Dauid aroſe, & he and the ſyxe hundred men that were wͭ hym, went vnto Achis, the ſon of Maoch, kynge of Geth. And Dauid dwelt with Achis at Geth, both he & his men/ euery man wͭ his houſholde, & Dauid with his two wyues: Ahinoam the Iezrahelit, and B Abigaill Nabals wyfe of Carmell. And it was tolde Saul, that Dauid was fled to Geth, & he ſought no more for hym. And Dauid ſayde vnto Achis: Yf I haue nowe founde grace in thyne eyes, let them gyue me a place in ſome towne in the feldꝭ, that I may dwell there. For why ſhulde thy ſeruaunt dwell in the head citie of the kingdom with the? Then Achis gaue hym Zikleg the ſame daye, for whiche cauſe Zikleg perteyneth vnto the kyngꝭ of Iuda vnto this daye. And the tyme that Dauid dwelt in the countrey of the Philiſtines, was foure monethes, and certeyne C dayes. And Dauid & his men went vp, and ran vpon the Geſurites, the Gerzites & the Amalechites: For thoſe nacions were from the begynnyng the enhabytours of the land, as men go to Sur, vnto the lande of Egypt. And Dauid ſmote the lande, & lefte neyther man nor woman alyue, and droue awaye the ſhepe, the oxen, the aſſes, camels, and clothes & returned, & came to Achis. And Achis ſayd where haue ye ben a rouynge this daye? And Dauid anſwered: Towarde the ſouth of Iuda, & towarde the ſouth of the Iezrahelites/ D & towarde the ſouth of the ☞ Kenites. And Dauid ſaued neyther man nor woman alyue nor ſuffered them to come to Geth, for feare (ſayeth he) leſt they ſhulde tell on vs ſayinge: ſo dyd Dauid, and ſo wyll be his maner all the whyle he dwelleth in the countrey of the Philiſtines. And Achis byleued Dauid, ſayenge: He abhorreth his people of Iſraell, and therfore he ſhall be my ſeruaunt for euer.

¶ The Philiſtines moue warre agaynſt Saull, whiche ſeketh after an enchaunter.

CAPI. XXVIII.

A AND it chaunced in thoſe dayes, that the Philiſtines gathered theyr hooſt togyther to war, to fyght with Iſraell. And Achis ſayde to Dauid: Be ſure, thou ſhalt go out with me to the battayle, thou & the men that are wͭ the. And Dauid ſayd to Achis: thē thou ſhalt knowe, what thy ſeruaunt can do. And Achis ſayde agayne to Dauid: Then I wyll make the keper of my heade for euer. 1.Regũ.25.a * Samuell was then dead, & all Iſraell had lamented hym, and buryed hym in Rama his owne citye. Exodi.22.c * And Saull had put the women that had ſpirytes of propheſye, & the Sothſayers out of the lande. And the Philiſtines gathered togyther, & came, & pytched in Sunem. And Saul gathered all Iſrael togyther, & they pytched in Gilboa: And when Saull ſawe the hooſte of the Philiſtines, he was afrayde, & his herte was ſore aſtonyed. And when Saull aſked counſeyle of the Lorde, the lord anſwered hym not, neyther by dreames/ nor ☞ by Urim, nor yet by prophetes. ☞ Then ſayd Saull vnto his ſeruauntes, Leuit.19.f * ſeke me a woman that hath a ſpiryte of propheſye, that I may go to her and aſke of her. And his ſeruauntes ſayde to hym: Beholde, there is a woman that hath a ſpiryte of propheſye at Endor. And Saull chaunged hym ſelfe, and put on other rayment, and then went he and two men with hym. And they came to the woman by nyght. B And he ſayde: propheſye vnto me by the Spiryte, and brynge me hym vp whome I ſhall name vnto the. And the woman ſayd vnto hym: Beholde, thou knoweſt what Saul hath done, how he hath deſtroyed the women, that had propheſyenge ſpiryte, and the Sorcerers out of the lande. Wherfore then ſekeſt thou an occaſion agaynſt my ſoule, that he may kyll me?

And Saull ſware to her by the lorde, ſaynge: As ſurely as the Lorde lyueth, there ſhall no harme chaūce the for this thyng. Then ſayd the woman: whome ſhall I fetche vp vnto the? He anſwered: Brynge me vp Samuell. When the woman ſawe Samuell, ſhe cryed with a lowde voyce, & ſpake to Saull, ſaynge: why haſt thou deceyued me? for yͧ arte Saull. And the kynge ſayd vnto her, be not afrayd: What ſeeſt thou? The woman ſayde vnto ☞ Saull: ☞ I ſe goddes aſcendyng vp out of the earth. He ſayd vnto her agayne: what faſſion is he of? She anſwered: there cōmeth vp an olde man with a mantell vpon hym.

C ☞ And Saull perceyued that it was ☞ Samuell, and he ſtouped with his face to the ground, and bowed hym ſelfe. And Samuel ſayde to Saull, why haſt thou vnquieted me, to make me be brought vp? Saul anſwered: I am ſore encōbred. For the Philiſtins make war agaynſt me and god is departed from me & anſwereth me no more, neyther by prophetes, neyther by dreames. And therfore I haue called the, that yͧ mayeſt tell me, what I ſhall do. Then ſayd Samuell: wherfore doeſt thou aſke of me, whyle the Lorde is gone frō the, and is become thyne enemye? Truly the ☞ lorde hath done for hym ſelfe, euen as ☞ he i.Reg.xv.f. ſpake by my hande. * For the lorde hath rent the kyngdome out of thyne hande, & gyuen it to thy neyghbour Dauid. Bycauſe thou obeyedſt not the voyce of the Lorde, nor executedſt his fearce wrath vpon the Amalechites, therfore hath the lord done this vnto the this daye. And moreouer, the Lorde wyll delyuer Iſraell with the, into the handes of the i.Reg.xxxi.a. Philiſtines. * To morowe ſhalte thou & thy ſonnes be with me, & the lorde ſhall gyue the hooſt of Iſraell in to the handes of the Philiſtines. Then Saull fell ſtreyght waye flat on the earth as longe as he was, & was ſore a drede, bycauſe of the wordes of Samuell.

And there was no ſtrength in hym, for he had eaten no bread al the day & the nyght before. D And the woman came vnto Saull, and ſawe that he was ſore troubled, & ſayde vnto hym: Se, thyne handmayde hath obeyed thy ☞ Iudi.xii.a. i.Reg.xix.a. Job.xiii.c. voyce, & * ☞ haue put my ſoule in my hand, and haue harkened vnto thy wordes, whiche thou ſaydeſt vnto me. Nowe therfore harken thou alſo vnto the voyce of thyne handmayd & let me ſet a morſell of bread before the, that thou mayſt eate & get the ſtrength, & then go on thy iourneye. He refuſed, & ſayde: I wyll not eate. But his ſeruaūtes & the woman togyther cōpelled hym, and he herkened vnto theyr voyce. And ſo he aroſe from the earth, and ſat hym on a bed. The woman had a fat calfe in the houſe, & ſhe haſted & kylled it, and toke floure & kneded it, & dyd bake ſwete cakes therof, & brought them before Saull & before his ſeruaūtes. And whē they had eaten, they ſtode vp, and went awaye the ſame nyght.

CAPI. XXIX.

A The Philiſtines were gathered togyther with all theyr armyes vnto Aphec: And the Iſraelites pytched in Ain, which is in Ieſrahell. And the lordes of the Philiſtines went forth wt the hundredes & thouſandes. But Dauid, & his men came behynde with Achis. Then ſayde the lordes of the Philiſtines, what are yonder Hebrues? Achis ſayde vnto the Lordes of the Philiſtines: Is not this Dauid the ſeruaunt of Saull the kynge ☞ of Iſraell, whiche hath ben with me ☞ theſe dayes or yeares? I haue founde no faute in hym, ſence he fled vnto me vnto this daye.

B And the Lordes of the Philiſtines were wroth with hym, & ſayde vnto hym: Make this felowe returne, that he maye go agayne to his place which thou haſt appoynted hym: and let hym not go downe wt vs to battayle, leeſt in the battayle he be an aduerſary to vs. For wherwith coulde he better obteyne the fauour of his mayſter, then with the heades of theſe men? Is not this Dauid, to whom they i.Reg.xviii. and.xxi. ſange in daūſes: * Saull ſlewe his thouſand, & Dauid his .x. M? Then Achis called Dauid, & ſayde vnto hym: As ſure as the Lorde lyueth, thou haſt ben honeſt and good in my ſyght, when thou wenteſt out & in with me in the hooſt: neyther haue I founde euyll with the, ſence thou cameſt to me vnto this daye: Neuertheleſſe the Lordes of the Philiſtines C fauour the not: Wherfore nowe returne, and go in peace, that thou dyſpleaſe not the lordes of the Philiſtines. And Dauid ſayd vnto Achis: And what haue I done? what haſt thou founde in thy ſeruaunt, as longe as I haue bene with the vnto this day, that I maye not go fyght agaynſt the enmyes of my lorde the kyng? Achis anſwered & ſayde to Dauid: I knowe that thou arte good, & art in my ſight as an angell of God. Notwithſtandynge the lordes of the Philiſtines haue ſayd. Let him not go vp with vs to battayl. Wherfore now aryſe vp early in the mornyng with thy mayſters ſeruauntes that are come to the: & when ye be vp early (as ſoone as ye haue lyght) departe. And ſo Dauid & his men aroſe vp early to departe in the mornyng, and to returne in to the lande of the Philiſtines. And the Philiſtines went vp to Iezrahel.

CAPI. XXX.

A But when Dauid & his men were come to Ziklag the thyrde daye, the Amalekites had ruſſhed in vpõ the ſouth, & vpon Ziklag, & had ſmytten Ziklag, & burnt it wͭ fyre, & had taken the women (that were therin) pryſoners, both ſmall and great: but ſlue not a man, ſaue caryed them with them, and went theyr wayes. So Dauid and his men came to the citie: & beholde, it was burnt with fyre, and theyr wyues, theyr ſonnes and theyr doughters were caryed away. Then Dauid & the people that was with hym, lyft vp theyr voyces & wepte, vntyll they coulde wepe no more. And Dauids two wyues were taken B priſoners alſo: Ahinoam the Iezraelite, and Abigail the wyfe of Nabal the Carmelite. And Dauid was in a ſhrewde combraunce: for the people entended to ſtone hym, bycauſe the hertz of al the people were vexed for theyr ſonnes & theyr doughters. But Dauid toke a good courage to hym in the lorde his God, and *ſayd to Abiathar the preeſt Ahimelechs ſonne: I pray the, bryng me the Ephod. And Abiathar brought the Ephod to Dauid. And Dauid asked counſayle at the lorde, ſayinge: ſhall I folow after this companye? & ſhall I ouertake them? And he anſwered hym: folow for thou ſhalte ouertake them, & recouer the praye. So Dauid & the .vi. C. men that were with hym, went and came to the ryuer Beſor, where a parte of them abode. But Dauid and iiii. C. men folowed. For .ii. C. abode behynde beynge to wery to go ouer the ryuer Beſor.

Regi.22.b

C And they founde an Egyptian in the felde, & brought hym to Dauid * & gaue hym breade to eate, and water to drynke, and gaue hym a fewe fygges & two cluſters of reaſens. And when he had eaten, his ſpirite came agayne to hym: for he had eaten no bread, nor dronke no water in thre dayes and thre nyghtes.

[illegible]

And Dauid ſayd vnto hym: to whom belongeſt thou? and whence arte thou? he ſayd: D I am a yonge man of Egypte and ſeruaunt to an Amalekite: and my mayſter left me behynde, bycauſe it is thre dayes agone, that I fell ſycke: we came a rouynge vpon the ſouth of Chretus, and agaynſt Iuda, and towarde the ſouth of Caleb. And we burnt Ziklag wͭ fyre. And Dauid ſayd vnto hym: Canſt thou brynge me to this companye? And he ſayde: Sweare vnto me by god, that thou wylte neyther kyll me, nor delyuer me in to the handes of my mayſter, and I wyll brynge the to the companye. And when he had brought hym thyther: Beholde, they laye ſcattered abrode vpon the earthe, eatyng & drynkyng, & daunſyng, bycauſe of the plenteous & great praye that they had caried away out of the lande of the Philiſtines, & out of the lande of Iuda. E

And Dauid layd vpon them from the euen vntyll the twylyght on the morowe: ſo that there eſcaped not a man of them, ſaue foure hundred yong men whiche rode away vpon camels, & fled. And Dauid recouered all that the Amalekites had caryed awaye, & Dauid reſcued his two wyues: ſo that there was no perſon of them lackyng, ſmall or great, ſonne or doughter, or of the ſpoyle of all that they had taken awaye, Dauid recouered them all agayne. And Dauid toke all the ſhepe, & the oxen. And they draue them before his cattel, and ſayde: this is Dauids pray. And Dauid came to the .ii. C. men, that were to werye for to folowe Dauid, whom they had made alſo to abyde at the ryuer Beſor. And they came to mete Dauid, and the people that were with hym. And when Dauid came to the people, he ſaluted them. F Then anſwered all the wycked & the vnthryftes (of the men that went with Dauid) & ſayd: Bycauſe they went not wͭ vs, therfore wyll we gyue them none of the pray, that we haue recouered. But let euery man take his wyfe & his chyldren. Thoſe let them cary away, and be walkyng. Then ſayde Dauid: ye ſhal not do ſo (my brethren) with that whiche the Lorde hath gyuen vs, and hath preſerued vs, & delyuered the companye that came agaynſt vs, into our handes. For who ſhulde herken vnto you in this matter? * But as his parte is that goth downe and fyghteth, ſo ſhal his parte be, that taryeth by the ſtuffe that it may be parted alyke. And ſo from that day forwarde, was that made a ſtatute & lawe in Iſrael vntyl this daye. When Dauid therfore came to Ziklag, he ſent the (gyftes) G of the pray vnto the elders of Iuda & to his frendes, ſaynge: ſe, there is a bleſſyng for you, of the ſpoyle of the enemyes of the lorde.

CAPI. Primo.

After the death of Saull, A when Dauid was returned from the * ſlaughter of the Amalechites, 1.Regu ⁊ had bene two dayes in Ziklag. Beholde, there came a mā the thyrde day out of the hooſt from Saul, with his clothes rent, and earth vpon his head. And when he came to Dauid, he fell to the earthe and dyd obeyſaunce. Dauid ſayde vnto hym: whence comeſt thou? He ſayde vnto hym: Out of the hooſt of Iſraell am I eſcaped. And Dauid ſayde vnto hym. And what is chaunced? tell me. He ſayde: the people is fled from the battayle: ⁊ many of the people are ouerthrowen, and deade: And Saull and Jonathas his ſonne are deade alſo.

And Dauid ſayd vnto the yong man that B tolde hym theſe thynges. How knoweſt thou that Saul and Jonathas his ſonne be deade? The yong man that tolde hym anſwered: I came by chaunce to mount Gilboa: And beholde, Saul leaned vpon his ſpeare. For the charettes and companyes of horſe men folowed harde after hym. And when he loked backe he ſawe me, and called me. And I anſwered: Here am I. And he ſayde vnto me: What arte thou? I anſwered hym: I am an Amelekite. He anſwered vnto me agayne. Stand vpon me, and ſlee me: For anguyſhe is come vpon me, though my lyfe be yet all in me. And ſo I ſtode vpon hym, ⁊ ſlue hym: for I was ſure that he coulde not lyue, ☞ after D that he had fallen. And I toke the crowne that was vpon his heade, and the Bracelet that was on his arme, ⁊ haue brought them hyther vnto my Lorde. Then Dauid toke holde on his clothes, * and rent them, and ſo [illegible] dyd al the men that were with hym. And they mourned, and wepte, ⁊ faſted vntyll euen, for Saul and Jonathas his ſon, ⁊ for the people of the lorde, ⁊ for the houſe of Iſrael, bycauſe they were ouerthrowen with the ſwerde.

And Dauid ſayd vnto the yong man that C brought hym theſe tydynges: Whence arte thou? And he anſwered, I am the ſon of an alyaunt an Amalechite. And Dauid ſayd vnto hym: How is it that thou waſt not afrayde to lay thyne hande on the Lordes anoynted, to deſtroye hym.

And Dauid called one of his yonge men and ſayde: Go to, ⁊ run vpon hym. And he ſmote hym: that he dyed: the ſayd Dauid vnto hym. Thy blood be vpon thyne owne heade. * For thyne owne mouth hath teſtified agaynſt the ſayinge: I haue ſleyne the Lordes anoynted.

And Dauid mourned with this lamentacion ouer Saul and ouer Jonathas his ſon, ⁊ bad teache the chyldren of Iſrael the ☞ vſe of the bowe. And beholde, it is wrytten in the boke of the ryghteous. ✠ (And he ſayde. Conſyder, O Iſraell, theſe that be deade and vvounded vpon thy hygh hylles.) ☞ O noble Iſrael the wounded are ſleyne vpon thy hylles: Oh howe are the myghtye ouerthrowen. * Tell it not in Gath: nor publyſſhe it in the ſtreetes of Aſkalon: leſt the doughters of the Philiſtines reioyſe, and leſt the doughters of the vncircumciſed triumph. Ye mountaynes of Gilboa, vpon you be neyther dewe nor rayne, ☞ not vpon theſe feldes of offerynges. For there the ſhelde of the myghtie is caſt downe: the ſhelde of Saull, as thoughe he had not bene anoynted with oyle. The bow of Jonathas and the ſwerde of Saul turned neuer backe agayne emptie, from the blood of the ſleyne, and from the fat of the myghtye warryours. Saul and Jonathas were louely ⁊ pleaſaūt in theyr lyues, and in theyr deathes they were not deuyded. They were ſwyfter then Egles, and ſtronger then Lyons.

Ye doughters of Iſrael, wepe ouer Saull, whiche clothed you in purple with pleaſures and hanged ornamentes of golde vpon your apparell. Howe were the myghtye ſleyne in battayle? Jonathas is deade on the hygh hylles. Wo is me for the (my brother Jonathas) verye kynde haſt thou bene vnto me. Thy loue to me was wonderful, paſſyng the loue of women. ✠ (As a mother loueth her only chylde, euen ſo dyd I loue the.) Oh howe are the myghtye ouerthrowen? and the weapons of warre deſtroyed.

¶ Dauid is anoynted in Hebron. The battayle of the ſeruauntes of Dauid and Iſboſeth.

CAPI. II.

After this, it fortuned, that Dauid * aſked counſayle at the Lorde, ſayinge: ſhal I go vp into any of the cities of Juda? And the Lorde ſayde vnto hym: go. And Dauid ſayde agayne: Whyther ſhall I go? He anſwered: Unto Hebron. And ſo Dauid wente thyther with his two wyues, Ahinoam the Jeſraelit, ⁊ Abigail Nabals wyfe the Carmelite. And the mē that were with hym, dyd Dauid cary vp alſo, euery man wt his houſholde And they dwelte in the townes of Hebron.

And the men of Juda came, and there they anoynted Dauid kyng, ouer the houſe of Juda. And they tolde Dauid, ſaynge: It is * the men of Jabes in Gilead that buryed Saul. i.Regū.31.d

B And Dauid ſent meſſengers vnto the men of Jabes in Gilead, ⁊ ſayde vnto them: bleſſed are ye vnto the lorde, that ye haue ſhewed ſuche kyndneſſe vnto your Lorde Saul, and haue buryed hym. And now the Lorde ſhew mercye and truthe vnto you. And I wyll do you alſo ſuche kyndneſſe as ye haue done in this thynge. Therfore nowe let your handes be ſtrong, ⁊ play ye the mē: For your mayſter Saul is dead. And they that are of the houſe of Juda, haue anoynted me kyng ouer them.

C But Abner the ſonne of Ner that was captayne of Sauls hooſt, toke Iſboſeth the ſon of Saul, and brought hym to Mahanaim, and made hym kynge ouer Gilead, and ouer the Aſſurites, and ouer Jeſrahel: Ephraim, Ben Jamin and ☞ ouer all Iſrael. And Iſboſeth Sauls ſonne was fourtye yere olde, when he began to reygne ouer Iſraell, and reygned two yere. But the houſe of Juda folowed Dauid. * And the tyme whiche Dauid reygned in Hebron ouer the houſe of Juda, was .vii. yere and ſyxe monethes. ii.Reg.v.g And Abner the ſonne of Ner and the ſeruauntes of Iſboſeth the ſonne of Saul wente out of Mahanaim, to Gibeon. And Joab the ſon of Zaruia and the ſeruauntes of Dauid went out, and met them by the poole of Gibeon. And they ſat downe, the one on the one ſyde of the poole, and the other on the other ſyde. And Abner ſayd to Joab: let the yong men aryſe, and ☞ play before vs. And Joab ſayde: Let them aryſe.

D Then there aroſe and went ouer twelue of Ben Jamin by nombre, whiche perteyned to Iſboſeth the ſonne of Saul, ⁊ twelue of the ſeruauntes of Dauid. And euery one caught his felowe (that came agaynſt hym) by the heade, ⁊ thruſt his ſwerde in his ſyde, and ſo they fell downe togyther. Wherfore the place was called. The felde of the myghtye. And it is in Gibeon. And there began an exceedynge cruel battayle that ſame day. For Abner ⁊ the men of Iſraell fell before the ſeruauntes of Dauid. And there were thre ſonnes of Zaruia there: Joab, Abiſai ⁊ Aſahel. And Aſahel was as lyght of foote as a wylde Roo, and Aſahel folowed after Abner, and * turned neyther to the right hande nor to the lefte, frō Abner. Gene.14.f.

E Then Abner loked behynde him, and ſayd: Art thou Aſahel? he anſwered. Yea that I am. Abner ſayde: turne the eyther to the ryght hande or to the lefte, ⁊ catche one of the yonge men, and take the his weapons. But Aſahel wolde not departe from hym. And Abner ſayd agayne to Aſahel, departe fro me. Wherfore ſhulde I ſmyte the to the grounde and not be able to holde vp my face to Joab thy brother? Howbeit, when he wolde in no wyſe departe, Abner with the hynder ende of 2.Regū.xx.c the ſpere ſmote hym vnder * the ſhort rybbes, that the ſpere came out behynde hym, that he fell downe in the ſame place, and dyed there. And as many as came to the place where Aſa- F hell fel downe and dyed, ſtode ſtyll. Joab alſo and Abiſai folowed Abner. And the ſon went downe, when they were come to the hyll Ama that lyeth before Giah by the way that goeth thorowe the wyldernesse of Gibeon. And the chyldren of Ben Jamin gathered them ſelues togyther on an heape, to Abner, and ſtode on the top of an hyl. Then Abner called to Joab and ſayde: ſhall the ſwerde deuoure ſtyll for ☞ euer? knoweſt thou not, that it wyll be ☞ bytterneſ in the latter ende? howe longe ſhall it be, or thou byd the people returne from folowynge theyr brethren?

And Joab ſayde: as truely as God lyueth ☞ yf thou haddeſt not ſpokē in the mornyng G the people had ben departed, euery one from 6.Reg.17.g perſecutyng his brother. And ſo * Joab blew a trompet, and all the people ſtode ſtyl, ⁊ purſued after Iſrael no more, neyther foughte they any more. And Abner and his men walked all that nyght thorowe the playne, and went ouer Jordan, ⁊ paſt thorowe all Bethhoron tyll they came to Mahanaim.

And Joab returned from perſecutyng Abner. And when he had gathered all the people togyther, there lacked of Dauids ſeruauntes nynetene men, ⁊ Aſahel. But the ſeruauntes of Dauid had ſlayne of Ben Jamin ⁊ of Abners men, thre hundred ⁊ thre ſcore men. And they toke vp Aſahel and buryed hym in the Sepulchre of his father in Bethleem. And Joab and his men went all nyght, vntyll the dawnynge of the day, and came to Hebron.

¶ Abner cleaueth to Dauid and bryngeth hym his wyfe Michol. Joab kylleth Abner.

CAPI. III.

A There was longe war bytwene the houſe of Saul and the houſe of Dauid. But Dauid waxed ſtronger and ſtronger, ⁊ 1.Par.iii.a the houſe of Saul weyker and weyker. * And ☞ vnto Dauid were ☞ (ſyxe) chyldren borne in Hebron: his eldeſt ſonne alſo was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezrahelite: the ſeconde Chileab, of Abigail the wyfe of Nabal the Carmelite: the thyrde Abſalom, the ſon of Maachah the doughter of Thalmai the kynge of Geſſur: the fourth Adonai, the ſon of Hagith: the fyfte, Sephatia the ſonne of Abitall: the ſyxte, Jethream by Egla Dauids wyfe. These were borne to Dauid in Hebron. And it fortuned that whyle there was warre bytwene the houſe of Saul ⁊ the houſe of Dauid, Abner helde vp the houſe of Saul. And Saul had a concubyne named Rizpa, the doughter of Abia.

B And Iſboſeth ſayde to Abner: wherfore haſt thou ☞ gone into my fathers cōcubine? Then was Abner very wroth for the wordes of Iſboſeth, and ſayde: Am I not a * dogges heade, whiche agaynſt Juda do ſhewe mercy this daye vnto the houſe of Saul thy father, and to his brethren and frendes, and haue not delyuered the into the hande of Dauid: and thou fyndeſt a faute in me this daye for this woman? * So and ſo do God to Abner. For as the Lorde hath ſworne to Dauid, ſo wyll I be on his ſyde, to bryng the kyngdome frō the houſe of Saul, that the throne of Dauid may be ſtablyſſhed ouer Iſrael ⁊ ouer Juda euen from Dan to Berſabe. And he coulde gyue Abner neuer a worde to anſwere, bycauſe he feared hym.

C And Abner ſent meſſengers to Dauid ſecretly, ſayenge: whoſe is the lande? Make a bonde with me, ⁊ beholde, my hande is with the, to brynge all Iſrael vnto the. He ſayde, It is good that I make a bonde with the. But one thyng I requyre of the, that thou ſe not my face, excepte thou fyrſt bryng Michol Sauls doughter, whē thou comeſt to ſe me.

And Dauid ſent meſſengers to Iſboſeth Sauls ſon, ſayenge: * delyuer me my wyfe Michol, which I maried with * an hundred foreſkynnes of the Philiſtins. And Iſboſeth ſent, and toke her from her huſbande * Paltiel the ſon of Lais. And her huſbande went with her, and came weppyng behynde her, tyll they came to Bahurim. Then ſayde Abner vnto hym, go and returne. And he returned. And Abner had cōmunicacion with the elders of Iſraell, ſayenge: Ye ſought for Dauid in tymes paſt, that he myght be your kynge. Nowe then do it: for the Lorde hath ſayde of Dauid: By the hande of my ſeruaunt Dauid I wyll ſaue my people Iſrael, out of the handes of the Philiſtines, ⁊ out of the hande of all theyr enemyes. D And Abner ſpake in the eares of Ben Jamin, ⁊ went to tel in the eares of Dauid in Hebron, all that Iſrael was content with and the hole houſe of Ben Jamin. And ſo Abner came to Dauid to Hebron, hauyng twentye men with hym, ⁊ Dauid made hym and the men that were with hym a feaſt.

And

D And Abner ſayde vnto Dauid: I wyll vp and go gather all Iſraell vnto my Lorde the kynge, that they may make an appoyntment with the, ⁊ that thou mayſt cōmaunde all as thyne herte deſyreth. And when Dauid had let Abner departe, he went in peace.

And beholde, the ſeruauntes of Dauid, ⁊ Ioab came from chaſynge the robbers, and brought a great pray with them. But Abner was not with Dauid in Hebron: for he had ſent hym away to depart in peace. Whē Ioab ⁊ al the hooſt that was with hym were come, men tolde Ioab ſayenge: Abner the ſonne of Ner came to the kyng, and he hath ſent hym awaye, that he is gone in peace. Then Ioab came to the kyng, and ſayde: what haſt thou done? Beholde, Abner came vnto the, ⁊ why haſt thou ſent hym away, that he ſhuld ſcape E quyte? Thou knoweſt Abner the ſon of Ner, for he came to deceyue the, and to knowe thy out goyng ⁊ in goynge, and to know all that thou doeſt. And when Ioab was come oute from Dauid, he ſent meſſengers after Abner whiche brought hym agayne from the well of Sira, vnknowyng to Dauid. And when Abner was come agayne to Hebron, Ioab toke hym aſyde in the gate * to ſpeake with hym ſecretly, ⁊ ſmote hym vnder the ſhorte rybbes that he dyed, ☞ for the blood of Aſahel his brother. And whē afterwarde it came to Dauids eare, he ſayde. I ⁊ my kyngdome are gylteleſſe before the lorde for euer, concernyng the blood of Abner the ſon of Ner. F Let the blood remayne on the head of Ioab ⁊ on all his fathers houſe: that the houſe of Ioab be neuer without one or other that hath runnyng iſſues or leper, ⁊ that leaneth on a ſtaffe ⁊ that doth fal on the ſwerde, ⁊ lacketh bread. And the cauſe why Ioab ⁊ Abiſai ſlue Abner was, that Abner had * ſleyne theyr brother Aſahel at Gibeō in battayle. And Dauid ſayd to Ioab, ⁊ to all the people that were wᵗ hym. * Rent your clothes, ⁊ put on ſacke cloth, ⁊ mourne before Abner. And kyng Dauid hym ſelfe folowed the corſe. And when they buried Abner in Hebron, the kyng lyft vp his voyce and wepte beſyde the ſepulchre of Abner, ⁊ ſo dyd all the people. And the kynge lamented ouer Abner, and ſayde: ☞ dyed Abner as a foole dyeth? Thy handes were not bounde, nor thy feete brought in to cheynes: but as a man falleth before wycked Chyldren, ſo felleſt thou. And al they that were of the people wepte yet more ouer hym.

G And whē al the people came to eate meate with Dauid, whyle it was yet daye, Dauid ſware, ſayenge: So and ſo do god to me, yf I taſt breade or ought els, tyl the ſon be downe. And the people wyſt it, and it pleaſed them. And what ſoeuer the kyng dyd, it pleaſed all the people. For all the people and all Iſraell vnderſtode that day, how that it was not the kynges dede, that Abner the ſon of Ner was ſleyne. And the kyng ſayd vnto his ſeruauntes: knowe ye not, howe that there is a Lorde and a great man fallen this day in Iſraell? And I am this day tender, ⁊ anoynted kyng.

And theſe men the ſonnes of Zaruia be to harde for me. The Lorde rewarde the doer of euyll, accordyng to his wyckedneſſe.

¶ Baanoth and Rechab ſlue Iſboſeth the ſon of Saull.

CAPI. IIII.

A When Sauls ſonne herde that Abner was dead in Hebron, his handes were feble, ⁊ al the Iſraelites were afrayde. And Sauls ſonne had two men that were captaynes ouer the ſouldiours, the one called Baanah ⁊ the other Rechab, the ſonnes of Rimmon a Berothite, of the chyldren of Ben Iamin: for Beroth was rekened to Ben Iamin. And theſe Berothites fled to Githam, and ſoiourned there vntyll the ſame tyme. * And Ionathas Sauls ſonne had a ſonne that was lame on his feete. ii. Reg. ix. b

B And he was fyue yere olde, when the tydynges came of Saul and Ionathas out of Iſrael. And his nurſe toke hym vp, and fled away. And as ſhe made haſt to fle, the chylde fell, ⁊ began to halte, and his name was Miphiboſeth. And the ſonnes of Rimmon the Berothite, Rechab and Baana went, ⁊ came in the heete of the day to the houſe of Iſboſeth, whiche ſlepte on a bed at noone. ✿ (And the vvoman that vvas the keper of the dore, and clenſed the vvheat, vvas a ſlepe.) And they came into the myddeſt of the houſe ✿ as though they wolde haue fetched wheate, and Rechab and Baana his brother ſmote him vnder the ſhort C rybbes, and fled. For when they came into the houſe, he ſlept on his bed in his reſting chamber, and they ſmote hym, and ſlue hym, and beheaded hym, and toke his heade, and gat them away thorowe the playne all the nyght. And they brought the heade of Iſboſeth vnto Dauid to Hebron, and ſayd to the kynge: beholde, there is the head of Iſboſeth Sauls ſonne, thyne enemye, which ſought after thy lyfe. And the lorde hath auenged my Lorde the kynge this day, of Saul and of his ſeede.

D And Dauid anſwerd Rechab and Baana his brother, the ſonnes of Rimmon the Berothite, and ſayde vnto them: * As ſurely as the Lorde lyueth, whiche hath delyuered my ſoule out of all aduerſities: when one * tolde i. Reg. 26. b ii. Reg. i. c me and ſayd that Saul was dead, thynkyng to haue brought good tydynges, I caught hym, and ſlue hym in Zikleg: which thought that I wolde haue gyuen hym a rewarde for his tydynges bryngynge. Howe moche more when wycked men haue ſlayne a ryghteous perſon, in his owne houſe and vpon his bed? Shal I not requyre his blood of your hande and take you from the earth? And Dauid cõmaunded his yonge men, and they ſlue them and cut of theyr handes and fete, and hanged them vp ouer the poole in Hebron. But they toke the heade of Iſboſeth, and buryed it in the ſepulchre of * Abner in Hebron. ii.Reg.iii.f ¶ Dauid is yet agayne anoynted kynge, and taketh the arke from Sion.

CAPI. V.

A i.Para.i.a THen came all the trybes of Iſraell * to Dauid, vnto Hebron and ſayd. Beholde we are of thy bone and of thy fleſſhe. And in tyme paſt when Saul was our kyng thou leddeſt Iſrael in and out. And the lorde hath ſayde to the: thou ſhalte fede my people Iſraell, and thou ſhalte be a captayne ouer Iſraell. And ſo all the elders of Iſraell came to the * kynge to Hebron. ii.Reg.ii.c And kynge Dauid made a couenaunt with them in Hebron before the Lorde. And they anoynted Dauyd kynge ouer Iſraell. Dauid was thyrtie yere olde, whẽ he began to reygne, and he reygned xl. yere. In Hebron he reygned ouer Iuda ſeuen yere and ſyxe monethes: And in Ieruſalem he reygned thyrtye and thre yeres ouer all Iſrael and Iuda.

B The kynge alſo and his men wente to Ieruſalem, vnto the Iebuſites, the enhabitours of the lande. Whiche ſpake vnto Dauid ſayenge: ☞ ☞ excepte thou take away the blynde and the lame, thou ſhalte not come in hyther. For they ſayde, Thou arte not able to come in hyther. Neuertheleſſe Dauid toke the ſtronge holde of Sion. The ſame is the cytye of Dauid. And Dauid ſayde the ſame daye. Who ſoeuer ſmyteth the Iebuſites, and getteth vp to the gutters of the houſes, and ſmyteth the lame and the blynde that hate ☞ ☞ Dauids ſoule? * Leuit.xx.d Wherfore they ſayd, the blynde & the lame ſhal not come in to the houſe. And ſo Dauid dwelte in the towre and called it the cytye of Dauid, and buylte rounde aboute it from Millo inwarde. And Dauid proſpered & grewe, and the Lorde God of hooſtes was with hym. And Hiram kynge of Tire ſente meſſengers to Dauid, and Cedar trees, and carpenters and maſons for walles: and they buylte Dauid an houſe. And Dauid perceyued, that the lorde had ſtabylyſſhed hym kyng ouer Iſrael, & that he had exalted his kyngdom for his people Iſraels ſake.

C And Dauid toke hym mo concubines and wyues out of Ieruſalem, after he was come from Hebron, & mo ſonnes & doughters were yet borne to Dauid. * And theſe be the names of the ſonnes that were borne vnto hym in Ieruſalem: Sãmua, Sobab, Nathan, & Salomon, Iibhar alſo and Eliſua, Nepheg, and Iaphia, Eliſama Eliada, and Eliphalet. But whẽ the Philiſtines herde, that they had anoynted Dauid kyng ouer Iſrael, they came all vp to ſeke Dauid. And as ſoone as Dauid herde of it, he gat hym to an holde. And when the Philiſtines came, they layde them along in the valey of Raphaim. And Dauid aſked counſayle of the Lorde ſaynge: ſhall I go vp to the Philiſtines? wylte thou delyuer them in to my handes? And the Lorde anſwered vnto Dauid: Go vp, for I wyll delyuer the Philiſtines in to thy handes.

D And Dauid came to the playne of Perazim & ſmote them there, and ſayd: the Lorde hath deuyded myn enemyes aſundre before me, as waters be deuided aſundre. And therfore, the name of the place was called: the playne of Perazim: And there they lefte theyr ymages, and Dauid & his men toke them vp. And the Philiſtines came yet agayne, & layde themſelues in the valey of Rephaim. And when Dauid aſked at the Lorde: ✠ (Shall I go vp agaynſt the Philiſtynes? and vvylt thou delyuer them in to my hande?) ✠ He anſwered: Thou ſhalte not go vp: but compaſſe them on the backeſyde, & come vpon them ouer agaynſt the Peretrees. And whẽ thou hereſt the noyſe of a thyng goyng in the top of the Peretrees then remoue. For then ſhall the Lorde go out before the, to ſmyte the hooſt of the Philiſtines. And Dauid dyd as the Lorde had commaunded hym, & ſmote the Philiſtines from Geba, vntyll thou come to Gazer.

¶ The Arke is brought forth of the houſe of Abinadab. Uza is ſtryken and dyeth. Dauid daunceth before it, & is therfore deſpyſed of his wyfe Michol.

CAPI. VI.

A AGayne, Dauid gathered togyther all the choſen men of Iſraell, euen thyrtye thouſande, & aroſe, and wente with all the folke that were with hym of the men of Iuda, to fet ☞ ☞ away from thence, the arke of God: whoſe name is called the name of the Lorde of hooſtes that dwelleth vpon it, betwene the cherubyns. And they put the arke of god vpon a newe carte, and brought it out * of the houſe of Abinadab that was at Gibea. And Uza and Ahio the ſonnes of Abinadab draue the newe carte.

And when they brought it out of the houſe of Abinadab that was at Gibea, wᵗ the Arke of God. Ahio went before the arke. And Dauid, and all the houſe of Iſrael playde before the Lorde in ſundrye inſtrumentes made of Cedre wood, with harpes, Pſalteries, Tymbrelles, fedyls, and Symbals.

B And when they came to Nachons threſhynge floore, Uza put his hande to the arke of God, and helde it, for the oxen ſtombled. And the Lorde was wroth with Uza, ⁊ God ſmote hym in the ſame place ☞ for his faulte, and there he dyed before the arke of god. And Dauid was dyſpleaſed, bycauſe the Lorde had ſmytten Uza. And the name of the place was called: The rentynge of Uza, vntyl this day. And Dauid was then afrayde of the Lorde, and ſayde: Howe ſhall the arke of the Lorde come to me? And ſo Dauid wolde not bryng the Arke of the lorde vnto hym in to the citye of Dauid, but Dauid caryed it in to the houſe of Obeth Edom a Gethite, And the Arke of the lorde contynued in the houſe of * Obeth Edom the Gethite, thre monethes, and the Lorde bleſſed Obeth Edom and al his houſholde. And one tolde kynge Dauid, how that the Lorde had bleſſed the houſe of Obeth Edom and all that perteyned vnto hym, bycauſe of the arke of God. And Dauid wente and brought the arke of God from the houſe of Obeth Edom, into the citie of Dauid with gladnes. ✠ (And there vvere vvith Dauid vii. ſortes of dauncers, and calues for Sacriſyce.

C And when they that bare the Arke of the lorde, had gone ſyxe ſpaces, he offred an oxe, ⁊ a fat ſhepe. And Dauid ✠ (played on harpe ſtrynges, and) daunſed before the Lorde with al his myght, and was gyrded with a lynnen Ephod. So Dauid ⁊ all the houſe of Iſraell brought the Arke ✠ (of the couenaunt) of the lorde, with ſhowtyng ⁊ trompet blowynge.

And it fortuned, that as the arke of the lorde came in to the citye of Dauid, Michol Sauls doughter loked thorowe a wyndow, and ſaw kynge Dauid ſprynge and daunce before the lorde, and ſhe deſpyſed hym in her herte. And when they brought in the arke of the Lorde, they ſet it in his place, euen in the myddes of the tabernacle that Dauid had pytched for it.

And Dauid offered burntofferynges and peace offerynges before the Lorde. And as ſoone as Dauid had made an ende of offryng burntofferynges ⁊ peaceofferynges, he bleſſed the people in the name of the Lorde of hooſts and gaue amonge all the folke, euen among the hole multitude of Iſraell, as well to the women as men, to euery one a Cake of bread and a pece of fleſſhe, and a flacket of drynke. D And ſo al the peple departed euery one to his houſe. Then Dauid returned to ☞ bleſſe his houſhold. And Michol the doughter of Saul came out to mete Dauid, ⁊ ſayd: O howe glorious was the kyng of Iſrael this day, which was vncouered to daye, in the eyes of the maydens of his ſeruauntes, as yf it had ben a lyght brayned felowe vncouered? And Dauid ſayd vnto Michol, I thought to daunce before the Lorde, which choſe me rather then thy father, and all his kyn, ⁊ cōmaunded me to be ruler ouer all the people of the Lorde, euen ouer Iſrael, And therfore wyll I playe before the Lorde. And wyll be yet more vyle then ſo, and wyl be meke in myne owne ſyght ⁊ of the very ſame mayde ſeruauntes whiche thou haſt ſpoken of, ſhal I be had in honour. Therfore Michol the doughter of Saul had no chylde, vnto the day of her death.

CAPI. VII.

A IT fortuned, that as the kynge ſat in his houſe (after that the lorde had gyuen hym reſt rounde aboute from all his enemyes) he ſayd vnto Nathan the prophet: beholde, I dwell nowe in an houſe of Cedar trees, but ☞ the arke of God dwelleth within the curteyne. And Nathan ſayde vnto the kynge: go and do all that is in thyne herte, for the lorde is with the. And it fortuned the ſame nyghte that the worde of the Lorde came vnto Nathan, ſayinge: go and tell my ſeruaunt Dauid, thus ſayth the Lorde: ſhalte thou buylde me an houſe to dwell in? For I haue not dwelte in any houſe, ſynce the tyme that I brought the chyldre of Iſrael out of Egypt, vnto this day: but haue walked, in a tent ⁊ tabernacle. In al the places wherin I haue walked with all the chyldren of Iſraell, ſpake I one worde with any of the Tribes of Iſraell (☞ ſynce I cōmaunded the Iudgis to fede my people Iſrael) ſayenge: Why buylde ye not me an houſe of Cedar trees?

B Nowe therfore, ſo ſaye vnto my ſeruaunt Dauid, thus ſayth the Lorde of hooſtes, * I toke the from the ſhepe coote (as thou waſte folowynge ſhepe) that thou myghteſt be ruler ouer my people Iſraell. And I was with the in all that thou wenteſt to, and haue deſtroyed all thyne enemyes out of thy ſyghte, and haue made the a great name, lyke vnto the name of the greate men that are in the worlde. And therfore, I wyll appoynte a place for my people Iſraell, and wyll plante it, that they maye dwelle in a place

And the Lorde telleth the, that he wyll make the an houſe. And when thy dayes be fulfylled, thou ſhalte ☞ ſlepe with thy fathers, and I wyll ſet vp thy ſede after the, whiche ſhall procede out of thy body, and wyll ſtablyſhe his kyngdom. iii. Reg. v. a Psal. 132. b * He ſhall buylde an houſe for my name, and I wyll ſtablyſhe the ſeate of his kyngdom for euer. Hebrue. i. b. * I wyll be his father and he ſhall be my ſon: iii. Accordyng to all theſe wordes, and accordynge to all this viſion, dyd Nathan ſpeake vnto Dauid. Then wente Dauid in, and ſet hym downe before the lorde, and ſayde: what am I, O lorde God? ⁊ what is my ☞ houſe? that thou ſhuldeſt haue brought me thus far forth? And this was yet a ſmall thyng in thy ſyght: O lorde god, but thou haſt ſpoken alſo of thy ſeruauntes houſe for a great whyle to come. For ☞ ✠ this is the vſe of mã, O lorde god. And what can Dauid ſay more vnto the? For thou Lorde God knoweſt thy ſeruaunt. Euen for thy wordes ſake and ☞ accordyng to thyne owne herte haſt thou done all theſe great thynges, to make them knowen vnto thy ſeruaunt. Wherfore thou arte great, O lorde God: for there is none lyke the, Deut. iiii. c * neyther is there any God ſaue thou, accordynge to all that we haue herde with our eares.

D Deut. iiii. a * And what one people in the earth is lyke thy people Iſrael, ✠ whoſe God, went ⁊ delyuered them, that they myght be his people, and that he myght make hym a name, and to ſhewe great and terrible thynges in the earth, for thy people Exodi. 14. d * whiche thou redemedſt to the oute of Egypte, euen the people with theyr ☞ goddes. And nowe (Lorde God) the worde that thou haſt ſpoken concernyng thy ſeruaunt ⁊ his houſe make it good for euer, and do as thou haſte ſayd. For ſo ſhall thy name be magnified for euer, of men that ſhall ſay: the lorde of hooſtes is the god of Iſrael: and the houſe of thy ſeruaunt Dauid ſhall be ſtablyſſhed before the. For thou O Lorde of hooſtes, God of Iſrael haſt tolde in the eare of thy ſeruaunt ſayinge: ✠ I wyll buylde the an houſe. And therfore hath thy ſeruaunt founde in his herte, to pray this prayer vnto the. And nowe go to, and bleſſe the houſe of thy ſeruaunt, that it maye contynue for euer before the. For thou Lorde God haſt ſpoken it, ⁊ with thy bleſſyng ſhall the houſe of thy ſeruaunt be bleſſed for euer.

¶ Dauid ouercometh the Philiſtines.

CAPI. VIII.

A AFter this it fortuned that Dauid ſmote the Philiſtines, and ſubdued them, and toke the brydell of bondage out of the hande of the Philiſtines. * And he ſmote the Moabites and ☞ meaſured them with a lyne, and caſt them downe to the grounde. ☞ Euen with two lynes meaſured he them whom he ſlue, and the length of one lyne ſaued he a lyue. And ſo became the Moabites Dauids ſeruauntes, and payde tribute.

Dauid ſmote alſo, Hadadezar the ſonne of Rehob kyng of Zoba as he went to recouer his brother at the ryuer Pherat. ☞ And Dauid toke a thouſand and ſeuen hundred horſmen of his hooſt, and twentie thouſande fote men and deſtroyed all his charettes, reſeruynge onely one hundred of them.

B And when the Sirians of Damaſcon came to ſocoure Hadadezer kyng of Zoba, Dauid ſlue of the Sirians two and twentye thouſande men, and put ſouldyours in Siria Damaſcon. And the Siriens became ſeruauntes to Dauid, payenge tribute. And thus the Lorde ſaued Dauid, in al that he went vnto.

And Dauid toke the ſheldes of golde that belonged to the ſeruauntes of Hadadezer, ⁊ brought them to Jeruſalem. And out of Beta and Berothai (cityes of Hadadezer) dyd Dauid brynge exceadynge moche braſſe. ✠ (vvherof Salomon made all the braſen veſſell in the temple, and the braſen Lauatory, and the pyllers, and the aulter.)

C * When Thoi kyng of Hamath herde how Dauid had ſmytten all the hooſt of Hadadezer, he ſent Joram his ſonne vnto kyng Dauid, to ſalute hym with peace, and ☞ to bleſſe hym, bycauſe he had fought agaynſt Hadadezer, and beaten hym: For Thoi had great warre w̃ Hadadezer, which (Joram) brought with hym veſſels of ſyluer, veſſels of golde, and veſſels of braſſe: whiche braſſe kynge Dauid dyd dedicate vnto the lorde, with the ſyluer and golde that he had conſecrated of all nacyons, whiche he ſubdued: of Sirya, of Moabites, and of the chyldꝛen of Ammō, of the Phyliſtines, ⁊ of Amalek, ⁊ of the ſpoyle of Hadadezer ſon of Rehob kynge of Zoba.

D And Dauid gat hym a name after that he returned and had ſmyten of the Siriens in the valey of Salte.xviii.M. men. * And he put kepers in Edō, euen thoꝛowout al Edom put he ſoudyours, ⁊ al they of Edom became Dauids ſeruauntes. And the Loꝛde kept Dauid whatſoeuer he toke in hande. And Dauid reygned ouer all Iſraell, and executed ryght and Iuſtice vnto all his people. And * Ioab the ſonne of Zarua was ouer the hooſte, and Iehoſaphat the ſon of Ahilud was recoꝛder. And Sadoch the ſon of Ahitob, and Ahimelech the ſon of Abiathar were the Pꝛeeſtes, ⁊ Saraia was the Scrybe. And ✠ Banaiahu the ſon of Iehoiada was ouer ☞ the Crethites and the Phelethites: ⁊ Dauids ſonnes were cheyfe rulers.

¶ Dauid reſtoreth all the feldes of Saull to Miphiboſeth the ſonne of Ionathas.

CAPI. IX.

A AND Dauid ſayde: is there yet any man lefte of the houſe of Saull? For I wyll ſhewe hym mercye for Ionathas ſake. And there was of the houſholde of Saul a ſeruaunt whoſe name was Ziba. And when they had called hym vnto Dauid, the kynge ſayde vnto hym: arte thou Ziba? He ſayde: thy ſeruaunt is he. And the kynge ſayde: remayneth there yet any man of the houſe of Saull, whome I maye ſhewe the mercye of God vpon? Ziba anſwered the kynge: * Ionathas hath yet a ſon: whiche is lame on his fete. B The kynge ſayde vnto hym: where is he? Ziba ſayde vnto the kynge: beholde: he is in the houſe of Machir the ſon of Amiell of Lodeber. Then kynge Dauid ſent, ⁊ fet hym out of the houſe of Machir the ſon of Amiel, out of Lodeber. Nowe when Miphiboſeth the ſon of Ionathas, the ſonne of Saull was come vnto Dauid, he fell on his face, ⁊ dyd reuerence. And the kyng ſayd: Miphiboſeth? He anſwered: Beholde thy ſeruaunte. Dauid ſayde vnto hym: feare not, foꝛ I wyll ſurely ſhewe the kyndneſſe foꝛ Ionathas thy Fathers ſake, and wyll reſtoꝛe the all the feldes of Saull thy father, ⁊ thou ſhalt eate bꝛeade C on myne owne table contynually. And he bowed hym ſelfe, and ſayde: what is thy ſeruaunt, that thou ſhuldeſt vouchſafe to loke vpon ſoche a deade dog as I am? Then the kynge called vnto Ziba Sauls yonge man, and ſayde vnto hym: I haue gyuen vnto thy mayſters ſonne, all that perteyned to Saull and to all his houſe. Se therfoꝛe that thou, and thy Sonnes and thy ſeruauntes tyll the lande, and bꝛynge in, that * thy mayſters ſonne maye haue foode to eate. But Miphiboſeth thy mayſters ſonne ſhall eate bꝛeade alwaye vpon my table. Foꝛ Ziba had fyftene ſonnes, and twentye ſeruauntes. * Micha.

D Then ſayde Ziba vnto the kynge: Accoꝛdynge to all that my Loꝛde the kynge hath commaunded his ſeruaunte, ſo ſhall thy ſeruaunt do. Well (ſayde the kynge) Miphiboſeth ſhal eate vpon my table, as one of the kynges ſonnes. Miphiboſeth had a ſon that was yonge, named Micha, and all that dwelled in the houſe of Ziba were ſeruauntes vnto Miphiboſeth. And Miphiboſeth dwelt in Ieruſalem, foꝛ he dyd eate euer at the kyngs table, * and was lame on bothe his feete. ii.Reg.4.b.

CAPI. X.

A IT happened after this, that the kynge of the chyldꝛen of Ammon dyed, and Hanon his ſon reygned in his ſteade. Then ſayde Dauid: I wyll ſhewe kyndneſſe vnto Hanon the ſonne of Nahas, as his father ſhewed kyndneſſe vnto me. And Dauid ſent to comfoꝛte hym by the hande of his ſeruauntes ouer ✠ (the death of) his father. ✠ And Dauids ſeruauntes came in to the lande of the Chyldꝛen of Ammon, and the Loꝛdes of the chyldꝛen of Ammō ſayd vnto Hanon theyꝛ loꝛde: thynkeſt thou that Dauid dothe honour thy father, that he hath ſent comfoꝛtours to the? Hath not Dauid rather ſent his ſeruauntes vnto the, to ſearche the Citye, and to ſpye it out, and to ouerthꝛowe it? Wherfoꝛe, Hanon toke Dauids ſeruauntes, and ſhaued of the one halfe of euery mannes beerde, and cut of theyꝛ garmentes in the myddle, euen harde to the buttockes of them, and ſent them away. When they tolde it vnto Dauid, he ſent to mete them (foꝛ they were men exceadyngly aſhamed) and the kynge ſayd: tarye at Ierico vntyll your beerdes be growen, and then B returne. And when the chyldꝛen of Ammō ſaw that they ſtancke in the ſyght of Dauid, they ſent and hyꝛed the Siryans of the houſe of Rehob, and the Sirians of Zoba.xx.M. foote men, and of kynge Maacha a thouſand men and of Iſtob twelue thouſande men. And when Dauid herde of it, he ſent Ioab and al the hooſte of ſtronge men. And the Chyldꝛen of Ammon came out, and ſet them in araye at the entrynge in of the gate, and the Sirians of Zobah, ⁊ Rehob, Iſtob, and Maacah were by them ſelues in the felde. When Joab ſawe that the front of the battayle was agaynſt hym before and behynde, he choſe of all the freſſhe yonge men of Jſraell, and put them in araye agaynſt the Sirians. And the reſt of the people he delyuered into the hande of Abiſai his brother, that he might put them in araye agaynſt the chyldren of Ammon.

C And he ſayde, yf the Siryans be ſtronger then J, thou ſhalte helpe me. But yf the chyldren of Ammon be to ſtronge for the, J wyll come and ſuccoure the. Therfore quyte the lyke a man, and let vs ſtande ſtyffe for oure people, and for the cityes of oure God. And the Lorde do that which is good in his owne eyes. And Joab proceded forth, & the people that was with hym, to fyght with the Sirians: but they fled before hym. And when the chyldren of Ammon ſawe that the Sirians were fled, then fled they alſo before Abiſai & entred in to the citye. And ſo Joab returned from the Chyldren of Ammon, and came to Jeruſalem. And when the Siryans ſawe that they were put to the worſe before Jſrael, they gathered them togyther. And Hadadezer ſent, & brought out the Sirians that were beyonde the ryuer.

D And they came with theyr armye, and Sobah the captayne of the hooſte of Hadadezer went before them. And when it was ſhewed Dauid, he gathered all Jſrael togyther, and paſſed ouer Jordane, & came to Helam: And the Sirians ſet them ſelues in aray agaynſt Dauid, and fought with hym: and the Sirians fled before Jſrael. And Dauid deſtroyed ſeuen hundred charettes of the Sirians, and fourtye thouſande horſemen, and ſmote Sobah the captayne of theyr hooſte, whiche alſo dyed there. And when all the kynges (that were ſeruauntes to Hadadezer) ſawe, that they were put to the worſe before Jſrael, they made peace with them, & ſerued them. And ſo the Sirians feared to helpe the Chyldren of Ammon any more.

CAPI. XI.

A And it came to paſſe that (after the yere was expyred) in the tyme when kynges ☞ vſe to go forth to battayle. Dauid ſent Joab and his ſeruauntes with hym, and all Jſraell, which * deſtroyed the Chyldren of Ammon, and beſeyged Raba. But Dauid taryed ſtyll at Jeruſalem. And it chaunced in an euenynge that Dauid aroſe out of his bed, & walked vpon the roofe of the kynges palace, and from the roofe he ſawe a woman * waſſhynge her ſelfe, & the woman was very bewtyfull to loke vpon. And he ſent to enquyre what woman it ſhulde be, ſayinge: is it not Bethſabe the doughter of Eliam, & wyfe to Urias the Hethite? And Dauid ſent meſſengers, & fet her. And ſhe came in vnto hym * & he laye with her. And *(immediatly) ſhe was ☞ puryfyed from her vnclenneſſe, & B returned vnto her houſe. And the woman conceyued, and ſent and tolde Dauid, and ſayd: J am with chylde. And Dauid ſent to Joab, (ſayenge:) ſende me Urias the Hethite. And Joab ſent Urias to Dauid. And whē Urias was come vnto hym. Dauid demaunded of hym: howe Joab dyd, & howe the peple fared, & how the men of war proſpered. And Dauid ſayd to Urias: go downe to thyne houſe, and waſhe thy feete. And Urias departed out of the kynges palace, & there folowed hym a ſeruice from the kynges table. But Urias ſlepte at the dore of the kynges palace withal the ſeruauntes of his lorde, & went not downe to his houſe. Whiche when they had tolde Dauid (ſayenge: Urias went not downe in to his houſe). Dauid ſayde vnto Urias: Cameſt thou not frō thy iourney? why dydeſt thou not go downe then vnto thyne houſe? Urias anſwered Dauid: the arke & Jſraell & Juda dwell in pauylyons, & my lorde Joab & the ſeruauntes of my lorde lye vpon the flat earth: & ſhal J then go in to myne houſe, to eate, and to drynke, & lye with my wyfe? * ☞ By thy lyfe & by the lyfe of thy ſoule, J wyll not do this thynge. And Dauid ſayd vnto Urias: * tarye here this day alſo, & to morowe J wyll let the departe. And ſo Urias abode in Jeruſalem that day, & the morow. And when Dauid had called hym, he dyd eate & drynke before hym, & he made hym dronke. And at euen he went C out to lye on his couche with the ſeruauntes of his lorde, but went not downe to his houſe. On the morow Dauid wrote a letter to Joab & ſent it by the hande of Urias. And he wrote thus in the letter, ſayenge: put Urias in the forefront of the ſharper battayle, and come ye backe from hym, that he maye be ſmytten and dye. So when Joab beſeyged the citye, he aſſygned Urias vnto a place, where he wyſt that ſtronge men were. And the men of the citye came out, & fought with Joab. And there were certeyne ouerthrowen of the peple and of the ſeruauntes of Dauid, and Urias the Hethite dyed alſo. Then Joab ſent, and tolde Dauid all the thynges concernyng the war, & charged the meſſenger, ſayenge: when thou haſt made an ende of tellynge the matters of the warre vnto the kynge, yf he begyn to fume, and ſaye vnto the: wherfore approched ye ſo nygh vnto the citye, when ye dyd fyght? wyſt ye not that they wolde hurle and D ſhute from the wall? Who ſmote Abimelech ☞ ſonne of ☞ Jerebosethe? * dyd not a woman caſt a pece of a mylſtone vpon hym from of the wall, and he dyed in Thebes? Why went ye nygh the wall? then ſaye thou: thy ſeruaūt Urias the Hethite is deade alſo. So the meſſenger went, and came, and ſhewed Dauid al that Joab had ſent hym for, and the meſſenger ſayde vnto Dauid: the men preuayled agaynſt vs, & came out vnto vs into the felde, ✠ and we ✠ (vvith violence) ſtacke vnto them, euen vnto the entrynge of the gate. And the ſhuters ſhotte from the walles, vpon thy ſeruauntes, and ſome of the kyngꝭ ſeruauntes be deade, And thy ſeruaunte Urias the Hethite is deade alſo. And Dauid ſayd vnto the meſſenger: thus ſhalt thou ſaye vnto Joab: ✠ let not that thynge trouble the. For ✠ (the chaunce of vvarre is dyuerſe, and) the ſwerde deuoureth one as well as another: make thy battayle more ſtronge agaynſt the Citye, to ouerthrowe it, & ſe that thou courage Joab. And when the wyfe of Urias herde that her huſbande was deade, ſhe mourned for hym. And when the mournynge was paſt, Dauid ſent and fet her to his houſe, and ſhe became his wyfe, & bare hym a ſon. But this thynge that Dauid dyd, dyſpleaſed the Lorde.

¶ Dauid is reproued for the ſlaughter of Urias. The chylde conceyued in aduoutrye dyeth. After it, is Salomon borne.

CAPI. XII.

A And the Lorde ſent Nathan vnto Dauid. And he came vnto hym and tolde hym: there were two men in one citye, the one ryche, and the other poore. The ryche man had exceedynge many ſhepe, and oxen. But the poore had nothynge ſaue one lytle ſhepe, whiche he had bought, and noryſſhed vp. And it grewe vp with hym, and with his chyldre alſo, and dyd eate of his owne meat, and dranke of his owne cup, and ſlept in his boſome, and was vnto him as his doughter. And there came a ſtraunger vnto the ryche man. And he coulde not fynde in his herte to take of his owne ſhepe, & of his owne oxen, to dreſſe for the ſtraunger that was come vnto hym. But toke the poore mannes ſhepe, & dreſſed it for the man that was come to hym.

B And Dauid was exceedyng wrothe with the man, and ſayde to Nathan: as ſurely as ☞ the lorde lyueth, the man that hath done this thynge * is ☞ the chylde of death. He ſhall reſtore the lambe * foure folde, bycauſe he dyd this thynge, and had no petye.

And Nathan ſayde to Dauid: thou arte the man. Thus ſaythe the Lorde God of Iſrael, * I anoynted the kynge ouer Iſraell, and 1 Regū 16. ryd the out of the hande of Saull. I gaue the thy mayſters houſe, and ☞ thy mayſters ☞ wyues in to thy boſome, and gaue the, the houſe of Iſraell and of Juda, and myght (yf that had ben to lytle) haue gyuen the ſo moch more. Wherfore then haſt thou deſpyſed the commaundement of the Lorde, to do wyckedneſſe in his ſyght? thou haſt kylde Urias the Hethite with the ſwerde, and haſt taken his wyfe to thy wyfe, and haſt ſleyne hym with the ſwerde of the chyldren of Ammon.

C Nowe therfore, the ſwerde ſhall neuer departe from thyne houſe, bycauſe thou haſt deſpyſed me, and taken the wyfe of Urias the Hethite, to be thy wyfe. Wherfore thus ſayeth the Lorde: beholde, I wyll ſtyrre vp euyll agaynſt the, euen out of thyne owne houſe, and wyl * take thy wyues before thyne Deute. 28. eyes, and gyue them vnto thy nyghboure, & he ſhall lye with thy wyues ☞ in the ſyght ☞ of the ſonne. For thou dydeſt it ſecretly. But I wyll do this thynge before all Iſraell, and in the open ſonne lyght.

D And Dauid ſayd vnto Nathan * I haue Eccl. xlvii. ſynned agaynſt the lorde. And Nathan ſayd vnto Dauid: the Lorde alſo hath put awaye thy ſyn, thou ſhalt not dye. Howbeit, bycauſe in doyng this dede, thou haſt gyuen the enemyes of the lorde a cauſe to rayle, the chylde that is borne vnto the, ſhall ſurelye dye. And Nathan departed vnto his houſe. And the lorde ſtroke the chylde that Urias wyfe bare vnto Dauid, & it ſyckened ſore. Dauid therfore beſought God for the chylde, and faſted and went in, & laye all nyght vpon the earth. And the elders of his houſe aroſe and went to hym, to take hym vp from the earth. But he wolde not, neyther dyd he eate meat with them. And it happened the ſeuenth daye, that E the chylde dyed. And the ſeruaūtes of Dauid durſt not tell hym, that the chylde was dead. For they ſayd: beholde, whyle the chylde was yet alyue, we ſpake vnto hym, and he wolde not herken vnto oure voyce. Howe wyll he then vexe hym ſelfe, yf we tell hym: that the chylde is deade? But Dauid ſeynge his ſeruauntes whyſperynge, perceyued, that the chylde was deade, and Dauid ſayde vnto his ſeruauntes: is the chylde deade? They ſayde: yea. And Dauid aroſe from the earth, & waſſhed, & anoynted hym ſelfe, & chaunged his apparell, & came in to the houſe of the lorde, and worſhypped, & afterwarde came to his owne houſe and bad that they ſhulde ☞ ſet ☞

F bꝛeade befoꝛe hym, ⁊ he dyd eate. Then ſayd his ſeruauntes vnto hym: what thynge is this, that thou haſt done? Thou dyddeſt faſt and wepe foꝛ the chylde, whyle it was a lyue, and as ſoone as it was deade, thou dyddeſt ryſe vp, and eate meate. He ſayde, whyle the chylde was yet alyue, I faſted ⁊ wepte. Foꝛ this I thought: who can tell whyther God wyll haue mercye on me, that the chylde may lyue. Eccle. 38. c. * But nowe, ſeynge it is deade, wherfoꝛe ſhulde I faſt? can I bꝛyng hym agayne any moꝛe? I ſhall go to hym, rather then he ſhall come agayne to me. And Dauid comfoꝛted Bethſabe his wyfe, ⁊ went in vnto her, ⁊ laye with her, ⁊ ſhe bare a ſon, and called his name ‡ * Salomon, ⁊ the loꝛde loued hym. ‡ peaceable * math. 1. a 1. Par. iii. b And he ſent by the hande of Nathan the pꝛophete, and called his name * Jedidia, of the loꝛdes behalfe. * Beloued of the loꝛde. Joab fought agaynſt Raba the cytye of the chyldꝛen of Ammon, and toke ☞ the ☞ cytye of the kyngdom: And Joab ſente G meſſengers to Dauid, ſayenge: I haue made ☞ aſſaute to Raba, and haue taken ☞ the cytye with waters. Nowe therfoꝛe gather the reſt of the people togyther, and beſeyge the cytye, that thou mayeſt take it: leeſt I take it, and call it after my name. And Dauid gathered all the people togyther, ⁊ went agaynſt Raba, ⁊ beſeyged it, ⁊ gat it. 1. Par. 20. b * And he toke theyꝛ kynges crowne from of his heade, whiche wayed an hundꝛed weyght of golde, and in it ☞ were pꝛecyous ſtoones. And ☞ it was ſet on Dauids head. And he bꝛought out the ſpoyle of the cytye in exceedynge greate abundance. And he caryed out the peple thas was therin ☞ and ☞ put them vpon ſawes and vpon yꝛon harowes, ⁊ vpon axes of yꝛon, ⁊ thruſt them in to the Tylekele. Thus dyd he with all the cytyes of the chyldꝛen of Ammon. And ſo Dauid ⁊ all the people returned to Jeruſalem.

CAPI. XIII.

A After this it chaunced that Abſalom the ſon of Dauid had a fayꝛe ſyſter, named Thamar, whome Amnon the ſonne of Dauid loued. And he was ſo ſoꝛe vexed, that he fell ſycke foꝛ the loue of his ſyſter Thamar: foꝛ ſhe was a virgyn, and he thought it herde foꝛ hym to haue his purpoſe of her. But Amnon had a frende, called Jonadab, the ſonne of Simeah Dauids bꝛother: and ☞ ☞ Jonadab was a very wyſe man. And he ſayde vnto hym: howe cõmeth it, that thou beynge the kyngꝭ ſonne, arte thus conſumed euery daye? Wylt thou not tell me? Amnon anſwered hym: I loue Thamar my bꝛother Abſaloms ſyſter. Jonadab ſayde vnto hym: laye the downe on thy bed, ⁊ make thy ſelfe ſycke. And when thy father is come to ſe the, ſaye vnto hym: Oh lette my ſyſter Thamar come, ⁊ gyue me meat, ⁊ dꝛeſſe it in my ſyght, that I maye ſe it and eate it of her hande.

B And ſo Amnon laye downe, ⁊ made hym ſelfe ſycke. And when the kynge was come to ſe hym, Amnon ſayd vnto hym: Oh let Thamar my ſyſter come, and make me a couple of frytters in my ſyght, that I maye eate of her hande. Then Dauid ſent home to Thamar, ſayenge: go nowe to thy bꝛother Amnons houſe, ⁊ dꝛeſſe hym meat. So Thamar went to her bꝛother Amnons houſe, ⁊ he was layde downe. And ſhe toke floure, and made paſte, and dꝛeſſed frytters in his ſyght, ⁊ dyd bake them, ⁊ toke a platter, ⁊ powꝛed them out befoꝛe hym, but he wolde not eate. And Amnon ſayde: Haue out all men from me. And they went all out from hym. And Amnon ſayde vnto Thamar: bꝛynge the meate into the chambꝛe, that I maye eate of thyne hande. And Thamar toke the frytters which ſhe had made, ⁊ bꝛought them into the chambꝛe to Amnõ her bꝛother. And when ſhe had ſet them befoꝛe hym, to eate, he toke her, and ſayde vnto her: come lye with me my ſyſter.

C And ſhe anſwered hym: nay my bꝛother, do not foꝛce me, foꝛ there hath no ſuch thyng ben done in Jſraell: do not thou this abhominacyon. Foꝛ whyther ſhall I be able to go with my ſhame? And thou ſhalt be as one of the fooles in Jſrael. O ſpeake vnto the kyng and he ſhall not denye me vnto the. Howbeit he wolde not herken vnto her voyce but toke her, and * foꝛced her, and laye with her. Gen. 34. Leui. 18. And then Amnon hated her exceedyngly: ſo that the hate wherwith he hated her, was greater then the loue with which he befoꝛe loued her. And Amnon ſayde vnto her: vp, and get the hence. She anſwered hym. Thou haſt no cauſe. This euyll that thou putteſt me away is greater then the other that thou dydeſt vnto me. And Abſalom her bꝛother ſayde vnto her: hath Amnon thy bꝛother ben with the? Now yet be ſtyll my ſyſter: he is thy brother. Let not this thynge greue thyne herte. Joab the ſonne of Zarua perceyued, that the kynges herte was towarde Abſalom/ he ſent to Thekoa, and fet thence a wyſe woman, and ſayd vnto her: fayne thy ſelfe to be a mourner, and put on mournynge apparell. And thy handmayde had two ſonnes, and they two fought togyther in the felde, (where was no man to go bitwene them) but the one ſmote the other and ſlewe hym. C And the kynge ſayde: what haue I to do with you ye ſonnes of Zaruia: Let hym curſe: for the Lorde hath byden hym curſe Dauid. Who dare then ſay: wherfore haſt thou done ſo? ¶ Ahithophell, ſeynge his counſell diſalowed of Huſai and Abſalom, hangeth hym ſelfe.

CAPI. XVII.

A AHithophel ſayde vnto Abſalom: let me choſe out nowe .xii. M. men. And I wyl vp, & folow after Dauid by nyght. And I wyl come vpon hym, whyle he is werye & weyke handed, & wyll feare hym. B Huſai anſwered vnto Abſalom: the counſayle that Ahithophel hath geuē, is not good at this tyme. For (ſayd Huſai) ỹ knoweſt thy father, & his men howe that they be ſtronge. And yf they be chaufed in theyr myndes, they are euen as a * Beare robbed of her whelpes in the feelde. C Therfore my counſayle is, that all Iſrael be gathered vnto the, from Dan to Berſeba (which are as the ſande of the ſee in nombre) and that thou go to battayle in thyne owne perſon. For ſo ſhal we come vpon hym in one place or other, where we ſhal fynde hym, and we wyll fall vpon hym, euen as thycke as the dewe falleth on the grounde. And of all the men that are with him, we ſhal not leaue him one. Morouer, yf he be gotten into a towne, then ſhall all the men of Iſrael bryng ropes to that citye, and we wyl drawe it into the ryuer, vntyll there be not one ſtone foūde there. And Abſalom and al the men of Iſrael ſayd: the counſayle of Huſai the Arachite is better then the counſell of Ahithophel. * For it was euen the lordes determinacion to deſtroy the good counſayle of Ahithophel: that the lorde myght bryng euyll vpon Abſalom.

D Then ſayd * Huſai vnto Sadocke & Abiathar the preeſtes: of this and that maner dyd Ahithophel and the elders of Iſraell counſayle Abſalom. And thus and thus haue I counſayled. F And as ſoone as they were departed, the other came out of the well, & went and tolde kynge Dauid, & ſayde vnto hym: vp, & get you quyckly ouer the water, for ſuche counſayle hath Ahithophel geuen, agaynſt you. Then Dauid aroſe, and al the peple that were wͭ hym, & they were come ouer Jordan by that it was day: ſo that there lacked not one of them, that was not come ouer Jordan. And when Ahithophel ſaw, that his counſayle was not folowed, he ſadled his Aſſe, & aroſe, and gat hym home to his owne houſe, & to his owne citye, and put his houſeholde in order, & hanged hym ſelfe, & dyed, & was buryed in the ſepulchre of his father.

G Then Dauid came to Mahanaim. And Abſalom paſſed ouer Jordan, he and all the men of Iſrael with hym. And Abſalom made Amaſa captayn of the hooſt in ſtede of Joab whiche Amaſa was a mannes ſonne named Jethra an Iſraelite, that went in to Abigail the doughter of Nahas, ſyſter to Zeruia Joabs mother. So Iſrael & Abſalō pytched in the lande of Gilead. And when Dauid was come to Mahanaim, Sobi the ſon of Nahas out of * Rabba the citie of the chyldre of Ammon, & Machir the ſon of Ammiel out of Lodeber, & * Berzelai the Gileadite out of Rogilim, brought beddꝭ, baſyns, earthen veſſels, wheat & barly, floure, & parched corne, beenes, rice, ootemele, hony, butter, ſhepe, & cheſe of kyne, for Dauid & al the people that were wͭ him, to eate. For they ſayd: the people is hungrye, werye, and thyrſtye in the wyldernes.

¶ Abſalom is ouercome in battayle. He hangeth by the head in an Oke. He is kylled, and put in a dyche. Dauid is ſo ſorowfull for the death of Abſalom that he wepeth.

CAPI. XVIII.

A AND Dauid nombred the people that were with hym, and ſet captaynes of thouſandes, & of hundredes ouer them. And Dauid ſent forth one parte of the people vnder the hande of Joab, and an other parte vnder the hande of Abiſai the ſonne of Zeruia Joabs brother, and the thyrde parte vnder the hande of Ithai, the Gethite.

And the kyng ſayd vnto the people: I wyl go ŵ you alſo. And the people anſwered. Thou ſhalte not go forth: for yf we flee, our aduerſaries wyll not care for vs: neyther ſhal they regarde vs, though halfe of vs were ſleyne.
But thou arte worth ten thouſande of vs.
Wherfore it is better, that thou ſoccoure vs
oute of the citye. And the kynge ſayde vnto them: what ſemeth you beſt, that wyll I do.
And the kyng ſtode by the gate ſyde, ⁊ all
B the people came out by hundreds/ ⁊ by thouſandes.
And the kynge cõmaunded Ioab ⁊
ii.Reg.16.b Abiſai, ⁊ + Ithai, ſaynge: entreate the yonge man Abſalom gentylly for my ſake. And all the people herde, that the kynge gaue all the

ſo the people went out into the felde agaynſt Iſrael, and the battayle was in the wood of Ephraim: where the people of Iſraell were put to the worſe before the ſeruauntes of Dauid, ⁊ there was a great ſlaughter that daye, euen of .xx. M. me. For the felde was fought there in dyuerſe places, all abrode vpon the ☞ earth. And ☞ the wood deuoured mo people that day, then dyd the ſwerde. And Abſalom came before the ſeruauntes of Dauid rydyng vpon a Mule, whiche caryed hym vnder the ☞ thicke bowes of a great oke. And ☞ his head was caught of the oke, ⁊ he was lyfte vp bytwene
heuen ⁊ earth: ⁊ the Mule that was vnder
C hym, went his way. And one that ſawe it tolde Ioab, ſaynge: beholde, I ſaw Abſalom hange in an Oke. ⁊ Ioab ſayd vnto the man that tolde hym. If thou dydeſt ſe hym, why dydeſt not ŷ there ſmyte hym to the grounde ⁊ I wolde haue gyuen the ten ſycles of ſyluer and a gyrdle? The man ſayde vnto Ioab:
though thou woldeſt lay a thouſande ſycles
of ſyluer in my hande, yet wolde I not ſtretch
out myne hande agaynſt the kynges ſonne.
For we herde with our eares when the kynge charged the, and Abiſai and Ithai, ſayenge:
Beware, that none touche the yong man Abſalom.
Moreouer, yf I had done it, I ſhulde haue done agaynſt myne owne lyfe: for there is no matter hyd frõ the kyng: yea ⁊ thou thy ſelf woldeſt haue bene agaynſt me. Thē ſayd Ioab: I may not ſtand thus taryeng ŵ the.
And he toke thre ſpeares in his hande, and D thruſt them thorowe Abſalom whyle he was yet alyue on the body of the tree. And ten ſeruauntes that bare Ioabs weapons, turned,
and ſmote Abſalom and ſlue hym. And whē Ioab blewe the trumpet the people returned from folowyng Iſraell: for Ioab ſpared the people. And they toke Abſalom, and caſt him into a great pyt in the wood, ⁊ layde a myghtye great heape of ſtones vpon hym. And all Iſrael fled to theyr tentes. And this Abſalom yet in his lyfe tyme + toke ⁊ reared vp a pyller, i.Reg.n whiche is in kynges dale. For he ſayde: I haue no ſon. And therfore to kepe my name in remembraunce do I it. And he called the pyller after his owne name. And it is called vnto this day: Abſaloms pyller.
Then ſayd Ahimaas the ſon of Sadocke E
let me run nowe, and beare the kyng tydyngs howe that the Lorde hath iudged hym quyte of the hande of his enemyes. And Ioab ſayd vnto hym: thou arte no man to beare tydynges to day: ŷ ſhalte beare tydynges an other tyme: but to day thou ſhalte beare none, bycauſe
the kynges ſonne is deade. Then ſayd Ioab to Chuſi: go and tell the kynge, what thou haſt ſene: And Chuſi bowed hym ſelfe vnto Ioab, and ran. Then ſayd Ahimaas the ſon of Sadocke agayne to Ioab: come what come wyll, let me alſo run after Chuſi. And Ioab ſayde: Wherfore wylte thou run my ſonne, ſeyng that for the tydynges thou ſhalt haue no rewarde: well (ſayde he) come what wyll, let me run. He ſayd vnto hym: run. Thē Ahimaas ran by the playne waye, and came before Chuſi.
And Dauid ſat bytwene the two gates. F
And the watchmã went vp to the roofe ouer
the gate vnto the wall, and lyfte vp his eyes and ſawe: and beholde, there came a man runnynge alone. And the watchman cryed, and tolde the kyng. And the kynge ſayde: yf he be alone, there is good tydynges in his mouth.
And he came, ⁊ drewe nygh. And the watchmã ſawe an other man runnynge, and he called vnto the porter, and ſayd: beholde, there commeth an other man runnyng alone. And the kyng ſayde: he is alſo a tydynges bryngar.
And the watchman ſayd: me thynke the runnynge
of the formoſt is lyke the runnynge of Ahimaas the ſonne of Sadocke. The kynge ſayde: he is a good man ⁊ cometh with good tydynges. And Ahimaas called, and ſayd vnto
the kyng: good tydynges, ⁊ he fell downe flat to the earth vpõ his face before the king, ⁊ ſayde: bleſſed be the Lorde thy God, whiche hath ☞ ſhut vp the men that lyfte vp theyr ☞
handes agaynſt my lorde the kynge.
And the kynge ſayde: is the yonge man G Abſalom ſafe. Ahimaas anſwered: When Ioab ſent (Chuſi) the kynges ſeruaunt, and me thy ſeruaunt, I ſawe muche a do. But I wote not what it was. And the kynge ſayde vnto hym: turne and ſtande here. And he turned, and ſtode ſtyll.

And beholde, Chuſi came alſo, ⁊ ſayde: Good tydynges my Lorde the kynge, for the Lorde hath quytte the this daye out of the hande of al them that roſe agaynſt the. And the kynge ſayd vnto Chuſi: is the yonge man Abſalom ſafe? Chuſi anſwered: the enmyes of my lord the kyng, and all that ryſe agaynſt the, to do the hurte, be as that yonge man is. And the kyng was moued, and went vp to a chambre ouer the gate, ⁊ wepte. And as he went, thus he ſayde: O my ſon Abſalom, my ſon, my ſon Abſalom, wolde God I had dyed for the: O Abſalom my ſonne, my ſonne.

¶ Dauid is reſtored to his kyngdom, and brought agayne to Jeruſalem.

CAPI. XIX.

A AND it was tolde Joab: beholde, the kyng wepeth ⁊ mourneth for Abſalom. And the victory of that day was turned in to mournyng vnto all the people. For the people herde ſay that day, howe the kyng ſorowed for his ſon. And the people ſtale away that day from goynge in to the citye, as people cõfounded ſteale away, when they flee in battayle. But the kynge hyd his face, ⁊ cryed with a loude voyce. O my ſon Abſalom, O Abſalom my ſon, my ſon. And Joab came in to the houſe to the kynge, and ſayd: thou haſt ſhamed this day the faces of al thy ſeruauntꝭ which this day haue ſaued thy lyfe, ⁊ the lyues of thy ſonꝭ ⁊ of thy doughters, ⁊ the liues of thy wyues, and of thy concubines, in that thou loueſt thyne enemyes, ⁊ hateſt thy frendes. For thou haſt declared this daye, that yͧ regardeſt neyther thy lordes nor ſeruauntes.

B And this daye I do perceyue, that yf Abſalom had lyued, ⁊ all we had dyed this daye, that had pleaſed the well. Nowe therfore vp, and come out, and ſpeake kyndely vnto thy ſeruauntes. For I ſweare by the lorde, excepte thou come out, there wyll not tary one man with the this nyght. And that wyll be worſe vnto the, then all the euyl that fell on the frõ thy youth vnto this houre. Then the kynge aroſe, ⁊ ſat downe in the gate. And they tolde vnto al the people, ſaynge. Beholde, the king doth ſyt in the gate. And all the people came before the kyng. But Iſrael fled, euery man to his tent. And it fortuned that al the people were at ſtryfe thorowout all the tribes of Iſrael, ſayenge: The kynge ſaued vs out of the hande of our enemyes, he delyuered vs out of the hande of the Philiſtines, and nowe he is fled out of the lande for Abſalom. But Abſalom whom we anoynted ouer vs: is deade in battayle. Therfore, why are ye ſo ſtyl, that ye brynge not the kynge agayne.

C And kynge Dauid ſent to Sadocke and Abiathar the preeſtes, ſayenge: Speake vnto the elders of Juda ⁊ ſay: why are ye behynde to brynge the kyng agayne to his houſe, ſeyng that ſuche tydynges is come from all Iſrael vnto the kynge euen to his houſe? * (For the kyng had ſayd. Thus ſhal ye ſay vnto the people of Iuda.) Ye are my brethren, my bones ⁊ my fleſhe: wherfore then are ye the laſt that bryng the kyng home agayne? And ſay ye to Amaſa: art thou not of my bone ⁊ of my fleſhe? God do ſo and ſo to me, yf thou be not captayne of the hooſt to me for euer in the roume of Joab.

And he bowed the hertes of all the men of Juda, euen as the herte of one man: ſo that they ſent this worde to the kynge: Returne yͧ with all thy ſeruauntes. So the kyng returned, and came to Jordan. And Juda came to Gilgal, for to go downe to mete the kynge ⁊ to conuay hym ouer Jordã. And Simei * the ſonne of Gera, the ſonne of Gemini, whiche was of Bahurim, haſted and came with the men of Juda to mete kyng Dauid, and there were a thouſande mẽ of Beniamin with hym ⁊ * Ziba the ſeruaunt of the houſe of Saul ⁊ his .xv. ſonnes and twentye ſeruauntes with hym. And they wente quyckely ouer Jordan before the kyng. And there went ouer a boote that caryed ouer the kynges houſholde, and they dyd hym pleaſure. ii.Re.xvi.b ii.Re.16.a

D And Simei the ſonne of Gera fell before the kyng (as he was come ouer Jordan) and ſayd vnto hym: let not my lorde impute wyckedneſſe vnto me, nor remembre the thynges (that thy ſeruaunt dyd wyckedlye when my Lorde the kyng departed out of Jeruſalem) that the kynge ſhulde take it to herte. For thy ſeruaunt doth knowe, how that I haue done amyſſe. And therfore beholde, I am the fyrſt this day ☞ of all the houſe of Joſeph, that am come to go downe, to mete my Lorde the kyng. But Abiſai the ſonne of Zeruia anſwered, and ſayd: ſhall not Semei dye for this, bycauſe he curſed the Lordes anoynted? And Dauid ſayd: what matter is bytwene you ⁊ me ye ſonnes of Zeruia? For this daye ye be aduerſaries vnto me. Shall there any man dye this day in Iſrael? Do not I know that I am this day kyng ouer Iſrael? And therfore the kynge ſayd vnto Semei: thou ſhalte not dye, and the kyng ſware vnto hym.

E And Miphiboſeth the ſon of Saul came alſo to mete the kyng, ⁊ had neyther waſſhed his fete, nor ſhauen his bearde, nor waſſhed his clothꝭ frõ the tyme the kyng departed, vntyl he came agayne in peace. And it fortuned that when he was come to Jeruſalem, ⁊ met the kyng, the kyng ſayd vnto hym: wherfore wenteſt thou not with me Miphiboſeth? He anſwered: My lorde, O kynge, my ſeruaunt deceyued me. For thy ſeruaunt ſayd, I wolde haue myne Aſſe ſadled to ryde theron, for to go to the kyng, bycauſe thy ſeruaunt is lame. And Ziba hath falſly reported of thy ſeruaũt vnto my lorde the kynge. And my Lorde the kyng is as an angel of god: do therfore what ſemeth good in thyne eyes. For al my fathers houſe were but dead men before my lorde the kyng: and yet dydeſt thou put thy ſeruaunt amonge them that dyd eate at thyne owne table. What ryght therfore haue I yet, to cry any more vnto the kyng? And the kyng ſayd vnto hym: Why ſpeakeſt thou yet in thyne ✲ owne cauſe? ✲ (it is determyned, that) I haue ſayd, thou & Ziba deuyde the landes bytwene you. And Miphiboſeth ſayd vnto the kyng: yea let hym take all: for ſo moche as my lorde the kynge is come agayne in peace vnto his owne houſe.

F And Berſelai the Gileadite came downe from Roglim, and wente ouer Iordan with the kyng, to conuay hym ouer Iordan. Berſelai was a very aged man, euen .iiii. ſcore yere olde, and prouyded the kyng of ſuſtenaunce, whyle he lay at Mahanaim: for he was a mã of very great ſubſtaunce. And the kyng ſayd vnto Berſelai: come thou with me, and I wyl fede the with me in Ieruſalem. ij.Re.17.g. And * Berſelai ſayd vnto the kynge: I am thus olde, & howe am I able to go vp with the kyng vnto Ieruſalem? I am this day foure ſcore yere olde: and ☞ can I deſcerne bytwene good & euyll? Hath thy ſeruaunt any taſte in that he eateth or drynketh? Can he heare anye more the voyce of ſyngynge men & women? Wherfore then ſhuld thy ſeruaunt be yet a burthen vnto my Lorde the kyng? Thy ſeruaunt wyl go a lytell way ouer Iordan with the kynge: and why wyl the king recompence it me with ſuche a rewarde? Oh, let thy ſeruaunt turne backe agayne that I may dye in myne owne cytye, & (be buryed) in the graue of my father & of my mother. Beholde, here is thy ſeruaũt ☞ Chimean: let hym go with my Lorde the kynge, and do to hym, what ſhall pleaſe the.

And the kyng anſwered: Chimean ſhal go G with me. And I wyll do to hym that ỹ ſhalte be content with. And what ſoeuer thou ſhalte requyre of me, that ſame wyll I do for the. And all the people wente ouer Iordan. And when the kyng was come ouer Iordã, he kyſſed Berſelai, and ☞ bleſſed hym, & he wente backe agayne vnto his owne place. And then the kyng went to Gilgal, and Chimean went with hym, and ſo dyd all the people of Iuda, and brought ouer the kynge, and there were but halfe the men of Iſrael.

And beholde, all the men of Iſraell came to the kynge, and ſayd vnto hym: why haue our brethren the mẽ of Iuda ſtolne the awaye and haue brought the kyng & his houſholde and al Dauids men with hym ouer Iordane? And all the men of Iuda anſwered the men of Iſrael: the kynge is nere of kyn to vs, wherfore be ye angry for that matter? thinke ye that we eate of the kynges coſt, or that we take vs any gyftes? And the men of Iſraell anſwered the men of Iuda, & ſayd: We haue ten partes in the kynge, & haue therto more ryght to Dauid then ye. Why then dyd ye deſpyſe vs, that our aduyſe ſhulde not be fyrſt had in reſtorynge our kyng agayne? And the wordꝭ of the men of Iuda were fearcer, then the wordes of the men of Iſrael.

¶ Seba the ſonne Bichri rayſeth Iſrael agaynſt Dauid. Ioab kylleth Amaſa traytrouſly. The heade of Seba is delyuered to Ioab. Dauids receyuers are nombred.

CAPI. XX.

A When there came thyther a certayne mã of Belial (named Seba, the ſon of Bichri, a man of Gemini) he blew a trompet & ſayd: we haue no parte in Dauid, neyther haue we enherytaunce in the ſon of Iſai, let the men of Iſraell depart vnto theyr tentes. And ſo euery man of Iſraell went from Dauid, and folowed Seba the ſon of Bichri. But the men of Iuda claue faſt vnto theyr kyng, from Iordan to Ieruſalem. And Dauid came to his houſe to Ieruſalem, * & toke the ten women his concubines, that he had lefte behynde hym to kepe the houſe, and put them in warde, and fed them: but lay no more wyth them. And ſo they were encloſed vnto the day of theyr death, lyuyng in wydowhode. [illegible]

B Then ſayde the kynge to Amaſa: Cal me the men of Iuda togyther agaynſt the thyrde day, & be thou here alſo. And ſo Amaſa went to gather the men of Iuda togyther: but taryed longer, then the tyme whiche he had appoynted hym. And Dauid ſayde to Abiſai: Nowe ſhall Seba the ſonne of Bichri do vs more harme, then dyd Abſalom. C Take thou therfore ☞ thy lordes ſeruauntes, & folowe after hym: leſt he get hym walled cytyes, and eſcape vs. And there wente out after hym Ioabs men, and the Crethites and the Phelethites, and al the myghtyeſt men. And they departed out of Ieruſalem to folowe after Seba the ſonne of Bichri. And when they were at the greate ſtone in Gibeon, Amaſa went before them.

C And Joabs garment (that he had aboute hym) was gyrde vnto hym, and he had gyrded theron, a knyfe, whiche was ioyned faſt to his loynes, in ſuche a ſhethe, that (as he went) it fell ſome tymes out. And Joab ſayd to Amaſa: art thou in helth my brother? And Joab toke Amaſa by the chyn with the ryght hande, to * kyſſe hym. But Amaſa toke no hede to the knyfe that was in Joabs hande, for therwith he ſmote hym * in the ſhorte rybbes, and ſhed out his bowels to the grounde, and thruſt at hym no more, and he dyed.

D So Joab and Abiſai his brother folowed after Seba the ſonne of Bichri. And one of Joabs men ☞ ſtode by hym, and ſayde: He that beareth any fauoure to Joab, or good wyll to Dauid, let hym go after Joab? And Amaſa lay walowed of blood, in the myddes of the way. And there was a man, which whē he ſaw that * al the people ſtode ſtyl, he rolled Amaſa out of the way in to the felde, and caſt a cloth vpon him, bycauſe he ſawe that euery one that came, ſtode ſtyl by hym. And as ſone as he was tombled out of the way, al the people went after Joab, to folowe after Seba the ſonne of Bichri.

E And he went thorowe all the tribes of Iſrael vnto Abel, and to Bethmaacha and all the places of Barim. And they gathered togyther, & went after him. And they came and beſeyged hym in Abell and in Bethmaacha.

And they caſt vp a banke agaynſt the cytye that ſtode in the valley. Al the peple that was with Joab, thruſt at the wal to ouerthrow it. Then cryed a wyſe woman oute of the cytie, heare, heare, byd Joab come hyther, that I may ſpeake with him. When Joab was come vnto her, the woman ſayde: arte thou Joab? He anſwered: I am he. She ſayd vnto hym: heare the wordes of thy handmayde? And he anſwered: I do heare. And ſhe ſayd agayne.

F ☞ They ſpeake in the olde tyme, ſayenge: ☞ men muſt aſke of Abel & ſo haue they contynued hytherto: I am one of them that are peaceable & faythfull in Iſrael. And yͧ goeſt aboute to deſtroy a cytye and a mother in Iſrael. Why wylte yͧ deuoure the enherytaunce of the lorde? And Joab anſwered, and ſayde: God forbyd, God forbyd it me, that I ſhulde eyther deuoure or deſtroy. The matter is not ſo, but a man of mount Ephraim (Seba the ſon of Bichri by name) hath ☞ lyfte vp his hande agaynſt the kyng, euẽ agaynſt Dauid. Delyuer vs him onely, & I wyl departe from the cytye. And the woman ſayde vnto Joab: Beholde, his heade ſhalbe throwen vnto the, ouer the wall. And then the womã went vnto all the people ☞ with her wyſdom. And they ☞ ſmote of the head of Seba the ſon of Bichri,

G & caſt it out to Joab. * And he blewe a trompet, and they ſcattered from the cytye, euery man to his tente. And Joab returned to Jeruſalem, vnto the kynge. ☞ Joab was ouer all the hooſt of Iſraell. And Banaia the ſon of Jehoiada was ouer the Crethites & Phelethites. And Adoram was ouer the tribute. And Jehoſaphat the ſonne of Ahilud was recorder. Seua was ſcribe. And Sadocke & Abiathar were the preeſtes. And Ira the Jairete ☞ was Dauids preeſt. ☞ ¶ Thre deare yeares. The vengeaūce of the ſynnes of Saul lyghteth on his ſeuen ſonnes, which are hanged. Foure great battayles, which Dauid had agaynſt the Philiſtines.

CAPI. XXI.

A Then there fell an hunger in the dayes of Dauid, thre yeres togyther. And Dauid enquired of the lorde. And the Lorde anſwered: it is for Saul, and the houſe of blood, bycauſe he ſlue the * Gibaonites. And the kyng called the Gibaonites, and ſayde vnto them, (Now the Gibaonites were not of the * chyldren of Iſrael, but a remenaunt of the Amorites, and the chyldren of Iſraell ſware vnto them: And Saull ſought to ſley them, for a zele that he had to the chyldren of Iſrael and of Juda.) wherfore Dauid ſayd vnto them, what ſhall I do for you, & wherwith ſhall I make the attonement, that ye may ☞ bleſſe the enherytaunce of the Lorde? The Gibaonites anſwered hym: we wyll haue no ſyluer, nor golde, of Saul nor of his houſe, neyther is it our mynde, that thou ſhuldeſt kyll any man in Iſrael. He ſayd: what ſay ye then that I ſhall do for you? They anſwered the kyng:

i.Reg.xxii.b

Joſua.ix.c.

B The man that conſumed vs, and ymagened to brynge vs to nought, hym wyl we deſtroy, that nought of hym contynue in any of the cooſtes of Iſrael. Let ſeuen men of his ſonnes be delyuered vnto vs, & we wyl hang them vp vnto the Lorde, in Gibeah of Saul whom the Lorde dyd choſe. And the kynge ſayde: I wyll gyue them you.

But the kynge had compaſſyon on Miphiboſeth the ſonne of Jonathas, the ſonne of Saull bycauſe of the Lordes othe that was bytwene them: euen bytwene Dauid and Jonathas the ſonne of Saul. But he toke the two ſonnes of Rizpa the doughter of Aia, (whom ſhe bare vnto Saul) euen Armoni & Miphiboſeth, and the .v. ſonnes of Michol, (the doughter of Saul) whome ſhe bare to Adriel the ſon of Barſelai the Meholathite. ☞ And he delyuered them vnto the handes of the Gibeonites, whiche hanged them in the hyll before the Lorde.

And they fell all ſeuen togyther, and were ſleyne in the dayes of harueſt: euē in the fyrſt dayes & in the begynnyng of barley harueſt.

And Rizpa the doughter of Aia toke ſacke cloth and ☞ hanged it vp for them vpon the rocke, euen from the begynnynge of harueſt vntyl rayne dropped vpon them out of heuē: and ſuffered neyther the byrdes of the ayre to fall on them by day, nor beaſtes of the felde by night. And it was tolde Dauid what Rizpa the doughter of Aia the concubyne of Saul had done: and Dauid went, & toke the bones of Saul and of Jonathas his ſon, from the men of Jabes in Gilead (whiche had ſtolen them from the ſtrete of Bethſan, where the Philiſtines had hanged them when the Philiſtines had ſleyne Saul in Gilboa.) And he brought thence the bones of Saul, & the bones of Jonathas his ſonne, and they toke vp the bones of them that were hanged. And the bones of Saul and Jonathas his ſonne buried they in the coūtrey of Beniamin in Zela, in the ſepulchre of Cis his father. And when they had performed al that the king cōmaunded. God was then at one with the lande.

It fortuned, that the Philiſtines had yet war agayne with Iſrael. And Dauid went downe & his ſeruauntes with hym, & fought agaynſt the Philiſtines. And Dauid wared faynte, & Jeſbi of Nob one of the ſonnes of the graūtes (the yron of whoſe ſpeare wayed ☞ thre hundred ſycles, & he beyng gyrded wͭ a newe ſwerde) thought to haue ſleyne Dauid. * But Abiſaia the ſon of Zaruia ſocoured hym, and ſmote the Philiſtine, & kylled hym. Then the ſeruauntes of Dauid ſware vnto hym, ſaynge: Thou ſhalte go no more out wͭ vs to battayle, that thou quenche not ☞ the lyght of Iſrael. And yet after this, there was a battayle with the Philiſtines at Nob, and then Sibbechai the Huſathite ſlue Saph, which was one of the ſonnes of the gyaūtes.

And there was yet an other battayle in * Nob with the Philiſtines, where Elhanā the ſon of the Jaere Orgim, a Bethleemite ſlue one Goliath a gethite: the ſtaffe of whoſe ſpere was as great as a weuers cloth beame. And there was yet an other battayle in Geth where was a man of a great ſtature, & had on euery hande. vi. fyngers, and on euery foote vi. toes xxiiii. in al. And was borne alſo of the kynred of the giauntes in Geth. And when he defyed Iſraell, Jonathas the ſon of Simea the brother of Dauid, ſlue hym. These foure giauntes were borne in Geth, and fell in to the hande of Dauid and in to the handes of his ſeruauntes.

CAPI. XXII.

AND Dauid ſpake the wordes of this ſong vnto the lorde, what tyme the lord had delyuered hym out of the hande of all his enemyes, & out of the hande of Saul. And he ſayd: the lorde is ☞ my rocke and my caſtel, & my delyuerer. God is my ſtrength, in hym wyl I truſt: he is my ſhelde, & the horne of my ſaluacyon: my worſhyp & my refuge: my ſauiour, thou ſhalt ſaue me from wrong. * I wyll prayſe and call on the Lorde, and ſo ſhall I be ſaued from myne enemyes. For the corrupcyons of death cloſed me aboute: the floudes of Beliall put me in feare. The ſorowes of hel compaſſed me about: the ſnares of death ouertoke me. In my tribulaciō wyl I call vpon the lorde, & crye to my god. And he ſhal heare my voyce out of his temple, & my crye ſhall entre into his eares. The earth trembled & quaked: ☞ the foundacyons of heuen moued & ſhoke, when he was angrye.

Smoke went vp in his wrath, and conſumyng fyre out of his mouth, coles were kendled therof. And he bowed heuen, and came downe, & there was darkenes vnder his fete. And he ſat vpon Cherub and dyd flye, ☞ he was ſene caried vpon the wyngſ of the wynd. He made darkeneſſe a tabernacle rounde aboute hym, with waters gathered togyther in thycke cloudes. Thorowe the bryghtneſſe of his preſence were the fyre coles kyndled.

God thundred from heuen, and he that is mooſt hygh, doth put out his voyce. He ſhot arowes, & ſcattered them: he hurled lyghtnyng, and dyſcomfyted them. The flowyngſ of the ſee appeared, & the foundacions of the worlde were ſene, by the reaſon of the rebukynge of the lorde, & thorowe the blaſtyng of the breth of his noſe thryls. He ſhal ſende frō heuen, & fet me, he ſhal plucke me out of many waters. He ſhal deliuer me frō my myghty aduerſary, & fro myne enmyes, for they are to ſtrong for me. When they had ouertaken me in the day of my tribulacion, the lorde ſtayed me vp: for he brought me out into roumth, he delyuered me, bicauſe he had a loue vnto me.

* The Lorde wyl rewarde me accordynge to my ryghteouſneſſe: accordyng to the pureneſſe of my handes wyll he recompence me. For I haue kepte the wayes of the Lorde, & done no wyckednes agaynſt my god. For al his lawes are in my ſyght, and his ſtatutes wyll not I put awaye fro me. In his ſyght alſo haue I bene vndefyled, & ☞ haue kepte me fro myne iniquite.

And the Lorde dyd to me agayne, accordyng to my ryghteouſnes, euen after my pureneſſe in his eye ſyght. With the godly thou ſhalte be godly, and with the man that is vncorrupte, thou ſhalt be vncorrupte. With the pure, thou ſhalte be pure: and with the frowarde, thou ſhalt be frowarde.

And the people that are in aduerſyte, thou ſhalte helpe. And on the proude ſhalte thou caſt thyne eyes. Thou arte my lyght O lorde: the Lorde ſhall lyght my darkeneſſe. For wt thy helpe I wyll run thorowe an hooſt of men, ☞ and in ☞ my God wyl I ſprynge ouer a wal. ☞ ☞ God is vncorrupte in his way: the worde of the Lorde is tryed in the fyre, he is the defender of al them that truſt in hym. For who is a God, ſaue the Lorde? & who is myghtye, ſaue our god? God ſtrengtheth me wt power, ☞ and ☞ ryddeth the way cleare before me. He maketh my feete lyke hartes feete, & ſetteth me faſt vpon my hye holde. * He teacheth my handes to fyght, that euen a bowe of ſtele is to weake for myne armes.

D Thou haſt gyuen me the ſhelde of thy ſaluacion, and with thy louyng mekeneſſe thou doeſt multiplie me. Thou ſhalte make me ſpace to walke in, & my legges ſhall not fayle me. I wyll folowe vpon myne enemyes and deſtroy them, and turne not agayne vntyll I haue conſumed them. I wyll waſte them and ſmyte them, that they ſhal not be able to ariſe Yea, they ſhall fal vnder my fete. Thou haſt gyrded me about with myght to battayle, & them that aroſe agaynſt me, haſt ẏ ſubdued vnder me. And thou madeſt myne enemyes (& them that hated me) to turne theyr backes to me, that I myght deſtroy them. They loke for helpe, but there is none to ſaue them: Yea euen vnto the Lorde do they crye, but he heareth them not. I wyll beate them as ſmall as the duſte of the earth: I wyll ſtampe them as the myre of the ſtreete, and wyll ſpreade them abrode. Thou ſhalte delyuer me from the dyſcencion of my people: thou ſhalt kepe me to be an heade ouer nacions: the peple which I knewe not, ſhall ſerue me.

Straunge chyldren diſſemble withme: At the hearynge of the eare they obey me.

Straunge chyldren wyll ſhrynke away/ and they ſhall be ſmytten with feare in theyr pryue chambre. God is alyue, and bleſſed be my maker: magnified be God, my mooſt ſtronge ſaluacion. It is god that auengeth me, & bryngeth downe the people vnder me. He delyuereth me from myne enemyes, thou alſo ſhalte lyfte me vp on hyghe frowe them that ryſe agaynſt me, thou ſhalte delyuer me from the wycked men. And therfore I wyll prayſe the (O lorde) amonge the nacyons, & wyll ſynge vnto thy name: whiche ſheweth great ſaluacion for his kyng, & dealeth mercyfully with his anoynted: euen with Dauid and with his ſeede for euermore.

¶ The laſt communicacyon of Dauid, and the deſcrypcyon of the myghtye men to hym belongynge.

CAPI. XXIII.

THeſe be ☞ the laſt ſayenges of Dauid. A Dauid the ſon of Iſai ſayd. And the mā ☞
(which was made the anoynted of the god of Iacob, & the noble Pſalmiſt of Iſrael) ſayde: the ſpirite of the lord ſpake by me, & his word was in my tonge. The God of Iſraell ſpake ☞ of me, euen the mooſt myghtye of Iſrael, ☞ ſayde: he that beareth rule ouer men, oughte to rule iuſtly in the feare of God. And as the mornyng lyght when the ſonne is vp, a mornyng in which are no cloudꝭ to let the brightneſſe, and as the graſſe of the earth is by the vertue of the rayne. ☞ Is not my houſe ſo ☞ with God? * For he hath made with me an ii.Reg.7.a. euerlaſtyng couenaunt, perfyte, and ſure in all poyntes: and this is truely all my helthe and all my deſyre that it growe. But the vngodly man of Belial ſhalbe as a thorne clene plucked vp, whiche can not be taken wt handes: But the mā that ſhall touche them, muſt haue yron, or a longe helue: * Or els muſte i.Par.xi.a. they be burnt with fyre in the ſame place.

These be the names of the myghtye men B whom Dauid had: ☞ one that ſat in the ſeate ☞ of wyſdome, beyng cheyfeſt among thre, pleaſaunt was he and ſtrong: he ſlue eyght hundred at one tyme. After hym was Eleazar the ſon of Dodi the ſon of Ahohi, one of the thre worthyes with Dauid, which defied the Philiſtines that were there gathered togyther to battayle: Whē the men of Iſraell were gone vp, he aroſe & layde on the Philiſtines, vntyl his hande was wery, & claue vnto the ſwerde And the Lorde gaue great victorye the ſame day. And the people ✿ (vvhiche had fled) returned, ✿ & went after hym to run to the ſpoyle. After hym was Sāma the ſon of Age the Hararite: & the Philiſtines gathered togyther beſyde a towne (where was a parcell of lande ful of rice) & the people fled from the Philiſtines. But he ſtode in the myddes of the groūd and defended it, & ſlue the Philiſtines. And the lorde gaue great victory.

* These thre (whiche were of the thyrtie i.Par.xi.b. cheyfe captaynes) went downe to Dauid in the harueſt tyme vnto the caue Adullā, & the hooſt of the Philiſtines abode in the valey of Gyauntes. And Dauid was then in an holde,

And

C then the ſouldiours of the Philiſtines were in Bethleem. And Dauid longed and ſayde. Oh that I had of the water that is in the well by the gate of Bethleem, for to drynke. And the thre myghtye brake thorowe the hooſt of the Philiſtines, and fet water out of the well of Bethleem that was by the gate and toke & brought it to Dauid: Neuertheleſſe he wolde not drynke therof, but offred it vnto the lorde and ſayde: the Lorde forbyd that I ſhulde do ſo. Is not this the blood of the men that went in ieopardye of theyr lyues? and therfore he wolde not drynke it. And theſe thynges dyd theſe thre myghtye men. [illegible] ☩ Abiſai the brother of Ioab, the ſonne of Seruiah, was cheyfe among the thre, and he lyft vp his ſpeare agaynſt thre hundred, and ſlue them, and had the name among the thre. For he was nobler then the thre, and was theyr captayne.

✠ Howbeit he attayned not vnto ☞ (the fyrſt) thre. And Banaiahu the ſonne of Iehoiada (the ſon of a myghty man) valyaunt in actes, of Kabzeel ſlue two ſtrong lyons, euen lyons of Moab. He went downe alſo & ſlue a lyon in a pyt in tyme of ſnowe. And he ſlue an Egyptian, a goodly byg man, whiche had a ſpeare in his hande. But he went downe to him with a ſtaffe, and plucked the ſpeare out of the Egyptians hande, and ſlue hym with his owne ſpeare: Theſe thynges dyd Banaiahu D the ſon of Iehoiada, and had the name among the thre worthyes. He was honourable among thyrtie, but he attayned not to the (fyrſt) thre. And Dauid made hym of his counſell. Aſahel the brother of Ioab alſo was one of the thyrtie. The Elhanam the ſon of Dodo of Bethleem: Samma the Harodite: Elica the Harodite: Helez the Paltite: Ira the ſonnes Akes the Thekoite: Abiezer of Anathoth: Mebunai the Huſathite: Zelmon an Ahohite: Maharai the Netophathite: Heleb the ſonne of Baanah an Netophathite: Ithai the ſon of Ribai out of an hyl of the chyldren of Ben iamin: Banaiahu the Pirathonite: Hedai, of the ryuers of Gaas: Abialbon the Arbathite: Aſmaueth a Barhumite: Eliahba a Saalbonite: & the ſonnes of Iaſen, Ionathas, Samma the Hararite: Ahiam the ſon of Sarar an Hararite: Eliphelet the ſon of Ahaſbai, the ſon of a Maachathite: Eliam the ſon of Ahithophel the Gilonite: Hezrai ŷ Carmelite: Paarai the arbite: Igall the ſon of Nathan of Zoba: Bani the Gadite, Zelec an Ammonite Naharai a Berothite, which was the harnes berer of Ioab the ſonne of Zaruia: Ira the Iethrite: Gareb the Iethrite: Vria the Hethite thyrtye and ſeuen in all.

¶ Dauid cauſeth the people to be nombred, and therfore is Iſraell plagued with peſtilence, ſo that in thre dayes there dyed .lxx. thouſande.

CAP. XXIIII.

A And agayne, the Lorde was wrothe ☞ agaynſt Iſraell, and ☞ Dauid moued hym agaynſt them, in that he ſayd: & go and nombre Iſrael and Iuda. For the kyng ſayde to Ioab the captayne of his hooſt: go thou abrode nowe, thorowout all the trybes of Iſraell, euen from Dan to Beer ſeba, and nombre ye the people, that I maye knowe the nombre of them. And Ioab ſayde vnto the kyng: I beſeche the Lorde thy God, to make the people as many mo as they be: yea & an .C. tymes ſo many mo, & that the eyes of my lorde the kyng may ſe them. And what is the cauſe that my Lorde the kynge hath a luſt to this thynge? Notwithſtandynge the kynges worde preuayled agaynſt Ioab and agaynſt the captaynes of the hooſt. And Ioab & the captaynes of the hooſt went out from the preſence of the kyng, to nombre the people of Iſrael. And they paſſed ouer Iordan, & pytched in Aroer on the ryght ſyde of the Citye that lyeth in the myddes of the valey of Gad, ouer agaynſt Iaser. And the they came to Gilead, & to the nether lande (where was a newe habitacion,) & from thence they came to Dan B Iaan aboute to Sidon, & came to the ſtrong holde of Tyre, and to all the cityes of the Hiuites & of the Cananites, & then went out to the ſouth of Iuda, euen to Beer ſeba. And ſo when they had bene abrode thorowout al the lande, they returned to Ieruſalem agayne, after the ende of .ix. monethes and .xx. dayes.

And Ioab delyuered vp the nombre & ſumme of the people vnto the kyng. And there was in Iſrael .ix.C. thouſande men of myght that drewe ſwerdes. And the men of Iuda were fyue .C. thouſande men. And Dauids herte ſmote hym, after that he had nombred the people. And Dauid ſayde vnto the Lorde: I haue ſynned excedyngly in that I haue done.

And nowe Lorde take away the treſpaſſe of thy ſeruaunt, for I haue done very folyſhly.

And when Dauid was vp in a mornynge, the worde of the lorde came vnto the prophet Gad Dauids ſear, ſayinge: Go and ſay vnto Dauid, thus ſayth the Lorde: I offer the thre thynges, choſe the, whiche of them I ſhal do vnto the.

C So Gad came to Dauid, and ſhewed him & ſayd vnto hym: Wylte thou haue ☞ ſeuen yeres hunger to come in thy lande, or wylt thou flee .iii. monethes before thyne enemyes they folowyng the, or that there be .iii. dayes peſtylence in thy lande? Now therfore aduiſe the, and ſe, what anſwere I ſhal gyue to hym that ſent me. And Dauid ſayd vnto Gad: I am in extreme trouble. * We wyll fall nowe into the hande of the Lorde, for moche is his mercye, and let me not fall in to the hande of man. And the Lorde ſent a peſtylence in Iſraell, from the mornynge vnto the tyme appoynted. And there dyed of the people from Dan to Berſeba ſeuentye thouſande men. And when the angell ſtretched out his hande vpon Ieruſalem to deſtroye it, the lorde had cõpaſſyon to do that euyll, and ſayde to the angell that deſtroyed the people: it is nowe ſuffycyent: holde thyne hande. And the angell of the lorde was by the threſſhynge place of Areſna the Iebuſyte. And Dauid ſpake vnto the Lorde (when he ſawe the angell that ſmote the people) and ſayde: loo, it is I that haue ſynned, and I that haue done wyckedly. But theſe ſhepe, what haue they done? Let thyne hande (I praye the) be agaynſt me, & agaynſt my fathers houſe. And Gad came the ſame day to Dauid, and ſayd vnto hym: go vp and reare an aulter vnto the Lorde in the threſſhynge floore of Areſna the Iebuſite. And Dauid (accordyng to the ſayng of Gad) went vp, as the lorde cõmaunded.

D And Areſna loked, and ſawe the kyng and his ſeruauntes cõmynge towarde hym. And Areſna went out, and bowed him ſelfe before the kynge flat on his face vpon the grounde/ and Areſna ſayde: wherfore is my Lorde the kynge come to his ſeruaũt? Dauid anſwered: to bye the threſſhynge floore of the, and to make an aulter vnto the lorde, that the plage maye ceaſe from the people. And Areſna ſayd vnto Dauid: let my lorde the kyng take and offer what ſemeth hym good in his eyes: Beholde, here be oxen for burntſacrifyce, & ſleddes and the other inſtrumentes of the oxen for woode. All theſe thynges dyd Areſna gyue vnto the kynge, and ſayd moreouer vnto the kynge: the lorde thy God accept the. And the kynge ſayde vnto Areſna: not ſo, but I wyll bye it of the at a pryce, and wyl not offer ſacrifyce vnto the Lorde my god of that which doth coſt me nothyng. And ſo Dauid bought the threſſhynge floore, and the oxen ☞ for fyftye ſycles of ſyluer. And Dauid buylde there an aulter vnto the Lorde, and offered burnt ſacrifyces and peaceofferynges. And ſo the lorde was intreated for the land. And the plage ceaſed from Iſraell.

¶ The ende of the ſeconde boke of Samuell: otherwyſe called the ſeconde of the Kynges.

¶ The thyrde boke of the Kynges after the rekenynge of the Latenyſtes: whiche thyrde Booke and the fourth alſo, is but one with the Hebrues.

¶ The yonge virgyn Abiſag kepeth Dauid in his extreme age. Adonia occupyeth the realme beynge kynge to his father. Salomon is anoynted kynge, and ſo Adonia getteth hym away.

CAPI. Primo.

AND Kynge Dauid was olde and ſtryken in yeres: ſo that whẽ they couered hym with clothes, he caught no heate. Wherfore his ſeruauntes ſayd vnto hym: let there be ſought for my Lorde the kynge a yonge mayden, to ſtande before the kynge, and to cheryſhe hym. And let her lye in thy boſome, that my lorde the kynge maye get heate. And ſo they ſought for a fayre damſell thorowout all the coaſtes of Iſraell, & founde one Abiſag a Sunamite, & brought her to the kynge. And the damſell was exceadynge fayre, and cheryſſhed the kynge, and miniſtred to hym: But the kynge knewe her not. And Adonia the ſon of Hagith exalted hym ſelfe, ſayenge: I wyll be kynge. And he gat hym charettes, and horſemen, and fyftye men to run before hym. And his father wolde not diſpleaſe him at any tyme, nor ſayde ſo moche to hym as/ why doeſt thou ſo? And he was a goodlye man, and his mother bare hym nexte after Abſalom. And he toke cõſayle at Ioab the ſonne of Zaruia, and at Abiathar the Preeſt. And they helped Adonia. But Sadocke the preeſt, Banaiahu the ſon of Iehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Semei and Rei, and all the men of myght whiche were with Dauid, fauoured not Adonia. And Adonia ſacrifyced ſhepe and oxen, and fat cattell, by the ſtone of Zoheleth, whiche is faſt * by the well of Rogell, and called all his brethren the kynges ſonnes, and the men of Iuda the kynges ſeruauntes. But Nathan the prophet and Banaiahu, and the other myghtye men, & Salomon his brother, he called not. Wherfore, Nathan ſpake vnto Bethſabe the mother of Salomon, ſayenge: haſt thou not herde how that Adonia the ſon of Hagith doth reygne, and Dauid our lorde knoweth it not? Now therfore come, & I wyll gyue the counſayle/ howe to ſaue thyne owne lyfe, and the lyfe of thy ſon Salomon. Go & get the in vnto kynge Dauid, & ſaye vnto hym: dydeſt not thou (my lorde O kynge) ſweare vnto thy handmayd ſayinge. Salomon thy ſon ſhall reygne after me, and he ſhall ſyt vpon my ſeate? Why is then Adonia kynge? Behold, whyle thou yet talkeſt there with the kynge, I wyll come in after the, and confyrme thy wordes.

C And Bethſabe went in vnto the kynge in to the chambre. And the kyng was very olde and Abiſag the Sunamite mynyſtred vnto
the kynge. And Bethſabe ſtouped, and made obeyſaunce vnto the kynge. And the kynge ſayde: what is thy matter? She anſwered hym: My lorde, thou ſwareſt by the lorde thy God vnto thyne handmayde: Salomon thy ſon ſhall reygne after me, & he ſhall ſyt vpon
my ſeate. And behold, now is Adonia kynge, and my lorde the kyng woteth not of it. And he hath offered oxen, fat cattell, & many ſhepe
and hath called all the ſonnes of the kynge,
and Abiathar the preeſt, & Ioab the captayn of the hooſte. But Salomon thy ſeruaunt hath he not bydden. And nowe my lorde (O kynge,) the eyes of all Iſraell wayte on the,
that thou ſhuldeſt tel them, who ought to ſyt
on the ſeate of my lorde the kyng after hym?

For els when my Lorde the kynge is layde
to reſt with his fathers, I and my ſon Salomon ☞ ✿ ſhall be ☞ ✿ ſynners. And whyle ſhe yet talked with the kynge, Nathan the Prophet came alſo. And they tolde the kyng ſayenge:
beholde, here cõmeth Nathan the prophet.
And when he was come in to the kyng/
he made obeyſaunce before the kynge vpon
his face on the grounde, and Nathan ſayde:
My Lorde (O kynge) haſt thou ſayd, Adonia
D ſhall reygne after me, & he ſhall ſyt vpon my ſeate? For he his gone downe this day/ & hath ſleyne many oxen, and fat ſhepe, & hath called all the kyngꝭ ſonnes, & the captaynes of the hooſt, and Abiathar the preeſt. And beholde, they eate and drynke before hym, and ſaye: God ſaue the kynge Adonia. But me thy ſeruaunt, and Sadocke the Preeſt, and Banaiahu the ſon of Iehoiada, and thy ſeruaunt Salomon hath he not called. Is this thynge done of my lorde the kynge, and thou haſt not ſhewed it vnto thy ſeruaunt, who ſhulde ſyt on the ſeate of my lorde the kynge
after hym? Then kynge Dauid anſwered, & ſayde: call me Bethſabe. And ſhe came in to the kynges preſence, & ſtode before hym. And the kyng ſware, ſayng: As truly as the lorde lyueth (that hath rid my ſoule out of all aduerſite)
euen as I ſware vnto the by the lord god of Iſraell, ſayenge: Salomon thy ſonne
ſhall reygne after me, and he ſhall ſyt vpon my ſeate for me, ſo wyll I do this daye. Then Bethſabe bowed on her face to the earth, and dyd reuerence vnto the kynge, and ſayde: I praye God that my Lorde kynge ☞ Dauid ☞ maye lyue euer. And kynge Dauid ſayde: call me Sadock the preeſt, & Nathan the prophet E & Banaiahu the ſon of Iehoiada. And they came before the kynge. The kynge alſo ſayd vnto them: take with you the ſeruauntes of your Lorde, and ſet Salomon my ſon vpon myne owne Mule, & carye hym downe ☞ to Gihon. And let Sadocke the preeſt, and Nathan ☞ the prophet anoynte hym there, kynge ouer Iſraell. And blowe ye with trompettes, and ſaye: God ſaue kynge Salomon. And then come vp after hym, that he maye come and ſyt vpon my ſeate. For he ſhall be kynge in my ſteade. And I wyll cõmaunde hym to be captayne ouer Iſraell & Iuda. And Banaiahu
the ſon of Iehoiada anſwered the kyng, and ſayde, Amen. I praye god that the lorde god of my Lorde the kynge ſaye ſo to. And as god hath ben with my Lorde the kynge/euen ſo be he with Salomon alſo, & make his ſeate greater, then the ſeate of my lorde kyng Dauids hath ben. And ſo Sadock the preeſt/and Nathan the prophet, and Banaiahu the ſon of Iehoiada, & the Crethites & Phelethites went downe, & ſet Salomon vpon kynge Dauids Mule, and brought hym to Gihon.
And Sadock the preeſt toke an horne of oyle
out of the tabernacle, & anoynted Salomon.

And all they of the people blewe trompettes, F
and ſayde: God ſaue kynge Salomon.
And all the peple came vp after hym, pypyng with pypes, and reioyſynge greatly, ſo that the earth range with the ſounde of them.

And Adonia and all the geſtes that he had called vnto hym, herde it / euen as they had made an ende of eatynge. And when Ioab herde the ſoũde of the trompet, he ſayd: howe happeneth it that there is ſoche a noyſe in the citye? And as he yet ſpake: behold, Ionathas the ſonne of Abiathar the Preeſt came. And Adonia ſayd vnto hym: come in, for thou art
a valyaunt man, and bryngeſt good tydyngꝭ
And Ionathas anſwered & ſayde to Adonia:
Verely our lorde kyng Dauid hath made Salomon kynge. And the kynge hath ſent with hym, Sadok the Preeſt, and Nathan the prophet,
and Banaiahu the ſonne of Iehoiada,
and the Crethites, and the Phelethites, and they haue ſet hym vpon the kynges Mule.
And Sadocke the preeſt, & Nathan the prophet
haue annoynted hym kynge in Gihon.
And they came vp agayne, and reioyſed, that the citye dyd ſounde agayne. And that is the noyſe, that ye haue herde. And Salomon ſytteth on the ſeate of the kyngdom. And moreouer

G ouer, the kynges ſeruauntes came to bleſſe our Lorde kynge Dauid, ſayenge: thy God make the name of Salomon more honorable then thy name, & make his ſeate, greater then thy ſeate. And the kynge bowed hym ſelfe vpon the bed. And thus ſayd the kynge: bleſſed be the Lorde God of Iſraell, whiche hath made one to ſyt on my ſeate this daye, myne eyes ſeynge it. And all the geſtes that were with Adonia were afrayde, & roſe vp, & went euery man his waye. And Adonia fearynge the preſence of Salomon, aroſe, & went H (in to the tabernacle of the lorde) & caught holde on the hornes of the aulter. And one tolde Salomon, ſayenge: behold, Adonia doth feare kynge Salomon: for he hath * caught holde on the hornes of the aulter, ſayenge: let kynge Salomon ſweare vnto me this daye that he wyll not ſley his ſeruaunte with the ſwerde. And Salomon ſayde: yf he wyll be a chylde of vertue, there ſhall not an heere of hym fall to the earth. But and yf wyckednes be founde in hym, he ſhall dye. And ſo kynge Salomon ſent, and they brought hym from the aulter. And he came, and dyd obeyſaunce vnto kynge Salomon. And Salomon ſayd vnto hym: get the to thyne houſe.

¶ Dauid dyeth. Adonia requyreth to haue Abiſag to his concubyne, & therfore Salomon commaundeth to ſley hym. Abiathar is put from his preſthode. Semei, and Ioab are ſlayne.

CAPI. II.

A The dayes of Dauid drewe nygh, that he ſhulde dye, and he charged Salomon his ſonne, ſayenge: I go the waye of all the worlde, * be thou ſtronge therfore, and ſhewe thy ſelfe a man. Kepe thou the watche of the lorde thy God, that thou walke in his wayes, and kepe his ☞ ſtatutes, and his preceptes, his iudgementes, & his teſtymonyes, euen as it is wrytten in the lawe of Moſes: that thou mayſt proſper in al that thou doeſt & in euery thynge that thou medleſt withall.

That the Lorde alſo maye make good his worde whiche he ſpake vnto me, ſayenge: yf thy Chyldren take hede to theyr waye, that they walke before me in trueth, with all theyr hertes, and with all theyr ſoules, * then ſhall thou not be with oute a man on the ſeate of Iſraell. * Moreouer, thou woteſt howe Ioab the ſonne of Zaruia ſerued me, and what he dyd to that two captaynes of the hooſtes of Iſraell: vnto Abner the ſonne of Ner, and vnto Amaſa the ſonne of Iether, whome he ſlewe and ſhed bloode in tyme of peace (euen as it had ben in war) ☞ and put the bloode of war vpon his gyrdle that was aboute his loynes, & in his ſhoes that were on his feete, B Deale with hym therfore accordynge to thy wyſdome, and brynge not his hoore heade downe to the graue in peace. * But ſhewe kyndneſſe vnto the ſonnes of Berſelai the Gileadite, that they maye eate at thy table: For they came to me, when I fled from Abſalom thy brother. And beholde, thou haſt with the, Semei the ſonne of Gera, the ſon of Gemini of Bahurim, whiche curſed me with an horrible curſe, in the day whē I went to Mahanaim. But he came to mete me at Iordane, and I ſware to hym by the Lorde, ſayenge. I wyll not ſley the with the ſwerde. But thou ſhalte not count hym as vngyltye: For thou arte a man of wyſdome, & knoweſt what thou oughteſt to do to hym, his hoore heade ſhalte thou brynge to the graue / with bloode.

i.Par.29.f

And Adonia the ſonne of Hagith, came to Bethſabe the mother of Salomon. And ſhe ſayde: * Commeſt thou peaceably? And he ſayde: peaceably. He ſayde moreouer: I haue ſomwhat to ſay vnto the. She ſayde: ſay on. And he ſayde: thou knoweſt that the kyngdome was myne, and that all Iſrael ſet theyr faces on me, that I ſhulde reygne, howe be it the kyngdome is turned awaye / and gyuen to my brother, for it is appoynted hym of the Lorde: and nowe I aſke a peticyon of the / denye me not. And ſhe ſayde vnto hym: Say on. And he ſayde: ſpeake I praye the, vnto Salomon the kynge (for he wyll not ſay the nay) that he gyue me Abiſag the Sunamite to wyfe. And Bethſabe ſayde: well, I wyll ſpeake for the vnto the kynge.

D Bethſabe therfore went vnto kynge Salomon, to ſpeake vnto hym for Adonia. And the kynge roſe vp to mete her, & bowed hym ſelfe vnto her, & ſat hym downe on his ſeate. And there was a ſeate ſet for the kynges mother, and ſhe ſat on his ryght ſyde. Then ſhe ſayd: I deſyre a lytell peticyon of the, I pray the ſaye me not naye. And the kynge ſayde vnto her: Aſke on my mother: For I wyll not ſay the naye. She ſayde: let Abiſag the Sunamite be gyuen to Adonia thy brother, to wyfe. And kynge Salomon anſwered and ſayde vnto his mother: why doeſt thou aſke Abiſag the Sunamite for Adonia? aſke for hym the kyngdome alſo: for he is myne elder brother, & hath for hym Abiathar the preeſt/ and Ioab the ſonne of Zaruia. Then kynge Salomon ſware by the Lorde ſayenge: God do ſo, and ſo to me, yf Adonia haue not ſpoken this worde agaynſt his owne lyfe. Nowe therfore, as truly as the lorde lyueth (whiche hath ordeyned me, and ſet me on the ſeate of Dauid my father, and ☞ made me an houſe (as he promyſed) Adonia ſhall dye this day. And kynge Salomon ſent by the hande of Banaiahu, the ſonne of Iehoiada, and he ſmote hym that he dyed.

E And vnto Abiathar the Preeſt ſayde the kynge: get the to Anathoth vnto thyne owne feldes, for thou arte worthy of death: but I wyll not at this tyme kyll the, bycauſe thou bareſt the arke of the Lorde God before Dauid my father, and bycauſe thou haſt ſuffered with my father in all his afflyctyons. And ſo Salomon put away Abiathar from beynge preeſt vnto the Lorde: that he myght fulfyll the worde of the lorde which he ſpake ouer the houſe of Eli in Silo. Then tydynges came alſo to Ioab: for Ioab had turned after Adonia, though he turned not after Abſalom. And Ioab fled vnto the tabernacle of the Lorde, and caught holde on the hornes of the aulter. And it was tolde kynge Salomon, howe that Ioab fled vnto the tabernacle of the lorde, & ſtode by the aulter. Then Salomon ſent Banaiahu the ſonne of Iehoiada, ſayenge: go and fall vpon hym. And Banaiahu came in to the tabernacle of the lorde, & ſayde vnto hym: thus ſayth the kynge: come out. And he ſayde: nay. But I wyll dye euen here. And Banaiahu brought the kyng worde agayne, ſayenge: thus ſayde Ioab, & thus he anſwered me. And the kynge ſayde: do euen as he hath ſayde: ſmyte hym, and bury hym, that thou mayſt take awaye the blood (which Ioab ſhed cauſeleſſe) from me, and from the houſe of my father. And the lorde ſhall bryng his blood vpon his owne heade, for he ſmote two men ryghtwyſer & better then he, & ſlue them with the ſwerde (my father Dauid not knowynge therof:) euen Abner the ſonne of Ner, captayne of the hooſte of Iſraell, and Amaſa the ſonne of Iether captayne of the hooſt of Iuda. Their blood ſhall therfore returne vpon the heade of Ioab, and on the heade of his ſeede for euer. F

But vpon Dauid, & vpon his ſeede, & vpon his houſe, & vpō his ſeate ſhal there be peace for euermore of the lorde. So Banaiahu the ſonne of Iehoiada went vp, and ſmote hym and ſlue hym, and buryed hym, in his owne houſe in the wyldernеſſe. And the kynge put Banaiahu the ſon of Iehoiada in his rowme ouer the hooſt, and put Sadocke the preeſt in the rowme of Abiathar. And the kynge ſent and called Semei & ſayde vnto hym, buylde the an houſe in Ieruſalem, and dwell there: & ſe that thou go not forth thence any whyther. For be thou ſure, that the day that thou goeſt out, & paſſeſt ouer the ryuer of Cedron, thou ſhalt dye that daye, & thy bloode ſhall be on thyne owne heade. And Semei ſayde vnto the kynge. This is a good thynge: as my Lorde the kynge hath ſayd, ſo wyl his ſeruaunt do. And Semei dwelte in Ieruſalem many a daye. And it chaunced after thre yeares, that two of the ſeruauntes of Semei ran awaye vnto Achis ſon of Maacha kynge of Geth. And they tolde Semei, ſayenge: beholde, thy ſeruauntes be in Geth. And Semei ſtode vp/ and ſadled his Aſſe, and gat hym to Geth to Achis, to ſeke his ſeruauntes, & returned/ and brought his ſeruauntes agayne from Geth.

G And it was tolde Salomon, howe that Semei had gone from Ieruſalem to Geth, and was come agayne. And the kynge ſent/ and called Semei, and ſayde vnto hym: dyd I not charge the by the lorde with an othe, and teſtifyed vnto the, ſayenge: be ſure, that whenſoeuer thou goeſt out, & walkeſt abrode any whyther, thou ſhalt dye the death? And thou ſaydeſt vnto me: it is good tydynges that I haue herde. Why then haſt thou not kepte the othe of the lorde, and the cōmaundement that I charged the withall? The kyng ſayde moreouer to Semei: ☞ thou remembreſt all the wyckednes whiche thyne herte knoweth, and that thou dydeſt to Dauid my father. The lorde alſo ſhal brynge thy wyckedneſſe vpon thyne owne heade: and kynge Salomon ſhall be bleſſed, and the ſeate of Dauid ſtablyſſhed before the lorde for euer. So the kynge commaunded Banaiahu the ſonne of Iehoiada, whiche went out, & ſmote hym that he dyed.

And the kyngdome was ſtablyſſhed in the hande of Salomon.

¶ Salomon taketh Pharaos doughter to wyfe. The Lorde appeareth to hym, and geueth hym wyſdome. The pleatynge of the two harlottes which ſtroue ouer the lyuynge chylde, and Salomons ſentence therin.

CAPI. III.

SAlomon made affinite wt Pharao kynge of Egypt, and toke Pharaos doughter/ and brought her into ☞ the citye of Dauid, vntyll he had made an ende of buyldyng his owne houſe, and the houſe of the Lorde, and the wall of Ieruſalem rounde aboute. Only the people ſacrificed in aulters made on hylles bycauſe there was no houſe buylde vnto A the name of the Lorde, vntyll thoſe dayes. And Salomon loued the Lorde, and walked in the ordinaunces of Dauid his father, ſaue only that he ſacrificed ⁊ offered incenſe vpon aulters in hylles. * And the kynge went to Gibeon, to offer there: for ☞ that was a ſpecyall offerynge place. A thouſand burntofferynges dyd Salomon offre vpon that aulter. And in Gibeon the Lorde appeared to Salomon in a dreame by nyght. And God ſayde: Aſke what thou wylt, that I may gyue it the. And Salomon ſayde: thou haſt ſhewed vnto thy ſeruaunt Dauid my father, great mercy, when he walked before the in trueth in ryghtuouſnes, and in playneſſe of herte with the. And thou haſt kept for hym this great mercy that thou haſt gyuen hym a ſon, to ſyt on his ſeate: as it is come to paſſe this daye. * And nowe (O Lorde my God) it is thou that haſt made thy ſeruaunt kynge in ſteade of Dauid my father. * And I am but yonge, and wote not howe to ☞ go out and in. And thy ſeruaunt is in the myddes of thy people, whiche thou haſt choſen: And verely, the people are ſo many, that they can not be tolde nor nombred for multitude. * Gyue therfore vnto thy ſeruaunt an vnderſtandynge herte, to iudge thy people: that I maye dyſcerne bytwene good, and bad. For who is able to iudge this, thy ſo myghtye a people? And this pleaſed the Lorde well, that Salomon had deſyred this thynge. And God ſayde vnto hym: Bycauſe thou haſt aſked this thynge, and haſt not aſked longe lyfe, neyther haſt aſked ryches, nor ☞ the ſoule of thyne enemyes, but haſt aſked vnderſtandynge and diſcrecyon in iudgement. Beholde, I haue done accordynge to thy peticyon: For I haue gyuen the a wyſe and an vnderſtandynge herte, ſo that there was none lyke the before the, neyther after the ſhall any aryſe lyke vnto the. And I haue alſo gyuen the that whiche thou haſt not aſked, euen rycheſſe and honoure: ſo that there ſhall be no kyng lyke the all thy dayes.

And yf thou wylte walke in my wayes, to kepe myne ordynaunces and my cõmaundementes (* as Dauid thy father dyd walke) I wyll lengthen thy dayes. When Salomon awoke, beholde, it was a dreame. * And he came to Ieruſalem, and ſtode before the arke of the teſtament of the lorde, ⁊ offered burntofferynges, ⁊ peaceofferynges, and made a feaſt to all his ſeruauntes. + Then came there two women (that were harlottes) vnto the kynge, and ſtode before hym. And the one woman ſayde: Oh my lorde, I and this woman dwell in one houſe. And I was delyuered of a chylde with her in the houſe. And the thyrde daye after that I was delyuered, ſhe was delyuered alſo: and we were togyther, and no ſtraunger with vs in the houſe, ſaue we two. And this wyues chylde dyed in the nyght, for ſhe ſmothered it. And ſhe aroſe at mydnyght and toke my ſon from my ſyde (whyle thyne handmayd ſlept) ⁊ layde it in her boſom, and put her dead chylde in my boſom. And when I roſe vp to gyue my chylde ſucke: beholde, it was deade. But when I had loked vpon it in the mornyng: Beholde, it was not my ſon whiche I dyd beare. The other woman ſayd: it is not ſo: But my ſon lyueth, ⁊ thy ſonne is deade. And ſhe ſayd agayne: No, but thy ſon is deade, ⁊ my ſonne is a lyue. And thus they pleated before the kynge. Then ſayde the kynge: the one ſayeth, this that is alyue is my ſon, and the deade is thyne. And the other ſayeth naye: But thy ſon is deade, ⁊ the lyue chylde is myne. And the kynge ſayde: brynge me a ſwerde. And they brought a ſwerde before the kynge. And the kynge ſayd: Deuyde the lyuynge chylde in two, and gyue the one halfe to the one, and the other to the other.

Then ſpake the woman (whoſe the lyuyng chylde was) vnto the kynge (for her bowels yerned vpon her ſon) and ſayd: I beſeche the my lorde, gyue her the lyuyng chylde, and in no wyſe ſley it. But the other ſayde: let it be neyther myne nor thyne, but deuyde it. Then the kynge anſwered and ſayd: * gyue her the lyuynge chylde, ⁊ ſley it not, for ſhe is the mother therof. And all they of Iſraell herde of the iudgement (whiche the kynge had iudged) ⁊ feared the kyng: for they ſawe, that the wyſdom of god was in hym, to do iuſtyce.

CAPI. V.

A AND Hiram kynge of Tyre ſent his ſeruauntes vnto Salomõ, for he had herde that they had anoynted hym kynge in the rowme of his father: * For Hiram was euer a louer of Dauid. * And Salomon ſent to Hiram, ſayenge: thou knoweſt * how that Dauid my father coulde not buylde an houſe vnto the name of the Lorde his God, for the warres which were about him on euery ſyde, vntyll the lorde put them vnder the ſoles of his feete. But nowe the Lorde my God hath gyuen me reſt on euery ſyde, ſo that there is neyther aduerſarye nor any euyll plage. And beholde, * I am determyned to buylde an houſe vnto the name of the lorde my god, as the Lorde ſpake vnto Dauid my father, ſayenge: thy ſon whom I wyll ſet vpon thy ſeate for the, he ſhall buylde an houſe vnto my name. When Hiram herde the wordes of Salomon, he reioyſed greatly, & ſayde: Bleſſed be the lorde this day which hath gyuen vnto Dauid a wyſe ſonne ouer this myghtye people. And Hiram ſent to Salomon, ſayenge: I haue conſidered the thynges which thou ſenteſt to me for, and wyl accompliſſhe all thy deſyre, concernyng tymbre of Cedar trees, and fyrre. My ſeruauntes ſhall brynge them from Libanon to the ſee. And the houſe whiche Salomon buylt for the lorde, was thre ſcore cubites long/ and twentye cubytes brode, and thyrtye cubytes hygh. And he * made a porche before the body of the temple, whiche was twentye cubytes longe after the bredeth of the houſe, and ten cubytes brode, euen in the forefront of the houſe. And in the houſe he made wyndowes, brode without, and narow within. And in the wall of the houſe, he made chambers rounde aboute, (euen in the wallꝭ of the houſe) roūde aboute the temple and the queer, and made ſydes roūde aboute. The neythermoſt chambre was fyue cubytes brode, and the myddle was ſyxe cubytes brode, and the thyrde was ſeuen cubites brode. For without in the wall of the houſe he layde beames roūde aboute/ that the beames of the chambers ſhulde not be faſtened in the walles of the houſe. And the other Cherub was ten cubytes hyghe alſo, ſo that both the cherubs were of one meaſure, & one ſyſe: For the heygth of the one Cherub was ten cubytes, & ſo was it of the other. And he put the cherubs ẇin the inner houſe. * And the cherubꝭ ſtretched out theyr wyngꝭ, ſo that the one wyng of the one touched the one wal, & the one wyng of the other touched the other wall. And the other two wyngꝭ of them touched one another in the myddꝭ of the houſe.

And then Salomon made an houſe for Pharos doughter, * (whom he had taken to wyfe) lyke vnto the faſſyon of that porche. B And all theſe were of the beſt ſtones, hewed after a meaſure, & ſawed with ſawes/ within, and without, from the foundacyon vnto the beames (that laye aboue, after the meaſure) and euen ſo on the out ſyde toward the great courte. And the foundacyon was layde vpon ryche ſtones and that very great ſtones: wherof ſome were ten cubites, & ſome eyght cubytes. And aboue were good ſtones ſquared after a certayne rule, and couered with Cedar. And the greate courte rounde aboute was ẇ thre rowes of hewed ſtone, and one rowe of Cedar plankes, after the maner of the inner courte of the houſe of the Lorde, and of the porche of the temple. ☞ * And kynge Salomon ſent & fet one Hiram out of Tire, a wedowes ſonne of the trybe of Nephtalim, his father beinge a man of Tyre, which Hiram was a craftes man in Braſſe / * full of wyſdom, vnderſtandynge, and cunnynge: to worke all maner of worke in braſſe. C And he came to kynge Salomon, & wrought all his worke. For he caſt * two pyllers of braſſe, of .xviii. cubytes hyght a pece, and a ſtrynge of .xii. cubytes dyd cōpaſſe ether of them about.

C And he made two heade peces of molten braſſe (after the faſſyon of a Crowne) to ſet on the toppꝭ of the pyllers: The heyght of the one heade pece conteyned fyue cubytes, & the heyght of the other head pece cōteyned fyue cubites alſo, he made alſo net worke, and garlandes of cheyne worke, vpō the heade peces that were on the top of the pillers, euen ſeuen (rowes) vpon the one headpece, & ſeuen vpon ✿

the other. And ſo he made the pyllers, ⁊ two rowes rōde aboute, in the one wrythē worke to couer the headpeces that were vpon the Pomgarnates. And thus dyd he alſo for the other headpeace. And the headpeces that were on the toppes of the pyllers, couered he aboue wᵗ a curyous worke of roſes, towarde the palace by the ſpace of .iiii. cubites. Lykewyſe, vnder the headpeces in thoſe .ii. pyllers beneth, ouer agaynſt the myddes, and before the net worke. And vpō the ſeconde headpece were there two hundred Pomegarnates in two rowes rounde aboute. And he ſet vp the pyllers in the porche of the temple.

D And when he had ſet vp the ryght pyller, he called the name therof * Jachin: and whē he had ſet vp the lefte Pyller, he called the name therof * Boaz. And in the top of the pyllers was a worke of roſes, and ſo was the workmanſhyp of the pyllers fynyſſhed. And he made a molten lauatory, ten cubites wyde from brym to brym, rounde in compaſſe, and fyue cubites hygh. And a ſtryng of thyrtie cubites dyd compaſſe it aboute, and vnder the brym of it there were knoppes rounde about ten in one cubite: and they compaſſed the lauatory rounde about. And the knoppes were caſt with it, in two rowes, when it was caſt. And it ſtode on twelue oxen: of whiche .iii. loked towarde the north .iii. towarde the weſt, thre towarde the South, and thre towarde the Eaſt, and the lauatorye ſtode vpon them, and all theyr hynderpartes were inwarde. It was an hande bredthe thycke, and the brym wrought lyke the brym of a cup with floures of lylyes. And it contayned two thouſande ☞ Bates. And he made ten ſockets of braſſe, foure cubites longe, and foure cubites brode a pece, and thre cubites hygh. And the worke of the ſockets was on this maner. They had ſydes, ⁊ the ſydes were bytwene the ledges. And on the ſydes that were bytwene the ledges, were lyons, oxen and Cherubs.

E And lykewyſe vpon the ledges that were aboue: ⁊ beneth the lyons and oxen, were certayne addicions made of thyn worke. And vnder euery ſocket were foure braſen wheles and bordes of braſſe. And in the four corners therof, were vnderſetters (vnder the lauatorie) caſt, eche ouer agaynſt his felowe. And the ſtalke of the lauatorye was in the myddle of it, ✿ (vvhere it is ſene on the outſyde) one cubyte hyghe, and a cubyte and an halfe round and in the heyght of it were grauen workes, whoſe ſydes were made four ſquare, and not rounde. And vnder the ſydes were foure wheles, and the axeltrees ioyned faſte to the bottome. And the heyght of euerye whele was a cubyte and an halfe. And the workemanſhyp of the wheles was lyke the worke of a charet whele. And the axeltrees, nauels, ſpokes ⁊ ſhaftes were all molten. And there were .iiii. vnderſetters in the .iiii. corners of one ſocket: and the vnderſetters were of the verye bottome ſelfe. And in the heyght of the bottome was there a rōde compaſſe of halfe a cubite hye: and in the heyght of the bottom there proceded both ledges ⁊ ſydes out of the ſame: For in the bordes of the ledges ⁊ on the ſydes he had grauen pyctures of Cherubins lyons, ⁊ palme trees, one by an other rounde aboute. Thus made he the ten ſockets after this maner. And they had all one faſſyon of caſtyng, one meaſure, and one ſyſe.

F ¶Then made he ten lauers of braſſe, one lauer conteynynge .xl. Bathes: and one lauer was foure cubites, and vpon euery one of the ten ſockets he put one lauer. And he put fyue of thoſe ſockets on the ryght ſyde of the houſe, and other fyue on the lefte. And he ſet the lauatorie on the ryght ſyde of the houſe Eaſtwarde and towarde the South. And Hiram made pottes, ſhouels, ⁊ baſens, ⁊ ſo fynyſhed all the worke that he made to kyng Salomō for the houſe of the Lorde: that is to ſay, two pyllers ⁊ two rounde heade peces that were to be ſet on the toppes of the two pyllers, and foure hundred Pomegarnates for the two net workes, (euen two rowes of Pomgarnates in one net worke) to couer the two heade peces that were to be ſet on the toppes of the pyllers. And the ten ſockets, ⁊ ten lauers on the ſockets. The lauatorie, ⁊ twelue oxen vnder it: ⁊ pottes, ſhouels ⁊ baſens. And al theſe veſſels whiche Hiram made to kyng Salomon for the houſe of the lorde, were of bryght braſſe. G In the playne of Jordan dyd the kyng caſt them: euen in the thycke claye bytwene Socob and Zarthan. And Salomon lefte al the veſſels vnweyed, bycauſe they were ſo excedynge many, neyther founde they oute the weyght of the braſſe. And ſo Salomon made all the veſſels that perteyned vnto the houſe of the Lorde: the golden aulter, ⁊ the golden table, wheron the ſhewbread was. And fyue candelſtyckes for the right ſyde, and fyue for the lefte, before the queer of pure golde: with floures, lampes, and ſnoffers of golde, and bolles, flat peces, baſens, ſpones ⁊ maſoures of pure golde: ⁊ hyndges made he of golde both for the dores of the queer (the place moſt holy) and for the dores of the temple alſo.

And ſo was ended al the worke that kynge Salomon made for the houſe of the Lorde.

And

ii.Par.4.d And * Salomon brought in the thynges which Dauid his father had dedicated: euen
the ſyluer/golde & veſſels, and layde them vp among the treaſures of the houſe of the lorde.

¶ The Arke is borne in to the temple. A cloude fylleth the temple. The temple is bleſſed.

CAPI. VIII.

A ii.Par.5.a Then * Salomon gathered togyther
the elders of Iſraell, all the heades of the trybes, (and them that were captay-Iſraell) vnto hym in Jeruſalem, that they myght brynge vp the arke of the appoynt-whiche is the ſeuenth moneth.

And all the elders of Iſraell were come/and the preſtes toke vp the arke. They bare the arke of the Lorde, in to the tabernacle of wytneſſe, and al the holy veſſels that were in the tabernacle: thoſe dyd the preſtes and the Leuites bere. And kynge Salomon & all the congregacyon of Iſrael that were aſſembled
vnto hym (& went with hym before the arke,) dyd offre ſhepe and oxen, that coulde not be tolde nor nombred for multitude. And ſo the preſtes brought the arke of the appoyntment of the lorde vnto his place, euẽ into the queer of the temple and place moſt holy, vnder the wynges of the Cherubs. For the Cherubs ſtretched out theyr wynges ouer the place of the arke, & couered bothe it & alſo the ſtaues therof an hygh vpon it. And they drewe oute the ſtaues, that the endes of them myght ap-peare out of the holy place within the queer,
but they were not ſene without.

B And there they haue bene vnto this daye/of Egypte. And it fortuned that when the preſtes were come out of the holy place, the cloude fylled the houſe of the Lorde, that the preſtes coulde not ſtand & miniſter, bycauſe of the cloude: for the glorye of the Lorde had fylled the houſe of the lorde. Then ſpake Sa-ruler ouer my people Iſrael.

And it was in the herte of Dauid my father to buylde an houſe for the name of the Lorde God of Iſraell. And the Lorde ſayde vnto Dauid my father. Where as it was thyne hert to buylde an houſe vnto my name
thou dydeſt well, that thou waſt ſo mynded.
Neuertheles thou ſhalt not buylde the houſe
but thy ſonne that ſhall come out of thy loy-

And the lorde hath made good his word that C

Dauid my father, & ſyt on the ſeate of Iſrael whiche he made with oure fathers, when he brought them oute of the lande of Egypte.

Salomon ſtode before the aulter of the lorde
in the ſyght of al the congregacion of Iſrael
and ſtretched out his handes towarde heuen,
and ſayd: * Lorde God of Iſrael, there is no

Bleſſed be the Lorde, that hath gyuen reſt vnto his people Iſrael, accordyng to all that he promiſed: * there hath not fayled one word of all the good promyſe, whiche he promyſed by the hande of Moſes his ſeruaunt. The Lorde our God be with vs, as he was with our fathers, & forſake vs not, neyther leaue vs: but that he maye bowe our hertes vnto hym, that we maye walke in all his wayes, & kepe his cōmaundementes, his ſtatutes and his lawes, which he cōmaunded our fathers. And theſe my wordes whiche I haue prayed before the Lorde, be nygh vnto the Lorde our god day and nyght, that he defende the cauſe of his ſeruaunt, and the cauſe of his people Iſraell (what thynge ſoeuer chaunce at any tyme) that al nacions of the earth may know that the Lorde is God, and none but he. i.Reg.iii.b.

G Let your herte therfore be perfyte with the lorde our God, that ye walke in his ſtatutes, and kepe his cōmaundementes, as this day. And the kynge and all Iſraell with hym, offered offerynges before the lorde. * And Salomon offered a ſacrifice of peaceofferynges vnto the Lorde, and he offered vnto the lorde .xxii. thouſande oxen, and an hundred and .xx. thouſande ſhepe: And ſo the kyng and al the chyldren of Iſrael dedicated the houſe of the lorde. The ſame daye dyd the kynge halowe the myddle of the courte, that was before the houſe of the lorde: for there he offered burnt offerynges, meatofferyng, and the fat of the peaceofferynges, bycauſe the braſen aulter that was before the Lorde, was to lytle to receyue the burnofferynges, meatofferynges, & the fat of the peaceofferynges. And Salomon helde that ſame tyme an hygh feaſt and all Iſraell with hym, a very great congregacion, euen from the entryng in of Hemath vnto the ryuer of Egypte, before the lorde oure God, * ſeuen dayes & ſeuen dayes, euen .xiiii. dayes. And the .viii. daye he ſent the people away. And they bleſſed the kynge and wente vnto theyr tentes ioyous and with glad hert, bycauſe of all the goodneſſe that the Lorde had done for Dauid his ſeruaunt, and for Iſrael his people. ii.Par.7.a Deute.16.c

¶ The Lorde appeareth the ſeconde tyme to Salomon. Salomon geueth townes to Hiram. The Cananytes become tributaryes. He ſendeth ſhyppes for golde. He buyldeth many Cityes.

CAPI. IX.

• A ii.Para.7.c And when Salomō had * fynyſſhed the buyldyng of the houſe of the lorde, and the kynges palace, and all that he had in his mynde, and was apoynted to make: the lorde appeared vnto hym agayne, as he appeared to hym at Gibeon. And the Lorde ſayde vnto hym: I haue herde thy prayer and thy interceſſyon, that thou haſt made before me. For I haue halowed this houſe (which thou haſt buylte,) to put my name there for euer, and myne eyes, & myne herte ſhal be there perpetually. And yf thou wylte walke before me (as Dauid thy father walked, in pureneſſe of herte & in ryghteouſnes) to do al that I haue cōmaunded the, & wylte kepe my ſtatutes, & my lawes, then wyll I ſtablyſſhe the ſeate of thy kyngdom vpon Iſrael for euer, as I promyſed to Dauid thy father, ſayenge.

B * Thou ſhalte not be without a man vpon the ſeate of Iſrael. But and yf ye and youre chyldren turne awaye from me, and wyll not kepe my cōmaundementes and my ſtatutes (whiche I haue ſet before you) but go & ſerue other Goddes, and worſhyp them: then wyll I wede Iſrael out of the lande, which I haue gyuen them. And this houſe whiche I haue halowed * for my name, wyl I caſt out of my ſyght. And Iſraell ſhall be a prouerbe and a fable among al nacions. And this houſe ſhal be taken away: ſo that euery one that paſſeth by it, ſhall be aſtonyed, and ſhall hyſſe, & they ſhall ſaye: * why hath the lorde done this vnto this lande & to this houſe? And they ſhall anſwere: bycauſe they forſoke the lorde theyr god, whiche brought theyr fathers out of the lande of Egypte, and haue taken holde vpon other Goddes, and haue worſhypped them, & ſerued them: therfore hath the Lorde brought vpon them all this euyll. * And it fortuned, that ☞ at the ende of twentye yeres, Salomon fynyſſhed the buyldyng of the two houſes, that is to wete, the houſe of the Lorde, & the kynges palace.

C And Hiram the kynge of Tyre, brought Salomon tymbre of Cedar, and Fyrre trees, golde, and what ſoeuer he deſyred. And Salomon agayne gaue Hiram twentie cityes in the lande of Galile. And * Hiram came out from Tyre to ſe the cityes whiche Salomon had gyuen hym, and they pleaſed hym not. And he ſayde: What cityes are theſe, whiche thou haſt gyuen me, my brother? And he called them the lande of ☞ Cabull vnto this daye. And Hiram ſente the kynge ſyx ſcore hundred weyght of golde. And this is the ſumme, whiche kynge Salomon rayſed for a tribute when he buylded the houſe of the Lorde and his owne houſe, and ☞ Millo and the wall of Ieruſalem, and Hazor, and Megeddo, and Gazer.

For Pharao kyng of Egypte went vp, and toke Gazer, and burnt it with fyre, and ſlue the Cananites that dwelt in the cytie, & gaue it for a preſent vnto his doughter, Salomons wyfe. And Salomon buylte Gazer and Beth Horon the nether: and Baalath and ☞ Thamar in the wyldernesſe and in the lande: and all the treaſure Cityes that Salomon had, ☞(and were vnwalled, thoſe he made ſtrong.) and cites for his charettes, and cities for his horſemen, and al that Salomon deſyred, and wolde buylde in Jeruſalem, in Libanon, and in all the lande of his dominyon. And all the people that were lefte of the Amorites, Hethites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Jeſubites, (whiche were not of the chyldren of Iſraell) theyr chyldren that were left after them in the lande, whom the chyldren of Iſrael alſo were not able to deſtroye. Thoſe dyd Salomon compell to brynge tribute vnto this day. But of the chyldren of Iſrael dyd Salomon * make no bonde men. But they were men of war, his miniſters, his lordes, his captaynes, and rulers of his charettes, and of his horſe men.

D And theſe were the lordes that were ſet ouer Salomons worke: euen fyue. C. were they, & fyftye, & they ruled the people that wrought the worke. And Pharaos doughter came vp out of the citie of Dauid vnto the houſe which Salomon had buylte for her. And then dyd he alſo buylde Millo. And thryſe a yere dyd Salomon offre burntofferynges and peace offerynges vpon the aulter, whiche he buylte vnto the Lorde: And he burnt inſence vpon the aulter that was before the lorde, and ſo he fynyſhed the houſe. And kynge Salomon made a nauye of ſhyppes in Azion Gaber, whiche is beſyde Eloth, on the brynke of the red ſee, in the land of Edom. And Hiram ſent by ſhyp alſo of his ſeruaũtes, that were ſhyp men, and had knowledge of the ſee, with the ſeruauntes of Salomon. And they came to Ophir and ſet from thence one and twentye ſcore hundred weyght of golde, and brought it to kynge Salomon.

¶ The quene of Saba cõmeth to heare the wyſdom of Salomon, whoſe royaltye is here deſcrybed.

CAPI. X.

A And the quene * of Saba hearynge the fame of Salomon (cõcernynge the name of the Lorde) came to proue hym with harde queſtions. And ſhe came to Jeruſalem with a very great trayne: with Camelles that bare ſwete odoures, & golde exceding moche, and precyous ſtones. And ſhe came to Salomõ, & comuned wt hym of all that was in her herte. And Salomon declared vnto her al her queſtions, ſo that there was not one thyng hyd frõ the kynge, which he expounded not vnto her.

And the quene of Saba conſydered all Salomons wyſdome, and the houſe that he had buylded, and the meate of his table, and ☞ the ſyttyng of his ſeruauntes, the order of his miniſters, and theyr apparell, his drynke and his burntſacrifices that he offred in the houſe of the Lorde, and ſhe was aſtonyed.

B And ſhe ſayd vnto the kyng, It was a true worde that I herde in myne owne lande of thy ſayenges, and of thy wyſdome. Howbeit I byleued it not, tyl I came, and ſawe it with myne eyes. And beholde, the one halfe was not tolde me: for thy wyſdome and proſperite exceedeth the ſame whiche I herde of the. Happy are thy men: and happy are theſe thy ſeruauntes, whiche ſtande euer before the, & heare thy wyſdome. Bleſſed be the Lorde thy God, whiche loued the, to ſet the on the ſeate of Iſrael, bycauſe the lorde loued Iſraell for euer, and made the kynge, to do equite and ryghteouſneſſe. And ſhe gaue the kynge ſyxe ſcore hundred weyght of golde, and of ſwete odoures exceedyng moche, and precyous ſtones. There came no more ſuch haboundaũce of ſwete odoures, as the quene of Saba gaue to kynge Salomon. ¶ The nauye alſo of the * ſhyppes of Hiram (that caryed golde from Ophir) brought lykewyſe great plentye of ☞ Almuge tre and precyous ſtones. And the kynge made of the Almuge trees, pyllers for the houſe of the Lorde, and for the kynges palace, and made harpes and pſaltryes for ſyngers. There came no more ſuche Almuge trees, nor were any more ſene vnto this day. And kyng Salomon gaue vnto the quene of Saba accordynge to all her deſyre what ſoeuer ſhe aſked: Beſydes that he gaue her of a free wyll with his owne hande. And ſo ſhe returned vnto her owne countrey: both ſhe, and her ſeruauntes. 1. Reg. 9. d.

C ¶ The weyght of golde that came to Salomon in one yere, was ſyxe hũdred threſcore & ſyxe talentes of golde, beſydes that he had of chapmen and of merchauntes and of Poticaries, and of all the kynges of Arabie, and of the lordes of the countrey. And kyng Salomon made two hundred buckelers of beaten golde, ſyxe hundred ſycles of golde went to a buckeler. And he made .iii. hundred ſheldes of beten golde, thre poũde of golde went to one ſhelde, and the kynge put them in the * houſe of the wood of Libanon. iii. Reg. 7. a.

And the kynge made a great ſeate of yuerye, and couered it with the beſt golde. And the ſeate had ſyxe ſteppes. And the toppe of the ſeate was rounde behynde, and there were pomels on eyther ſyde on the place of the ſeat and two lyons ſtode beſyde the pomels. And there ſtode .xii. Lyons on the ſteppes .vi. on a ſyde. There was none lyke (worke) ſene in any kyngdome.

Deut.17.d * And al kyng Salomons drynkyng veſſels were of golde, & lykewyſe al the veſſels of the houſe of the wood of Libanon were of pure golde. And as for ſyluer, it was nothynge worth in the dayes of Salomon.

☞ For the kynges nauye of ſhyppes went on the ſee ☞ vnto Tharſis with the nauye of Hirams ſhyppes: euen once in thre yere went the nauye to Tharſis, and brought Golde & ſyluer ☞ Elephantes tethe, apes & pecockes.

☞ ij.Par.ix.f D * And ſo kynge Salomon exceded all the kynges of the earth bothe in ryches & wyſdome. And al the worlde reſorted to Salomon to here his wyſdome, whiche God had put in his herte. And brought hym euery man his preſent, veſſels of ſyluer and veſſels of golde rayment, harneſſe, and ſwete odours, & horſes and Mules, yere by yere. And Salomon gathered togyther charettes and horſemen: & he had a thouſande & .iiii. hundred charettes, and twelue thouſande horſe men, whome he beſtowed in the charet cities, & with the kyng at Jeruſalem.

ij.Par.i.d. * And the kynge made ſyluer in Jeruſalem as plenteous as ſtones, & Cedar as plenteous as the wylde fyg trees that growe aboundauntly in the feldes.

☞ ☞ The bryngynge of horſes alſo out of Egypte: and the collectyon of the wares, dyd the kynges marchauntes take agayne, and ſolde the ſtuffe for a pryce. A charet came vp out of Egypt for .vi. hundred ſycles of ſyluer: ☞ that is ☞ one horſe for an hundred & fyftye. And euen ſo for all the kynges of the Hethites, and for the kynges of Siria, dyd they bryng them out, thorowe theyr handes.

¶ Salomon hath ſeuen hundred quenes, and thre hundred concubynes, whiche brynge hym to Idolatrye. His aduerſaryes ryſe agaynſt hym. He dyeth.

CAPI. XI.

A iij.Re.iii.a BUt kyng * Salomon loued many outlandyſhe women: and the doughter of Pharao: and women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonites & Hethites. Where as yet (concernyng theſe nacions) the Lorde ſayd vnto the chyldren of Iſrael: ☞ Exod.34.b * ☞ Come not ye at them, nor let them come at you: Els wyll they turne your hertes after theyr goddes. Neuertheles Salomon claue vnto them in loue. Deut.17.d. And he had ſeuen hundred Quenes, and .CCC. concubines, & his wyues turned away his herte. For it came to paſſe, when Salomon was olde his wyues turned his herte after other Gods: & his herte was not perfyte with the Lorde his God, as was the herte of Dauid his father: For Salomon folowed Aſtaroth the God of the Zidons, & Milcô, the abhominacion of the Ammonites.

B And Salomon wrought wyckedneſſe in the ſyght of the lorde, & folowed not the lorde perfytely, as dyd Dauid his father. ☞ For then dyd Salomon buylde ☞ an hygh place for Chamos the abhominacion of Moab, in the hyll that is before Jeruſalem, and vnto Moloch the abhominacion of the chyldren of Ammon. And lykewyſe dyd he for all his outlandyſhe wyues, which burnt ſence & offered vnto theyr Gods. And the Lorde was angrye wyth Salomon, bycauſe his herte was turned frō the Lorde god of Iſrael iij.Re. iii.a * whiche had appeared vnto hym twyſe, and gaue hym a charge (concernyng this thynge) that he ſhulde not folowe other Gods. But he kepte not that, whiche the Lorde cōmaunded hym: wherfore the Lorde ſayd vnto Salomon: for as moche as this is done of the, & thou haſt not kepte myne appoyntment, and my ſtatutes (which I cōmaunded the) I wyll rent the kyngdom from the, and wyll gyue it to thy ſeruaunt.

C Notwithſtandynge in thy dayes I wyll not do it, bycauſe of Dauid thy father: but wyll take it from the hande of thy ſonne. Howbeit, I wyll not take away all the kyngdome: but wyll gyue ☞ one trybe to thy ſon, ☞ bycauſe of Dauid my ſeruaunt, and bycauſe of Jeruſalem whiche I haue choſen. And the Lorde ſtyred vp an aduerſarye vnto Salomon: euen one Hadad an Edomite, of the kynges ſeede, whiche was in Edom. For whē Dauid was in Edom, & Joab the captayne of the hooſt was gone vp to burye them that were ſleyne, he ſmote all the men chyldren in Edom. For .vi. monethes dyd Joab remayne there and all Iſrael, tyll he had deſtroyed all the men chyldren in Edom. And this Hadad fled and certayne other Edomytes of his fathers ſeruauntes with hym, to come into Egypte: Hadad beyng yet a lytell chylde.

D And they aroſe out of Madian, and came to Paran, and toke mē with them out of Paran, and came to Egypte vnto Pharao kyng of Egypte, whiche gaue hym an houſe, and appoynted hym vittayles, & gaue hym land.

And Hadad gat great fauour in the ſyght of Pharao, ſo that he gaue hym to wyfe the ſyſter of his owne wyfe, euen the ſyſter of Thahpenes the Quene. And the ſyſter of Thahpenes bare hym Genubath his ſonne, whō Thahpenes norſhed in Pharaos houſe. And Genubath was of Pharaos houſholde among

amonge the ſonnes of Pharao. And whē Hadad herde in Egypte, that Dauid was layde to ſlepe with his fathers, and that Joab the captayne of the hooſt was deade alſo, he ſayd to Pharao: let me departe, that I may go to myne owne coūtrey. Pharao ſayd vnto him: What haſte thou lacked here with me, that thou woldeſt thus go to thyne owne coūtrey? He anſwered: nothyng: howbeit, let me go. And God ſtyrred hym vp an other aduerſary one Rezom the ſonne of Eliada, whiche fled from his lorde Hodadezer kynge of Zoba. And he gathered men vnto hym, and became captayne ouer the company, whē Dauid ſlue them. And they wente to Damaſco, & dwelte there, & reygned in Damaſco. Therfore was he an aduerſarye to Iſraell all the dayes of Salomon. And this was the myſcheyfe, in that Hadad dyd abhorre Iſrael, and reygned ouer Syria.

E And Jeroboam the ſonne of Nebat an Ephrathite of Zareda (whoſe mother was called Zeruah, which was a wydowe, and he Salomons ſeruaunt) ☞ lyfte vp his hande agaynſt the kynge. But this was the cauſe, that he lyfte vp his hande agaynſt the kyng. Salomon buylte Mello, & mended the broken places of the citye of Dauid his father. And this felow Jeroboam was a mā of war. And Salomon ſawe the yonge man, that he was able to do the worke, he made hym ruler ouer all the charges of the houſe of Joſeph. And it chaunced at that ſeaſon, that Jeroboā wente out of Jeruſalem, & the prophet Ahia the Silonite met hym by the way, hauyng a newe mantell on hym, & they two were alone in the felde. And Ahia caught the newe mantel that was on hym & rent it in twelue peces and ſayd to Jeroboam: take the ten peces.

F For this ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael: Beholde, I wyll rent the kyngdome out of the handes of Salomon, and wyll gyue ten tribes to the, * and he ſhal haue one, for my ſeruaunt Dauids ſake, and for Jeruſalem the citye whiche I haue choſen out of all the tribes of Iſrael: bycauſe they haue forſaken me and haue worſhypped Aſtharoth the God of the Zedons, & Chamos the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the chyldren of Ammon, and haue not walked in my wayes (to fulfyll my pleaſure, my ſtatutes and my lawes,) as dyd Dauid his father.

I wyll not take the hole kyngdome out of his hande: but wyll make hym cheyfe all his lyfe longe, for Dauid my ſeruauntes ſake, whom I choſe: bycauſe he kepte my cōmaundementes and my ſtatutes. * But I wyl take the kyngdome out of his ſonnes hande, and wyll gyue vnto the, euen ten tribes of it: and to his ſonne wyll I gyue one trybe, that Dauid my ſeruaunt may haue a light alway before me in Jeruſalem, the citye which I haue choſen me, to put my name there. And I wyll take the, and thou ſhalte reygne accordynge to all that thy ſoule deſyreth, & ſhalte be kyng ouer Iſrael.

G And yf thou herken vnto all that I commaunde the, and wylte walke in my wayes, & do that is ryght in my ſyght, that thou kepe my ſtatutes and my cōmaundementes (as Dauid my ſeruaunt dyd) then wyl I be with the & buylde the a ſure houſe that ſhal contynue, as I buylte for my ſeruaunt Dauid, and wyl gyue Iſraell vnto the. And therwith wyll I vexe the ſeede of Dauid, but not for euer.

Salomon ſought therfore to kyll Jeroboam, and Jeroboam aroſe, and fled in to Egypte vnto Siſak kyng of Egypte, & contynued there in Egypte vntyl the death of Salomon. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Salomon, and al that he dyd, & his wyſdom: are they not wrytten in the boke of the wordes of Salomon? The tyme that Salomon reygned in Jeruſalem vpon all Iſraell, was fourtye yere. And Salomon ſlepte & he layd hym with his fathers, and was buryed in the citye of Dauid his father, and Rehoboam his ſonne reygned in his ſteade.

¶ The kyngdom is deuyded. Rehoboam reygneth ouer two Trybes, and Jeroboam ouer ten. Aduram is ſtoned. Jeroboam maketh golden Calues.

CAPI. XII.

A AND * Rehoboam went to Sichem: for al Iſrael were come to Sichem, to make hym kyng. And Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat (whiche was yet in Egypte) herde of it * for he fled to Egypte from the preſence of kyng Salomon, & dwelte in Egypte. So they ſent & called hym: and Jeroboam and all the congregacyon of Iſrael came, & ſpake vnto Rehoboam, ſayenge: Thy father made oure ☞ yoke greuous, nowe therfore make thou the greuous ſeruyce of thy father & his ſore yoke which he put vpon vs, lyghter, & we wyl ſerue the. And he ſayd vnto them: departe yet for the ſpace of .iii. dayes, & then come agayn to me. And the people departed. And kynge Rehoboam toke counſayle with the olde mē that ſtode before Salomon his father, whyle he yet lyued, & ſayd: what counſayle gyue ye, that I may haue matter to anſwere this people? B And they ſayde vnto hym: If yͧ be a ſeruaūt vnto this people this day, & folow theyr myndes & anſwere them, & ſpeke kynde wordes to thē: they wyl be thy ſeruaūtes for euer.

ii.Par.x.a

iii.Re.xi.b

But he forſoke the counſayle that the olde men had geuen hym, & called vnto his counſayle yonge men, that were growen vp with hym, and wayted on hym. And he ſayd vnto them: what counſayle geue ye, that we maye anſwere this people? for they haue commuened with me, ſayenge: make the yoke whiche thy father dyd put vpon vs, lyghter? And the yonge men that were growen vp with hym, C ſpake vnto hym, ſayenge: Thus ſhalte thou ſpeake vnto this people (that haue ſayd vnto the: thy father made our yoke heuy, but make thou it vs lyghter.) Euen thus ſhalte thou ☞ ſay vnto them: ☞ My lytell fynger ſhall be weyghtyer, thē my father was in the loynes. And nowe where as my father dyd lade you & put a greuous yoke vpon you, I wyl make ☞ it heuyer: my father alſo corrected you with ſcourges, but I wyll chaſtyſe you wt ☞ ſcorpions. And ſo Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the thyrde daye, as the kynge had appoynted, ſayenge: Come to me agayne the thyrde day. And the kyng anſwered the people churlyſſhly, and lefte the olde mens counſayle (that they gaue hym) and ſpake to them after the coūſayle of the yonge men, ſayenge. My father made your yoke gre- D uous, and I wyll make it greuouſer: My father alſo chaſtyſed you with whyppes, but I wyl chaſtyſe you wt ſcorpions. And the kyng herkened not vnto the people: for it was the iij.Reg.xi.f ordenaunce of god, that he myght * performe his ſayenge, whiche the lorde ſpake by Ahia the Silonite vnto Jeroboam, the ſonne of Nebat. And ſo when Iſraell ſawe, that the kynge regarded them not, the people anſwered the kynge with theſe wordes, ſayenge: ij.Re.xx.a. * what porcyon haue we in Dauid? we haue ij.Par.x.d. no enheritaunce in the ſonne of Iſai. * To your tentes O Iſrael, nowe ſe to thyne owne houſe Dauid. And ſo Iſraell departed vnto theyr tentes. Howbeit, ouer the chyldren of Iſrael which dwelte in the cytye of Juda, dyd Rehoboam reygne ſtyll. Then kynge Rehoboam ſent Adurā the receyuer of the tribute. And all they of Iſrael ſtoned hym to deathe. But kyng Rehoboam made ſpede to get him vp to his charet, and to flee to Jeruſalem.

E And they of Iſraell rebelled agaynſt the houſe of Dauid, vnto this day. And when al Iſraell herde that Jeroboam was come agayne they ſent and called hym vnto the multitude, and made hym kynge ouer all Iſrael: & there was no tribe that folowed the houſe ij.Par.xi.a of Dauid, but Juda onely. * And when Rehoboam was come to Jeruſalem, he gathered all the houſe of Juda, with the tribe of Beniamin an hundred and foure ſcore thouſande of choſen men (whiche were good warryours) to fyght agaynſt the houſe of Iſrael And to brynge the kyngdome agayne to Rehoboam the ſonne of Salomon.

And the worde of God came vnto Semaia the man of God: ſaynge: F Speake vnto Rehoboam the ſonne of Salomon kyng of Juda and vnto all the houſe of Juda and Beniamin, and to the remenaunt of the peple, ſayenge: Thus ſayth the Lorde. Ye ſhall not go vp, nor yet fyght agaynſt your brethren the chyldren of Iſrael, returne euery man to his houſe, for this thyng is my doyng. They herkened therfore to the worde of the Lorde, and returned to departe, accordynge to the worde of the Lorde. Then Jeroboā buylte Sichem in mount Ephraim, and dwelte therin. And went from thence, * and buylte Penuel.

And Jeroboam thought in his herte: nowe ſhall the kyngdome returne to the houſe of Dauid. For yf this people go vp, and do ſacrifice in the houſe of the lorde at Jeruſalem, thē ſhal the herte of this people turne agayn vnto theyr lorde Rehoboam kynge of Juda: And ſo ſhall they kyll me, and go agayne to Rehoboam kyng of Juda. * Wherupon the kyng toke counſayle, and made two calues of golde, and ſayde vnto them. It is moche for you to go vp to Jeruſalem.

* Beholde, O Iſrael: theſe are thy goddes G which brought you out of the land of Egipte And he ſet the one in Bethel, & the other ſet he in Dan. And this thyng turned to ſynne: for the people went (bycauſe of the one) as farre as Dan. And he made an houſe of hyll aulters, * and made preeſtes of the loweſt of the people, which were not of the ſonnes of Leui. Jeroboā made a feaſt the .xv. day of the .viii. moneth, lyke vnto the feaſt that is in Juda, & offered on the aulter. And ſo dyd he in Bethel, to offre vnto the calues that he had made And he put in Bethel the preeſtes of the hyll aulters, whiche he had made. And he offered burntofferynges vpon the aulter, whiche he had made in Bethel the .xv. daye of the .viii. moneth: euen in the Moneth whiche he had ymagened of his owne herte: and made a ſolempne feaſt vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and offered vpon the aulter, and burnt inſence.

¶ Jeroboam doynge ſacrifice vnto the calues, is reproued of the Prophet. His hand is dryed vp, whyle he putteth it agaynſt the Prophet. The Prophet is kylled and buryed.

CAPI. XIII.

AND beholde, there came ☞ a man of A God out of Juda (by the worde of the Lorde) vnto Bethel, and Jeroboam ſtode by the aulter to put inſence, & he cryed agaynſt the aulter in the worde of the lorde, and ſayd: O aulter, aulter, thus ſayeth the Lorde: Beholde, a chylde ſhall be borne vnto the houſe of Dauid, (Joſia by name) & vpon the ſhal he offre the Preeſtes of the hyll aulters that burne incenſe vpon the, and mennes bones ſhall be brent vpon the. And he gaue a token the ſame tyme, ſaynge: this is the token, that the Lorde hath ſpoken it: Beholde, the aulter ſhall rente, and the aſſhes that are vpon it, ſhall fall out.

B And when the kynge herde the ſayenge of the man of God, (whiche had cryed agaynſt the aulter in Bethell,) he ſtretched out his hande from the aulter, ſayenge: holde hym. And his hande whiche he put forth agaynſt hym, dryed vp, and he coulde not pull it in agayne to hym: the aulter alſo claue aſunder/ and the aſſhes fell out from the aulter, accordynge to the token whiche the man of God had gyuen by the worde of the Lorde. And the kynge anſwered, and ſayde vnto the man of god: * Oh praye vnto the lorde thy god, & make interceſſion for me, that my hande may be reſtored me agayne. And the man of God beſought the Lorde, and the kynges hande was reſtored agayne, and became as it was afore. And the kynge ſayde vnto the man of God: come home with me, that thou mayeſt dyne, and J wyll gyue the a rewarde. And the man of god ſayd vnto the kyng: yf thou woldeſt gyue me halfe thyne houſe, J wyll not go in with the, neyther wyll J eate breade or drynke water in this place.

C For ſo was it charged me thorow the word of the lorde, ſaynge: eate no bread nor drynke water, nor turne agayne by the ſame waye that yͧ cameſt. And ſo he went another waye, and returned not by the way that he came to ☞ Bethell. And there dwelt ☞ an olde prophet in Bethell, and his ſon came, and tolde hym all the workes, that the man of god had done that daye in Bethell, and the wordes whiche
☞ he had ſpoken vnto the kynge ☞ tolde they theyr father alſo. And theyr father ſayde vnto them: what waye went he? And his ſonnes ſhewed hym what waye the man of god went whiche came frome Juda. And he ſayde vnto his ſonnes: ſadle me the aſſe. Which when they had ſadled, he gat hym vp theron, and went after the man of God, and founde hym ſyttynge vnder a tre. And he ſayd vnto hym: arte thou the man of God that cameſt from Juda? And he ſayde: J am.

D He ſayde vnto hym: come home with me, and eate breade. He anſwered: J may not returne with the, to go in with the, neyther wyll J eate bread or drynke water with the in this place. For it was ſayde to me in the worde of the Lorde: Thou ſhalte eate no breade, nor drynke water there, nor turne agayne to go by the waye that thou cameſt. He ſayde vnto hym: J am a prophet alſo as well as thou, & an angell ſpake vnto me in the worde of the Lorde, ſayenge: brynge hym agayne with the into thyne houſe, that he maye eate breade, & drynke water. And he lyed vnto hym. And ſo he went agayne with hym, & dyd eate breade in his houſe and dranke water. And it fortuned, that as they ſat at the table, the worde of the lord came vnto the prophet, that brought hym agayne.

E And he cryed vnto the man of God that came from Juda, ſayenge: thus ſayeth the lorde: bicauſe thou haſt dyſobeyed the mouth of the lorde, and haſte not kepte the cõmaundement whiche the lorde thy god cõmaunded the, but cameſt backe agayne, and haſt eaten breade, and dronke water, in the place (concernynge the whiche the lorde dyd ſaye vnto the. Thou ſhalt eate no bread nor drynke water) thy carkas ſhall not come vnto the ſepulchre of thy fathers. And ſo it cam to paſſe, that when he had eaten breade & dronke, the prophet whiche brought hym agayne, ſadled hym an aſſe. And when he was gone, * a Lyon met hym by the waye, and ſlue hym, & his carkas was caſt in the waye, & the aſſe ſtode therby, and the Lyon ſtode by the coorſe alſo.

3.Reg.xx.f.

F And men that paſſed by, ſawe the carkas caſt in the way, and the Lyon ſtandyng therby: & they came & tolde it in the towne where the olde prophet dwelt. And whẽ the prophet that brought him backe agayne frõ the waye herde therof, he ſayde: it is the man of God: He was dyſobedient vnto the worde of the Lorde, and therfore the Lorde hath delyuered hym vnto the Lyon, which hath rent him and ſleyne hym, accordynge to the worde of the lorde, whiche he ſpake vnto hym. And he ſpake to his ſonnes, ſayenge: Sadle me an Aſſe: and ſo they dyd. And he went, & founde his bodye caſt in the waye. And the aſſe and the Lyon ſtode by the coorſe. And the Lyon had not eaten the carkas, nor hurte the Aſſe.

G And the prophet toke vp the bodye of the man of God, and layde it vpon the Aſſe, and brought it agayn, and the olde prophet came to the citye to lament, and to burye hym. And he layde his bodye in his owne graue, & they lamented ouer hym. (Alas my brother.) And when he had buryed hym, he ſpake to his ſonnes, ſayenge: when J am dead, ſe that ye burye me in the ſepulcre wherin the man of god is buryed: laye my bones beſyde his bones: 4.Reg.23.b * For the ſayinge which is cryed at the worde of the Lorde agaynſt the aulter in Bethell (and agaynſt all the houſes of hyll aulters, which are in the cityes of Samarie) ſhall come to paſſe. Howbeit, for all that, Jeroboam conuerted not from his wycked way: but turned backe, and made of the loweſt of the people Preeſtes of the hylaulters. And who ſo pleaſed hym, he fylled his hande, and he became Preeſt of the hylaulters. And this thynge turned to ſynne vnto the houſe of Jeroboam, euen to deſtroye hym, and to brynge hym to nought from of the face of the earth.

¶ Jeroboams wyfe aſketh councell of Ahia the Prophet. Jeroboam dyeth. Syſack kynge of Egypte robbeth the houſe of the lorde. Rehoboam dyeth, and Abiam ſucceedeth hym.

CAPI. XIIII.

A AT that tyme Abia the ſonne of Jeroboam fell ſycke. And Jeroboam ſayd vnto his wyfe: vp (I praye the) and dyſguyſe thy ſelfe, that thou be not knowen to be the wyfe of Jeroboam, and get the to Silo. For there is Ahia the prophet which tolde me 3 Regũ.xi.f * that I ſhuld be kynge ouer this people. And take with the ten loues, and cracknels/ and a cruſe of honye, and go to hym: that he maye tel the what ſhal become of the chylde. And Jeroboams wyfe dyd ſo: and aroſe, and went to Silo, and came to the houſe of Ahia.

But Ahia coulde not ſe, for his eyes were waxen dymme for age. And the Lorde ſayde vnto Ahia: beholde, the wyfe of Jeroboam cõmeth, to aſke a thynge of the for her ſonne, for he is ſycke. But thus ſhalt thou ſaye vnto her. And when ſhe came in, ſhe feyned her ſelfe to be a nother woman.

B But when Ahia herde the ſounde of her feete as ſhe came in at the dore, he ſayd: come in thou wyfe of Jeroboam, why feyneſt thou thy ſelfe ſo, to be another? I am ſent to the to ſhewe the heuy thynges. Go, tell Jeroboam, thus ſayeth the Lorde God of Iſraell: for as moche as 3 Regũ.12.c * I exalted the from amonge the people, and made the prynce ouer my people Iſraell, I dyd rent the kyngdom away from the houſe of Dauid, and gaue it the: Neuertheles, thou haſt not ben as my ſeruaunt Dauid, whiche kepte my cõmaundementes, and folowed me wͭ all his herte, to do that whiche is ryght in myne eyes: but haſt done euyll, aboue all that were before the: for thou haſt gone, and made the other Goddes, and molten ymages, to prouoke me, and haſt caſt me behynde thy backe: therfore beholde, I wyll brynge euyll vpon the houſe of Jeroboam/ and wyll rote out from Jeroboam, euen him that * pyſſeth agaynſt the wall, and hym that C is in pryſon and forſaken in Iſraell, and wyl take awaye the remenaunte of the houſe of Jeroboam, as a man taketh awaye dounge/ tyll he hath caryed out all.

* Whoſoeuer (of Jeroboams houſe) dyeth in the towne, hym ſhall the dogges eate: and he that dyeth in the felde, ſhall the foules of the ayre eate, for the Lorde hath ſayde it. Up therfore, and get the to thyne houſe: Behold/ when thy foote entereth in to the Citye, the chylde ſhall dye. And all they of Iſraell ſhall mourne for hym, and burye hym, for he only of Jeroboam, ſhall come to the ſepulchre, bycauſe in hym there is founde goodneſſe towarde the Lorde God of Iſraell in the houſe of Jeroboã. Morouer, the lorde ſhall ſtyrre hym vp a kynge ouer Iſraell, whiche ſhall deſtroye the houſe of Jeroboam in that day. D

☞ But what is it nowe? For the Lorde ſhall ſmyte Iſraell, as when a rede is ſhaken in the water, and he ſhall wede Iſraell out of this good lande (whiche he gaue to theyr fathers,) and ☞ ſhall ſcatter them beyonde the ryuer, bicauſe they haue made them grouis/ and angred the Lorde. And he ſhall gyue Iſraell vp, bycauſe of the ſynnes of Jeroboam, which dyd ſynne, and made Iſraell to ſynne. And Jeroboams wyfe aroſe, and departed/ and came to Thirzah, and when ſhe came to the threſhold of the dore, the chylde was dead. And all Iſraell buryed hym, and lamented hym, accordynge to the worde of the Lorde, which he ſpake by the hande of his ſeruaunt Ahia the prophete.

E And the reſt of the wordes that concerne Jeroboã, how he warred, & how he reygned. Beholde, they are wrytten in the booke of the Cronycles of the kynges of Iſraell. And the dayes whiche Jeroboam reygned, were .xxii. yeare. And when he was layde a ſlepe with his fathers, Nadab his ſonne reygned in his ſteade. Rehoboam the ſonne of Salomon reygned in Juda, and Rehoboam was .xli. yeare olde when he began to reygne, and he reygned .xvii. yeare in Jeruſalem (the cytye whiche the Lorde dyd choſe out of all the trybes of Iſraell, to put his name there.)

F His mothers name was Naama an Ammonite. And Juda wrought wyckedneſſe in the ſyght of the lorde, and angred hym in mo thynges then theyr fathers dyd in theyr ſynnes, whiche they ſynned. For they alſo made them ☞ hylaulters, ymages, and groues on euery hye hyll, and vnder euery thicke tree. And there was a ſtues of male chyldren in the lande, & they dyd accordynge to all the abhominacyons of the nacyons whiche the Lorde caſt out before the Chyldren of Iſraell. And it fortuned, that in the fyfte yeare of kynge Rehoboam: Siſack kynge of Egypte came vp agaynſt Ieruſalem, and toke awaye the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and the treaſures of the kynges houſe, and ſpoyled all that was to be had.

G And he toke awaye the ſhyldes of golde, * whiche Salomon had made. In whoſe ſteade kyng Rehoboam made braſen ſhyldes/ and commytted them vnto the handes of the kepyng of the captaynes of the garde, which wayted at the dore of the kynges houſe. And when the kynge went in to the houſe of the lorde, they of the garde bare them, ⁊ brought them agayne in to the garde chambre. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Rehoboam/ and all that he dyd, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronycles of the kynges of Iuda? And there was warre bytwene Rehoboam, and Ieroboam all theyr lyues. And Rehoboam ſlepte with his fathers, and was buryed beſyde his fathers, in the citye of Dauyd. His mothers name was Naama an Ammonite. And Abiam his Sonne reygned in his ſteade.

¶ Wycked Abiam reygneth ouer Iuda, and ryghteous Aſa ſucceadeth in his roume. The battayle bytwene Aſa ⁊ Baaſa. Iehoſaphat ſucceadeth Aſa. Nabab ſucceadeth Ieroboam. Baaſa kylleth Nabab.

CAPI. XV.

A IN the .xviii. yeare of kynge * Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, reygned Abiam ouer Iuda. Thre yeare reygned he in Ieruſalem, and his mothers name was Maacha the doughter of Abiſalom. And he walked in all the ſynnes of his father, whiche he had done before hym, and his herte was not perfyte with the Lorde his God, * as the herte of Dauid his father. Neuertheleſſe for Dauids ſake dyd the Lorde is God gyue hym a lyght in Ieruſalem, that he ſet vp ☞ his ſon after hym, and to ſtablyſſhe Ieruſalem: Bycauſe Dauid dyd that, whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde, and turned from nothynge that he cõmaunded hym al the dayes of his lyfe, * ſaue onely in the matter of Urias the Hethite.

B And there was war bytwene Rehoboam/ and Ieroboam as longe as he lyued. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Abiam, and all that he dyd, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda? And there was war bytwene Abiam, and Ieroboam. And Abiam ſlepte with his Fathers, ⁊ they buryed hym in the citye of Dauid. And Aſa his ſon reygned in his ſteade.

ii.Par.14.a * In the .xx. yeare of Ieroboam kynge of Iſraell, reygned Aſa ouer Iuda. xli. yeare reygned he in Ieruſalem, and his mothers name was Maacha, the doughter of Abiſalom. And Aſa dyd that ſemed ryght in the eyes of the Lorde, as dyd Dauid his father. * And he toke awaye the hoore kepers out of the lande, and put awaye all the abhomynable Idols that his fathers had made.

C And he put downe * Maacha ☞ his mother frõ bearyng rule, bycauſe ſhe had made ymages in groues. And Aſa deſtroyed her ymages, ⁊ burnt them by the broke Cedron. ☞ But the hylaulters were not put downe. Neuertheleſſe Aſas herte was perfyte with the Lorde all his dayes. He brought in the holy veſſels of his Father, (and that he had dedicate) vnto the houſe of the Lorde: golde and ſyluer, and Iuels. And there was warre bytwene Aſa, and Baaſa kynge of Iſrael all theyr dayes. * And Baaſa kynge of Iſraell, went vp agaynſt Iuda, and buylt Rama, ſo that he wolde let none go out or in, to Aſa kynge of Iuda.

D Then Aſa toke all the ſyluer and golde, that was lefte in the treaſures of the houſe of the lorde, ⁊ the treaſures of the kyngꝭ houſe/ and delyuered them vnto the handes of his ſeruauntes, and Aſa ſent them to * Benhadad the ſonne of Tabrimon, the ſonne of Hezion kynge of Siria, (that dwelt at Damaſco,) ſayenge: there is a bonde bytwene me ⁊ the, bytwene my father ⁊ thy father. And beholde, I haue ſent vnto the a preſent of ſyluer and golde that thou come and breake the bonde that thou haſt with Baaſa kynge of Iſraell, that he maye departe from me. So Benhadad herkened vnto kynge Aſa, ⁊ ſent the captaynes of the hooſtes (whiche he had) agaynſt the cityes of Iſraell, and ſmote Hion, and Dan, and Abell, Beth Maacah, and all the regyon of Ceneroth withall the lande of Nephthali.

E And when Baaſa herde therof, he lefte buyldynge of Rama and dwelt in Thirza. Then kynge Aſa made a proclamacyon thorowout all Iuda, that noone ſhulde be excuſed. And ſo they toke the ſtones of Rama, and the tymbre (wherwith Baaſa had buylded,) and kynge Aſa buylte with them the hyll of Ben Iamin, and Mizpa. The remenaunt of all the wordes that concerne Aſa, and all his myght and all that he dyd, ⁊ the cityes which he buylded, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda? Neuertheleſſe in is olde age he was dyſeaſed in his feete.

F And Aſa ſlepte with his fathers, and was buryed beſyde his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father. And * Jehoſaphat his ſonne reygned in his ſteade. And Nadab the ſonne of Jeroboam began to reygne vpon Iſraell the ſeconde yere of Aſa kynge of Juda, and reygned vpon Iſraell two yeare. And he dyd euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, walkynge in the waye of his father and in his ſynne wherwith he made Iſraell ſynne. And Baaſa the ſonne of Ahia (whiche was of the houſe of Iſachar) conſpyred agaynſt hym, ⁊ Baaſa ſmote hym at Gibbethon whiche is a citye of the Philiſtines: For Nadab and all Iſraell layde ſeyge to Gibbethon. Euen in the thyrd yere of Aſa kynge of Juda, dyd Baaſa ſley hym, and reygned in his ſteade.

iii.Re.14.a

G * And it fortuned that when he was kyng, he ſmote all the houſe of Jeroboam, and left hym nought that brethed, vntyll he had put hym cleane out, accordynge vnto the ſayinge of the Lorde, whiche he ſpake by his ſeruaũt Ahia the Silonete: bycauſe of the ſynnes of Jeroboam wherwith he ſynned ⁊ made Iſraell ſynne, when he with his prouocacyon angred the Lorde God of Iſraell. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Nadab, and all that he dyd, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronicles of the kyngꝭ of Iſraell? And there was war bytwene Aſa, ⁊ Baaſa kynge of Iſraell all theyr dayes.

So in the thyrde yere of Aſa kynge of Juda, began Baaſa the ſonne of Ahia to reygne ouer all Iſraell in Thirza. xxiiii. yere. And he dyd that whiche is euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, walkynge in the waye of Jeroboam/ and in his ſynne, whiche made Iſraell to ſyn.

¶ Jehu prophecyeth agaynſt Baaſa, whome Ela ſucceDeth. Zimri kylleth his mayſter Ela, and deſtroyeth the houſe of Baaſa. Ahab ſucceDeth Amri, and taketh to wyfe wycked Jezabell.

CAPI. XVI.

A Then the worde of the lorde came to Jehu the ſonne of Hanani agaynſt Baaſa ſayenge: for aſmoche as I exalted the out of the duſt, and made the captayne ouer my people Iſraell, and thou haſt walked in the waye of Jeroboam, and haſt made my people Iſraell to ſyn, to anger me with theyr ſynnes: Beholde, I wyll roote out the poſterite of Baaſa, and the poſterite of his houſe, and wyll make his houſe / lyke the houſe of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat. * That man of Baaſa whiche dyeth in the cytye, hym ſhal the dogges eate: and that man of hym which dyeth in the feldes, ſhal the foules of the ayre eate.

iii.Reg.14.c and.xxi.e

B The reſt of the wordes that concerne Baaſa, and what he dyd, and his power, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Iſraell? And ſo Baaſa ſlepte with his fathers, and was buryed in Thirza. And Ela his Sonne reygned in his ſteade. And by the hande of the prophete Jehu the Sonne of Hanani, came the worde of the Lorde agaynſt Baaſa, and agaynſt his houſe, and agaynſt all the wyckedneſſe that he dyd in the ſyght of the lorde (in angeryng hym with the worke of his owne handꝭ) that he ſhulde be lyke the houſe of Jeroboam, and ✠ ☞ bycauſe he kylled hym. ✠ (That is to ſay Iehu the ſonne of Hanani the prophet.)

The. xxvi. yere of Aſa kynge of Juda began Ela the ſonne of Baaſa to reygne ouer Iſraell in Thirza, two yere. And his ſeruaũt Zimri (which was captayne of halfe his charettes) conſpired agaynſt hym, as he was in Thirza drynkynge: and was dronken in the houſe of Arza ſteward of his houſe in Thirza.

C And Zimri came, and ſmote him, and kylled hym in the. xxvii. yere of Aſa kynge of Juda, and reygned in his ſteade. And it fortuned that when he was kynge * and ſatte on his ſeate, he ſlue all the houſe of Baaſa, not leauynge therof: one to pyſſe agaynſt a walle:

Yea, he ſlue his kynſfolkes, and frendes alſo. And thus dyd Zimri deſtroye all the houſe of Baaſa, accordynge to the worde of the lorde, whiche he ſpake agaynſt Baaſa by the hande of Jehu the prophet, for all the ſynnes of Baaſa and ſynnes of Ela his ſonne/ whiche they ſynned, and made Iſraell to ſyn, and angre the lorde god of Iſraell with theyr vanityes. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Ela, and al he dyd, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Iſraell? In the. xxvii. yere of Aſa kynge of Juda, dyd Zimri reygne. vii. dayes in Thirza, ⁊ the people was then in the hooſte beſegynge Gibbethon a citye of the Philiſtines.

D And the people in the hooſt herde one ſay: Zimri hath conſpired, and ſleyne the kynge: Wherfore, all they of Iſraell made Amri (the captayne of the hooſt) kynge ouer Iſrael that ſame day, euen in the hooſt. And Amri departed vp frõ Gibbethon, ⁊ all Iſraell with hym and they beſeyged Thirza. And when Zimri ſawe that the citye muſt nedes be taken, he went in to the palace of the kyngꝭ houſe, and burnt hym ſelfe and the kynges houſe with fyre, and ſo dyed, for his ſynnes which he ſynned, in doyng that which is euell in the ſyght of the Lorde, and in walkynge in the waye of Jeroboam and in his ſynnes whiche he dyd, and in that he made Iſraell to ſynne.

The reſt of the wordes that cõcerne Zimri and

E and the treaſon that he wrought, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Iſraell? Then were the people of Iſraell deuyded into two partes, for halfe the people folowed Thibni the ſonne of Ginath makynge hym kyng: and the other halfe folowed Amri. But the people that folowed Amri, preuayled agaynſt the people that folowed Thibni the ſonne of Ginath. And ſo Thibni dyed, and Amri reygned. In the .xxxi. yeare of Aſa kynge of Juda, began Amri to reygne ouer Iſraell .xii. yere. Sixe yeare reygned he in Thirza. ✠ He bought the hyll ☞ Sohomron of one Schemar for two talentes of ſyluer, and buylte in the hyll, and called the name of the citye whiche he buylte, after the name of Schemar whiche had ben owner of the hyll Schomron. But Amri wrought that whiche is euyll in the eyes of the Lorde, and dyd worſe then all that were before hym.

F For he walked in all the waye of Jeroboam the Sonne of Nabat, and in his ſynnes/ that made Iſraell ſynne, to anger the Lorde God of Iſraell with theyr vanityes. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Amri, & all that he dyd, and his ſtrength that he ſhewed, are they not wrytten in the boke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Iſraell? And ſo Amry ſlept with his fathers, and was buryed in Schemaron, and Ahab his Sonne reygned in his ſteade. In the .xxxviii. yeare of Aſa kynge of Juda, beganne Ahab the ſonne of Amri to reygne ouer Iſraell, and the ſame Ahab the ſonne of Amri reygned ouer Iſraell in Samaria .xxii. yeare.

G And Ahab the ſonne of Amri dyd euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, aboue all that were before hym. For it ſemed vnto hym but a lyght thynge to walke in the ſynnes of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat. He toke Jezebell alſo the doughter of Ethbaal kynge of the Sidonytes to wyfe, and * went & ſerued Baall, and worſhypped hym. And he reared vp an aulter for Baall in the temple of Baall, whiche he had buylded in Schomron. And Ahab made groues, and proceded further in angerynge the Lorde God of Iſraell then all the kynges of Iſraell that were before hym. Reg.1.b,

✠ ✠ In his dayes dyd Hiell of Bethel buylde Jerico. And it * coſt hym Abiram his eldeſt ſonne when he layde the foundacion, and his yongeſt ſon Segub, when he ſet vp the gates, accordyng vnto the worde of the lorde, which * he ſpake by Joſua the ſonne of Nun. Joſua.vi.d ſua.vi.d

¶ Elia is nouryſhed and fed of Rauens, and after is ſent to zarphat (otherwyſe called Sarepta) to a woman, whoſe chylde he rayſed to lyfe.

CAPI. XVII.

A And Elia the Theſbite (whiche was of the enhabytoures of Gilead) ſayde vnto Ahab: * as truly as the Lorde God of Iſraell lyueth, before whom I ſtand * there ſhall be neyther dewe nor rayne theſe yeares, but accordynge to my worde. And the worde of the Lorde came vnto hym, ſayenge, get the hence, and turne the Eaſtward, and hyde thy ſelfe in the broke Cherith, that is it that lyeth before Jordan: Thou ſhalt drynke of the ryuer, and I haue commaunded the rauens to feede the there. And ſo he went, and dyd accordynge vnto the worde of the Lorde: For he went, and dwelte by the brooke Cherith, that is before Jordane. 3.Regū.8.e Deute.xi.b 3.Regū.8.d Iacob.v.d

And the rauens brought hym breade and fleſſhe in the mornynge, and lykewyſe breade and fleſſhe in the euenynge, and he dranke of the brooke. And it chaunced after a whyle/ that the brooke dryed vp, bycauſe there fell no rayne vpon the earth. ✠ And the worde of the Lorde came vnto hym, ſayenge: * vp, and get the to ☞ Zarphath, whiche is in Sidon, and dwel there. Beholde, I haue cõmaunded a wydowe there to ſuſteyne the. So he aroſe, and went to Zarphath. And when he came to the gate of the citye, the wydowe was there/ gatherynge ſtyckes. And he called to her, and ſayde: * fet me I praye the, a lytle water in a veſſell, that I maye drynke. And as ſhe was goynge to fet it, he cryed after her, and ſayd: brynge me I praye the, a morſell of breade alſo in thyne hande. She ſayde: As truely as the Lorde thy god lyueth, I haue no breade redye, but euen an handefull of meale in a barell, & a lyttle oyle in a cruſe. And beholde, I am gatherynge two ſtyckes for to go in/ and dreſſe it for me and my ſon, that we maye eate it, and dye. And Elia ſayde vnto her: feare not, come and do as thou haſt ſayd: but make me therof a lyttle cake fyrſt of all, and brynge it vnto me: and afterwarde make for the and thy ſonne. B Luke.iiii.e ☞ Judi.iiii.e

C For thus ſayeth the Lorde god of Iſrael: the meale in the barell ſhall not be waſted, neyther ſhall the Oyle in the cruſe be minyſſhed, vntyll the Lorde haue ſent rayne vpon the earth. And ſhe went, & dyd as Elia ſayde. And ſhe and he, & her houſe dyd eate a good ſpace, and the meale waſted not out of the barell, neyther was the Oyle ſpent out of the cruſe accordynge to the worde of the Lorde/ whiche he ſpake ☞ by the hande of Elia. ✠ ☞

✠ And after theſe thynges, it hapned, that the ſonne of the wyfe of the houſe fell ſycke. And his ſyckneſſe was ſo ſore, that there was no breath left in hym. And ſhe ſayde vnto Elia: what haue I to do with the, O thou man of God? Arte thou come vnto me, to call my ſynne agayne to remembraunce, and to ſley my Sonne? He ſayde vnto her: gyue me thy Sonne.

D And he toke hym out of her lap, and caryed hym vp into a lofte where he abode, and layde hym vpon his owne bed, and called vnto the Lorde, and ſayde: O Lorde my God, haſt thou punyſhed alſo this wydowe (with whome I dwell as a ſtraunger) and haſt ſleyne her ſonne? 4. Reg. 4. c Acto. xx. c And he ſtretched him ſelfe vpon the chylde thre tymes, and called vnto the Lorde, and ſayde: O Lorde my God, let this chyldes ſoule come in to hym agayne. And the Lorde herde the voyce of Elia, and the ſoule of the chyld came in to hym agayne and he reuyued. And Elia toke the boye, and brought hym downe out of the chambre in to the houſe, and delyuered hym vnto his mother, and Elia ſayde: beholde, thy Sonne lyueth. And the woman ſayde vnto Elia: nowe I knowe, that thou arte a man of God, and that the worde of the Lorde in thy mouth, is true. ¶ ¶ Elia is ſent to Ahab. Obadia (otherwyſe called Abdia) hydeth an hundreth Prophets. Elia ſlayeth all Baals Prophets, and afterwarde obteyneth rayne.

CAPI. XVIII.

A AFter proceſſe of many dayes the worde of the Lorde came to Elia in the thyrde yeare, ſayenge: go ſhewe thy ſelfe vnto Ahab, and * I wyll ſende rayne vpon the earth. Deute. xi. b Jacob. v. c And Elia went to ſhewe hym ſelfe vnto Ahab, and there was a great famyſhment in Someron. And Ahab called Obadia, whiche was the gouerner of his houſe: and Obadia feared God greatly: For when Iezabell deſtroyed the Prophetes of the Lorde/ he toke an hundred prophetes and hyd them, fyftie men in one caue, and fyftie in another, and prouyded breade and water for them. And Ahab ſayde vnto Obadia: Go in to the lande, vnto al fountaynes of water, and vnto al brokes, yf happly we may fynde graſſe, to ſaue the horſes and the mules, and that we deſtroye not ſome of the beaſtes. And ſo they deuyded the lande bytwene them, to walke thorowe it. Ahab went one way by hym ſelfe/ and Obadia went another way by him ſelfe.

B And it chaunced that as Obadia was in the waye, Elia met hym. And Obadia knewe hym, and fell on his face, and ſayde: arte not thou my Lorde Elia? And he anſwered hym, I am he. Go and tell thy lorde: beholde, Elia is here. He ſayde: what, haue I ſynned, that thou woldeſt delyuer me in to the hande of Ahab, to ſley me? As truely as the Lorde thy God lyueth, there is no nacyon or kyngdom, whyther my Lorde hath not ſent, to ſeke the. And when they ſayde: he is not there, he toke an othe of the kyngdome and nacyon, when he founde the not. And nowe thou ſayeſt: go and tell thy Lorde, that Elia is here. And as ſoone as I am gone from the, the ſpiryte of the lorde ſhall carye the into ſome place that I do not knowe: and ſo when I come and tel Ahab, and he can not fynde the, he ſhall ſley me. But I thy ſeruaunt feare the lorde from my youth vp.

C Was it not tolde my Lorde, what I dyd, when Iezabel ſlue the prophets of the lorde, howe I hyd an hundred men of the Lordes prophets, fyftye men in one caue, and fyftye in another, and prouyded them of bread, and water? And nowe thou ſayeſt, go thou nowe and ſhewe thy Lorde. Beholde, Elia is here/ that he may ſley me? And Elia ſayd: as truly as the lorde of hooſtes lyueth, before whome I ſtande, I wyll ſhewe my ſelfe vnto hym this daye. So Obadia went to mete Ahab/ and tolde hym. And Ahab went to mete Elia. And it fortuned that when Ahab ſawe Elia/ he ſayde vnto hym: arte thou he that troubleth Iſraell? He anſwered: it is not I that haue troubled Iſraell, but thou, and thy fathers houſe, in that ye haue forſaken the commaundementes of the Lorde, and thou haſt folowed Baall. Nowe therfore, ſende and gather to me all Iſrael vnto mount Carmel, and the prophetes of Baall * foure hundred and fyftye, and the prophettes of the groues foure hundred, which eate of Iezabels table. So Ahab ſent vnto all the chyldren of Iſraell, and gathered the Prophettes togyther vnto mounte Carmell.

D And Elia came vnto the peple, and ſayde: howe longe halte ye bytwene two opinyons? Yf the Lorde be God/ folowe hym: but yf Baall be he, then go after hym. And the people anſwered hym not one worde. Then ſayd Elia vnto the people agayne, I onely remayne a Prophete of the Lorde: But Baals Prophettes are foure hundred and fyftye. Let them therfore gyue vs two oxen, and let them choſe the one, and cut hym in peces, and laye hym on wood/ and put no fyre vnder. And I wyll dreſſe the one oxe, and laye hym on wood, and wyll put no fyre vnder. And call ye on the name of youre Goddes/ and I wyll call on the name of the Lorde. And then the GOD that anſwereth by fyre, let hym be God. * And all the people anſwered, and ſayde: it is well ſpoken.

E And Elia ſayde vnto the Prophettes of Baall: choſe you an oxe, and dreſſe hym fyrſt (for ye are many) and call on the name of youre Goddes, but put no fyre vnder. And they toke the one oxe that he dyd gyue them, and they dreſſed it, and called on the name of Baall from mornynge to noone, ſayenge: O Baall heare vs. But there was no voyce nor one to anſwer. And they lept vpon the aulter that they had made. And at noone it fortuned, that Elia mocked them, and ſayde: crye lowde, for ☞ he is a god: peraduenture he is talkynge, or occupyed (in folowynge vpon his enemyes) or is in his iourneye, or happely he ſlepeth, and muſt be awaked. And they cryed lowde, and cut them ſelues, as their maner was, with knyues and launcers, tyll the blood folowed on them. And it chaunced/ that when myddaye was paſſed ✠ ☞ they propheſyed vntyll the tyme of the euenynge Sacrifyce.

But there was neyther voyce nor one to anſwere, nor any that regarded them. And Elia ſayde vnto all the folke: come to me. And all the people came to hym. * And he repayred the aulter of the lorde, that was broken. * And Elia toke .xii. ſtoones accordynge to the nombre of the .xii. trybes of the ſonnes of Iacob (vnto whom the worde of the lorde came) ſayenge. * Iſraell ſhall be thy name. F And with the ſtones he made an aulter in the name of the lorde. And he made a pyt rounde about the aulter, ☞ after the compas of two peckes of ſeed. And he put the wood in order, and hewed the oxe in peces, and layd hym on the wood, and ſayde: fyll foure barels with water, and powre it on the burntſacrifice and on the wood. And he ſayd: do ſo agayne. And they dyd ſo the ſeconde tyme. And he ſayde agayne: do it the thyrde tyme. And they dyd it the thyrde tyme. And the water ran rounde aboute the aulter, and he fylled the pyt with water alſo. And it fortuned when the tyme came (wherin the burntſacrifyce of the euenynge vſed to be offered) Elia the Prophette came, and ſayd: lorde god of Abraham, Iſaac and of Iſrael, it ſhalbe knowen this day, that thou arte the God in Iſraell, and that I am thy ſeruaunt, and that I haue done all theſe thynges at thy cōmaundement. Heare me (O lorde) heare me, that this people may know/ that thou arte the Lorde God, and thou haſt turned theyr herte agayne nowe at the laſt.

* And the fyre of the Lorde fell, and conſumed the burntſacrifyce and the wood, the ſtones and the duſt, & lycked vp the water that was in the pytte.

G And when all the people ſawe it, they fell on theyr faces, and ſayde: the lorde, he is god, the lord, he is god. And Elia ſayd vnto them: Take the prophettes of Baall, and let not one of them eſcape. And they toke them, and Elia brought them vnto the brooke Kiſon, & ſlue them there. And Elia ſayde vnto Ahab: get the vp, eate and drynke, for there is a ſounde of moche rayne. And ſo Ahab went vp to eate and to drynke, and Elia went vp to the top of Carmell. And he layde ☞ hym ſelfe flatte vpon the earth, and put his face bytwene his knees, and ſayde to his ſeruaunt: go vp (I praye the) and loke towarde the waye of the ſee. And he went vp and loked, and ſayde: there is nothynge. And he ſayde: go agayne ſeuen tymes. And it fortuned, that at the ſeuent tyme he ſayde: beholde, there aryſeth a lytle clowde of the ſee, lyke a mannes hande. He ſayde: go, and ſaye vnto Ahab. Make faſt thy charet, and get the downe, that the rayne ſtop the not. And it came to paſſe, that in the meane whyle, that heuen was blacke with clowdes and wynde, and there was a greate rayne. And Ahab gat vp and came to Iezreel. And the hande of the lorde was on Elia and he gyrded vp his loynes, and ran before Ahab, tyll he came to Iezreell.

¶ Elia fleynge from Iezabell is noryſſhed of the Angell of God, and is cōmaunded to anoynte Hazael, Iehu, and Heliſeus, whom the Hebrues call, Eliſa.

CAPI. XIX.

AND Ahab tolde Iezabell, all that Elia had done, and how he had ſleyne al the prophettes with the ſwerde. Then Iezabell ſent a meſſenger vnto Elia, ſayenge: * So & ſo let the goddes do to me, yf I make not thy ſoule lyke one of theyrs, by to morow this tyme. When he ſaw that, ✠ he aroſe and went for his lyfe, & came to Berſaba in Iuda, and lefte his ſeruaunt there. But he hym ſelfe went a dayes iourney in to the wylderneſſe, and came and ſat downe vnder a Ginaper tree, and deſyred for his ſoule, that he myght dye, and ſayde: * it is nowe ynough (O Lorde) take my ſoule, for I am not better then my fathers. And as he laye and ſlepte vnder the Ginaper tree: beholde, an angell touched hym, and ſayde vnto hym: vp, and eate. And when he loked aboute hym: behold there was a loofe of breade baked on coles, and a veſſell of water at his heade. And he dyd eate/ and drynke: and layde hym downe agayne to ſlepe.

B And the angel of the Lorde came agayne the ſeconde tyme, and touched hym, & ſayde: vp, & eate, for thou haſt yet a great iourney.

Iona.iiii.a

Exodi.34.b Math.4.a. And he aroſe, and dyd eate and drynke, and walked in the ſtrength of that meate * fourtye dayes & fourtye nyghtes, euen vnto Horeb the mount of god: ¶ When he came thyther in to a caue, he lodged therin, all nyght.

And beholde, the worde of the lorde came to hym and ſayde vnto hym: what doeſt thou here Elia? And he anſwered: I haue bene ielous for the lorde god of hooſtꝭ ſake. And when Elia herde it, he couered his face with his mantle, and went out and ſtode in the enterynge in of the caue. And behold, there came a voyce vnto hym, and ſayd: what doeſt thou here Elia? And he anſwered: I haue bene ielous for the lorde god of hooſtꝭ ſake: bycauſe the chyldren of Iſraell haue forſaken thy couenaunt, caſte downe thyne aulters, & ſlayne thy prophettes with the ſwerde, and I only am left, and they ſeke my lyfe to take it awaye

¶ The fyrſt, and ſeconde tyme that Samaria was beſyeged of Benhadad kynge of Siria.

CAPI. XX.

A And Benhadad the kynge of Siria gathered all his hooſt togyther, hauynge xxxii. kynges with hym, and horſes and charettes: and went vp and beſyeged Samaria, and warred agaynſt it. And he ſent meſſengers to Ahab kynge of Iſrael into the cytye, and ſayde vnto hym: Thus ſayeth Benhadad: Thy ſyluer & thy golde is myne, and the fayreſt of thy wyues, and of thy chyldren be myne. And the kynge of Iſraell anſwered and ſayde: my lorde kynge accordynge to thy ſayenge, I am thyne, and all that I haue. And when the meſſengers came agayne, they ſayd: Thus ſayeth Benhadad: I haue ſente vnto the ſayinge: Thou ſhalte delyuer me thy ſyluer and thy golde, and thy wyues, and thy chyldren. I wyll therfore ſende my ſeruauntes vnto the to morow this tyme: and they ſhall ſerche thyne houſe / and the houſes of thy ſeruauntes. And what ſoeuer is pleaſaunt in B thyne eyes, they ſhall take it in theyr handes, and brynge it awaye. Then the kynge of Iſraell ſent for all the elders of the lande, & ſayd: take hede I pray you: and ſe, how this felow goth about myſchefe. For he ſent vnto me, for my wyues, for my chyldren, for my ſyluer, and for my golde, and I denyed hym not. And all the elders and all the people ſayd: herken not vnto hym, nor conſent. Wherfore he ſayd vnto the meſſengers of Benhadad: tell my lorde the kynge, all that thou dyddeſt ſende for, to thy ſeruaunt at the fyrſt tyme, that I wyll do: but this thynge I maye not do. And the meſſengers departed, & brought anſwere agayne. And Benhadad ſent vnto hym agayne, and ſayd, & thus do the Goddes vnto me, yf the duſt of Samaria be ynough for all the people that folowe me, to take euery man an handfull. And the kynge of Iſraell anſwered, & ſayd: tel hym: Let not hym that putteth on his harnes booſt hym ſelfe, as he that putteth it of. And it fortuned, that when Benhadad herde that tydyngꝭ, as he was with the kynges drynkyng with in the pauilyons, he ſayd vnto his ſeruauntes: put on your harnes. And they ſet them ſelues in aray agaynſt the citie. And beholde there came a prophet vnto C Ahab kyng of Iſrael, ſayinge: thus ſayth the lorde: haſt thou ſene al this great multitude Beholde, I wyll delyuer it in to thyne hande this day, ⁊ thou ſhalte knowe, that I am the lorde. And Ahab ſayde: By whom? he ſayde: thus ſayth the lorde: euen by the ſeruauntes of the gouernoures of the ſhyres. He ſayde agayne: who ſhall ordre the battayle? And he anſwered: thou. Then he nombred the ſeruauntes of the gouernours of the ſhyres: and they were two hundred and .xxxii. And after them alſo, he nombred all the people, all the chyldren of Iſrael, euen .vii. thouſande. And they went out at noone: but Benhadad dyd drynke tyll he was dronken in the pauylyons bothe he and the kynges: euen .xxxii. kynges, that holpe hym. And the ſeruauntes of the gouernours of the ſhyres went out fyrſt. And Benhadad ſent out, and they ſhewed him, ſayinge there are men come out of Samaria. He ſayd, whyther they be come out for peace, take them a lyue, or whyther they be come oute to fyght take them yet alyue.

And ſo thoſe yong men of the gouernours D of the ſhyres came out of the citye, ⁊ the hooſt after them, ⁊ they ſlue euery one his enemye that came in his way. And the Sirians fled, and they of Iſrael folowed after them. And Benhadad the kynge of Siria ſcaped on a horſe, with his horſemen. And the kyng of Iſrael wente out, ⁊ ſmote the horſes ⁊ charettes ⁊ with a great ſlaughter ſlue he the Sirians.

And there came a prophet to the kynge of Iſrael, and ſayd vnto hym: go forth ⁊ playe the man, be wyſe ⁊ take hede what thou doeſt for when the yere is gone aboute, the kyng of Siria wyl come vp agaynſt the. And the ſeruauntes of the kyng of Siria ſayd vnto hym: the Gods of the hylles are theyr Gods, and therfore they had the better of vs. But let vs fyght agaynſt them in the playne, ⁊ for what ye wyl, we ſhall haue the better of them. And this do: take the kyngꝭ away euery man out of his place, ⁊ put dukes in theyr rowmꝭ. And do thou nombre the an hooſt, lyke the hooſt that thou haſt loſt, ſuch horſes ⁊ ſuch charetꝭ ⁊ we wyll fyght agaynſt them in the playne, ⁊ thou ſhalt ſe vs get the better of them. And he herkened vnto theyr voyce, ⁊ dyd euen ſo.

E And it fortuned, that after the yere was gone aboute, Benhadad nombred the Sirians, ⁊ went vp to Aphek to fyght agaynſt Iſrael. And the chyldren of Iſrael were nombred ⁊ with theyr hole nombre went they agaynſt them, ⁊ the chyldren of Iſrael pytched before them, lyke two lytell flockes of kyddes: but the Sirians fylled the countrey. And there came a man of God, and ſayd vnto the kyng of Iſrael: thus ſayth the Lorde: Bycauſe the Sirians haue ſayd: the Lorde is but God of the hylles, and not God of the valleys: therfore wyll I delyuer all this great multitude in to thyne hande, ⁊ ye ſhall know, that I am the lorde. And they pytched one ouer agaynſt the other ſeuen dayes, ⁊ it came to paſſe, that in the ſeuenth day the battayle was ioyned. And the chyldren of Iſraell ſlue of the Sirians an hundred thouſande foote men in one day. But the reſt fled to Aphek into the citye. And there fell a wall vpon .xxvii. M. of the men that were lefte. And Benhadad fled, and came into the citye, frō chambre to chambre.

And his ſeruauntes ſayde vnto hym: Beholde, we haue herde ſay, that the kynges of F the houſe of Iſrael are mercyfull kyngꝭ. We wyll therfore put ſacke cloth aboute our loynes, ⁊ ropes aboute our neckes, ⁊ go out to the kyng of Iſrael: yf haplye he wyl ſaue thy lyfe. And ſo they gyrded ſacke cloth aboute theyr loynes, ⁊ put ropes about theyr heades ⁊ came to the kynge of Iſrael, and ſayd: Thy ſeruaunt Benhadad ſayth, I pray the let me lyue. He ſayde: is he yet alyue? he is my brother. And they toke that worde for good lucke and haſtely caught it out of his mouth and ſayd: Yea thy brother Benhadad. He ſayd: go brynge hym hyther. And Benhadad came out vnto hym, and he cauſed hym to come vp in to the charet. And he ſayde vnto hym: the cityes whiche my father toke from thy father, I wyl reſtore agayne. And thou ſhalte make ſtreetes for the in Damaſco, as my father dyd in Samaria. ☞ And I wyl make an appoyntment with the, ⁊ ſende the awaye. And ſo he made an appoyntment with hym, and ſent hym away. And there was a certayne man of the chyldren of the prophets, which ſayd vnto his neyghboure in the worde of the Lorde: ſmyte me I pray the. And the man wolde not ſmyte hym. Then ſayd he vnto him. Bycauſe thou haſt not herkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde: beholde, as ſoone as thou arte departed from me, a lyon ſhall ſley the. And it came to paſſe, that as ſoone as he was departed from hym, * a lyon foūde hym, and ſlue him. 3.Reg.13 Then he founde an other man ⁊ ſayde: ſmyte me I pray the. And the mā ſmote hym, ſo that in ſmytynge he wounded hym. So the prophet went forth, ⁊ wayted for the kyng by the way, ⁊ put hym ſelfe out of knowledge with aſſhes whiche he layde vpon his face.

And when the kyng came by, he cryed vnto the kyng, and ſayd: thy ſeruaunt went out in G the myddes of the battayle. And beholde, there went away a man, whom an other man brought vnto me, and ſayde: kepe this man.

And yf he be myſſed or loſt, thy lyfe ſhall go for hym: or els, thou ſhalte paye a talent of ſyluer. And as thy ſeruaunt had here and there to do, he was gone. And the kynge of Iſraell ſayd vnto hym: euen ſo ſhall thy iudgement be, as ÿ haſt defined it thy ſelf. And he haſted & toke the aſſhes awaye from his face: & the kyng of Iſrael knewe hym, that he was of the prophetes. And he ſayd vnto hym: thus ſayth the Lorde: bycauſe thou haſte let go a man, ☞ that ☞ is in my curſe, thy lyfe ſhal go for his lyfe, & thy people for his people. And the kyng of Iſraell went to his houſe, waywarde, and in diſpleaſure, and came to Samaria.

¶ Jezabell commaundeth to kyll Naboth for the vyneyarde that he refuſed to ſell to Ahab. Elia reproueth Ahab, and he repenteth.

CAPI. XXI.

A After theſe thynges, it chaunced, that Naboth the Jezrahelite had a vyneyarde in Jezrahel, harde by the palace of Ahab kynge of Samaria. And Ahab ſpake vnto Naboth, ſayenge: * Geue me thy vyneyarde, that I may make me a garden of herbes therof, bycauſe it lyeth ſo nyghe my houſe: & I wyll geue the for it a better vyneyard then it is: or rather yf it pleaſe the, I wyl geue the, the worth of it in money. And Naboth ſayd to Ahab: the lorde forbyd that from me, that I ſhulde geue the enheritaunce of my fathers vnto the. 4.Reg.8.1

B And Ahab came into his houſe heuy, and euyll apayde, bycauſe of the worde whiche Naboth the Jezrahelite had ſpoken to hym, for he had ſayde: I wyll not geue the, the enheritaunce of my fathers. And he layde hym downe vpon his bed, and turned awaye his face ✣ (to the wall) and wolde eate no bread. ✣ But Jezabel his wyfe came to hym, and ſayd vnto hym: Why is thy ſpirite ſo waywarde, that thou eateſt no bread? And he ſayd vnto her: For I ſpake vnto Naboth the Jezraelite, and ſayde vnto hym: geue me thy vyneyarde for money, or els yf it pleaſe the, I wyll geue the an other vyneyarde for it. And he anſwered: I wyl not geue the my vyneyarde.

C And Jezabell his wyfe ſayde vnto hym: Doſt thou thus gouerne the kyngdome of Iſrael? vp, and eate bread, and ſet thyne hert at reſt, I wyl geue the the vyneyarde of Naboth the Jezraelite. And ſo ſhe wrote a letter in Ahabs name, and ſealed it with his ſeale, and ſent the letter vnto the elders and to the nobles that were in his citye dwellynge with Naboth. And ſhe wrote in the letter, ſayenge: proclayme a faſte, and ſet Naboth on hye among the people, and ſet two vnthryftes before hym, to beare ✣ (falſe) wytneſſe agaynſt hym, ſayenge: ☞ thou dydeſt blaſpheme God and the kyng. And then carye hym out, and ſtone hym to death. ✣ ☞

D And the men of his citye: that is to ſaye, which dwelte in his citye, dyd as Jezabel had ſent vnto them, and as it was wrytten in the letter whiche ſhe had ſent vnto them. They proclaymed faſtynge, and ſet Naboth among the cheyfe of the people, & there came in two men (the chyldren of Belial) & ſat before hym. And the two vnthryftie perſones wytneſſed agaynſt Naboth, in the preſence of the people ſayenge: Naboth dyd blaſpheme god and the kyng. * And they caried hym out of the citye and ſtoned hym with ſtones that he dyed. Acto.7.g

E And then they ſent to Jezabel, ſayenge: Naboth is ſtoned to death. And it fortuned whẽ Jezabell herde that Naboth was ſtoned to death: ſhe ſayd to Ahab: vp, & take poſſeſſyon of the vyneyarde of Naboth, the Jezraelite, whiche he denyed to geue the for money; for Naboth is not alyue, but deade.

And when Ahab herde that Naboth was deade, he ſtode vp to go downe to the vyneyarde of Naboth the Jezraelyte, and to take poſſeſſyon of it. And the worde of the Lorde came vnto Elia the Theſbite, ſayenge: vp, & go downe to mete Ahab kynge of Iſraell, whiche is in Samaria. For lo, he is gone downe to the vyneyarde of Naboth to take poſſeſſyon of it. And therfore ſhalte thou ſay vnto hym: thus ſayth the lorde: haſt thou kylled, & gotten poſſeſſyon? And ÿ ſhalte ſpeake vnto hym, ſayenge. Thus ſayth the lorde * in the place where dogges lycked the bloude of Naboth, ſhall dogges lycke euen thy bloude alſo. And Ahab ſayd to Elia: haſt thou founde me, O myne enemye? He anſwered: I haue founde the: for ÿ arte euen ☞ ſolde to worke wyckedneſſe in the ſyght of the lorde. Behold I wyll brynge euyll vpon the, and wyll make cleane ryddaunce of thy poſteritie, & wyl * deſtroy from Ahab, euen hym that maketh water agaynſt the wall, & hym that is ſhut vp & lefte behynde in Iſraell: and wyl make thyne houſe, lyke the houſe of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, & lyke the houſe of Baaſa the ſon of Ahia, for the prouocacion, wherwith thou haſt prouoked, and made Iſrael to ſynne. F 4.Reg.9.f ☞ 4.Reg.9.b

G And of Jezabell ſpake the lorde, ſayenge: * dogges ſhal eate Jezabell, in the poſſeſſion of Jezrael. * And he that dyeth of Ahab in the towne, hym ſhall dogges eate: & he that dyeth in the feldes, hym ſhal the fowles of the ayre eate. But there was none lyke Ahab, which dyd euen ſell hym ſelfe, to worke wyckedneſſe kedneſſe in the ſyght of the Lorde, and that bycauſe Iezabell his wyfe prycked hym forwarde. He dyd excedynge abhominably, in folowyng foule ydols, accordyng to all thynges, as dyd the Ammorites * whom the lorde caſt out before the chyldren of Iſrael.

And it fortuned that whē Ahab herde thoſe wordes, * he rent his clothes, and put ſacke cloth aboute his fleſſhe, and faſted, & laye in ſacke cloth & went bare fote. And the worde of the Lorde came to Elia, the Theſbyte, ſayenge: Seeſt thou howe Ahab humbleth hym ſelfe before me? bycauſe he ſo ſubmytteth him ſelfe before me, I wyll not bryng that euyl in his dayes: But in his ſonnes dayes, wyll I bryng euyl vpō his houſe. And they cōtynued iii. yere without war bytwene Siria & Iſrael.

¶ Foure hundred falſe Prophettes do counſell Ahab, and Iehoſaphat to warre agaynſt Ramoth, only Michea propheſyeth the trueth, for whiche he is ſmytten, and putte in pryſon. Of Ahazia, otherwyſe called Ochoſias.

CAPI. XXII.

A AND in * the thyrde yere dyd Iehoſaphat the kynge of Iuda, come downe to the kyng of Iſrael. And the kyng of Iſrael ſayd vnto his ſeruauntes, knowe ye not that Ramoth in Gilead is oures? and we ſyt ſtyll, and take it not out of the hande of the kynge of Siria. And he ſayde vnto Iehoſaphat: Wylte þ come with me to battayle, agaynſt Ramoth in Gilead? And Iehoſaphat ſayde vnto the kyng of Iſrael: * I wyll be as thou arte, and my people ſhal be as thyne, and my horſes as thyne.

And Iehoſaphat ſayde vnto the kynge of Iſrael: * Aſke counſel I pray the at the worde of the Lorde to daye. And then the kynge of Iſrael gathered the prophetes togyther, vpō * a foure hundred men, and ſayd vnto them: ſhal I go agaynſt Ramoth in Gilead to battayle, or ſhall I let it alone? And they ſayde, go vp: for the Lorde ſhall delyuer it in to the handes of the kynge.

B And Iehoſaphat ſayd: is there here neuer a prophet of the Lorde more, that we myght enquyre of hym? And the kyng of Iſrael ſayd vnto Iehoſaphat: there is yet one man (Michea the ſonne of Imla,) by whom we maye aſke counſayle of the lorde. But I hate hym: for he doth not propheſye good vnto me, but euyll. And Iehoſaphat ſayd: let not the kyng ſay ſo. Thē the kyng of Iſrael called a chamberlayne and ſayde: fet the Michea the ſonne of Imla hyther at once.

And the kyng of Iſraell and Iehoſaphat the kyng of Iuda ſat eyther in his ſeate, and theyr apparel on them, in the voyde place beſyde the entryng in at the gate of Samaria, and al the prophets propheſyed before them. And Zedekia the ſon of Canaana made hornes of yron, and ſayde: thus ſayth the Lorde: with theſe hornes ſhalt thou puſſhe the Sirians, vntyl thou haue made an ende of them. And all the Prophettes propheſyed euen ſo, ſayenge: Go vp to Ramoth in Gilead, and proſper, for the Lorde ſhall delyuer it in to the kynges hande.

C And the meſſenger that was gone to call Michea, ſpake vnto hym, ſayenge: Beholde, the wordes of the prophets ſpeake good vnto the kynge with one mouth: let thy worde therfore (I pray the) be lyke the worde of euery one of them, to ſpeake that which is good. And Michea ſayd: as truely as the Lorde lyueth, what ſoeuer the Lorde ſayth vnto me, that wyll I ſpeake. And ſo he came to the kyng, and the kyng ſayd vnto hym: Michea, ought we to go agaynſt Ramoth in Gilead to battayle, or to be ſtyll? He anſwered vnto hym: * go and proſper, the Lorde ſhall delyuer it into the hande of the kynge. And the kynge ſayde vnto hym: So and ſo many tymes do I charge the, that þ tel me nothynge, but that whiche is true, in the name of the lorde. He ſayd: I ſaw all them of Iſrael ſcattered vpon the hylles, as ſhepe that haue not a ſhepheerde. And the lorde ſayd: theſe haue no mayſter, let euery mā returne to his houſe in peace. And the kyng of Iſrael ſayde vnto Iehoſaphat: dyd I not tell the, that he wolde propheſie no good vnto me, but euyll? ii Para.18. a, b, c, d.

D And he ſayde agayne: heare thou therfore the worde of the lorde. I ſawe the lorde ſyt on his ſeate, and all the hooſt of heuen ſtode aboute hym, on his ryght hande, & on his lefte. And the Lorde ſayde: * who ſhall perſuade Ahab, that he maye go and fal at Ramoth in Gilead? And one ſayd on this maner, and an other on that. And there came forth a certayn ſpirite, and ſtode before the Lorde, and ſayd: I wyll perſuade hym. And the Lorde ſayde vnto hym: wherwith? And he ſayde: I wyll go out, and be a falſe ſpirite in the mouth of all the prophettes. He ſayde: thou ſhalte perſuade hym, and preuayle, go forth then, & do euen ſo. Nowe therfore beholde, * the Lorde hath put a lyenge ſpirite in the mouth of all theſe thy prophettes: and the lorde hath ſpoken euyll towarde the. ii Par.18.b Ezec.14.b

But Zedekia the ſon of Canaana went to, and ſmote Michea on the cheke, and ſayde: When went the ſpirite of the lorde from me, to ſpeake vnto the? And Michea ſayde: Beholde, thou ſhalte ſe in that daye, when thou ſhalt go frō chambre to chambre to hyde the.

But

And the kynge of Iſrael ſayde: take Michea, and carye hym vnto Amon the gouernour of the cytye, and vnto Joab the kynges ſonne, and ſay: thus ſayth the kyng. Put this felow in the pryſon houſe, and fede hym with bread of affliction, and with water of trouble vntyl I returne in peace.

E And Michea ſayde: If thou returne in peace, the Lorde hath not ſpoken by me. And he ſayde: herken ye people euery one of you. And ſo the kyng of Iſraell and Jehoſaphat the kynge of Juda wente vp to Ramoth in Gilead. And the kynge of Iſraell ſayd to Jehoſaphat: ☞ chaunge the, when thou goeſt to warre: and put on thyne apparel. And the kynge of Iſrael chaunged hym ſelfe, & wente to battayle. But the kynge of Syria cōmaunded the .xxxii. captaynes (that had rule ouer his charettes) ſayenge: fyght neyther with ſmall nor great, ſaue onely agaynſt the kyng of Iſraell. And when the captaynes of the charettes ſawe Jehoſaphat, they ſayde. Surely it is the kynge of Iſraell, and they turned to fyght agaynſt hym. And Jehoſaphat cryed. And ſo it came to paſſe, that when the captaynes of the charettes ſawe that he was not the kynge of Iſraell, they turned backe from hym. And a certayne man drewe a bow ygnorauntly, and ✠ (by chaunce) ſmote the kynge of Iſrael bytwene the rybbes, and his harneſſe. Wherfore he ſayde vnto the dryuer of his charettes: turne thy hande, and carye me out of the hooſt, for I am ✠ (ſore) hurte. And the battayle encreaſed that day, and the kynge ſtode ſtyll in his charet agaynſte the Syrians, and dyed at euen. And the bloode ranne out of the wounde into the myddes of the charet.

F And there went a proclamacion thorowout the hooſt aboute the goyng downe of the ſon ſayenge: Euery man to his cytye, and to his owne countrey. And ſo the kynge of Iſraell dyed, and they came to Samaria, and buried hym there. And one waſſhed the charet in the pole of Samaria * and the dogges lycked vp his blood (and harlottes waſſhed by the pole ſyde) accordynge to the worde of the Lorde, whiche he ſpake. 3.Reg.21.f. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Ahab & all that he dyd, and the Iuerye houſe whiche he made, and all the cytyes that he buylded, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Iſrael? And ſo Ahab ſlepte with his fathers, and Ahazia his ſonne reygned in his ſteade.

* Jehoſaphat the ſonne of Aſa beganne to reygne vpon Juda in the fourth yere of Ahab kyng of Iſrael, and Jehoſaphat was .xxxv. yere olde when he began to reygne, and reygned .xxv. yere in Jeruſalē. His mothers name was Azuba the doughter of Silhi. And he walked in all the wayes of Aſa his father and bowed not therfrom: but dyd that whiche was ryght in the eyes of the Lorde. Neuertheleſſe, the hyll aulters were not taken out of the way: for the people offered and burnt inſence yet, in the hyll aulters.

G And Jehoſaphat made peace with the kynge of Iſraell. * The reſt of the wordes that concerne Jehoſaphat, & the myght that he vſed, & howe he warred, are they not wrytten in the boke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda? And the remenaunt of the ſtues of the males, whiche remayned in the dayes of his father, he put cleane out of the lande.

There was then no kynge made in Edom. And Jehoſaphat made .x. ſhyppes in the ſee, to come ☞ thorowe Tharſis to Ophir for Golde, but they wente not: For the ſhyppes brake at Ezion Gaber. H Then ſayde Ahazia the ſonne of Ahab vnto Jehoſaphat: let my ſeruauntes go w̄ thy ſeruauntes in the ſhyppes. But Jehoſaphat wolde not. And Joſaphat dyd ſlepe with his fathers, and was buryed with his fathers in the cytye of Dauid his father. And Jehoram his ſonne reygned in his ſteade. Ahazia the ſonne of Ahab begā to reygne ouer Iſrael in Samaria, the ſeuententh yere of Jehoſaphat kyng of Juda, and reygned two yeres ouer Iſraell. But he dyd euyll in the ſyght of the lorde, and walked in the way of his father, & in the way of his mother, and in the waye of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat, whiche made Iſrael to ſynne. For he ſerued Baal, & worſhypped hym, and prouoked the Lorde God of Iſrael vnto wrath, accordyng vnto all that his father had done.

a A AND Moab dyd wyckedly agaynſt Iſrael after the death of Ahab. And Ahazia fell thorow a latteſſe wyndowe of his vpper chambre that he had in Samaria: and whyle he was in his ſyckeneſſe, he ſent meſſengers, and ſayd vnto them: go and enquyre of Beelzebub the God of Ekrom, whyther I ſhal recouer of this my diſeaſe. But the angell of the Lorde ſpake to Elia the Theſbite: Aryſe, & go vp agaynſt the meſſengers of the kyng of Samaria and ſay vnto them. Is there not a God in Iſrael, that ye go to aſke counſayle at Beelzabub the God of Ekrom? Wherfore thus ſayth the Lorde: thou ſhalte not come downe from the bed on whiche thou art gone vp, but ſhalte dye the death, & Elia departed.

B And when the meſſengers turned backe agayne vnto hym, he ſayde vnto them: why are ye nowe come agayne? Thus ſayth the Lorde, Is there not a God in Iſrael, that thou ſendeſt to enquyre of Beelzebub the god of Ekrom? A IEhoram the ſon of Ahab began to reygne vpon Iſrael in Samaria the .xviii. yere of Iehoſaphat kyng of Iuda, and reygned twelue yeres. But when Ahab was deade, it fortuned, that the kyng of Moab rebelled agaynſt the kyng of Iſraell. C And when the mynſtrell played, the hande of the lorde came vpon hym. And he ſayd, thus ſayth the Lorde: make this playne grounde full of dytches. For thus ſayth the Lorde: Ye ſhall ſe neyther wynde nor rayne, and yet the broke ſhall be fylled with water, that ye may drynke, both ye and your beaſtes, and youre cattell. And this is yet but a ſmall thynge in the ſyght of the lorde, for as moche as he wyl gyue ouer the Moabites alſo into your handes. And ye ſhal ſmyte euery ſtrong towne, & euery goodly citye, and ſhall fell euery pleaſaunt tree, and ſtop euery well of water, and mar euery good plat of grounde with ſtones. And in the mornyng, when the meatofferyng was offered, it fortuned, that there came water by the way from Edom, and the countrey was fylled wᵗ water. And when all the Moabites herde that the kynges were come vp to fyght agaynſt them, they gathered all togyther, from the yongeſt that was able to put on harneſſe and ſo vpwarde, and ſtode in the border. And they were vp early in the mornynge and the ſonne ſhone vpon the water, that the Moabites ſawe the water a farre of as red as blood, and they ſayde, This is the blood of ſlaughter: the kynges are ſlayne and one hath ſmytten an other. Nowe therfore Moab get the to the ſpoyle. D

And when they came to the hooſt of Iſrael the Iſraelites ſtode vp and ſmote the Moabites, ſo that they fled before them. But they folowed vpon them, and ſmote Moab. Roma.4.b as the fruyte can lyue, thou ſhalte embrace a ſonne. And ſhe ſayd: Oh nay my Lorde, thou mā of god, do not lye vnto thyne handmayd. And the wyfe conceyued, and bare a ſon that ſame ſeaſon that Eliſeus had ſayd vnto her, as ſoone as the fruyte coulde haue lyfe.

D And when the chylde was growne, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father, and to the reapers. And he ſayde vnto his father, my heade, my heade. And he ſayde to a lad: carye hym to his mother.

And when he had taken hym and brought hym to his mother, he ſat on her knees tyll noone, and then dyed. And ſhe wente vp and layde hym on the bed of the man of God, and ſhut the dore aboute hym, and went out, and called vnto her huſbande, and ſayde: Sende with me (I praye the) one of the yonge men and one of the Aſſes, for I wyll runne to the man of God, and come agayne. And he ſayd: wherfore wylt thou go to hym, ſeynge that to day is neyther new moone nor Sabboth day. She anſwered: for helthe. Then ſhe ſadled an Aſſe and ſayd to her ſeruaunt: leade away the Aſſe, and make her not to go ſlowly (bycauſe I ryde vpon her) but when I byd the.

✠ And ſo ſhe went and came vnto the man
E of God, to mount Carmell. And it fortuned, that when the man of God ſawe her a farre of, he ſayde to Gehezi his ſeruaunt. Beholde yonder is the Sunamite. Runne therfore to mete her, and ſay vnto her: Is all well with the and with thy huſbande, and with the lad? And ſhe anſwered: all is well. And when ſhe came to the man of God vp to the hylle, ſhe caught hym by the feete. But Gehezi went to her to thruſt her away. And the man of God ſayd: let her alone, for her ſoule is vexed within her, and the Lorde hath hyd it from me, and hath not tolde it me. Then ſhe ſayde: dyd I deſyre a ſonne of my lorde? dyd I not requite the, that thou ſhuldeſt not deceyue me?

Then he ſayde to Gehezi: * Gyrde vp thy loynes, and take my ſtaffe in thyne hande, & go thy waye. * If thou mete any man ☞ ſalute hym not. And yf any ſalute the, anſwere hym not agayne. And lay my ſtaffe vpon the face of the chyld. And the mother of the chyld ſayde: * As ſure as the Lorde lyueth, and as thy ſoule lyueth, I wyll not leaue the. And he aroſe and folowed her. Gehezi went before them, and layd the ſtaffe vpon the face of the chylde, But there was neyther voyce nor any felynge. Wherfore he wente agayne to mete hym, and tolde hym, ſaynge: the chylde is not awaked. And when Eliſa was come in to the houſe: Beholde, the childe was deade & layde vpon his bed.

He wente in therfore, and ſhut the dore to the lad and hym, and prayed vnto the Lorde. F
* And went vp and lay vpon the lad, and put his mouth vpon his mouth, & his eyes vpon his eyes, and his handes vpon his handes, and whē he ſo lay vpon the chylde, the fleſhe of the chylde waxed warme. And ☞ he went ☞ agayne, and walked once vp and downe in the houſe, and then went vp, and layde hym ſelfe vpon hym agayne. And then the chylde neſed ſeuen tymes and opened his eyes. And he called Gehezi, and ſayd: Call for this Sunamite. So he called her: whiche when ſhe was come in vnto hym, he ſayde vnto her: * take thy ſon. Therfore ſhe went in and fell at his feete, & bowed her ſelfe to the grounde, and toke vp her ſonne, and wente out. ⊢

Eliſa came agayne to Gilgall, and there G was a derth in the lande, and the chyldren of the prophettes dwelte with hym. And he ſayd vnto his ſeruaunt: Set a greate pot on the fyre, and make pottage for the chyldren of the prophettes. And one went out into the felde, to gather herbes, and founde ✠ (as it were) a ✠ wylde vyne, and gathered therof wylde Coloquintidas his lapfull, and came, and ſhred them into the pot of pottage: for they knewe it not. So they powred out for the mē to eate. And it fortuned, that when they taſted of the pottage, they cryed out, and ſayde: Oh thou man of God, ☞ there is death in the pot: and they coulde not eate therof. But he ſayde: brynge meale. And he caſt it into the pot, and ſayde: fyll for the people, that they may eate, and there was no more harme in the pot.

There came a man from Baall Saliſa, ⁊ brought the man of God breade of the fyrſte fruytes, euen.xx.loues of barley, ⁊ new corne whiche was yet in his bagges. And he ſayd: Gyue vnto the people that they maye eate. And his mynyſter anſwered: why, ſhall I ſet this before an hundred men? He ſayd agayne: gyue it vnto the people that they maye eate. For thus ſayeth the lorde, * they ſhall eate, ⁊ there ſhalbe lefte ouer. And ſo he ſet it before them, and they dyd eate, and lefte ouer, accordynge to the worde of the Lorde.

¶ Naaman the Sirian is healed of his Leproſye. Gehezi is ſtryken with a Leproſye, bycauſe he toke money and rayment of Naaman.

CAPI. V. ✣

A NAaman, captayne of the hooſte of the kynge of Siria, was a great man, and honourable in the ſyght of his mayſter bycauſe that by hym the Lorde had gyuen ⁊ health vnto Siria. He was alſo a myghty man, and experte in war, but he was a leper. And the Siryans had gone out by companyes, and had brought out of the countrey of Iſraell a lytle mayde, ⁊ ſhe was with Naamans wyfe. And ſhe ſayde vnto her lady: I wolde to god my lorde were with the prophet that is in Samaria: for he wolde delyuer hym of his leproſye. ☞ And ☞ he went in, and tolde his Lorde, ſaynge: thus and thus ſayde the mayde, that is of the lande of Iſrael. And the kynge of Siria, ſayde: Come ⁊ entre in, and I wyl ſende a letter vnto the kyng of Iſrael.

B And he came, and toke with hym ten talentes of ſyluer, and ſyxe.M. peces of golde, and ten chaunge of raymentꝭ, ⁊ brought the letter to the kynge of Iſraell cōteynyng this tenour: Nowe when this letter is come vnto the: Beholde, I haue therwith ſent Naaman my ſeruaunt to the, that thou mayſt ryd hym of his leproſye. And it fortuned, that whē the kynge of Iſraell had red the letter, he rent his clothes, and ſayde: * am I God, that I ſhulde ſley, and make alyue? for he doth ſend to me that I ſhulde delyuer a man from his leproſye. Wherfore conſyder (I praye you) and ſe howe he ſeketh a quarell agaynſt me: which when Eliſa the man of god had herde, howe that the kynge of Iſraell had rent his clothes, he ſent to the kynge, ſayenge: wherfore haſt thou rent thy clothes? let hym come nowe to me, and he ſhall knowe, that there is a Prophet in Iſraell.

C And ſo Naaman came with his horſes, ⁊ with his charettes, and ſtoode at the dore of the houſe of Eliſa. And Eliſa ſent a meſſenger vnto hym, ſayenge, go and waſſhe the in Iordane ſeuen tymes, ⁊ thy fleſhe ſhall come agayne to the, and thou ſhalt be clenſed: But Naaman was wroth, and went awaye, and ſayde: Beholde, I thought with my ſelfe: he wolde ſurely come out, and ſtande and cal on the name of the lorde his god, ⁊ put his hand on the place that he maye heale the leproſye. Are not Abana and Pharphar, ryuers of Damaſco, better then all the waters of Iſraell? Yf I waſhe me alſo in them, ſhall I not be clenſed? And ſo he turned hym, and departed with diſpleaſure. And his ſeruauntes came, and cōmuned with hym, and ſayde: Father, yf the Prophet had byd the do ſome greate thynge, oughteſt thou not to haue done it.

D Howe moche rather then, when he ſayeth to the: waſſhe, and be cleane? Then went he downe, ⁊ waſſhed hym ſelfe ſeuen tymes in Iordan, accordyng to the ſaynge of the man of god, and his fleſh chaunged, lyke vnto the fleſhe of a lytle chylde, * and he was clenſed. Luke.iiii.e.
And he turned agayne to the man of god, he and all his cōpanye, ⁊ ſtode before hym, and ſayde. Beholde, I knowe nowe that there is no god in all the worlde, but in Iſraell. ✣ Nowe therfore take ☞ a bleſſyng of thy ſeruaunt. ☞ But he ſayde: * as ſurely as the lorde lyueth (before whome I ſtande) I wyll receyue none. 3.Reg.17.a.
And when the other wolde haue conſtrayned hym to receyue it, he wolde not.

E ✣ And Naamā ſayd: ✣ (Euen as thou vvylt, but I beſeche the.) ☞ Shall there not be gyuen to thy ſeruaunt as moch of this earth as two Mules maye beare? ☞ For thy ſeruaunte wyll hence forth offre neyther burntſacrifyce nor offerynge vnto any other god, ſaue vnto the lorde. But herein the lorde be mercyful to thy ſeruaunt, that when my mayſter goeth into the houſe of Rimmō ⁊ doth worſhyp there, and leaneth on my hand, and I alſo worſhyp in the houſe of Rimmō, (when I do worſhyp I ſay) in the houſe of Rimmon, the Lorde be mercyfull vnto thy ſeruaunt bycauſe of this thynge. Vnto whom he ſayd: go in peace.

F And when he was departed from hym as it were a furlonge of ground, Gehezi the ſeruaunt of Eliſa the man of god, ſayd: behold, my mayſter hath ſpared Naaman this Sirian, that he wolde not receyue of his hande thoſe thyngꝭ that he offered. As ſurely as the Lorde lyueth, I wyll run after hym, and take ſome what of hym. And ſo Gehezi folowed Naaman. And when Naaman ſaw hym run

kynge after hym, he lyght downe from the 4.Reg.4.b charet, to mete hym, and ſayde: * Is all well?
He anſwered: All is well, Beholde, my may-ſter hath ſent me, ſayenge: ſe, there be come to me euen nowe from mounte Ephraim two yonge men of the chyldren of the prophettes:
geue them I praye the, one talent of ſyluer, &
two chaunge of garmentes.

G And Naaman ſayde: with a good wyll.
Take two talentes: and he compelled hym to bynde two talentes of ſyluer in two baggꝭ/with two chaunge of garmentes, and layde them vpon two of his ſeruauntes, to beare them before hym. And when he came in to a ſecrete place, he toke them from theyr hande/& beſtowed it in the houſe, and the men were let go, & they departed. But he went in, and ſtode before his mayſter. And Eliſa ſayd vnto hym: whence cõmeſt thou Gehezi? He ſayd:
thy ſeruaunt went no whyther. But he ſayde vnto hym: wente not myne herte with the,
when the man turned agayne from his cha-ret to mete the? ☞ Is it nowe a tyme to receyue money, to receyue garmentes, Olyue trees, vyneyardes, ſhepe & oxen, men ſeruaũ-tes and mayde ſeruaũtes? The leproſye therfore of Naaman ſhall cleue vnto the, and vn-

¶ Eliſa maketh yron to ſwymme aboue the water.
The Syrians beſege Iſraell, ſo that two wemen agree togyther to eate theyr owne Chyldren.

CAPI. VI.

A THe chyldren of the prophettes ſayde vnto Eliſa: Beholde, the place where we dwel with the, is to lytle for vs. We wyl therfore go vnto Iordane, and take thence euery man a beame, and buylde vs a place, to dwell in. And he anſwered: go. And one ſayd:
be content I pray the, and come with thy ſeruauntes. And he anſwered: I wyll come, and ſo he went with them. And when they came to Iordane, they cut downe wood. But it for-tuned, that as one was fellynge downe of a tree, the axe heade fell into the water. And he cryed, & ſayde: Alas mayſter, it was lent me.
And the man of god ſayd, where fell it? And he ſhewed hym the place. And he cut downe a ſtycke, and caſt it in thyther, and immedyatly
the yron dyd ſwym. Therfore ſayd he: take it vp. And he ſtretched out his hand, & toke it vp.

B But the kynge of Siria warred agaynſt Iſraell, & toke counſayle with his ſeruauntes, and ſayd: In yonder ſecrete place ſhall be my remaynynge. And the man of God ſent vnto the kynge of Iſraell, ſayenge: Beware, that thou go not ouer to ſoche a place, for there the Sirians are lurkynge. Therfore the kynge of Iſraell ſent to the place which the man of god tolde hym, & warned hym of, and ſaued hym ſelfe from it, not once nor twyſe. And the herte of the kynge of Siria was troubled for this thyng, & he called for his ſeruaũtes, and ſayde vnto them: wyll ye not ſhew me, which of our men ☞ (betrayeth me) to the kynge of Iſraell? And one of his ſeruaũtes ſayd: none C
my lorde O kynge: But Eliſa the Prophet,
that is in Iſraell, telleth the kynge of Iſrael, yea euen, the wordes that thou ſpeakeſt in thy preuye chambre. He ſayde: go, & ſpye where he is, that I maye ſende and fet hym. And one tolde hym, ſayenge: beholde, he is in Dothã.

Therfore ſent he thyther horſes & charettes, and a myghtye hooſte. And they came by nyght, & compaſſed the citye about. And whẽ the ſeruaunt of the man of god roſe vp early to go out: Beholde, there was an hooſt rounde
aboute the towne with horſes and charettes.
And his ſeruaunt ſayd vnto him: Alas may-ſter, what ſhall we do? He anſwered * feare not, for they that be with vs, are mo then they that be with them.

And Eliſa prayed & ſayd: lorde (I beſeche D
the) open his eyes, that he maye ſe. And the lorde opened the eyes of the yonge man. And beholde, the mountayne was full of horſes/
and charettes of fyre rounde aboute Eliſa.

And when they came downe to hym, Eliſa prayed vnto the lorde, & ſayd: Smyte this people (I praye the) with * blyndneſſe. And he ſmote them with blyndnes, accordyng to the deſyre of Eliſa. And Eliſa ſayde vnto them, this is not the way, neyther is this the towne folowe me, and I wyll brynge you to the man
whome ye ſeke. But he led them to Samaria.

And it fortuned that when they were come E
to Samaria, Eliſa ſayde: Lorde, open theyr eyes/ that they may ſe. And the lorde opened theyr eyes, & they ſaw. And behold, they were in the myddeſt of Samaria. And the kyng of Iſraell ſayd vnto Eliſa, when he ſaw them:
My father, ſhall I ſmyte them? And he anſwered: Thou ſhalte not ſmyte them. But ſmyte thoſe that thou haſt taken with thyne owne ſwerde and with thyne owne bow. But rather ſet breade and water before them, that they maye eate & drynke, & go to theyr may-ſter. And he prepared a greate refection for them. And when they had eaten and dronke, he ſent them awaye, and they went to theyr
mayſter. And ſo the ſouldyours of Siria ☞ came no more into the lande of Iſrael.

After this it chaunced, that Benhadad F kynge of Siria gathered all his hooſte, and went vp, and beſeyged Samaria. But there was

was a greate derth in Samaria: & beholde, they beſeyged it, vntyll an Aſſes heade (was ſolde) for .lxxx. ſyluer pens, & the fourth part of ☞ a Cab of doues dounge for fyue ſycles.

And as the kynge of Iſraell was goynge vpon the wall, there cryed a womã vnto hym ſaynge: helpe, my lorde O kynge. He ſayd: yf the lorde do not ſuccour the: wherwith can I helpe the: ☞ with the barne, or wt the wyne preſſe? And the kynge ſayde vnto her: what wylt thou? She anſwered: yonder woman ſayde vnto me: brynge thy ſon, that we maye eate hym to daye, & we wyll eate myne to morowe. * And ſo we dreſſed my ſon & dyd eate hym. And I ſayde to her the other day: brynge thy Sonne that we maye eate hym, and ſhe hath hyd her ſonne.

G And it came to paſſe, that when the kynge herde the wordes of the woman / he rent his clothes, & went vp on the wall. And the people loked: & behold, he had a ſacke clothe vnder, vpon his fleſſhe. Then he ſayde: * God do ſo & ſo to me, yf the heade of Eliſa the ſon of Saphat ſhall ſtande on hym this day. But Eliſa ſat in his houſe, & the elders ſat by him and the kynge ſent a man before hym. But or the meſſenger came to hym, he ſayde to the elders: haue ye not ſene, howe that ☞ the ſon of this murtherer hath ſent, to take awaye myne heade? Be circumſpecte when the meſſenger cõmeth, & ſhut the dore, & holde hym at the dore: is not the ſounde of his mayſters feete behynde him? Whyle he yet talked with them: Beholde, the meſſẽger came downe vnto hym, & ſayd beholde, ☞ this euyll is of the lorde, & what more ſhal I loke for of the lorde?

¶ Eliſa propheſyeth plenteouſnes of vyctayles, and other thynges in Samaria. The Sirians runne a way, and haue no man folowynge them. The lorde that wolde not byleue the worde of Eliſa is troden to death.

CAPI. VII.

A THen Eliſa ſayde: heare ye the worde of the lorde: thus ſayeth the lorde: * to morowe this tyme ſhall a buſſhell of fyne floure be ſolde for a Sicle, & two buſſhels of Barley for a Sycle in the gate of Samaria. Then a certayne Lorde (on whoſe hande the kynge leaned) anſwered the man of god, and ſayde: beholde, yf the lorde wolde make wyndowes in heuen, myght this ſayenge come to paſſe? He ſayde: beholde, thou ſhalt ſe it with thyne eyes, but ſhalte not eate therof. And there were foure leperous men at the entrynge in of the gate. And they ſayde one to another, why ſyt we here, vntyll we dye? Yf we ſaye: we wyll entre into the cytye, beholde, the derth is in the cytye, and we ſhall dye therin. And yf we ſyt ſtyll here, we dye alſo. Nowe therfore come, & let vs fall vpon the hooſt of the Sirians: If they ſaue our lyues we ſhal lyue: Yf they kyl vs, then are we dead And ſo they aroſe in the nyght, to go to the hooſt of the Sirians. And when they were come to the vttermooſt parte of the hooſt of Siria: beholde, there was no man there.

B For the lord had made the hooſt of the Sirians * to heare a noyſe of charettꝭ & a noyſe of horſes, and the noyſe of a great hooſt. In ſo moche that they ſayde one to another, lo, the kynge of Iſraell hath hyred agaynſt vs the kynges of the Hethites, & the kynges of the Egyptyans, to come vpon vs. Wherfore they aroſe & fled in the nyght, & left theyr tentes, theyr horſes, and theyr Aſſes, & the felde whiche they had pytched euen as it was, and fled for theyr lyues. And when theſe lepers came to the edge of the hooſt, they went in to a tent, and dyd eate, & drynke, & caryed thence ſyluer and golde & rayment, & went and hyd it: & came agayne & entred in to another tent / and caryed thence alſo, and went and hyd it.

Then ſayde one to another: we do not well this daye, for aſmoch as it is a day to brynge good tydynges / & we holde our peace. Yf we tarye tyll the day lyght, ſome myſcheyfe wyl come vpon vs. Nowe therfore come, that we maye go, and tell the kynges houſholde.

C And ſo they came, & called vnto the porter of the cytye, & tolde them ſayenge: we came to the pauilions of the Sirians: & ſe, there was no man there, neyther voyce of man, but horſes & aſſes tyed, and the tentes were, euen as they were wont to be. And ſo the man called vnto the porters, and they tolde the kynges houſe wtin. And the kyng aroſe in the nyght, & ſayde vnto his ſeruauntes: I wyll ſhew you nowe, what the Sirians haue done vnto vs. They knowe that we be hungrye, and therfore are they gone out of the pauilyons, to hyde them ſelues in the felde, ſayenge: when they come out of the citie, we ſhall catch them alyue, and get into the cytye. And one of his ſeruauntes anſwered, & ſayde: Let men take (I pray you) fyue of the horſes that remayne & are lefte in the multytude. Beholde ☞ they are euen as all the multytude of Iſraell that are lefte in the cytye: beholde (I ſay) they are euen as all the multytude of the Iſraelites that are cõſumed, & we wyll ſende, & ſe. They toke therfore the horſes of two charettes and the kynge ſent after the hooſt of the Sirians / ſayenge: go, & ſe. And they went after them / euen vnto Iordan: & lo, all the way was full of clothes and veſſels whiche the Sirians had caſt from them in theyr haſte.

D And the meſſengers returned, and tolde the kynge. And the peple went out, & ſpoyled the tentes of the Syrians. And ſo it came to paſſe, that a buſſhell of fyne floure was ſolde for a ſycle, and two buſſhels of barley for a

And ſo came the thynge to paſſe that the man of God had ſpoken to the kynge, ſayenge: two buſſhels of barley for a ſycle, & a buſſhell of fyne floure for an other/

¶ Eliſa prophecieth vnto the Sunamyte the derth of ſeuen yeares. After the death of Benhadad reygneth Hazaell in Syria. Jehoram the ſon of Jehoſaphat reygneth in Juda. Edom falleth from Juda. Ohoſia ſucceedeth Jehoram.

And the woman aroſe/ & dyd after the ſayinge of the man of god, & went bothe ſhe & her houſholde, & ſoiourned in the lande of the Philiſtines ſeuen yere. And at the ſeuen yeres ende, it fortuned, that the womã came agayne out of the land of the Philiſtin, & went out to cal vpon the kynge for her houſe & for her lande And the kyng talked w Gehezi the ſeruaunt of the man of god, ſayenge: tel me I pray the all the great dedes that Eliſa hath done.

B He tolde the kynge, howe he had reſtored a dead body to lyfe agayne: but in the meane tyme the woman (whoſe ſonne he had rayſed vp agayne) cryed to the kynge for her houſe, & for her lande. And Gehezi ſayd: My lorde o kynge, this is the woman, and this is her ſon whome Eliſa rayſed vp agayne. And when the kynge aſked the woman, ſhe tolde hym. And ſo the kynge delyuered her a chamberlayne, ſayenge: reſtore thou vnto her all that are hers, & all the frutes of the felde, ſence the day that ſhe lefte the lande, vntyll this tyme.

3.Reg.xix.c And * Eliſa came to Damaſco, & Benhadad the kynge of Syria was ſycke. And
C one tolde hym ſayenge: The man of God is come hyther. And the kynge ſayde vnto Hazaell: * take a preſent in thyne hande, and go mete the man of God, that thou mayeſt aſke the lorde by hym, whyther I ſhall recouer of this dyſeaſe. And ſo Hazaell went to mete hym and toke the preſent with hym, and of euery good thyng of Damaſco, euen aſmoch as .xl. Camels coulde beare, and came & preſented hym ſelfe before hym, & ſayde: thy ſon Benhadad kynge of Siria hath ſent me to the ſayenge, ſhall I recouer of this dyſeaſe? And Eliſa ſayde vnto hym: go and ſaye vnto hym: thou ſhalt recouer, howbeit the lorde hath ſhewed me, that he ſhall ſurely dye.

D And * he loked aſyde, and was aſhamed/ and the man of god wepte. And Hazael ſayd: why wepeth my Lorde? He anſwered: for I knowe the euyll thynges that thou ſhalte do vnto the chyldren of Iſraell: for theyr ſtrong cityes ſhalte thou ſet on fyre, and theyr yong men ſhalt thou ſley with the ſwerde & ſhalte daſhe out the braynes of theyr ſuckynge chyldren, & all to teare theyr women with chylde. But Hazaell ſayde: what is thy ſeruaunte/ a dogge, that I ſhulde do this greate thynge? And Eliſa anſwered: the Lorde hath ſhewed me, that thou ſhalt be kynge of Siria. And ſo he departed from Eliſa, and came to his mayſter/ whiche ſayde to hym. What ſayde Eliſa to thee? He anſwered: he tolde me, that thou ſhuldeſt recouer. And on the morowe it fortuned, that he toke a thycke cloth, & dypte it in water, and ☞ ſpred it on his face, and he dyed, and Hazaell reygned in his ſteade.

E The fyfte yere of Jehoram the ſonne of Ahab kynge of Iſraell (Jehoſaphat beynge alſo kynge of Juda) Jehoram the ſon of Jehoſaphat, kynge of Juda, began to reygne. * xxxii. yeare olde was he, when he began to reygne, & he reygned. viii. yere in Jeruſalem. And he walked in the waye of the kynges of Iſraell, as they that were of the houſe of Ahab: for the doughter of Ahab was his wyfe, & he dyd euyll in the ſyght of the lorde. And the lorde wolde not deſtroye Juda, & that by cauſe of Dauid his ſeruaunt * as he promyſed hym to gyue hym all way a lyght among his chyldre. * In thoſe dayes Edom dyd wyckedly when he was vnder the hand of Juda: for they made them a kynge of theyr owne.

F So Jehoram went to Zair, he and all his charettes with hym. And he aroſe by nyght/ and ſmote the Edomites, whiche compaſſed hym in, with the captaynes of his charettes, and the people fled into theyr tentes. But Edom rebelled, ſo that he wolde not be vnder the hande of Juda vnto this day. And then Lobnah began to be dyſobedyent, euen that ſame tyme. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Jozam and all that he dyd, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronycles of the kyngs of Juda? And Jozam reſted with his fathers/and was buryed beſyde his fathers in the cytye of Dauid. And ☞ * Ahaziahu his ſonne reygned in his ſteade. 2.Par.22.a ☞

G In the .xii. yere of Jozam the ſon of Ahab, kynge of Iſraell, dyd Ahaziahu the ſonne of Jehozam kynge of Juda begyn to reygne. Two and twentie yeare olde was Ahaziahu when he began to reygne, & he reygned one yere in Jeruſalem, & his mothers name was Athaliahu, the doughter of Omri kynge of Iſraell. But he walked in the waye of the houſe of Ahab: & dyd euyll in the ſyght of the lorde, euen as dyd the houſe of Ahab: For he was the ſon in lawe of the houſe of Ahab.

And he went with Jozam the ſon of Ahab to warre agaynſt Hazaell kynge of Siria/in Ramoth Gilead, and the Sirians wounded Jozam. And * kynge Jozam went backe agayne, to be healed in Jezrahel of the woundes whiche the Sirians had gyuen hym at Ramoth, when he fought agaynſt Hazaell kyng of Siria. And Ahaziahu the ſonne of Jehozam kyng of Juda went downe to ſe Jozam the ſonne of Ahab in Jezrahell, bycauſe he was ſycke there. Reg.8.c

¶ Jehu is made kynge of Iſraell, and kylleth Jehozam the kynge therof: and Ahaziahu kynge of Juda alſo, and cauſeth Jezabel to be caſt downe out of a wyndowe, and the dogges eate her.

CAPI. IX.

A AND Eliſa the prophet called one of the chyldren of the Prophettes, and ſayde vnto hym: * gyrde vp thy loynes, and take this boxe of oyle in thyne hand, and get the to Ramoth in Gilead. And when thou cõmeſt thyther, loke were is Jehu the ſonne of Jehoſaphat the ſonne of Nimſi, and go to hym, and make hym aryſe vp from amonge his brethren, and cary hym to a ſecrete chamber. Then take the boxe of oyle, and power it on his head, and ſay: thus ſayeth the lorde: I haue anoynted the to be kynge ouer Iſraell. 4.Reg.4.c

And then open the dore, and flee withoute any taryenge. And ſo the ſeruaunt of the prophet gat hym to Ramoth Gilead: & when he came in/beholde, the captaynes of the hooſte were ſyttyng togyther. And he ſayde: I haue an erande to the O captayne. And Jehu ſayd: vnto which of all vs? He ſayde: to the O captayne. And he aroſe, and went into the houſe.

B And he powred the oyle on his heade, and ſayde vnto hym: thus ſayeth the Lorde God of Iſraell, * I haue anoynted the to be kyng ouer the people of the lorde, euen ouer Iſraell. Thou ſhalt ſmyte the houſe of Ahab thy mayſter, that I maye auenge the bloode of my ſeruauntes the prophettes, & the blood of all the ſeruauntes of the Lorde, of the hande of Jezabell (for the hoole houſe of Ahab ſhal be deſtroyed) & I wyll deſtroye from Ahab/ euen hym that maketh water agaynſte the wall, & hym that is pryſoned & forſaken in Iſraell: & I wyll make the houſe of Ahab lyke the houſe of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat, and lyke the houſe of Baaſa the ſon of Ahia. And as for Jezabell * the dogges ſhall eate her in the felde of Jezrahell, & there ſhall be none to bury her. And he opened the dore and fled. Jehu came out to the ſeruauntes of his lorde, and one ſayde vnto hym, is all well? 3.Reg.19.d 3.Reg.21.f 4.Reg.19.f

C Wherfore came this mad felowe to the? And he ſayde vnto them: ye knowe what maner of man he is, and what his cõmunicacion is: They ſayd vnto hym agayne: it is not ſo, tell vs. He ſayde: thus & thus ſpake he to me, ſayenge: Thus ſayth the lorde: I haue anoynted the to be kynge ouer Iſraell. Then they haſted, and toke euery man his garment, and put it vnder hym in maner of a iudges ſeate/ and blewe with trompettes, ſayenge: Jehu is kynge. And ſo Jehu the ſonne of Jehoſaphat the ſon of Nimſi conſpired agaynſt Jozam. Jozam kepte Ramoth Gilead, he and all Iſraell bycauſe of Hazaell kynge of Siria, and * kynge Jozam returned to be healed in Jezraell, of the woundes whiche the Sirians had gyuen hym, when he fought with Hazaell kynge of Siria. 4.Regñ.8.d

D And Jehu ſayde: Yf it be youre myndes/ then let no man departe and eſcape out of the citye/to go and tell in Jezraell. So Jehu gat vp in to a charet, and went to Jezraell where Jozam laye, and Ahaziahu kynge of Juda was come downe thyther to ſe Jozam. And the watchman that ſtode on the towre in Jezraell, ſpyed the company of Jehu as he came, and ſayde: I ſe companye. And Jehozam ſayde: take an horſman, and ſende to mete them, that he maye aſke whyther it be peace. And ſo there went one on horſebacke to mete hym, & ſayde: thus ſayeth the kynge: is it peace? And Jehu ſayde: what haſt thou to do with peace? turne the behynde me. And the watchman tolde, ſayenge: the meſſenger came to them, but he cõmeth not agayne.

E Then he ſent out an other on horſebacke, whiche came to them, and ſayde: thus ſayeth the kynge: is it peace? Jehu anſwered: what haſt thou to do wt peace? turne the behynde me. And the watchman told, ſaynge: he came to them alſo, & commeth not agayne, and the dryuynge is lyke the dryuynge of Jehu the ſon of Nimſi, for he dryueth the charet as he were mad. And Jehoram ſayde: make redye. And the charet was made redy. And Jehorã kynge of Iſraell, and Ahaziahu kynge of Juda went out eyther of them in his charet agaynſt Jehu, and met hym in the furlong of Naboth the Jezrahelite. And it fortuned/ that when Jehoram ſawe Jehu, he ſayde: is it peace Jehu? He anſwered: What peace ſhulde there be, ſo longe as the whoredomes of thy mother Jezabell & her wytchcraftes, are ſo great? And Jehoram turned his handes, and fled, and ſayde to Ahaziahu: there is falſhed O Ahaziahu. And Jehu toke a bowe in his hande, & ſmote Jehoram bytwene the armes, & the arowe went thorowe his herte. And he fell downe flat in his charet.

F Then ſayd (Jehu) to Bidkar a captayne: take hym, and caſt hym in the plat of grounde of Naboth the Jezraelite. For I remembre, that when I and thou rode together in a charet after Ahab his father/ the lorde layd this heuye burther vpon hym: I haue ſene yeſterdaye the bloode of Naboth, and the blood of his ſonnes, ſayde the lorde & I wyll quyte it the in this grounde, ſayeth the Lorde. Nowe therfore take him, and caſt hym in the plat of ground, accordyng to the worde of the lorde. But when Ahaziahu the kynge of Juda ſaw this, he fled by the waye of the garden houſe. ✠ And Jehu folowed after hym, & ſayde: Smyte hym alſo in the charet. ✠ (And they ſmote hym) in his charet at the goynge vp to Gur by Jibleam, and he fled to Magiddo, & there dyed. And his ſeruauntes caryed hym in a charet to Jeruſalem, & buryed hym there in his ſepulchre with his fathers in the citye of Dauid. And in the .xi. yeare of Joram the ſon of Ahab, beganne Ahaziahu to reygne ouer ☞ Juda. And when Jehu was come to Jezrael/ Jezabell herde of it, and ☞ ſtarched her face/ and tyred her head, & loked out at a wyndow. And as Jehu entered at the gate, ſhe ſayde: had Zimri peace whiche ſlewe his mayſter? And he lyfte vp his eyes to the wyndow, and ſayde: who is of my ſyde, who? And there loked out to hym two or thre chamberlaynes. G And he ſayde: Throwe her downe: So they threwe her downe, and her blood daſſhed towarde the wall, and towarde the horſes, and he trode her vnder feete. And when he was come in, he dyd eate and drynke, and ſayd: go and vyſet I pray you, yonder curſed creature and bury her: for ſhe is a kynges doughter. j. Re. xvi. g

And ſo when they came to burye her, they founde no more of her then the ſcull, and the feete, and the palmes of her handes. Wherfore they came agayne, & tolde hym. And he ſayd: This is the word of the lorde, which he ſpake by the hande of his ſeruaunt Elia the Theſbite, ſayenge: * in the felde of Jezrahell ſhall dogges eate the fleſſhe of Jezabel. And ſo the carkas of Jezabell was euen as donge vpon the earth, in the felde of Jezrahell: ſo that no man myght ſay: This was Jezabell.

¶ Jehu cauſeth the .lxx. ſonnes of Ahab to be ſlayne, and after that .xlii. of his brethren. He fyndeth a meane alſo to kyll all the preeſtes of Baall. After his death his ſonne reygneth in his ſteade.

CAPI. X.

A AHab had * .lxx. Sonnes in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters & ſent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Jezrahell/ to the elders, & to them that brought vp Ahabs chyldren, ſayenge: nowe when this letter cõmeth to you, ye that haue with you your mayſters ſonnes, (ye haue with you both charettes & horſes: a ſtronge citye haue ye alſo, and harneſſe) loke whiche of your mayſters ſonnes is beſt & mooſt mete, and ſet hym on his fathers ſeate ☞ and fyght for youre Lordes houſe. ✠ But they were exceadyngly afrayde, and ſayde: ſe, two kynges were not able to ſtande before hym, howe ſhall we then be able to ſtande? And he that was gouerner of Ahabs houſe, & he that ruled the citie, the elders alſo, and the tutours ſent to Jehu, ſaynge: we are thy ſeruauntes, & wyll do all that thou ſhalt byd vs: we wyll make no man kynge: therfore do thou what ſemeth good in thyne eyes.

B Then he wrote an other letter to them, ſayenge: Yf ye be myne, and wyll herken vnto my voyce, then take the heades of the men that are your mayſters ſonnes, and come to me to Jezrahell by to morow this tyme. And the kynges ſonnes were .lxx. perſonnes, and they were with the greate men of the citye, whiche brought them vp. And when the letter came to them, they toke the kynges chyldren, and ſlue them, euen .lxx. perſons, & layd theyr heades in baſkettes, and ſent them to hym to Jezrahell. And there came a meſſenger, & tolde hym ſayenge: they haue brought the heades of the kynges ſonnes. And he ſayde: let them laye them on two heapes in the enterynge in of the gate, vntyll the mornynge.

C And when it was day, he went out, & ſtode & ſayde to all the folke: ye be ryghteous. Beholde, I cõſpyred agaynſt my mayſter, & ſlue hym: But who ſlue al theſe? Knowe here, that there ſhall fal vnto the earth nothyng of the worde of the lorde, which he ſpake cõcernyng the houſe of Ahab: for the lorde hath brought to paſſe the thynges that he ſpake ☞ by the hande of his ſeruaunte * Elia. And ſo Jehu ſlue all that remayned of the houſe of Ahab/ in Jezrahell & all that were great with hym/ and his kynſfolkes, and his preeſtes, ſo that he let nothynge of hym remayne. And he aroſe, and departed, & came to Samaria. And whē Jehu was in the way to the houſe where the ſhepherdes dyd ſhere theyr ſhepe, he met with the brethren of Ahaziahu kynge of Juda, and ſayde: what are ye? They anſwerred the brethren of Ahaziahu are we, & go downe to ſalute the chyldren of the kyng, and of the quene. And he ſayd: take them alyue. Whom when they had taken them alyue, they ſlue them at the well which was beſyde the houſe where the ſhepe are ſhorne, euen .xlii. men neyther lefte he any of them. And when he was departed thence, he met with Jehonadab the ſon of * Rechab cōmynge agaynſt hym: And ☞ he bleſſed hym, & ſayde to hym: is thyne herte ryght, as myne herte is true w̄ thyne?

D And Jehonadab anſwered: yea that it is. ✠ (yf it, be ſayeth he) ✠ then gyue me thyne hande. And when he had gyuē him his hand, he toke hym vp to hym in to the charet, and ſayde: come with me, and ſe the zeele that I haue for the Lorde, & ſo they made hym ryde in his charet. And when he came to Samaria, he ſlue all that remayned vnto Ahab in Samaria/ tyll he had wyped hym out, accordynge to the ſayenge of the Lorde whiche he ſpake to Elia. And Jehu gathered al the people togyther, & ſayde vnto them: * Ahab ſerued Baall a lytle: But Jehu ſhall ſerue hym more. Nowe therfore call vnto me all the prophettes of Baal, all ſoche as ſerue hym, & all his preeſtes and let none be lackynge. For I haue a great ſacrifyce to do to Baall: & therfore, whoſoeuer is myſſed, he ſhall not lyue.

E But Jehu dyd it for a ſubteltye, to the intent that he myght deſtroye the ſeruauntes of Baall. And Jehu ſayd: Proclayme an holy conuocacyō for Baall, and Jehu ſent vnto all Iſraell. And all the ſeruaūtes of Baal came, that there was not a man lefte behynd that came not. And they came into the houſe of Baall, & the houſe of Baall was ful from one ende to an other. And he ſayde vnto hym that was the keper of the veſtrey, brynge forth garmentes for all the ſeruaūtes of Baall. And he brought them out garmentꝭ. And when Jehu went with Jehonadab the ſon of Rechab into the houſe of Baall, he ſayde vnto the ſeruauntes of Baall: ſearche and loke, that there be here with you none of the ſeruauntes of the Lorde, but the ſeruauntes of Baall only. And when they went in to offre ſacrifyce & burntofferyngꝭ, Jehu appoynted .lxxx. men without, & ſayde: Yf any of the men whome I haue brought vnder your handes, eſcape, he that letteth hym go, ſhall dye for hym. And it fortuned, that as ſoone as he had made an ende of offeryng the burntſacrifyce, Jehu ſayde to the men of war, & to the captaynes: go in: & ſley them, let none come out.

And they ſmote them with the edge of the ſwerde. F And the men of war & the captaynes caſt them out & went vnto the citie of the temple of Baall, & ſet the ymages out of the temple of Baall, & burnt them. And they brake the ymage of Baall, & brake the houſe of Baall, & made a draft houſe of it vnto this daye. And ſo Jehu deſtroyed Baall out of Iſrael. But from the ſynnꝭ of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat (which made Iſraell to ſyn: Jehu departed not, neyther frō folowynge of them ✠ (neyther forſoke he) ✠ the golden calues that were in Bethell & in Dan. And the lorde ſayde vnto Jehu: bycauſe ẏ haſt done ryght well, in bryngyng to paſſe, the thynge that is ryght in myne eyes, and haſt done vnto the houſe of Ahab accordynge to all thyngꝭ, that are in myne herte, therfore ſhall * thy Chyldren vnto the fourth generacyon, ſyt on the ſeat of Iſraell. 4.Re.15.a. But Jehu cared not for this, to walke in the law of the lorde god of Iſraell with all his herte: G for he departed not frō the ſynnꝭ of Jeroboā, whiche made Iſrael to ſyn. ✠ In thoſe dayes the lorde began to cut Iſrael ſhorte, & * Hazael ſmote them in al the coaſtes of Iſraell, 4.Regñ.8.b from Jordan Eaſtwarde: euen all the lande of Gilead, the Gadites, the Rubenites, & them that were of Manaſſes/ from Aroer vnto the ryuer of Arnon: euen Gilead & Baſan. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Jehu, & all that he dyd/ and all his powre, are they not wrytten in the boke of the Cronicles of the kyngꝭ of Iſraell? And Jehu ſlepte with his fathers, and they buryed him in Samaria, & Jehoahaz his ſon reygned in his ſteade. And the tyme that Jehu reygned vpon Iſrael in Samaria, is .xxviii. yeres.

¶ Athalia putteth to death all the kynges ſonnes, excepte Jehoas the ſon of Ohoziah, which is hyd, & after her death is made kynge.

CAPI. XI.

A AND Athalia the mother of Ahaziahu/ when ſhe ſawe that her ſon was deade/ ſhe aroſe, & deſtroyed al the kyngꝭ ſeed. But Jehoſaba the doughter of kynge Joram & ſyſter of Ahaziahu toke Joas the ſon of Ahaziahu, & ſtale hym from amonge the kynges ſonnes that were ſleyne, & his nurce with hym, out of a ſlepynge chambre, & hyd

hym from Athalia, that he was not ſleyne.
And he was with her, hyd in the houſe of the lorde .vi. yeare. And Athalia dyd reygne ouer the lande. And the ſeuenth yeare Jehoiada ſent & ſet the rulers ouer the hundreds, with the captaynes, & them of the garde, and toke them to hym into the houſe of the lorde, and made a bond w̄ them, & toke an othe of them in the houſe of the Lorde, & ſhewed them the kyngꝭ ſon. And he cōmaunded them, ſaynge:
This is it that ye muſte do: one thyrde parte

that is, all that go out on the Sabboth daye, rounde about, and euery man ſhall haue his

with in the ranges, let hym be ſleyne. And ſe that ye be with the kynge as he goeth out &

the preeſt cōmaunded: and they toke euerye man his men (that were to come in on the Sabboth

And to the captaynes ouer hundreds, dyd the preeſt gyue kynge Dauids ſpeares & ſhyldes that were in the temple. And they of the gard ſtode/ and euerye man had his weapon in his hande rounde about the kynge, frō the ryght

ii.Par.23.b * And when Athalia herde the noyſe of

ſhe loked, beholde, the kynge ſtode by a pyller (as the maner was) & the ſyngers and the lande reioyſed / & blewe with trompets. And Athalia rent her clothes and cryed: treaſon/treaſon. But Jehoiada the preeſt cōmaūded the captaynes of the hundreds that had the rule of the hooſt, & ſayd vnto them: haue her out without the temple, that ſhe may be with in the rangꝭ, and yf any folowe her, kyll hym

with the ſwerde: for the Preeſt had ſayde: ſhe
maye not be ſleyne in the houſe of the Lorde.
And they layde handes on her tyll ſhe came into the waye, by the whiche the horſes went in to the kynges palace: and there was ſhe ſleyne. * And Jehoiada made a bonde bytwene ii.Pa.
the lorde & the kynke, & the people (that D they ſhulde be the Lordes people) & alſo bytwene
the kynge & the peple. And all the people of the lande went into the houſe of Baal, & deſtroyed it: his aulters alſo & his ymages brake they downe iuſtely & ſlue Mathan the Preeſt of Baall before the aulters. And the preeſt ſet a watch ouer the houſe of the lorde, & toke the rulers ouer hundreds, the captaynes & them of the garde, & all the peple of the lande. And they brought the kynge from the houſe of the lorde, & came by the waye of the gate of them of the garde to the kynges palace.
And he ſat him downe on the ſeate of the kynges. And all the people of the lande reioyſed, and the citye was in quyetneſſe. And they ſlue Athalia with the ſwerde, beſyde the kyngꝭ palace. Seuen yere olde was Jehoas, when he began to reygne.

¶ Jehoas maketh prouiſyon for the reparyng of the temple. He is kylled by two of his ſeruauntes, and Amaziahu reygneth in his ſteade.

CAPI. XII.

AND he began to reygne in the ſeuenth A yere of Jehu, fourtye yeare reygned he in Jeruſalem, & his mothers name was Zebiah of Berſeba. And he dyd that whiche was good in the ſyght of the lorde, as longe as Jehoiada the preeſt enfourmed hym. But the hylaulters were not taken awaye, for the people offered & burnte incenſe yet vpon the hylaulters. And Jehoas ſayd to the Preeſtꝭ:
all the ſyluer of dedycate thynges, that be money, that is to ſaye, the money that euery man ☞ is ſet at, and al the money that euery ☞

take it to them, euery man of his aquayntaunce, to repayre the broken places of the houſe, where ſoeuer any decaye is founde.

And ſo it came to paſſe that vnto the .xxiii. B yere of kynge Jehoas, the preeſtes had mended nothynge, that was decayed in the temple.
Then kynge Jehoas called for Jehoiada
the byſſhop, & the preeſtes, and ſayde vnto them: why repayre ye not the broke places of the temple? Nowe therfore, ſe that ye receyue no more money of your aquayntaūce, excepte
ye delyuer it to repayre the temple withall.

And the preeſtes conſented to receyue no more money of the people: excepte to repayre
the decayed places of the temple.

But Jehoiada the preeſt toke a chyſt & bored an hoole in the lyd of it, & ſet it beſyde the aulter on the ryght ſyde, as euery mā cometh in to the temple of the Lorde. And the preeſtes that kepte the dores, put all the money that was brought in to the houſe of the Lorde.

C And it fortuned, that when they ſawe moch money in the chyſt, * the kynges ſcribe and the hygh preeſt came vp, & tolde the money that was founde in the houſe of the lorde and put it in to a bag. And they gaue the money ſealed in to the handes of them that executed the worke, and that had the ouerſyght of the houſe of the lorde: & they brought it out to the carpenters & buylders (that wroughte vpon the houſe of the Lorde) and to maſons and hewers of ſtone: And they bought tymbre and free ſtone, to repayre the decay in the houſe of the lorde, and to all that went out to ☞ amende the temple: howbeit ☞ there was not made for the houſe of the Lorde, bolles of ſyluer, inſtrumentes of Muſyke, baſens, trompettes or any veſſell of golde, or veſſel of ſyluer, of the money that was brought in to the houſe of the Lorde: But they gaue that to the workemen, and repayred therwith the houſe of the Lorde. Moreouer, they rekened not wt the men, in to whoſe handes they delyuered that money to be beſtowed on workemen: for they dyd theyr buſyneſſe faythfully. Howbeit ☞ ☞ treſpaſſe money, and ſynne money was not brought in to the houſe of the Lorde, for it was the preeſtes. Then came Hazael kyng of Siria vp, and fought agaynſt Geth, & toke it, & Hazael ſet his face to go vp to Jeruſalē.

D And Jehoas kynge of Juda toke all the halowed thynges that Jehoſaphat, Jehorā, and Haziahu his fathers kyngꝭ of Juda, had dedicate, & that he hym ſelfe had dedicated, and all the golde that was founde in the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, & in the kynges houſe, and ſent it to Hazael kyng of Siria: and ſo he departed from Jeruſalem.

The remenaunt of the wordes that concerne Jehoas & all that he dyd, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda? And his owne ſeruauntes aroſe, and wrought treaſon, and ſlue Jehoas in the houſe of Millo, when he came downe to Silla. Joſabar the ſon of Semeath & Jehozabad the ſonne of Somer his ſeruauntes ſmote hym, & he dyed. And they buryed hym with his fathers in the citye of Dauid. And Amaziahu his ſonne reygned in his ſteade.

C Jehoahaz the ſonne of Jehu is delyuered in to the handes of the Sirians and dyeth. Joas his ſonne reygneth in his ſteade. Eliſa dyeth.

CAPI. XIII.

IN the.xxiii.yere of Joas the ſonne of Ahaziahu kynge of Juda, Jehoahaz the ſon of Jehu began to reygne ouer Iſraell in Samaria ſeuentene yere. And he wrought that which was euyl in the ſyght of the lorde, and folowed the ſynnes of Jeroboā the ſon of Nebat, whiche made Iſrael to ſyn, and departed not therfrom. And the Lorde was angry with Iſrael, and delyuered them in to the hande of Hazael kyng of Siria, and in to the hande of Benhadad the ſonne of Hazaell all theyr dayes. And Jehoahaz beſought the lord and the Lorde herde hym. For he conſydered the trouble of Iſrael, wherwith the kynge of Siria troubled them. And the lorde gaue Iſrael a delyuerer, ſo that they wente out from vnder the ſubiection of the Sirians. And the chyldren of Iſraell dwelte in theyr tentes as before tyme. Neuertheleſſe they departed not from the ſynnes of the houſe of Jeroboam, which made Iſrael ſyn, but walked in them. A

And there remayned a groue ſtyll alſo in Samaria. In the.xxxvii.yere of Joas kynge of Juda, began Joas the ſon of Jehoahaz to reygne ouer Iſrael in Samaria ſyxtene yere, & dyd that whiche is euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde & departed not from all the ſynnes of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nebat, (that made Iſrael ſynne) for he walked therin. And Joas ſlepte with his fathers, and Jeroboā ſat vpon his ſeate. And Joas was buryed in Samaria among the kynges of Iſraell. B 4.Regū.ib

When Eliſa was fallen ſycke of his ſyckeneſſe (wherof he dyed) Joas the kyng of Iſraell came downe vnto hym, & wepte before hym, & ſayd. * O my father, my father, ☞ the charet of Iſrael, & the horſemen of the ſame. Eliſa ſayd vnto hym: take bowe and arowes And he toke vnto hym bowe & arowes. And he ſayd vnto the kynge of Iſraell: put thyne hand vpon the bow, & he put his hand vpō it. C 4.Reg.ii.c. ☞

And Eliſa put his handes vpon the kynges handes, & ſayde: open a wyndowe eaſtwarde: and when he had opened it, Eliſa ſayd: ſhute, and he ſhot. And he ſayde: the arowe of helpe of the Lorde, and the arowe of helpe agaynſt Siria, for thou ſhalte ſmyte Siria in Aphek tyll thou haue made an ende of them. And he ſayde: take the arowes: & he toke them. And he ſayd vnto the kynge of Iſraell: ſmyte the grounde: & he ſmote thryſe & ceaſed. And the mã of god was angry with hym, & ſayd: thou ✿ ſhuldeſt haue ſmytten. v. or. vi. tymes ✿ (or ſeuen tymes) & then thou hadeſt ſmytten Siria tyl thou hadeſt made an ende of them: where nowe thou ſhalte ſmyte Siria but thryſe.

D And ſo Eliſa dyed & they buryed hym, & the ſouldyoures of the Moabites came in to the ✿ lande, ✿ the ſame yere. And it chaunced as ſome of them were buryenge a man, & ſpyed the ſouldyours, they caſt the man into the ſepulcre of Eliſa. And when the mã was rolled Eccle.48.a downe, & touched the bones of Eliſa * he reuiued, and ſtode vpon his feete. But Hazael vexed Iſrael, all the dayes of Iehoahas. And the lorde had mercy on them, & pityed them, & had reſpecte vnto them, bycauſe of his appoyntment made with Abrahã, Iſaac, & Iacob, & wolde not deſtroy them, neyther caſt he them from hym as yet. So Hazael the kyng of Siria dyed/ & Benhadad his ſon reygned in his ſteade. And Iehoas the ſon of Iehoahaz went agayne & toke out of the hande of Benhadad the ſon of Hazael, the cities which he had taken away out of the hand of Iehoahaz his father, in warre: for thre tymes dyd Ioas beate hym, and reſtored the cities vnto Iſrael agayne.

¶ Amaziahu the kynge of Iuda putteth to death the manquellers of his father, and after ſmyteth Edom. Ioas dyeth, and Ieroboam his ſon ſucedeth in his rowme, and after hym reygneth Zacharia. Amazia is kylled in Lachis, and Azaria reygneth in his ſteade.

Why doeſt thou prouoke to myſcheyfe, that thou ſhuldeſte be ouerthrowen/ and Iuda with thee. But Amaziahu wolde not heare. And Iehoas kyng of Iſrael went vp, and he and Amaziahu kyng of Iuda ſaw eyther other at Bethſames which is in Iuda.

And Iuda was put to the worſe before Iſrael, and they fled euery man to theyr tentes. D And Iehoas kyng of Iſrael toke Amaziahu kyng of Iuda, the ſonne of Iehoas the ſon of Ahaziahu, at Bethſames, & came to Ieruſalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, foure hundred cubites. And he toke all the golde and ſyluer & all the veſſels that were founde in the houſe of the Lorde, and in the treaſures of the kynges houſe, & the chyldren toke he to be his wardes / & returned to Samaria agayne. He buylte * Elath, & brought it agayne to Juda, F after that the kynge was layde to reſt with his fathers. In the .xv. yere of Amaziahu the ſonne of Joas kyng of Juda, was Jeroboã the ſonne of Joas made kynge ouer Iſraell in Samaria, and reygned .xli. yere, & wrought that which was euyl in the ſyght of the lorde. Neyther turned he away from all the ſynnes of Jeroboam the ſon of Nabat whiche made Iſrael to ſynne. He reſtored the coaſt of Iſrael from the entryng of Hemath vnto the ſee of the wyldernes, accordynge to the worde of the Lorde God of Iſraell, whiche he ſpake ☞ by the hande of his ſeruaunt * Jonas the ſonne of Amithai the prophet, whiche was of G Geth hepher. For the Lorde ſawe howe that the affliccion of Iſraell was exceadyng bytter, in ſo moche that the pryſoned, and the forſaken were at an ende. And there was none to helpe Iſrael. And the Lorde ſayde not, that * he wolde put out the name of Iſrael from vnder heuen, but helped them by the hande of Jeroboam the ſonne of Joas.

CAPI. XV.

A IN the .xxvii. yere of Jeroboam kynge of Iſrael, began Azaria ſon of Amazia kyng of Juda to reygne. Syxtene yere olde was he when he was made kynge, & he reygned .lii. yere in Jeruſalem, & his mothers name was Jecholeiahu of Jeruſalem. And he dyd that whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde, accordynge to all thynges as dyd his father Amaziahu: ſaue that the hylle aulters were not put away: for the people offered and burned inſence ſtyll on the hyll aulters. And the lorde ſmote the kynge, & he was a leper vnto the day of his death, * and dwelte in a ſeuerall houſe at lybertye, & Jotham the kynges ſonne gouerned the palace, & iudged the people of the lande. In the .xxxviii. yere of Azaria kynge of Juda, dyd Zacharia the ſon of Jeroboam reygne vpon Iſrael in Samaria, ſyxe monethes, and wrought that whiche was euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, as dyd his fathers, and turned not awaye from the ſynnes of Jeroboã the ſon of Nabat, whiche made Iſrael to ſynne. And Sallum the ſon of Jabes conſpired agaynſt hym, and ſmote hym in the ſyght of the people, & kylled hym, and reygned in his ſteade.

The reſt of the wordes that concerne Zacharia: beholde, they are wrytten in the boke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Iſraell. This is alſo the wordes of the Lorde whiche he ſpake vnto Jehu, ſayenge: * Thy ſonnes ſhall ſyt on the ſeate of Iſraell in the fourth generacion after the. And it came ſo to paſſe. 4.Reg.10.f.

C Sallum the ſon of Jabes began to reygne the .xxxix. yere of Azaria kyng of Juda, & he reygned a moneth in Samaria. For Menahem the ſon of Gadi went vp from Thirza & came to Samaria, & ſmote Sallum the ſon of Jabes in Samaria, & ſlue hym, & reygned in his ſteade. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Sallum, & the treaſon which he conſpired: beholde, they are wrytten in the boke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Iſraell. The ſame tyme Menahem deſtroyed Thiphſah, and al that were therin, & the cooſtes therof, frõ Therzah. And (bycauſe they opened not to hym) he ſmote it, & rypte vp al theyr womẽ with chylde. The .xxxix. yere of Azaria kynge of Juda began Menahẽ the ſon of Gadi to reygne vpon Iſrael .x. yere in Samaria. And he dyd euyl in the ſyght of the lorde, & turned not away (all his dayes) frõ the ſynne of Jeroboã the ſon of Nabat, which made Iſraell to ſynne. And Phul the kyng of Aſſiria came vpon the lande. And Menahem gaue Phul a .M. talentes of ſyluer, that his hand might be with hym & ſtablyſſhe the kyngdom in his hand. D And Menahẽ made a proclamacyõ for the money in Iſrael, that al men of ſubſtaũce ſhuld gyue the kyng of Aſſiria .l. ſycles of ſyluer a pece. And ſo the kyng of Aſſiria turned backe agayne, & taryed not there in the land. The reſt of the wordes that cõcerne Menahẽ & all that he dyd, are they not wrytten in the boke of the cronicles of the kynges of Iſraele? And Menahem ſlepte w his fathers, & Pikahia his ſon dyd (in his ſtead) ſuccede hym in the kyngdom. In the .l. yere of Azaria kyng of Juda began Pekahia the ſonne of Menahem to reygne ouer Iſrael in Samaria two yere, and dyd that whiche was euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, and lefte not of from the ſynnes of Jeroboam the ſon of Nabat, which made Iſrael ſynne. But Pekah the ſonne of Remaliahu (whiche was a captayne of his) conſpired agaynſt hym, and ſmote hym in Samaria, euen in the palace of the kyngꝭ houſe with Argob ⁊ Aria: and with hym were fiftie men of the Gileadites: and he kylled hym, ⁊ reygned in his roume. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Pekahia ⁊ all that he dyd: beholde, they are wrytten in the boke of the Cronicles of the kyngꝭ of Iſrael. F In the .lii. yere of Azaria kynge of Juda began Pekah the ſon of Remaliahu to reygne ouer Iſraell in Samaria .xx. yere, and dyd euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, and turned not awaye from the ſynnes of Jeroboam the ſon of Nabat, that made Iſraell ſynne. In the dayes of Pekah kyng of Iſrael, came Thiglath Pileſar kyng of Aſſyria, and toke Jion, Abel, Bethmaacha Janoah, Kedes, Hazor, Gilead, Galile, and all the lande of Nephthali, and caryed them awaye to Aſſyria.

And Hoſea the ſonne of Ela conſpired treaſon agaynſte Pekah the ſon of Remaliahu, ⁊ ſmote hym and ſlue hym, and reygned in his ſteade in the .xx. yere of Jotham the ſonne of H Uziahu. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Pekah and al that he dyd: beholde they are wrytten in the boke of the Cronicles of the kyngꝭ of Iſrael. The ſeconde yere of Pekah the ſon of Remaliahu kynge of Iſraell, began Jothã the ſonne of Uziahu kynge of Juda to reygne.

G Fyue and twentye yere olde was he when he began to reygne, ⁊ he reygned .xvi. yere in Jeruſalem. His mothers name was Jeruſa the doughter of Zadok. And he did that which is ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde: euen accordynge to al, as dyd his father Uziahu, ſo dyd he. But the hyll aulters were not put awaye: for the people offered and burnt inſence ſtyll in the hyll aulters: he buylte the hygher dore of the houſe of the Lorde. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Jotham, and all that he dyd, are they not wrytten in the boke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda.

In thoſe dayes the Lorde began to ſende in to Juda, Rezin the kynge of Syria, and Pekah the ſon of Remaliahu. And Jotham ſlepte with his fathers, and was buryed with his fathers/ in the cytie of Dauid his father, and Ahaz his ſonne reygned in his ſteade.

¶ Ahaz kynge of Juda conſecrateth his ſonne in fyre, and hath many battayles agaynſte the kynge of Iſraell. In the ſteade of Ahaz reygneth Ezechias his ſonne.

CAPI. XVI.

A The .xvii. yere of Pekah the ſonne of Remaliahu Ahaz the ſon of Jotham kyng of Juda, began to reygne. Twentye yere olde was he, when he was made kynge: and reygned .xvi. yere in Jeruſalem, and dyd not that whiche was ryght in the eyes of the Lorde his god, lyke Dauid his father. But walked in the way of the kynges of Iſraell: yea ⁊ made ✠ his ſonne to go thorowe the fyre after the abhominacions of the hethẽ, whom the lorde caſt out before the chyldre of Iſrael. And he offered ⁊ burnt inſence in the hyll aulters and on the hylles, ⁊ vnder euery thycke tree. ✠ Then Rezin kynge of Syria and Pekah ſon of Remaliahu kynge of Iſrael came vp to Jeruſalem to fyght. And they fought agaynſt Ahaz, but coulde not ouercome him.

B At the ſame tyme Rezin kynge of Syria brought Elath agayne to Syria, and ryd the Jues thence. And the Syrians ✠ came to Elath, ⁊ dwelt therin vnto this daye. So Ahaz ſent meſſengers to Thiglath Peleſer kynge of Aſſyria, ſayenge: I am thy ſeruaunt ⁊ thy ſon, come vp, ⁊ delyuer me out of the hande of the kyng of Syria, ⁊ out of the hand of the kyng of Iſrael, whiche ryſe vp agaynſt me.

And Ahaz toke the ſyluer ⁊ golde that was founde in the houſe of the lorde, ⁊ in the treaſures of the kynges houſe, ⁊ ſent a rewarde to the kynge of Aſſyria. ✠ And the kynge of Aſſyria conſented vnto hym. For the kyng of Aſſyria went vp agaynſt Damaſco: And whẽ he had taken it, he caryed the people awaye to Kir, ⁊ ſlue Rezin. And kyng Ahaz went to Damaſco, to mete Thiglath Peleſer kynge of Aſſyria. And when kyng Ahaz ſawe an aulter that was at Damaſco, he ſent to Uria the preeſt the patron of the aulter, and the faſſion C of it, and all the workmanſhyp therof.

And Uria the preeſt made an aulter in all poyntes lyke to the patron which kyng Ahaz had ſent from Damaſco: Euen ſo dyd Uria the preeſt make it, agaynſt kyng Ahaz came from Damaſco. And ſo, when the kyng was come from Damaſco, he ſawe the aulter, and the kynge went to it, and offered theron. And he burnt his burnt offerynge, ⁊ his meate offerynge, and powred his drynke offerynge, and ſprinkeled the blood of his peaceofferinges beſyde the aulter, that was by the braſen aulter whiche was before the lorde, and ſet it without the temple, betwene the aulter and the temple of the Lorde, ⁊ put it on the north ſyde of the aulter.

And kynge Ahaz commaunded Uria the Preeſt and ſayd: vpon the greate aulter ſet on fyre in the mornyng the burntoffryng, and in the euen, the meateofferyng, and the kynges burntſacrifice ⁊ his meateofferyng, with the burntofferyng of al the people of the lande, ⁊ theyr meateofferynge, and theyr drynke offerynges: ⁊ powre therby, all the bloode of the ſacrifice offerynges. But the braſen aulter wyl I come and ſe.

D And Uria the preeſt dyd accordyng to all thynges as kyng Ahaz commaunded hym. * And kyng Ahaz brake the ſydes of the bottomes, and toke the lauer from of them, and toke downe the lauatorye from of the braſen oxen that were vnder it, ⁊ put it vpon a pauemente of ſtones. And the pulpyt for the Sabboth (that they had made in the houſe) ⁊ the kynges entrie without turned he to the houſe of the lorde, for (feare of) the kyng of Aſſyria. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Ahaz, what he dyd, are they not wrytten in the boke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Juda? And Ahaz ſlepte with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citye of Dauid: And Hezekia his ſonne reygned in his ſteade.

¶ Hoſea kynge of Iſraell is taken. And he and all his realme is brought to the Aſſerians.

CAPI. XVII.

A IN the .xii. yere of Ahaz kyng of Juda, began Hoſea the ſonne of Ela to reygne in Samaria vpon Iſraell .ix. yere, and dyd that which was euyl in the ſyght of the lorde, but not as the kynges of Iſrael that were before hym. And Salmanaſar kyng of Aſſyria came vp agaynſt hym, ⁊ Hoſea became his ſeruaunt, and gaue hym preſentes. And the kyng of Aſſyria founde treaſon in Hoſea: for he had ſent meſſengers to So, kynge of Egypte, and broughte no preſent vnto the kyng of Aſſyria from yere to yere: And therfore the kynge of Aſſyria toke hym, and put hym in pryſon. * And then the kynge of Aſſyra came vp thorowout al the lande, ⁊ gat vp agaynſt Samaria, and beſeyged it thre yere.

In the nynth yere of Hoſea / the * kyng of B Aſſyria toke Samaria, ⁊ caried Iſrael away vnto Aſſyria, and put them in Hala, in Habor by the ryuer of Goza, and in the cities of the Medes. For it came to paſſe, that the chyldren of Iſrael ſynned agaynſt the lorde theyr god, which had brought them out of the lande of Egypte, from vnder the hande of Pharao kyng of Egypte / and feared other Gods. And they walked in the ceremonies of the hethen, whom the Lorde caſt out before the chyldren of Iſrael, and in the ceremonies whiche the kynges of Iſrael had made. And the chyldren of Iſrael went aboute to hyde thoſe thinges that were not well from the Lorde theyr God. And they buylte them hyll aulters in al theyr cityes, bothe in the towres where they kepte watche, and alſo in the ſtrong townes. And they made them ymages and groues in euery hygh hyl, and vnder euery thycke tree. And there they burnt inſence in all the hyll aulters, as dyd the hethen (whom the Lorde caried away before them) and wrought wycked thynges to angre the Lorde withall. For they ſerued moſt vyle Idols, wherof the lord had ſayd vnto them. Deut.xii.d. * Ye ſhall do no ſuche thynge. And the lorde teſtified in Iſraell and in Juda by all the prophettes and by all the ſears, ſayenge. Iere.xxv.b * Turne from your wycked wayes and kepe my cōmaundementes ⁊ my ſtatutes, accordyng to all the lawe whiche I cōmaunded your fathers, and whiche I ſent to you by my ſeruauntes the prophettes.

C Notwithſtandynge they wolde not heare Deute.31.c Mala.iii.b * but rather hardened theyr neckes, lyke to the ſtubburneſſe of theyr fathers that did not beleue in the Lorde theyr god. For they refuſed his ſtatutes, ⁊ his appoyntment that he made ẇ theyr fathers, ⁊ the wytneſſes (wherwith he wytneſſed vnto them) ⁊ they folowed vanite, and became vayne, and wente after the hethen that were rounde aboute them: cōcernyng whom, the Lorde had charged them that they ſhulde not do lyke them. But they lefte the cōmaundementes of the Lorde theyr God, ⁊ made them Images of mettal 3.Reg.xii.f * euen two calues: and made groues, and worſhypped all the hooſt of heuen, and ſerued Baall. Deute.18.b * And they ſacrificed theyr ſonnes and theyr doughters in fyre, and vſed wytchcrafte and enchaūtementes ☩ ☩ euen ſellyng them ſelues to worke wyckedneſſe in the ſyght of the lord and to angre hym. And the Lorde was exceadynge wrothe with Iſraell and put them out of his ſyghte 3.Reg.xii.d * that there was lefte but the tribe of Juda onely. Neuertheles, Juda alſo kepte not the cōmaundementes of the Lorde theyr God, but walked in the ceremonies of Iſrael, whiche they made.

D And the Lorde caſt vp all the ſeed of Iſraell, and vexed them, and delyuered them into the handes of ſpoylers, vntyll he had caſt them out of his ſyght. For Iſraell deuyded them ſelues from the houſe of Dauid, and made them a kynge, euen Jeroboam the ſon of Nabat.

And Jeroboam ☩ drew Iſrael away (that they ſhulde not folowe the Lorde) and made them ſynne a great ſynne: For the chyldren of Iſrael walked in al the ſynnes of Jeroboam which he dyd, ⁊ departed not therfrom vntyl the Lorde put Iſrael away out of his ſyght, as he had ſayd by all his ſeruauntes the prophettes. And ſo was Iſrael caried away out of theyr owne land to Aſſyria, euen vnto this day. And the kynge of Aſſyria brought men from Babylon, from Cutha, from Iua, from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, & put them in the cityes of Samaria, in ſteade of the chyldren of Iſrael. And they poſſeſſed Samaria, and dwelte in the cityes therof.

E And it fortuned, that at the begynnyng of theyr dwellyng there, they feared not the lord. And the lorde ſent lyons among them, which ſlue them. wherfore, men ſayd to the kyng of Aſſyria: The nacions which thou haſt tranſlated, & put in the cityes of Samaria, knowe not the lawe of the God of the lande, therfore he hath ſent lyons vpon them: and beholde, they ſley them, bycauſe they knowe not the maner of the god of the land. Then the kyng of Aſſyria cõmaunded, ſayeng: carye thyther one of the Preeſtes, whom ye brought thence and let hym go, and dwell there, and teache them the faſſyon how to ſerue the god of the countrey. And then one of the preeſtes which they had caryed thence came, & dwelte in Bethell, and taught them how they ſhulde feare the Lorde. Howbeit euery nacion made them Goddes of theyr owne, and putte them in the houſes of the hyll aulters whiche the Samaritans had made, euery nacion in theyr cityes wherin they dwelte.

F The men of Babylon made ☞ Socoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal: and the men of Hamath made Aſima. The Auites made Nebhaz, and Tharthak. And the Sepharuites burnt theyr chyldren in fyre for Adramelech and Anamelech, the Gods of Sepharuaim. And ſo they feared the Lorde, and made them preeſtes of the hyll aulters, which ſacrificed for them in the houſes of the hyll aulters. And ſo they feared the Lorde, & ſerued theyr owne Gods after the maner of the people, whom they caryed thence. And vnto this day they do after the olde maner, and neyther feare God, neyther do after ☞ theyr owne ordynaunces and cuſtomes, and after the lawe and cõmaundement which the lorde cõmaunded the chyldren of Iacob, * whom he called Iſraell. Gene. 32.c. G And the lorde made an appoyntment with them, & charged them, ſayenge: * feare none other gods, nor bowe your ſelues to them, nor ſerue them, nor ſacrifice to them: but feare the lorde whiche brought you out of the lande of Egypt with great power & ſtretched out arme: hym feare, & to hym bow, & to hym do ſacrifice. The ſtatutes, ordinaunces, lawe and cõmaundement which he wrote for you, ſe that ye be diligent to do for euermore, & feare not any other Gods. And the appoyntment that I haue made with you, ſe ye forget not, and feare none other gods: but the lorde your God ye ſhall feare, and he ſhall delyuer you out of the handes of all your enemyes. Howbeit, they dyd not herken, but dyd after theyr olde cuſtome. And ſo theſe nacions feared the lorde, & ſerued theyr ymage alſo: lyke as dyd theyr chyldren & theyr chyldrens chyldren. Euen as dyd theyr fathers, ſo do they vnto this day.

CAPI. XVIII.

A IN the thyrde yere of Hoſea ſonne of Ela kynge of Iſrael it came to paſſe, that Hezekia the ſonne of Ahaz kyng of Iuda dyd reygne. * Twentye & fyue yere olde was he when he began to reygne, and reygned .xxix. yere in Ieruſalem. His mothers name alſo was Abi the doughter of Zacharia, & he dyd that whiche is ryght in the ſyght of the lorde accordyng to all, as dyd Dauid his father. * He put awaye the hyll aulters, & brake the ymages, and cut downe the groues, and al to brake the * braſen ſerpent that Moſes had made. For vnto thoſe dayes the chyldren of Iſrael dyd burne ſacrifice to it, and he called it ☞ Nehuſtan.

B He truſted in the lorde God of Iſraell, ſo that after hym was none lyke hym amonge all the kynges of Iuda, neyther were there any ſuch before hym. For he claue to the lord, and departed not from him, but kepte his cõmaundementes, whiche the Lorde cõmaunded Moſes. And the Lorde was with hym: ſo that he proſpered in all thynges whiche he toke in hande. And he rebelled agaynſt the kyng of Aſſyria, and ſerued him not. He ſmote the Philiſtines euen vnto Aza and the coaſtes therof, ☞ both caſtels (where they kepte watches) and ſtronge cityes.

C * And in the fourth yere of kyng Hezekia, (whiche was in the ſeuenth yere of Hoſea ſon of Ela kyng of Iſrael) it fortuned, that Salmanaſar kynge of Aſſyria came vp agaynſt Samaria, & beſeyged it. And after thre yeres they toke it euen in the ſyxte yere of Hezekia: that is to ſay, the nynth yere of Hoſea kynge of Iſraell. And Samaria was wonne. And the kynge of Aſſyria, dyd carye away Iſrael vnto Aſſyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the ryuer of Gozan, & in the cityes of the Medes: bycauſe they wolde not herken vnto the voyce of the Lorde theyr God.

But transgreſſed his appoyntment: and all that Moſes the ſeruaunt of the lorde cōmaūded, ⁊ wolde neyther heare them, nor do them. * Therfore in the .xiiij. yere of kyng Hezekia dyd Sennacherib kynge of Aſſiria come vp agaynſt all the ſtrong cityes of Juda, ⁊ toke them. And Hezekia kyng of Juda ſent to the kyng of Aſſyria to Lachis, ſayinge: * I haue offended: departe from me, and all that thou putteſt on me, that wyl I bere. And the kynge of Aſſyria appoynted vnto Hezekia kynge of Juda thre hūdred talentes of ſyluer, ⁊ thyrtie talentes of golde. * And Hezekia gaue hym D all the ſyluer that was founde in the houſe of the Lorde, and in the treaſures of the kyngꝭ houſe. At the ſame ſeaſon dyd ☞ Hezekia rent of the dores of the temple of the Lorde ⁊ the pyllers (which they ſayde Hezekia kynge of Juda had couered ouer) and gaue them to the kynge of Aſſyria. And the kyng of Aſſiria ſent Tharthan/ and Rabſaris/ and Rabſake from Lachis to kynge Hezekia with a great hooſt agaynſt Jeruſalem. And they went vp and came to Jeruſalem, and gat them vppe, and ſtode by the conduyte of the vpper poole whiche is in the way of the fullers felde. And when they had called to the kyng, there came out to them, Eliakim the ſon of Elkia which was ſteward of houſhold, ⁊ Sobna the ſcribe ⁊ Joah the ſonne of Aſaph, the recorder. And Rabſake ſayd vnto them. Tell ye Hezekia I pray you: thus ſayth the great kyng, euen the kyng of Aſſyria: what confidence is this that thou haſt? Doeſt thou ſpeake ſuche a lyghte worde in dede. By counſayle ⁊ power I wyll be redy to make warre.

On whom then doeſt thou truſt, that thou E rebelleſt agaynſt me? * doeſt thou truſt to the ſtaffe of this broken rede Egypte, on whiche yf a man leane, it wyll go into his hande, and pearce it. Euen ſo is Pharao kyng of Egypt vnto all that truſt in hym. * If ye ſaye vnto me, we truſt in the lorde our god: Is not that he whoſe hyll aulters, and his other aulters Hezekia hath put downe, and hath ſayde to Juda [illegible] Jeruſalem, ye ſhal worſhyp before this [illegible] here in Jeruſalem. Now therfore delyuer the wordes to my lorde the kynge of Aſſyria, And I wyl delyuer the two thouſand horſes, yf thou be able to ſet riders vpō them. Why thynkeſt thou ſcorne at the preſence of one of the leaſt Dukes of my mayſters ſeruauntes, and truſteſt to Egypte for charettes and horſmen? Moreouer, am I come nowe without the byddynge of the Lorde to this place, to deſtroy it? the Lorde ſayde to me: Go vp to this lande, and deſtroy it.

F And Eliakim the ſonne of Helkia ⁊ Sobna and Joah ſayd vnto Rabſake: ſpeake (I praye the) to thy ſeruauntes in the Sirians language, for we vnderſtand it: and ☞ talke not with vs in the Jues tonge, in the eares of this people that are on the wal. And Rabſake ſayde vnto them: hath my mayſter ſent me to thy mayſter and to the, to ſpeake theſe wordes: Hath he not ſente me bycauſe of the men which ſyt on the wal, that they may eate theyr owne donge ⁊ drynke theyr owne pyſſe with you? And ſo Rabſake ſtode, and cryed with a loude voyce in the Jues language, ⁊ ſpake, ſayeng: heare the ſayenge of the great kynge of Aſſyria. Thus ſayth the kynge: let not Hezekia begyle you, for he ſhall not be able to delyuer you out of myne hand: neyther let Hezekia make you to truſt in the Lorde, ſaynge: the lorde ſhall ſurely delyuer vs, and this citye ſhal not be gyuē ouer into the hand of the kyng of Aſſyria. Herken not vnto Hezekia, for thus ſayth the kyng of Aſſyria.

☞ Deale kyndly with me, ⁊ come out to me. G And then eate euery man of his owne vyne, and of his owne fyg tree, ⁊ drynke euery mā of the water of his owne well, tyll I come, ⁊ fetche you to as good a lande as youres is: a lande of corne and wyne, a lande of breade ⁊ vyneyardes, a lande of oyle, of olyue trees, ⁊ of hony: that ye maye lyue and not dye. And herken not vnto Hezekia, for he begyleth you ſayenge: the Lorde ſhall delyuer vs. * Hath euery one of the Gods of the nacions delyuered his lande, out of the hande of the kyng of Aſſyria? where is the god of Hamath, ⁊ of Arphad? ⁊ where is the God of Sepharuaim, Hena ⁊ Iua? dyd they delyuer Samaria out of myne hande, ⁊ what God is it amonge all the Gods of the nacions, that hath delyuered his lande out of myne hande, ſhall the Lorde delyuer Jeruſalem out of myne hande? Esai.37.b

But they that were of the people helde theyr peace, and anſwered not hym a worde: for the kyng had cōmaunded, ſayeng: anſwere hym not. Then Eliakim whiche was the ſtewarde of houſeholde, and Sobna the ſcrybe, and Joah the ſonne of Aſaph the recorder, came to Hezekia ☞ with theyr clothes rent: ⁊ tolde hym the wordes of Rabſake.

¶ The Angell of the Lorde kylleth an hundred foure ſcore and fyue thouſande men of the Aſſirians. Sennacherib is kylled of his owne ſonnes.

CAPI. XIX.

A SO it came to paſſe, that when kyng Hezekia herde it, he rent his clothes, and put on ſacke, ⁊ came into the * houſe of the lorde Esai.37.a and ſent Eliakim which was the ſtewarde of houſholde, and Sobna the ſcribe, ⁊ the elders of the Preeſtes clothed in ſacke, to Jſay the prophet the ſonne of Amos. And they ſayde ☞ vnto hym, thus ſayth Hezekia: ☞ this day is a day of tribulacyon and of rebuke and blaſphemy. For the chyldren are come to the byrth, and there is no ſtrength to be delyuered. Peraduenture the Lorde thy God wyl heare all the wordes of Rabſake, whom the kynge of Aſſyria his mayſter hath ſent, to rayle on the lyuyng god, and to rebuke hym with wordes whiche the lorde thy God hath herde.

And lyfte thou vp thy prayer for the reme- B naunt that are lefte. So the ſeruauntes of kyng Hezekia came to Jſay: And Jſay ſayde vnto them: So ſhall ye ſay to your mayſter: Thus ſayth the Lorde: be not afrayde of the wordes whiche thou haſt herde, with whiche the yonge men of the kynge of Aſſyria haue rayled on me. Beholde, J wyll put hym in an other mynde, and he ſhall heare tydynges, & Eſai.37.a ſo returne to his owne lande: * And J wyll brynge to paſſe, that he ſhall fall vpon the 2.Pa.18.b ſwerde * euen in his owne lande. And Rabſake went backe agayne and found the kyng of Aſſyria fyghtynge agaynſt Lybna: for he had herde, howe that he was departed from Lachis. And he herde men ſaye of Thirhaka kynge of the blacke Mores. Beholde, he is come out to fyght agaynſt the, he departed, & ſent meſſengers vnto Hezekia, ſaynge. Thus ſpeake to Hezekia kyng of Juda, ſaynge: let not thy god deceyue the, in whom thou truſteſt, ſayenge.

C Jeruſalem ſhal not be delyuered in to the hande of the kyng of Aſſyria. Beholde, thou haſt herde, what the kynges of Aſſyria haue done to all landes, how they haue vtterly de- ✠ ſtroyed them. And ſhalte thou ✠ (alone) eſcape? Haue the gods of the hethen delyuered them whiche myne aunceters haue deſtroyed? as Gozan, and Haran, Rezeph, and the chyldren of Eden whiche were in Thelaſar? where is the kyng of Hamath, & the kynge of Arphad, the kyng of the citye of Sepharuaim, and of Hena and Jua? So Hezekia receyued the letter of the hande of the meſſengers, and red it: And Hezekia went vp into the houſe of the Lorde, and layde it abrode before the Lorde. And Hezekia prayed before the lorde, & ſayd: O lorde God of Jſraell, whiche dwelleſt bytwene the Cherubs, thou arte god alone ouer al the kyngdoms of the earth, thou haſt made heuen & earth. Lorde, bow downe thyne eare, and heare. Open thou thyne eyes (J beſeche the) and ſe, and heare the wordes of Sennacherib whiche hath ſent this man to rayle on the lyuyng God. Of a truth lorde, the kynges of Aſſyria haue deſtroyed nacyons and theyr landes, and haue ſet fyre on theyr Goddes, for they were no Gods, but the worke of the handes of man: euen of wood and ſtone, and they deſtroyed them.

Nowe therfore, O lorde our God, J be- D ſeche the, ſaue thou vs out of his hande, that all the kyngdomes of the earth may knowe, that thou onely arte the lorde God: And Jſay the ſonne of Amos ſent to Hezekia: ſayenge. Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Jſraell: that which thou haſt prayed me, concernyng Sennacherib kyng of Aſſyria, J haue herde it.

This is therfore the worde that the Lorde hath ſayd of hym: ☞ The vyrgyn, euen the ☞ doughter of Syon hathe deſpyſed the, and laughed the to ſcorne (O thou kynge of Aſſyria) the doughter of Jeruſalem hathe ſhaken her heade at the. * Whom haſt thou rayled on, & whom haſt thou blaſphemed? Agaynſt whom haſt thou exalted thy voyce, and lyfted vp thyne eyes ſo hye? Euen agaynſt the holy of Jſrael. ☞ By the hand of the meſſengers ☞ thou haſt rayled on the lorde and ſayde: with the multitude of my charettes J am come vp to the ☞ toppes of the mountaynes, euen a- ☞ longe by the ſydes of Libanon, & J wyll cut downe the hye Cedar trees, & the luſtye fyrre trees therof: and J wyl go in to the lodgyng of his neſt, & in to the wood of his playne.

J haue dygged & dronke ſtraunge waters E and with the ſtep of my goyng wyl J drye all the water poles that are beſeged. Haſt thou not herde, how J haue ordeyned ſuch a thyng a great whyle a go, & haue prepared it from the begynnyng? And ſhall J not nowe brynge it forth, that it may deſtroy, & to brynge ſtrong cityes in to waſte heapes of ſtones? And the enhabitours of them ſhal be of lytell power, and faynt herted, & confounded, and * ſhall be lyke the graſſe of the felde, or grene herbe, or as the hay on the toppes of the houſes: or as the corne that is vnrype, and ſmytten with blaſtyng. J know thy dwellyng, thy comyng out, and thy goynge in, ✠ (and thy vvay) and ✠ thy furye agaynſt me. And bycauſe thou ra- F geſt agaynſt me, & thynkeſt thy ſelfe ſo bleſſed J wyll put my hoke in thy noſe thrylles, and my byt in thy lyppes, & wyl brynge the backe agayne the ſame waye thou cameſt. And this ſhall be a ſygne vnto the (O Hezekia) Ye ſhal eate this yere of ſuche thynges as growe of them ſelues, and the nexte yere ſuche as come vp of thoſe that dyd growe of theyr owne accorde. And the thyrde yere ſowe ye and reape, plante vyneyardes & eate the fruytes therof. And it that is eſcaped & lefte, of the doughter of Juda of Iuda, ſhall yet agayne take rotynge downe warde and beare frute vpwarde.

G For out of Ieruſalem ſhal go a remenaunt and a nombre that ſhall eſcape out of mount Sion: the zele of the Lorde of hooſtes ſhall brynge this thynge to paſſe. Wherfore, thus ſayeth the Lorde, concernynge the kynge of Aſſirya: he ſhall not come to this Cytye/ nor ſhote an arowe in to it, nor come before it with ſhelde, nor caſt backe agaynſt it: but ſhal go backe agayne the waye he came, and ſhal not come in to this cytye ſayeth the lorde. For I wyll defende this cytye, to ſaue it, for myne owne ſake, and for Dauid my ſeruauntes ſake. And ſo it came to paſſe that the ſelfe ſame nyght the angell of the Lorde went out and ſmote in the hooſte of the Aſſiryans an hundred foure ſcore, and fyue thouſand. And when the remenaunt were vp early in the mornynge: they ſawe, they were all deade corſes. * And ſo Sennacherib kynge of Aſſirya auoyded and departed: and went agayne, and dwelte at Niniue. And it fortuned, that as he was in a temple worſhyppynge Niſroch his god, Adramelech & Sareſar his owne ſonnes ſmote him with the ſwerde. And they eſcaped in to the lande of Armenia, and Aſarhaddon his ſonne reygned in his ſteade.

¶ Hezekia is ſycke, and receyueth the ſygne of his health. He receyueth rewardes of Merodach, and is reprehended of Iſai, bycauſe he ſhewed hym the treaſure. He dyeth and Manaſſeh his ſonne reygneth in his ſteade.

CAPI. XX.

A ABoute that tyme was Hezekia ſycke vnto the death. And the Prophet Iſai the ſonne of Amoz came to hym, and ſayde vnto hym: Thus ſayeth the Lorde: ✠ put thyne houſholde in an ordre, for thou ſhalte dye/ and not lyue. And Hezekia turned his face to the wall, and prayed vnto the Lorde/ ſayenge: I beſeche the now, o lorde remembre how I haue walked before the in trueth, and with a perfyte herte, & haue done that which is good in thy ſyght, and Hezekia wepte ſore. And it fortuned that ✠ before Iſai was gone out in to the myddle of the courte, the worde of the Lorde came to hym, ſayenge: turne agayne, and tell Hezekia the captayne of my people: Thus ſayeth the Lorde God of Dauid thy father: I haue herde thy prayer/ and ſene thy teares.

B And beholde, I wyll heale the, ſo that on the thyrde daye thou ſhalte go vp in to the houſe of the lorde. And I wyll adde vnto thy dayes yet fyftene yeare, and wyll delyuer the and this cytye out of the hande of the kynge of Aſſirya, & wyll defende this cytye for myne owne ſake, & for Dauid my ſeruauntes ſake. And Iſai ſayde. Take a lompe of fygges. And they toke and layde it on the ſore, and he recouered. And Hezekia ſayde vnto Iſai: what ſhall be the ſygne, that the Lorde wyll heale me/ & that I ſhall go vp in to the houſe of the lorde the thyrde daye? Iſai anſwered: this ſygne ſhalt thou haue of the Lorde, that the Lorde wyll do that he hath ſpoken: ſhall the ſhadowe go forwarde ten degrees, or go backe agayne ten degrees? Eccle. 48.b Hezekia anſwered: it is a lyght thynge for the ſhadow to go downe ten degrees, ✠ (neyther is that my deſyre) ✠ but yf the ſhadowe go backewarde ten degrees, it is no lyght thynge. And Iſai the prophet called vnto the lorde, * & he brought the ſhadow ten degrees backwarde by which it had gone downe, in the dyall of Ahaz. Eccle. 48.b

C * The ſame ceaſon Berodach Baladan the ſonne of Baladan kyng of Babilon ſent letters and a preſent vnto Hezekia, for he had herde, howe that Hezekia was ſycke. And Hezekia was glad of them, and ſhewed them al his treaſure houſe: ſyluer, golde, odours, precyouſe oyntement, all the houſe of his armorye, and all that was found in his treaſures: there was nothynge in his houſe, and in all his realme, that Hezekia ſhewed them not. Eſai. 39.a

And Iſai the Prophet came vnto kynge Hezekia, and ſayd vnto hym: what ſayd theſe men, and from whence came they to the? And Hezekia ſayde: they be come from a far countrey, euen from Babilō. And he ſayd agayne: what haue they ſene in thy houſe? Hezekia anſwered: all the thynges that are in my houſe haue they ſene: there is nothynge among my treaſures, that I haue not ſhewed them.

D And Iſai ſayd vnto Hezekia: heare the worde of the Lorde: Beholde, the dayes come, that all that is in thyne houſe, & whatſoeuer thy fathers haue layde vp in ſtore vnto this daye, * ſhall be caryed to Babilon, and nothynge ſhall be lefte ſayeth the lorde. 4.Re.24.a and.25.b. Iere.52.b And of thy ſonnes (that ſhall procede out of the, and which thou ſhalte beget) ſhall they take awaye, and they ſhall be chamberlaynes in the palace of the kynge of Babilon. And Hezekia ſayd vnto Iſai: welcome be the worde of the Lorde whiche thou haſt ſpoken: And he ſayde: ſhall there not be peace and trueth in my dayes?

The remenaunt of the wordes that concerne Hezekia, and all his power, and howe he made a poole and a conduyte, and brought water in to the cytye, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda? * And Hezekia ſlepte with his fathers, * and Manaſſe his ſonne reygned in his ſteade. 2.Par.32.f Math.1.a

¶ Wycked Manaſſe reſtoreth agayne the Idols, and after dyeth, in whoſe ſteade Amon his ſonne ſucceadeth; whiche is kylled of his owne ſeruauntes. After hym reygneth faythfull Ioſia, whome we vſe to call Ioſias, or Ioſiah.

CAPI. XXI.

A ij.Par.33.a Manaſſe * was twelue yeare olde, when he began to reygne, and reygned fyftye and fyue yeare in Ieruſalem: his mothers name alſo was Hephziba. And he dyd euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, euen after the abhominacyons of the Hethen whom the * Lorde caſte oute before the chyldren of Iſraell. For he went and buylte vp the hyll aulters, * whiche Hezekia his father had deſtroyed: And he reared vp aulters for Baall, and made groues (as dyd Ahab kynge of Iſraell,) and worſhypped all the hooſte of heuen, and ſerued them. And he buylte aulters in the houſe of the Lorde, of whiche the Lorde ſayde: * in Ieruſalem wyll I put my name. And he buylt aulters for all the hooſte of heuen, euen in two courtes of the houſe of the lorde. * And he offered his ſonne in fyre/ and gaue hede vnto witchcrafte and ſorcery, and mayntayned workers with ſpyrytes, and tellers of fortunes: & wrought moch wyckedneſſe in the ſyght of the Lorde to angre hym.

B And he put an ymage of a groue (that he had made) euen in the temple, of whiche the Lorde had ſayd to Dauid and to Salomon his ſonne, * in this houſe and in Ieruſalem (whiche I haue choſen out of the Trybes of Iſraell) wyll I put my name for euer. Neyther wyll I make the feete of Iſraell moue any more out of the lande, whiche I gaue their fathers: ſo that they wyll obſerue and do all that I haue commaunded them, and accordynge to all the lawe that my ſeruaunt Moſes commaunded them. But they herkened not: and Manaſſe led them out of the waye, to do more wyckedlye then dyd the Hethen people, whome the lord deſtroyed before the chyldren of Iſraell. And the Lorde ſpake by his ſeruauntes the Prophettes, ſayenge: bycauſe Manaſſe kynge of Iuda hath done ſoche abhomynacyons, and hath wrought more wyckedlye then all that the Amorytes (whiche were before hym) dyd: & hath made Iuda ſynne alſo with his Idols: Therfore thus ſayeth the Lorde God of Iſraell.

3.Reg.9.a

Iere.19.a * Beholde, I wyl brynge ſoch euyll vpon C Ieruſalem and Iuda, that who ſo heareth of it bothe his eares ſhall tyngle. And I wyll ☞ ſtretch ouer Ieruſalem ☞ the ſquarynge lyne of Samaria, and the plommet of the houſe of Ahab. And I wyll wype out Ieruſalem, as a man wypeth a dyſhe, and when he hath wyped it, turneth it vp ſyde downe.

And I wyll leaue the remnaunt of myne enheritaunce, & delyuer them into the hande of their enemyes, & they ſhall be robbed and ſpoyled of al their aduerſaries, euen bycauſe they haue done euyll in my ſyght, and haue angred me, ſence the tyme their fathers came out of Egypt vnto this daye. And Manaſſe ſhed innocent bloode excedynge moche, tyl he replenyſhed Ieruſalem frõ corner to corner, beſyde his ſynne wherwith he made Iuda to ſyn, and to do euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Manaſſe, and all that he dyd, and his ſynne that he ſynned, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda?

And Manaſſe ſlept with his fathers, and D was buryed in his owne houſe, euen in the garden of Uza: and Amon his ſon reygned in his ſteade. * Amon was .xxii. yeare olde when he began to reygne, & he reygned two yeare in Ieruſalem. His mothers name alſo was Meſulemeth the doughter of Haruz of Iotba. And he dyd euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, (as his father Manaſſe dyd,) and walked in all the waye that his father walked in: and ſerued the ydols that his father ſerued, and worſhipped them. And he forſoke the Lorde God of his fathers, and walked not in the waye of the lorde. And the ſeruauntes of Amon cõſpyred agaynſt hym, and ſlue the kynge in his owne houſe. And the people of the lande ſlue all them that had conſpyred agaynſt kynge Amon, and the people made Ioſia his ſonne kynge / in his ſteade. The reſt of the wordes that concerne Amon, what thynges he dyd, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Cronicles of the kynges of Iuda? And they buryed hym in his ſepulchre, in the garden of Uza: and Ioſia his ſonne reygned in his ſteade.

¶ After Ioſia herde of the boke of the lawe that was founde in the Temple, he ſendeth to Hulda the Propheteſſe for counſell.

CAPI. XXII.

A Ioſia was * .viii. yeare olde when he began to reygne, and he reygned .xxxi. yeare in Ieruſalem. His mothers name alſo was Iedida the doughter of Adaia of Bozcath. He dyd that which is ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde/ and walked in all the wayes of Dauid his father, and bowed neyther to the ryght hande or to the lefte. * And it came to paſſe, that in the .xviii. yeare of the reygne of kynge Ioſia, the kynge ſent Saphan the ſonne of Azalia the ſonne of Meſulam the ſcrybe/ to the houſe of the Lorde, ſayenge: go vp to Helkia the hygh Prieſt/ that he may ſumme the ſyluer whiche is brought in to the houſe of the Lorde, whiche the kepers of the porche haue gathered of the people, and let them delyuer it in to the handes of them that do the worke, and that haue the ouerſyght of the houſe of the lorde: and let them gyue it to them that worke in the houſe of the Lorde/ B (to repayre the decayed places of the temple) euen vnto carpenters and maſons, and for to bye tymbre, and free ſtone to repayre the temple. Howbeit, let no rekenynge be made with them of the money that is delyuered in to theyr hande; for theyr vſe is to deale faythfullye. *And Helkia the hygh Preeſt ſayd vnto Saphan the ſcrybe: ☞ I haue founde the boke of the lawe in the houſe of the lorde/ and Helkia gaue the booke to Saphan, and he red in it. And Saphan the ſcrybe came to the kynge, & brought hym worde agayne/ and ſayde: Thy ſeruauntes haue beſtowed the money (that was founde in the temple) and haue delyuered it vnto them that do the worke, and that haue the ouerſyght of the houſe of the lorde. And Saphan the ſcrybe ſhewed the kynge ſayenge: Helkia the preeſt hath delyuered me a booke. And Saphan red in it before the kynge.

And it fortuned, that when the kynge had C herde the wordes of the booke of the lawe, he rent his clothes. And the kynge commaunded Helkia the Preeſt, and Ahikam the ſonne of Saphan, and Achbor the ſonne of Machaia, and Saphan the ſcrybe, and Aſahia a ſeruaunte of the kynges, ſayenge: * Go ye, and enquyre of the Lorde for me, and for the people, and for all Juda, concernyng the wordes of this booke that is founde. For greate is the wrath of the Lorde that is kyndled agaynſt vs, bycauſe our fathers haue not herkened vnto the wordes of this booke, to do accordynge vnto all that, whiche is wrytten therin for vs. So Helkia the hygh preeſt and Ahikam, Achbor, and Saphan, and Aſahia went vnto Hulda the Prophetteſſe the wyfe of Sullam the ſonne of Thikua the ſonne of ☞ Harham keper of the wardrop, whiche Prophetteſſe dwelt in Jeruſalem in the ☞ houſe of the doctryne, and they cōmuned with her. D

And ſhe anſwered them: thus ſayeth the Lorde god of Iſraell. Tell the man that ſent you to me: thus ſayeth the Lorde: beholde, I wyll bryng euyll vpon this place, and on the inhabytours therof: (euen all the wordes of the boke which the kynge of Juda hath red) bycauſe they haue forſaken me, and haue burnt incenſe vnto other Goddes, to angre me with al the workes of theyr handes: My wrath alſo ſhall be kyndled agaynſt this place, and ſhall not be quenched. But to the kynge of Juda (whiche ſent you)to aſke counſayle of the Lorde,) ſo ſhall ye ſaye: thus ſayeth the lorde God of Iſraell, as touchyng the wordes whiche ye haue herde: Bycauſe thyne herte dyd melte, and bycauſe thou haſt humbled thy ſelfe before me the Lorde, when thou herdeſt what I ſpake agaynſt this place, and agaynſt the enhabytours of the ſame (howe that they ſhulde be deſtroyed and accurſed:) and haſt rent thy clothes and wepte before me: of that alſo haue I herde, ſayth the lorde. Beholde therfore, I wyll receyue the vnto thy fathers, and thou ſhalt be put in to thy graue in peace, and thyne eyes ſhall not ſe all the euyll, whiche I wyll brynge vpon this place. And they brought the kynge worde agayne.

¶ Joſia redeth Deuteronomie before the people. He putteth downe the Idolles after he had kylled the preſtes therof. He kepeth Paſſeouer. He was kylled in Mageddo, and his ſonne Jehoaz reygneth in his ſteade. After he was taken, his ſonne Jehoakim was made kynge.

CAPI. XXIII.

AND then * the kynge ſent, and there gathered vnto hym all the elders of Juda and of Jeruſalem. And the kynge went vp in to the houſe of the Lorde, with all the men of Juda and all the enhabytours of Jeruſalem, with the Preeſtes, and Prophettes and all the people bothe ſmall and greate. And he red in the eares of them * all the wordes of the boke of the couenaunt, which was founde in the houſe of the Lorde. And the kynge ſtode by a pyller * and made a couenaunt before the lorde, that they ſhuld walke after the Lorde, and kepe his commaundementes, his wytneſſes, and his ſtatutes with all theyr herte, and all theyr ſoule, and make good the wordes of the ſayde appoyntment that were wrytten in the forſayde booke. And all the people conſented to the appoyntment. CAPI. X.

A 1. Re. 31. a

AND the Philiſtines fought agaynſt Jſrael. * And the men of Jſraell fled before the Philiſtines, and were ouerthrowen and wounded in mounte Gilboa. And the Philiſtines folowed, & were harde after Saul and his ſonnes, and the Philiſtines ſmote Jehonathas, and Abinadab and Malchiſua the ſonnes of Saul.

And the battayle went ſore agaynſt Saul, and the archers founde hym, ⁊ he was wounded of ſhuters. Then ſayd Saull to his weapon berer: drawe thy ſwerde, and thruſt me thorowe therwith, that theſe vncircumcyſed come not and do me ſhame. But his weapon berer wolde not, for he feared excedingly. So Saul caught a ſwerde, and fell vpon it. And when his harnes berer ſawe that Saul was deade, he fell on a ſwerde alſo and dyed. Iudi.9.g. 1.Reg.31.b.

B And thus Saul and his thre ſonnes, and all they of his houſe dyed togyther. And whā all the men of Iſrael that were in the valley, ſawe howe they fled, and that Saull and his ſonnes were deade, they forſoke theyr cityes and ran away, and the Philiſtines came, and dwelte in them.

1.Regū.31.c * And it fortuned that on the morow (when the Philiſtines came to ſtrype the deade bodies) they founde Saull ⁊ his ſonnes ouerthrowen in mount Gilboe. And whē they had ſtrypte hym, they toke his heade, and his harneſſe, and ſent them in to the lande of the Philiſtines rounde aboute / to ſhewe them vnto theyr ydols, and to the people. And they put his harneſſe in the houſe of theyr God, and ſet vp his heade in the temple of Dagon.

C And when al they of Iabes in Gilead herde all that the Philiſtines had done to Saull: they aroſe (all the ſtrongeſt of them) and fet away the body of Saull, and the bodyes of his ſonnes, and brought them to Iabes, and buryed the bodyes of them vnder an oke in Iabes, ⁊ faſted ſeuen dayes. So Saul dyed for his treſpaſſe that he treſpaſſed agaynſt the lorde, in that he kepte not the worde of the lorde, and in that he ſought and aſked counſayle of a womā that wrought with a ſpirite, and aſked not of the Lorde. And therfore he ſlue hym, and turned the kyngdom vnto Dauid the ſonne of Iſai.

Therfore came al the elders of Iſrael to the kyng, to Hebron, and Dauid made a couenaunt with them in Hebron before the Lorde. And Dauid * ſayde, who ſo euer ſmyteth the Iebuſites fyrſt, ſhall be the principall captayne and a Lorde. So Ioab the ſonne of Zeruia wente fyrſt vp, and was made the cheyfe captayne. And Dauid dwelt in the caſtell, ⁊ therfore they called it the citye of Dauid. And he buylte the Citye on euery ſyde, euen from Millo rounde about, ⁊ Ioab repayred the reſt of the Citye. And Dauid proſpered, and waxed great, and the Lorde of hooſtes was with hym. 2.Reg.

And Dauid longed, and ſayd: * Oh that one wolde geue me drynke of the water of the well that is at the gate at Bethleem. And the thre brake thorowe the hooſt of the Philiſtines, and drewe water out of the well, that was by the gate at Bethleem: and toke it, ⁊ brought it to Dauid. Neuertheleſſe, Dauid wolde not drynke of it but rather offered it to the Lorde, and ſayde: My God forbyd it me, that I ſhulde do this thynge. Shall I drynke the bloode of theſe men, that haue put theyr lyues in ieopardye (for with the Ieopardye of theyr lyues they brought it) therfore he wolde not drynke it. Eliſama, Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

B And when the Philiſtines herde that Dauid was anoynted kynge vpon all Iſrael, all the Philiſtines went vp to ſeke Dauid. And Dauid herde of it, & went out agaynſt them. And the Philiſtines came in, and praunſed thorowe the valley of Rephaim. And Dauid asked counſayle at god, ſayenge: ſhall I go agaynſt the Philiſtines, and wylte thou delyuer them in to myne hande? And the Lorde ſayde vnto hym: go vp, for I wyll delyuer them into thyne hande. And ſo they came vp to Baall Perazim, and Dauid ſmote them there, And Dauid ſayde: God hath deuyded myne enemyes with myne hande, as a man wold deuyde water. And therfore they called ☞ the name of that place ☞ Baall Perazim.

C And when they had lefte theyr Goddes there/ Dauid gaue a cõmaundement, & they were burnt with fyre. And the Philiſtines came togyther agayne & ruſſhed into the valley. And Dauid asked agayne at God: And god ſayde to hym: go not vp after them, but turne away frõ them, that thou mayeſt come vpon them ouer agaynſt the peertrees. And when thou heareſt a ſound go in the toppꝭ of the peertrees, then go out to battayle: for god is gone forth before the, to ſmyte the hooſt of the Philiſtines. Dauid therfore dyd as god cõmaũded hym. And they ſmote the hooſte of the Philiſtines from Gibeon to Gazer. And the fame of Dauid went out into al the landꝭ and the lorde made all nacyons feare hym.

CAPI. XV.

A AND Dauid made him houſes in the cytye of Dauid, & prepared a place for the Arke of God, and pytched for it a tent. Then Dauid ſayde: the Arke of God ought not to be caryed but of the Leuites. For them hath the lorde choſen to beare the Arke of the lorde, & to mynyſter vnto hym for euer. And Dauid gathered all Iſraell togyther to Ieruſalem, to fetche the Arke of the Lorde vnto his place whiche he had ordeyned for it. And Dauid brought togyther the chyldren of Aaron & the Leuites. Of the ſonnes of Cabath was Uriell the cheyfe, & of his brethren there were an hundred & .xx. Of the chyldren of Merari: Aſaia the cheyfe, & of his brethren two hundred & .xx. Of the ſonnꝭ of Gerſom: Ioell the cheyfe, & of his brethren an hundred, and thyrtye. Of the chyldren of Elizapan: Semaia the cheyf, & of his brethren two hũdred.

B Of the ſonnꝭ of Hebron: Eliel the cheyfe, & of his brethren .lxxx. Of the ſonnꝭ of Uziel: Amminadab the cheyfe, and of his brethren an hundred, & .xii. And Dauid called Zadock/ & Abiathar the preeſtes, & the Leuites, Uriell/ Aſaia, Ioell, Semaia, Eliell & Amminadab: & ſayde vnto them: ye that are the principal fathers of the Leuites, ſe that ye be holy with your brethren, that ye may brynge in the arke of the lord god of Iſraell, vnto the place that ☞ I haue prepared for it. For ☞ bycauſe ye were not there at the fyrſt, the lorde our God made a rent amonge vs, for that we ſought hym not as the faſſyon ought to be. So the preeſtꝭ & the Leuites ſanctifyed them ſelues/ to fet the Arke of the Lorde God of Iſraell. And the chyldr of the Leuites bare the arke of god, vpon theyr ſhoulders wᵗ ſtaues theron, as Moſes cõmaũded, accordynge to the worde of the Lorde. And Dauid ſpake to the cheyfe heades of the Leuites, that they ſhuld appoynt certayne of theyr brethren to ſynge with inſtrumentꝭ of Muſycke, pſaltries, harpes, and ſymbals: that they myght make a ſound, & to ſynge on hygh with ioyfulneſſe.

C And the Leuites appoynted Heman the ſon of Ioell: & (of his brethren) Aſaph the ſon of Berechia. And of the ſonnes of Merari and of theyr brethren: Ethan the ſon of Cuſaiahu And with them theyr brethren of the ſeconde degree: Zacharia, Ben/ Iaaziell, Semiramoth, Iehiell, Unni, Eliab, Benaiahu, Maaſiah, Mathathiahu, Eliphalehu, Mikniahu/ Obed Edom, & Iaiell, porters. So Heman/ Aſaph, & Ethan the ſyngers made a ſounde with ſymbals of braſſe. And Zacharia, Aziel, Semiramoth, Iehiell, Unni, Eliab, Maaſaiahu and Banaiahu played with pſaltryes ☞ on ☞ an Alamoth. Mathathiahu, Eliphalehu, Mikniahu, Obed Edom, Jeiell, and Azaziah playd vpon harpes an eyght aboue, with courage. And Chenaniahu the cheyf of the Leuites, was mayſter of the ſonge, for he taught other to ſyng, bycauſe he was a man of vnderſtandyng. Berechia ⁊ Elcana kepte the dore of the Arke. And Sebaniahu, Jehoſaphat, Nethanaell, Amaſai, Zachariahu, Banaiahu, ⁊ Eliezer the preeſtes dyd blowe with trompettes before the Arke of god.

D And Obed Edō, ⁊ Jehia, were kepers of the dore of the Arke. ii.Reg.vi.c * And the elders of Jſraell ⁊ the captaynes ouer thouſandes, went to fet the Arke of the appoyntment of the lorde out of the houſe of Obed Edom with gladneſſe. And when god helped the Leuites, that bare the arke of the apoyntment of the lorde, they offered ſeuen oxen, ⁊ ſeuen rammꝭ. And Dauid had on hym a lynnen garmente, lyke as had alſo all the Leuites that bare the Arke, ⁊ ſo had the ſyngers: ⁊ Chenania the ruler of the ſonge, with the ſyngers. And Dauid had vpon hym an Ephod of lynnen. And all they of Jſraell brought the arke of the Lordes couenaunt with ſhoutynge, and blowynge of the ſhawmes and trompettꝭ: makyng a noyſe with ſymbals, pſaltryes, and harpes. And as the Arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde came in to the cytye of Dauid, Micholl the doughter of Saull, lokynge out at a wyndowe, ſawe kynge Dauid daunſyng ⁊ playenge, and ſhe deſpyſed hym in her herte.

¶ Dauid ordeyneth Aſaph and his brethren to miniſter before the Lorde. He hym ſelfe prayſeth the Lorde god of Jſrael.

CAPI. XVI.

A SO they brought in the Arke of god, and ſet it in the myddes of the tente that Dauid pytched for it. And they offered burnt ſacrifyces, and peaceofferynges before God. And when Dauid had made an ende of offerynge the burntofferynges, and peace offerynges, he bleſſed the people in the name of the Lorde. And he delte to all Jſraell (bothe man and woman) a cracknell of breade, and a good pece of fleſſhe, and a flacket of wyne.

And he appoynted certayne of the Leuites to mynyſter before the lorde, ⁊ to repeate, and to thanke, and prayſe the Lorde God of Jſraell. And Aſaph was the cheyfe, ⁊ nexte to hym Zacharia, Jeiell, Semeramoth, ii.Reg.vi.b Jehiell, Mathathia, Eliab, Benaia, ⁊ Obed Edom, and Jehiell with pſalterys ⁊ harpes.

But Aſaph made a ſounde with ſymbals, Banaiahu and Jahaziell preeſtes blew with trompettes continuallye before the Arke of the couenaunt of god. And that ſame tyme Dauid dyd appoynt theyſelue to thanke the lorde, by Aſaph and his brethren.

* O gyue thankꝭ vnto the lorde, cal vpon his name, make his Actes knowen amonge B the people. Synge vnto hym, and playe vnto hym: talke of all his wonderfull dedes. Reioyſe in his holy name: let the hertes of them that ſeke the lorde, be glad. Seke the Lorde and his ſtrength: Seke his preſence alwaye. Remembre his maruels whiche he dyd, and his wonders, ⁊ the iudgementꝭ of his mouth. The ſede of Jſraell are his ſeruauntes: the chyldren of Jacob are his choſen. He is the Lorde our God: in all landes are his iudgementꝭ. Thynke on his apoyntment for euer/ (⁊ on the worde which he cōmaunded to a.M. generacyons.) Whiche he made with Abraham, ⁊ of his othe to Jſaac: whiche he ſet before Jacob for a decree, and to Jſraell for an euerlaſtynge couenaunt, ſayenge: to the wyll I gyue the lande of Canaan, to be the porcyon of your enherytaunce. When ye were few and ſmall in nombre, and ſoiourners therin. And they walked frō nacyon to nacyon, and from one kyndome to an other people. He ſuffered no man to do them wronge: but rebuked, euen kyngꝭ for theyr ſakes. Touche not myne anoynted, and do my Prophettes no harme. * Synge vnto the lorde all the earth: and ſhew from day to day his Saluacion.

C Tell of his glorye amonge the Heathen: his wonderfull dedes amonge all nacyons.

For greate is the Lorde, and worthy to be prayſed exceedyngly: he is to be feared aboue all goddes. For all the gods of the people are of no vallue: But the lorde made heuen.

Prayſe and honour are in his preſence: ſtrength ⁊ gladneſſe are in his place. Aſcribe vnto the lorde ye kynreds of people, Aſcrybe to the lorde, glorye and domynyō. Aſcribe vnto the Lorde, the glorye due vnto his name: brynge ſacrifyces, ⁊ come before hym, ⁊ worſhyp the lorde with holy honour. ☞ Let all the earth feare hym, althoughe the compaſſe of the earth be ſo ſtablyſſhed that it can not be moued: let the heuens reioyſe, and let the earth be glad, ⁊ let men tell amonge the nacyons/ that the lorde is kynge. Let the ſee thunder, and the fulneſſe therof; let the feldes reioyſe, and all that is therin. Then ſhall the trees of the wood reioyſe at the preſēce of the lorde, bycauſe he cōmeth to iudge the earth.

O gyue thankes vnto the lorde, for he is good, for his mercye endureth euer: and ſaye ye: ſaue vs (o God) of our ſaluacyon, gather vs togyther, and delyuer vs from amonge the Heathen, that we maye gyue thankes to thy holy name, and triumphe in the prayſe of the. Bleſſed be the Lorde God of Iſraell for euer & euer, and let all the people ſay, Amen: and prayſe the lorde.

D And ſo, he lefte there before the arke of the Lordes couenaunt, Aſaph and his brethren, to miniſtre before the arke cõtinually, in ſoch thynges as were to be done daye by daye/ ✠ (and that by theyr courſes.) And Obed Edom, and his brethren. lxviii. and Obed Edom, the ſon of Jeduthun/ and Hoſa were appoynted to be porters. And Zadocke the preeſt and his brethren the preeſtes, were before the tabernacle of the Lorde, in the hygh place that was at Gibeon to offer burntofferynges vnto the lorde, vpon the burntofferynge aulter perpetually, in the mornynge & euenynge, accordynge to all that, whiche is wrytten in the lawe of the Lorde, whiche he cõmaunded Iſrael. And with them were Heman & Jeduthun, and other that were choſen (whoſe names were expreſſed) to gyue thankes to the lorde, that his mercye laſteth euer. And with them dyd Heman & Jeduthun ſynge with the trompettes and ſymbals, makynge a ſwete melody with inſtrumentes of Muſycke, & goodly ſonges. And the ſonnes of Jeduthun were porters. And all the people departed, euery man to his houſe, & Dauid returned to ✠ bleſſe his houſe.

¶ Dauid is forbydden to buylde an houſe vnto the Lorde. Chriſt is promyſed vnder the fygure of Salomon.

CAPI. XVII.

A AND it fortuned that when Dauid dwelt in his houſe, he ſayd to Nathã the prophet: loo, I dwell in * an houſe of Cedar tree: but the Arke of the lordes couenaũt remayneth vnder curtaynes. And Nathan ſayde to Dauid: do all that is in thyne herte, for god is with the. And the ſame nyght it fortuned that the worde of god came to Nathan ſaynge: go and tell Dauid my ſeruaunt, thus ſayth the lorde, thou ſhalte not buylde me an houſe to dwell in. For I haue dwelte in no houſe ſence the daye that I brought out the chyldren of Iſraell vnto this day: But haue gone from tent to tent, and from one habytacyon to an other. And wherſoeuer I haue walked with all Iſraell, ſpake I euer one worde to any of the iudges of Iſraell (whom I cõmaunded to fede my people, (ſayenge: why haue ye not buylde me an houſe of Cedar tree? B Nowe therfore, thus ſhalte thou ſaye vnto my ſeruaunt Dauid: thus ſayeth the Lorde of hooſtes: I toke the out of the paſtures when thou wenteſt after ſhepe, that thou ſhuldeſt be captayne ouer my people Iſraell: And I haue ben with the whyther ſoeuer thou haſt walked, and haue weded out all thyne enemyes out of thy ſyght and haue made the a name, lyke the name ✠ (of one) of the greateſt men that are in the earth. And I haue ordeyned a place for my people Iſrael, and made it faſt, ſo that nowe they may dwel in theyr place, and moue no more: Neyther ſhall the chyldren of wyckedneſſe vexe them any more as at the begynnyng. And ſence the tyme that I commaunded iudges to be ouer my people Iſraell, I haue ſubdued all thyne enemyes/ & I tolde the, that the lorde wolde buylde the an houſe.

C This alſo ſhall come to paſſe: when thy dayes be expyred, that thou muſt go vnto thy fathers, I wyll rayſe vp thy ſeede after the/ whiche ſhall be of thy ſonnes, and I wyll prepare for hym the kyngdome. He ſhall buylde me an houſe, and I wyll ſtablyſhe his ſeate for euer. I wyll be his father, and he ſhall be my ſon, and I wyll not take my mercy away from hym, as I toke it away from hym that was before the. But I wyll ſet hym in myn houſe, and in my kyngdome for euer, and his ſeate ſhall be ſure for euermore. Accordynge to all theſe wordes, and accordyng to all this viſyon dyd Nathan tell kynge Dauid.

And Dauid the kynge came and ſat before the lorde, and ſayd: What am I (O lorde god?) And what is myn houſe, that thou haſt promoted me thus farre? And yet this ſemed lyttle in thyne eyes, O God: But thou haſte alſo ſpoken of thy ſeruauntꝭ houſe for a great whyle to come: and haſte loked vpon me/ as vpon a man of hygh degree (O Lorde God.)

D What ſhall Dauid deſyre more of the, for the honoure of thy ſeruaunte? For thou haſte knowen thy ſeruaunte: O Lorde for thy ſeruauntes ſake, euen accordyng to thyne owne herte, haſt thou done all this magnifycence/ to ſhew all great thyngꝭ. Lorde there is none lyke the, neyther is there any God ſaue thou, accordyng to all that we haue herde ẘ oure eares. Moreouer, what nacyon on the earth is lyke thy people Iſraell, to whom god hath vouchſafed to come and redeme them to be his owne people, and to make the a name of excellencie and terriblenes, with caſtyng out nacyons from before thy people, whom thou haſt delyuered out of Egypt.

E The people of Iſraell dydeſt thou make thyne owne people for euer, and thou Lorde becameſt theyr god. Therfore now lorde/ let the thynge that thou haſt ſpoken cõcernyng thy ſeruaunt and his houſe, be true for euer/ that thou do as thou haſt ſayd: let it come to paſſe, that thy name maye be magnifyed for euer, that it may be ſayd: the lorde of hooſtes is the god of Iſraell (euen the god of Iſrael) and the houſe of Dauid thy ſeruaunt endureth ſtable before the. For thou (O my God) haſt tolde thy ſeruaunt, that thou wylt buyld hym an houſe. And therfore thy ſeruaũt hath founde in his herte to praye before the. And nowe lorde, thou arte god, and haſt promiſed this goodneſſe vnto thy ſeruaunt. Now therfore, let it be thy pleaſure to bleſſe the houſe of thy ſeruaunt, that it maye contynue before the for euer. For whom thou bleſſeſt (o lorde) the ſame is bleſſed for euer.

¶ The batayles of Dauid agaynſt the Philiſtines.

CAPI. XVIII.

A And after this it fortuned, that Dauid ſmote the Philiſtin̄s, and ſubdued them and toke Geth & the townes that * longed therto, out of the hande of the Philiſtin̄s. And he ſmote Moab, and the Moabites became Dauids ſeruauntes, and payde hym tribute. And Dauid ſmote Hadadezer kynge of Zoba vnto Hamath, as he went to ſtablyſh his domynyon by the ryuer Euphrates. And Dauid toke from hym a. M. charettes, and vii. M. horſe men, and .xx. M. fotemen, & lamed all the charet horſes, & reſerued of them an hundred charett̄s.

ij.Re.viij.a

B And when the Sirians of Damaſco came to helpe Hadadezer kynge of Zoba, Dauid ſlue of the Sirians .xxii. M. and Dauid ſubdued Siria Damaſco: And the Sirians became Dauids ſeruauntes, & brought hym trybute. And the Lorde preſerued Dauid in all that he went to. And Dauid toke the ſhyldes of golde that were on the ſeruauntes of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jeruſalem. And from Tebhath and from Chun (cytyes of Hadadezer) brought Dauid exceadyng moche braſſe. Wherwith Salomon made the braſen lauatorye, * the pylers/ and the veſſels of braſſe.

iij.Regu.7.b
Jere.lij.c

C And when Tou kynge of Hemath, herde howe Dauid had beaten all the ſtrength of Hadadezer kynge of Zoba, he ſent Haduram his ſon to kynge Dauid, to make peace with hym & to bleſſe hym, bycauſe he had fought agaynſte Hadadezer, and beaten hym: (for Tou had war with Hadarezer) and (Joram brought) all maner of Iuels of golde, ſyluer and braſſe with hym. And kynge Dauid dedycated them vnto the Lorde, with the ſyluer & golde that he brought from al nacyons from Edom, from Moab, frõ the chyldren of Ammon, from the Philiſtin̄s, and from Amalec.

D And Abiſai the ſon of Zeruia ſlue of the Edomites in the ſalte valley. xviii. M, and put ſouldyours in Edom, and all the Edomites became Dauids ſeruauntes. Thus the lorde kept Dauid in all that he toke in hande. And Dauid reygned ouer all Iſraell, & executed iudgement & ryghteouſneſſe among al his people. And Joab the ſon of Zaruia was ouer the hooſt, & Johoſaphat the ſon of Ahilud recorder, and Sadocke the ſon of Ahitob, and Abimelech the ſonne of Abiathar were the preeſtes, and Saueſa was ſcrybe, and Banaiahu the ſonne of Jehoiada was ouer the Crethites, and the Phelethites, and the eldeſt ſonnes of Dauid were nexte vnto the kynge.

¶ Hanon kynge of the ſonnes of Ammon, doth great iniurye to the ſeruauntes of Dauid.

CAPI. XIX.

A After this, it chaunced that * Nahas the kynge of the chyldren of Ammon dyed, and his ſon reygned in his ſteade. And Dauid ſayde: I wyll ſhewe kyndneſſe vnto Hanon the ſonne of Nahas, bycauſe his father delte kyndly with me: And Dauid ſent meſſengers to conforte hym ouer the death of his father. And the ſeruauntes of Dauid came into the lande of the Chyldren of Ammon to Hanõ, to conforte hym. But the lordes of the Chyldren of Ammon ſayde to Hanon: thynkeſt thou that Dauid doth honoure thy father in thy ſyght, that he hath ſent conforters vnto the? Are not his ſeruauntes come to ſearche, to loke, and to ſpye out the lande.

ij.Reg.

B ✿ Wherfore Hanon toke Dauids ſeruauntes: ✿ (and polde them,) and ſhaued them, and cut of theyr cootes herde by theyr buttockes, and ſent them away. And there went certayne and tolde Dauid, howe the men were ſerued. And the kynge ſent to mete them, (for the men were exceadyngly aſhamed) and the kynge ſayde: Tarye at Jericho, vntyll your beerdes be growen, and then returne. And when the chyldren of Ammon ſawe that they ſtanke in the ſyght of Dauid, Hanon and the chyldren of of Ammon ſent a. M. talentes of ſyluer to hyre them charettes & horſemen, out of Meſopotamia, and out of Siria Maacha and out of Zoba. And they hyred .xxxii. M. charettes, and the kynge of Maacha and his people, which came & pytched before Medba.

C And the Chyldren of Ammon gathered them ſelues togyther from theyr cytyes, and came to batayle. And when Dauid herde of it, he ſent Joab and all the hooſte of ſtronge men. And the chyldren of Ammon came out, and put them ſelues in araye to batayle before the gate of the cytye. And the kynges that were come, kepte them by them ſelues backe in the felde. When Ioab alſo ſaw that the fronte of the battayle was agaynſt hym before, and behynde: he choſe out of all the choſen men of Iſraell, and put them in araye agaynſt the Sirians. And the reſt of the people he delivered vnto the hande of Abiſai his brother, and they put them ſelues in araye agaynſt the chyldren of Ammon. And he ſayd Yf the Sirians be to ſtronge for me, thou ſhalt ſuccoure me, and yf the chyldren of Ammon preuayle agaynſt the, I wyll helpe the. Plucke vp thyne herte, and let vs play the men, for our peoples ſake, and for the cytyes of our god, and the lorde ſhall do that which is good in his owne ſyght. So Ioab and the people that were with hym, drue nygh before the Sirians vnto the battayle and they fled before hym.

D And when the chyldren of Ammon ſawe that the Sirians were fled, they ran awaye lykewyſe before Abiſai his brother, and gat them into the cytye. And Ioab came to Ieruſalem. And when the Sirians ſawe that they were put to the worſe before Iſrael, they ſent meſſengers & fet out the Sirians that were beyonde the ryuer, and Sophach the captayne of the hooſt of Hadadezer went before them. And it was tolde Dauid and he gathered all Iſraell, and went togyther ouer Iordane, and came, and ſet vpon them. And when Dauid had put hym ſelfe in araye agaynſt the Sirians they fought with hym. But the Sirians fled before Iſraell. And Dauid deſtroyed of the Sirians, vii. M. charettes, and. xl. M. foote men, & kylled Sophach the captayne of the hooſt. And when the ſeruauntes of Hadadezer, ſawe, that they were put to the worſe before them of Iſraell, they made peace with Dauid, and became his ſeruauntes. Neyther wolde the Sirians helpe the chyldren of Ammon any more.

¶ The thre moſt victoryous battayles of Dauid.

CAPI. XX.

A AND it came to paſſe, that after the yeare g.11.a. was expyred (& aboute the tyme that kynges go out a warrefare.) Ioab caryed out the armye of the hooſt, & deſtroyed the countrey of the chyldren of Ammon, and came, and beſeyged Rabba, and dyſtroyed it. But Dauid taryed at Ieruſalem whyle Io- C ab ſmote Rabba and deſtroyed it. * And Dauid toke the crowne of theyr kynge, from of his heade: and founde that it had the weyght of a talent of golde, and there were precyous ſtones in it, and it was ordeyned for Dauids heade. And he brought alſo exceadynge moche B ſpoyle out of the city. And he brought out the people that were in it, & tormented them with ſawes & harowes of yron, & with other ſharp inſtrumentes, and ſo delte Dauid with al the cytyes of the chyldren of Ammō. And Dauid & all the people came agayne to Ieruſalem.

ij.Reg.21.d * After this, it fortuned, that there aroſe war at Gazer with the Philiſtines. At which tyme Sobocai the Huſathite ſlue Sippai, that was of the chyldrē of * Rephaim, & they were Gene.14.a. ſubdued. And there was battayle agayne wᵗ the Philiſtines, & Elhanan the ſon of Iair/ ſlue Lahemi the brother of Goliath the Ge- C thite, whoſe ſpere was lyke a weauers beame. And there chaūced yet agayne war at Geth/ where as was a man of a great ſtature, with xxiiii. fyngers and toos, ſyxe on euery hande and ſyxe on euery foote, and was the ſon of Raphah. But when he defyed Iſraell, Iehonathan the ſon of Simea Dauids brother ſlue hym. Theſe were borne vnto Raphah at Geth, and were ouerthrowen in the hande of Dauid, and in the hande of his ſeruauntes.

Dauid cauſeth the people to be nombred: and there dyeth. lxx. thouſand men of the peſtylence.

CAPI. XXI.

A AND Satan ſtode vp agaynſt Iſraell, & prouoked Dauid to nombre Iſraell.

And Dauid ſayde to Ioab & to the rulers of the people. Go ye and nombre Iſrael from Beer Seba to Dan, and brynge it to me that I may know the nombre of them. And Ioab anſwered: the lorde make his peple an hundred tymes ſo many mo as they be. But my lorde O kynge, are they not all my lordes ſeruaūtes? why then doth my Lorde requyre this thynge? why wyll my lorde be a cauſe of treſpaſſe to Iſraell? Neuertheleſſe, the kynges worde preuayled agaynſt Ioab. And Ioab departed & walked thorowout all them of Iſrael, & came to Ieruſalem agayne & gaue the nombre of the counte of the people vnto Dauid. And all they of Iſraell were a thouſand thouſande, & an hundred thouſand men that drue ſwerde: and Iuda was CCCC. lxx. M. men that drue ſwerde. But the Leuites and Beniamin counted he not amonge them. For the kynges worde was abhomynable to Ioab. And the lorde was dyſpleaſed wᵗ this thyng/ and ſmote Iſraell. And Dauid ſayde vnto god: I haue ſynned excedyngly in doynge this thynge. And nowe (I beſeche the) do away the wyckedneſſe of thy ſeruaunt, for I haue done very fooliſhlye.

B And the Lorde ſpake vnto Gad Dauids ſear, ſayenge: go and tell Dauid, ſayenge: Thus ſayeth the lorde: I gyue the, the choyſe of thre thynges: chose the one of them, that I maye do vnto the. And Gad came to Dauid, and ſayde vnto hym: Thus ſayeth the lorde. Choſe the, eyther thre yeares famyſhment, or thre monethes to be deſtroyed before thyne aduerſaryes, ⁊ that the ſwerde of thyne enemyes maye ouertake the: or els the ſwerde of the lorde ⁊ peſtilence in the lande thre dayes, and the angell of the Lorde deſtroyenge thorowout all the cooſtes of Iſraell. And nowe aduyſe thy ſelfe, what worde I ſhall brynge agayne to hym that ſent me. And Dauid ſayd vnto Gad: I am in an excedynge ſtrayte: let me fall nowe into the hande of the lorde, for paſſynge greate are his mercyes, but let me not fall into the hande of men. So the Lorde ſent peſtylence vpon Iſraell, and there were ouerthrowen of Iſrael lxx. M. men. And god ſent the angel into Ieruſalem to deſtroy it.

C And as he was aboute to deſtroy, the lorde behelde, ⁊ had cõpaſſyon on the wretchednes and ſayde to the Angell that deſtroyed: it is ynough, let now thyne hande ceaſe. And the angell of the Lorde ſtode by the threſſhynge floure of Ornan the Iebuſyte. And Dauid lyfte vp his eyes, and ſawe the Angell of the lorde ſtande bytwene the earth and heuen/ hauynge a drawen ſwerde in his hand, ſtretched out towarde Ieruſalem. Then Dauid and the Elders of Iſraell whiche were clothed in ſacke, fell vpon theyr faces. And Dauid ſayde vnto God: Is it not I that commaunded the people to be nombred? It is I that haue ſynned and done euyll in dede, and what haue theſe ſhepe done? let thyne hande (O lorde my god) be on me ⁊ on my fathers houſe, but not on thy people that they ſhulde be punyſhed. And Jehonathan Dauids vncle, a mã of counſayle, and of vnderſtandyng was a ſcribe, and Jehiel the ſon ☞ of Hachmoni ☞ was with the kynges ſonnes. And Ahitophel was of the kynges counſayle. And Huſai the Arachite was the kynges companion. And nexte to Ahitophel was Jehoiada the ſonne of Banaiahu, and Abiathar. And the captayne of the kynges warre, was Joab.

¶ Bycauſe Dauid was forbydden to buylde the temple, he exhorteth Salomon, and the people to perfourme it.

CAPI. XXVIII.

A AND Dauid gathered togyther all the lordes of Israel: the lordes of the tribes the lordes of the companyes that miniſtred to the kynge by courſe, the captaynes ouer the thouſandes and ouer the hundredes, and the lordes that had the ouerſyght of all the ſubſtaunce and poſſeſſyon of Dauid, his ſonns, with the chamberlaynes: all the myghtye, and valyaunt, and all actiue men, vnto Jeruſalem. And kyng Dauid ſtode vp vpon his fete and ſayd. Heare me my brethren and my people. * I had in myne herte to buylde ☞ an houſe of reſt for the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde, and for the ☞ fote ſtole of our god, & hed made redy, for the buyldyng. But god ſayd vnto me: * thou ſhalte not buylde an houſe for my name, bycauſe thou haſt ben a man of warre, & haſt ſhed blood. Moreouer the lorde God of Israel * choſe me before all the houſe of my father, to be kynge ouer Israell for euer, for in Juda wolde he choſe a captayne: & of the houſholde of Juda is the houſe of my father, & amonge the ſonnes of my father he had a luſte to me, to make me kyng ouer all Israel.

B And of all my ſonnes (for the lorde hathe gyuen me many ſonnes) he hath choſen Salomon my ſonne, to ſyt vpon the ſeate of the kyngdom of the lorde in Israel. And he ſayd vnto me: * Salomon thy ſon, he ſhal buylde me an houſe & courtes, I haue choſen hym to be my ſonne, and I wyll be his father. I wyl ſtablyſſhe his kyngdom for euer, yf he wyl be ſtronge to do my cõmaundementes, and my lawes, as it goeth this day. Nowe therfore, in the ſyght of all Israel the congregacion of the Lorde, & in the audience of our God: kepe and ſeke for all the cõmaundementes of the Lorde your God, that ye maye enioy a good lande, and leaue enheritaunce for your chyldren after you for euer. And thou Salomon my ſonne, knowe thou the God of thy father, and ſerue hym with a pure herte, and with a ſwete courage. * For the Lorde ſearcheth all hertes, and vnderſtandeth all the ymaginacions of thoughtes. And yf thou ſeke hym, he wyll be founde of the: But yf thou forſake hym, he wyll caſt the of for euer. Take hede now, for the Lorde hath choſen the, to buylde hym an houſe of a Sanctuarie. Be ſtronge therfore, and playe the man.

Psal.vii.b

C ✠ And Dauid gaue Salomon his ſon the patron of the porches (of the temple alſo) & of the houſes that longed therto, of the ſtore houſes, vpper chambres, inner parlours, & of the houſe of the mercyſeate: & the example of all that he had in his mynde, for the courts of the houſe of the lorde, & for all the celles rounde aboute, for the treaſures of the houſe of god, and for the treaſures of the dedicate thynges, & of the companyes of the preeſtes and Leuites that wayted by courſe, and of all the workmanſhyp, that ſhuld ſerue for the houſe of the lorde, & for all the veſſelles that ſhulde ſerue in the houſe of the Lorde. For golde & for the weyght of golde, for all veſſels of ſondry miniſtracions: for all maner of veſſels of ſyluer in weyght, and for all veſſels, what ſo euer purpoſe they ſerued vnto.

The weyght of golde for the candelſtyckes, and the golde for the lampes, with the weyght for euerye candelſtycke, and for the lampes therof. And for the candelſtyckes of ſyluer by weyght, bothe for the candelſtycke and alſo for her lampes accordyng to the dyuerſyte of the vſe of euery candelſtycke.

D And by weyght (he gaue) golde for the tables of ſhew breade, euen for euery table: ⁊ lykewyſe ſyluer for the tables of ſyluer. And golde for fleſhe hokes, cuppes, ⁊ drynkynge pottes: And pure gold in weyght for baſens, euen for euery baſen. And lykewyſe ſyluer by weyght, for euery baſen of ſyluer. And for the aulter of inſence pure golde by weyght. And golde for the patron of the charet of the Cherubes that ſtretched out theyr wynges, and couered the arke of the couenaũt of the lorde. All was gyuen me by wrytyng of the hande of the Lorde, which made me vnderſtande al the workemanſhyp of the patrone.

And Dauid ſayde to Salomon his ſonne: Be ſtrong, and do manfully, feare not, nor be faynt herted. For the Lorde God, euen my God, is with the, and he ſhall not fayle the, nor forſake the, vntyll thou haſt fynyſſhed al the worke that muſt ſerue for the houſe of the Lorde. Beholde, the preeſtes and Leuites are deuided in companyes, for all maner of ſeruyce that perteyneth to the houſe of god: they are with the for all maner of workmanſhyp, and ſo are all that excell in wyſdome for any maner of ſeruyce. Thou haſt alſo the Lordes and all the people for euery thynge that thou haſt nede of.

¶ The offerynge of Dauid, and of the prynces for the buyldynge of the Temple. Dauid dyeth, and Salomon his ſonne reygneth in his ſtede.

CAPI. XXIX.

A j.Regū.v.a AND Dauid the kynge ſayd vnto all the congregacyon: * God hath ſpecially choſen Salomon my ſonne whiche is yet yonge and tender, and the worke is great for the houſe ſhall not be for man, but for the lorde God. Moreouer I haue prepared with all my myght for the houſe of God: golde for veſſelles of golde, ſyluer for them of ſyluer, braſſe for thynges of braſſe, yron for thynges of yron, and wood for thynges of wood: and onyke ſtones/and ſtones to be ſet, gliſterynge ſtones of dyuerſe coloures, and all maner of precious ſtones, and marble ſtones in great haboundaunce. And bycauſe I haue luſte to the houſe of my God: I haue of myne owne proper good, of golde and ſyluer, whiche I haue ſeuerally gyuen to the houſe of my god beſyde all that I haue prepared for the holye houſe: euen thre thouſande talentes of golde

B of Ophir, and ſeuen thouſande talentes of tryed ſyluer, to ouerlay the walles of the houſes withall: the golde for thynges of golde: ſyluer for them of ſyluer, and for al maner of worke by the handes of artificers. And who ſoeuer is wyllynge, may this day conſecrate his hande vnto the lorde.

And ſo the auncient fathers, and the lordes of the trybes of Iſrael, the captaynes of thouſandes and hundredes, with the lordes that were rulers ouer the kyngꝭ worke, were wyllynge ⁊ gaue for the ſeruyce of the houſe of God, fyue thouſande talentes of golde, ⁊ ten thouſande peces of golde: and ten thouſande talentes of ſyluer, and .xviii. thouſand talentes of braſſe, and an hundred thouſand talentes of yron. And they with whom precious ſtones were foũde gaue them to the treaſure of the houſe of the Lorde, by the hande of Iehiel the Gerſonite.

C And the people reioyſed, when they were ſo wyllynge to gyue theyr goodes, and with a perfyte herte they offered vnto the Lorde.

And Dauid the kynge reioyſed with great gladneſſe. And Dauid bleſſed the Lorde before all the congregacion, and ſayde. Bleſſed be thou lorde God of Iſrael our father, from euer, and for euer. Thyne (O lorde) is greatneſſe, and power, glorie, victorie and prayſe: for all that is in heuen and in earth is thyne, and thyne is the kyngdome (O lorde) ⁊ thou excelleſt aboue all, euen as the heade of all.

And rycheſſe and honoure come of the, and thou reygneſt ouer all, and in thyne hande is power and ſtrength, and in thyne hande it is to make great, and to gyue ſtrength vnto al. And now our god, we thanke the, and prayſe thy glorious name. But who am I, what is my people: that we ſhulde enforce our ſelues to gyue theſe thynges ſo wyllyngly?

D But all thynges come of the: and of that whiche we receyue of thyne handes, we haue gyuen the. * For we be but ſtraungers before the, and ſoiourners, as were all our fathers. Oure dayes on the earthe alſo are but as a * ſhadowe, and there is none abydynge. O lorde our God, all this ſtuffe that we haue prepared to buylde the an houſe for thy holy name, cometh of thyne hande, ⁊ is all thyne. (I wote alſo my god) that thou tryeſt the hertes, and haſt pleaſure in vnfaynedneſſe. And in the vnfaynedneſſe of myne herte, I haue wyllyngly offred al theſe thynges. And nowe haue I ſene thy people which are founde here, to offre vnto the wyllyngly, and with gladnes. O lorde God of Abraham, Iſaac, ⁊ of Iſraell our fathers, kepe this for euer, as the begynnyng of the thoughtes of the hertes of thy peple, ⁊ prepare theyr hertes vnto the.

And

E And gyue vnto Salomon my ſonne, a perfyte herte, to kepe thy cõmaundementes, thy teſtymonyes and thy ſtatutes, and to do all, and to buylde the houſe for the which I haue made prouiſyon. And Dauid ſayde to all the congregacion: ☞ Nowe bleſſe the lorde your god. And al the cõgregacion bleſſed the lorde god of theyr fathers, and bowed downe theyr heades & worſhypped the lorde, & the kynge. And they offered offerynges vnto the Lorde. And on the morowe after the ſayde day, they offered burntoffrynges vnto the Lorde: euen a thouſande yong oxen, a thouſand rammes & a thouſande ſhepe, with theyr drynke offerynges. Many ſacrifices offered they for all Iſraell, and dyd eate and drynke before the F Lorde the ſame day with great gladneſſe. And they made Salomon the ſonne of Dauid kynge the ſeconde tyme, and annoynted hym prynce before the lorde, and Zadocke to be the hygh preeſt.

* And Salomon ſat on the ſeate of the Lorde, and was kyng in ſteade of Dauid his father, and proſpered, and al they of Iſraell obeyed hym. And all the lordes and men of power, and all the ſonnes of kynge Dauid ſubmitted them ſelues, and were vnder kyng Salomon. * And the lorde magnifyed Salomon in dignitye, in the ſyght of all them of Iſraell, and gaue hym ſo gloryouſe a kyngdome as no kyng had before hym in Iſraell.

G And ſo Dauid the ſonne of Iſai reygned ouer al Iſrael. And the ſpace that he reygned ouer Iſrael, was .xl. yere: ſeuen yere reygned he in Hebron, & .xxxiii. yere reygned he in Ieruſalem. And he dyed in a good age: full of dayes, ryches and honoure. And Salomon his ſonne reygned in his ſteade. The actes of Dauid the kyng fyrſt and laſt, beholde, they are wrytten in the boke of Samuel the ſear, and in the boke of Nathan the prophet, and in the boke of Gad the ſear, with al his kyngdom and power and tymes, that wente ouer hym and ouer all Iſrael, & ouer all the kyngdomes of the earth.

CAPI. Primo.

AND Salomon the ſonne A
of Dauid waxed ſtronge in his kyngdome, and the lorde his god 3.Reg.iii.a was with hym, and magnified hym in the dignitye. And Salomon ſpake vnto all Iſrael, to the captaynes ouer thouſandes, to the captaynes ouer hundredes, to the iudges and to euery officer in all Iſraell, & to the auncient fathers. And ſo Salomon and all the congregacion with hym * went to 3 Reg. iii.a the hygh place that was at Gibeon: for * there 1.Par.xxi.b
was the Tabernacle of the wytneſſe of God,
* which Moſes the ſeruaũt of the lorde made Exod. 35.
in the wyldernes. But the arke of God, * had 37.and.38.
Dauid broughte from Kiriath Iarim, in to ii.Reg.vi.a
the place whiche Dauid had prepayred therfore. For he had pytched a tent for it at Ieruſalem. Moreouer, the braſen aulter * that Exod.38.a Bezaleel the ſonne of Uri, the ſonne of Hur had made, was there, before the tabernacle of the Lorde. And Salomon and the congregacyon went to vyſyte it.

And Salomon gat vp there before the B lorde to the braſen aulter that was before the tabernacle of wytneſſe, and * offered a thouſande burnt ſacrifices vpon it. And the ſame 3.Reg.iii.b
nyghte dyd God appeare vnto Salamon, and ſayde vnto hym: Aſke what I ſhal gyue
the. And Salomon ſayde vnto God: thou haſte ſhewed great mercye vnto Dauid my father, and * haſte made me to reygne in his Pſal.lx.b.
ſteade. * Nowe therfore O Lorde God, let 3.Reg.i.a.
thy promyſe whiche thou madeſt vnto Da-uid my father, be true.

For * thou haſte made me kynge ouer a 3.Reg.iii.a people, whiche is lyke the duſte of the earthe in multitude. Wherfore, gyue me nowe wyſdome, and knowledge, that I maye be able to ☞ go out and in before this people: ☞ for who elles ✠ (vvorthelye) can iudge this ✠ people that is ſo great?

* And god ſayd to Salomon, bycauſe this 3.Reg.iii.b
was in thyne herte, and bycauſe thou haſte C not aſked treaſure, and rycheſſe, and honour,
and the lyues of thyne enemyes, neyther yet longe lyfe. But haſt aſked wyſdom & knowledge for thy ſelfe, to iudge my people, ouer which

whiche I haue made the kynge: wyſdom and knowledge is graunted vnto the, and I wyl geue the treaſure, and ryches, and glorye, ſo that amonge the kynges that haue bene before the or after the, none was or ſhall be lyke the. And ſo Salomon came from the hyl aulter (that was at Gibeon) to Jeruſalem, from the tabernacle of wytneſſe, and reygned ouer Iſrael.

3.Reg.4.d And ✠ Salomon gathered charettes and D horſemen: and he had a thouſande and foure hundred charettes, and .xii. thouſande horſemen, whome he beſtowed in the charet cyties
3.Reg.x.d and with the kynge at Jeruſalem. And ✠ the kynge made ſyluer and golde at Jeruſalem, as plenteous as ſtones: ⁊ Cedar trees made he as plentie as the mulbery trees that grow in the valleys. And the horſes whiche Salomon had, were brought hym out of Egypte by the kynges marchauntes that were together: whiche beynge of one companye, toke them oute at a pryce. ¶ They came alſo and brought out of Egypte ☞ a charet for ſyxe hundred peces of ſyluer, euen an horſe for an hundred and fyftie. And ſo brought they horſes for all the kynges of the Hethites, and for the kynges of Syria by theyr owne handes.

Salomon ſendeth to Hiram the kynge of Tyre, for wood, and workemen.

CAPI. II.

A AND Salomon determined to buylde an houſe for the name of the lorde, and an houſe for his kyngdom: and Salomon tolde out thre ſcore and ten thouſande men to beare burdens, ⁊ foure ſcore thouſande men to hew ſtones in the mountayne, ⁊ thre thouſande and ſyxe hundred to ouerſe them.

3.Regū.v.a ✠ And Salomon ſent to Hiram the kynge of Tyre, ſayenge: As thou dydeſt deale with
2.Reg.v.b. Dauid my father, and ✠ dydeſt ſende hym Cedar wood, to buyld hym an houſe to dwell in, euen ſo deale with me: For I am aboute to buylde an houſe for the name of the Lorde my god, to offre vnto hym holy thynges, and to burne ſwete ſence, and to ſet ſhewbread before hym contynually, to offre burntſacrifices of the mornyng and euenyng, on the Sabboth dayes, in the fyrſt daye of euery newe moone, ⁊ in the ſolempne feaſtes of the lorde our God. For it is an ordinaunce to be contynually kepte of Iſrael.

B And the houſe whiche I buylde ſhall be great: for great is our god aboue al goddes. But who is able to buylde hym an houſe: when the heauen, and heauen aboue al heauens is not able to receyue hym? who am I then that I ſhulde buylde hym an houſe? but euen to burne ſacrifice before hym, ſhall this buyldyng be: ſende me nowe therfore a connynge man, that can worke in golde and ſyluer, in braſſe and yron, in purple, cremoſyn ⁊ yelowe ſylke, ⁊ that can ſkyll to graue, with the connynge men that are with me in Juda and Jeruſalem, whom Dauid my father dyd prepayre. Sende me alſo Cedar trees, Pyne trees, and ☞ Algume trees out of Libanon. For I wote that thy ſeruauntes can ſkyll to hewe tymbre in Libanon.

C And beholde, my men ſhall be with thyne, that they may prepayre me tymbre ynough. For the houſe whiche I am determyned to buylde, ſhalbe wonderfull great. And behold for the vſe of thy ſeruauntes the cutters and hewers of tymbre: I haue geuē .xx. thouſand quarters of beaten wheate, and .xx. thouſand quarters of barley, and .xx. thouſande bates of wyne, and .xx. thouſande bates of oyle.

And Hiram kyng of Tyre anſwered in wrytynge, whiche he ſent to Salomon. Bycauſe the lorde hath loued his people, therfore hath he made the kynge ouer them. And Hiram ſayd moreouer: bleſſed be the Lorde God of Iſrael whiche made heuen and earth, ⁊ that hath gyuen Dauid the kyng a wyſe ſonne, ⁊ one that hath dyſcretyon, prudence, and vnderſtandyng, to buyld an houſe for the lorde, and a palace for hym ſelfe.

D And nowe I haue ſent a wyſe man, and a man of vnderſtandyng (whom my father Hiram dyd vſe) ✠ the ſonne of a woman of the doughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, and he can ſkyll to worke in golde and ſyluer, in braſſe ⁊ yron, in ſtone ⁊ tymbre, in purple and yelowe ſylke, in fyne whyte and cremoſyn: and can graue ſondrye maner of grauynges, and to fynde out dyuerſe maner of ſubtyll worke that ſhall be ſet before hym, with thy connynge men, ⁊ with the connynge men of my Lorde Dauid thy father. Now therfore the wheate ⁊ barley, oyle and wyne, which my lorde hath ſpoken of, let hym ſende vnto his ſeruauntes. And we wyll cut wood in Libanon, as moche as thou ſhalte nede, and wyll brynge it to the in ſhyppes by ſee to Iapho, from whence thou mayſt carye them to Jeruſalem. And Salomon nombred all the ſtraungers that were in the lande of Iſrael, after the nombre of them, whom his father Dauid had nombred. And they were founde an hundred ⁊ .liii. M. and ſyxe hundred. And he ſet .lxx. thouſande of them to beare burdens, and .lxxx. M. to hew ſtones in the mountayne, and thre thouſande and ſyxe hundred offycers, to ſet the people a worke.

And

¶ The temple of the lorde and the porche are buylded, with other thynges therto belongynge.

CAPI. III.

A AND Salomõ began to buylde the houſe of the lorde at Ieruſalem in mount Moria, where (the Lorde appeared vnto Dauid his father: euen in the place that Dauid prepared in the threſſhynge floure of Ornan the Iebuſite. And he began to buylde in the ſeconde day of the ſecond moneth, the fourth yere of his reygne. And theſe are the patrons wherby Salomon was inſtructe to buylde the houſe of God. The length was thre ſcore cubytes after the olde meaſure, and the bredth .xx. cubytes. The porche, that was in bredth as large as the temple, had .xx. cubytes: and the heygth was an hundred and .xx. cubytes. And he ouerlayde it on the inner ſyde with pure golde.

B And the greater houſe he ſyled with fyrre trees, which he ouerlayde with the beſt gold/ and graued thereon Palmetrees, & cheynes. And he ouerlayde the houſe with precyous ſtone beutyfully. And the gold was golde of Paruaim: The houſe (I ſaye) the beames/ poſtes, walles and dores therof, ouerlayde he with gold, and made grauen worke vpon the walles. And he made the houſe mooſt holye, whoſe length was .xx. cubytes lyke to the bredth of the houſe, & the bredth therof was alſo .xx. cubytes.

And he ouerlayde it with good golde, euen with .vi. hundred talentes. And the weyght of the nayles of golde was fyftye ſycles. And he ouerlayde the vpper chambers with gold.

C * And in the houſe mooſt holye, he made two Cherubins of ymage worke, lyke chyldren, and ouerlayde them with golde. And the wynges of the Cherubs were .xx. cubytes longe. The one wynge was fyue cubites, reachyng to the wall of the houſe, and the other wyng was lykewyſe fyue cubytes, reachyng to the wynge of the other Cherub. And euen ſo the one wynge of the other Cherub was fyue cubytes, reachynge to the wall of the houſe, and the other wynge was fyue cubites alſo, and reached to the wynge of the other Cherub. And ſo the wynges of the ſayd Cherubs were ſtretched out .xx. cubytes. And they ſtode on theyr fete, and loked inwardes.

D And he made a fore hangynge of yelowe ſylke, purple, crimoſin, and fyne whyte, & cauſed the pyctures of Cherubs to be brodered thereon. And he made before the houſe, two pyllers of .xxxv. cubytes hygh. And the head that was aboue on the top of one of them was fyue cubytes. And he made cheynes of wrethen worke for the quere, and put them on the heades of the pyllers, and made an hundred pomgarnettes, & put them on the cheynes. And he reared vp the pyllers before the temple: one on the ryght hand, and the other on the lefte, and called the ryght ☞ Iachin, and the lefte ☞ Boaz. ☞ ☞

¶ The aulter of braſſe, the lauatorye, the veſſels to waſſhe with, the candelſtyckes. &c.

CAPI. IIII.

A AND he made an aulter of braſſe .xx. cubites longe, and .xx. cubites brode, and ten cubytes hygh. * And he caſt a braſen Lauatorye of ten cubytes from brym to brym, rounde in compaſſe, and fyue cubytes hygh: and a lyne of thyrtye cubytes dyd compaſſe it rounde aboute. And vnder it was the faſſhyon of oxen which dyd compaſſe it rounde aboute: with ten cubytes dyd they compaſſe the Lauatory rounde aboute, and there were two rowes of oxen, whiche were caſt of lyke molten worke. And it ſtode alſo vpon twelue oxen: thre loked towarde the North, thre towarde the Weſt, thre toward the South, and thre toward the Eaſt: and the Lauatory was ſet vpon them, and all theyr backes were towarde the Lauatory. And the thyckeneſſe of it was an hande bredth, and the brym lyke the brym of a cup, with floures of lylyes. And it receyued and helde thre thouſande bates. 3.Re.vii.b.

B * And he made ten lauers: and put fyue on the ryght hande, and fyue on the lefte, to waſſh and clenſe in them, ſuch thynges as they offered for a burntofferynge. But the greate Lauatory was for the preeſtes to waſſhe in. And he made ten candelſtyckes of golde (accordynge to the patrone that was geuen of them) & put them in the temple: fyue on the ryght hand, & fyue on the lefte. And he made alſo ten tables: and put them in the temple, fyue on the ryght ſyde, and fyue on the lefte. 3.Reg.7.d.

And he made an hundred baſens of golde. And he made the courte of the Preeſtes, and the great courte and dores to it: & ouerlayde the dores of them with braſſe. And he ſet the great Lauatory on the ryght ſyde of the eaſt ende, ouer agaynſt the South. And Hiram made pottes, ſhouels and baſens, and fynyſſhed the worke that he was appoynted to make for kyng Salomon in the houſe of God:

C The two pyllers, the couerynges & two bandes on the toppes of the pyllers, and the two wrethes to couer the two ſcalpes or heades that were on the toppes of the pyllers: and foure hundred pomgarnettes on the two wrethes, two rowes of Pomgarnettes on one wrethe, to couer the two toppes or heades that were on the pyllers. And he made two bottomes, and lauers made he vpon the bottomes: the greate lauatory, and twelue oxen vnder it. Pottꝭ alſo and ſhouels, fleſhehokes and all theſe veſſels dyd Hyram (his father) make to kynge Salomon for the houſe of the Lorde, of bryght braſſe.

D In the playne of Iordane dyd the kynge caſt them, euen in the claye grounde that is/ bytwene Socoth and Zaredatha. And Salomon made all theſe veſſels in greate aboundance/ for the weyght of braſſe coulde not be rekened. And Salomon made all the veſſels that were for the houſe of God: The golden aulter alſo/ & the tables to ſet the ſhewbreade vpon. Moreouer, the cādelſtyckes with theyr lampes (to burne after the maner before the queere) and that of precyous golde: and the floures, & the lampes, and the ſnoffers made he of golde, and that perfyte golde: and the dreſſynge knyues/ baſens/ ſpones/ and ſenſers of pure golde. And ✿ (he made) the dore ✿ of the temple/ and the inner dores within the place mooſt holye: and the inner dores of the temple, were gylted. And ſo was al the worke that Salomon made for the houſe of the lorde fynyſſhed.

¶ The Arke is brought into the temple, which is fylled with the glorye of the Lorde.

CAPI. V.

A AND ſo al the worke that Salomō made in the houſe of the Lorde was fynyſſhed: & * Salomon brought in al the thyngꝭ 3.Regū.7.g that Dauid his father had dedycated, with the ſyluer and golde/ and all the Iuels, and put them amonge the treaſures of the houſe of God. 3.Regū.8.a Then Salomon * gathered the elders of Iſraell togyther/ and all the heades of the trybes, & auncyent fathers of the chyldren of Iſraell, vnto Ieruſalem: to brynge the arke of the couenaunt of the lorde out of the cytye of Dauid which is Zion. Wherfore all the men of Iſraell reſorted vnto the kyng in the feaſt, euen in the ſeuenth moneth. And all the elders of Iſraell came, and the Leuytes toke vp the arke.

B And the preeſtes and the Leuites brought awaye the Arke, and the tabernacle of wytneſſe, (and al the holy veſſels that were in the tabernacle,) and they bare them. And kynge Salomon and all the congregacyon of Iſraell/ that were aſſembled vnto hym before the Arke, offered ſhepe, and oxen, ſo many/ that they coulde not be tolde, nor nombred for multytude. And the Preeſtes brought the Arke of the appoyntement of the Lorde vnto his place, euen in to the queere of the temple within the place mooſt holy, and ſet it vnder the wyngꝭ of the Cherubs, that the Cherubs ſtretched out theyr wynges ouer the place of the Arke, and the Cherubs couered both the Arke and her barres aboue on hygh.

C And the barres of the Arke, were ſo longe that the heades of the barres were ſene without the Arke within the queere, but not without. And there the Arke remayned vnto this daye. But there was nothynge in the Arke/ * ſaue the two tables which Moſes put therin at Horeb, when the lorde made a couenaūt with the chyldren of Iſraell, after they were come out of Egypte. And it fortuned, that when the Preeſtes were come out of the holy place (for all the Preeſtes that were preſent, were ſanctyfyed and dyd not then wayte by courſe) that bothe the Leuites and the ſyngers (vnder Aſaph, Heman and Ieduthun) were appoynted to ſondrye offices with theyr Chyldren and brethren, and were arayde in fyne whyte, hauynge Cymbals, Pſalteries and harpes, and ſtode at the Eaſt ende of the aulter: and by them an hundred and twentye Preeſtes blowynge with trompettes.

3.Regū.

D And the trompet blowers and the ſyngers ſo agreed, that it ſemed but one voyce in prayſynge and thankynge the Lorde. And when they lyfte vp theyr voyce with the Trompettes, Cymbals and other inſtrumentes of Muſycke, and when they prayſed the Lorde, ✿ (and ſayde) howe that he is good, and that ✿ his mercy laſteth euer, the houſe of god was fylled with a cloude: ſo that the preeſtꝭ coulde not endure to mynyſter, by the reaſon of the cloude. For the maieſtye of the Lorde had fylled the houſe of God.

¶ The wordes of Salomon to the people, and the prayer that he made vnto god.

CAPI. VI.

A THen Salomon ſayde: * the Lorde hath ſpoken, howe that he wyll dwell in the cloude. And I haue buylte an habytacyon for the, and a place for thy dwellynge for euer. And the kynge turned his face, and bleſſed the hoole congregacyon of Iſraell/ and all the congregacyon of Iſraell ſtode.

And he ſayde: bleſſed be the Lorde god of Iſraell whiche hath with his handes, fulfylled it, that he ſpake with his mouth to my father Dauid, ſayenge: * Sence the daye that I brought my people out of the lande of Egypte, I choſe no cytye amonge all the trybes of Iſraell to buylde an houſe in, that my name myght be there, neyther choſe I any man to be a ruler ouer my people Iſraell: ſauynge that I haue choſen Ieruſalem, (that my name myght be there) and haue choſen Dauid to be ouer my people Iſraell.

* And when it was in the herte of Dauid my father to buylde an houſe for the name of B the Lorde God of Iſraell: the Lorde ſayde to Dauid my father: for aſmoche as it was in thyne herte to buylde an houſe for my name, thou dydeſt well that thou ſo thoughteſt in thyne herte. Notwithſtandynge, thou ſhalte not buylde the houſe, but thy Son whiche is proceded out of thy loynes, he ſhall buylde an houſe for my name. The Lorde therfore/ hath made good his ſaynge that he hath ſpoken, and I am ryſen vp in the rowme of Dauid my father, and am ſet on the ſeate of Iſraell, as the Lorde promyſed, and haue buylt an houſe for the name of the Lorde God of Iſraell. And in it haue I put the Arke, wherin is the couenaunt of the lorde that he made with the chyldren of Iſraell. And the kynge ſtode before the aulter of the lorde in the preſence of all the congregacyon of Iſraell, and ſtretched out his handes. For now Salomō had made a braſen pulpyt of fyue cubytes longe, and fyue cubytes brode, and thre of heyght, and had ſet it in the myddes of the great courte, and vpon it, he ſtode and kneled downe vpon his knees before all the congregacyon of Iſraell, and ſtretched out his handes towarde heuen, and ſayde:

¶ The fyre conſumeth the ſacrifyce. The lorde appeareth to Salomon the ſeconde tyme.

CAPI. VII.

A 1. Regū. 8. f 2. Leuit. 9. d 3. Regū. 8. c AND * when Salomon had made an ende of prayenge, ‡ there came downe fyre from heuen, and conſumed the * burntofferynge and the ſacrifyces. And the houſe was fylled with the glorye of the Lorde, and the Preeſtes coulde not go in to the houſe of the Lorde, bycauſe the glorye of the lorde had fylled the Lordes houſe. And when all the chyldren of Iſraell ſawe howe the fyre, and the glorye of the lorde came downe vpon the houſe, they fell downe flat vpon theyr faces to the earth vpon the pauement, & worſhypped and confeſſed vnto the Lorde, that he is gracyous, and that his mercye laſteth euer. And the kynge, and all the people offered ſacrifyces before the Lorde.

B And kynge Salomon offered a ſacrifyce of .xxii. thouſande oxen, and an hundred and .xx. thouſand ſhepe. And ſo the kynge and all the people ☞ dedicated the houſe of God. ☞ And the preeſtes wayted on theyr offyces, and the Leuites had the inſtrumentes of muſycke of the Lorde (which kynge Dauid had made to confeſſe vnto the lorde, that his mercye laſteth euer) playenge a pſalme of Dauid with theyr hande. And the preeſtes blew with trompettes before them: & all they of Iſrael ſtode. Moreouer, Salomon halowed the myddle of the courte, that was before the houſe of the Lorde: for theyr he offered burntofferynges and the fat of the peaceofferynges, bycauſe the braſen aulter which Salomon had made/ was not able to receyue the burntofferynges and the meatofferynges and the fat.

So at the ſame tyme Salomon kepte a * feaſt of ſeuen dayes, and all they of Iſraell C with hym an exceadyng great congregacyon, euen from the enterynge in of Hamath, vnto the ryuer of Egypte. And in the eyght daye they made a gatherynge. For they kepte the dedicacyon of the aulter ſeuen dayes, ☞ and ☞ the feaſt ſeuen dayes. And the .xxiii. daye of the ſeuenth moneth, he let the people departe in to theyr tentes glad and mery in herte, for the goodneſſe that the Lorde had ſhewed to Dauid, and to Salomon, and to Iſraell his people. * And ſo Salomon fynyſhed the houſe of the Lorde, and the kynges houſe: and all that came in his herte to make in the houſe of the Lorde, and in his owne houſe, wente proſperouſlye forwarde. And the lorde appeared to Salomon by nyght, and ſayde to hym: I haue herde thy peticyon, and * haue choſen this place for my ſelfe, to be an houſe of Sacrifyce. Yf I ſhut vp heuen, that there be no rayne: or yf I cōmaunde the locuſtes to deuoure the lande, or yf I ſende peſtylence amonge my peple: and yf they that are of my people (amonge whome my name is called vpon) do humble them ſelues, and make interceſſyon, and ſeke my preſence, and turne from theyr wycked wayes, then wyll I heare from heuen, and be mercyfull to theyr ſynne, and wyll heale theyr lande. And from hence forth myne eyes ſhall be open, & myne eares attent to the prayer that is made in this place.

D And therfore nowe * I haue choſen and ſanctifyed this houſe, that my name maye be there for euer: and myne eyes and myne herte ſhall be there perpetuallye. And yf thou wylt walke before me (as Dauid thy father walked) to do all that I haue commaunded the, and ſhalt obſerue my ſtatutes & my lawes: then wyll I ſtablyſhe the ſeate of thy kyngdome, accordynge as I made the couenaunt with Dauid thy father, ſayenge: * thou ſhalt not be without a man, to be ruler in Iſraell. But and yf ye turne awaye, and forſake my ſtatutes, and my cōmaundementes (whiche I haue ſet before you) and ſhal go and ſerue other gods, and worſhyp them: then wyll I plucke them vp by the routes out of my land whiche I haue gyuen them, and this houſe (whiche I haue ſanctifyed for my name) wyl I caſt oute of my ſyght, and wyll make it to be a prouerbe/ and a ieſt among all nacions. And euery one that paſſeth by, ſhall be aſtonyed at this houſe (whiche belonged to the mooſt hygh God) and ſhall ſaye: * why hath the lorde delte on this faſſhion with this land, and with this houſe? And they ſhal anſwere: bycauſe they forſoke the Lorde God of theyr fathers, (which brought them out of the land of Egypt) & caught holde on other gods, and worſhipped them, and ſerued them: euen therfore hath he brought al this euyl vpon them.

¶ The cityes that Salomon buylded, after that the houſe of God was fynyſſhed.

CAPI. VIII.

A And * it fortuned, that after .xx. yeare when Salomon had buylte the houſe of the Lorde, & his owne houſe: he buylt the cityes that Hiram gaue hym, and put of the chyldren of Iſraell in them. And Salomon went to Hamath Zoba, and ſtrengthed it. And he buylt Thadmor in the wyldernes, and repayred all the ſtore cityes whiche were in Hamath. And he buylt Bethhoron the vpper/ and Bethhoron the nether, ſtronge cytyes, hauyng walles, gates and barres. And Baalath and all the ſtore cytyes that Salomon had, and all the charet cityes, and the cityes of the horſemen, & euery pleaſant place, that Salomon had luſt to buylde in Ieruſalem and Libanō, and thorowout all the land of his dominyon.

B And all the people that were lefte of the Hethites, Amorytes, Pherezytes, Heuytes, and Iebuſytes, whiche were not of the chyldren of Iſraell: but were the chyldrē of them, which were lefte after them in the lande, and were not conſumed of the chyldren of Iſrael, them dyd Salomon make to paye trybute vnto this day. But of the chyldren of Iſrael dyd Salomon make no bonde men for his worke: but they were men of war and rulers and great Lordes with hym, and captaynes ouer his charettes and horſemen. And kyng Salomons offycers that ouerſawe and ruled the people, were two hundred and fyftye. C

And Salomon brought the doughter of Pharao out of the cytye of Dauid, in to the houſe that he had buylded for her. For he ſayde: my wyfe ſhall not dwell in the houſe of Dauid kyng of Iſrael, for it is holy, bycauſe that the Arke of the Lorde is come vnto it. Then Salomon offered burntofferyngs vnto the lorde, on the aulter of the Lorde which he had buylte before the porche, doyng euery thynge in his due tyme and offerynge, acordynge to the commaundement of Moſes, in the ſabbothes, newmoones, and ſolempne feaſtes, * thre tymes in the yeare: that is to ſaye, in the feaſt of ſwete breade, in the feaſt of wekes, and in the feaſt of tabernacles. Exodi. 23.c Deute.16.a And Salomon ſet the ſortes of Preeſtes to theyr offyces, (as Dauid his father had ordered them,) and the Leuites in theyr watches, for to prayſe and mynyſtre before the Preeſtes daye by day, & the porters by courſe at euery gate.

D * For ſo had Dauid the man of god commaunded. And they omytted not the commaundement of the kynge vnto the preeſtes, and the Leuytes, concernynge any maner of thynge, and concernynge the treaſures. For Salomon made prouiſyon for the charges/ from the fyrſt daye that the foundacyon of the houſe of the Lorde was layde, tyll it was fynyſſhed/ that the houſe of the lorde was perfyte. Then went kynge Salomon to Ezion Gaber, and to Eloth at the ✠ (redde) ſees ſyde in the lande of Edom. And Hiram ſent hym by the hande of his ſeruauntes, ſhyppes and ſeruauntes that had knowledge of the ſee: & they came with the ſeruauntes of Salomon to Ophir, and caryed thence foure hundred, and fyftye talentes of golde, and brought it to kynge Salomon.

¶ The communicacyon of Salomon with the quene of Saba, and the gyftes that the one gaue to the other. The death of Salomon, after whome ſucceedeth Rehoboam.

CAPI. IX.

A And * when the quene of Saba herde of the fame of Salomon, ſhe came to proue hym in harde queſtions at Ieruſalem, with a very greate companye, with camels 3.Regū.x.a Math.xii.d Luke.xi.d that bare ſpyces, and plentye of golde, and precyous ſtones. And when ſhe was come to Salomon, ſhe cōmuned with hym of al that ſhe had in her herte. And Salomon aſſoyled her, all her queſtions, and there was not one worde hyd from Salomon, whiche he tolde her not. And when the quene of Saba had ſene the wyſdome of Salomon and the houſe that he had buylte, and the meate of his table, the ſyttynge of his ſeruauntes, and the ſtandynge of his wayters, theyr apparell, his butlers, theyr apparell, his goynge vp (by the whiche he went in to the houſe of the Lorde,) there was no more ſpiryte in her.

B And ſhe ſayde to the kynge: the ſayenge whiche I herde in myne owne lande, of thyne actes, and of thy wyſdome, is true. I beleued not the wordes of them, vntyll I came, and myne eyes had ſene it. And beholde, the one halfe of thy wyſdome was not tolde me: for thou exceedeſt the fame that I herde. Happye are thy men, & happye are theſe thy ſeruauntes whiche ſtande before the alwaye, & heare thy wyſdome. Bleſſed be the lorde thy God/ which had luſt to the, to ſet the kynge on his ſeate, that thou myghteſt be kyng, ordeyned by the Lorde thy God. Bycauſe thy God loueth Iſraell, and hath delyte to make them contynue euer, therfore made he the kynge ouer them, to do ryght and equite.

C And ſhe gaue the kynge an hundred, & xx. talentes of golde, and of ſpyces exceadynge great haboundaunce, and precyous ſtones, neyther was there any more ſoche ſpyce, as the quene of Saba gaue kynge Salomon. And the ſeruauntes of Hiram & the ſeruauntes of Salomon whiche brought golde from ☞ Ophir, brought alſo ☞ Algume wood, and precyous ſtones. And the kynge made of the Algumwood, ſtayres in the houſe of the lorde and in the kynges palace, and harpes and Pſalteryes for Syngers. And there was no ſoche wood ſene before in the lande of Juda. And kynge Salomon gaue to the quene of Saba euery pleaſaunt thyng that ſhe aſked, but not ſo moche as ſhe brought vnto the kynge. And ſo ſhe turned and went awaye to her owne lande with her ſeruauntes.

D The weyght of golde that came to Salomon in one yeare, was ſyxe hundred. lxvi. talentes of golde, beſydes that which chapmen and marchauntes brought: and al the kyngs of Arabia, & rulers of that countrey, brought golde and ſyluer to Salomon. And kynge Salomon made. CC. bucklers of beaten golde, and ſyx hundred ſycles of beaten gold were ſpente vpon one buckler: and thre hundred ſcheldes made he of beaten golde/ and one ſchelde coſt thre hundred peces of golde/ & the kynge put them in the houſe that was in the foreſt of Libanon. And the kyng made a great ſeate of yuorye, and ouerlayde it with pure golde. And there were ſyxe ſteppes to the ſeate with a foote ſtole of golde, faſtened to the ſeate: and pomels an eche ſyde of the ſyttynge place, and two lyons ſtandynge by the pomels.

E And. xii. lyons ſtode on the one ſyde and on the other: vpon the ſyxe ſteppes/ ſo that there was no ſoch worke made in any kyngdome. And all the drynkyng veſſels of kyng Salomon were of golde, and all the veſſels of the houſe that was in the foreſt of Libanō, were of precyouſe golde: for ſyluer was counted nothynge worth in the dayes of Salomon. For the kynges ſhyppes went to Tharſis with the ſeruauntes of Hiram: euery thre yeare once came the ſhyppes to Tharſis, and brought golde, ſyluer, yuorye, and apes and Pacockes.

F * And kynge Salomon paſſed al the kyngs of the earth in rycheſſe and wyſdom. And all the kynges of the earth, ſought the preſence of Salomon, to heare his wyſdom, that god had put in his herte. And they brought euery man his preſent: veſſels of ſyluer, and veſſels of golde, rayment/harneſſe, ſpyces, horſes & Mules (and whatſoeuer myght be gotten) yeare by yeare. * And Salomon had foure thouſande ſtalles for horſes and charettes/ and twelue thouſande horſemen, whome he beſtowed in the charet cityes, and ſome were with the kyng at Jeruſalem. And he reygned ouer all the kynges that were from Euphrates vnto the lande of the Philiſtines, and to the border of Egypt. 3.Reg.10. 3.Reg.4.

G * And the kynge made ſyluer in Jeruſalem as plenteous as ſtones, & Cedar trees as plenteous, as the mulbery trees that growe in the valleyes. And they brought vnto Salomon horſes out of Egypte, and out of all landes. * The reſt of the actes of kynge Salomon/ fyrſt and laſt/ are they not wrytten in the ſayenges of Nathan the Prophet, and in the prophecye of Ahiah the Selonite, and in the viſyons of Jedo the Sear of viſyons, agaynſt Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat? And Salomon reygned in Jeruſalem vpon all Iſraell fourtye yeares. And Salomon ſlept with his fathers, and they buryed hym in the Cytye of Dauid his father, and Rehoboam his ſonne reygned in his ſteade. 3.Reg.10. ii.Para.1. 3.Reg.11.

they wyll be thy ſeruauntes for euer. But he lefte the counſayle whiche the elders gaue

people, whiche haue cōmuned with me, ſayenge:
Abate ſomwhat of the yocke, which thy father dyd put vpon vs.

C And the yonge men that were growen vp

* For where my father put a heuy yocke Reg.xii.c

wyll chaſtyſe you with ſcorpyons. And ſo the kynge herkened not vnto the people: but the occaſyon came of god, that the Lorde myght make good his ſayenge, * whiche he ſpake Reg.xi.f

* And now Dauid, ſe to thyne owne houſe. 3.Reg.xii.d
And ſo all Iſraell gat them to theyr tentes/

Semeiahu the man of God, ſayenge: ſpeake
vnto Rehoboam the ſon of Salomon kynge of Juda, and to all them of Iſraell that are in Juda and Ben Jamin, & ſaye: thus ſayth
the lord: Ye ſhal not go vp nor fyght agaynſt
your brethren: returne euery man to his houſe, for this thynge is done of me. And they obeyed the wordes of the Lorde, and returned from goynge agaynſt Jeroboam.

B And Rehoboam dwelt in Jeruſalem, and buylte ſtrong cytyes in Juda: He buylded vp Bethleem, and Etam and Theko: Bethzur/Socho and Adullam: Gath, & Mareſa, and Ziph: Aduraim, Lachis and Azeca: Zorea/Aialon, and Hebron (whiche is in Juda and Ben Jamin) ſtronge cytyes. And he repayred the ſtronge holdes & put captaynes in them/and ſtore of vytayle, & wyne and oyle. And in all cytyes he put ſheldes and ſpeares, and made them exceadynge ſtronge, hauynge Juda and Ben Jamin on his ſyde.

C And the Preeſtes and the Leuytes that were in all Iſraell, reſorted to hym, out of all theyr coaſtes. For the Leuytes lefte theyr ſuburbes and theyr poſſeſſyon, and came to Juda and Jeruſalem: * For Jeroboam and his ii.Par.13.b
ſonnes had caſt them out from myniſtrynge
vnto the Lorde. * And he ordeyned hym 3.Reg.xii.g Preeſtes for the hyll aulters, for the deuyls
and for the calues whiche he had made.

And after the Leuites there went of all the trybes of Iſraell/ (ſuche as ſubmytted theyr hertes to ſeke the Lorde God of Iſraell) and came to Ieruſalem, to offer vnto the Lorde god of theyr fathers.

And ſo they ſtrengthed the kyngdome of D Iuda, and made Rehoboam the ſonne of Salomon myghtye thre yeare longe, for thre yeare they walked in the waye of Dauid and Salomon. And Rehoboam toke hym Mahalath the doughter of Ierimoth the ſonne of Dauid to wyfe, and Abihail the doughter of Eliab the ſonne of Iſai, whiche bare hym chyldrē: Ieus, Samaria and Zaba. And after her he toke * Maaca the doughter of Abſalom whiche bare hym Abia, Athai, Ziza & Selomith. And Rehoboam loued Maaca the doughter of Abſalō aboue all his wyues and concubyns, for he toke .xviii. wyues and thre ſcore concubynes, and begat .xviii. ſonnes and thre ſcore doughters. And Rehoboam made Abia the ſonne of Maacha the cheyfe ruler amonge his brethren, and to haue the ouer ſyght of the kyngdome. And he played wyſely, and ſcattered all his chyldren thorow out all the countreyes of Iuda, and Ben Iamin vnto euery ſtronge citye. And he gaue them aboūdaunce of vyttayle, and obteyned many wyues. 3.Reg.xv.a ¶ Seſac kynge of Egypte robbeth the temple of the Lorde. Rehoboam dyeth, and Abia his ſonne ſucceadeth hym.

CAPI. XII.

A AND it came to paſſe, that when Rehoboam had ſtablyſhed the kyngdome, and became myghtye, he forſoke the lawe of the Lorde, and all Iſraell with hym. * And it fortuned, that in the fyfth yere of kynge Rehoboam, Seſac the kynge of Egypte came vp agaynſt Ieruſalem, (bycauſe they had tranſgreſſed agaynſt the Lorde, with twelue hundred charettes, and .lx. thouſande horſemen. And the people were without nombre, that came with hym out of Egypte, Lubim, Suckim & the blackmores. And they toke the ſtronge cityes in Iuda, & came to Ieruſalem. 3.Re.xiiii.c

Then came Semeia the Prophet to Re- B hoboam and to the lordes of Iuda (that were gathered togyther within Ieruſalem for Seſac) and ſayde vnto them: thus ſayeth the lorde: ye haue lefte me, and therfore haue I alſo lefte you in the handes of Seſac. Wherevpon the lordes of Iſraell & the kynge humbled them ſelues, and ſayd: the lorde is ryghteous. And when the Lorde ſawe that they ſubmytted them ſelues, the worde of the lorde came to Semeia, ſayinge. They ſubmytt them ſelues, therfore I wyll not deſtroye them. But I wyll delyuer them ſomwhat, and my wrath ſhall not burne vpon Ieruſalem by the hande of Seſac. Neuertheleſſe, they ſhal be his ſeruauntes, to knowe what dyfference is betwene my ſeruyce, and the ſeruice of the kyngdomes of the worlde.

And ſo Seſac kynge of Egypt came to Ie- C ruſalem, and toke awaye the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and the treaſures of the kynges houſe: he toke euen al. And he caryed away the ſcheldes of golde, * whiche Salomon made. In ſteade of which, kynge Rehoboam made ſcheldes of braſſe, and cōmytted them to the handes of the captaynes whiche had the ouerſyght of the fote men, and that kepte the entraunce of the kyngs houſe. And it came to paſſe, that when the kynge entred into the houſe of the lorde, the garde came, & fet them, and brought them agayne vnto the garde chambre. And when he humbled hym ſelfe, the wrath of the lorde turned from hym that he wolde not deſtroye all togyther. And in Iuda all was well. 3.Reg.x.

And ſo kynge Rehoboam waxed myghty D and reygned in Ieruſalem. And Rehoboam was .xli. yere olde, when he began to reygne/ and he reygned .xvii. yeres in Ieruſalem, the citye whiche the Lorde had choſen out of all the trybes of Iſraell, to put his name there. And his mothers name was Naama an Ammoniteſſe. * And he dyd euyll: bycauſe he prepared not his herte to ſeke the Lorde. 3.Re.

The actes alſo of Rehoboam, fyrſt and laſt, are they not wrytten in the ſayenges of Semeia the prophet and of Iddo the ſear, which noted the genealogye? and there was warre alway betwene Rehoboam, and Ieroboam. And Rehoboam ſlepte with his fathers, and was buryed in the citye of Dauid, and Abia his ſonne reygned in his ſteade.

¶ The hiſtory of Abia agaynſt Ieroboam.

CAPI. XIII.

THE eyghtene yeare of kynge Ieroboam, A * began Abia to reygne ouer Iuda, and he reygned thre yere in Ieruſalem. His mothers name alſo was Michaiahu the doughter of Uriell of Gibea. And there was war betwene Abia and Ieroboam. And Abia made prouiſyon for the war, hauynge valyaunt and experte men of war, euen foure hūdred thouſande choſen men. And Ieroboam ſet hym ſelfe in araye to fyght agaynſt hym, with eyght hundred thouſande pycke men, whiche were ſtronge and men of armes. 3.Re.

And Abia ſtode vp vpon Zemaraim an hill whiche is in mounte Ephraim, & ſayde: heare me thou Ieroboam and al Iſrael. Do not ye knowe howe that the Lorde God of Iſraell gaue the kyngdome (ouer them of Iſrael) to Dauid for euer: euen to hym ⁊ to his ſonnes ⁊ with a ſalted couenaunte. And Ieroboam the ſonne of Nebat the ſeruaunt of Salomō the ſonne of Dauid is ryſen vp, ⁊ hath rebelled agaynſt his lorde. And there gathered to hym lewde men, the chyldren of Belial, ⁊ preuayled agaynſt Rehoboam the ſon of Salomon: when Rehoboam was yong and tender herted, and coulde not ſtande before them.

And nowe ye ſaye, that ye be able to preuayle agaynſt the kyngdome of the Lorde, which is in the hande of the ſonnes of Dauid, and ye be a greate multitude, ⁊ haue the golden calues, * whiche Ieroboam made you for Gods. And * haue ye not caſt out the preeſtes of the lorde the ſonnes of Aaron, and the Leuites, ⁊ haue made you preeſtes after the maner of the nacyons of other landes: ſo that who ſoeuer cometh, ⁊ conſecrateth his hande with a yonge oxe, ⁊ ſeuen rammes, the ſame may be a preeſt of them that are no Gods.

But we belonge vnto the Lorde our God, whom we haue not forſaken, ⁊ the preeſtes are the ſonnes of Aaron, whiche miniſtre vnto the Lorde, ⁊ the Leuites wayte vpon theyr office. They burne vnto the lorde euery mornyng and euenyng, burnt ſacrifices, ⁊ ſwete ſence: the ſhew breade ſet they in ordre vpon a pure table: and prepare the candelſticke of golde with the lampes of the ſame, to burne euer at euen. And truely we kepe the watche of the Lorde our God: but ye haue forſaken hym. And beholde, God hym ſelfe is our captayne, and his preeſtes blowe with the * trompettes, and crye alarum agaynſt you. (O ye chyldren of Iſrael) fyght not agaynſt the lorde God of your fathers: for it wyl not proſpere with you. But for all that, Ieroboam conuayed men priuely aboute, to come behynde them: and ſo they were before Iuda, and the layers in wayte were behynde them.

And when they of Iuda loked aboute, beholde, the battayle was before and behynde, and they cryed vnto the Lorde, ⁊ the preeſtes blewe with the trompettes, and the men of Iuda gaue a ſhowte.

D

And as the men of Iuda ſhowted, it came to paſſe, that God ſmote Ieroboam and all Iſrael before Abia and Iuda. And the chyldren of Iſrael fled before Iuda, and God deliuered them in to theyr hand. And Abia and his people ſlue a great ſlaughter of them. There fell downe wounded of Iſraell, fyue hundred thouſande choſen men. And ſo the chyldren of Iſraell were broughte vnder at that tyme, and the chyldren of Iuda preuayled, bycauſe they leaned vnto the Lorde God of theyr fathers. And Abia folowed after Ieroboam, and toke cityes from hym: Bethell with the townes belongynge therto, Ieſana with the townes that longed therto, ⁊ Ephrō with her townes. And Ieroboam recouered no ſtrength agayne in the dayes of Abia. And the lorde plaged hym, and he dyed. But Abia waxed myghtye, ⁊ maryed.xiiii. wyues, ⁊ begat.xxii. ſonnes, ⁊.xvi. doughtes. The reſt of the actes of Abia, his cuſtomes ⁊ his ſayenges are wrytten in the ſtorie of the prophet Iddo.

¶ Of Aſa kynge of Iuda.

CAPI. XIIII.

SO Abia ſlepte with his fathers, and they buryed hym in the Citye of Dauid, and * Aſa his ſonne reygned in his ſteade. Math.i.b.

In whoſe dayes the lande was in quietneſſe ten yere. And * Aſa dyd that was good and ryght in the eyes of the Lorde his God: for he toke away ſtraung aulters ⁊ the hyl aulters, ⁊ brake downe the ymages, and cut downe the groues, and cōmaunded Iuda to ſeke the lorde god of theyr fathers, ⁊ to do accordyng to the lawe ⁊ cōmaundmentes. And he put away out of all the cityes of Iuda, the hyl aulters and the ymages: and the kyngdom was quiet before hym. And he buylt ſtrong cityes in Iuda: bycauſe the lande was in reſt, and he had no warre in thoſe yeres. For the lorde had gyuen hym reſt. 3.Reg.xv.b

Therfore, he ſayd to Iuda: let vs buylde theſe cityes, and make aboute them walles, towres, gates and barres, for the lande is yet in reſt before vs, bycauſe we haue ſought the Lorde our God: We haue ſought hym/ and he hath gyuen vs reſt on euery ſyde. And ſo they buylte, and it proſpered with them. And Aſa had an armye of men that bare ſcheldes ⁊ ſpeares, (out of Iuda) thre hundred thouſande, and out of Ben Iamin that bare ſcheldes and drewe bowes, two hundred and.lxxx. thouſande: all theſe were valiaunt men.

And there came out agaynſt them Zarah the blacke Morian * with an hooſt of.x. hundred thouſande, and thre hundred charettes, and came as farre as Mareſa. And Aſa went out before hym, and they ioyned the battayle in the valley of Zephata beſyde Mareſa. ij.Pa.xvi.c

And Aſa cryed vnto the Lorde his God, and ſayd: Lorde, * it is no harde thynge with the to helpe eyther many, or them that haue no power: helpe vs therfore O Lorde God, for we truſt to the, ⁊ in thy name we go agaynſt this multitude. Thou arte the lorde our god and no man ſhall preuayle agaynſt the. 1.Ma.iiii.b

So

D So the Lorde ſmote the blacke Moores before Aſa ⁊ Juda, and the blacke Moores fled. And Aſa and the people that was with hym, folowed after them vnto Gerar. And the blacke Moores hooſt was ouerthrowen, that there was none of them lefte, but were deſtroyed before the lorde, ⁊ before his hooſt. And they caryed away a myghty great pray. And they ſmote all the cityes rounde aboute Gerar. For the feare of the Lorde came vpon them. And they ſpoyled all the Cityes, and there was excedynge moche ſpoyle in them. They ſmote alſo the tentes of cattell, and caryed awaye plentye of ſhepe/ and Camelles/ and returned to Jeruſalem.

¶ Kynge Aſa by the monicion of the prophet Azaria ſacrifyceth vnto the Lorde. He depryueth hys mother of her domynyon.

CAPI. XV.

A AND the ſpirite of God came on Azaria the ſonne of Obed. And he went out to mete Aſa, and ſayd vnto hym: heare me Aſa, and all Juda and Beniamin. The lorde is with you, whyle ye be with hym, and when ye ſeke hym, he wyll be founde of you: and agayne, when ye forſake hym, he alſo wyll forſake you. And truely, for a long ceaſon in Jſrael no man ſought the true god, no man regarded the preeſt that taught them, no man cared for the lawe. And when any man in his trouble dyd turne vnto the Lorde god of Jſrael, and ſought hym, he was founde of them And in that tyme there was no peace to hym that dyd go out and in. But great ſedicyon was there among all the enhabitoures of the earth. And nacyon was deſtroyed of nacyon, and citye of citye: for god dyd moue all aduerſyte amonge them. Play ye therfore the men, and let not your handes ſlacke, for your worke ſhall be rewarded.

B And when Aſa herde thoſe wordes, and the propheſie of Azaria/ the ſon of Obed the prophet, he toke courage, and put awaye the abhominable ydolles out of all the lande of Juda/ and Beniamin/ and out of the cityes whiche he wanne in mount Ephraim, and renued the aulter of the Lorde, that was before the porche of the Lorde. And he gathered all Juda and Ben iamin, ⁊ the ſtraungers with them out of Ephraim, Manaſſe and Simeon For there fell many to hym oute of Jſraell, when they ſawe that the Lorde his god was with hym. So they aſſembled at Jeruſalem the thyrde moneth, the fyftenth yeare of the reygne of Aſa. And they offred vnto the lorde the ſame tyme of the ſpoyle whiche they had brought. vii. C. oxen, and. vii. M. ſhepe. And they made a couenaunt to ſeke the lorde God of theyr fathers, with al theyr herte and all theyr ſoule: And who ſoeuer wolde not ſeke the lorde God of Jſrael, ſhulde dye for it whyther he were ſmall or greate, man or woman. And ☞ they ſware vnto the Lorde with a loude voyce, ſhowtyng and blowynge with trompettes and ſhaulmes. ☞

C And all they in Juda reioyſed at the othe, for they had ſworne vnto the Lorde, with all theyr herte, ⁊ ſought hym with all theyr luſt, and he was founde of them. And the Lorde gaue them reſt rounde aboute on euery ſyde. And kyng Aſa put Maacha his mother out of auctoryte (bycauſe ſhe had made an abhominable ydoll ✠ (of Priapus) in a groue, and Aſa brake downe her ydoll, and ſtamped it, ⁊ burnt it at the broke Cedron. ✠ But all the hyll aulters were not taken away out of Jſraell: though the herte of Aſa was perfyte all his dayes. And he brought in to the houſe of god the thynges that his father had dedicate, and that he hym ſelfe had dedicate: euen ſyluer, ⁊ golde, ⁊ Juels. And there was no more war vnto the * xxxv. yere of the reygne of Aſa. [illegible]

CAPI. XVI.

A IN the. xxxvi. yeare of the reygne of Aſa, came * Baaſa kyng of Jſrael vp agaynſt Juda, ⁊ buylte Rama, to the entente that he wolde let none paſſe out or in ✠ (ſafely) to Aſa kynge of Juda. And Aſa ſet out golde ⁊ ſyluer, out of the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, ⁊ of the kynges houſe, ⁊ ſent to Benhadad kyng of Siria that dwelte at ☞ Damaſec, ⁊ ſayde. There is a confideracion bytwene me ⁊ the, bytwene my father ⁊ thyne. B Beholde, J haue ſent the ſyluer ⁊ golde, that thou wylte come ⁊ breake thyne appoyntment with Baaſa kyng of Jſraell, that he may departe from me. And Benhadad graunted vnto kyng Aſa, ⁊ ſent the captaynes of his armye to the cityes of Jſraell. And they ſmote Jion, Dā, ⁊ Abelmain, ⁊ the ſtrong cityes of Nephthali. And when Baaſa herde this, he lefte buyldynge of Rama, and let his worke ceaſe. And then Aſa the kynge toke all Juda and caryed away the ſtones ⁊ tymbre of Rama (wherwith Baaſa was a buyldyng:) and he bulte therwith Geba and Mizpa.

C At that ſame tyme Hanani the ſear came to Aſa kyng of Juda, and ſayd vnto hym: bycauſe thou haſt truſted in the kyng of Siria and not rather put thy truſt in the Lorde thy God, therfore is the hooſt of the kyng of Siria eſcaped out of thyne hande,

* Had

C * Had not the blacke moores and Ludim an exceadyng great hooſt with many charets and horſmen? And yet bycauſe thou truſtedſt in the Lorde, he delyuered them in to thyne hande. For the eyes of the Lorde beholde all the earth, to ſtrength them that are of parfite herte towarde hym. * Herein thou haſt done folyſhly, and therfore from henceforth thou D ſhalte haue warre. And Aſa was wroth with the ſear, and put hym in to the pryſon houſe, for he was dyſpleaſed with hym bycauſe of this thynge. And Aſa deſtroyed certayne of the people the ſame ceaſon. And behold, theſe dedes of Aſa, fyrſt and laſt, are wrytten in the boke of the kynges of Juda and Iſrael. And Aſa in the .xxxix. yere of his reygne fell ſycke in his feete, and that his dyſeaſe contynued very long. And * in his ſyckeneſſe he ſought not the Lorde, but Phiſicians. And Aſa ſlept with his fathers, and dyed in the .xli. yeare of his reygne. And they buryed hym in his owne ſepulchre (whiche he had made for hym ſelfe in the citye of Dauid) and layde hym in the bed which he had fylled with dyuers kyndes of ſpices and ſwete odoures, made by the crafte of the potecaries. And they burnt very moche ſpyce aboute hym.

¶ Jehoſaphat cauſeth the feare of the Lorde to be renued amonge the people.

CAPI. XVII.

A AND * Jehoſaphat his ſonne reygned in his ſteade, & preuayled agaynſt Iſrael. And he put ſouldiours in al the ſtronge cityes of Juda, and ſet rulers in the lande of Juda, and in the cityes of Ephraim, whiche Aſa his father had won. And the Lorde was with Jehoſaphat, bycauſe he walked in the olde wayes of his father Dauid, and ſought not Baalim, But ſought the Lorde God of his father, and walked in his cōmaundementes: and not after the doynges of Iſraell. And the Lorde ſtablyſſhed the kyngdome in his hande, and all they that were in Juda, brought hym preſentes, ſo that he had aboundaunce of rycheſſe and honoure.

And he lyfte vp his herte vnto the wayes B of the Lorde, and he put downe yet more of the hyll aulters and groues out of Juda.

In the thyrde yere of his reygne he ſente to his Lordes: euen to Benhail, Obadia, Zacharia, Nethanel and to Michaiahu, that they ſhulde teache in the cityes of Juda: and with them he ſent Leuites: euen Semeiahu, Nethaniahu, Zabadiahu, Aſahel, Semiramoth Jehonathan, Adoniahu, Thobiahu, Tubadonia, and with them Eliſamah and Jehoram preeſtes. And they taught in Juda, and had the boke of the lawe of God with them, and went aboute thorowout al the cities of Juda and taught the people.

And the feare of the Lorde fell vpon all C the kyngdomes of the lande that were round aboute Juda, and they fought not agaynſte Jehoſaphat. And ſome of the Philiſtynes brought Jehoſaphat gyftes, and tribute ſyluer. And therto the Arabians brought hym ſhepe: euen ſeuen thouſande, and ſeuen hundred rammes, and ſeuen thouſand and ſeuen hundred he gootes. And ſo Jehoſaphat proſpered and grue vp on hygh. And he buylte in Juda, caſtelles and ſtronge cityes, and he had great ſubſtaunce in the cityes of Juda, but the men of armes, and ſtrongeſt ſouldyours were in Jeruſalem.

And theſe are the offices of them in the houſes of theyr fathers, the captaynes ouer thou- D ſandes in Juda. Adna the captayn, and with hym of fyghtynge men thre hundred thouſande. And nexte to his hande was Jetohanan a captayne, and with hym two hundred and .lxxx. thouſande. And nexte hym was Amaſia the ſon of Zichri (whiche of his owne good wyll offered hym ſelfe vnto the Lorde) and with hym two hundred thouſande myghtye men of warre. And of the chyldren of Beniamin, Eliada a mā of myght, and had with hym armed men with bowe and ſchelde two hundred thouſande. And nexte hym was Jehoſabad, & with hym an hundred & .lxxx. M. that were prepared for the war. Theſe wayted on the kyng, beſyde thoſe which the kyng put in ſtrong cityes thorowout all Juda.

¶ After Ahab had aſked counſel of the .CCCC. prophetes, he put Micheas in pryſon. He dyeth with the ſhot of an arowe.

CAPI XVIII.

A AND Jehoſaphat had abundaunce of ryceſſe and honoure, and ioyned affinite with Ahab. And * after certayne yeres he went downe to Samaria. And Ahab ſlue many ſhepe and oxen for hym, & for the peple that he had with hym, and entreated hym to go vp with hym to Ramoth in Gilead. And Ahab kynge of Iſrael ſayde to Jehoſaphat kyng of Juda: wylte thou go with me to Ramoth in Gileade? And he anſwered hym: I wyl be as thou, & my people ſhal be as thyne, and we wyll go with the to the warre.

1. Reg. 22. a

And Jehoſaphat ſayde vnto the kynge of Iſraell: aſke counſayle I praye the, at the B worde of the Lorde, this ſame daye. Therfore the kynge of Iſraell gathered togyther of prophettes foure hundred men, and ſayd vnto them: ſhall we go to Ramoth in Gilead to fyght, or ſhulde I ceaſe

And they ſayde, go vp and god ſhall delyuer it unto the kynges hande. But Jehoſephat ſayde: is there yet here neuer a prophet more of the Lordes, that we myght aſke at hym? And the kynge of Jſrael ſayde vnto Jehoſaphat: there is yet one man, by whom we may aſke the Lorde: But J hate hym, for he neuer propheſyeth me good, but alwaye euyll, & the ſame is Michea the ſonne of Jimla. And Jehoſaphat ſayde: let not the kynge ſay ſo. And the kynge of Jſraell called one of his chamberlaynes, and ſayde: fetche hyther quyckly Michea the ſonne of Jimla. And the kyng of Jſrael and Jehoſaphat kyng of Juda ſat eyther of them on his ſeate in theyr apparell, in a threſſhyng floure beſyde the gate of Samaria, and all the prophettes propheſyed before C them. And one Zedekia the ſon of Chanana had made hym hornes of yron, & ſayde: thus ſayth the Lorde: with theſe ſhalte thou ouerthrow Siria, vntyl they be brought to nought. And all the Prophettes propheſyed euen ſo, ſayenge: Go vp to Ramoth in Gilead, and it ſhall proſpere with the, for the lorde ſhall delyuer it in to the hande of the kyng. And the meſſenger that went to call Michea, ſpake to hym, ſaynge. Beholde, the wordes of the prophettꝭ ſpeake good to the kyng wt one aſſent: let thy wordes therfore be lyke one of theyrs, that thou ſpeake that whiche is pleaſaunt. And Micheha ſayd: as truely as the Lorde lyueth, euen what my God ſayethe, that wyll J ſpeake. And when he was come to the kyng, the kyng ſayd vnto hym: Micheas, ſhulde we go to Ramoth in Gilead to fyght / or leaue of? And he ſayd: go vp, and all ſhall be well, and they ſhal be delyuered in to your hande.

D And the kyng ſayd to hym. So & ſo many tymes do J charge the, that yͧ ſaye nothynge but the truthe to me, in the name of the lorde.

Then he ſayde: J dyd ſe all them of Jſraell ſcattered in the mountaynes, as ſhepe that haue no ſhepherde. And the lorde ſayd: theſe haue no mayſter, let them returne euery man therfore to his houſe in peace. And the kynge of Jſrael ſayd to Jehoſaphat: dyd J not tell the, that he wolde not propheſye good vnto me, but euyll? But he ſayde agayne: therfore heare ye the worde of the Lorde: * J ſaw the Lorde ſyt vpon his ſeat, and al the company of heuen ſtode on his ryght hande, & on his lefte. And the Lorde ſayde: who ſhall deceyue Ahab kynge of Jſrael, that he may go vp & be ouerthrowen at Ramoth in Gilead?

iij.Re.xxij.b
Esai.vi.a

E And he ſayd: one ſayth this, an other that. And there came out a ſpirite and ſtode before the Lorde, & ſayde: J wyll deceyue hym. And the Lorde ſayde vnto hym, Wherin? And he ſayde: J wyl go out, and be a lyenge ſpirite in the mouth of all the prophettꝭ. And the Lorde ſayd, thou ſhalte deceyue hym and ſhalte preuayle, go out, and do euen ſo. And nowe therfore beholde, * the Lorde hath put a lyenge ſpirite in the mouthes of al theſe thy prophettes, and the Lorde hath ſpoken euyl agaynſt the. And Zedekia the ſon of Chanana, wente to, and ſmote Michea vpon the cheke, & ſayd: by what waye wente the ſpirite of the Lorde from me, to ſpeake with the? And Michea ſayd: thou ſhalte ſe the day when thou ſhalte go in from chambre to chambre, for to hyde thy ſelfe. And the kynge of Jſrael ſayde:

iij.Re.xxij.
Job.i.a
Ezech.xiv.

F Take ye Michea, & brynge hym to Ammon the gouernoure of the cytye, and to Joas the kynges ſonne, and ye ſhal ſay, thus ſayth the kyng. Put this felowe in the pryſon houſe, & fede hym with breade of affliction, & water of trouble, vntyll J come agayne in peace. And Michea ſayde, yf thou come agayne in peace, then hath not the Lorde ſpoken to me. And he ſayde: herken to ye people euery one of you. And ſo the kyng of Jſrael & Jehoſaphat the kynge of Juda went vp to Ramoth in Gilead. And the kyng of Jſrael ſayd vnto Jehoſaphat: J muſt chaunge me when J go to the battayle, but ſe that thou haue thyne owne apparell vpon the.

And the kynge of Jſraell chaunged hym ſelfe, & they came to battayle. But the kynge of Siria had cōmaunded the captaynes of the charettes that were with hym, ſaynge: ſe that ye fyght not agaynſte ſmall, or greate, ſaue agaynſt the kynge of Jſraell onely.

G And when the captaynes of the charettꝭ ſaw Jehoſaphat, they ſayd: it is the kynge of Jſrael, & therfore they compaſſed about hym to fyght. But Jehoſaphat cryed out, and the Lorde helped hym: and God chaſed them away from hym. For it came to paſſe, that whē the captaynes of the charettꝭ perceyued that it was not the kynge of Jſraell, they turned backe agayne from hym. And a certayne mā drewe a bowe with all his myght, and ſmote the kynge of Jſraell bytwene the loynes of his habergeon. And he ſayd to his charet mā: turne thyne hande, that thou mayſt cary me out of the hooſt, for J am wounded. And the battell ceaſed that daye. Howbeit the kynge of Jſrael cauſed the charet to ſtande ſtyll agaynſt the Sirians vntyll euen. And about the tyme of the ſonne goyng downe he dyed.

¶ After Jehoſaphat was rebuked by the prophet Jehu, he called agayne the people to the [illegible] of the lorde god.

CAPI. XIX.

A AND Jehoſaphat the kynge of Juda came home agayne in peace to Jeruſalem. And Jehu the ſonne of Hanani the ſear, went out to mete hym, and ſayd to kyng Jehoſaphat: Woldeſt thou helpe the vngodly, and loue them that hate the Lorde? Therfore is wrath come downe vpon the from before the Lorde. Neuertheleſſe there are ſome good actes founde in the, in that thou haſte ☞ hewen downe the groues out of the lande and haſt prepared thyne herte to ſeke God.

B And ſo Jehoſaphat dwelt at Jeruſalem, and turned and went out to the people from Beer ſeba to mount Ephraim, and brought them agayne vnto the Lorde God of theyr fathers. And he ſet Judges in the lande, thorowout all the ſtrong cityes of Juda, citye by citye, and ſayd to the Judges: take hede what ye do, for ye execute not the iudgementes of man, but of God, whiche is with you in the iudgement. Wherfore nowe let the feare of the lorde be vpon you, and take hede, and be doynge. For there is no vnryghteouſneſſe with the lorde our God * that he ſhulde haue any reſpecte of perſones, or take rewardes.

C Moreouer, in Jeruſalem dyd Jehoſaphat ſet of the Leuites, and of the preeſtes and of the auncient fathers of Iſrael, in the iudgement and cauſe of the Lorde. And they returned agayne to Jeruſalem. And he charged them, ſaynge. Thus ſhal ye do in the feare of the Lorde, with the truthe and a pure herte: What cauſe ſoeuer come to you of your brethren that dwel in theyr cities, bitwene blood & blood, bytwene lawe and cõmaundement, bytwene ſtatutes and ordinaunces, ye ſhall warne them, that they treſpaſſe not agaynſte the Lorde, and ſo wrath come vpon you and on your brethren.

D Thus do, and ye ſhall not offende. And beholde, Amaria the hygh preeſt is amonge you in all matters of the Lorde, and Zebadia the ſon of Iſmael, a ruler of the houſe of Juda, he is ouer ſuche buſyneſſes as cõcerne the kynge: there be offycers of the Leuites alſo before you. Take courage to you therfore, and be doynge manfully: and the lorde ſhall be with ſuche as be good.

¶ The merueylous victorye that the lorde gaue Jehoſaphat kynge of Juda agaynſte the Moabites, and the Chyldren of Ammon, and them of Seir.

CAPI XX.

A After this alſo it fortuned, that the chyldren of Moab & the chyldren of Ammõ and with them other of the Ammonites came agaynſt Jehoſaphat to battayle. And there came ſome that tolde Jehoſaphat, ſayenge: there cometh a great multitude agaynſt the from the other ſyde the ſee, and out of Siria. And beholde, they be in Haſaſon Thamar, whiche is Engadi. And Jehoſaphat feared, and ſet hym ſelfe to ſeke the Lorde, and proclamed faſtynge thorowout all Juda. And they that were in Juda, gathered them ſelues togyther, to aſke counſayle of the Lorde.

B And they came out of al the cityes of Juda to make interceſſyon to the Lorde. And Jehoſaphat ſtode bytwene the congregacyon of Juda and Jeruſalem in the houſe of the lord before the newe courte, and ſayde: O Lorde God of our fathers, arte not thou god in heuen, & reygneſt not thou on al the kyngdoms of the hethen? And in thyne hande is power & myght, and there is no man that is able to withſtand the. Arte not thou our God: which dydeſt caſt out the enhabitours of this lande before thy people Iſraell, and gaueſt it to the ſeed of Abraham thy louer for euer? And they dwelte therin, and haue buylte the a temple therin for thy name, ſayenge: * If euyl come vpon vs, as the ſwerde of iudgement, peſtilence or hongre: then, yf we ſtande before this houſe in thy preſence, (for thy name is in this houſe) and crye vnto the in oure tribulacion/ heare thou, and helpe. ii. Par. vi. a

C And now beholde, the chyldren of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir (by whom thou woldeſt not let them of Iſrael go, when they came out of the lande of Egypte: but they departed from them, and deſtroyed them not,) Se, how they rewarde vs, to come for to caſt vs out of thy poſſeſſyon, which thou haſt gyuen vs to enherite. O our god, wylt thou not iudge them / for we haue no myght agaynſte this great company that cometh agaynſt vs. Neyther wote we what to do: but our eyes be vnto the. And all Juda ſtode before the lorde with theyr yong ones, theyr wyues and theyr chyldren: & there was Jehaſiel the ſon of Zacharia, the ſon of Benaia, the ſon of Jeiel, the ſon of Mathania, a Leuite of the ſonnes of Aſaph, & vpõ hym came the ſpirite of the lorde, euen in the myddes of the cõgregacyon. And he ſayd: herken al Juda, & ye enhabitours of Jeruſalem, & thou kyng Jehoſaphat: Thus ſayth the lorde vnto you: be not afrayde, nor faynte herted by reaſon of this great multitude, for the battayle is not yours, but gods.

D To morowe go ye downe agaynſte them: for they come vp at Ziz, and ye ſhall fynde them at the ende of the broke before the wyldernesse of Jeruel. Ye ſhall not nede to fyght in this battayle: but ſtep forth and ſtande, &

beholde the helpe of the Lorde which is with you: feare not, nor let your hertes fayle you, O ye of Juda and of Jeruſalem. To morow go out agaynſt them: for the lorde wyll be w̄ you. And Jehoſaphat bowed his face to the earth, and all Juda and the enhabitoures of Jeruſalem fel before the lorde, worſhyppyng the lorde. And the Leuites of the chyldren of the Cahathites and of the chyldren of the Corahites ſtode vp, to prayſe the Lorde God of Iſraell with a loude voyce on hye. And when they aroſe early in the mornynge, they gatte them out vnto the wylderneſſe of Thekoa.

E And as they went out, Jehoſaphat ſtode, ⁊ ſayd: heare me O Juda, ⁊ ye enhabitoures of Jeruſalem. Put your truſte in the Lorde your God, that ye may be founde faythfull. Gyue credence to his prophettes, and ſo ſhall ye proſpere. And he gaue the people counſell, and ſet ſome to ſynge vnto the Lorde, and to prayſe hym in the beautie and holyneſſe, and to go out before the armye (as they went) and to ſay: prayſe the Lorde, for his mercy laſteth euer. And what tyme as they began to laude and prayſe, then the lorde ſtyrred vp certayne of the chyldren of Ammon and Moab, which layde wayte for them that were of Mounte Seir: whiche were come agaynſt Juda. And they were ouerthrowen with ſtrokes among them ſelues. For the chyldren of Ammon and Moab roſe agaynſt the enhabiters of mount Seir. And they ſlue and deſtroyed them. And when they had made an ende of the enhabitours of Seir, euery one helped to deſtroy another amonge them ſelues.

F And when Juda came to the edge of the wylderneſſe, they loked vnto the multitude. And beholde they were dead carcaſſes fallen to the earth, ⁊ none eſcaped. And when Jeoſaphat and his people came to take away the ſpoyle of them, they founde amonge them abundaunce of goodes, rayment ⁊ pleaſaunt Juels, which they toke for them ſelues, more then they coulde cary away: ſo that they were thre dayes in gatheryng of the ſpoyle, it was ſo moche. And the fourth day they aſſembled in the valley of bleſſing, for there they bleſſed the Lorde. And therfore they called the name of the ſame place: the valley of bleſſyng vnto this day. And ſo all the men of Juda ⁊ Jeruſalem returned with Jehoſaphat theyr heade for to go agayne to Jeruſalem with gladnes: for the Lorde had made them to reioyſe ouer theyr enemyes. And they came to Jeruſalem with pſaltryes and harpes, ⁊ ſhaulmes: euen vnto the houſe of the Lorde. And the feare of god fel in the kyngdomes of al landes, when they had herde that the lorde fought agaynſt the enemyes of Iſraell. And ſo the realme of Jehoſaphat was in tranquilytie: and his god gaue hym reſt on euery ſyde.

And * Jehoſaphat reygned vpon Juda ⁊ G was .xxxv. yere olde whē he began to reygne and reygned .xxv. yere in Jeruſalem. And his mothers name was Aſuba the doughter of Silhi. And he walked in the way of Aſa his father and bowed not therfrom, doynge that whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde. Howbeit the hyll aulters were not taken away, for the peple had not yet prepared theyr hertes vnto the God of theyr fathers. The reſt of the actes of Jeoſaphat fyrſt and laſt, beholde they are wrytten among the ſayenges of Jehu the ſonne of Hanani, whiche noted them in the boke of the kynges of Iſrael.

After this dyd Jeoſaphat kyng of Juda ioyne hym ſelfe with Ahaziahu kynge of Iſraell, whoſe mynde was to do wyckedly. He coupled hym ſelfe with hym, to make ſhyppes to go to Tharſis. And they made the ſhyppes in Ezion Gaber. And Eliezer the ſon of Dodanah of Mareſa propheſied agaynſt Jehoſaphat, ſaynge: bycauſe thou haſt ioyned thy ſelfe with Ahaziahu, the Lorde hath broken thy workes. And the ſhyppes were broken, that they were not able to go to Tharſis.

¶ Jehoſaphat dyeth, and Jehoram ſuccedeth hym, which putteth his brethren to death, ⁊ is oppreſſed of the Philiſtines, and dyeth of the Flyxe.

CAPI. XXI.

A Jehoſaphat alſo * ſlepte with his fathers, ⁊ was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid, and Jehoram his ſon reygned in his ſteade: and he had brethren which were the ſonnes of Jehoſaphat: Aſaria, Jehiel, Zacharia, Aſaria, Michael, and Sephatiahu. All theſe were the ſonnes of Jehoſaphat kynge of Juda. And theyr father gaue them many great gyftes of golde, and ſyluer, and other ſpecyal ſubſtaunce, with ſtronge cityes in Juda: But the kyngdome gaue he to Jehoram, for he was the eldeſt. And Jehoram aroſe vp agaynſt the kyngdom of his father and preuayled, and * ſlue al his brethren with the ſwerde, and dyuers of the Lordes of Iſraell. * Jehoram was two and thyrtye yere olde when he began to reygne, ⁊ he reygned eyght yere in Jeruſalem.

B And he walked in the way of the kynges of Iſraell, lyke as dyd the houſe of Ahab (for he had the doughter of Ahab to wyfe) and he wroughte euyll in the eyes of the Lorde. Howbeit the Lorde wolde not deſtroye the houſe of Dauid, bycauſe of the * couenaunt that he had made with Dauid, as he promyſed to gyue a lyght to hym, and to his ſonnes for euer. * In his dayes the Edomites rebelled, when they were vnder the dominion of Juda, and made them ſelues a kyng. And Jehoram went forth with his lordes, and all his charettes were with hym: and aroſe vp by nyght, and ſmote the Edomites, whiche compaſſed hym in, and the captaynes of the charettes. But Edom rebelled ſtyll, ſo that they wolde not be vnder the hande of Juda vnto this daye.

That ſame tyme alſo dyd Libna departe from beyng vnder his hande, bycauſe Jehoram had forſaken the Lorde God of his fathers. C Moreouer, he made hyll aulters in the cytyes of Juda, & cauſed the enhabitours of Jeruſalem to commyt fornicacyon, and prouoked Juda to Idolatrie. And there came a wrytyng to hym from Elia the prophet, ſayenge. Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Dauid thy father: bycauſe thou haſt not walked in the wayes of Jehoſaphat thy father, and in the wayes of Aſa kynge of Juda, but walkedſt in the wayes of the kynges of Iſrael, & haſt made Juda & the dwellers of Jeruſalem to go a hooryng, lyke to the hooredome of the houſe of Ahab, & haſt ſlayne thy brethren (euē thy fathers houſe) whiche were better then yͧ: Beholde, with a great plage wyll the Lorde ſmyte thy folke, thy chyldren, thy wyues and thy goodes. And yͧ ſhalte ſuffre great payne: euen a diſeaſe of thy bowels, vntyl thy guttes fal out by reaſon of thy ſyckenes, day by day.

D And ſo the Lorde ſtyrred vp agaynſt Jehoram the ſpirite of the Philiſtines, the Arabians that were beſyde the blacke Moores. And they came vp into Juda, & waſted it, & caried away al the ſubſtaūce that was founde in the kynges houſe, and his ſonnes, and his wyues: ſo that there was neuer a ſonne lefte hym, ſaue Jehoahaz whiche was the yongeſt among his ſonnes. And after all theſe thynges, the lorde ſmote hym in his bowels with an vncurable diſeaſe. And it came to paſſe, that in proceſſe of tyme (euen after the ende of .ii. yere) his guttes fell out in his ſyckenes: & ſo he dyed of very euyll dyſeaſes. And they E made no ☞ burnynge for hym lyke the burnynge of his fathers. When he began to reygne, he was .xxxii. yere olde, and reygned in Jeruſalem .viii. yere, and lyued wretchedly: Howbeit they buryed hym in the cytye of Dauid: but not amonge the Sepulchres of the kynges.

¶ Ahaziahu reygneth in the rowme of Jehoram. Jehu kynge of Iſrael kylleth Ahaziahu. Athalia putteth to death all the kynges yſſue, onely Joas eſcapeth.

CAPI. XXII.

AND * the enhabitoures of Jeruſalem made Ahaziahu his yonge ſon kyng in his ſteade. For the men of warre * that came wyth the hooſt of the Arabians, had ſlayne al his eldeſt ſonnes. And ſo Ahaziahu the ſon of Jehorā kyng of Juda, was made kynge. ☞ Xlii. yere olde was he, when he began to reygne, & he reygned one yere in Jeruſalem. His mothers name was Athalia the doughter of Amri. And he walked alſo in the wayes of the houſe of Ahab, for his mother (by her coūſayle) entyſed hym to do wyckedly. Wherfore he dyd that which was euyl in the ſyght of the lorde, as dyd they that were of the houſe of Ahab: for they were his coūſaylours after the death of his father, to his deſtruccion.

4.Reg.8.d. A 4.Pa.xxi.b ☞

B And he walked after theyr counſayle, and went with Jehorā ſon of Ahab kynge of Iſrael, to fyght agaynſt Hazael kyng of Siria at Ramoth in Gilead: & the Sirians ſmote Jorā. And he returned to be healed in Jezreel of the woundes whiche were gyuen hym at Rama, when he fought with Hazael kyng of Siria. And Ahaziahu the ſon of Jehorā king of Juda went downe to ſe Jehoram the ſon of Ahab at Jezreel, bycauſe he was diſeaſed. And it came of God, that Ahaziahu ſhulde be deſpyſed for his comyng to Jehorā: for when he was come, he went out wyth Jehorā agaynſt Jehu the ſonne of Nimſi, * whom the Lorde had anoynted to deſtroy the houſe of Ahab. 4.Reg.9.b

C And ſo it came to paſſe that whē Jehu was executyng iuſtice vpon the houſe of Ahab, & had founde the lordes of Juda & the ſonnes of the brethren of Ahaziahu that wayted on Ahaziahu, he ſlue them. * And he ſought Ahaziahu, & they caught hym where he was hyd in Samaria, and brought hym to Jehu. And when they had ſlayne hym, the buryed hym: Bycauſe (ſayd they) he is the ſon of Jehoſaphat, which ſought the lorde with al his hert. And the houſe of Ahaziahu had no power to kepe ſtyll the kyngdome. * But when Athalia the mother of Ahaziahu, ſawe that her ſon was dead, ſhe aroſe & deſtroye all the kynges ſeed in the kynred of the houſe of Juda. And Jehoſabeath the doughter of the kyng, toke Joas the ſon of Ahaziahu, & ſtale hym from among the kynges ſonnes that were ſlayne, & put hym and his nurce in a pryuy chambre. And ſo Jehoſabeath the doughter of kynge Jehoram, the wyfe of Jehoiada the preeſt, & the ſyſter of Ahaziahu hyd hym fro Athalia that he was not ſlayne. And ſo he was with them hyd in the houſe of God ſyxe yere. And Athalia reygned ouer the lande.

AND * in the ſeuenth yere Jehoiada beynge bolde, toke the captaynes of hundredes, Azariahu the ſon of Jeroham, & Jſmael the ſonne of Jehohanam, Azariahu the ſonne of Obed, Maaſiahu the ſon of Adaiahu, and Eliſaphat the ſonne of Zichri, and made a bonde with them. And they wente aboute in Juda, and gathered the Leuites out of all the cityes of Juda, and the auncient fathers of Jſrael: and they came to Jeruſalem. And al the congregacion made a bonde with the kynge in the houſe of God. And he ſayde vnto them: beholde, the kynges ſonne muſte reygne, * as the lorde hath ſayde of the chyldren of Dauid.

B This is it therfore that ye ſhall do: The thyrde parte of you ſhall (on the Sabboth) come to the preeſtes, Leuites, and kepers of the porches: And an other thyrde parte ſhall be by the kynges houſe, and an other thyrde parte ſhall be at the gate of the foundacion, & all the people ſhall be in the * courtes of the houſe of the Lorde. But there ſhal none come into the houſe of the lorde, ſaue the preeſtes, & they that miniſtre vnto the Leuites: They ſhal go in, for they are holy: but al the people ſhal kepe the watche of the Lorde. And the Leuites ſhall compaſſe the kyng rounde aboute, and euery man ſhall haue his weapon in his hande: and what other mā ſoeuer doth come into the houſe of the Lorde, he ſhal be ſleyne: & let them be with the kyng, when he cometh in, and when he goeth out. And the Leuites & all Juda dyd accordynge to all thynges that Jehoiada the preeſt had commaunded, & toke euery man his men, that came in on the Sabboth, with them that wente out on the Sabboth day: neyther did Jehoiada the preeſt let the companies departe.

C And Jehoiada the Preeſt delyuered to the captaynes of hundredes, ſpeares, ſheldes and bucklers, that had perteyned to kynge Dauid, and were in the houſe of god. And he ſet al the people, euery man hauyng his weapon in his hande, from the ryght ſyde of the temple to the lefte ſyde of the temple, alonge by the aulter, & the temple, rounde about the kynge. And they brought out the kynges ſon and put vpon hym the crowne, and ☞ * the teſtimonye, ✿ (and they gaue hym in his hande, the lawe that was to be kepte.) and made hym kynge. And Jehoiada & his ſonnes annoynted hym and ſayde: God ſaue the kynge.

When Athalia herde the noyſe of the people, cummyng & prayſynge the kynge, ſhe came to the people in to the houſe of the Lorde. And ſhe loked, and beholde, the kynge ſtode in his place at the entrynge in, and the Lordes, and the trompettes were by the kyng, and all the people of the lande reioyſed, blowynge with trompettes, and dyd play with inſtrumentes of muſyke, and taught to ſynge and prayſe.

D But Athalia rent her clothes, and ſayde: treaſon, treaſon. And Jehoiada the Preeſt went out to the captaynes of hundredes that were gouernours of the hooſt, and ſayde vnto them: haue her out without the dore of the temple: and who ſo foloweth her, let hym be ſleyne with the ſwerd. For the preeſt ſayd that they ſhuld not ſley her in the houſe of the lord. And they layde handes on her, tyll ſhe was come to the entryng of the horſe gate beſyde the kynges houſe, and there they ſlue her.

* And Jehoiada made a bonde bytwene hym and all the people & the kynge, that they ſhulde be the lordes people. And all the people went to the houſe of Baal, and deſtroyed it, and brake his aulters and his ymages, & ſlue Mathan the Preeſt of Baal before the aulters. And Jehoiada put the offices for the houſe of the lorde vnder the hande of the preeſtes and Leuites, * as Dauid had diſtributed them in the houſe of the Lorde, to offer burnte offerynges vnto the Lorde/ * as it is wrytten in the law of Moſes, with reioyſyng and ſyngyng, as it was ordeyned by Dauid. And he ſet porters by the gates of the houſe of the Lorde, that none whiche was vncleane in any thyng ſhulde entre in. And he toke the captaynes of hundredes, and all the nobles, and the gouernours of the people, and al the folke of the lande, & cauſed the kyng to come downe out of the houſe of the lorde, and they came thorowe the hyghe gate in to the kynges houſe, and ſet the kyng vpon the ſeate of the kyngdome. And all the people of the lande reioyſed, and the cytye was in tranquilite, after that they had ſleyne Athalia with the ſwerde.

CAPI. XXIIII.

JOas was ſeuen yere olde when he began to reygne, * and he reygned fourtye yere in Jeruſalē. His mothers name alſo was Zibia of Berſeba. And Joas dyd that whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde all the dayes of Jehoiada the preeſt. And Jehoiada toke hym two wyues, and he begat ſonnes & doughters. And it chaunſed after this, that Joas was mynded, to renew the houſe of the Lorde and he gathered togyther the preeſtes and the Leuites, and ſayde to them: go out vnto the cytyes of Juda, and gather of al Iſraell money, to repayre the houſe of your god from yere to yere: & ſe that ye haſt the thynge: howbeit the Leuites were ſlacke.

B And the kynge called Jehoiada that was the cheyfeſt and ſayde vnto hym: why requyreſt thou not of the Leuites to brynge in, out of Juda and Jeruſalem, * the collectyon of money, accordynge to the cõmaundement of Moſes the ſeruaunt of the lorde, and the congregacion of Iſrael ſhulde offre it for the tabernacle of wytneſſe. For wycked Athalia and her chyldren brake vp the houſe of god/ and all the thyngꝭ that were dedicate for the houſe of the Lorde, dyd they beſtow for Baalim. And at the kyngꝭ cõmaundement, * they made a chyſt, and ſet it without at the gate of the houſe of the Lorde: and made proclamacyon thorowe Juda & Jeruſalem, to brynge vnto the Lorde * the taxacyon of money, that Moſes the ſeruaunt of god ſet vpon Iſraell in the wyldernеſſe. And the lordes and al the peple reioyſed, and brought in, and caſt in to the chyſt, vntyll it was full.

C And it fortuned, that at the ſame tyme they brought the chyſt (vnto them whiche were in the kynges buſyneſſe) by the hande of the Leuites: And when they ſawe that there was moche money, the kynges Scrybe (and one apoynted by the hygh preeſt) came & emptied the chyſt, and toke it, & caryed it to his place agayne: thus they dyd day by daye, & gathered moche money. And the kynge and Jehoiada gaue it to ſoche as dyd the laboure and worke in the houſe of the lorde, and hyred maſons and carpenters to repayre the houſe of the Lorde, and ſo dyd they artifycers in yron and braſſe, to mende the houſe of the Lorde.

D And ſo the workemen wrought, and the worke mended thorowe theyr handes, & they made the houſe of god as it ought to be, and ſtrengthed it. And when they had finiſhed it/ they brought the reſt of the money before the kynge & Jehoiada, and therwith were made veſſels for the houſe of the Lorde: euen veſſels to mynyſter withall, & to ſerue for burnt offerynges: chargers and ſpones, veſſels of golde and ſyluer. And they offered burntofferynges in the houſe of the lorde continuallye all the dayes of Jehoiada. But Jeoiada wared olde, and dyed full of dayes. For an hundred and xxx. yere olde was he when he dyed,

E And they buryed hym in the cytye of Dauid amonge the kynges, bycauſe he delt well with Iſrael, and with God & with his houſe.

And after the death of Jehoiada, came the lordes of Juda, and made obeyſaunce to the kynge. And the kynge herkened vnto them. And ſo they lefte the houſe of the Lorde God of theyr fathers, and ſerued groues & ydols. And then came the wrath of God vpon Juda and Jeruſalem, for this theyr treſpaſſes ſake. And he ſent Prophetꝭ to them to bryng them agayne vnto the Lorde. And they teſtyfyed vnto them: But they wolde not heare. And the ſpiryte of god came vpon Zacharia the ſonne of Jehoiada the Preeſt, which ſtode by the people, and ſayde vnto them: Thus ſayth god: why tranſgreſſe ye the cõmaundementes of the lorde, that ye can not proſpere?

F For bycauſe ye haue forſaken the Lorde, he alſo hath forſaken you. * And they conſpyred agaynſt hym, and ſtoned hym with ſtones, at the cõmaundement of the kyng: euen in the courte of the houſe of the lorde. And ſo Joas the kynge remembred not the kyndneſſe whiche Jehoiada his father had done to hym, but ſlue his ſon. And when he dyed/ he ſayde: the Lorde loke vpon it, and requyre it. And when the yeare was out, it fortuned/ that the hooſt of Siria came vp agaynſt hym: and they came agaynſt Juda & Jeruſalem/ and deſtroyed all the Lordes of the people from amonge the people, & ſent all the ſpoyle of them vnto the kynge to Damaſco.

Math. 23. d

For the Sirians came with a ſmall companye of men, and the Lorde delyuered a very great hooſt into theyr hande, bycauſe they had forſaken the Lorde god of theyr fathers. And moreouer they ſerued Joas accordynge.

G And when they were departed from hym, they lefte hym in great dyſeaſes: & * his owne ſeruauntꝭ cõſpired agaynſt him for the blode of the chyldren of Jehoiada the Preeſt, & ſlue hym on his bed, and he dyed, and they buried hym in the cytye of Dauid: but not in the ſepulchres of the kynges. And theſe are they that conſpyred agaynſt him: Zebad the ſonne of Simeath an Ammonite, and Jehoſabad the Sonne of Simrith a Moabite. And his ſonnes, and the ſumme of the taxe that was rayſed in his tyme, and the repayrynge of the houſe of God, beholde, they are wrytten in the ſtorye of the booke of the kynges. whiche is ryght in the ſyght of the lorde: but not with a perfyte herte. And as ſoone as he was ſetled in the kyngdome, he ſlue his ſeruauntes, that had kylled the kyng his father But he ſlue not theyr chyldren, bycauſe it is wrytten thus in the lawe/ ⁊ boke of Moſes/ where the Lorde cōmaunded, ſaynge:

B Deut. 24. c. 4 Re. xiiii. b. Iere. xxxi. e. Ezech. 18. c. * The fathers ſhall not dye for the chyldren, neyther ſhal the chyldren dye for the fathers, but euerye man ſhall dye for his owne ſyn: And Amaziahu gathered Iuda togyther and made them captaynes ouer thouſandes and ouer hundreds, accordyng to the houſes of theyr Fathers, throwout all Iuda, and Beniamin. And he nombred them from .xx. yeare olde, and aboue: and founde amonge them, thre hundred thouſande choſen men/ able to goo to battayle, ⁊ that coulde handle ſpeare and ſhelde. He hyred alſo an hundred thouſande ſtronge fyghtyng men out of Iſraell, for an hundred talentes of ſyluer.

C And there came a man of god to hym, and ſayde: O kynge, let not the armye of Iſraell come with the: for the lorde is not with Iſraell, neyther with all the houſe of Ephraim. But yf thou wylt nedes be faythleſſe, come on, and take the battayle in hande, and God ſhall make the fall before the enemye. For god hath power to helpe, and to caſt downe. And Amaziahu ſayd to the man of god: what ſhall we do then; for the hundred talentes/ whiche I haue gyuen for the hooſt of Iſraele The man of god anſwered: the Lorde is able to gyue the moche more then they be. And Amaziahu ſeuered them to the armye that was come to hym out of Ephraim, to go home agayne. Wherfore they were excedyng wroth with Iuda, ⁊ returned home in great angre.

D And Amaziahu toke herte and caryed out his people, and went to the ſalte valley, and 4 Re. xiiii. b. * ſmote of the chyldren of Seir ten. M. And other ten. M. dyd the chyldren of Iuda take alyue, ⁊ caryed them vnto the top of a rocke/ ⁊ caſt them downe from the top of the rocke, that they all to braſte: But the ſouldyers of the armye whiche Amaziahu ſent away, that they ſhuld not go with his peple to battayle, fell vpon the cityes of Iuda, from Samaria vnto Bethhoron, and ſmote thre thouſande of them, and toke moch ſpoyle.

And it chaūced, after that Amaziahu was come from the ſlaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the chyldren of Seir, and ſet them vp to be his Gods, and bowed hym ſelfe before them, and burned cenſe vnto them. Wherfore the lorde was wroth with Amaziahu ⁊ ſent vnto hym a prophet, which ſayde vnto hym: why haſt thou ſought the gods of the people, whiche were not able to delyuer theyr owne peple out of thyne hande? And it chaunced, that as the Prophet talked with hym, the kynge ſayde vnto hym: haue men made the of the kyngs counſayle? ceaſe, why wylt thou be beaten? And the Prophet ceaſed, and ſayd: I am ſure that god is mynded to deſtroye the, bycauſe thou haſte done this, and agreeſt not vnto my counſayle.

* Then Amaziahu kynge of Iuda toke 4 Re. E aduyſe, and ſent to Ioas the ſonne of Iehoahaz the ſonne of Iehu kynge of Iſraell, and ſayde: come, that we maye ſe eyther other. And Ioas kynge of Iſraell ſent to Amaziahu kynge of Iuda, ſayenge: a thyſtle that is in Libanon, ſente to a Cedar tree of Libanō, ſayenge: * gyue thy doughter to my ſonne to 4 Re. Iudic. 4 Eſ. wyfe. And there came a wylde beaſt of Libanon, and trode downe the thyſtle. Thou ſayſt that thou haſt beaten the Edomites, ⁊ thyne herte maketh the proude, to glorify thy ſelfe. Now therfore byde at home: why doeſt thou prouoke vnto euyl, that thou mayſt peryſhe, bothe thou, and Iuda with the?

F But Amaziahu wolde not herken to him: for it came of god, euen to deliuer them in to the hande of theyr enemyes, bycauſe they ſought cōſayle at the gods of Edom. And ſo Ioas the kynge of Iſraell came vp: and they ſawe eyther other, bothe he and Amaziahu kynge of Iuda at Bethſames whiche is in Iuda. And Iuda was put to the worſe before Iſrael ⁊ they fled euery man to his tent. And Ioas the kynge of Iſraell toke Amaziahu kynge of Iuda the ſonne of Ioahas the Sonne of Iehoahas at Bethſames: and brought hym to Ieruſalem, and tare the walle of Ieruſalem (from the gate of Ephraim vnto the gate that was ouer agaynſt it) foure hundred cubytes. And he toke alſo al the golde ⁊ ſyluer/ ⁊ al the Iuels that were founde in the houſe G of God with Obed Edom, and the treaſures of the kynges houſe, and the yonge wardes, and returned to Samaria.

And Amaziahu the ſonne of Ioas kynge of Iuda lyued after the death of Ioas ſonne of Iehoahaz kynge of Iſraell fyftye yeare. The reſt of the actes of Amaziahu fyrſt and laſt, are they not wrytten in the booke of the kynges of Iuda and Iſraell? And after the tyme that Amaziahu dyd turne away frō the lorde, * they conſpyred treaſon agaynſt hym in Ieruſalem: ⁊ when he was fled to Lachis they ſent to Lachis after him, ⁊ ſlue him there and brought him vp with horſes, and buryed hym with his fathers in * the citye of Iuda.

Then

¶ After the death of Amaziahu reygneth Uzia (otherwyſe called Ozia) whiche is ſtryken with the leper, and Jotham reygneth in his roume.

CAPI. XXVI.

A THen all the people of Juda toke Uzia (whiche was * ſyxtene yeare olde) and made hym kyng in the roume of his father Amaziahu. And he buylte Eloth, and brought it agayne to Juda, after the kynge was layd to ſlepe with his fathers. Syxtene yere olde was Uzia, whē he began to reygne, and he reygned .lii. yeare in Jeruſalem. His mothers name alſo was Jecholia of Jeruſalem. And he dyd that whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the lorde accordyng to al as dyd his father Amaziahu. And it came to paſſe, that he ſought god * in the dayes of Zachariahu (whiche maynteyned the feare of god) and as longe as he ſought the Lorde, God made hym to proſpere.

B And he went to battayle agaynſt the Philiſtines, and brake downe the wall of Geth/ and the wall of Jabne, & the wall of Aſdod/ and buylt cityes aboute Aſdod and amonge the Philiſtins. And god helped hym agaynſt the Philiſtines, and agaynſt the Arabians that dwelte in Gurbaal and Hammehunim. And the Ammonytes gaue tribute to Uzia, & his name ſpred abrode euen to the entryng in of Egypt: for he played the man excedyngly. Moreouer Uzia buylte towres in Jeruſalem by the corner gate, & by the valley gate/ and at the turnynge of the wall, and made them ſtronge. And he buylte towres in the wylderneſſe, and dygged many welles: For he had moche cattell, in the valleyes and playnes/ plowmen and vynedreſſers in the mountaynes, & in Charmell, for he loued huſbandrye.

C And Uzia had an hooſt of fyghtynge men that went out to warre in the armye accordynge to the nombre of their office/ vnder the hande of Jeiell the ſcrybe and Maaſiahu the ruler, and vnder the hande of Hanania/ whiche was one of the kynges Lordes. And the hole nombre of the auncyent fathers, and of the men of myght were two thouſand and ſyx hundred, and vnder the hande of them was the armye of the men of war, euen thre hundred and ſeuen thouſande, and fyue hundred that made war with the power of an armye, helpyng the kyng agaynſt the enemyes.

And Uzia prouyded them thorowout all the hooſt, ſheldes, ſpeares, helmettes, habergeons, bowes and ſlynges for to caſt ſtones. And he made ſubtel engynnes in Jeruſalem, whiche he inuented and layde on the towres and corners, to ſhute arowes & greate ſtones with all. And his name ſpred far abrode, bycauſe he was helped ſo excellently, ſo that he became very myghtye. But in his ſtrength/ his herte aroſe to his deſtructiō: for he tranſgreſſed agaynſt the lorde his god, & went into the temple of the Lorde, to burne cenſe vpon the aulter of incenſe. And Azariahu the preeſt went in after hym, and with hym foure ſcore preeſtes of the lorde that were valeaunt men. And they ſtode by Uzia the kynge, & ſayd vnto hym: * It perteyneth not to the Uzia/ to burne cenſe vnto the lorde, but to the preeſtes the chyldren of Aaron, that are conſecrate for to offre incenſe. Come therfore out of the ſanctuarye, for thou haſt treſpaſſed, and it is no worſhyp to the before the lorde god. Nume.18.b

D And Uzia was wroth, & had cenſe in his hande to burne it: & ſo whyle he had indygnacyon agaynſt the Preeſtes, * the leproſye ſprange in his forheade before the Preeſtes in the houſe of the Lorde, euen beſyde the incenſe aulter. And Azariahu the cheyfe preeſt with all the other Preeſtes loked vpon hym: and beholde, he was become a Leper in his forheade, and they vexed hym thence. And he was fayne to go out, bycauſe the Lorde had ſmytten hym. And Uzia the kynge cōtynued a leper vnto the daye of his death, and dwelt ſeuerall in a houſe beynge a leper and ſhutte out of the houſe of the lord. And Jotham his ſonne had the gouernaunce of the kynges houſe, and iudged the people of the land. The reſt of the actes of Uzia fyrſt & laſt/ dyd Iſai the prophet the ſonne of Amos, wryte. And ſo Uzia ſlept with his fathers, and they buryed hym with his fathers in the felde of the buryall which was beſyde the ſepulchres of the kynges. For they ſayde: he is a leper. And Jotham his ſonne reygned in his ſteade. 4.Reg.15.a

CAPI. XXVII.

A JOtham was fyue and twentye yere olde/ when he * began to reygne, and reygned ſyxtene yeare in Jeruſalem. His mothers name alſo was Jeruſa the doughter of Zadoc. And he dyd that which was ryght in the ſyght of the lorde/ in all poyntes as dyd his father Uzia: ſaue that ☞ he came not into the temple of the Lorde, and the people dyd yet wyckedly. 4.Reg.15.d

B He buylte the hygh gate of the temple of the lorde, and on the wall (where the houſe of ordynaunce was) he buylte moch. Moreouer he buylte cityes in the mountaynes of Juda, and in the wood countrey he buylt caſtels, and towres. He fought w̄ the kyng of the chyldren of Ammon, & preuayled agaynſt them. And the chyldren of Ammon gaue hym the ſame yeare an hundred talentes of ſyluer, and ten thouſande quarters of wheate, and ten thouſande of barley. So moche dyd the chyldren of Ammon gyue hym the ſeconde yere and the thyrde alſo.

C So Jotham became myghtye, bycauſe he directed his wayes before the Lorde his God. The reſt of the actes of Jotham and all his warres, & his conuerſacion, lo, they are wrytten in the boke of the kynges of Iſraell, and Juda. He was .xxv. yere olde when he began to reygne, and reygned ſyxtene yere in Jeruſalem. And Jotham ſlepte with his fathers, and they buryed hym in the cytye of Dauid: and Ahaz his ſonne reygned in his ſteade.

CAPI. XXVIII.

A 4.Reg.xvi.a Ahaz was * twentye yeare olde when he began to reygne, and reygned ſyxtene yere in Jeruſalem, and he dyd not that whiche is ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde, as dyd his father Dauid: For he walked in the wayes of the kynges of Iſraell, and made molten ymages for Baalim. He offered incenſe in the valley of the ſonne of Hinnom/ and Deute.12.b 4.Re.xxi.a * burnt his chyldren in fyre after the abhomynacyons of the Heathen, whome the lorde caſt out before the Chyldren of Iſraell. He offred alſo, & burnte incence in hylaulters and on mountaynes/ and vnder euery grene tre. 4.Re.xvi.a. Eſai.vii.c. * Wherfore the lorde his god delyuered hym into the hande of the kynge of the Sirians whiche bet hym, and caryed awaye a great multitude of his captiue, and brought them to Damaſco. And he was delyuered into the hande of the kynge of Iſraell, whiche ſmote hym with a great ſlaughter. For Pekah the ſonne of Remaliahu ſlue in Juda an C. and twentye thouſand in one day, whiche were all fyghtynge men, & that bycauſe they had forſaken the lorde god of theyr fatherys. And Zichri a myghtye man of Ephraim ſlue Maaſiahu the kynges ſonne, and Aſrica the gouernoure of the houſe, & Elcana that was nexte to the kynge.

B And the Chyldren of Iſraell toke pryſoners of theyr brethren, CC. thouſande women, ſonnes, & doughters, and caryed awaye moch ſpoyle of them, and brought the ſpoyle to Samaria. But there was a prophet of the Lordes (whoſe name was Obed) & he went out before the hooſt that came to Samaria/ and ſayde vnto them: Beholde, bycauſe the Lorde God of youre Fathers is wroth with Juda, he hath delyuered them in to youre hande. And ye haue ſlayne them with cruelneſſe, that reacheth vp to heuen. And now ye purpoſe to kepe vnder the chyldren of Juda and Jeruſalem, and to make them bondmen and bondwomen. And do ye not lade youre ſelues with ſyn in the ſyght of the lorde your God? Nowe heare me therfore, and delyuer the captyues agayne whiche ye haue taken of your brethren: for els ſhall the great wrath of God be vpon you. Wherfore, certayne of the heades of the Chyldren of Ephraim, as Azaria the ſonne of Jehohanan, Berechiahu the ſonne of Meſillemoth, and Jehezkiahu the ſonne of Sallum, and Amaſa the ſonne of Hadlai, ſtode vp agaynſt them that came from the war, and ſayde vnto them: brynge not in the captyues hyther.

C For where as we haue offended towarde god all redye, ye entende to adde more to our ſynnes & treſpaſſe. For our treſpaſſe is great all redye, and there is a fearce wrath agaynſt Iſraell. And vpon that the men of armes lefte the captyues/ and the ſpoyle before the Lordes and all the congregacyon. And the men that were nowe rehearced by name, roſe vp & toke the pryſones, and (with the ſpoyle) clothed all that were naked amonge them/ and arayde them, and ſhoed them, and gaue them to eate & to drynke, and anoynted them, and caryed all that were feble of them vpon Aſſes, and brought them to Jerico (the cytye of Paulme trees) to theyr brethren: and then they returned to Samaria agayne.

* At that ſame tyme dyd kyng Ahaz ſende .Re.xvi vnto the kynges of Aſſur, to haue helpe of them. And the Edomites came agayne, and ſlue ſome of Juda, and caryed awaye captyues. And the Philiſtines inuaded the cytyes in the lowe countrey, and towarde the ſouth of Juda: and toke Bethſames, and Aialon/ and Gederoth, and Socho with the townes longyng therto, and Thimna with the townes of the ſame: Gimſo, and the townes therof, and dwelte there. For the Lorde brought Juda lowe, bycauſe of Ahaz kynge of Juda, whiche made Juda naked, and tranſgreſſed ſore agaynſt the Lorde.

D And Thilgath pylneſer kynge of the Aſſirians came vpon hym, and beſeyged hym, and he was not myghtye ynough for hym. For Ahaz toke awaye a porcyon oute of the houſe of the Lorde, and oute of the kynges houſe, and out of the lordes houſes and gaue vnto the kynge of the Aſſiryans: and yet it helped hym not. And in the verye tyme of his tribulacion dyd kynge Ahaz treſpaſſe yet more agaynſt the Lorde. For he offered vnto the Gods of them of Damaſco, whiche bette hym, and he ſayde: bycauſe the Gods of the kynges of Siria helpe them, therfore wyl I offer to them, that they maye helpe me alſo. But they were his deſtruction, & the deſtruccyon of all Iſraell. And Ahaz gathered togyther the veſſels of the houſe of God, & brake them, and * ſhut vp the dores of the houſe of the Lorde, and made hym * aulters in euery corner of Ieruſalem. And in all the cityes of Iuda he made hyll aulters, to burne incenſe vnto other Gods, and angred the Lorde god of his fathers. ¶ The reſt of his actes and his workes fyrſt and laſt: beholde, they are wrytten in the booke of the kynges of Iuda and Iſraell. And Ahaz ſlepte with his fathers, & they buryed hym in the citye of Ieruſalem: but brought hym not vnto the ſepulchres of the kynges of Iuda. And Hezekia his ſonne reygned in his ſteade.

¶ Hezekia (otherwyſe called Ezechias, or Iehizkiiahu) reſtoreth vnto the temple of the Lorde all the thynges that had not ben regarded of his predeceſſours.

CAPI. XXIX.

A HEzekia began to reygne, when he was fyue and twentye yeare olde, and reygned nyne and twentye yeare in Ieruſalem. And his mothers name was Abia the doughter of Zachariahu, and he dyd that, whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde, in all poyntes as dyd Dauid his father. He * opened the dores of the houſe of the Lorde (in the fyrſt yere & fyrſt moneth of his reygne) and repayred them. And he brought in the preeſtes and the Leuites, and gathered them togyther into the Eaſt ſtrete: and ſayde vnto them: Heare me ye Leuites, & nowe be ſanctifyed, and halowe the houſe of the lorde God of your fathers, and brynge fylthyneſſe out of the holy place. For oure fathers haue treſpaſſed, and done euyll in the eyes of the lorde our God: and haue forſaken hym, and turned awaye theyr faces from the habitacyon of the lorde, and turned theyr backes on it.

B And beſyde that they haue ſhutte vp the dores of the porch, and quenched the lampes and haue neyther burned cenſe, nor offered burntofferynges in the holye place vnto the God of Iſraell. Wherfore the wrath of the Lorde fell on Iuda and Ieruſalem: and he hath brought them to trouble: to be wondred on, & to be hyſſed at, euen as ye ſe with your eyes. For, lo, oure fathers were ouerthrowen with the ſwerde, and our ſonnes, our doughters and our wyues were caryed awaye captyue for the ſame cauſe. And nowe it is in my herte, to make a couenaunte with the Lorde God of Iſraell: that he maye turne away his heuye indygnacyon from vs. Nowe therfore my Sonnes, be not neclygent: for the Lorde * hath choſen you to ſtande before hym, and for to mynyſtre and ſerue hym, and to burne incenſe. Num.18.a.

C Then the Leuites aroſe: Mahath the ſon of Amaſai, and Ioell the ſonne of Azariahu of the chyldren of the Cahathites: and of the ſonnes of Merari, Kis the ſon of Abdi, and Azariahu the ſonne of Iehalelell, and of the ſonnes of the Gerſonites, Ioah the ſonne of Simma, and Eden the ſonne of Ioah: And of the ſonnes of Elizaphan, Simri and Iehiell: and of the ſonnes of Aſaph, Zacharia/ and Mathaniahu: and of the ſonnes of Heman, Iehiell and Simei: and of the ſonnes of Ieduthun/ Semaia and Vziell. And they gathered theyr brethren, and puryfyed them ſelues, and came accordyng to the cōmaundement of the kyng and the wordꝭ of the lorde/ for to clenſe the houſe of the Lorde. And the Preeſtes wente in to the inner partes of the houſe of the Lorde to clenſe it, and brought out all the vncleanneſſe that they founde in the temple of the lorde, in to the courte of the houſe of the lorde. And the Leuites toke it, to carye it out in to the broke Cedron.

D They began the fyrſt day of the fyrſt moneth to purifye, and the eyght daye of the moneth came they to the porch of the lorde: and purged the houſe of the lorde in eyght dayes, and in the ſyxtene daye of the fyrſte moneth they made an ende. And they went into Hezekia the kynge, and ſayde: we haue clenſed all the houſe of the Lorde, the aulter of burnte offerynge, with all his veſſels, and the ſhewbread table with all his apparell: and all the veſſels whiche kynge Ahaz dyd caſte a ſyde when he reygned and tranſgreſſed, them we haue prepared and ſanctifyed: and beholde/ they are before the aulter of the Lorde. And Hezekia the kynge roſe early: and gathered the lordes of the citye & went vp to the houſe of the Lorde.

And they brought ſeuen oxen, ſeuen rammes, ſeuen ſhepe, and ſeuen he gootes to be a E ſynne offerynge for the kyngdome, for the ſancturye, and for Iuda. And he cōmaunded the preeſtes the ſonnꝭ of Aaron, to offer them on the aulter of the Lorde. And they ſlue the oxen, and the Preeſtes receyued the bloode/ & ſprynkled it on the aulter: Lykewyſe, when they had ſleyne the rammes, they ſprynkled the bloode vpon the aulter: they ſlue alſo the ſhepe, and they ſprynkled the bloode vpō the aulter. And then they brought forth the he gootes for the ſynofferynge before the kynge and the congregacion, and put theyr handes vpon them. And the preeſtes ſlue them, and with the bloode of them they clenſed the aulter, to make ſataſfactyon for all Iſraell: for the kynge commaunded, that the burntofferynge and the ſynofferynge ſhulde be made for all Iſraell. And ſet the Leuitꝭ in the houſe of the lorde with ſymbals, pſaltryes and harpes, * accordynge to the cõmaundement of Dauid and of Gad the kyngꝭ ſear, and Nathan the Prophet. i.Pa.xxv.a

F For ſo was the cõmaũdement of the lorde thorow the hande of his prophettes. And the Leuites ſtode, hauynge the inſtrumentes of Dauid, and the preeſtꝭ helde the trompettes. And Hezekia cõmaunded to offer the burnte offeryng vpõ the aulter. And when the burnt offeryng began, the ſonge of the lorde began alſo, and the trompetꝭ with the inſtrumentes that were ordeyned by the hande of Dauid kynge of Iſraell. And all the congregacyon worſhypped, ſyngynge a ſonge, ⁊ blowynge with trompettes, and all this contynued, vntyll the burntofferynge was fynyſhed. And when they had made an ende of offeryng, the kynge and all that were preſent with hym/ bowed them ſelues, ⁊ worſhypped. And Hezekia the kynge and the lordes ſpake to the Leuites to prayſe the Lorde with the wordes of Dauid, and of Aſaph the ſear. And the Leuites ſonge prayſes with gladneſſe, ⁊ the other bowed them ſelues, and worſhypped. And Hezekia anſwered, and ſayde: nowe ye haue conſecrate your handꝭ to the lorde: go to therfore, and brynge in the ſacrifyces and thankofferynges in to the houſe of the lorde.

G And the congregacyon brought in the ſacrifyces, and thankofferynges, ⁊ burntofferyngꝭ as many as were of a fre liberal herte. And the nombre of the burntofferyngꝭ, which the congregacyon brought, was .lxx. oxen, an C. rammes, and CC. ſhepe: which were, all for the burntofferyng of the lorde. ☞ And there were dedycated ſyxe hundred oxen, and thre thouſand ſhepe. And the preeſtes were to few, to ſleye all the burntofferyngꝭ: but theyr brethren the Leuites dyd helpe them, tyl they had ended the worke, and vntyll the preeſtes were ſanctifyed. For the Leuites were purer herted to be ſanctifyed, then the preeſtes. And therto the burntofferynges were many with the fat of the peaceofferyngꝭ and the drynkeofferyngꝭ that be longe to the burntofferyng. And ſo the ſeruice pertaynyng to the houſe of the lorde was fynyſhed. And Hezekia reioyſed and all the the people that god had made the ſtocke ſo redye: and that the thynge was ſo ſoone done.

¶ Hezekia renueth the feaſt of paſſeouer.

CAPI. XXX.

A AND Hezekia ſent to all Iſraell and Iuda, and wrote letters to Ephraim and Manaſſe, that they ſhulde come to the houſe of the Lorde at Ieruſalem, and offer Paſſeouer vnto the Lorde god of Iſraell. And the kynge helde a counſayle with his lordes and all the congregacyon at Ieruſalem, * to kepe the feaſt of Paſſeouer in the ſeconde moneth. Numer.ix.b

For they coulde not kepe it at that tyme: bycauſe the preeſtes were not ſanctifyed ſuffycyentlye, neyther was the people gathered togyther to Ieruſalem. And the thyng pleaſed the kynge and all the congregacyon. And they decreed, that it ſhuld be proclamed thorowout all Iſraell from Beerſabe to Dan/ that they ſhulde come, and holde the feaſt of Paſſcouer vnto the Lorde God of Iſraell at Ieruſalẽ: for they had not done it of a greate ſeaſon as they ſhulde haue done by the lawe. So the poſtes went with letters of the hande of the kynge, and of his lordes thorowout all Iſrael and Iuda: and at the cõmaundement of the kynge they ſayde: Ye Chyldren of Iſraell turne agayne vnto the lorde god of Abraham, Iſaac and Iſraell, and let euery one returne to the remenaũt that are eſcaped you out of the hande of the kyngꝭ of Aſſur. And be not ye lyke your fathers ⁊ your brethren/ whiche treſpaſſed agaynſt the Lorde God of theyr fathers, whiche gaue them vp to be deſtroyed, as ye ſe.

B And nowe be not ye ſtyffe necked, lyke as were your fathers, but yeld your ſelues vnto the lorde, and entre into his holy place, which he hath ſanctifyed for euer, ⁊ ſerue the Lorde your God, and the fearceneſſe of his wrathe ſhall turne awaye from you. For yf ye turne agayne vnto the lorde, then ſhal your brethrẽ and youre chyldren fynde compaſſyon in the preſence of them that toke them captyue, and they ſhall come agayne vnto this lande: * for the lorde your God is gracyous and mercyfull ⁊ wyl not turne away his face from you, yf ye conuerte vnto hym. [illegible] And ſo the poſtes went from citye to citye in the lande of Ephraim and Manaſſe, euen vnto Zabulon. But they laughed them to ſcorne, ⁊ mocked them. Neuertheleſſe, yet dyuerſe of Aſſer, Manaſſe and of Zabulon ſubmytted them ſelues and came to Ieruſalem. And the hande of God was in Iuda, ſo that he gaue them one herte, to do the cõmaundement of the kynge and of the the rulers, accordynge to the worde of the lorde. And there aſſembled to Jeruſalē moch people, & there was preſent a myghtye great cōgregacion, to holde the feaſt of ſwete bread in the ſeconde moneth.

[illegible] And they aroſe, and remoued the *aulters C that were in Jeruſalem. And all the veſſels of incenſe dyd they away, and caſt them in to the broke Cedron. And they ſlue Paſſeouer the xiiii. day of the ſeconde moneth. And the ☞ preeſtes/ and Leuites ☞ whiche were aſhamed, ſanctifyed them ſelues, and brought in the burntofferyngꝭ into the houſe of the lorde And they ſtode in theyr offyce after theyr maner, and accordyng to the lawe of Moſes the man of god. And the Preeſtes ſprynkled the bloode, whiche they receyued of the hande of the Leuites: For there were many in the congregacyon, that were not ſanctifyed: and the Leuites dyd ſley Paſſeouer for all that were not cleane, & that myght not execute the holy worke of the lorde. For many of the people/ & very many out of Ephraim, Manaſſe, Iſakar and Zabulon were not clenſed, & yet dyd eate Paſſeouer agaynſt the lawe appoynted.

Wherfore Hezekia prayed for them, and ſayd: the good lorde be mercyful vnto them. For he ſet his hoole herte, to ſeke the Lorde God/ euen the God of his fathers: but all the other dyd not ſo accordyng to vnfayned holy D neſſe. And the lorde herde Hezekia, & healed the people. And the Chyldren of Iſraell that were preſent at Jeruſalem, helde the feaſt of ſwete breade ſeuen dayes with great gladneſſe, and the Leuites & the preeſtes prayſed, and magnified the power of the lorde day by day, vpon inſtrumentes. And they dyd eate thorowout that feaſt, ſeuen dayes longe, & offered peaceofferynges, & thanked the lorde god of theyr fathers. And the hole aſſemble toke counſayle to do ſo other ſeuen dayes, & they helde thoſe vii. dayes with gladneſſe. For Hezekia kyng of Juda toke out (from amonge his cattell) for the congregacion, a. And all the congregacyon of Juda with the preeſtes and Leuites, and all the congregacyon that came out of Iſraell, & the ſtraungers that came out of the lande of Iſraell, & that dwelte in Juda/ reioyſed: and there was greate gladneſſe in Jeruſalem. For ſynce the tyme of Salomon the ſonne of Dauid kynge of Iſraell there was no ſoche ioye in Jeruſalem. And the preeſtꝭ and the Leuites aroſe, and bleſſed the people, & theyr voyce was herde of the lorde/ & theyr prayer came vp vnto heuen, his holy dwellynge place.

¶ After that Hezekia had called agayne the people vnto the way of the lorde, he ordeneth the preeſtes, vnto whom he cōmaundeth to gyue tythes

CAPI. XXXI.

A AND when all theſe thynges were fynyſhed, all they of Iſraell that were preſent in the cityes of Juda, went out and brake the ymages, and * cut downe the groues, and all to brake the hygh places, & * aulters, thorowout all Juda and Ben iamin/ in Ephraim alſo and Manaſſe, vntyll they had vtterly deſtroyed them all. And all the Chyldren of Iſraell returned, euery man to his poſſeſſyon and to theyr owne cityes. B And as ſoone as the kynges cōmaundement came abrode, the Chyldren of Iſraell brought aboundaunce of fyrſt fruytes, of corne, wyne, oyle, honye, and of all maner of fruytes of the felde: and the tythes of all maner of thynges brought they in plenteouſlye. And the Chyldren of Iſraell and Juda that dwelt in the cities of Juda, they alſo brought in the tythes of oxen and ſhepe, & other holy tythes whiche were conſecrate vnto the lorde theyr god, they dyd offre, and brought them all by heapes. In the thyrde moneth they began to lay the heapes (in maner of a foundacyon) & fynyſſhed them in the ſeuenth moneth And when Hezekia & the lordꝭ came and ſawe the heapes, they bleſſed the lord and his people Iſraell. And Hezekia queſtioned with the preeſtes and he Leuites concernyng the heapes. And Azaria the cheyfe preeſt of the houſe of Zadocke, anſwered hym, and ſayde: ſynce the peple began to bryng the heaueofferyngꝭ in to the houſe of the lorde, we alſo haue had ynough to eate, there remayned ſo moch: for the Lorde hath bleſſed his people, and this heape is lefte.

C And Hezekia bad prepare the chambers in the houſe of the lorde: and they dyd prepare them, and caryed in the heaueofferynges, the tythes, and the dedicate thynges, faythfully. Ouer which Chonaniahu the Leuite had the rule, and Semei his brother next to hym. And Jehiel, Aſaziahu, Nahath, Aſaell, Jerimoth Joſabad, Eliel, Jeſmachiahu, Mahath, and Banaiahu were ouerſeers ordeyned by Chonaniahu: and Semei his brother was an officer of Hezekia the kyng, and Azaria was the ruler of the houſe of god. ✤ (vnto vvhom all theſe thynges belonged.) And Chore the ſonne of Jimna the Leuite & porter of the Eaſt dore, had the ouerſyght of the thynges that were offered of a frewyll vnto God (and were giuen in maner ſeuerally vnto the lord) and ouer the thyngs mooſt holye. And vnder his hande were Eden, Miniamin, Jeſua, Semeiahu, Amariahu, and Sechaniahu in the cityes of the preeſtes appoynted of theyr fydelyte, to gyue to theyr brethren theyr porcions, as well to the ſmall as to the greate. Excepte that to the males that were rekened frō thre yere and aboue (amonge all that went in to the houſe of the Lorde) they ſhulde gyue day by daye, for theyr miniſtracyon, and for theyr gyuynge attendaunce, and for theyr dyuerſe waytynges by courſe.

D And to the Preeſtes and Leuites thorowout the houſhold of theyr fathers, from twentye yeare & aboue, to wayte when theyr courſes came. And to the famylies of all theyr babes, wyues, ſonnes and doughters thorowe all the congregacyon. For vpon the fydelyte E of them were the holy thynges beſtowed. And to the Chyldren of Aaron, the Preeſtes/ whiche were in the feldes and ſuburbes of theyr Cityes, Citye by citye, the men (whoſe names were expreſſed before) ſhuld gyue porcyons, euen to al the males amonge the preeſtes, & to all the Leuites, accordynge to theyr nombre. And of this maner dyd Hezekia thorowout all Juda, & wrought it that is good, and ryght and true, before the lorde his god.

And in all the workes that he beganne for the ſeruyce of the houſe of god, for the lawe, and for the cōmaundementes, he ſought his God, and that dyd he with all his herte, and proſpered.

¶ Sennacherib (or Sanherib) beſegynge Jeruſalem, is stryken of the Angell. Hezekia dyeth, after whom ſucceddeth Manaſſes.

CAPI. XXXII.

A AFter that theſe dedes were faythfully done, * Sennacherib kynge of Aſſur came, and entred in to Juda, and compaſſed the ſtronge Cityes, & thought to wyn them for hym ſelfe. And ſo when Hezekia ſaw that Sennacherib was come, & that he was purpoſed to fyght agaynſte Jeruſalem, he toke counſayle with his Lordes, and men of myght, to ſtop the water of the fountaynes/ without the citie: and they dyd helpe hym.

4.Reg.18. Eſai.36.a Eccle.48.

For there gathered many of the people togyther, and ſtopt al the welles and the broke that ranne thorow the myddes of the lande, ſayenge: Why ſhal the kyngs of Aſſur come, and fynde moch water? And Hezekia wente to luſtelye, and buylte vp all the wall where it was broken, and made ordynaunce vpon the towres and to the other wal without, and repayred Millo in the citye of Dauid, & made many dartes and ſheldes.

B And he ſet captaynes of war ouer the people, and gathered them togyther to hym in the large ſtrete of the gate of the Citye, and ſpake ientellye to them, ſayenge: Plucke vp your hertes, & be ſtronge: Be not afrayde nor diſcouraged for the kynge of Aſſur, and for al the multitude that he hath with hym: * for there be mo with vs then with hym. With hym is an * arme of fleſſhe: But with vs is the lorde our god, for to helpe vs, & to fyght our battayls. And the people toke a courage thorowe the wordes of Hezekia kyng of Juda. * After this dyd Sennacherib kynge of Aſſur ſende of his ſeruauntes to Jeruſalem (but he hym ſelfe remayned beſyde Lachis: hauyng all his power with hym) vnto Hezekia kyng of Juda, & vnto al Juda that were at Jeruſalem, ſayenge: Thus ſayeth Sennacheryb kynge of Aſſur: * wherein do ye truſt, O ye that dwell in Jeruſalem which is beſeyged? C Doth not Hezekia entyce you to gyue ouer your ſelues vnto death, hunger, & thyrſt, ſayenge: the lorde our god ſhal ryd vs out of the hande of the kynge of Aſſur? Hath not the ſame Hezekia put downe his hygh places and his aulters, and cōmaunded Juda and Jeruſalem, ſayenge: Ye ſhall worſhyp before one aulter, and burne incenſe vpon the ſame? Knowe ye not, what I and my fathers haue done vnto the people of all landes? were the Gods of the people of other landes able or myghtye to ſaue theyr landes out of my hande? which of all the gods of thoſe nacyons (that my fathers deſtroyed) coulde delyuer his peple out of myne hande? And ſhal your god be able to delyuer you out of myne hande hande: wherfore, now let not Hezekia deceyue you, nor perſuade you of this faſſyō, nor yet byleue hym. For as no God among all nacions & kyngdomes, was able to ryd his peple out of myne hande, and out of the hande of my fathers: howe moche leſſe ſhal your gods be able to kepe you out of myne hande?

D And yet mo thynges dyd his ſeruauntes ſpeake agaynſt the Lorde God, and agaynſt his ſeruaunt Hezekia. And (Sennacherib) alſo wrote a letter, to rayle on the Lorde God of Iſrael, and ſpake agaynſt hym, ſayenge: as the gods of the nacions of other landes haue not bene able to delyuer theyr people out of myne hande. Euen ſo ſhal not the God of Hezekia delyuer his people out of myne hande. And they cryed wt a loude voyce in the Iues ſpeche vnto the peple of Jeruſalem that were on the wall, to feare them, and to make them faynt herted, and that they myght ſo take the citye. And they ſpake agaynſt the god of Jeruſalem, as agaynſt the Gods of the nacions of the earth, which were the worke of the handes of men.

E But Hezekia the kyng, & the prophet Iſai the ſon of Amoz prayed agaynſt the blaſphemye, & cryed vp to heuen. And the Lorde ſent an angel, which deſtroyed all the men of war and the lordes and captaynes of the hooſt of the kyng of Aſſur, that he turned his face agayne with ſhame towarde his owne lande.

Re. xix. g * And when he was come into the houſe of his God, they that came of his owne body, ſlue hym there wt the ſwerde. And ſo the lorde ſaued Hezekia & the enhabitours of Jeruſalem out of the hande of Sennacherib kynge of Aſſur, and from the hande of all other, and maynteyned them on euery ſyde. And many brought offerynges vnto the Lorde to Jeruſalem, & preſentes to Hezekia kyng of Juda: ſo that he was magnifyed in the ſyght of all nacions from thence forth.

Reg. xx. a / Eſa. 38. a. F * In thoſe dayes Hezekia was ſycke vnto the death, and prayed vnto the Lorde: which anſwered hym, and ſhewed hym a wonderful myracle: But Hezekia dyd not agayne vnto God accordyng to it that he had ſhewed hym for his herte aroſe: & there came wrath vpon hym and vpon Juda and Jeruſalem. Notwithſtandyng Hezekia ſubmytted hym ſelfe (after that his herte was ryſen vp) he, & the enhabitours of Jeruſalem: & the wrath of the Lorde came not vpon them in the dayes of Hezekia. And Hezekia had excedynge moche ryches and honoure. And he gat hym treaſures of ſyluer and golde, precious ſtones, & ſpices, ſheldes, and of all maner pleaſaunt Juelles: & made ſtore houſes for the fruytes of corne, for wyne and oyle: and ſtalles for al maner of beaſtes, and foldes for ſhepe.

G And he made hym cityes, and had of ſhepe and oxen great aboundaunce. For God had gyuen hym ſubſtaunce excedynge moche.

This ſame Hezekia ſtopped the vpper water ſprynges of Gihon, & brought them downe to the weſt ſyde of the citie of Dauid. And Hezekia proſpered in all his workes. And when the prynces of Babilon ſent vnto hym Imbaſſadoures, to enquyre of the wondre that chaunced in the lande, God lefte hym * to trye hym, & that all that was in his herte, myghte be knowen. Deut. viii. a The reſt of the dedes of Hezekia, and his goodneſſe: beholde, they are wrytten in the viſion of Iſai the prophet the ſonne of Amoz in the boke of the kynges of Juda and Iſrael. And Hezekia ſlepte with his fathers, and they buried him in the moſt worthy place of the ſepulchres of the ſonnes of Dauid: and all Juda and the enhabytours of Jeruſalem dyd him worſhyp at his death. And Manaſſe his ſonne reygned in his ſteade.

Manaſſe is taken pryſoner, and after that he cometh oute, he deſtroyeth the Idoles: he dyeth, and after hym ſucceedeth Amon, which is kylled of his owne people, and Joſia his ſon reygneth in his ſteade.

A Manaſſe was. xii. yere olde * when he began to reygne, and he reygned. lv. yere in Jeruſalem. 4. Re. xxi. a But he dyd euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, lyke vnto the abhominacions of the hethen, whom the Lorde caſt out before the chyldren of Iſrael. For he went to & buylte the hylaulters * whiche Hezekia his father had broken downe. 4 Reg. 18. a And he reared vp aulters for Baalim, & made groues, and worſhypped all the hooſt of heuen, & ſerued them. And he buylt aulters in the houſe of the lord where as the Lorde yet had ſayd: * In Jeruſalem ſhal my name be for euer. ii. Re. vii. b. / ii. Par. vi. a / and. vii. c. And he buylt aulters for all the hooſt of heuen, in the two courtes of the houſe of the lord. And he burnt his chyldren in fyre, in the valley of the ſonne of Hinnom. He was a ſorcerer, he regarded the cryenge of byrdes, vſed inchauntment, & maynteyned workers with ſpirites, & Sears of fortunes: and wrought moche euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, to angre hym withall.

B And he put the carued ymage & an Idoll whiche he had made in the houſe of God. Of which houſe, God had ſayd to Dauid, and to Salomon his ſonne: in this houſe and in Jeruſalem whiche I haue choſen before all the tribes of Iſraell, * wyll I put my name for euer, and wyll no more brynge the feate of Iſrael from of the land which I haue ordeyned ii. for your fathers. If ſo be that they wyll be diligent and do all that I haue cōmaunded them in all the lawe, and ſtatutes, and ordinaunces by the hande of Moſes. And ſo Manaſſe made Juda, & the enhabytours of Jeruſalem to erre, & to do worſe then the hethen whom the lorde deſtroyed before the chyldren of Iſraell. And the Lorde ſpake to Manaſſe & to his people, but they wolde not regarde. Wherfore, the Lorde brought vpon them the captaynes of the hooſt of the kyng of the Aſſirians, whiche toke Manaſſe in holde, and bounde hym with cheynes, and caryed hym to Babilon.

C And when he was in tribulacyon, he beſought the Lorde his god, and humbled hym ſelfe exceadyngly before the god of his fathers and made interceſſyon to hym: and god was entreated of hym, and herde his prayer, and brought hym agayne to Jeruſalem in to his kyngdome. And then Manaſſe knewe, that the Lorde was God. After this, he buylte a wall without the citye of Dauid on the weſt ſyde of Gihon, in the valley as they come to the fyſſhe gate, and rounde aboute ⁊ Ophel and brought it vp of a very great heyght, & put captaynes of war in all the ſtrong cityes of Juda. And he toke away ſtraunge Gods and ymages out of the houſe of god, and ✶ al the aulters that he had buylte in the mounte of the houſe of God, and in Jeruſalem, and caſt them out of the citye. And he repared the aulter of the Lorde, & ſacrificed theron peace offerynges, and thankofferyng, and charged Juda to ſerue the lorde god of Iſrael. Neuertheleſſe the people dyd offer ſtyl in the hyl aulters, howbeit vnto the lorde theyr god onely.

ii.Pa.14.a and .xxi.b

D The reſt of the actes of Manaſſe, and his prayer vnto his god, and the wordes of the Sears and of them that ſpake to hym in the name of the Lorde God of Iſrael: Beholde, they are wrytten in the ſayenges of the kynges of Iſraell. And his prayer, and howe that he was herde, and al his ſynnes, and his treſpaſſe, and the places where he made hyll aulters, and ſet vp groues, and ymages (before he was mekened) Beholde, they are wrytten amonge the ſayenges of the Sears. And Manaſſe ſlepte with his fathers, & they buryed hym in his owne houſe: and Amon his ſonne reygned in his rowme. Amon was two and twentye yere olde, when he began to reygne, and reygned two yere in Jeruſalem.

But he dyd euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, lyke as dyd Manaſſe his father, for Amon ſacrificed to all the carued ymages which Manaſſe his father had made, & ſerued them, & ſubmytted not hym ſelfe before the Lorde as Manaſſe his father had mekened hym ſelfe. But Amon treſpaſſed greatly, And his owne ſeruaunts conſpired agaynſt hym, & ſlue hym in his owne houſe. But the peple of the lande ſlue al them that had cōſpired agaynſt kynge Amon. And the ſame peple of the lande made Joſia his ſonne kynge in his rowme.

¶ Joſia deſtroyeth the Idols, and reſtoreth the temple in whiche the boke of the lawe is founde he ſendeth to Hulda the Prophetiſſe for counſell.

CAPI. XXXIIII.

A Joſia was eyght yere olde when he began to reygne, ✶ and he reygned in Jeruſalem xxxi. yeare. And he dyd that whiche was ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde, and walked in the wayes of Dauid his father, and bowed neyther to the ryght hande nor to the lefte.

4.Reg.22.

In the eyght yere of his reygne (when he was yet a Chylde) he began to ſeke after the God of Dauid his father, And in the twelfth yere he began to pourge Juda, and Jeruſalem from hylaulters, groues, carued ymages, and ymages of mettal: and they brake downe the aulters of Baalim euen in his preſence: & other ymages that were in greater honoure then they, he cauſed to be deſtroyed. And the groues, carued ymages, & ymages of mettal he brake & made duſt of them, and ſtrawed it vpon the graues of them that had offered to them. And he burnt the bones of the preeſtes vpon the aulters of them, & clenſed Juda and Jeruſalē. And euen ſo dyd he in the cityes of Manaſſe, Ephraim, Simeon vnto Nephthali.

B And in the wyldernes of them rounde about he plucked a ſonder the aulters & the groues and dyd beate them, and ſtampe them to powder, and dyd beate downe al the ymages thorowout all the lande of Iſrael: and returned to Jeruſalem agayne. In the xviii. yeare of his reygne when he had pourged the lande, and the Temple ✶ he ſent Saphan the ſonne of Amazaliahu, and Maaſiah the gouernour of the citye, and Joah the ſon of Joahas the recorder, to repayre the houſe of the lorde his God. And when they came to Elkia the hygh preeſt, they delyuered them the money that was brought in to the houſe of God, whiche the Leuites that kepte the entries had gathered of the hande of Manaſſe and Ephraim, & of all that yet remayned in Iſrael, and of all Juda and Beniamin, & of the enhabitours of Jeruſalem. And they put in the handes of the workemen, that had the ouerſyght of the houſe of the Lorde: and they gaue it to the labourers that wrought in the houſe of the Lorde, to repayre and amende the houſe.

Euen

C Euen the maſons ⁊ carpenters gaue they it: to get ſtone and tymbꝛe, foꝛ couples and foꝛ beames of the houſes, whiche the kynges of Juda had deſtroyed. And the men dyd the woꝛke faythfully. And the ouerſeers of them to courage them foꝛwarde, were Jahath and Obadiahu Leuites of the chyldꝛen of Merari: and Sacharia ⁊ Meſullam, of the chyldꝛen of the Cahathites, and other of the Leuites whiche all coulde ſkyl of inſtrumentes of muſyche. And ouer the berers of burdens, ⁊ ouer al that wꝛought, in whatſoeuer woꝛkemanſhyp it were, were there ſcribes, offycers and poꝛters of the Leuites. And when they bꝛought oute the money that was bꝛought in to the houſe of the Loꝛde, * Helkia the pꝛeeſt Reg.22.b found the boke of the lawe of the Loꝛde, gyuen by Moſes. And Helkia anſwered ⁊ ſayd to Saphan the Scrybe: I haue founde the boke of the law, in the houſe of the loꝛde, and Helkia gaue the boke to Saphan.

D And Saphan caryed the boke to the kyng and bꝛought the kyng woꝛde agayn, ſaynge: all that was cōmytted to thy ſeruauntes, that do they. And they haue gathered togither the money that was founde in the houſe of the Loꝛde, and haue delyuered it in to the handꝭ of the ouerſeers of the woꝛke, ⁊ in to the handes of the woꝛkmen. And then Saphan the ſcribe ſhewed the kynge, ſayenge: Helkia the pꝛeeſt hath gyuen me a boke, and Saphan red in it befoꝛe the kynge. And it foꝛtuned, that when the kyng had herde the woꝛdes of the lawe, he tare his clothes: And the kynge cōmaunded Helkia and Ahikam the ſonne of Saphan, and Habdon the ſonne of Micah and Saphan the ſcribe, and Aſaia a ſeruaūt of the kynges, ſaynge: go and enquire of the Loꝛde foꝛ me, and foꝛ them that are lefte in Iſrael and Juda, concernyng the woꝛdes of the boke that is foūde. Foꝛ great is the wꝛath of the Loꝛde that is fallen vpon vs, bycauſe our fathers haue not kepte the woꝛde of the Loꝛde, to do after all that is wꝛytten in this E boke. And Helkia and they that the kynge had appoynted, went to Hulda a pꝛophetеſſe the wyfe of Sallum the ſonne of Tokhath the ſonne of Haſra keper of the wardꝛop (foꝛ ſhe dwelte in Jeruſalem within the ſeconde wall) and ſo they comuned with her. She anſwered them: thus ſayth the loꝛde God of Iſrael: tel ye the man that ſent you to me. Euen thus ſayth the Loꝛde: Beholde, I wyl bꝛyng euyll vpon this place, ⁊ vpon the enhabiters therof (euen all the curſes that are wꝛytten in the boke which they haue red befoꝛe the kyng of Juda) bycauſe they haue foꝛſaken me, and haue offered vnto other goddes, to angre me with all maner of woꝛkes of theyꝛ handes: therfoꝛe is my wꝛath ſet on fyꝛe agaynſt this place, and ſhall not be quenched. And as foꝛ the kynge of Juda which ſent you to enquire of the Loꝛde, ſo ſhall ye ſaye vnto hym: thus ſayth the Loꝛde god of Iſraell concernynge the woꝛdes whiche thou haſt herde. F Bycauſe thyne herte dyd melte, and thou dydeſt meke thy ſelfe befoꝛe God, when thou herdeſt his woꝛdes agaynſt this place, and agaynſt the enhabitours therof: and humbledſt thy ſelfe befoꝛe me, and tareſt thy clothes, and wepte befoꝛe me, that haue I herde alſo ſayeth the loꝛde. Beholde, I wyl take the to thy fathers and thou ſhalte be put in thy graue in peace, and thyne eyes ſhall not ſe all the myſchefe that I wyl bꝛyng vpon this place, ⁊ vpon the enhabitours of the ſame. And they bꝛought the kynge woꝛde agayne. * Then the kynge 4.Reg.23.a ſent, and gathered togyther all the elders of Juda and Jeruſalem. And the kynge wente vp in to the houſe of the loꝛde, and al the men of Juda, and the enhabitours of Jeruſalem, ⁊ the pꝛeeſtes and Leuites, and all the people great and ſmal: ⁊ the kynge dyd rede in theyꝛ hearynge al the woꝛdes of the boke of the couenaunt that was founde in the houſe of the G Loꝛde. And the kynge ſtode at his ſtandyng, and made a couenaunt befoꝛe the Loꝛde, to folowe the Loꝛde, and to kepe his cōmaundementes, his wytneſſes, and his ſtatutes, with all his herte and with all his ſoule, ⁊ to fulfyl the woꝛdes of the appoyntment wꝛytten in the ſayd boke. And he ſet in theyꝛ rowme all them that were founde in Jeruſalem ⁊ Beniamin, and the enhabitoures of Jeruſalem dyd accoꝛdynge to the couenaunt of the loꝛde God of theyꝛ fathers.

And Joſia put awaye all maner of abhominacions out of all landes that perteyned to the chyldꝛen of Iſraell, and bꝛought in all that were founde in Iſraell, to woꝛſhyp, and to ſerue the Loꝛde theyꝛ God. And they turned not aſyde from after the Loꝛde God of theyꝛ fathers, as longe as he lyued.

¶ Joſia holdeth Paſſeouer. He fyghteth agaynſt the kynge of Egypt, and dyeth. The people bewayle hym.

And when they had brought hym to Jeruſalem, he dyed, and was buryed in the ſepulchre of his fathers.

Moreouer, al the rulers, the preſtes, and the people treſpaſſed more, ſynnyng after al maner of abhominacyons of the hethen, and poluted the houſe of the Lorde, whiche he had halowed in Ieruſalem. * And the Lorde god of theyr fathers ſent to them, by his meſſengers, ryſynge vp betymes and ſendynge: for he had compaſſyon on his people, and on his dwellyng place. A THe Prophettes, * Aggeus and Zachary the ſonne of Jddo, prophecyed vnto the Jues that were in Juda, & Jeruſalem/ in the name of the god of Jſrael. * Then gat vp Zorobabell the ſonne of Salathiell, and Jeſua the Sonne of Joſedec, and began to buylde the houſe of God at Jeruſalem/ and with them were the prophettes of god, which helped them. At the ſame tyme came to them Cathnai/ whiche was captayne on this ſyde the water, and Starbaznai, and theyr companyons/ and ſayde thus vnto them: Who hath commaunded you to buylde this houſe, and to make vp theſe walles? Then tolde we them the names of the men, that made this buyldynge. But the eye of theyr God was vpon the elders of the Jues, that they coulde not cauſe them to ceaſe, tyll the matter was brought to Darius, and ☞ then they anſwered by letters therunto.

B This is the copye of the letter that Cathnai (whiche was Captayne on this ſyde the water) and Starbaznai, and the counſaylers of Apharſah (whiche were on this ſyde the water) ſent vnto kyng Darius. And the matter that they ſent vnto hym, was wrytten thus within the letter: Unto Darius the kyng, all peace. Be it knowen vnto the kynge, that we went in to the lande of Jurye to the houſe of the great God, which is buylded with myghtye great ſtones, and beames are layde in the walles, and the worke goeth faſt forth, and proſpereth in theyr handes. Then aſked we the elders, and ſayde vnto them as it foloweth: Who commaunded you to buylde this houſe, and to make vp the walles therof?

C We aſked theyr names alſo, that we myght certifye the, and wryte the names of the men that were theyr rulers. But they anſwered vs with theſe wordes, and ſayde: We are the ſeruauntes of hym, that is god of heuen and earth, and buylde the houſe that was buylded many yeres a go * which a greate kynge of Jſrael buylded, and ſet vp. But after that our fathers had prouoked the God of heuen vnto wrath, * he gaue them ouer in to the hande of Nabuchodonozer the kynge of Babilon, & of the Caldyes/ whiche brake downe this houſe, and caryed the people away captyue vnto Babilon.

Then came the ſame Saſbazar, and layde the foundacyō of the houſe of god, which is at Jeruſalem. Synce that tyme alſo vntyll now hath it ben in buyldynge, & yet is it not fynyſhed. And the Elders of the Jues buylded, and they proſpered thorowe the propheſyenge of Aggeus the Prophet and Zachary the ſon of Jddo: and they buylded, and layde vp the foundacyon/ accordynge to the cōmaundement of the god of Jſraell, and after the commaundement of Cyrus, and Darius ⁊ Arthaxerſes kynges of Perſia. CAPI. VII.

After these actes, ther was in the reygne A

This Eſdras alſo went vp from Babilon/ and was a perfyte ſcrybe in the law of Moſes/ ✠ which the lorde god of Jſraell dyd gyue. And the kyng gaue hym all that he requyred/ bycauſe the hande of the Lorde his God was vpon hym. And there went vp certayne of the chyldren of Jſraell/ of the preeſtes/ Leuites/ ſyngers/ porters/ and of the Nethinims vnto Jeruſalem in the ſeuenth yere of kyng Arthaxerſes.

And he came to Jeruſalem in the fyfth moneth/euen in the ſeuenth yeare of the kynge. For vpon the fyrſt daye of the fyrſt moneth/ began he to go vp from Babilon/and on the fyrſt daye of the fyfth moneth came he to Jeruſalem/bycauſe the good hand of god was vpon hym. For Eſdras prepared his herte to ſeke the lawe of the lorde/and to do it/ and to teache the precepte and iudgement in Iſrael.

B And this is the copye of the letter / that kynge Arthaxerſes gaue vnto Eſdras the preeſt and ſcrybe/whiche was a wryter of the wordes and cōmaundementes of the Lorde and of his ſtatutes ouer Iſraell. Arthaxerſes a kynge of kynges. Unto Eſdras the Preeſt and Scrybe of the lawe of the God of heuen / peace & ſalutacyon. I haue cōmaunded, that all they of the people of Iſraell, and of the preeſtꝭ & Leuites in my realme(whiche are mynded of theyr owne good wyl to go vp to Jeruſalem) go with the: and therfore arte thou ſent of the kynge and of his ſeuen counſaylers/to vyſet Juda and Jeruſalem, acordynge to the lawe of thy god, which is in thy hande: And that thou ſhuldeſt take with the, ſyluer and golde / whiche the kynge and his counſaylers offer of theyr owne good wyl vnto the god of Iſraell(whoſe habitacyon is at Jeruſalem)and all the ſyluer and golde that thou canſt fynde in all the countrey of Babilon, with it that the peple offer of theyr owne good wyl, and the preeſtes gyue for the houſe of theyr god whiche is at Jeruſalem.

C Take thou the ſame, & bye dilygently with the ſame money, oxen/rammes, and lambes, with theyr meate offerynges and drynkeofferynges/and thou ſhalte offer them vpon the aulter of the houſe of your God whiche is at Jeruſalem. And loke what it lyketh the and thy brethren to do with the remenaunt of the money / that do after the wyll of youre God. And the veſſels that are gyuen the for the miniſtracyon in the houſe of thy god, thoſe delyuer thou before God at Jeruſalem. And whatſoeuer thynge more ſhall be nedeful for the houſe of thy God, whiche is neceſſary for the to ſpende, thou ſhalt receyue the charges out of the kynges treaſure houſe. I kyng Arthaxerſes haue cōmaunded all the treaſures beyonde the water, that loke whatſoeuer Eſdras the Preeſt and ſcrybe in the lawe of the god of heuen, requireth of you, that ye fulfyl the ſame ſpedyly, vntyll an hundred talentes of ſyluer, vntyll an, C. quarters of wheate/ and tyl an hundred Batthes of wyne, and tyl an hundred * Batthes of oyle, and ſalte without meaſure.

D Whatſoeuer alſo belongeth to the law of the God of heuen, let the ſame be done without any delaye for the houſe of the god of heuen, that he be not wroth agaynſt the realme, and agaynſt the kynge, and his chyldren. And we certifye you, that ye haue no auctoryte to requyre taxynge and cuſtome, and yearly rentes vpon any of the preeſtꝭ, Leuites, ſyngers, porters, Nethinims, & mynyſters in the houſe of his god. And thou Eſdras (after the wyſdome of thy god, that is in thy hande) ſet iudges & arbyterers (by my auctoryte) to iudge all the people that is beyond the water, euen all ſoche as knowe the lawe of thy God: and them that know it not, thoſe ſe that ye teach. And whoſoeuer wyll not fulfyll the lawe of thy god, and the kynges lawe, let hym haue his iudgement without delaye, whyther it be vnto death, or to be routed out, or to be condempned in goodes, or to be put in pryſon. 3. Eſdra. 8. c

* Bleſſed be the Lorde god of our fathers/ whiche ſo hath inſpired the kynges herte, to garnyſſhe the houſe of the lorde, that is at Jeruſalem: and enclyned his mercy vnto me in the preſence of the kynge, and his counſaylers, and before all the kynges hygh eſtates. And I was comforted (euen as the hande of the Lorde my god was vpon me) and ſo gathered I the heades of Iſraell togyther, that they myght go vp with me.

The nombre of them that returne to Jeruſalē with Eſdras.

CAPI. VIII.

A These are the principal fathers of them/ and this is theyr regyſter that went vp with me from Babilon, what tyme as kynge Arthaxerſes reygned. 1. Eſdr. 8. c. Of the chyldren of Phinehes, Gerſon: of the chyldre of Ithamar, Daniell: of the chyldren of Dauid, Hattus: of the Chyldren of Zecania amonge the chyldren of Pharos, Zachary, and with hym were nombred an hundred and fyftye men. Of the Chyldren of the captayne, of Moab/ Elioenai the ſonne of Zerahia, and with him two hundred men. Of the chyldren of Zechania the ſonne of Jahaſiell, and with hym thre hundred men. Of the chyldren of Adin, Abed the ſonne of Jonathan, and with hym fyftye men. Of the chyldren of Elam, Iſai the Son of Athalia, and with hym ſeuentye men. Of the Chyldren of Saphatia, Zebadia the ſon of Michaell, and with hym foure ſcore men.

B Of the chyldren of Joab, Obadia the ſon of Jehiell, and with hym two hundred and eyghtene men. Of the chyldren of Selomith, the ſonne of Joſiphia, and with him an hundred and thre ſcore men. Of the Chyldren of Bebai, Zachary the Sonne of Bebai, & with hym eyght and .xx. men. Of the chyldren of Aſgad, Johanan, the Son of Hakatan, and with hym an hundred and ten men. Of the Chyldren of Adonicam, that were the laſte / whoſe names were theſe: Eliphelet, Jehiell, and Samaiah, and with them thre ſcore men Of the chyldren of Biguai, Uthai / and Zabud, and with them ſeuentye men. And I gathered them togyther by the water that renneth toward Ahaua, and there abode we thre dayes. And I loked amonge the people and the Preeſtes & founde there none of the chyldren of Leui.

C Then ſent I to Elieſer, to Ariel, Semeia, Elnathan / Jarib / Elnathan / Nathan / Zachary and to Meſullam the rulers, and to Joiarib and Elnathan whiche were men of vnderſtandynge / and to thoſe gaue I commaundement vnto Iddo the cheyfeſt at Caſphia / that they ſhulde fetch vs mynyſters for the houſe of our god, and I tolde them what they ſhulde ſaye vnto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims at Caſphia. And (thorowe the good hande of oure God vpon vs) they brought vs a wyſe man from amonge the chyldren of Moholi the Sonne of Leui / the ſonne of Iſraell, and Serabia with his ſonnes and his brethren, euen eyghtene. And Haſabia, and with hym Iſai of the chyldren of Merari / with his brethren and theyr ſonnes twentye.

D And of the Nethinims / whome Dauid & the Prynces gaue to mynyſter vnto the Leuites, two hūdred and twentye of Nethinim, whiche all were named by name. And euen there at the water, beſyde Ahaua, I proclamed a faſt, that we myght humble our ſelues before our god, and ſeke of hym a ryght way for vs, and for our chyldren and for our ſubſtaunce. For I was aſhamed to requyre of the kynge, ſouldyers and horſemen / to helpe vs agaynſte the enemye in the waye: but we ſayd vnto the kynge: The hande of our god is vpon all them that ſeke hym in goodneſſe, ✠ and ✠ (his dominyon) his violence & wrath is agaynſt all them that forſake hym. So we faſted, and beſought our god for this, and he herde vs.

E And I toke out twelue of the cheyfe preeſtes, Serabia and Haſabia, and ten of theyr brethren with them, & weyed them the ſyluer and golde, and veſſels that were appoynted for the houſe of oure God, whiche the kynge and his counſaylers and his Lordes / and all Iſraell that there were at hande, had gyuen togyther. And I weyed vnto theyr hande ſixe hundred and fyftye talentes of ſyluer, and in ſyluer veſſell an hundred talentes, and in golde an hundred talentes: twentye baſens of golde of a thouſand peces, and two coſtly ornamentꝭ of good braſſe as cleare as golde: and I ſayde vnto them: Ye are conſecrate vnto the lorde, lyke as the veſſels are holy alſo, and the golde & ſyluer are gyuen of a good wyll vnto the Lorde God of your fathers. Watch ye, & kepe it: for ye ſhal weye it downe before the cheyfe Preeſtes and Leuites, and auncient fathers of Iſraell at Ieruſalem in the treaſuryes of the houſe of the Lorde.

F Then toke the preeſtes and Leuites that weyed ſyluer and golde and veſſell to brynge it to Ieruſalem, vnto the houſe of our God. And we brake vp, from the water of Ahaua on the twelueth daye of the fyrſte moneth, to go vnto Ieruſalem: and the hande of oure God was vpon vs, and delyuered vs from the hande of the enemyes, & of ſoch as layde wayte for vs by the way. And we came to Ieruſalem, and abode there thre dayes. But on the fourth daye was the ſyluer, & Golde and veſſell weyed in the houſe of our God, by the hande of Meremoth the Sonne of Uria the preeſt, and with hym was Eleazar the ſonne of Phynehes, and with them was Joſabad the ſonne of Ieſua, and Noadia the ſonne of Benoi the Leuites.

G Accordynge to the nombre and weyght of euery one, was the weyght all wrytten vp at the ſame tyme. And the chyldren of the captiuyte, which were come out of pryſon, offered burntofferynges vnto the god of Iſrael: xii. bullockes for al Iſrael: nynety and ſyxe rammes, ſeuentye and ſeuen Lambes, twelue he gootes for a ſynofferynge, all to the burntofferyng of the Lorde. And they delyuered the kynges commyſſyon vnto the kynges offycers, and to the captaynes that were on this ſyde the water. And they promoted the people and the houſe of God.

¶ Eſdras complayneth on the people that had turned them ſelues from god, and maryed with the gentyles.

CAPI. IX.

A WHen theſe thynges were done, the rulers came to me, and ſayd: The people of Iſraell, and the preeſtes, and Leuites are not ſeparated from the people of the landes, (as touchyng theyr abhominacons) namely of the Cananites, Hethites, Phereſites, Jebuſites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians and Amorytes. * For they haue taken the doughters of the ſame to them ſelues, and to theyr ſonnes, and the holy ſede is myxt with the nacyons in the landes: and the hande of the prynces and rulers hath ben pryncypall in this treſpaſſe. * And when I herde this ſaynge/ I rent my clothes and my rayment/ and pluckte of the heere of my heade, and of my beerde, and ſat mournyng. And there reſorted vnto me all ſoch as feared the wordes of the the lorde God of Iſrael, bycauſe of the tranſgreſſyon of the people of the captiuite.

B And I ſat mournynge vntyll the euenynge ſacrifyce. And aboute the euenyng ſacrifyce, I roſe vp from my heuyneſ, and rent my clothes and my rayment, and fell vpon my knees, and ſpred out my handes vnto the Lorde my God, and ſayde:

My god, I am aſhamed, and dare not lyft vp myne eyes vnto the my god: for our wyckedneſſes are growen ouer oure heade, and our treſpaſſe is waxen great vnto the heuen. Synce the tyme of our fathers haue we ben in great treſpaſſe vnto this daye/ * and bycauſe of our wyckedneſſes haue we and oure kynges ben delyuered in to the hande of the kynges of the nacyons, into the ſwerde, in to captiuyte, into ſhame, and into confuſyon of face/ as it is to ſe this day. And now is there a lytle and ſodayne gracyouſneſſe come from the Lorde our God, in cauſynge ſome of vs C to eſcape/ and that he maye gyue vs a nayle in his holy place/ & that our god maye lyght our eyes/ & gyue vs a lytle lyfe to take breth in our bondage. For we are bondmen/ & our God hath not forſaken vs in oure bondage/ & hath enclyned mercye vnto vs in the ſyght of the kynges of Perſia, to gyue vs lyfe, to ſet vp the houſe of oure God, and to redreſſe the deſolacyon therof, and to gyue vs a wall in Iuda and Ieruſalem. And nowe, O oure god, what ſhall we ſay after this? for we haue forſaken thy cōmaundementes, whiche thou haſt cōmaunded by thy ſeruauntes the Prophettes, ſayenge: The lande vnto whiche ye go to poſſeſſe it, is an vncleane land, bycauſe of the fylthyneſſe of the people of the landes/ whiche w theyr abhominacyons haue made it full of vncleanneſſe on euery ſyde.

* Therfore ſhal ye not gyue your dough- D ters vnto theyr ſonnes, and theyr doughters ſhall ye not take vnto youre ſonnes, nor ſeke theyr peace and welth for euer, that ye maye be ſtronge, and enioye the good in the lande/ and that ye and your chyldren may haue the inherytaunce of it for euermore. And after that all theſe thynges are come vpon vs (bycauſe of our euyl dedes and great treſpaſſes) ✡ thou our god haſt ☞ thruſt downe our wyckedneſſes, and haſt gyuen vs a delyueraūce, ✡ (as it is come to paſſe this day. And yf we turne backe agayne, to let go thy cōmaundementes, and make contracte with the people of theſe abhominacyons, wylte thou not then be wroth at vs, (and not without cauſe) tyll we be vtterly conſumed, ſo that nothynge remayne, and tyll there be no delyueraunce? O Lorde god of Iſrael, thou art ryghteous, for we remayne yet eſcaped, as it is to ſe this daye. Beholde alſo, in thy preſence are we in oure treſpaſſes/ and bycauſe of it may we not ſtande before the.

¶ The people repente, and turne: and put awaye theyr ſtraunge wyues.

CAPI. X.

AND when * Eſdras prayed after this maner, and knowledged, wept, and lay before the houſe of God/ there reſorted vnto hym out of Iſraell a very greate congregacyon of men/ and women/ and Chyldren: and the people wept very ſore. And Sechania the ſon of Iehiell one of the chyldren of Elam, anſwered, and ſayde vnto Eſdras: We haue treſpaſſed agaynſt our god, & haue taken ſtraunge wyues of the people of the lande. Nowe there is hope yet in Iſraell concernynge this thyng: For nowe we wyl make a couenaunt with our god, and put away all the wyues (and ſoch as are borne of them) accordynge to the counſayle of the Lorde, and we wyll be in the feare of the cōmaūdementꝭ of our God, that we maye do accordynge to the lawe. Get the vp, for this matter belōgeth vnto the. We alſo wyl be with the, be of good comforte therfore, and do it. A 1. Eſdr. 8. 8

* Then roſe Eſdras, and toke an othe of the cheyfe Preeſtes and Leuites, and of all Iſraell/ that they ſhulde do accordynge to this word: and they ſware. And Eſdras ſtode vp from before the houſe of God, and wente in to the chamber of Iohanan the Sonne of Eliaſib. And when he came thyther, he dyd eate no bread, nor drynke water: for he mourned bycauſe of the tranſgreſſyon of the peple that had ben in captiuyte. And they cauſed a proclamacyon to go thorowout Iuda, and Ieruſalem/ vnto all the chyldren whiche had ben in captiuyte, that they ſhuld gather them ſelues togyther vnto Ieruſalem: And that whoſoeuer came not within thre dayes accordyng to the deuyce of the rulers and Elders/ al his ſubſtaunce ſhulde be forfet, & he ſhuld be put out from the congregacion of the captyue. Then all the men of Iuda and Beniamin gathered them ſelues togyther vnto Ieruſalem within thre dayes, euen the twentye daye of the nyenth moneth: and all the peple ſat in the ſtrete before the houſe of God/ and trembled bycauſe of this matter, and for the 1. And Eſdras the preeſt ſtode vp, and ſayd vnto them. • Ye haue tranſgreſſed, and haue taken ſtraūge wyues, to make the treſpaſſe of Jſraell yet more: confeſſe nowe therfore vnto the Lorde god of your fathers, and do his pleaſure, and ſeperate your ſelues frō the people of the lande, and from the ſtraūge wyues. And all the congregacyon anſwered/ and ſayde with a loude voyce: It ſhall be ſo/ and we wyll do as thou haſt ſayde. But the people are many, and it is a raynye wether, and the people are to faynt to tarye without in the ſtreete, neyther is this a worke of one daye or two/ for we haue offended very ſore in this thynge. Let our rulers ſtand therfore in all the cōgregacyon, and let al them which haue taken ſtraunge wyues in oure Cityes come at the tyme appoynted, and let the Elders of euery citye and theyr Judges be with them, tyll they haue turned the wrath of oure god away from vs concernyng this matter.

C Then were appoynted Jonathan the ſon of Aſahel, and Jahaſia the ſonne of Thekua ouer this matter: And Meſullam and Sabathai the Leuites helped them. And the chyldren of the captiuyte dyd euen ſo. And Eſdras the preeſt, and the auncient heades thorowe the houſe of theyr Fathers, (all men of great fame) ſeperated them ſelues, and ſat them downe on the fyrſt day of the tenth moneth, to examen the matter. And vntyll the fyrſt day of the fyrſt moneth they were fynyſſhynge the buſyneſſe with all the men that had taken ſtraunge wyues. And amonge the chyldren of the preeſtes there were men foūd that had taken ſtraunge wyues, namely amonge the chyldren of Jeſua the ſon of Joſedec and of his brethren, Maſiah, and Eliezer, Jarib & Gedalia. And they gaue theyr hande there vpon, that they wolde put awaye theyr wyues, and for theyr treſpaſſe offerynge, to gyue a Ram for theyr treſpas. And among the chyldren in Emer, Honani, and Zabadia. C The ſecond boke of Eſdras, otherwyſe called the Boke of Nehemia.

C Nehemia, butler to kynge Artharſaſtes, prayeth to God for the people.

CAPI. Primo.

A The wordes of Nehemia/ the ſonne of Hachalia. It fortuned in the moneth ☞ Chiſleu in the twentye yere, that I was in the caſtell at Suſan: and Hanani one of my brethren came with certayne men of Juda, & I aſked them howe the Jues dyd that were delyuered & eſcaped from the captiuyte, and howe it went at Jeruſalem. And they ſayde vnto me: The remenaunt of the captiuyte are there in the land in great miſfortune and rebuke. • The wall of Jeruſalem alſo is broken downe/ and the gates therof are burnte with fyre.

B It fortuned/ that when I herde theſe wordes/ I ſat me downe and wepte/ and mourned cer tayne dayes, and faſted / and prayed before the god of heuen/and ſayde. O Lorde god of heuen/thou great and terryble God / * thou that kepeſt couenaunt and mercye for them that loueth the, and obſerue thy cōmaundementes: let thyne eares herken/ I beſech the/ and let thyne eyes be open /that thou mayeſt heare the prayer of thy ſeruaunt, whiche I praye nowe before the / daye and nyght / for the chyldren of Iſraell thy ſeruauntes / and knowledge the ſynnes of the chyldren of Iſraell/whiche we haue ſynned agaynſt the.

C I and my fathers houſe haue ſynned. we haue bene vtterly dyſperſed from thy lawe/ and haue not kepte thy commaundementes/ ſtatutes and lawes/whiche thou commaundedſt thy ſeruaunt Moſes. I beſeche the/call to remembraunce the worde that thou commaũdedſt thy ſeruaunt Moſes / and ſaydeſt: Ye wyll tranſgreſſe/ and * I wyl ſcatter you abrode amonge the nacions. But yf ye turne vnto me/ and kepe my cōmaũdementes and do them: though ye were caſt out vnto the vttermooſt parte of heuen / yet wyll I gather you from thence / and wyll brynge you vnto the place/that I haue choſen to ſet my name there. They are thy ſeruauntes/and thy people/ whome thou haſt delyuered thorowe thy greate power, and in thy myghtye hande. O lorde/ I beſeche the/let thyne eare herken to the prayer of thy ſeruaunt/ & to the prayer of thy ſeruaũtes /whoſe deſyre is to feare thy name/and let thy ſeruaunt proſpere this day and graunt hym mercye in the ſyght of this man: for I was the kynges butlar.

¶ After Nehemia had obteyned letters of Artharerſes, he commeth to Jeruſalem, and buyldeth the walles.

CAPI. II.

A IT fortuned, that in the moneth * Niſan in the twentyeth yere of kynge Artharerſes, the wyne ſtode before hym, and I toke vp the wyne, and gaue it vnto the kyng, and I was heuy in his preſence. And the kynge ſayd vnto me: why lokeſt thou ſo ſadly, when thou art not ſycke? it is nothyng els, but that thou art heuy herted. And I was ſore afrayd, and ſayd vnto the kyng: God ſaue the kyngs lyfe for euer. Howe ſhulde I not loke ſadly/ when the cytye and place of my fathers buryall lyeth waſt, and the gates therof are conſumed with fyre? And the kynge ſayde vnto me: what is then thy requeſt? I made my prayer alſo to the God of heuen, and ſayd vnto the kynge: yf it pleaſe the kyng, and yf thy ſeruaunt haue founde fauour in thy ſyght/ ſende me into Juda vnto the cytye of my fathers buryall, that I maye buylde it.

B And the kynge ſayde vnto me (the quene his wyfe ſyttynge by hym) howe longe ſhall thy iourney contynue, and when wylt thou come agayne? And it pleaſed the kynge to ſende me, and I ſet hym a tyme, and ſayd vnto the kynge: yf it pleaſe the kynge, let hym gyue me letters to the captaynes whiche are beyonde the water, that they may conuey me ouer, tyll I come in to Juda: and letters vnto Aſaph the Lorde of the kynges wood, that he maye gyue me tymber to make beames for the gates of the palace (which is herde by the houſe) and for the walles of the cytye, and for the houſe that I ſhall entre into. And the kynge gaue me accordynge to the hande of my god, whiche was good vpon me. And when I came to the captaynes beyonde the water, I gaue them the kynges letters: And the kynge had ſent captaynes and horſemen with me. Sanabalat alſo the Horonite and Tobia a ſeruaunt (the Ammonite) herde of it, & it greued them ſore, that there was come a man whiche ſought the welth of the chyldren of Iſraell.

C And I came to Jeruſalem, and was there thre dayes, and I gat me vp in the nyght ſeaſon, and a fewe men with me: neyther tolde I any man, what God had gyuen me in my herte to do at Jeruſalem: and there was not one beaſt with me, ſaue it that I rode vpon. And I departed in the nyght by the valley porte, before the Dragon well, & to the dong porte, and conſydered the walles of Jeruſalem, howe they were broken downe, and the portes therof conſumed with the fyre. And I went ouer vnto the welporte, & to the kynges conduite, & there was no rowme for the beaſt that was vnder me, to paſſe. Then went I on in the nyght by the broke ſyde, and cōſydered the wall, and turned backe, and came home agayne by the valley porte.

D And the rulers knewe not whyther I went or what I dyd: neyther dyd I as yet tell it vnto the Jues, to the preeſtes, to the noble men/ to the rulers, and to the other that laboured in the worke. Then ſayde I vnto them: ye ſe the myſerye that we are in, howe Jeruſalem lyeth waſte, and howe the gates therof are burnt with fyre: come therfore, that we maye buylde vp the the walle of Jeruſalem, and that we be no more a rebuke. And I tolde them of the hande of my God, (that it was gracyous ouer me) and the kynges wordes that he had ſpoken vnto me. And they ſayd: let vs get vp and buylde: and they ſtrengthed theyr hande to good.

But when Sanabalat the Horonyte, and Tobia the ſeruaunt (an Ammonite,) & Geſem the Arabian herde it, they laughed vs to ſcorne, and mocked vs, and ſayde: What is this that ye do? wyll ye fall awaye from the kynge? Then anſwered I them, and ſayd: the God of heuen, he it is that hath graunted vs proſperite: & we be his ſeruauntes. Let vs get vp & buylde. As for you/ ye haue no porcyon nor ryght/ nor remembraunce in Jeruſalem.

B But the great men that were among them, putte not theyr neckes to the worke of theyr Lorde. D But the Dongeporte buylded Melchiah the ſonne of Rechab, the ruler of the fourth parte of Bethcharr: he repayred it, and ſet on the dores, lockes and barres therof. But the welgate repayred Sallum the ſon of Cholhoſah, the ruler of the fourth part of Mizpa. He buylded it, and layde the beames, and ſet on the dores, lockes/ and barres therof/ and the wall vnto the pole of Siloah by the kyngs garden, and vnto the ſteppes that go downe from the citye of Dauid. After hym buylded Nehemiah the ſonne of Aſbocke, the ruler of the halfe parte of Bethzur, vntyll the other ſyde ouer agaynſt the ſepulchres of Dauid/ and to the pole that was repayred, and vnto the houſe of the myghtye. Agayne, after hym brake forth Baruch the ſon of Zachai of indignacyon, and repayred the other pece from the turnynge corner vnto the dore of the houſe of Eliaſib the hygh preeſt. After hym alſo buylded Merimoth the ſon of Uria the ſon of Hacos the other pece/ from the dore of the houſe of Eliaſib, euen as longe as the houſe of Eliaſib extended. And bytwene the parloure of the corner vnto the ſhepe gate buylded the golde ſmythes and the merchauntes.

¶ The buyldynge of Jeruſalem is hyndered and let: but the Jues buylde it, beynge redy harneſſed, leſt theyr enemyes ſhulde inuade them.

CAPI. IIII.

A BUt whē Sanabalat herde that we buylded the wall, he was wrothe in hym ſelfe and toke great indygnacyon, & mocked the Jues, and ſayde before his brethren & the ſouldyours of Samaria: what do theſe impotent Jues? wyll the heathen ſuffre them? ſhall they offre? ſhal they perfourme it in one daye? ſhall they make the ſtones hole agayne that are brought to duſt, and burnt. And Tobiah the Ammonite was beſyde hym, & ſayd. Though they buylde, yet yf a foxe go vp, he ſhall breake downe theyr ſtonye wall. Heare (O thou our God) for we are deſpiſed, turne theyr ſhame vpon theyr owne heade, & gyue them ouer in to deſpiſyng in the land of theyr captiuite. Couer not theyr wyckedneſſe, and let not theyr ſynne be put out in thy preſence: for they haue prouoked the buylders. And ſo buylded we the wall, and it was ioyned hole togyther, vnto the halfe heyght therof. And the people were mynded to laboure.

B And it fortuned, that when Sanaballat, & Tobiah, & the Arabians, Ammonites, & Aſdodites herde, that the walls of Jeruſalem were made vp, & that the gappes began to be ſtopped, they were very wroth, and conſpired all togyther, to come and fyght agaynſt Jeruſalem, & to make the people an hynderaũce therin. Neuertheleſſe, we made our prayer vnto our god, & ſet watchmen by them, which buylded day and nyght ouer agaynſt them. And Juda ſayd, the ſtrength of the bearers is to feble, & there is yet moche morter, and we are not able to buylde on the wal, and our aduerſaryes ſayde: they ſhal not knowe neyther ſe, tyl we come in the myddes among them, and ſley them, and hynder the worke. But it fortuned, that when the Jues (whiche dwelte beſyde them) came, they tolde vs as good as ten tymes, that in all places where we go vnto, they are appoynted to fall vpon vs.

C Therfore ſet I the people after theyr kynreddes with theyr ſwerdes, ſperes and bowes beneth in the lowe places behynde the wall, & I loked, & gat me vp, & ſayde vnto the chyefe men, to the rulers, & to the other peple: be not ye afrayde of them, * but thynke rather vpon the great Lorde whiche ought to be feared, & fyght for youre brethren, your ſonnes, your doughters, your wyues, & your houſes. Neuertheles it chaũced, that when our enemyes herde, that we had gotten worde of it: God brought theyr counſayle to nought, & we turned all agayne to the wal, euery one vnto his labour. And from that tyme forth it came to paſſe, that the halfe parte of the yong men dyd the laboure, & the other halfe parte of them helde the ſperes, ſheldes, bowes, & breſt plates: and the rulers ſtode behynde al the houſe of Juda, whiche buylded on the wall, & bare burdens, from thoſe that laded them. With one hande dyd euery one worke, and with the other helde he his weapon.

1. Eſdra. i. b and. ij. c.

D And euery one that buylded, had his ſwerd gyrde by his thygh, and ſo buylded they. And the trompet blewe beſyde me. And I ſayd vnto the principal men, to the rulers, and to the other people: the worke is greate and large, and we are ſeparated vpon the wall one farre from an other. Loke in what place therfore ye heare the noyſe of the trompet, reſorte ye thyther vnto vs, * and our God ſhall fyght for vs, & we wyll be labouryng in the worke. And the halfe parte of them helde the ſperes from the mornynge ſprynge, tyll the ſterres came forth. And at the ſame tyme ſayd I vnto the people: euery one abyde with his ſeruaunt at Jeruſalem, that in the nyght ſeaſon we may watche, and labour on the day tyme. As for me and my brethren, my ſeruauntes, and the men of the watche (whiche were behynde me) we put neuer of oure clothes, no more then the other dyd theyr harneſſe, ſaue onely bycauſe of the water.

Exod.14.d.

¶ The people are vexed with hunger. He requireth not the lyuynge of a capitayne.

CAPI. V.

A ANd there aroſe a greate complaynte of the people, and of theyr wyues agaynſt theyr brethren the Jues. For there were ſome that ſayde: our ſonnes and doughters and we are to many, therfore wyll we take corne for them, that we may eate, and lyue. Some alſo there were that ſayde: let vs ſet our landes, vyneyardes & houſes to pledge, and take vp corne in the derth. But ſome there were that ſayde: let vs borowe money for the kynges tribute and that vpon our landes and vyneyardes. Beholde, oure bodyes as the bodyes of our brethren, & oure chyldren as theyr chyldren: els ſhulde we ſubdue our ſonnes & doughters vnto bondage, and ſome of our doughters are ſubdued vnto bondage allredy, and no ſtrength is there in our handes, and other men haue our landes and vyneyardes.

B And when I herde theyr complaynte, and ſuche wordes, it diſpleaſed me ſore, and I aduyſed ſo in my mynde, that I rebuked the counſellours, and the rulers, and ſayde vnto them: euery one of you is to chargeable vnto his brother. And I brought a great congregacyon agaynſt them, and ſayd vnto them. We (after our abilite) haue bought our brethren the Jues, whiche were ſolde vnto the hethen. And wyll ye ſell your brethren agayn vnto the heathen, after that they haue bene ſolde vnto vs? Then helde they theyr peace, and coulde fynde nothynge to anſwere. And Nehemia ſayde: It is not good that ye do. Ought ye not to walke in the feare of God/ bycauſe of the rebuke of the heathen that are oure enemyes? I and my brethren, and my ſeruauntes do lende them money and corne: but as for vſurye let vs leaue it. Therfore, this ſame daye I praye you ſe that ye reſtore them theyr landes agayne/ theyr vyneyardes/ oyle gardens/ and theyr houſes/ and remytte the hundred parte of the money/ of the corne/ wyne and oyle that ye haue wonne of them.

C Then ſayde they: We wyll reſtore them agayne, and wyll requyre nothynge of them, and wyll do as thou haſt ſpoken. And I called the preeſtes, and toke an othe of them, that they ſhulde do ſo. And I ſhoke my lap, and ſayd, God ſhake out euery man after the ſame maner from his houſe & laboure, that maynteyneth not this worde: euen thus be he ſhaken out, and voyde. And all the cõgregacyon ſayde: Amen, and prayſed the Lorde. And the peple dyd ſo. And frõ the tyme forth that (the kynge) cõmytted vnto me to be a captayne of them, that were in the lande of Juda, euen from the twentye yeare vnto the .xxxii. yeare of kyng Arthaxerxes (that is twelue yeare) I with my brethrẽ lyued not of ſuch ſuſtenaunce as was gyuen to a captayne: for the olde captaynes that were before me, had bene chargeable vnto the people, and had taken of them breade and wyne, and .xl. ſycles of ſyluer: yea & theyr ſeruauntes had oppreſſed the people.

D But ſo dyd not I, and that bycauſe of the feare of GOD. But I laboured alſo in the worke vpon the wall, and bought no lande. And all my ſeruauntes came thyther togyther vnto the worke. Moreouer, there were at my table an hundred & fyftye of the Jues & rulers, whiche came vnto me, from among the hethen, that are about vs. And there was prepared for me dayly an oxe, and ſyx choſen ſhepe, and byrdes, & euer once in ten dayes a great ſũme of wyne. Yet requyred not I the lyuynge of a captayne, for the bondage was greuous vnto the people. * Thynke vpon me (my god) vnto the beſt, accordynge to all that I haue done for this people. [illegible]

¶ The buyldynge is yet agayne hyndered, and letted.

CAPI. VI.

A AND when Sanabalat, Tobiah and Geſem the Arabian, and the other of oure enemyes herde that I had buylded the wall, & that there were no mo gappes therin (howbeit at the ſame tyme had I not hanged the dores vpon the gates) Sanabalat & Geſem ſent vnto me, ſayenge: come, that we may mete & take counſel togyther in the vyllages that are in the playne of the citye Ono. Neuertheleſſe they thought to do me euyll. And I ſent meſſengers vnto them, ſayenge. I haue a great buſynes to do, and I can not come downe. The worke ſhulde ſtande ſtyll, yf I were neclygent, and came downe to you. Howbeit, they ſent vnto me as good as .iiii. tymes after the ſame maner, & I gaue them the ſame anſwere.

B Then ſent Sanabalat his ſeruaunt agayne vnto me the fyfth tyme, with an open letter in his hande, wherin was wrytten: it is tolde the heathen, and Geſem hath ſayde it, that thou, and the Jues thynke to rebell: for the whiche cauſe thou buyldeſt the wall, that thou mayeſt be theyr kynge in theſe maters, and haſte ordeyned the Prophettes to preache of the at Jeruſalem, and to ſaye: He is kyng of Juda. And nowe ſhall this come to the kynges eares: come now therfore, and let vs take our counſel togyther. And I ſent vnto hym, ſayenge: There is no ſuche thynges done as thou ſayſt: for thou fayneſt them out of thyne owne herte. For they were all mynded to make vs afrayde, ſayenge: they ſhall withdrawe theyr handes from the worke, that it ſhall not be fynyſſhed. Howbeit, I ſtrengthed my hande the more.

C And I came vnto the houſe of Semaia the ſonne of Delaia, the ſon of Meheteabeel, and he had ſhut hym ſelfe within, and ſayde: let vs come togyther into the houſe of God, euen vnto the myddes of the temple, & ſhut the dores of the temple: for they wyll come to ſley the, yea euen in the nyght wyll they come to put the to death.

And I ſayd: ſhulde any ſuche man as I flee?

Who is that, beynge as I am, that wyll go in to the temple, to ſaue his lyfe? I wyll not go in. And I perceyued, that god had not ſent hym: yet ſpake he prophecie vpō me, neuertheleſſe Tobiah and Sanaballat had hyred hym for money. Therfore toke he the money that through feare I ſhulde ſo do, & ſyn: that they myght haue an euyll reporte of me to blaſpheme me. My God thynke thou vpō Tobiah, and Sanaballat, accordynge vnto theſe theyr workes, and of the prophet Noadia, and of the other prophettes, that wolde D haue put me in feare. And the wall was fynyſſhed on the fyue and twentye daye of the moneth Elul, in two and fyftye dayes. And when all our enemyes herde therof, al the hethen that were aboute vs, were afrayde, and theyr courage fayled them. And they perceyued, that this worke came of our god. And at the ſame tyme were there many of the cheyfe of Juda, whoſe letters wente vnto Tobiah, & agayne from Tobiah vnto them (for there were many in Juda that were ſworne vnto hym: for he was the ſonne in lawe of Sechania the ſonne of Arah, and his ſonne Jehonathan had the doughter of Meſullam the ſonne of Barachia, and they ſpake good of hym before me, and tolde hym my wordes) & Tobiah ſent letters to put me in feare.

¶ After the walle once buylded is the watche appoynted. They that returned from the captiuyte are nombred.

CAPI. VII.

A Now whē the wall was buylded, I hanged on the dores alſo, and the porters, ſyngers and Leuites were appoynted. And I commaunded my brother Hanani, and Hanania the ruler of the caſtel at Jeruſalem (for he was a faythfull man, and feared God more then dyd many other) and I ſayd vnto them: let not the gates of Jeruſalem be opened, vntyll the ſonne be hote. And whyle they were ſtandynge in the watche, they ſhut the dores and barred them. And we appoynted certayne cityſens of Jeruſalem to be watche men, euery one to kepe his watche, and euery one to be ouer agaynſt his houſe. As for the citye, it was large of rowme, and great, but the people were fewe therin, and the houſes were not buylded. And God gaue me in my B herte, that I gathered togyther the principal men, and the offycers, and the people, to nombre them, & I found a regiſter of the nombre dr.ii.a. of them, which came vp before out of the captiuite: and founde wrytten therin. Theſe are the ſonnes of the lande, that went vp frō the captiuyte of the caryenge awaye (whom Nabuchodonozer the kynge of Babilon had brought awaye) and came agayne to Jeruſalem and Juda, euery one vnto his citye. They whiche came with Zorobabel are theſe Jeſua, Nehemia, Azariah, Raamia, Nahamani, Mardochee, Belſam, Meſperath, Beguai, Nahum & Baanah. This is the nombre of the men of the people of Iſraell. And ſeuen dayes helde they the feaſt, and on the eyght day, the gatheryng togyther, accordynge vnto the maner.

All the Leuites in the holy citye were ii.Para.9.c two hundred foure ſcore and foure. * And the porters Akub and Talmon, and theyr brethren that kepte the portes, were an hundred ſeuentye ⁊ two. As for the reſydue of Jſrael, the preeſtes ⁊ Leuites, they were in all the cityes of Juda, euery one in his enheritaunce. And the Nethinims dwelte in Ophel, ⁊ Ziba and Giſpa was ſet ouer the Nethinims. The ouerſeer of the Leuites at Jeruſalem, was Uſi the ſon of Baani, the ſon of Haſabia, the ſon of Mathania, the ſon of Micha.

Of the chyldren of Aſaph there were ſyngers aboute the buſynes in the houſe of god: D for it was the kynges cõmaundement concernynge them, that the ſyngers ſhulde deale faythfully euery day as was accordyng. And Pathaia the ſonne of Meſebabel of the chyldren of Zerah the ſon of Juda nexte the kyng in all matters concernyng the people, ⁊ theyr villages, and landes. The ſumme of the chyldren of Juda that were without in the townes of theyr lande, dwelte at Kariath Arbe, ⁊ in the villages therof: at Dibon, ⁊ in the villages therof: and at Jecabzeel, and in the villages therof: at Jeſua, Moladah, Bethphalet in the towne of Sual: Beer ſeba, and in theyr villages, at Sikelag ⁊ Moconah, and in theyr villages: And at Enremon, Zarah, Jerimuth, Zonoa, Odollam ⁊ in theyr vyllages: At Lachis, and in the feldes therof: At Aſeka, ⁊ in the villages therof: ⁊ they dwelte from Berſabe vnto the valley of Hinnom.

The chyldren alſo of Beniamin of Geba dwelte at Machmas, Aia, Bethel ⁊ in theyr vyllages. And at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, Hazor, Ramah, Gethaim, Hadid, zeboim, Nabalath, Lod, and Ono, the carpenters valley. And the Leuites had poſſeſſion both in Juda and in Beniamin.

¶ The preeſtes and Leuites whiche came with Zorobabel to Jeruſalem, are numbred: and the wall is dedicate.

CAPI. XII.

These are the preeſtes and Leuites that A went vp with Zorobabell the ſonne of Salathiel and with Jeſua: Saraia, Jeremy, and Eſdras, Amaria, Maluch, Hatus, Sechania, Rehum, Merimoth, Jddo, Genthoi, Abia, Miamin, Maadia, Belga, Semaia, Joiarib, Jadaia, Salu, Amok, Helkia and Jadaia. Theſe were the heades amonge the preeſtes, and theyr brethren, in the dayes of Jeſua. The Leuites were theſe: Jeſua, Bennui, Cadmiel, Serabia, Juda, and Mathania, whiche was ouer the offyce of thankes geuynge, he and his brethren: Bacbukia and Hinni and theyr brethren, were aboute them in the watches. Jeſua begat Joakim, Joakim alſo begat Eliaſib, ⁊ Eliaſib begat Joiada. Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathã begat Jadua. In the dayes of Joakim were theſe the chefe fathers amonge the preeſtes: vnder Saraia, Maraia, vnder Jeremy, Hanania: vnder Eſdras, Meſullam: vnder Amaria, Jehoanan: vnder Milico, Jonathan vnder Sebania, Joſeph: vnder Harim Adna vnder Miraioth, Helca: vnder Iddo, Zachary: vnder Genthō, Meſullam: vnder Abia, Zichri: vnder Miniamin, & Moadia, Pilcai: vnder Belga, Samua: vnder Semeia / Jehonathan: vnder Joiarib / Mathenai: vnder Jadaia, Uſi: vnder Selai, Kelai: vnder Amok / Eber: vnder Helchia, Haſabia: vnder Jadaia

B Nathanaell. And in the tyme of Eliaſib: Joiada / Johanan & Jadua / were the cheyfe fathers amonge the Leuites and the preeſtes / wrytten vnder the reygne of Darius the Perſian. The chyldren of Leui, the pryncipall fathers were wrytten in the Cronicles / vntyll the tyme of Jonathā the ſon of Eliaſib. And theſe were the cheyf among the Leuites, Haſabia, Serebia & Jeſua the ſon of Cadmiel / and theyr brethren in theyr preſence, to gyue prayſe & thankes / accordynge as Dauid the man of god had ordeyned it, one watch ouer agaynſt another. Mathania, Balbukia, Obadia, Meſullam, Talmon, and Akub were porters in the watch at the threſholdꝭ of the gates. Theſe were in the dayes of Joiakim the ſonne of Jeſua, the ſonne of Joſedec, and in the dayes of Nehemia the captayne, and of the preeſt Eſdras the ſcrybe. And in the dedycacyon of the walle at Jeruſalem, they ſought the Leuites out of all theyr places / that they myght be brought to Jeruſalem / to kepe the dedicacyon & gladneſſe, with thankꝭ geuynge, & ſyngyng with cymbals, pſaltries and harpes. And the chyldren of the ſyngers gathered them ſelues togyther frō euery ſyde out of the playne countrey aboute Jeruſalem, and from the vyllages of Nethophathi, from the houſe of Gilgall, and out of the cōtreyes of Geba & Aſmaueth: for the ſyngers had buylded them vyllages rōde about Jeruſalem. And the Preeſtes and Leuites were purified, and clenſed the people, and the gates and the walle.

C And I brought the prynces of Juda vp vpon the walle, and appoynted two greate queers of men to gyue thankes, whiche went on the ryght hande of the wall towarde the donggate, & after them went Hoſaia, & halfe of the prynces of Juda / & Aſaria / Eſdras / & Meſullam, Juda, Beniamin, Semeia and Jeremy: and certayne of the preeſtꝭ chyldren with trompettes, namelye Zachary the ſonne of Jonathan, the ſon of Semeia / the ſon of Mathania, the ſon of Michaia / the ſonne of Zacur, the ſon of Aſaph, & his brethren Semeia, Aſareell / Melalai / Gilalai / Maai / Nathanael, & Juda / and Hanani with the muſicall inſtrumentes of Dauid the man of God. And Eſdras the ſcrybe wente before them, and beſyde the welgate, they went vp ouer agaynſt them vpon the ſteppes of the Citye of Dauid at the goynge vp of the wall beyonde the houſe of Dauid, vnto the watergate eaſtwarde. The other queer of them that gaue thankꝭ, went ouer agaynſt them, and I after them, & the halfe parte of the people vpon the walle, beyonde the fornace gate, vntyll the brode wall / & beyonde the porte of Ephraim, and beyonde the Oldgate, beyonde the fyſhgate, & the towre of Hananeel, and the towre of Mea, vntyll the Shepegate.

D And they ſtode ſtyl in the pryſon gate / and ſo ſtode the two queers (of them that gaue thankes) in the houſe of God, and I and the halfe of the rulers with me / and the preeſtes / namely Eliakim, Maaſia, Miniamin / Michaia / Elioenai / Zachary and Hanania, with trompettes, & Maaſia, Semeia, Eleaſar, Uſi / Jehohanan / Melchiah / Elam and Ser. And the ſyngers ſange loude / hauyng Jeſrahiad for theyr ouerſeer. And the ſame daye / they offered greate ſacrifyces & reioyſed: for god had gyuen them great gladneſſe, ſo that both the wyues & chyldren were ioyfull, & the myrth of Jeruſalem was herde far of. At the ſame tyme were there men appoynted ouer the treaſure houſes (wherin were the heueofferynges, the fyrſtlyngꝭ and the tythes) that they ſhuld gather them out of the feldꝭ about the cityes, to deſtribute them vnto the preeſtꝭ and Leuites accordyng to the lawe: for Juda was glad of the preeſtes, & Leuites, that they ſtode & wayted vpon the offyce of theyr God, which is a pure offyce. And the ſyngers and porters ſtode after the cōmaundement of Dauid & of Salomon his ſon: * for in the tyme of Dauid & Aſaph, were the cheyfe ſyngers founded, & the ſonges of prayſe and thankes geuyng vnto god. In the tyme of Zorobabel & Nehemia, dyd all they of Iſraell, gyue porcyons vnto the ſyngers, and porters, euery day his porcyon, & they gaue tythes vnto the Leuites: and the Leuitꝭ gaue tythes agayne, vnto the chyldren of Aaron.

i. Par. 25. a

¶ The lawe is red, and when they haue herde it, they ſeperate from them all ſtraungers.

CAPI. XIII.

A And that daye dyd they rede in the boke of Moſes & the peple herkened therto / and there was founde wrytten therin / * that the Ammonytes & Moabites ſhulde neuer come in to the congregacyon of God / bycauſe they met not the chyldren of Iſraell with breade & water, * but hyred Balaam agaynſt them, that he ſhulde curſe them: & our God turned the curſe in to a bleſſynge.

Deut. 23. A

Nu. 22. a

Nowe when they herde the lawe, it fortuned, that they ſeparated from Iſraell, euery one that had myxte hym ſelfe therin. And before this, had the preeſt Eliaſib the ouerſyght of the treaſury of the houſe of our god, ⁊ he was kynſman vnto Tobia: and had made hym a greate chambre, ⁊ there had they before tyme layed the offerynges, frankenſence, veſſell/ and the tythes of corne, and wyne and oyle (accordynge to the cōmaundement gyuen to the Leuites, ſyngers ⁊ porters) and the heue offerynges of the preeſtes. But in al this tyme was not I at Ieruſalem: for in the xxxii. yere of Artharexes kyng of Babilon, came I vnto the kynge, ⁊ after certayn dayes opteyned I licence of the kynge to come to Ieruſalem.

B And I gatte knowledge of the euyll that Eliaſib dyd vnto Tobia, in that he had made hym a chambre in the courte of the houſe of god, and it greued me ſore, ⁊ I caſt forth all the veſſels of the houſe of Tobia out of the chambre, and cōmaunded them to clenſe the chambers. And thyther brought I agayne the veſſels of the houſe of god, with the meat offerynge, ⁊ the inſence. And I perceyued/ that the porcyons of the Leuites were not gyuen them, ⁊ that euery one fled to his land, euen the Leuites: and ſyngers that executed the worke. Then reproued I the rulers, and ſayd: why is the houſe of god forſaken? And I gathered them togyther, ⁊ ſet them in theyr place. Then brought all Iuda the tythes of corne, and wyne and oyle vnto the treaſure.

And I made treaſurers ouer the treaſure/ euen Selemiah the preeſt, ⁊ Zadoc the ſcrybe/ and of the Leuites, Phadaia, ⁊ vnder theyr hande was Hanan the ſon of Zacur the ſon of Mathania: for they were coūted faythful, and theyr offyce was to dyſtrybute the porcyons vnto theyr brethren. * Thynke vpon me O my god herein, ⁊ wype not out my mercy that I haue ſhewed on the houſe of my god, and on the offyces therof. At the ſame tyme ſawe I ſome treadynge wyne preſſes on the Sabboth, ⁊ bryngyng in ſheaues, and aſſes laden with wyne, grapes, fygges and bryngynge al maner of burthens vnto Ieruſalem, vpon the Sabboth daye.

i. Eſdra. v. c

C And I rebuked them earneſtly the ſame daye that they ſolde the vyttayles. There dwelt men of Tire alſo therin, which brought fyſhe ⁊ all maner of ware, ⁊ ſolde on the Sabboth vnto the Chyldren of Iuda in Ieruſalem. Then reproued I the rulers in Iuda, ⁊ ſayde vnto them: what euyll thynge is this that ye do, ⁊ breake the Sabboth daye? Dyd not youre fathers euen thus, and oure God brought all this plage vpon vs ⁊ vpon this cytye? And ye make the wrath more yet vpon Iſraell, in that ye breake the Sabboth. And it fortuned, that when the porters of Ieruſalem began to be darke in the euenynge before the Sabboth, I cōmaunded to ſhut the gates, and charged/ that they ſhulde not be opened tyll after the Sabboth: ⁊ ſome of my ſeruaūtes ſet I at the gates/ that there ſhuld no burthen be brought in on the Sabboth day. Then remayned the chapmen and merchauntes once or twyce ouer nyght without Ieruſalem with all maner of wares. Then reproued I them ſore, ⁊ ſayd vnto them: why tary ye all nyght aboute the wall? Yf ye do it once agayne, I wyll laye handes vpon you. From that tyme forth came they no more on the Sabboth. And I ſayde vnto the Leuites that they ſhulde clenſe them ſelues, and that they ſhulde come/ and kepe the gates/ to halowe the Sabboth daye. Thynke vpon me (O my god) concernyng this alſo/ and ſpare me/ accordynge to thy great mercy.

D And at the ſame tyme ſawe I Iues/ that maryed wyues of Aſdod, of Ammon and of Moab/ and theyr chyldren ſpake halfe in the ſpech of Aſdod/ and coulde not ſpeake in the Iues language/ but by the tongue myght a man perceyue euery people. Then I reproued them/ ⁊ curſed them/ and ſmote certayne men of them, ⁊ made them bare/ and toke an othe of them by god: Ye ſhall not gyue youre doughters vnto theyr ſonnes/ neyther ſhall ye take theyr doughters vnto your ſonnes/ or for your ſelues. Dyd not Salomon the kyng of Iſraell ſyn for ſoch? and yet among many heathen was there no kyng lyke hym/ which was deare vnto his god/ and god made hym kynge ouer all Iſraell/ ⁊ yet neuertheles outlandyſh women cauſed hym to ſyne? Shal we then obeye vnto you, to do al this great euyl, and to tranſgreſſe agaynſt our god, ⁊ marry ſtraunge wyues? And one of the chyldren of Iehoiada the ſon of Eliaſib the hygh preeſt/ had made a contracte with Sanabalat the Horonite: but I chaced hym from me. (O my god) thynke thou vpon them that defyle the preeſthode, ⁊ the couenaunt of the preeſthode and of the Leuites. Thus clenſed I them from al ſoch as were outlandyſh, ⁊ appoynted the courſes of the preeſtes ⁊ Leuites, euery one in his offyce/ ⁊ to offer the wod at tymes appoynted, ⁊ the fyrſt fruytes. Thynke thou vpon me (O my god) for the beſt. AMEN.

The boke of Eſther

¶ Kynge Ahaſuerus maketh a royall feaſte, wherunto the quene Vaſthi wyll not come, for which cauſe ſhe is deuorſed.

CAPI. Primo.

A IT fortuned in the dayes of Ahaſuerus which reygned from India vnto Ethiophia (ouer an hundreth and ſeuen and twentie landes) euen in thoſe dayes when the kynge Ahaſuerus ſat on his ſeate royal/ which was in Suſan the cheyfe citye/ in the thyrde yere of his reygne/ he made a feaſte vnto all his prynces and ſeruauntes. And the myghtye men of Perſia & Media, the captaynes alſo and rulers of his countryes were before hym and he ſhewed the ryches, and glorye of his kyngdome, and the gloryous worſhyp of his greatneſſe, many dayes longe, euen an hundreth and foure ſcore dayes.

B And when theſe dayes were expyred/ the kynge made a feaſt vnto all the people, that were in Suſan the cheyfe Citye, bothe vnto great & ſmall, ſeuen dayes longe in the court of the garden by the kynges palace: where there hanged whyte, grene, & yelow clothes/ faſtened with cordes of fyne ſylke, & purple in ſyluer rynges, vpon pyllers of Marble ſtone. The benches alſo were of gold & ſyluer made vpon a pauement of grene, whyte, yelowe, and blacke Marble. And they dranke in veſſels of golde, & chaunged veſſell after veſſell. And the kyngs wyne was moch, accordynge to the power of the kynge. And the drynke was ſo appoynted that noone ſhulde compell any man, for ſo the kynge had commaunded by the offycers of his houſe, that euery one ſhulde do as it lyked hym. And the quene Vaſthi made a feaſt alſo, for the women in the palace of Ahaſuerus. And on the ſeuenth daye when the kyng was mery after the wyne, he cõmaunded Mehuman/ Biztha Harbona/ Bigtha/ Abagthan/ Zethar & Carchas, the ſeuen chamberlaynes (that dyd ſeruice in the preſence of kynge Ahaſuerus) to fetch the quene Vaſthi with the crowne regal into the kynges preſence that he might ſhew the people and prynces her fayrneſſe, for ſhe was beautyfull.

C But the quene Vaſthi wolde not come at the kynges worde by his chamberlaynes. Then was the kynge very wroth, and his indygnacyon kyndled in hym. And the kynge ſpake to the wyſe men, that had vnderſtandynge in the ordynaunces of the lande/ for the kynges matters muſt be handled before all ſoch as haue knowledge of the lawe and iudgement: and the ✲ (cheyfe and) nexte vnto hym were/ Carſena/ Sethar/ Admata, Tharſis/ Mares/ Marſena, & Mamucan, the .vii. prynces of Perſia, and Media, whiche ſawe the kynges face, & ſat aboue in the kyngdom. What lawe (ſayeth the kyng) ſhulde be executed vpõ the quene Vaſthi/ bycauſe ſhe dyd not accordyng to the worde of the kyng Ahaſuerus, which he cõmaunded by his chamberlaynes? And Memucan anſwered before the kynge & the prynces: the quene Vaſthi hath not only done euyll agaynſt the kynge/ but alſo agaynſt all the prynces & agaynſt all the peple that are in all the landes of kyng Ahaſuerus: for this dede of the quene ſhall come D abrode vnto all women, ſo that they ſhall deſpyſe theyr huſbandes before theyr eyes, & ſhall ſaye: the kynge Ahaſuerus cõmaunded Vaſthi the quene to be brought in before him but ſhe wolde not come. And ſo ſhall the princeſſes in Perſia, & Media ſay lykewyſe vnto all the kynges prynces, when they heare of this dede of the quene, thus ſhall there aryſe to moch deſpytefulneſſe & wrath. Yf it pleaſe the kynge therfore, let there go a cõmaundement from hym, & let it be wrytten accordyng to the lawes of the Perſians & Medians (& not to be tranſgreſſed) that Vaſthi come no more before kyng Ahaſuerus, & let the kyng gyue her kyngdom vnto another, that is better then ſhe. And when this cõmaũdement of the kynge (which ſhall be made) is publyſſhed thorowout all his empyre (whiche is great) all women ſhall holde theyr huſbands in honour both amonge great and ſmall.

This pleaſed the kynge & the prynces: and the kyng dyd accordyng to the worde of Memucan. For he ſent letters forth in to all the kynges landes, into euery lande, accordynge to the wrytynge therof, and to euery people after theyr language, that euery man ſhulde be lorde in his owne houſe. And this cauſed he to be ſpoken after the language of his people.

¶ After the quene is put awaye, certayne goodly yonge damſels are ſearched out. Ediſſa (otherwyſe called Eſther) pleaſeth the kynge, and is made quene. Mardocheus openeth vnto the kynge/ thoſe that wolde betray hym.

CAPI. II.

A AFter theſe actes, when the dyſpleaſure of kynge Ahaſuerus was nowe layde, he thought vpon Vaſthi, and what ſhe had done, and what was concluded agaynſt her. Then ſayde the kynges ſeruauntes that mynyſtred vnto hym: Let there be fayre yong virgyns ſought for the kynge: and the kyng

appoynted certayne men in all the landes of his Empyre / whome he charged that they ſhulde brynge togyther all the fayre yonge virgyns vnto Suſan the heade Citye, to the womens buyldyng, vnder the hand of Hagei
the kynges chamberlayne, that kepte the women,
* to gyue them theyr apparel * (and other thynges neceſſarye to be had.) And that the damſell whiche pleaſed the kynge ſhulde be quene in Vaſthis ſteade. And this pleaſed the kynge, and he dyd ſo.

In the cytye of Suſan there was a Jue, whoſe name was Mardocheus, the ſonne of Jaer, the ſon of Semei the ſon Cis, a man of Jemini, which was caryed away from Jeruſalē, 4.Reg.24.c * when Jekonia the kyng of Juda was Jere.24.a led away, (whom Nabuchodonoſer the kyng of Babilon caryed thence) and he norySſhed Hadaſſa (that is Eſther) his vncles doughter:
for ſhe had neyther father nor mother, &
ſhe was a fayre and beutyful damſel: whom Mardocheus (when her father and mother was deade) receyued for his owne doughter.

So it fortuned that when the kynges cōmaundement
B and cōmyſſyon was publyſhed, and many damſels were brought togyther
in the cytye of Suſan vnder the hand of Hagei, Eſther was brought alſo vnto the kyngꝭ houſe vnder the hande of Hagei the keper of the women, and the damſel pleaſed hym, and ſhe founde fauour in his ſyght. And he cauſed ornamētes to be gyuen her & ſoch thyngꝭ
as belonged to her, and appoynted her ſeuen comly damſels out of the kynges houſe, and fauoured bothe her and her gentyll women ſyngularly in the houſe of the women. But Eſther ſhewed not her peple and her kynred:
for Mardocheus had charged her, that ſhe ſhulde not tell it. And Mardocheus walked euery daye before the courte of the womens houſe, that he myght know how Eſther dyd, and what ſhulde become of her. And when the appoynted tyme of euery damſell came/that ſhe ſhulde go in to the kyng Ahaſuerus, after that ſhe had ben twelue monethes in the deckynge of the women (for theyr deckynge muſt haue ſo moch tyme) namely ſyxe monethes with Balme and Myrre, and ſyxe monethes with good ſpyces (ſo were the women beautifyed) then went there one damſell
vnto the kyng, and whatſoeuer ſhe requyred * * (ſo that it were comely) that muſt be gyuen her to go with her out of the womens buyldynge vnto the kynges palace.

C In the euenyng ſhe went, and on the morowe agayne in to the ſeconde houſe of the women abydyng vnder the hand of Saaſgas the kynges chamberlayne, whiche kepte the concubynes. And ſhe came in vnto the kyng no more excepte it pleaſed the kynge to haue
her, and that he called her by name.

Nowe when the tyme came of Eſther the doughter of Abihan the vncle of Mardocheus (whiche had receyued her as his owne doughter) that ſhe ſhuld come into the kyng, ſhe deſyred nothynge, but what Hagei the kynges chamberlayne the keper of the women ſayde. And Eſther founde fauoure in the ſyght of all them that loked vpon her.
And Eſther was taken vnto kynge Ahaſuerus into his houſe royall / in the tenth moneth whiche is the moneth * Tebeth, in the Decem.
ſeuenth yere of his reygne. And the kyng loued Eſther aboue all the women, & ſhe found grace and fauoure in his ſyght before all the virgins: ſo that he ſet the crowne of the kyngdome
vpon her heade, and made her quene
in ſteade of Vaſthi.

D And the kynge made a greate feaſt vnto
all his prynces and ſeruauntes (which feaſt was bycauſe of Eſther) and cauſed the landꝭ to be in quyetneſſe, and gaue gyftes, as became the ryoaltye of a kynge. And when the virgyns were gathered togyther the ſeconde
tyme, Mardocheus ſat in the kynges gate.
And as yet had not Eſther ſhewed her kynred
and her people, accordynge as Mardocheus had bydden her: for Eſther dyd after the word of Mardocheus, lyke as yf ſhe had ben yet vnder his gouernaunce. At the ſame tyme, whyle Mardocheus ſat in the kynges gate, two of the kyngꝭ chamberlaynes Bygthan and Theres which kepte the dore, were wroth, and ſought to laye theyr handes on the kynge Ahaſuerus: wherof alſo Mardocheus gat knowledge, * & tolde it vnto quene Eſthe.
Eſther, and Eſther certifyed the kynge therof
in Mardocheus name. And when inquiſicion was made, it was founde ſo. And they were bothe hanged on tree: and it was wrytten
in the Cronicles before the kynge.

¶ Haman the Macedonian, after he was exalted, obteyned of the kynge that all the Jues ſhulde be put to death, bycauſe Mardocheus had not done hym worſhyp, as other had.

CAPI. III.

A After theſe actes dyd the kynge Ahaſuerus promote Haman the ſon of Amadatha
the Agagite, and ſet hym hygh/and ſet his ſeate aboue all the Prynces that he had with hym. And all the kynges ſeruauntes that were in the kyngꝭ gate, bowed theyr knees, and worſhypped Haman: for the kyng had ſo commaunded concernynge hym. But Mardocheus bowed not the knee, and worſhypped

ſhypped hym not. ¶ Then the kyngꝭ ſeruaũtes whiche were in the kynges gate, ſayde vnto Mardocheus: why tranſgreſſeſt thou the kynges commaundement? And when they ſpake thus dayly vnto hym, he folowed them not, and they tolde Haman, that they myght ſe howe Mardocheus matters wold endure: for he had tolde them, that he was a Iue.

B And when Haman ſawe that Mardocheus bowed not the knee vnto hym, nor worſhypped hym, he was full of indygnacyon, and thought it to lyttell to laye handes onelye on Mardocheus: for they had ſhewed him the nacyon of Mardocheus, wherfore he ſought to deſtroy all the Iues, that were thorowout the hole empyre of Ahaſuerus, and that were of the nacyon of Mardocheus. In the fyrſt moneth (that is the moneth Niſan) in the twelfe yere of kyng Ahaſuerus they caſt Phur (that is a lot) before Haman from daye to day, and from moneth to moneth, to the twelueth moneth that is the moneth Adar.

And Haman ſayd vnto kyng Ahaſuerus: C There is here a people ſcattered abrode, and dyſperſed amonge all peple in all the landes of thyne empyre, and they haue theyr lawes/ contrary from all peple, and do not after the kynges lawes, neyther is it the kyngꝭ profet to ſuffre them after this maner. If it pleaſe the kynge, let it be wrytten, that they may be deſtroyed, and ſo wyl I weye downe ten thouſand talentes of ſyluer, by the handes of the workemen/ to be brought in to the kynges treaſure. And the kynge toke his rynge from his hande, and gaue it vnto Haman the ſon of Amidatha the Agagite, the Iues enemye. And the kynge ſayde vnto Haman: Let the ſyluer be gyuen the, and do with that people as it pleaſeth the.

D Then were the kynges ſcrybes called on the .xiii. daye of the fyrſt moneth * (* Niſan) rche. and there was wrytten (accordynge as Haman cõmaunded) vnto all the kynges offycers and to the captaynes that were in al the landes, and to the rulers of euery people in the countryes on euery ſyde, accordynge to the wrytyng of euery nacyon, and after theyr language, in the name of kynge Ahaſuerus was it wrytten, and ſealed with the kynges rynge. And the wrytyngꝭ were ſent by poſtes in to al the kynges landes, to rote out, to kyl and to deſtroye all Iues, bothe yonge & olde, chyldren and women in one day (namely vpon the thyrtenth daye of the twelueth moneth/ uary. whiche is the moneth * Adar) and to ſpoyle theyr goodes. ¶ This was the ſumme of the wrytynge/ that there ſhulde be a cõmaundement gyuen in all landes, & publyſhed vnto all people, that they ſhulde be redy agaynſt the ſame daye. And the poſtes went in all the haſt, accordynge to the kynges commaundement. And in Suſan the cheyfe cytye was the cõmaundement deuyſed. And the kyng and Haman ſat and dranke: when in the meane tyme the cytye of Suſan was diſquieted.

C And when Hathath came in, he tolde Eſther the wordes of Mardocheus. And agayne, Eſther ſpake vnto Hathath, and cõmaunded hym to ſaye to Mardocheus: all the kynges ſeruauntes, and the people in the landes of the kyng, know that whoſoeuer cõmeth within the courte vnto the kynge, whyther it be man or woman, whiche is not called, the commaundement is, that the ſame ſhall dye, excepte the kynge holde out the golden ſcepter
